TODAY'S CAMPUS

Hitting a New Note

Although it is midwinter, Mary Ellen Morley, Lansing freshman, heard birds singing. During a modern dance class students run about the studio, bending at the waist and dangling their arms before them. Mary Ellen created some startling new movements when she got off the beaten path and crashed headlong into a grand piano.

Measles

Olga Burton, Royal Oak sophomore, has learned that it doesn't pay to predict anything. At least, not while a measles epidemic is prevailing. One day last week Livy casually said, "I'll probably be over in the hospital with the measles one of these days." That night she was.

Eau de Mmm!

They say that one coed who went to the International club for the first time wore "Follow Me." Results were so good that she is trying to find a new cologne, something a little less suggestive, like "Leave Me Alone."

Guizar Ensemble Will Perform As Special Feature

The Guizar and his Pan American ensemble will appear in College auditorium at 8:15 tomorrow evening as a special feature, not a part of the regular concert-lecture series, Dean S. E. Crowe announced.

Appearing with Guizar are Estela and Julio, Spanish dance team; Vincent de Sela, gifted concert pianist, and the Spanish Estrellitas orchestra, featuring Jose Nizze.

In their two-hour program, Guizar and his company will present authentic Latin-American music, songs and dances. A gay South American fiesta will be recreated during the first hour, and during the second Guizar will sing the songs which he has popularized.

Wlad Malczynski did not not appear last evening, as was announced in Saturday's State News. He is scheduled to perform next Monday evening.

Juniors Tell Annual Dance Plans Near Completion

Council Emphasizes Ban on Corsages

Lionel Hampton and his orchestra will play Friday night in College auditorium at the annual MSC J-Hop.

Hampton, noted Negro band leader, and his group will play for dancing from 9 p.m. to 3 a.m., according to John Kobs, East Lansing, general chairman of the affair.

No Flowers

Student council has emphasized that, as at all open dances, women are forbidden to wear flow-

All women students who have not passed the AWS handbook rules exam, whether they have been excused or not, must take the test no later than 5 p.m. today in the AWS office, according to Sue Averill, Birmingham senior.

ers. This includes corsages on the dress, wrist or in the hair. All flowers will be picked up at the door.

In accordance with a recent vote of all men on campus, the dance will be semi-formal.

Driving Permitted

Campus police have announced that as the dance is an all-college party, all students will be allowed to drive. No special permit must be obtained for the use of cars for the evening.

A recent AWS ruling says that all State women who attend the J-Hop will be given 4 a.m. permission. All other women will keep regular women's residence hours.

News in Brief

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 (AP) — Snags of an undisclosed nature delayed again today the announcement of a revised wage-price policy designed to curb strikes, but the White House confirmed that changes in the economic high command are in prospect.

DETROIT, Feb. 11 (AP) — The CIO United Auto Workers stood firm today on their demand for more than 18½ cents hourly wage increase from General Motors corporation and told 175,000 striking production employees to "hold your lines."

Literary Giant

Lincoln's Words Live Forever

By MORTON D. SMERLING

Abraham Lincoln, the 16th president of the United States, was born Feb. 12, 1809, on a farm in Kentucky. He proved that a man can rise from the lowly position of a rail-splitter to the presidency of the United States.

Good-humored, rather idle, and imaginative during his boyhood, he was well-liked by the many who knew him. His faculty for story-telling cropped up early in his life, and followed him into the White House. It is related that even in days of great trial during the Civil War, Lincoln would pull out a comic book from his desk drawer and chuckle over a wry joke, or two.

A Man Among Men

In his writing and speech Lincoln displayed a rare gift of lucidity that ranks him among the giants of literature. His character, conscience, and faithfulness made him a man among men.

It is a long time since the figure of tall, lanky 'Abe' Lincoln strode the American scene. But the words of his famous Gettys-

"Medicine Ball" dance plans for Saturday evening are being completed this week by the various committee chairmen, according to Ora Smith, Dearborn senior and general chairman of the annual closed affair.

Preliminary balloting by the veterinarian students for the 1946 queen from a group of seven candidates took place last week, and the final election will be held today in the Bacty building from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Queen Candidates

Evelyn Evans, Dearborn vet freshman, and Peggy Nitz, Baroda med-tech sophomore, will compete in final elimination.

Members of the vet division and med-techs may obtain tickets from class representatives.

Since the party is open to only members of the vet division, pre-vets in basic college may purchase tickets for the dance in the clinic of the vet office, according to Smith.

