TODAY'S CAMPUS

... Absent Minded

Prof. Alan Scott of the journalism department, almost made the mistake of his scholastic lifetime yesterday when, running out of exam papers, he innocently suggested to his reporting class that they look onto their neighbor's desk to get the questions.

What the learned professor remembered, to his embarrassment, was that the test was written and ingenious students had just as easily copy the questions as well as questions.

Class Of 1946 To Swing-Out

Seniors will participate in the annual Swing-out Thursday evening, Jack Breslin, class president, said yesterday. All seniors are requested to wear caps and gowns for the event.

Members of the senior Ag division will begin the parade from Ag Hall at 7 p.m. They will march to Olds hall where Engineering seniors will join them. The next stop will be the Home Ec building where seniors from that division will fall in.

The parade will continue to Merrill hall, where seniors in Business and Public Service and Science and Arts will join in for the last stop at the Vet clinic. The Swing-out will end at Fairchild theater, at 7:30.

Pres. John A. Hannah and Alumni Director Glen O. Stewart will address the class after the election of alumni class officers. A nominating committee composed of Gil Haley, Mary Slack, Renee Scott, Howard Grasher, and Helen Fisher has met with Stewart to select two names for each alumni office to be filled.

Seniors who do not have their caps and gowns are requested to go to Fairchild theater at 7:30 for the last half of the program. All seniors have been asked to wear caps and gowns each Wednesday until graduation.

Symphony Students Will Ballot On 136 For New Council Members

The Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra To Appear

The Philadelphia Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Eugene Ormandy, will be presented in a concert in College auditorium tonight at 8:15.

The Philadelphia orchestra belongs to this country and to this era. Its growth has coincided with the growth of the twentieth century as it has always featured the works of outstanding American composers, past and present.

In this, its spring tour of 1946, the orchestra will play four well-chosen works. The first of these will be the "Overture in D minor" from Handel's Concerto Grosso No. 5. In the orchestration of this composition, Ormandy has admirably maintained the Handelian spirit.

Beethoven's "Symphony No. 7 in A major" will be the second selection performed. Of this magnificent composition it has been said "the Seventh Symphony needs no analysis, it escapes the commentator. As the landscape is in the eye of the beholder, so the symphony is in the ear of the hearer."

Two nocturnes for orchestra, "Clouds" and "Festivals," by Debussy, will form the third number.

New Naval Flying Club Will Meet Tomorrow; Reservists Welcome

Newest prospective member of MSC's postwar aerial organizations is a navy club to be composed of naval reserve aviators, which will have its first meeting tomorrow night at 7:30 in room 103, Union annex.

Harry F. Steele, acting chairman, said that all naval reservists, active or inactive, are welcome to attend.

He added that the navy hasn't as yet set up a program for active reservists, but when it does, members will be required to travel to Chicago and Detroit to get in their flying time. With this organization, schedules can be set up with bus lines or private cars to facilitate transportation.

If a suitable number of pilots turn out, Steele said, it might be possible to have a flying program set up at the local airport. Anyone desiring further information may contact him at 93203.

Thirty-Three Seniors Join Phi Kappa Phi

Thirty-three initiates with a grade-point average of 2.25 or better have been selected from the senior class for membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary. C. S. Gerlach, faculty adviser, has announced.

WSSF Drive To Start Tomorrow; Goal For State Pegged At $5,000

A total of $5,000 is the aim of the World Student Service Fund drive which begins tomorrow on campus. Co-chairmen Gayle Oviatt, Washington, D. C., junior, and Bob Butler, Trenton junior, have announced that PanHellenic, IFC, and AWS representatives will canvass student residences and dormitories during the three-day drive.

Tomorrow through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., there will be a table in the lower deck of the Union where donations will be received. Members of YWCA are in charge of it on the first day, SWL on Thursday, and Town Girls Friday.

This local drive is part of a nation-wide effort to raise $1,000,000 for the WSSF. Many other schools have already completed their drives, and have averaged $100 per person from faculty and students in contributions.

Voting To Take Place Tomorrow Voters Must Show ID Cards

Michigan State college students will cast their votes tomorrow in a primary election for members of next year's Student council. Over 150 petitions were filed for the offices. The faculty committee on organizations, after Helen Fisher, Grand Haven senior and retiring president of Student council, announced that because of the scarcity of candidates for the posts of junior and senior representatives from the School of Veterinary Medicine and junior representatives from the School of Agriculture, there will be no primary vote for these positions.

Voting Tomorrow

Voting will take place all day tomorrow in the lower deck of the Union. Miss Fisher added, and all students will be required to show identification cards. Seniors will not vote. No publicity for candidates may be placed near the polls.

