TODAY'S CAMPUS

Bowled Over

Getting into the coming State all-college bowling classes must be very serious business with Bill Casper. Yesterday afternoon when he signed up in the Union, Casper wearily stated, "I might as well put my name in now, because if I don't I won't be able to skip tonight."

Two Many Men

Bonnie Jean McKay, Pigeon Point, thought she would find the answer to all her problems when she slept on a piece of wedding cake. In the morning she was a little more confused than she was when she went to bed. Instead of dreaming of the one she was going to marry, she made things difficult by dreaming about three men.

News in Brief

CHUNKING. Feb. 22 (P) — Communist muscle-men wrecked Communist and democratic newspaper offices in Chicago today, causing an immediate Communist threat to withdraw from the government coalition agreement on the grounds that "enemies" of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's national party were responsible.

LONDON. Feb. 22 (P) — Generalissimo Stalin tonight told the Red Army on its 28th birthday that as the Soviet entered a "peaceful period" of development, it was the army's duty to guard Russia's borders against enemies while the people created a "powerful upsurge of national economy."

"Having ended the war by a victory over the enemy," the Generalissimo said in an order of the day commemorating the anniversary, which was heard over the Moscow radio, "the Soviet Union has entered into a new, peaceful period of its economic development."

MEMPHIS. Tenn., Feb. 22 (P) — The executive board of the National Federation of Telephone Workers continued in session here today to map plans for the nationwide telephone workers strike scheduled for March 7.

The federation's general assembly adjourned last night after agreement on the date for a walk-out of 17 affiliated unions. Approximately 150,000 workers are represented in the 17 unions ordered to strike two weeks hence. But union officials said the walkout would be industry-wide with the 100,000 workers in the other 33 affiliated unions directed to observe picket lines.

Tonight's Speaker To Illustrate Talk With Time-Lapse Photography Shots

MURL DEUSING
"backyard adventurer"

"Back Yard Safari," an illustrated lecture by Murl Deusing will be presented in College auditorium tonight at 8:15 as a part of the world-adventure series, according to Dean S. E. Crowe, director of the series.

Former Student Takes Over Job Of Police Chief

Tuesday, Arthur F. Brandstatter arrived to take over his new duties as campus and East Lansing police chief. Chief Brandstatter is no stranger on campus as he graduated with the first class in Police Administration at MSC in 1937.

As a student at State, Brandstatter acquired a reputation for himself in the sports line, winning his letter on the football team during his sophomore, junior and senior years. According to Charlie Bachman, Spartan coach, Brandstatter was one of the best fullbacks State ever had.

After graduating, Chief Brandstatter joined the Detroit police force and in 1940 he was called into active duty to serve in the army intelligence and later as a provost marshal. He was with the occupational forces in Korea as chief of the Police Affairs department of the Korean police.

Student Group Elects Seven New Members For Church Council

Seven students have been elected to the Lutheran Student Church council for this year, according to Paul Deindorfer, Saginaw junior, and president of the council.

Vice president is Donald R. Howard, Chicago pre-vet student, and Richard Love, Detroit sophomore is treasurer. Working with them as secretary is Eunice Nelson, Escanaba freshman.

Also elected to the council were Edith Anderson, Detroit freshman; David Johnson, Sparta freshman; and Jane Helbig, Cleveland Heights, Ohio junior.

Included in the picture is a sequence in time-lapse photography showing the unfolding of a moth's wings, the inside story of the mud dauber wasp, and the birth of a garter snake.

Deusing, an understanding nature photographer, is past president of the Wisconsin Ornithological society and is national director of the Izaak Walton League.

S. P. Kincaid to Give Poetry Reading

Sterling P. Kincaid, instructor of written and spoken English, will give a dramatic reading of Robinson Jeffers' poetry Tuesday, at 4 p.m. Mrs. Mervin S. Conners, of the speech and dramatics department, announced yesterday.

His program will be a feature of the Reading Hour which is held in room 49 of College auditorium.

Robinson Jeffers, a famous American poet, is now living in California.

Peacetime Style Military Returns To State

When war curtailed the advanced ROTC on campus in 1943, the Scabbard and Blade, Mortar and Ball and Officers club, military honoraries had to be abandoned. With these organizations and their members, junior and senior student officers, went an integral part of the social whirl on campus.