Committee Chairmen

Patrons Listed

Patrons for the party are Prof. and Mrs. Earl Weaver, Prof. and Mrs. W. L. Mallman, Prof. and Mrs. Edward Devereux, and Prof. and Mrs. J. Frederick Smithers. Guests named are Dean and Mrs. Ward Giltner, Prof. and Mrs. E. T. Hallmann, Prof. and Mrs. Russell A. Runnels, Prof. and Mrs. Harold M. Byram, Prof. and Mrs. Bernard Alfredson, and Capt. and Mrs. E. H. Atkinson.

Council Amends Election Rules

Campaign rules for candidates for freshman and sophomore class officers have been changed, according to Bud Smith, Dearborn senior.

Outside dimensions of the candidates' photographs should not exceed 9 by 12 inches, instead of the previously announced 3 by 5 inches.

House Passes Bill 11 To Give MSC Funds

College Will Receive $3,000,000 For Extensive Building Program

The Michigan House of Representatives passed House Bill 11 last night appropriating to Michigan State college $3,000,000 for an extensive building program.

The House, meeting in an extra night session, passed the bill overwhelmingly with only one negative vote registered. The measure also commends the favorable consideration of the 1947 legislature to further appropriations beyond those made as may be necessary for the earliest possible completion of a proposed $7,000,000 building program for MSC.

BULLETIN

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Feb. 11 (AP)—A layup shot by Sammy White in the last 30 seconds of play proved the winning point as the Bluejackets of Great Lakes tonight edged out Michigan State's basketball team, 59 to 58.

Crowe Reveals Regulations Over Autos

The following regulations for the use of automobiles by MSC students has been announced by the dean of student's office.

In general no student in attendance at Michigan State college shall operate any motor vehicle.

Permits are issued at the discretion of the chief of police and dean of students for commuters, married students, those taking six credits or less, for business purposes, those with health or physical handicaps, graduate assistants, and emergency driving.

Special Parking Lots

All students having permits must park in designated student parking lots. One lot is north of College auditorium and another in the field of the varsity tennis courts and east of Demonstration hall. A few exceptions are made for those in the health or physically handicapped group.

Married students and East Lansing residents are to drive for family reasons only.

All students are subject to check by the police for violations of driving for social purposes night and day.

Faculty Parking

Parking lots next to the campus buildings are for faculty members, also for the health group when so designated on their permit.

Certain areas are subject to fines for violating the uniform rules of general public safety; yellow lines, no parking areas on the boulevard west of the Union building, parking wrong way, cross walks, loading dock entrances, building entrances, fire hydrants, overnight parking around campus dormitories; cars from these areas should be in the parking lots after 10 p.m.

A speed limit of 20 miles per hour will be enforced at all times.

Violator Fined

Fines for violations are given according to the following schedule:

First offense—$2.00
Second offense—$5.00

Sigma Epsilon To Hold Business Conference With Guest Speaker

Sigma Epsilon, scholastic business administration and economics fraternity, is sponsoring a business administration conference for all underclassmen interested in business and present business administration and economics students, at 7:30 tonight in the Music auditorium.

Speaker for the meeting will be C. W. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, according to John McCaughna, St. Charles senior. Otto will have as his subject "Not Good If Detached."

This meeting will provide an opportunity for underclassmen to become acquainted with faculty and majors in the economics and business administration department.

Bill to Face Senate

The Senate has yet to pass the bill, which includes along with the appropriations for State, an appropriation of $3,300,000 to the University of Michigan.

The bill which was previously introduced by the committee on ways and means was put before the House along with Bill 13 concerning state hospital appropriations. Both bills met opposition at the hands of Rep. Andrew Bolt of Grand Rapids who asked that they be passed for the day.

Rep. Espie Defends

Rep. John Espie of Eagle, chairman of the ways and means committee, defended them vigorously stating that Bolt's request was "a move to stall consideration of these bills," and added that "We might as well have a showdown right now." The House voted to act on the two proposed bills.

Voted on separately, Bill 11 passed by a 78 to 1 vote and the mental health program passed unanimously.

The approved $3,000,000 sum is to come from the general fund of the state and is to be added by the State Board of Agriculture to the $806,000,000 sums appropriated for Michigan State college by previous public acts.

The building program on campus includes a new classroom building, poultry building, dairy building, science building, agricultural engineering building, home management laboratory, power plant and facilities, electrical engineering building and a physics building.

