

That's Life

When a coed walked into a crowded class the other day and had to take the only vacant seat in the midst of about 20 other students, two precocious students sitting behind her let loose several comments and whistles. When roll was called the fellow sitting on her lap turned out to be her husband.

One, and Two, and

For once, a course keyed by the pronunciation, "Homework" the most important part of this course, did not fall on deaf ears. This class, happily, is PE 102f, beginning social dancing.

Fraternities Will Resume Open Houses

IFC has sanctioned the resumption of Fraternity Open House week. Bud Cline, Omicron junior, has announced it will be held Monday through Thursday from 7 to 10 each evening.

All men interested in joining a fraternity are invited to attend the open houses.

Grouped by Location

The fraternities have been grouped according to their location in order to enable rushees to reach all houses open each night. Refreshments and entertainment will be provided at each house, and the men are welcome to make their visit as long as they like. Cline stated, however, that the men should make every effort to visit all of the houses open each night.

Monday night the Phi Kappa Kappa, 223 Delta; Lambda Chi Alpha, 535 W. Grand River; Delta Chi, 353 Evergreen, and the Alpha Tau Omega, 451 Evergreen, will hold their open houses.

Tuesday Evening

Tuesday night's hosts will be the members of FarmHouse, 526 Sunset Lane; Phi Delta Theta, 444 Abbott; Sigma Nu, 444 Abbott, and Theta Chi, 453 Abbott.

On Wednesday night the affairs will be given by the Alpha Gamma Rho, 803 E. Grand River; Delta Sigma Phi, 903 E. Grand River; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 131 Bogue; and Sigma Chi, 803 E. Grand River.

Houses open Thursday night include the Alpha Epsilon Pi, 444 Michigan; the Kappa Sigmas, 444 Upsilon, and the Pi Kappa Phi. The residences of the three latter groups will be announced early next week.

Invitational open houses will be held during the remainder of the term by the fraternities.

Marriage Talks Begin Monday

Dr. Ralph Higgins, rector of St. Mark's church in Grand Rapids, will present the first of a series of marriage lectures for young men, married and engaged, Monday at 7:15 p.m. in the Music auditorium.

The topic of the lecture is "What Are My Beliefs About Marriage?" Dr. Higgins will discuss philosophies of marriage and what is wanted and expected in the relationship in order to consummate a successful philosophy of married life.

Council Asks Russia, Iran To Report

Iran Delegate Joins Table

Hussein Ala, Iranian ambassador, smiles as he sits with Iranian delegation at UNO Security council at New York. Ala was invited to sit at the council table shortly after Andrei Gromyko, Russian delegate, walked out of the meeting following the council's rejection of his motion to postpone the Iranian case until April 10.

Delegates To Give Account Of Status At Wednesday Session

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP) — The United Nations Security council decided today to ask Russia and Iran for top level reports by next Wednesday on the "existing status of negotiations between the two countries." The

Groups Plan Four Affairs For Weekend

Today's social plans include a dance this afternoon and two parties tonight. A tea has been scheduled for tomorrow.

This afternoon from 3 to 5 Union Board will present Party-party in the Union ballroom. Spartan Varieties will again be featured from 4 to 4:30 p.m., and this week two sororities, Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma will be honored.

A special meeting of all State News staff members and persons interested in working on the State News will be held today at 1 p.m., Marion Heckel, editor, has announced.

Dick Snook and his band will provide music for this stag-drag affair.

Student Club

"Fool Frolic" is the theme of a Student club planned party which will take place tonight. The social hall of Peoples church will be the scene of the affair. Lu Price, Lansing junior, has announced. Dr. Walter Firey and Miss Thelma Bishop have been invited to act as patrons.

A mixer has been planned by the members of Hillel for tonight. It will take place in the Forestry cabin. Jan Fisher, Detroit freshman, is in charge of planning the affair, while Prof. and Mrs. Alan Scott and Prof. Norman Kinzie will be the chaperons.

Taft House

Tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5, Taft house will be the scene of a tea which the coeds are giving in honor of the faculty.

Jane Hansen, Eaton Rapids sophomore, has stated that decorations for the affair will be based on a spring theme.

Large Crowd Hears Program

Selections From 'Martha' Highlight Evening

Five operatic soloists, under the direction of Giuseppe Bambosheck, presented a mediocre program, "A Night in Old Vienna," to a huge crowd in College auditorium last night. The first part of the three-part program was pale and listless, the second, cheerful and gay, the third, not much better than the first.