Yearly the Officers club held an election to choose a sponsor, or queen, for each unit in the ROTC and the band. An elaborate installation ceremony was held in the fall term complete with martial music and crossed sabers, and the sponsors were given the rank of Honorary Lt. Colonel and a small piece of costume jewelry in the form of a dress sword.

Winter term brought its round of formal affairs, and one of the largest was the Military ball where the Honorary Colonel and her staff of sponsors were the guests of honor.

Spring term, with its dress parades, brought a more active period for all concerned. Despite the loud complaints of the basics who had to wear hot OD

Spartan Show To Spotlight Fraternities

"Spartan Varieties", half-hour radio portion of the weekly Party-party, will be broadcast from Union ballroom today at 4 o'clock. Dick Snook's orchestra, with Norma Jean, will provide dancing and listening music from 3 to 5 p.m. at this all-college affair.

Two fraternities to be lauded this week are Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Nu. Larry Frymore, program director of WKAR and master of ceremonies at the affair has announced, "Violets" is the song of the first fraternity, and "The White Star of Sigma Nu" will be played for the latter.

Frymore added that Buzz Hart, Jackson freshman will present a piano selection. Also on the program are Dorothy Brooks, Lansing freshman, and Phyllis Ostrom, Lansing junior who will play three numbers as an accordion duo.

Although considerable difficulty in hearing was experienced at previous Party-parties, sound equipment on stage has been improved, Frymore said.

Editor to Replace Boothby on Series

William Bradford Huie, traveling editor for American Mercury magazine, will speak on the Michigan State college lecture-concert series at 8:15 Tuesday evening, February 26, in college auditorium. In announcing this, Dean Crowe, director of the series, stated that Huie replaces Robert Boothby, member of the British parliament, whose lecture tour in this country has been cancelled.

"The Post-War World Our Fighting Men Expect" will be the editor's lecture topic. Huie witnessed the war on all battlefronts of the world as a war correspondent for two years, in the U. S. Navy.

Humor Magazine To Resume Life Next Fall Term

Fall term of 1946 will mark the re-instatement of the SPARTAN magazine to the campus of Michigan State college.

Final approvals on the petition from a student committee were given at the meeting of the administrative group of the college held Tuesday. Pres. John A. Hannah announced.

The Spartan publication was banned in 1943 by a faculty action on the basis of the unfavorable content of the magazine.

Work started on a possible dummy of the magazine early last fall term and was presented to the Board of Publications for approval at the end of the term.

At the regular monthly meeting of Board of Publications on Feb. 6 it was moved that a petition and a copy of the Board's recommendation be sent to President Hannah and the administration for approval.

A temporary Spartan committee is headed by Peter Gens, Toledo, O., sophomore, for the purpose of organizing the magazine.

An official Spartan staff will be appointed spring term by the Board of Publications.

Rebellion Rages Through Bombay

BOMBAY, Sat., Feb. 23 (P) — Mutinous Royal Indian navy sailors ran up black flags of surrender on a score or more of small ships in Bombay harbor today and surrendered shore installations in which they had barricaded themselves.

BOMBAY, Feb. 22 (P) — British Tommies turned machine-gun fire on rioting crowds today but Bombay's disorders, described by a deputy police commissioner as "absolute rebellion," raged on out of control tonight.

The British clamped a 9 p.m. curfew on the troubled area of the city, but reports from inside the area said the curfew hour had not ended the disorders by any means. British troops had orders to shoot to kill any person on the streets during the forbidden period.

At least 30 persons were known to have been killed in the rioting which started as sympathy demonstrations for striking seamen of the Royal Indian navy. The seamen struck early this week, alleging they were paid less than Britons for the same work, given inferior food, subjected to racial discrimination and denied an opportunity for promotion.

Unofficial figures indicated the death toll in today's street fighting might total 50 or more with upwards of 25 wounded. One hospital alone had a list of 30 dead, most of whom were booked as "dead on arrival."

"Love Thy Neighbor"

Every year at this time the National Conference of Christians and Jews sponsors Brotherhood week, reaffirming our American creed of equality among men regardless of race, color or nationality.

