Polk Delivers Ultimatum To Mexico

TODAY'S CAMPUS

... Long Distance

Most remarkable incident to occur at the local beaneries took place last night when Cuthbert T. Eitheror, junior, from Nome who hangs his hat around the corner in the third house from the right of the left turn, entered Auto's Greecy Spool. He set short order in the first boot, and no sooner had he set then a waiter roared by, asked him what he wanted, said they had it and staggered off. It was back in 2.26:3, hot and well-muttered, and Cuss, that lucky swashbuckling roger, was out with his hands and face was bed within fifteen gkq123456 k23mtywplu with about 2034555 if the records.

Pat and Mike, renowned Union barbers, will celebrate their 85th year of service. Mike is still chuckling over the time he burned off half of Pres. Theophilus C. Abbot's beard while Pat remembers back to the days when their were cars on campus.

This is a little late, but we'd will like to share it with the rest of the college. Last Tuesday Melita Spice (one of the popular girls out at our sorority) missed her foreign language class in Everyday English. Prof. Socksie called on her but nobody anserd

Women to Set Chance Of Life Time

Grand news has come out of the last meeting of the judiciary - administrative board of AWS and that is that all women on campus will have 4 a.m. permission on Tuesday nights and men will have to keep strict hours, according to Squirrley Hammilick, president. Reporter Crinoline Corny dashed right over to interview Miss Mammilick since she heard this rumor while doing a gallup pole on what the student body thinks about the Horse Management course, and she found out that it's true. It's really true.

Cross Line

"We of the judiciary-administrative board think that it is a grand idea. It's time that the women realized their rights. We have been subjected on the tryanny of masculine superiority too long. From now on, the men will keep hours, and they may use a D coupon if they petition the board 3 weeks ahead of time and include recommendations from the Dean of Men, their minister, and one faculty member."

Where Are You—You Old Bat?

Ralphie Fernstamacker, president of IFsee, was unable to be contacted, but his roomote said that Ralpie was taking this very hard, and was scurrying around forming a committee to investigate subversive activities on campus.

This whole idea was recommended to the board by the Olin memorable hospital staff since so

 President Polk today delivered an ultimatum to the Mexican government declaring all territory north of the Rio Grande American soil. General Taylor has been ordered to the border.

The record for enrollment just established at MSC — 7,938 plus (a figure which takes into account normal losses due to over exposure to registration, chronic spring fever cases and distemper in grill hounds) is being considered intensively in college circles. Practically every significant col-just what this means — that is, lege group has given thought to in the long run, and considered problematically. Most experts agree that, by and large, there are an awful lot of people here this term.

here Just how many people there in the East Lansing area?? Recent counts seem inadequate. A survey of gum deposits under desk chairs, disfigured straws from the grill and butch haircuts is registered in union barber shops reveals that the local population has fluctuated considerably lately. (Editor, is that fluctuated or frustrated?)

People have even been having a hard time trying to find a place to sleep, things going from bed to worse.

That the local population is swelling is obvious to at least two senators who have been delivering campaign speeches to crowds in the grill for two terms now. It's a little hard to find them consistently, but an a clear day one can see them campaigning among the tables on the north side.)

Although population does not seem to be an imminent threat, a number of local groups will be directly affected by the students population rise. Among them are the Red Cedar ducks, who are going to find a lot more rocks coming there way this term.

People who live until their eightieght birthday are called Oc-toganarians in Boston, Mass.

Bistro Frodd Exposed By Fearless

Greatest undercover work since the exposure of the wholesale perjuring of the Jenison fieldhouse portable basketball floor was the uncovering of the nofarious fraud concerning the piping o the Red Cedar river water into the Union grill where it was in turn sold to grill clientele as coffee.

Instrumental in laying the grondwork for the apprehending of the criminal responsible was Ruther D (Fearless) Fosdick of the local constabulary. The first evidence that something ill was in the wind came when John P. Rutherford, caretaker of the Powerplant

 pumphouse reported that the river level had receded below the intake pipe causin gthe boilers in the powerplant to run dry which counsed no end of confusion.

Branch Branch-Kill
 Working in conjunction with the local branch of the Federal Borough of Instigation, Detective Fosdick revealed that the next step was to detect the source of the unaccountable recession of the river level which was found to be an intake pipe immediate below the dam.

Traking the Pipeline
 Tracing the pipeline, patrolmen arrived at the bar in the Union grill, on campus meeting place and eatery. Sensing proximity to the solution of the situation Detective Fosdick ordered a cup of coffe and immediately compared it with sample taken cntsfrom the river bed. College chemists found the two solutions to alike on all counts.

Confronted with this damaging evidence, Pership L. Bellefonte, new former proprietor of the Grill, confessed to his fraudulent deed and revealed that he had rearranged no little campus plumbing to bring about a direct line from the Red Cedar to the Grill, in hopes of exacting a... greate rprofit from management from of the grill.

Students said they had never had better coffee.

