Give, and Take

With advanced military students again being issued riding breeches, the timeworn new device of testing said garments is again in vogue. The men don the breeches, line up, about face, and touch the ground without bending their knees. Casualties are reduced free of cost.

Like Sardines

Sardines have both figurative and literal meaning for Marilyn Peterson, Detroit freshman, who is packed in a cozy cubicle with others at West Mayo. It took her the latter connotation when she presented her with a can of the fish that he found in his room at Wells hall.

Art Appreciation

A coed who planned to hear an art lecture by Walter Quirt in the music building viewing his exhibit when another woman student entered.

Silently the new-arrived woman scrutinized each example on display. No expression crossed her face until she reached the door on her way out. Then she looked back and murmured, "At last, I've found someone as crazy as I am."

New Mid-Winter Term Begins

More than 200 veterans and high school graduates have enrolled for the special mid-winter term. Robert S. Linton, registrar, announced. They were welcomed to State by President John Hannah at a convocation in the Grand theater yesterday.

Registration was held in the student lobby of College auditorium Monday afternoon, and continues this morning from 8 to 12 for those whose names begin with K-Z. Following registration, the new students will take placement tests in mathematics, English, and psychology, and they will begin classes Wednesday.

3 Million For State, Kelly Recommends

Governor Kelly in a special message to the legislature yesterday recommended a $3,000,000 appropriation for Michigan State college. This is in addition to the $806,000 voted last year.

This appropriation is $8,993,200 short of the financial aid requested by college president, John A. Hannah. A Senate finance committee and the House ways and means committee visited the campus a few weeks ago to see first hand the building needs of the college. They decided, however, that the full amount could not be granted at this time.

College Needs
 President Hannah had asked $700,000 for a new classroom, $11,618,200, for other instructional construction and $1,075,000 for a married veterans housing project and short course dormitory. Among the other colleges receiving funds were: University of Michigan, $3,300,000; Wayne university, $2,700,000; Central Michigan, $725,000; Michigan State Normal, $711,000, and Michigan College of Mines and Technology, $647,000.

Various institutions, hospitals, and sanitariums were also included on the list. The total appropriations amounted to $27,000,000.

Trust Fund
 The governor requested establishment of a $50,000,000 trust fund from the $51,000,000 post-war veteran reserve to insure against need among veterans. He also proposed an allocation of $1,000,000 for emergencies and a fund for student-veterans whose GI bill payments have been delayed.

Kelly urged legislation to permit acquisition of a new site for the Boys' Vocational school and recommended an appropriation of $100,000 toward a new site and plans.

Walter Quirt To Give Illustrated Lecture

"Love and Hate in Art" will be Walter Quirt's topic for tonight's lecture, as announced by the art department. The talk will take place in Music auditorium at 8:15. Quirt, assistant professor of literature and fine arts, is presented as part of the fine arts lecture series sponsored by the art department. Colored slides will be presented along with the lecture.

Campus Police: Scapegoats

By MYRA MAHLOW
 Students with cars on campus have had troubles. But so have the campus police. The student car ban was not a product of their ideas, so the next time there are strong objections to the rules, don't hike over to the power plant and rant.

The campus police force can't do a thing about it. The regulations were given to them by the State Board of Agriculture.

Like Dorm Rules
 The women realize how serious it can be to fail to follow dormitory rules, and most of the men have been in the armed forces enough to know that as long as the rule is there, it's best to keep it. The police force has to stick to the rules, too. Aside from the headache of seeing that 700 student cars and

USSR Injects Right of Veto

LONDON, Feb. 4 (AP) — Russia tonight injected the right of veto for the first time into the debate in the United Nations security council on the issue of British troops in Greece, but the council adjourned until tomorrow without reaching a decision.

The council session became stalled over an Egyptian resolution which would have stated that the British forces in Greece did not menace peace.

Russian Delegate
 Andrei Vishinsky, chief Russian delegate and Vice Commissar of Foreign Affairs, sought to invoke a provision of the United Nations charter under which the Big Five would have to vote unanimously on the Egyptian move to settle the case. Thus he apparently attempted to prevent adoption of the Egyptian proposal or any other resolution which would meet the British demand for a "clean bill" for British forces in Greece.

After long debate, Russia suddenly withdrew the demand that the council compel Britain to order her troops from troubled Greece—and asked instead only assurance that they would leave "as soon as possible."