Students running for the office of senior representative from the School of Agriculture are Robert C. Cetas, David Larson, and Mary Elisabeth Miller.

Juniors will vote for one of the following for senior representative for the School of Engineering, Joseph Eveland, Thomas Loring or Frank Prescott, Jr.

School of Engineering

Experienced Men

Througs four years of war those who did not actually participate still became very familiar with military intricacies. Colonel Whitelaw has said, however, that although the ROTC program is still in its infancy, what advanced courses lack in numbers is adequately made up by the experienced men enrolled. All students served as enlisted men in some one of the services during the war.

Tonight's performance will preview the program set up for sixth service command officers who will inspect the ROTC department and students next week. Although no one has been named to review the troops in their first appearance, corps sponsors and the cadet battalion staff will be present on the reviewing stand.

Affairs of State

By LIZ CORRY and THAIS LUCAS

WITH mid-terms nearly over, State students can take another breathing spell until finals. Seniors are looking forward to the Senior Swingout; plans for the Mardi Gras are still on the fire, with students all ready plugging their candidate for king or queen; and the Greek women can be heard practicing songs for the Sorority Sing. All in all, the future looks pretty bright for the men and women at MSC.

News from the Zeta Tau Alpha house concerns the recent marriage of Jean Hart and Edward Trudeneau. The couple hails from Saginaw, and Jean was previously a member of the class of '43.

A small reunion took place at the Phi Tau house Sunday when Jerry Linton made a return visit. Linton was a Phi Tau on campus before the war.

Over the weekend a Delta Sigma passed from the possession of Dick Henderson, Detroit junior, to Margaret Herbison, Jackson junior.

Two feminine journalism students attended the Theta Sigma Phi "Ladies of the Press" breakfast which took place at the Whittier hotel in Detroit Sunday morning. The coeds were Helen Gover, Mt. Pleasant junior, and Marion Heckel, Detroit senior. State alums of the class of '45 also attending were Peg Middlemiss and Rosemary Howland.

Spartan Track Mentor Predicts Bright Future

By Bill Sonneborn

Spartan Nine Poses Ludwig Uncle Sam

By Jim Carr

"Ace" Ludwig, Spartan center fielder, notified John Kobs yesterday he had received his induction notice and is to go on May 21.

The promising Mustang freshman, has been one of the top players on the State nine season. Covering the center position and leading off the batting order, he is especially fast on the bases.

In a varsity game against Michigan, Ludwig proved to be the only Spartan effort against the left handed Ed Rossi when he led three hits and boosted the average to .303.

Ed Sobczak or Pat Peppeler move into the position of Ludwig. Coach Kobs has Peppeler and Sobczak in the outfield position but when the Jayvees beat the Mustangs.

In a contest the juniors Robin Roberts for the varsity was outplayed. He fanned five, getting Berlin, leading batter of varsity, twice, both times the bases loaded. The Jayvees got excellent support from the varsity "B" substituted the Jayvees' coach 9-4 with Harry and Pete Fornari getting the hits for the winners.

Netmen Run Hoosiers; Face Termakers Next

Western Michigan State of 3-4 in a close match today. Michigan State's tenacious overwhelmed the University of Indiana 9-0 at Bloomington Saturday.

In a singles match between Phillips and Indiana's number one man, Bob Bosart, was a close one of the afternoon. Bosart forced Phillips to sets before the Hoosier won 6-3, 3-6, and 6-4.

Deltas Advance Fraternity Block in Playoffs

Yesterday's interfraternity match, the Sigma Nus defeated the first set of a semifinal from Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

In the second set of the match, the score tied at 6-6. In the quarterfinals match, Phi Theta turned back Sigma Nu 7-5.

Although Michigan State's children are bested by a powerful Ohio State aggregation at Columbus Saturday, Coach Karl A. Schlademan predicts a good showing by the Spartans in their coming outdoor track and field dual meets.

The Spartans took five firsts from the Bucks, tallying wins in the quarter mile and 440 runs, the disc and pole vault events. Rainy weather prevented State's thinclads from setting any new varsity records.

Jim Fraser's quarter mile run highlighted the sprints and caused Coach Schlademan to comment that he is beginning to look like one of the country's better quarter milers.

Win by Two-Tenths of Second Ohio State's mile relay combination, posting a time of three minutes, 22.8 seconds in their event, captured first place honors from State by just two-tenths of a second.

Schlademan predicted that under more favorable conditions it is very probable that the Spartans will be timed at an even three minutes, two seconds in this assignment before this year's dual meet season closes.