In this country, we are, in a sense, a great laboratory where inter-group relations of people with different beliefs and customs are tested. We have had our race riots and lynchings, our persecution of minority groups.

In the main we have come through these tests with passing grades. Though bigots and demagogues are ever busy sowing the seeds of hatred in our midst, the sane among us have managed to keep them from getting the upper hand.

Brotherhood week is a reminder that we live in one world, that the Good Neighbor policy is the only way the peoples of the world can live together in peace.

Fair play must become a common denominator in our judgments. Man's inhumanity to man must be superseded by man's respect for man.

LETTERS . . . . . To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE - All letters to the editor submitted with the intention of being published, must be signed by the writer. If he does not want his name to appear with the letter, it must be indicated. No letters will be considered for publication unless the writer is known. The opinions expressed are those of the writer and not necessarily those of the editors.

To the Editor:
This is an open letter to "Fed Up" and others like him (or her), for their edification.

First of all, one has only to read the letter concerning campus tradition signed by "anonymous" that was printed in the "State News" Saturday, and then the one written by you, printed Wednesday, 20, to easily discern that it is you who are becoming hysterical, not we. And there are several more discrepancies in your letter that should like to point out.

We are concerned with appearances, not morals, as far as smoking on campus is concerned.

We have had no prompting from the administration. We do believe that smoking on campus has something to do with the beauty of the place, as has walking on the grass—a point you conveniently forgot to mention.

We are quite prepared to accept the results of a poll to determine whether or not the "no smoking on campus" tradition should be continued.

Therefore, in view of the foregoing rebuttal of your criticism of our sincerity, we believe that it might be worth while for you to make sure of your facts in the future, before you find yourself going off half-cocked again.

I repeat, we would be glad to have an opportunity to vote on the subject, but that's up to the student council. How about it, student council?

Sincerely,
ANONYMOUS

To the Editor:
Several suggestions have been made recently regarding the organization of off-campus women. However, since no positive action has been taken to promote such an organization, it is difficult to determine whether this group is in favor of it.

The student body is now reorganizing its plan of self-government so as to include representatives from all sizeable groups on campus. It does not seem reasonable that a body of over 250 men should continue to be indifferent to the activities of the students as a whole.

But organization, resulting in active representation can be achieved only by spontaneous cooperation and an all-out effort. So, if you want to be represented as a unit, voice your suggestions. If adequate response is received, immediate arrangements will be made to meet with you.

Joanne Leoney.

State Matmen Set For Badgers Beat Wolverine Home Meet

Coach Fendley Collins and his Spartan matmen journey to Ann Arbor Monday night to meet Cliff Keen's Michigan Wolverines in Yost fieldhouse at 7:30.

The meeting of the two grappling teams has been pointed for by both schools since the start of the season. In 17 years the two schools have met 20 times, the Wolverines leading the edge 14-6.

Since 1940 the Spartans have taken all but one meet, and on paper, State looks strong this year with a season's record of five wins against only one defeat.

Not Done As Well As State
M has not fared so well, winning but two while dropping three to some of the same schools that S has trodden under foot in its path to another successful season.

Only blot on an otherwise perfect record, was the 19-11 defeat suffered at the hands of Purdue's Big Ten champs. Michigan holds a win over the Boiler-makers to make Monday night's meet one the more confusing.

State's most recent feat was a 12-11 win over the Ohio State Buckeyes, conquerors of the Wolverines just previous to tacking the Spartans.

Star Football Player
The stars for M will be Bill Wright and Dan Dworsky, fullback on last fall's M team. Courtwright was named in the Big Ten in 1942, prior to his military service.

Wright has taken the major part of his points and will be a big obstacle on the path of State's freshman star, Bob Maldegen.

It is not known whether Keen will go Courtwright against State's star, Courtwright, Gale Mikles, or whether Courtwright will resume his place in the starting slot.

Not Set on Lineup
Neither coach seems absolutely set on his lineup. Gordon Cole and Bill Mowery will wrestle a preliminary bout today to determine which of them will face the opponent Monday night in the 125-pound weight class.