Quota Is Doubled In East Lansing Clothing Drive

Final results of the clothing drive show that the East Lansing area has practically doubled its quota of 7000 articles of clothing by collecting 13,639 articles of clothing and 1612 pairs of shoes. The college contributed 743 articles of clothing and 150 pairs of shoes.

Mrs. Thomas Osgood, East Lansing chairman, announced that all organizations active in the East Lansing area contributed in the drive. Work groups met every Monday and Friday at Peoples church to mend and repair the contributions. A great many good-will notes written to the recipients of the articles came in with the contributions.

Anyone who has anything more to contribute should take it to Peoples church before tomorrow night, when everything will be shipped on its way overseas. The clothing drive is of great importance in keeping warm the population of Europe in clothing during the winter.

Lead Opposition Throughout Tilt; Run Up 31-17 Margin At Half Time

CINCINNATI, Feb. 4 (AP) — History missed repeating itself by one point here tonight as Michigan State cagers trounced the University of Cincinnati, 69 to 39. The Spartans won their first game at East Lansing several weeks ago 69 to 38.

U. of D., State Debate Today

Two debating teams from the University of Detroit are at MSC today to challenge State students according to Bernard J. Knittel, of the speech department.

Jack Walker, Port Austin senior, and Phil Hesby, Muskegon senior, will take the affirmative against the Detroit men's negative team in room 140 College auditorium at 2 p.m. Men's coach is Robert Starring of written and spoken English.

The State women's team, Fay Blakely, Rockford sophomore, and Bernice Cleland, Deckerville sophomore, will be taking the negative versus the Detroit women's affirmative in room 240 College auditorium at the same time. Bernard J. Knittel is the women's coach.

The questions to be debated by a men's team and a women's is: "Resolved that the foreign policy of the United States should be directed toward the establishment of a free trade among the nations of the world."

The debates, which will be judged, are open to anyone interested and will last slightly over the hour.

Labor Legislation Receives Support

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—The House overwhelmingly re-pushed today a move to scrap all pending labor legislation and forged ahead with consideration of sweeping strike-control proposals.

A 139 to 42 standing vote defeated a surprise parliamentary move by Rep. Celler (D-NY) to kill the pending bills by striking out all their provisions except the introductory "enacting clause." Celler said his aim was to forestall "hasty" and "bad" legislation.

The vote was the first chance foes of the far-reaching strike curbs had to test their strength and it indicated they would not get far when a final vote comes, probably late Wednesday.

One of the bills on which the House will be called upon to express its sentiment was introduced by Rep. Case (R-SD); with the backing of a strong group of Republicans and Democrats.

Sigler Reveals New Testimony

JACKSON, Feb. 4 (AP) — Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler today read into the record of the McKay liquor conspiracy trial testimony from Charles M. Webber, former distribution director for the State Liquor Control commission, that he went to Frank D. McKay of Grand Rapids for "his okay" before he got his job.

Michigan State won as it pleased, leading 9 to 5 at the end of the first five minutes of play and 31 to 17 at the half. The victory gave Michigan State an even break in 14 starts while the loss was Cincinnati's fourth in nine games this season.

Scoring honors, however, went to Bob Westerfeld, Cincinnati center, with 15 points—six baskets and three charity tosses. Guard Ollie White, topped Michigan State with 13, while teammates Sam Fortino, a forward, and guard Don Waldron each accounted for 11.

Magicians To Display Their Wares Tonight In Lansing YWCA

Tonight masters of the black art of legermain will hold forth in the Lansing YWCA. Four of the performers will be from campus: Prof. R. L. Bateman of the chemistry department, Prof. C. F. Cairy of the veterinary division, Prof. C. N. McCarty of chemistry and James Edwards, fine arts student.

Admittance to the show, which starts at 8 p.m., will be limited to personal friends of the magicians and by invitation only.

All the participants are members of the Magicians Guild of Lansing, an organization closely connected to the American Magicians Guild before the war.

Included in the night's selections will be such items as silk production, eyeless vision, telepathy and the topsy-turvy bottle.

THIS is worry week as far as State students are concerned. Requirements for participants are the usual thing with three hours sleep per night and black coffee every couple of hours. Tests are in the vogue and personalities are beginning to match the covers of these little blue-books.

