State Closes Best Baseball Season In History

Down Great Lakes For 21st Victory In 26 Contests

By JIM CARR

Michigan State Spartans last night rang down the curtain of the most successful season in State baseball history by chalking up a 6-3 victory over the Great Lakes Navy Training Station.

Senior Joe Skrocki started his first game for the Spartans, but got into trouble in the fifth inning. Keith Steffee came to Skrocki's rescue in that frame with the bases loaded and only one out.

The fire-ball ace put the damage on the Saviors' rally and went on to limit them to only one hit in the remaining four and two-thirds innings that he worked. It was the seventh win against the Navy since Steffee's first inning rally. The Spartans picked up one run in the second inning and another in the third, and then won their game winning rally in the fifth frame.

Steffee started the inning off by singling into left field. Pat Loring, trying to move Steffee into scoring position with a bunt, failed on a fielder's choice.

David Guest advanced the two runners with a sacrifice and Marty Hansen was safe when Great Lakes' first baseman Sam White tumbled a throw from Steffee and Perpler both scoring. These two runs sent the Spartans to a 6-3 victory.

Summer Term Enrollees May Classify Today

Students who expect to enroll in summer school must preclassify today, Dean S. E. Crowe, summer school head, said yesterday. Basic college students will report to their counselors for preclassification, while students in All Saturday classes have been cancelled because of graduation activities, Registrar Robert S. Linton announced yesterday.

All students who intend to do field work this summer should report to their advisers immediately, since they will be required to fill out their enrollment cards and register today.

Regular registration will begin with freshmen registering on June 17, and all other students on June 18, Crowe stated.

Seniors To Form At Power House

Staff members and graduating seniors will form the commencement procession at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Seniors will meet at the power house and will form lines running east according to schools.

John W. Hicks, Veterans' administration representative on campus, reminded all veterans taking education at MSC under the "GI Bill" that today is the last day for filling out questionnaires at Dem hall.

The procession, with seniors following the faculty, will march to College auditorium where commencement exercises will be held at 3 p.m.

Smoke Vote Due Today

Student council will maintain an impartial attitude in regard to the question of smoking on campus, Chairman Charles Bachman, jr., East Lansing sophomore, has stated. The council will follow the majority opinion of the student body as determined by the ballots cast today.

If the voters are in favor of smoking on campus, urns will be placed at all building entrances. If students are not in favor of changing the policy, Student council will officially delegate organization to enforce the tradition. Either result will not affect existing regulations concerning smoking in college buildings.

Ballot boxes have been placed in Merrill hall, Olds hall, Home Ec building, College auditorium, Union, Ag hall, Veterinary hospital, Horticulture building, and Music building to facilitate voting of a greater percentage.

Each ballot must contain the name and student number of the student casting it. These will be checked with a college list. Any votes which have duplicate names or numbers will not be counted.

President Picks Jurist

Truman Nominates Vinson as Justice

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—President Truman today nominated Secretary of the Treasury Fred Vinson to be chief justice of the United States.

The President at the same time nominated reconversion director John W. Snyder to succeed Vinson as Secretary of the Treasury.

He named John L. Sullivan undersecretary of the navy.

The President disclosed the appointments at a crowded news conference. He said the office of war mobilization and reconversion would be terminated.

Asked if this meant that the country's reconversion troubles were over, the President replied not all of them, but most of them.

Mr. Truman said he had decided to name Vinson to succeed the late Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone about an hour and a half before the news conference. Vinson is a Kentuckian, a former member of the house and a former judge of the U. S. court of appeals for the District of Columbia.

Economic stabilizer, Chester Bowles will continue his duties in that capacity when the reconversion office is terminated, Mr. Truman said. He did not know how long it would take.

Snyder Becomes New Treasury Secretary

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—John W. Snyder's appointment today as Secretary of the Treasury marks the third time he has stepped into Fred M. Vinson's shoes in little more than a year.

Snyder, St. Louis banker and long-time intimate friend of President Truman, has followed Vinson as Federal Loan Administrator, Director of War Mobilization and Reconversion and now as Treasury secretary.

Dorm Residents, Foster, Give Views At Convocation

An unanimous "aye" that echoed through the band shell last night indicated that the students of Michigan State college want to continue the investigation of the recent raise in dormitory board.