Another Spartan who is proving his worth is Bob Schepers who starred in the 100 and 200 yard races. Schepers didn't look as fast as the indoor contests this year but is quickly coming into form on the outdoor paths.

Predictions of things to come for the Michigan State thinclads are particularly good when consideration is taken of the fact that all members of the 1946 squad except three are meeting their first varsity track and field competition this year.

Other individual Spartan winners besides Fraser were Ted Wouch in the pole vault, Walt Mack in the mile, and Bruce Drynan in the discus.

Spartan Coach Honored

Charles McCaffree, Jr., swimming coach at Michigan State college, has been named editor of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Swimming Guide.

Tigers Turn Back 'A's For Second Win Of Series

PHILADELPHIA, May 6 (AP)—Virgil Trucks bested Phil Marchildon in a pitching duel today when the Detroit Tigers tripped the Philadelphia Athletics 3-1 before 6,190 fans. Trucks allowed only six hits while his Tiger teammates collected eight, including Jimmy Outlaw's homer off Marchildon, and his ninth inning successor, Jack Knott.

Seven Unbeaten '10s' Lead Coed Softball

In softball's block one the undefeated Sigma Kappas hold top place while Concord house and Delta Gamma are tied for honors in block two.

Another undefeated club is Zeta Tau Alpha in block three. South Campbell and Pi Beta Phi are tied in block four, both teams having won all games played thus far.

Block five top rankers are the Town Girls with no defeats, while in block six Mason 9 is undefeated.

Meade Tops Wise On Mound; Wells F Wins Fourth In Row

In one of the best pitcher's duels of the incantorial season, Wells F's George Meade edged out Wells C's Les Wise, 1-0 in last night's dormitory softball league play.

The single run was unearned, coming in the third frame on a bunt by Meade, an error on the play sending Meade to second and a double by Bob Wise.

Wells C got only one hit, a single by Bill Homiak, while Wise allowed only three safeties.

Wells A's hard-hitting club piled up 16 runs in back of hurler Dave Thorton to take a 16-5 victory over the winners Wells E club. The game was called at the end of the third.

Pounding out a 13-2 win over Wells D, the Wells B squad got back on the victory trail for pitcher Dave Merrill in the final game of the evening.

Unless Wells A can upset Wells F next week the latter will clinch loop honors.

Abbot 15 downed Abbot 17 by a 4-2 count in an overtime contest, as the winners pushed across two runs in the sixth. Winning hurler was Barry Jones.

Bell-Hop Guests Include President, Hotel Men

Guests and patrons for the all-college "Bell-Hop" dance to be sponsored by hotel administration majors May 24 in the Union ballroom, have been announced by Publicity Chairman Thom Covert, Lansing sophomore.

Pres. and Mrs. John A. Hannah, Dean and Mrs. L. C. Emmons, Col. and Mrs. D. C. Rodney, Dean and Mrs. S. E. Crowe, Prof. and Mrs. Tom King, Dean Marie Dye and guest, Mrs. Isabele Gonon, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Klair will be guests for the evening.

Hotel Heads Invited

Others include Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Anderson, president and managing director of Lansing's Hotel Olds; Mr. James E. Schloff of the Hotel Roosevelt and guest; Mr. and Mrs. Al Keast, manager of the Hotel Porter; and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Frawley, manager of Fort Shelby Hotel, Detroit, and president of the American Hotel association.

Patrons for the informal dance will be Prof. and Mrs. Bernard Proulx and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Foster.

Plan Organ Music

Dick Charles' orchestra has been contracted to play and the interlude organist will be Charles Eiferle, Covert announced.

Lists of groups working on the annual party, which was discontinued during the war, have been released by General Chairman Peter Gerns, Canton, Ohio, junior.

Name Chairmen

SYMPHONY

Famous Arranger

Besides its justly famous conductor, the Philadelphia orchestra will bring with it its almost equally-famous manager, Harl McDonald, who is also one of the country's foremost composers. He is a man of many facets, for in addition to running the orchestra, which is a complex organization, he also turns out compositions of a high order.

The same wind snuffs candles yet kindles fires; so, where absence kills a little love, it fans a great one.

Two Dorms May Be Open Next Term

Mayo and Williams dormitories have been tentatively chosen to serve as women's residences this summer, Miss Betty Corbushly, housing director for women, has announced.

It has not yet been decided as to which of these dorms, if chosen will be open for six weeks and which for twelve. However, one of them will be open for both sessions of summer school.

Because it is uncertain just how many women will be attending school this summer, it is impossible to say whether there will be two or three occupying a room. Women will not be assigned to rooms by the end of May.
