Titans Fall to State Cagers, 40-38 For Sixth Spartan Win of Season

MSC Forwards Gather 25 Points In Wild Battle

By ROGER CESSNA

With but a minute to play Sam Fortino dropped in a dog-shot that broke a tie and gave Michigan State a 40-38 win over a fighting University of Detroit quintet last night before 4,836 fans in Jenison fieldhouse.

CIO Steelmen Ask Truman For Action

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23 (AP)—The striking CIO steelworkers asked President Truman today to take immediate action for government operation of $1,000,000,000 worth of federally-owned steel plants or turn them over to individuals such as Henry J. Kaiser, the west coast steelmaker.

The union's 175-man wage policy committee, with members from 42 states, made the plea in a statement after a meeting here.

The committee also said the justice department should investigate a "conspiracy" among representatives of the large corporations meeting in New York during the first week of January to provide "wholesale cancellation of collective bargaining agreements as their first step to provoke strikes."

The committee called on President Truman to revise the tax laws which the committee said afforded "industrial magnates protection at the expense of the American taxpayers while engaged in the very conspiracy to reap uncontrolled profits through destruction of labor unions."

Victory Clothing Collection Drive Starts Today

Today marks the beginning of a seven-day Victory Clothing Collection drive sponsored by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation association, according to Shirley Hamelink, Lansing senior.

Again activities board of AWS will sponsor the drive. Collection boxes will be taken care of by several organizations.

PanHellenic council will distribute boxes to all sorority houses. Home Economics club will have a box in the Home Economics building. The Red Cross organization will handle off-campus and co-operative collection boxes, and Town Girls will sponsor a box in the Union.

SWL is in charge of posters for the drive.

Students Plan Medicine Ball For February

Medicine Ball, annual dance given by med techs and veterinary students will be held Saturday evening, Feb. 16 in Union ballroom from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight, according to chairman O. L. Smith, Dearborn senior.

Rosemary Howland's orchestra has been engaged for the closed occasion which will be semi-formal.

Douglas McCluskie, Northville senior, and Marion Thomas, Ishpeming junior, are in charge of entertainment.

Harry Blair, Hoosick Falls, N. Y., sophomore is in charge of lights and programs.

Queen Committee Don Schmidt, Wittenberg, Wis., sophomore, was appointed to invite patrons and guests. On the queen committee are Bob Rudesill, East Lansing junior, and Joyce Duttweiler, Pigeon sophomore.

News in Brief

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—The question of when the nation's dinner tables will get a normal supply of meat remained unanswered tonight despite President Truman's decision to seize strike-bound packing plants Saturday. Hours after the White House announced the agriculture department would become the country's boss butcher this weekend, the government lacked any pledge that 193,000 CIO strikers would return to work.

From an Ex-GI

Who's Afraid of A Colonel?

By JOHN MAUREN

Boy, what a field-day Colonel Snurd could have in the Union building!

There they are—hundreds of ex-GIs milling through the Union between classes and most of them garbed in some part of their former uniform.

First Shudder

At first I shuddered at seeing this, but when I realized that we are civilians again, and that there are no snooping MPs lurking in every corner to pounce on the GI not wearing his military regalia according to the books. Then I remembered Colonel Snurd. He's the guy that caught me with my khaki pants rolled up to my knees, my shirt sleeves rolled to the elbows, my tie battered to shreds, and with no cap on.

The colonel showed me no mercy, even though I had a very good excuse for looking like the "Lost Weekend."

If he were here on campus, on how the Colonel would boil to see the Union grill "commandos" all decked out with GI trousers and rich, red flannel shirts or flashy yellow socks peeking over the high tops of the GI shoes.

MP Mobs

MPs would mob sharpies wearing olive-drab shirts dyed blue and they would most certainly club any man to death who had a Varga version of "Betty Coed" splashed on the back of his combat jacket.