Four selections by Mozart, from "The Magic Flute" and "The Marriage of Figaro," and "Don Giovanni" were poorly sung, and left no doubt that American singers cannot perform them nearly as well as German singers. The very beautiful solo, "O Isis and Osiris," was well done, but the needed fire was lacking.

Highlights from the opera "Martha" formed the second part of the program; Laura Castellano, soprano; Mona Bradford, contralto; Richard Gordon, tenor, and John Gurney, basso, sang nine gay and lilting compositions, including "The Last Rose of Summer," the amusing "What's to Do, and Undo?" and the famous "None So Rare, None So Fair."

Part three was entitled "Vienna Sings," and consisted of songs by Lehar, Strauss, Kreisler, and Siczynski. The final quintet, from "The Bat" was performed with all the polish and spirit which the first part of the program deserved.

The second in a group of two programs, "A Night in Vienna," will be presented tonight at 8:15 in College auditorium by the company of operatic soloists as the last number on the lecture-concert series. —B. W.

Thomas Sees Attempt To Swing UAW Elections By Pressure Bloc

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 29 (AP) — A charge that "gangsters and hoodlums" were trying to influence CIO United Auto Workers' elections was made today by former President R. J. Thomas.

An investigation was authorized after Thomas told the convention that lives were "jeopardized" in an effort of outside interests to "pressure" certain delegates.

Thomas made his charge in a brief speech as the UAW's tenth convention drew to a close. The meeting will end tomorrow.

Thomas said local 669 of Wright Aeronautical corporation at Patterson, N. J., had been subjected to "pressure" by "gangsters and hoodlums from New York."

Without going into detail, he also said a Negro delegate from Memphis, Tenn., named Jones had been threatened. A "Robert I. Jones" from General Motors' Fisher Aircraft local at Memphis is listed as a delegate in the primary convention roll call.

Thomas, who lost the UAW presidency to Walter P. Reuther in a bitterly contested race Wednesday, said pressure was brought against local 669 in an attempt to swing its big bloc of votes. In receiving the convention's approval of an inquiry, he said "intimidation must be stopped at UAW conventions."

action was taken in the face of the Soviet delegate's continued absence from the council sessions.

Then, in an atmosphere of obvious good humor, the council adjourned until 11 a.m. (E. S. T.) Wednesday. The request was dispatched to the two governments within half an hour after adjournment.

Council Comparatively Calm

The council scene today was in sharp contrast to the tension of last Wednesday when Andrei A. Gromyko, Russian delegate, led his party of four from the chamber in protest against considering the Iranian case before April 10.

The delegates followed the lead of U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes in proposing the report from the two countries.

After the Iranian ambassador, Hussein Ala, has answered questions from delegates on Iranian issues involving Red army occupation of parts of Iran, Byrnes arose with this proposal:

Byrnes Suggestion

"I would suggest that the president of the council request the secretary general to ascertain at once from the Soviet government and the Iranian government through their representatives and report to the council at its meeting on Tuesday, April 2, the existing status of negotiations between the two governments and particularly to ascertain from the representatives of the two gov-

Ballroom Team To Feature New Dance Routines

"Dansation of 1946," a program by Veloz and Yolanda, internationally known dance team, will be presented Tuesday evening at 8:15 in College auditorium, S. E. Crowe, dean of students, has announced.

During its present transcontinental tour, the team is introducing new routines. The Columbian "Guabina" is a combination of the waltz and rhumba. It is derived from an old Columbian folk dance and is reined to ballroom style.

Another new dance, "La Bambaba," is similar to a polka and is popular in the Mexican ballroom. Presented first in Mexico City, it was recently featured in Life magazine.

Also appearing on the program are five young artists of the concert and musical comedy stages.

Can We Cure The World's Ills?

Afflicted with the 'fever' and zest for living that accompanies the advent of spring, students seem to be blissfully unaware of the goings-on of the world about them, a critical observer asserted recently.

He maintained that we are seriously lacking in 'social awareness,' that energy and enthusiasm we throw away in supporting our athletic teams might better be directed to thinking and doing something about the unfortunate plight of the world. Become world-conscious or perish is his admonition.

Perhaps the point is well taken. Perhaps we ought to hold rallies and forums about UNRRA and UNO. Perhaps we ought to maintain a fever-pitch on the campus and take issue with each development of international significance. Perhaps not.

Is it for us to weigh, evaluate, and propose panaceas for the world? Or might we better study, learn, and seek the understanding that will enable us to deal more adequately with the problems of first water that will confront us when we graduate and take our places in society?

As students it is our business to follow world events with an interested eye, but any overwrought concern can bode little good.