But as the optimist looks at it, the sale of blue books is soaring. Looking at the rest of the world through our borrowed rose colored glasses the business in the hearts and flowers department has been going great guns, too.

Catching up on the back mail Loraine Van Covert, Saginaw junior, departed at the end of last term to be married. Her husband is David Rumsey, Phi Tau from State, now in his last year at the University of Michigan.

Switching over to engagements Bertha Lutz, Howell senior, has joined this status. Her fiance is Keith McTaggart, from Bad Axe, who has just returned from two years with the army in China.

Matrimonial plans are taking shape for Delta Zeta, Janet Brook, Holland sophomore, who plans to be married soon to Capt. Don Winter, of the army air corps.

Gamma Phi were surprised by the announcement of Nancy Stine's engagement to Bill Taylor, U. of M. graduate from Brooklyn. He is now with the navy. Nancy graduated from State last June.

Another gem with romantic gleam comes from the Gamma Phi with the pinning of Ruth Lake, East Lansing sophomore, to Phi Delta Dick Hart, Detroit junior.

The searching arm of the gossip monger got wind of another pinning in more southern parts of the country. Cpl. Carl Rush, State '46 now with the paratroopers in Fort Benning, Ga., passed his SAE pin to Edith Willingham, of Atlanta, Ga., a junior at Randolph-Macon.

Changing from the affairs of heart, we have news of some new officers and initiates.

Honesty, the Best Policy?

In some students the motivation to acquire high grades is greater than the motivation to be honest. Cheating in the classroom is a prevalent phenomenon these days.

It is most regrettable that our grading system elevates a good point average, above honesty in our standard of values, that integrity is subordinated to the scholastic record.

But how can it be otherwise when such emphasis is laid upon grading? Special prestige in our student body, in large part, depends upon how high a scholastic average one can maintain. No means can be too devious, no device too unscrupulous in pursuing this end.

Yet it should be understood that the students do not carry the burden of responsibility. Grading systems are the machinations of the faculty. If students resort to cheating it is because they find it feasible and profitable to do so.

As long as cheating can be done and not condoned by its results, it takes precedence over honesty.

Old Tradition

Sandy's Open for Business

Featuring full four course dinners, prepared to perfection, Sandy's Grill opened last week.

Actually the reopening of Sandy's was like the return of an old friend to the campus. Many of the returning veterans and those who stayed behind will remember the many happy hours spent over cokes and sandwiches there.

Also to be remembered are the caricatures that decorate the walls in the grill-room, and Sandy's will continue to follow the policy of serving private parties in the Blue room.

With the shortage of eating places in East Lansing, Sandy's will change their past policy of serving sandwiches, and cater almost exclusively to full dinner trade. However, for the later evening snacks, deluxe sandwiches will be served.

George, the competent, friendly chef, has a very fine background for his work. He was formerly with the Merchant Marine, and later held the job as chef at Wells hall.

As more and more former Spartans come back to campus, they will be happy to see the welcome sight of Sandy's lights burning again.

Michigan State Fair To Be Held This Year

LANSING, Feb. 4 (AP) — The Michigan State fair — resting in moth balls since 1942 — will be held again this summer if the Detroit fair grounds can be reconverted to peacetime appearances by March 1, the State Agriculture commission decided at its monthly meeting today.

The fair grounds were used as an army ordnance depot during the war with the understanding that they would be turned back to the state when the war ended. Most of the army equipment has been removed from the grounds, Clarence L. Bolander, deputy director of the commission said, but some of the buildings have not yet been restored to normal.

Five Swim Records Fall As U. of M. Dunks Spartans

Saturday night's swimming meet at Jenison fieldhouse wasn't the most joyous affair for Michigan State college tankers, but it did provide a thrill for the crowd who came expecting to see the Spartans take a deep ducking.

A hard fighting State bunch threw everything it had into the meet and gave the University of Michigan the hardest fought battles of the season. The final score tallied up 48 to 36 in favor of the Wolverines, but the crowd saw three varsity and two dual meet records shattered.

State's Abel Gilbert, Latin American from Ecuador, splashed to a hair-breadth victory over Michigan's Matt Mann III in the 200-yard freestyle and established a new dual meet record. Gilbert's time was 2:14.3, breaking the old record of 2:14.9 set by Michigan's Jim Patten in 1942.