Ah yes, Colonel Snurd! Go to blazes, Colonel Snurd, because General Hannah is running this post!

Vets In Jenison To Occupy Wells

Vacancies in Wells hall made by the departure of the ASTPR will be filled by men now occupying Jenison fieldhouse, according to Tom King, housing director for veterans.

Those who cannot transfer to Wells hall will move into trailers as soon as that project is completed.

Jenison will not be vacated entirely as approximately 300 veterans are expected to enroll during the February registration.

A few men will leave the Union to stay at Wells. Many are remaining, however, due to the centralization of activities in the Union.

Abbot hall will retain three occupants to a room until completion of the new men's dorm.

It Doesn't Pay

It's like marrying the wrong woman with Paul Munson, Flint sophomore, who since the beginning of the term has gone to the library every night to study an economics text to study because he couldn't get it in the book store. The poor fellow was much taken aback when he learned yesterday that he's been reading the wrong book.

Outer Lobby Please

The essence of concentration was personified in Dave Nigland, a recently returned vet, when he, with nose in book, pulled out a cigarette in the library and would have lit up if it had not been for some friendly advice from across the table. Smoking in the outer lobby please.

Will Americans Ever Learn?

Every day the statement . . . "We have been taught many things by this war . . ." is heard, even as it was in 1919. The truth is self-evident, but will we capitalize on our knowledge or again let our protection dwindle and degenerate?

In 1920 the National Defense act was passed and appropriations made to activate it. It provided for a regular army of 14,000 officers and 280,000 enlisted men. The national guard and industrial preparedness completed the bill's provisions. Not a decade later, appropriations were decreased, further limiting the army.

If that had been our army in 1941 it can clearly be seen how our participation would have been retarded. At the outbreak of the war there were 1,500,000 men in the army, and it is common knowledge how inadequate this force was.

Congress today is again formulating a plan for the maintenance of peace and protection of the nation if peace is again lost. As the situation now stands, despite the lessons from the war, despite intelligent counsel from the army and navy, and repeated warnings from conditions in other countries, the draft seems due for the inactive list. Our army will again be a small standing force which will have to be inflated by wartime draft in case of an emergency.

Is it not better to sacrifice one year of your life to the country than to face the possibility of unpreparedness again?

Action should be taken now to see that our country, one of the foremost in the world, does not again become the helpless unprepared nation we were in 1917 and 1941.

AFTER much hiding under tables and coyly overhearing the latest scoop from the group, the news is of a big variety for a Thursday. Next time you see a couple of big ears coming out of nowhere and a pair of eyes that look like hearts you'll know it's just your devoted typewriter addicts with something new to blow about.

Rice is still floating around in this department after the volume of weddings over last weekend. Kappa Dottie Schneider, graduate of class of '45, went up the aisle to become the bride of Joe Bennett, Delta Sig from Albion.

Martha McDougall, Detroit sophomore, will settle down to the duties as housewife after her recent marriage to Wallace Geyer, just discharged from the air force.

Looking into the crystal ball the Kappas have a big schedule of marriages in the near future. Red letter day on the calendar is Feb. 2 when both Jane Kuykendall, June '45 grad from Birmingham, and June Fredericks, Grosse Pointe junior, will go up the aisle.

Prospective husband for Jane is Bob Seaholm, a former marine, and June's fiance is Dick Colville, State student and member of Delta Chi before going into the army.

Fraternity pins are cropping up in assorted places. Right now Pat Hall, Dearborn sophomore, has a Sigma Chi pin near her Delta Zeta pledge badge from an Ann Arbor interest. Original owner of the pin was Bob Bowersox, senior med student at Michigan.

Saturday night was the time that Don Robinson chose to put his pin in the trust of Jane Troupe. Don is a Pi Kappa Alpha at the University of Missouri. Both of the lucky people are from Jackson.