Political Intrigues Corrupt Campus

We realize the full seriousness of obtaining a college education, but it now behooves us to scrutinize more closely the political intrigues of campus life.

A select few have cornered the market on Mephistophiles' current favorite, "Love on a Raft", have manipulated their way into the courses in thermodynamics and avian embryolog, have wangled their way into the good graces of the administration so that they won't be required to drive cars, have obtained all the top positions in the Michigan State Association of Cow Milkers and Manure Spreaders, and have taken over the Music Practice building so that the rest of us can't be served.

True, MSC does not have adequate facilities to accommodate its growing population, but it is time that these few, who are privileged because of their political affiliations, were eliminated.

It is time for action, to remove the corrupt practices of campus politics led by the machine of one Mayor G. D. Useless. We can never achieve the name of a free college guided by his ruthless hand.

We shall stand behind the program of R. U. Reddy in the coming elections for a clean and forward political policy, for an Ever-ready Pen with attached spark plugs in the hands of every student, for unrestricted use of Pinetum and for free trade between the north and west banks of the Red Cedar.

Let us go forward into the atomic era with a forthright, progressive government. Down with G. D. Useless and up with R. U. Reddy!

Mad At Hopps

By MARION HECKEL

Oh goody, my last Spring term in college, and NOW they bring the men back. According to the special dispatch in the Detroit Free Press, which I sent in before I put it in the State News on account of the Free Press pays me more money—and then there's the prestige too you know.

As I was saying, according to the Detroit Free Press (that's two plugs already for John Knight), there are approximately 986 more men in school this term than women; and none of them ever ask me for a date on account of I gotta SAE pin. Oh dear, all those years when State was the leading girls' school in the country, and NOW they bring back the men! First thing we know they'll want the fraternity houses back, and then the only time we'll get in again will be on term parties.

Sometime before I get out of school, too, I'd like to know what the inside of the Union grill looks like. Every one eand a while I stay up all night at the press and rush over at six o'clock trying to beat the rush—and by the looks of most of them you can call it bums' rush—but so far I've never made it. Once I did get to the door so I could look in. Fun, too.

It reminded me of the way Lake Michigan looks from the South Haven pier (I had a job down there for awhile last summer)—all that was needed was a few seagulls and some trout jumping. But no trout would dare jump in the grill anyway. Guess it really doesn't make much difference, though. One of the oldtimers came back to finish his sophomore year, and headed for the grill first thing. He got as far as the first wave and then turned around and left, muttering:

"Same damn people; just different faces."

Hawaii and Alaska are included in the term "United States." The term "Canal Zone" includes all the territory purchased of Panama, comprising the "Canal Zone" proper and the islands in the bay of Panama, named Perico, Naos, Culebra and Framenco.

State News isn't a good paper, and just for that you can discontinue my subscription to the Michigan State News, the Michigan State college student publication which appears daily on the Michigan State college campus, because although I'm a Phi Beta Kappa transfer from a small university down the road and on the Huron river and my tuition is on scholarship and I have a rich aunt that pays all the rest of my expenses, I still don't think the Michigan State News is a very good paper or worth the money.

Top Loop Tilts To Show Key Hoopers

The Spartan-sponsored 6th annual loop tournament will get under way this afternoon, according to co-coaches Amiss and Meerman.

Morton Tops Loop

The tourney, which is open only to fraternities, dorms, independents, graduates, and faculty members has been held annually for the past six years, was won by the SROs last year when Morton Norton, Sigma Rho Omega senior from Mannassa Colo. silpel four tallies over the crossbar for a total of six pins. In second place was Phi Delta Quipsflon with five nets, followed by Yakeley hall.

Frenzied Finale Feature Fight

The loop finals for this year may well top all bar clashes whic have featured net tilts in the past, accordin to Black and Gold menter Slug McFrosnith. This will be the sixth year that the bouts will be held.

Chi Chucker Clique Has Castle Crew

Things look bright on the frat sport front, especially those noses. Anyway this coming spring when the annual Greek polo-tourney opens the favorite Theta Chi chuckers will be whamming away.

Managed by dashing Rowdy Richard Castle the Chi club should prove to the the club. Castle will have his number one man back in the personage of Ralph Fensterhocker, daring malet swimmer.

Set This Ten Point Bold

With Rowdy Richard and Fensterhocker in the saddle there will be a few Greeks that can get a look-see onto the inside of the arena, including the Chis budly-buddies from the big white house.

RED Cedar is Wet

Bowing before the superior tilters of MSC, the University of Southern Hamtramck Bartlys piled up a large number of blinkers and buzzers before the Spartans whizzed into the home stretch, paced by Captain Pumb Ball, freshman from Splitlip, Oado, and Blew three tuzes in the pin ball room of Nesmej neighborhood.

Big Formal Affair Shall Take Place On Starlit Roof

By LIZ SORRY

MSC again comes zooming into the social spotlight. The clever little Spartans have planned 5 wonderful parties for the weekend.