Patterson Breaks Own Mark
Howard Patterson, another big gun among Coach Charles McCaffrey's tankers, won the backstroke event and set a new varsity record of 1:39.6. Patterson broke his old record of 1:40.4, set earlier this season.

State's 400-yard freestyle relay team rose to new heights of glory by not only beating Michigan's crew but setting a new record of 3:37.2. The Spartan four-some comprised of Zigmund Inzike who swam his length in 54.6, Bob Alwardt, 54.3, John DeWard, 54.1, and James Quigley, 54.2 broke their old varsity record of 3:40.5 made earlier this season.

Although beaten by Gilbert in the 200, Matt Mann III, son of the Wolverine coach, lived up to advanced billing by shaving a second from his former Wolverine, Dan Stewart's dual meet record of 2:52 set in 1943, and winning the event with a time of 4:54.9.

Fries Sets Record
The other varsity meet record was set by Michigan's Charles Fries in the 100-yard freestyle event with a 53.6, a second better than the old record.

Other firsts were taken by Robert Sahl, Michigan, who swam the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:33.5, and Richard Weinberg, Michigan, who swam the 50-yard freestyle in 24.0.

State's weakness in diving cost it both first and second place, which went to Michigan's Gilbert Evans and Alex Canja, respectively. Michigan also took the 50-yard medley relay with a winning time of 3:04.3.

Mel Ott, manager of the New York Giants, who will be 37 years old next March, starts his 21st season with the Giants.

State Fencers Take Badgers In First Win

Spartan Jack Cannell took high honors for the State fencing squad when he won six matches Saturday in the MSC-Wisconsin meet, boosting the final score to a 16-11 Michigan State victory.

Cannell was substituting for foilman Charles Thompson, who was taken sick Friday with the flu, and had little practice for the bouts which netted him the six wins; three foil and three sabre.

Close behind Cannell came Louis Marian who won three assignments in the epee class, bolstered by Greg Dean and Dennis Murphy, both at foil, who took two and one, respectively.

Coach Schmitter's men really outclassed the Wisconsin fencers; none of the losing men was able to win over two bouts.

Next Saturday the Spartans will be featured in a double-header, meeting Wayne and Chicago fencers at Detroit.

Matmen Win Quadrangular Meet In Chicago Saturday

Michigan State college matmen came out with a dual victory at Chicago Saturday in the first quadrangular wrestling meet held in collegiate history. State's 28 to 0 victory over Northwestern, and 23 to 8 defeat of Minnesota gave the matmen the distinction of being the first to win a dual meet in State's athletic history.

State's wrestlers registered five falls between the two schools, two over Northwestern and three over Minnesota. The Wildcats gave up six decisions to the Spartans, while the Gophers lost two. One match was a draw.

Bill Covey, MSC, 128-pounder, threw Northwestern's Jack Griffith in 3:42, then came back and decided Minnesota's Irving Wheeler in the second meet. Cliff Fletcher, Spartan 121-pounder, decided Northwestern's Robert Jefferson 8 to 2, and threw Lewis Munkler, Minnesota, in 4:50.

Bob Maldegen, State heavy-weight, had to go 53 1/2 seconds in overtime to throw Minnesota's Ivan Dosef. Against Northwestern he decided Larry Callum 7 to 1, in the 145-lb. class, State's Iggy Konrad decided Doug Whitley, Northwestern, 4' to 1, and battled James Van Gordon, Minnesota, to a draw.

Other Spartan firsts were taken by Burl Bowing, 175 pounds, John Dowell, 165 pounds, John Brentar, 175 pounds, and Bill Mowery, 136 pounds.

State Grid Team To Meet Maryland

Ralph Young, director of athletics, announced yesterday that the Michigan State college football team will meet the University of Maryland on Macklin field Nov. 23 in a third renewal of the grid series.

The Spartans last met the Terrapins in 1944 and defeated them twice that year, 8 to 0 in Baltimore and 33 to 0 in East Lansing.

The University of Maryland tilt is the fourth home game scheduled for the Spartans in 1946. Already State has Boston college, Mississippi State, and Washington State booked for East Lansing.

Spartan Pugilists Open Four-Card Season Saturday

The potent Michigan State boxing team continues its rigorous training schedule this week in preparation for the opening meet of the season Saturday against the Ottumwa Naval Air station there.