Union To Vote On School Strike Plan In Flint

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 23 (AP) — The CIO State, County and Municipal Workers union will meet Saturday to vote on a compromise plan to settle its wage dispute with the board of education. The union is objecting with the board that it has which 27,000 school children been allowed to attend schools which were closed three days last week because of picketing.

State Masseur Admired By All

Heppinstall Has Trained 'S' Athletes For 32 Years

By ART ROSS

One of the most well-liked personalities on State's campus is Jack Heppinstall, the athletic trainer. Starting his 32nd year as Spartan conditioner since arriving from his native Durham, England, Heppinstall has seen just about every great athlete Michigan State has produced.

His duties and obligations as trainer for all Spartan sports squads keep him quite busy at all times. However, the satisfaction he receives from his work is unestimable. Not only does Jack have to assist in rounding the various athletes into shape, but he must also be on hand at all MSC sport events in case of injury to any of the participants.

Consequently he has undoubtedly witnessed more Michigan State athletic events than anyone else in the history of the school. Jack has seen so many State performers in the past third of a century that it is difficult to single out a very few for individual praise, but there are naturally some who were more outstanding than others.

Like Griddler Julian Best

For instance, Heppinstall feels that the late Carp Julian was one of the greatest football players ever to compete for Michigan

State. Julian was a mashing fullback along about 1917.

In the past 10 years MSC has developed some excellent basketball players. One of the best, according to Jack, was Chet Aurbuchon, who is considered by many as the greatest eager ever to represent the Green and White. Also the national collegiate wrestling championship diet of the Jennings twins — Bo and Cut — hold a high place in the memory of the masseur of Spartan sports figures.

All-American Pingel

Then, of course, there is all-American Johnny Pingel, who established his reputation as a Spartan griddler in the late thirties on the clubs that beat Michigan several seasons in a row.

In Heppinstall's estimation the modern athletes differ from former greats in at least one important respect. He feels that in present day competition there is more specialization than there was in previous years. As a result of this concentration upon certain sports there are fewer three and four lettermen than formerly.

On the other hand, Jack feels that this condition has contributed greatly to the general improvement of the particular games involved. For example, most games have been "speeded up" somewhat in the past years and in addition the scientific element of play has been increased tremendously.

WOMEN'S • SPORTS

By MARGE McRAY

BADMINTON block playoffs will begin Monday from 5 to 6 each evening. Will the contestants please keep posted? Anybody who is interested in seeing good badminton is invited to attend these games.

The deadline for double entries is Feb. 1. Entry blanks can be had at Miss Lucille Dailey's office, number 9, in the Women's gym. Gloria Oster, manager, announced yesterday. Obtain your entry blanks early. The tournament will start Feb. 6 from 5 to 6 p.m.

Over the weekend the badminton enthusiasts have been going to town. In Block 1 Elizabeth Hammond has chalked up two more victories with Claire Neitz still trailing closely behind.

In Block 2 Dorothy Mulder rates mention with two victories also. Wilma Radchiff and Mary Sevens came in high for Block 3.

WAA basketball teams are still playing fast and furious with six games completed on Jan. 22. The Abbot-Ex's quieted the Wildcats with a 29-8 score, while the Smoothies gave the berries to the Berries, 10-6.

The Dribblers took a game from the Darts, 19-6, and the Floorburns beat West Mayo, 2-0. Sanford chalked up an impressive 31 against North. Campbell's 3 Steamteam and Lonely Hearts played an exciting game which ended with the Steamteam winning 22-15.

MISS Katherine Arnett announces that the Michigan division of the Amateur Fencers' League of America will hold its novice women's foil competition this Saturday in Women's gym starting at 1 p.m.

Outstanding contenders for first place include Marilyn Johnson of Michigan State, winner of this year's prep title; Martha Herbit, Detroit Salle de Tuscan, last year's second place novice winner; and Angela Karr, Detroit Salle de Tuscan fencing club, who took third place novice medal last year.

Sports staff will have its picture taken tonight at 7. All members please be in the office at that time.