Women Swimmers
Will Meet Kazoo
In First Contest

Michigan State's newly formed women's swimming team will meet the Kazoo college in the first contest of the season at the gymnasium pool next Wednesday evening. Miss Newell is the star.

More than 1,000 fans in 20 games, the Michigan State cage quintet has set a new number of points in a single season since basketball was introduced here in 1899.

The wrestling series with Michigan, the Spartan mat men have won eight of 26 past meets, the last pair of engagements in 1941 by identical 16-14 scores.

Hurry, Hurry, Hurry!

Entries Increase For All College Bowling Tourney

Entries have been made for the State News all-college bowling classic that will take place a week from today in the Spartan alleys and those who still intend to sign up should do so as soon as possible.

Students may enter the affair in the Union building main lobby, where a table for the purpose has been set up. The desk will be attended until noon today and all day Monday and Tuesday.

If the maximum number of 120 entries is reached before next Wednesday it is believed that Spartan bowling alley officials may permit more lane space and time to the all-college classic in order that more men may enter.

Over 15 cash prizes are to be awarded high-scoring pin-toppers, with $25 going to the high series bowler.

Badgers Beat State Boxers By 6-2 Count

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 22 (AP) — University of Wisconsin boxing team, scoring a pair of TKOs, ran up their third straight intercollegiate boxing victory tonight, defeating Michigan State, six to two.

Floyd Kowal, representing the Badgers in the 145 pound class, flattened Jack Martin, of Michigan State, in 1-28 of the first round for a technical knock out.

In the 155 pound class Dan Kozus, of Wisconsin, tech knocked out Jim Danan, of the Spartans, in 1-50 in the third round.

Natators Swamped By Powerful OSU

Michigan State's national outdoor championship natators were all but chased out of the Ohio State pool Thursday night when the underdog Buckeye swimmers piled up a 63 point tally against the Spartans' 21 points before approximately 1,500 fans.

The OSU poolmen captured every event except the 150-yard backstroke assignment in which Howard Patterson barely out-evicted Buckeye Dick Ketterman.

Halo Hirose, of Ohio State, was the meet's only double winner, taking first in both the 50 and 100-yard freestyle races. Existing Big Ten records were smashed by a half of a second when Hirose took 52 seconds in the 100-yard sprint.

Swim Track Meets Set For March 9

Entries are now being taken for the 1946 Central Collegiate Conference indoor track, field and swimming meet slated to be held in Jenison fieldhouse Saturday, March 9.

Center coach Karl Schlademan, and swimmer manager Charles McCallie, managers of the respective sports, jointly predict this year's attractions will not only challenge the quality but will surpass in number the athletes and schools represented at any previous meeting.

Drake university has indicated that it expects to defend its championship with a year ago when the Bulldogs outdistanced a field of 10 schools. The Central Collegiate Conference swimming championships have known no other school than Michigan State, the Spartans capturing all three previous meetings.

There will be an important meeting for all members of the sports staff at 2:15 this afternoon in the State News office.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

By MARGE McRAY

Junior and senior class teams came out the winners in the inter-class women's swimming meet held last week. The 87 points this combination amassed gave it a long lead over the second place freshman class winners with 45 tallies. The sophomore class placed third with 37.

Sunny Maddock was up to her old tricks and set three new records. Jean Proctor's back stroke record was broken by better than three-tenths of a second while the 40 yard breast stroke record set in 1941 by Joan Borgman was also shattered by Sunny.

Breaks 100 Yard Record
Miss Maddock and Doris Pick both broke the 100 yard free style record, held by Jane Pearl.

Herbison Takes First
Other outstanding swimmers in the meet were Edna Hartman who took first in the 30 yard and the 40 yard freestyle. Ruth Garret took first in the 30 yard breast

Jane Hite and Poppy Clark are the first place winners for block two with Ruth Holm and Lou Coolman taking second place.

Carey and Wells on Top
In the first place position for block three are Aileen Carey and Margaret Wells with Barbara Fox and Jean Wychoff coming in second.

Block four has a few more games to play with Doris Taubert and Marilyn DeWitt now in the lead. Peg Frimodig and Lou Dowd are leading block six with one game to play.