Expert Will Speak Before Engineers

W. C. Goggin, manager of the plastics development division of the Dow Chemical company, will speak tonight before the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Ray Wells, president, Auburn, N. Y., junior, has announced.

The meeting will be held in 111 Union annex at 7:30.

Well known in the field of plastic research, Goggin was among those who toured Germany at the close of World War II to investigate plastic developments in that country.

Today Is Founders' Day

Over 90 years ago today, in 1855, the people of the state of Michigan authorized the establishment of a state agricultural college, to be erected within 10 miles of the city of Lansing. Thus, Michigan State college came into being; that is, the Agricultural college of the State of Michigan was born.

Today is Founders' day. Since Feb. 12, in 1855, the agricultural college has swelled into a university.

The chief purpose of the early school, to improve and teach the science and practice of agriculture, has become only one of the many aims of our college.

Affairs of State

By TONI EBNER
and
SALLY CLARK

NOW is the time to start shaking the mothballs out of your formal gear with the J-Hop creeping up on us. Big events are gradually working their way back to State's social calendar. Along with this comes news with a more personal twist.

Recent marriage news we have concerns Betty Sessions, former student, and Jay Johns, of Lansing, now stationed with the army at Fort Knox, Ky.

Engagement statistics show that the diamond industry is not suffering for want of better business. Ina Jane Smith, Detroit junior, has a ring from William Ezell, Kansas City, Mo., senior vet student.

Flicking her left hand around a bit Elizabeth Schultz, LeRoy junior, has good reason. She has a ring from Bill Williams, Lansing junior. The army captured its objective in the case of Phyllis Lowry, Midland freshman, who recently announced her engagement to Sgt. William Murphy of Midland.

Pins are being passed along with everything else. Betsy Hoefler, Detroit junior, has a Phi Delt pin over her heart from Jack MacIntyre, a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan.

Thetas had some activity this weekend with an initiation for four happy coeds. Wearing the black and gold kite are Mary Kay Gottschalk, Pontiac sophomore; Audrey Henderson, Sturgis junior; Pat Zurbrick, Kenmore, N. Y., sophomore, and Nessa Lumsden, Pleasant Ridge freshman.

It seems that the ATOs have been busy doing some moving back into their old house on Evergreen. Along with this, they have taken time out to put the white and gold pledge pin on a few more prospective members. They are Herb Hoxie, Dearborn junior; Lee Ross, Grosse Pointe freshman; Doug Fritz, Grosse Pointe freshman, and Joe Bogart, Sturgis sophomore.

Finishing the list of new ATO pledges are Bob Wiseman, Detroit freshman; Alvin Hudson, Royal Oak sophomore, and Ted Williams, Grand Rapids sophomore.

"We'd probably get a more positive reaction if we featured some radio singing commercials at the moon."

Musicians to Play Modern Pieces

A music symposium will be held in room 206 Music building tonight at 7:30 for the purpose of studying contemporary modern composers.

The program will include "Nocturne" played by John Shelby Richardson, "Suite for Oboe and Piano" by Walter Piston, performed by Paul Harder and Dr. Owen H. Reed, and "Piano Sonata, First Movement" by Aaron Copeland, played by Patricia Spicer.

The music played will be discussed and analyzed, and the meeting will be open for questions. This form of music is little understood by most persons.

REGULATIONS

Third offense—10.00
Unregistered cars will receive a first fine of $5.00.
Any driver who receives a summons ticket for a violation must report to the office of the dean of students according to the time limit on the summons.

Fines Go To Fund

All collections for fines are allocated to the Student Loan fund.

In the near future special metal tags will be issued to all students having permits. These tags must be attached to the registration plate. A special announcement will be made when the metal tags are ready for use.

Spartan Tankers, Cagers Chalk Up Weekend Victories

By MIKE LE PERE

Michigan State's weekend athletic activities saw Spartan teams split in four games and meets. The basketball and swimming clubs had little trouble in scoring victories, but the boxing and fencing teams dropped road decisions.

In the 24th annual relay at the annual Saturday evening in the new fieldhouse with its 26 entries of the best cagers in the middle west, State was able to win only two firsts. Karl Schladerman's power-packed relay team finished ahead of Michigan and Ohio State and Mary Fraser took the 100-yard run for the Spartans' only wins.

Michigan dominated the carnal, taking top spots in eight of 12 events.