The students voiced this approval when asked if they favored a further look into the conditions that reportedly have made necessary an up in their living cost.

Members of the student body last night filled the band shell to hear the results of the investigations made by a committee, headed by John Cox, and sponsored by Student council, and a financial estimate of the revenues and expenditures of the dormitories from Emory Foster, head of dormitory and feed services.

Loring Presides

Tom Loring, council president, presided over the meeting which was for the most part orderly. Loring introduced representatives from three dormitories who reported on the effect that the recent ruling would have on their fellow students.

Speaking for Wells hall, Earl Rich stated "it's unjust as heck" and that they are not going to take it without a fight.

Norma Maxwell, West Mayo, thought that room rent should be decreased or that food should have improved when three women went into a room.

May Force Students Out

She feels that the raise will force many women out, not although an increase in wages has been made by the college, a corresponding increase has not come.

Panel Revamps Rushing Set-Up

Panelistic announced last night that two changes have been made in rushing rules. President Barbara Gies stated that no alumnae or active can entertain women this summer who will be attending Michigan State college in the fall.

Internal rushing will be permitted fall term. Freshmen who take at least 16 credits in summer school will be eligible to participate in fall rushing.

Also transfer students who attend the summer session and take a full schedule may be rushed by the sororities at this time.

Board To Examine Bridge Game Ban

Student council, after delegating one of its members to make a report on bridge playing in all public areas of the Union, has left final decision to the Union board as to whether card games are legal in the women's lounge.

Until the Union board makes a decision, women will be permitted to continue playing bridge in their lounge, it was announced by Bob Butler, Union board president.

The rule as it now stands does not make clear whether the women's lounge is a public area, thus coming under the ban.

Trailer Camp Assumes 'City' Proportions

By PAT PATTERSON

"After the army, it's heaven," were the words of Rex Barney, Jackson senior, when he expressed his idea of life in the Michigan State trailer camp, situated between Harrison road and Kalamazoo street.

To this thriving little community of 140 families of returned veterans now at MSC, including approximately 50 children, a trailer means "home." Although some of the luxuries of home, such as electricity and running water, are missing, the privacy of an individual trailer compensates for the inconveniences, according to the numerous young wives who have experienced the rather impersonal mode of life which exists in apartment projects.

Each trailer is furnished with an icebox and a kerosene or gasoline stove. The camp is divided into sections of 15 trailers, and for every section there is a service unit which includes sanitation facilities and a utility room containing a washing machine and a telephone.

Michigan State's agricultural department has allotted a plot of land to each family on which enough vegetables can be raised to last for one year. This summer the college will plant shrubbery within the camp to make the settlement more home-like.

For the benefit of the children all sections have large enclosed play yards which are soon to be equipped with government surplus facilities, such as swings and slides.

Many of the trailer citizens agree that next to better plumbing facilities, they would like most to see a commissary nearby to ease shopping difficulties.

Ray D. Lampher, manager of the MSC trailer camp and formerly assistant manager of the Union building, is looking forward to many improvements in the near future, including the recreation hall which is now under construction. This building will enclose a large room for dances and camp self-government meetings which will take place after election of sectional camp representatives next week.

Michigan State's trailer camp might well be called the land of unlimited possibilities.

Maritime Workers Threaten Strike

Nearly 2,500 AFL Sailors Quit Work For Hour; Nation-Wide Stoppage To Start Within The Week

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6 (AP) — Between 2,000 and 2,500 AFL sailors, described by their leaders as "hot for strike," quit work for an hour today, voted another "stop-work" meeting at 11 a.m. tomorrow, and demanded that contract negotiations with ship owners be resumed immediately.

It was not immediately apparent how many of the sailors went back to their work. Harry Lundberg, who heads the Seafarers International union and its Pacific coast affiliate, Sailors Union of the Pacific, said they had no instructions, they were free to do as they liked.

A Seattle member of two AFL maritime unions, who quit his ship Thursday afternoon after a stop-work meeting which issued an ultimatum that they would refuse to sail any ships unless wage negotiation meetings are arranged definitely within one week. A committee was appointed to meet Secretary of Labor late Thursday.