The first party your eaves dropping reporter caught wind of is one which the Stigma Stews have planned for Friday night. This modest formal affair will take place on the Starlit Roof of the new Union building and Cob Blestone and his six pebbles have finally consented to supply dance music. The game room in the basement has been obtained for the patrons, Wormie Big-wheel confidently stated yesterday. Patrons include Mr. and Mrs. J. Hop and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Prom.

Snowball Fight

Chick Chickery told me that his fraternity, the Who Deltas, is giving a radio party Friday night as a means of obtaining radios for each room of the house. Admittance will be only by presentation of a radio (Chickery announced, and these must be purchased from the local Chickery-Chickery and Son music store. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this affair which will take place at the Who Delt house from 6:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Following this open dance the fraternity will hold a dance for its members only. Chickery also stated that the affair will be unchaperoned as the Who Delt didn't like to show partiality among the faculty members.

Beer Bust

As a means of preserving student health, the administration is attempting to bring students into the streets and out of their smoke filled rooms. President O. O. Johnny has announced that an all college street dance has been planned for Saturday.

The highway department has approved the roping off of US16 from Milliams to Wason and Habit dorms for the dance. "Hit the Road" is the theme of the affair, which will be carried out by splendid decorations. Ima Drum and her six cymbalettes will give out with the music from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Afternoon classes will be excused and the president has expressed a hope that everyone has a real jivey time.

Johnny's Home

The girls of Whatta Dorm have planned an open house for Saturday from 3 p.m. to 12. All men within a radius of one hundred miles are cordially invited to attend. Chairman Heidi Ho has announced, however, that no outside women should come within site of the dorm if they know what's good for them.

Mis Ho also stated that oodles of refreshments and entertainment have been planned to entertain the males. Decorations will be based on a wild west theme, and all grills will be armed with lassos.

The last part on the list has been planned by the Awful Psis. It is a term party which will begin Saturday at 7 a.m. and last the remainder of the term. The chapter house will be the scene of the affair. Sunny South is in charge of planning the affair, and she announced that Mr. and Mrs. M. S. See will act as patrons.

Roomers Spred On MSC Campus About Military

The rumors that men enlisting in advanced military do so either because of the shiny new officers uniform and twenty dollars a month or because it is required by the course they are enrolled in are slanderous and a lie, Col. Eager told this reporter today.

Why, these men in the, he went on to say, class like the army and its life. One of our students had a nrvious breakdown when they discharged him from the army on points—231— because he wished to stay in. He didn't take any interest in life until he came to State letting men take a course in military training.

Bystanders should take heed of the playful jests that the lads are usually indulging in such as their plans when they meet their ex-sergeants after they get their commission and the things they will say when some recruit fails to salute they

In all reality these men are the backbone of the nation, and a few missing vertebrae will not bother such a large organization in the least, so don't spread nasty rumors about the local militia, as they could sue you, and with the patriotism what it is probably win their case.

Grover Cleveland was a posthumous child.

Canoe Paddle Hires Lawyer On Business

The return of ex-GI veterans has monkeyed up the business of I. Paddle, proprietor of the Redcedar canoe stand. The canoe stand, located several ducks up the river from the bridge, is being bypassed by airforce releases who brought their yellow life rafts with them when they came home from the army.

Paddle who has operated a tremendous business since 1801, is having his mouthpiece bring suit against the veterans administration for allowing these rafts to operate on his franchise.

One sophomore, no veteran, wrote to the surplus property board for their advertised Mae West, is thinking of hiring the same lawyer. All he got was a life preserver.

Paddle has gotten a little extra business from Kaiser-Fraser men who have been using the canoes to commute to work from the flats he has rented in a hole he excavated under the band shell. she will shell kill. Speaking of excavating that dry spot on the red cedar US16 is being dug so that no portaging of canoes will be necessary without a permit. The canoe builders union visited Paddle yesterday and promised him full support in his cleanup of VA. to be continued.

WOMEN

many men have entered the hospital lately complaining of ingrown toenails, and other serious ailments. "This is all due," said Doctor Towland, "to the aw full late late hours they keep. I'm sure."

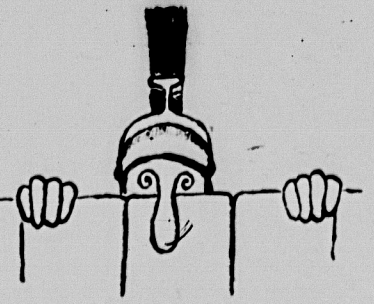

"It's about time the women got a chance to get some nite air," on coed sed. "It's just terrible the way we're cooped up evry night and don't get no air," remarked another coed.

Dean Younow made a fine quote when she said "It's swell, it really is. It's about time my girls had some fun."

At the next meetin the bored will discust whether having beer in the kill kill kill HO 1.

In all the history o the United States only one man has been president at one time.