Coach Lou Zarza announced yesterday that the schedule has been completed and that his State boxers will tangle with the University of Syracuse mittlers on Saturday, Feb. 16, in Jenison fieldhouse as part of a "Sports Bark Night."

At 8 that evening the Spartan cage team will meet the powerful Ohio State five. After the game a ring will be set up on the basketball court and the State boxing team will tangle with Syracuse.

On Friday, Feb. 22 the team journeys to Madison, Wisconsin, where it meets the University of Wisconsin. Then to complete the schedule a return meet with the Ottumwa Naval Air station is set for Jenison fieldhouse on Saturday, March 2.

Some sports fan said Congress wouldn't dare merge the army and navy—how could Notre Dame take them both on the same afternoon?

All varsity baseball candidates are requested to attend a motion picture in room 215 Jenison fieldhouse at 1:30 this afternoon. Manager Don Arson announced yesterday. Anyone interested in becoming an assistant manager also should be present.

Bowles Confers With President Concerning Steel Strike Crisis

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP) — OPA Administrator Chester Bowles had a 50-minute conference with President Truman today seeking a solution to the steel strike crisis which — some informed officials said — might lead to a revised federal wage-price policy.

Bowles and Reconversion Director John W. Snyder reportedly have been assigned by Mr. Truman to work out a formula for increasing steel prices by which the industry can come to a wage agreement with CIO's 750,000 steel workers.

Bowles Says

Bowles, according to high but unquotable sources, went into the talks convinced that any adjustment should be made part of an across-the-board revision policy, one that would permit moderate price increases where deemed necessary to offset wage boosts and would be applicable to other industries as well as steel.

A concession for steel only, he holds, would open the door to a series of "emergency" concessions which ultimately might riddle the system of price control. Snyder advocates a "flexible" control, under which the government could deal with production problems as they arise.

Cabinet Meeting

A meeting of the cabinet was called for noon tomorrow.

Eben Ayers, White House press aide, told questioners he did not know whether it would discuss the steel strike. Friday is the usual cabinet-meeting day, but luncheon sessions have been held on some recent Tuesdays, and it was uncertain whether special significance should be attached to tomorrow's sessions.

The White House is aiming at a decision on the price question "within two or three days," it was reported, not only because the steel shutdown is daily closing more factories, but because Bowles must be ready to testify on price control Thursday before a congressional committee.

Philip Murray

This morning, Philip Murray, president of the CIO and of the striking steelworkers, was called to the White House for what was described as "a discussion about settlement of the strike."

Home Ec Staff Helps Veterans

A meeting for veterans and their wives was held yesterday by the home economics staff of the college. In answer to many requests of servicemen's wives for help in homemaking problems, the home economics department is attempting to aid some 700 veterans and their wives, some of whom are making homes of their own for the first time at State.

Jeanette Lee, assistant to the dean, said that most of the requests have concerned budgeting, food buying and preparation, and decorating of small apartments and house trailers.

Home economics staff members will present a "Bride's School of the Air" over WKAR at 9:45 a.m. every Tuesday during February.

The schedule of programs is as follows: today, "Making the Most of Your Time"; next week, "Meat Cookery"; February 19, "Cheese Cookery", and February 26, "Fish Cookery." Special questions may be sent to Miss Lee to be discussed on the program.

The world is full of willing people — some willing to work and the rest willing to let them.

BLOCK leaders in WAA bowling on the Spartan alleys held their positions after last week's action with North hall, still in front in block one, South Campbell, tops in two, while West Mayo and Zone five are tied in block three with four matches apiece.

Mary Lee Purdy led her North hall team, pitching 177, as it dropped Zeta Tau Alpha in two games. East Mayo and Kappa Kappa Gamma split their two games. Mayo-ite Barb Cray knocked over 176 pins for high game.

Although Barb Cameron bowled high individual game, 136, her team, Mason 4, lost both of its contests to Kappa Delta. Zone 5 and Sigma Kappa split their contests, top game of 181 being tossed by Lou Coolman, Sigma Kappa.

At the Rainbow alleys Alpha Gamma Delta is still unbeaten in block three. The top teams in block 1 and 2 are Alpha Chi and South Williams.

ALL entries for the WAA fencing tournament must be in Miss Katherine Arnett's office in the Women's gym by Feb. 16 as preliminary bouts will be run off the last two weeks of this term.