State Hoopsters Hit Road; Meet Three Top Quintets

Taking off a week from this morning for South Bend, Ind., the Michigan State basketball players will begin their most grueling series of road games for the 1946 campaign, opening with Notre Dame that evening, taking on Kentucky in Lexington Saturday and swinging by Cincinnati Monday to meet the Reds Monday night.

Tough Schedule

Three ball games in five nights, with two of their opponents ranked close to tops in the nation, will really be a job for the Spartans. Even Cincinnati will be tough due to a combination of facts: the contest will be on the Reds' floor, State will have just finished taking on two giant killers, and the large amount of traveling that has to be done between stops.

If Coach Ben VanAlstyne's hoopsters can get away with a pair of wins they'll be doing very well. In both the Irish and Wildcat tills the Vannmen will be decided underdogs, so it will mean an uphill fight all the way.

Rolling Over Opponents

At present the Notre Dame eagles are rolling over all their foes with an all-veteran club featuring Lou Klier, who played with Great Lakes the past two winters, and Billy Hassett, younger brother of Buddy, the New York Yankee star first baseman.

During the 1942-43 season, Klier's last before donning the navy blue, the sharp-shooting forward dunked in a total of 293 points. Hassett was named on last winter's Pic magazine all-American quintet for his brilliant play at guard, where he hit 164 tallies. He holds the Irish scoring record for one game for a guard as a result of his 22 points against Marquette in 1945.

Johnny De and George Ratterman are two returning forwards. Both scored over 250 points in the 1945 season, having no trouble hitting the hoop from all angles. With Klier back in the fold, the Irish have a player who was the key factor in sparking the 1943-44 quintet with his 293 points.

Dick Ives, University of Iowa forward, holds the Big Ten individual scoring record for a single game, 43 points.

State Swim Team Seeks Third Win Against Purdue U.

Not sparing any blows, Michigan State's tank squad will seek its third win of the year against Purdue university tomorrow night in the Jenison pool at 7:30. This will be the third Big Ten school State has tackled, winning the first two by lopsided scores, 51 to 33 at Northwestern, and 48 to 36 against Illinois.

Tomorrow night's dual will provide a clue to what can be expected at the Michigan-MSU meet next week.

Working Veterans Hard

Coach McCaffree has been feverishly working with his returned veterans in an effort to round them into shape before the crucial contests that lie ahead. Coach Lou Zarza wants all varsity boxing candidates to meet in the boxing room at 5 Friday afternoon.

Abel Gilbert, Ecuadorian champion, is expected in the showing against Purdue tankster, Dick Hennigan in the distance free-style events, while Howard Patterson will return, after an attack of the flu, a heavy favorite to capture the backstroke event.

Dunbar in Diving

Freshmen John DeGroot and Jim Quigley will also see action in several events and relays. Don Dunbar will be out after his third win of the year in the diving department, while Paul Seibold will be McCaffree's choice in the breaststroke event.

the fans were constantly on their feet, and both teams matched four times, finally being tied up 14-14, as the lead changed by Matt Mazza's free throw, 22-20, with only two minutes to play.

At this point the Spartans took the ball, went down the floor, and Fortino laid up the game-winning basket.

Roberts Nets 12

For State Fortino, Roberts, and Waldron alternated in keeping the Spartans in the closely fought game. Fortino's 13 points being high. Roberts was close behind with 12 tallies and Waldron netted eight.

In losing the Titans ended a five game winning streak, but Ed in Ed Blutz an individual who led Fortino for the evening's point honors.

BULLETIN

ANN ARBOR — Athletic Director Fritz Crisler announced yesterday that his University of Michigan football team will meet Michigan State in the annual Wolverine-Spartan grid classic on Nov. 9.

This is the first time in many years that State has been scheduled with the U. of M. at such a late date in the season and will give Spartan coach, Charlie Bachman, a much better chance to get his team into shape for the biggest contest on the MSC card.