Cagers Drop Detroit Again

In basketball Coach Ben Van Dine's cagers played before 600 fans who jam-packed Lincoln high of Ferndale to watch the Spartans take the measure of the University of Detroit, 58-

The triumph was State's fifth six starts against major Michigan opponents, thus giving the Spartans the mythical Michigan basketball championship. State's only defeat came from Michigan in the opening tilt of the season.

State's talented scoring machine went in high geared action against the Titans. By the end of the first eight minutes, the Spartans held the lead 12-8. Six minutes later they ran the score up 21-8 before the Titans could get in a point. State was ahead 29-18 at the end of the half.

Spartans All the Way

Paced by Robin Roberts, Sam Bruno, and Don Waldron, State built up a 45-28 lead before U. of D. could break loose and score 10 points. From then on it was all Spartans all the way.

Waldron and Roberts led the dual scorers with 12 each in the ninth victory in 16 starts.

At Madison, Wis., Coach Charles McCaffrey's swimmers broke six varsity meet records as they defeated the University of Wisconsin's tankers, 64-20. State took eight of the nine events in its victory.

Day Team Breaks Records

A new 400-yard freestyle record by freshman collegiate record made by State's team comprising Howard Patterson, John DeMond, James Quigley, and Robert Allwardt. Breaking the old record of 3:42.0 made by Brown university in 1941, the Spartan foursome brought it down to 3:41.7. This time also beat the old varsity record of 3:43.6.

In the 300-yard medley relay event Willard Cooley, Paul Seibold, and Allwardt brought the old record of 3:09.2 down to 3:04.2.

State's Abel Gilbert won the 220-yard freestyle event in 2:18.6, beating the old record of 2:24.9. He then came back and won the 100-yard freestyle event in 56.1. Patterson Close to Mark Patterson came within a hair of setting a new 150-yard freshman intercollegiate backstroke record by winning the event in 1:38.2. The mark still stands at 1:37.9. He did, however, break the old varsity meet record of 1:45.6.

Paul Seibold won the 200-yard breaststroke event with a time of 2:33.9, four seconds better than the old varsity meet record. The other individual first was made by Zigmund Indyke in the 60-yard freestyle department with a time of 30.4.

Another varsity meet record was set by Harland Dodge in the 440-yard freestyle race with a time of 5:19.3, four seconds better than the old record.

State lost only in the diving event.

Boxers, Fencers Lose

At Ottumwa, Ia., Saturday night the Iowa Seahawk flyers beat State's boxing squad, 7-1. The best State could do against the navy was to draw in the 155 and 165-pound classes. Barney Glowicki, State, drew William LaMont in the former class, and Jim Henigan, State, drew Ernest Zamerzia in the 165-pound class.

Spartan fencers edged out the University of Chicago 14-13, but lost to Wayne university for the second time this year 16-12 to 10 1/2 Saturday night in a triangular meet at Detroit.

MSC Varsity Sport Shorts

By KEN CLARK

BOB Maldegen and Bill Covey, Detroiters in their first season of collegiate grappling, seem to be doing all right, according to their records.

Maldegen has won four out of five, to date, in the heavyweight division; his only loss was to Purdue's Ray Gunkel. Covey has done as well, dropping a 5-4 decision to Harold Cook, Purdue 128 pounder, for his only setback in five starts.

SINCE bound to Big Ten champion Mike Rajacevich, the veteran Jack Orr has dropped out of collegiate wrestling. Orr, a national winner in '39 and a major letter recipient in 1940, returned to State mat circles last fall and had won one and lost one prior to his disastrous engagement with Purdue's Rajacevich.

Leading in points, 4-1, in the second period of his bout with the Big Ten champ, Orr severely injured his side; he made several futile attempts to carry on, it finally became necessary for Referee Cliff Keen to stop the bout to prevent further injury.

Strangely enough before the bout Orr had asked to be quoted as saying, "Win, lose or draw, this is my last college match. I've got to concentrate on studies."

PERHAPS the biggest thrill of the current season, was Gordon Cole's 13-9 decision over Purdue's Ben Mottleson, 136-pound Big Ten runner-up in 1945.

Decidedly the underdog, Cole not only gave the fans one of their biggest thrills but also gave himself the top victory of his wrestling career. A favorite with local mat fans, Cole kept them screaming almost all the way as he decisively upset the Purdue star.

IT is not unusual for the State wrestling varsity to be laden with Oklahoma lads. The 1946 edition of Spartan matmen has four Oklahoma starters, Gale Mikles, Burl Boring, John Dowell and Bill Mowery. This Oklahoma-reared aggregation has a record thus far this season of 11 victories against only three defeats.