Two Millionth Ex-Tar May Enroll at MSC

The Navy mustered out its two millionth man last night. He was 21-year-old Harold O'Hare, quartermaster second class of East Detroit.

O'Hare said he hasn't decided definitely what he will do, but may enroll at Michigan State college and study dairy farming.

The discharged sailor had been in the navy since June, 1943, and served 19 months at sea in the Pacific war. He was discharged at the Great Lakes, Ill., naval separation center. O'Hare was bade an official farewell by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz in a Mutual system broadcast.

Spartan Matmen Enter Post-Season Tourneys

By KEN CLARK

Ten Michigan State wrestlers, mostly those on the squad who did not see much action during the regular season, will be entered in the Michigan AAU meet in Detroit this afternoon, Coach Fendley Collins stated yesterday.

State's regulars didn't appear as usual in the CAA meet held during spring vacation with three qualifiers placing in the national and the team as a whole finishing sixth. The 1946 tourney marked the 15th time of 17 CAA affairs that Oklahoma A. M. won.

Three Spartans placed individually, three Spartans placed in the national meet. Gale Mikles, 1945 NCAA champ, placed third at 145 pounds; Izy Konrad, State 128 pounder, was fourth and Cliff Benter ended in the same place at the 121 pound weight.

Other Spartans placed were Earl Borinn, John Dowell, Jerry Brentar, and Bob Maldegen. They were the additional Spartan qualifiers.

Spartans appearing in Detroit are: Jack Kreiner, 121 pounds; Bill Covey, 128 pounds; Mike Mowrey, 136 pounds; Gordon Cole, 145 pounds; Roy Bronson, 155 pounds; John Dowell, 165 pounds; and Jerry Brentar, 175 pounds.

Will Enter NAAU
Also competing are: Mike Mowrey, returned serviceman 131 pounds; Bob Maldegen and Jerry Goldsmith, a returned serviceman, will participate in the heavyweight class. Don Johnson, a former Spartan grappler, will enter the 165 pound bracket.

Following the Michigan A.A. tournament, Coach Collins will take Mikles and Konrad to New York city for the N.A.A.U. which is to be held in Madison Square Garden Tuesday and Wednesday.

DZV's Re-organize to Prepare Team for 1946 Murals

Calling their first post-war meeting for Monday night, the DZV athletic brotherhood which took top honors in the intramurals before the war will again organize a team to pace the independent softball league.

Before disbanding in the fall term of 1942, the DZVs captured the highest awards of the intramurals, entering squads in all sports. Now that a large number of DZVs are back on the campus they are again plotting to line the shelves of their trophy room.

Four of the original founders of the athletic brotherhood remaining from the war are Doc Larson, Crash Eckel, Mike Kincaid and Pete Basich. Other members who will be present for the meeting will be Walt Klewicki, Harry Krall, Ollie White, Zolton Kennedy, Pete Fornari and Bob ...

The Philadelphia Phillies, now owned by some of the Blue Jays, called up Nick Picciuto, of Michigan State baseball fame, from the Minneapolis club at the close of last season. Nick proceeded to comb National league batting for an even dozen hits, exactly half of which were two baggers. Picciuto recently returned to school at the end of winter term.

Melvin Ott, manager of the New York Giants, hit 21 homers in 1945 and rapped out 23 triples but — no triples. That isn't exactly a new experience for Mel, however. He didn't collect a triple in either 1941 or '42.

High-Priced Yankee Shortstop

Always a club to build up with young stars is the New York Yankees and pictured above is the Bronx Bombers latest find, BOB BROWN, a shortstop, who says he signed with the Yanks for a "very satisfactory bonus."

Ball Changes Plan; Net Courts Cleared For Student Use

A sudden switch in plans, due to the unexpected conditioning of the clay courts has allowed Coach Charles Ball to change the scene of the round-robin tennis tournament to the clay courts beside the football stadium.

This variation will release more courts to the student body, which has packed the concrete surfaces each afternoon, and also prepare the Spartan varsity netters for their scheduled matches which are held on clay, both at home and away.

The pairings for the tournament were announced by Coach Ball Thursday afternoon with initial play starting yesterday and continuing after 4 each day until the final results are in.

As expected, the seeded stars received first round byes. Seeded number one is Roger Cossart, Lansing engineer. He is followed in order by Herb Hoover of East Lansing, Bob Malaga from Cleveland, Ohio, and Dave Phillips of Jackson.

Spartan JV '9' Begins Practice

The Spartan junior varsity baseball team took advantage of its big brother's absence this past week and began practice for the coming spring season on the old College diamond.