THERE is talk in the Collins camp concerning a slight weight reduction among the personnel. Each man has plans of dropping down on weight class in an effort to make the team a bit more formidable against Coach Cliff Keen's U. of M. Wolverines, who incidentally stand undefeated so far this season.

The Wolverine-Spartan affair at Ann Arbor will follow closely on the heels of the MSC-Ohio State meet. Michigan holds a victory over Purdue whereas Purdue has issued State its only setback in five starts.

MICHIGAN State and Oklahoma A & M have been suggested as possible hosts for the NCAA wrestling tournament scheduled for the last week in March.

The tournament committee, which will decide where the matches will take place, is headed by University of Michigan's wrestling coach.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

By MARGE McRAY

NOW with the intermural bowling tournament nearing its close, North Campbell is on top for block one with ten victories and two defeats. In block 2 Mason 6 and South Williams are tied for first place, each chalking up six victories.

In the games that were played last week the Chi Omegas won a match from Alice Cowles by a one pin as a result of Sue Clefield's high score of 142.

North Campbell squeezed the Chi Omega club out of the top spot to put itself in first place in the score of 628-591. Margaret McGonegle tossed the high game of 154.

Alpha Xi Delta's Lois Taylor led her team to victory with a score of 148, crushing the Mason 8 with the score of 572-317. Other matches saw North Campbell top Mason 8 with Miss McGonegle again, high point game with 185 to her credit.

Kappa Alpha Theta won its match with Catherine Black and Toni Ebner, Theta, bowl-high game.

Belle Mackey helped her team, Pi Beta Phi, to victory over Phi Williams with her high score of 147.

THE pace of the WAA basketball tournament is quickening as the end is near. Block 1 saw undefeated Slippery Slickers win their game with the Wil-Terrors for the Terrors' first victory from the ETOS, forcing a first place in block 2.

The Abbot Exes, who are undefeated, beat the Violets 31-8 in block 3, while in block 5 Steam Team defeated Abbot 16 by a 24-16 count with the Hearty Spartans also taking their game from Sanford house 27-20.

The Lonely Hearts took the lead over North Campbell, 27-8, leaving a tie for first place between Steam Team and the Lonely Hearts.

In block 6 the Winssockies added another victory to their undefeated list by winning a game from the Purple Passions.

IN the doubles badminton tournament that started this week there are a few coeds that deserve mention. In block 1 Barbara Kerr and Elizabeth Chapin have won both of their games thus far, as have Jani Hite and Poppy Clark in block 2. Also making a good showing in block 2 are Marion Duncan and Shelly Brigham.

Block 3 finds Aileen Carey and Margaret Wells with two victories and no defeats.

Wyman Davis Becomes Physical Ed Teacher

Wyman Davis, of the famed "Davis twins" who prominently operated in Michigan State college athletics in 1939, '40 and '41, is engaged part-time in teaching physical education in the East Lansing public schools while doing graduate work in college. A recently discharged navy lieutenant, Wy reports that brother Wilford expects his discharge from the army air corps shortly.

Reading Program Scheduled Today

Mirth will predominate on the Reading Hour program today, from 4 to 5 p.m. in room 49, workshop theater, College auditorium, according to Mrs. Molree Compere, head of the series.

A dramatic reading, "Artie Greengroin, Pfc." by Harry Brown will be given by Kenneth Hammeter, Saginaw junior and speech major. Brown, former New York writer and author of a recent novel, "Walk In the Sun," tells in his reading of the experiences of Brooklyn-born Artie stationed in London.

Polly Moehlman, who is well-known to reading hour audiences,

Beginning with the event in College auditorium tomorrow, only those ushers who are notified will report for work, according to Paul Baumpas, of the accounting office. Those who are on the usher list and desire to work are requested to contact Phyllis Neukema, Lansing senior.

will present the second half of the program. Miss Moehlman's previous readings were "The Terrible Meek" by Charles Rann Kennedy, and "The Tinker" by Fred Eastman. Her latest interpretative reading is "Green Grow the Lilacs" by Lynn Riggs. The latter is the story of romantic pioneer days on which the musical "Oklahoma" was based.

The next Reading Hour program will be presented Feb. 26 at which time Dr. Sterling Kincaid of the written and spoken English department, will read poetry by Robinson Jeffers.

College students and friends are invited to share in the entertainment.