Coach John Kobs created the J. V.s this season after discovering that he had more ball players than he could possibly use on the regular varsity nine. So in order to give more men a chance to take part in the sport, this special team was designed and will play a regular schedule.

Doc Manion, former Spartan backstop of several seasons ago, has taken over the coaching position, and at the present has about 40 ball players under his eye.

Five of State's basketball players have turned their talents to the diamond. Pat Pepler, due to his late turnout, may work into shape in time to take over an outfield position on the regular varsity. Robin Roberts is showing that he can pitch almost as well as he can hit the back board on the hardwood.

Matt Mazza may take over the catching duties while Ollie White and Dick Massuch have been working with the outfielders.

Johnny Marakas, a returning vet who entered school this term, has shown plenty of power at the plate this past week, and outfielder Marakas is well known in Detroit sandlot circles and has been playing with different service teams for the past three years.

Herb Marx, a numeral winner back in 1942, is back in school after a three year tour with the Marines. Lanky Marx seems to be a fixture around the first sack, and should give the Varsity first sacker plenty of competition for the job.

Tony Rhodes returns after an absence of several years for a try at one of the outfield positions. Rhodes played with the Spartan nine in 1941.

President to Renew Opener Tradition

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29 (AP)—President Truman plans to attend the opening game of the American League season here, keeping alive a presidential tradition dating back nearly 40 years.

While there was no formal announcement of Mr. Truman's plans, it was learned from sources close to the White House that he intends to be on hand for the April 16 starter between Washington's Senators and the Boston Red Sox.

Six Softball Leagues Start April 15; Independents Must Enter Teams Early

Managers planning to enter softball teams in the independent league should submit a list of their men to Lyman L. Frimodig, intramural director, in Jenison fieldhouse office, sometime before April 6, when the schedule will be drawn up.

Competition in all leagues will get under way the week starting April 15. Frimodig stated. Besides the independent loop there will also be a league for Wells hall, Abbot hall, the fraternities, trailer camp and the grandset huts, when the latter become occupied.

Main headache for Frimodig is finding enough diamonds to run off the schedules. So far he has

Indians Beat Tigers In 18-11 Slugfest; Diz Trout Chased

LAKELAND, Fla., Mar. 29 (AP)—In one of the Grapefruit league's dizziest slugfests of the year, the Cleveland Indians walloped the Detroit Tigers 18 to 11 here today as the two clubs produced 32 hits good for 68 bases.

The Indians had five home runs, two of them by Les Fleming.

With Hank Greenberg regaining his batting eye to belt two homers and Pat Mullin banging out a homer, two triples and a single, the Tigers actually had an edge in hits, getting 17 off pitchers Steve Gromek and Harry Eisenstat.

'Little Flower' In UNRRA Job Wants Action

La Guardia to Ignore Politics in Program For Securing Food

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 29 (AP) — Fiorello H. La Guardia, the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration's new director general, bluntly told the council today "our job is to take food where we can find it, and to take it to people who need it, wherever they are."

In his first meeting with the 48-member council before it recessed indefinitely, the successor to Herbert H. Lehman declared:

"Wheat has no political complexion, and I'll buy wheat where I can find it."

Approaches Argentina

He said he would begin by extending his greetings to Juan Domingo Peron, Argentina's president. "Here is an opportunity for Argentina to show its desire to cooperate with the rest of the world," he added.

Even as he spoke, Argentina announced it would not join UNRRA, stating its food supplies already were committed, either by sale or donation, to various countries.

La Guardia said he would call next "on my old friend, MacKenzie King" of Canada. "Perhaps he can scrape up a few bushels there."

Requests Action

People "want bread, not advice," he shouted. "I want ploughs, not typewriters. I want fast moving ships, not slow reading resolutions."

"From this point on," he added, "the protocol is off. When I have something to say, I'll say it."

"I'll start right out with my own country. All I ask is that Americans not overeat and not waste. My city alone wastes enough food every day to feed a city of 350,000 people. I know. I picked up that garbage for 12 years."

Assuming his job in the critical period when UNRRA feels there is not enough food in the world to prevent all starvation.

La Guardia said he would ask at world black markets.

La Guardia said he would ask the army to delay dismantling of power plants which might produce fertilizers.

Military Fraternity Seeks Old Members For Reorganization

Lt. Col. Gerald Peterson of the military department has stated that at least five former members of Scabbard and Blade are need for reorganization on campus of the national honorary military fraternity.

Peterson is acting adviser for the honorary, which was disbanded in June, 1942. He asked that those military students contact him at Ext. 407.