Leaders of the sailors union said stop-work meetings like today's will be held daily until negotiations are opened between the union and Pacific coast ship owners.

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP) — AFL seamen stalked from ships by the thousands today and threatened to beat CIO maritime unions to the punch on a general shipping strike.

Two officials of AFL sailors unions said in New York a full-scale strike of 62,000 members seemed certain, perhaps "right away," perhaps within a week.

Smith-Connally Act

Just how that might be accomplished under the Smith-Connally labor act and its requirement for a 30-day notice of a strike was not clear. In the meantime, the AFL seamen struggled back up the gangplanks after holding a meeting in the major salt water ports.

The government already is wading in negotiations with union officials and ship operators to head off nation-wide maritime strike set for June 15. Some labor experts said privately that the AFL now seems bent on seizing some of the attention the CIO strike threat has commanded.

Sailors Quit

Members of the AFL seafarers International union and its affiliated Sailors Union of the Pacific quit work simultaneously today in 30-odd of the nation's chief maritime cities.

In New York, 5,000 of them met for three hours and unanimously authorized a strike vote. At a subsequent news conference a declaration that a strike

Fay L. Cunningham, former Michigan State student from Lansing and a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity, sailed from San Francisco May 29 on the navy hospital ship "Haven" for the Bikini test expedition.

Eisenhower Calls For Draft Extension For Security

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP) — With the final form of the draft extension highly uncertain, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said tonight that "the pool of potential volunteers is drying up" and "selective service must supplement enlistments."

"For this purpose 18 months of service is a fair contribution to ask of any young man," the chief of staff declared. "The security of our own country and the continuing peace of our world are worth it. It is far less than we asked of the soldiers who fought to make possible a peaceful world."

Eisenhower prepared his remarks for an NBC broadcast commemorating the second anniversary of the landings in Normandy which he commanded as supreme allied commander.

Meanwhile a final congressional decision on the future of the draft awaited conferences between the senate and house to adjust their differences over the length and terms of the extension.

One of the chief issues is whether teen-agers should be drafted again after the present stopgap extension expires July 1. The measure passed by the senate yesterday would permit 18 and 19-year-olds to be called, but the house previously had disapproved. A compromise by which 18-year-olds would be exempted but 19-year-olds would be taken was discussed.

Eisenhower paid tribute to "the American fighting man" and said that "the job he began and carried through to its combat conclusion is not yet complete."

Senator Accuses Kaiser Of Waste Of U.S. Money

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP) — Senator Bridges (R-NH) told the Senate today that Henry J. Kaiser is trying to get the government to reject bids on a surplus steel plant so Kaiser can "lease it on his own terms."

Bridges said Kaiser declined to bid on the plant at South Chicago, Ill., when bids were taken May 1, but now needs it because he needs steel to "help develop his embryonic automobile and housing projects."

"Thus, Kaiser proposes just another of his typical shrewd operations," Bridges said. "It doubtless would put up little or none of his own money for a lease, and instead he probably would take over the present $95 million taxpayer investment and have another $25 million or so of public money spent for improvements to help meet the needs of his private business. Then, possibly, sometime, if he made a profit on his automobile and houses, he would pay the government something."

RAISE INVESTIGATION

(Continued from Page 1) Students working off-campus. In the final student report, Joe Frank who represented the men of Quonset village, said that an "unplanned move of the type that the administration made, makes a doubtful economic security" for soon students "will be unable to meet the financial stress of college living."

Foster Gives Report

Foster was then introduced and opened his report by saying "I apologize, not for the raise in fees, but for the way that the announcement of this increase was handled." In his estimate he showed that in a period ending March 31, 1946, the books showed a deficit of $2,800. This was the first time that any of the dorms have lost money, he added.

Foster, who took over his post just two months ago, was asked by the administration to "pick up this deficit, and he said the rates have been raised, no more than was "absolutely necessary." He also stated that "the need arise, the fees may be raised even more, and if the dorms show a profit the fees will be lowered."

This estimate was prepared at the request of the student committee, and Foster invited any student who so desired to come into his office and look at the book which contains the most current complete financial report of the college. He added that, contrary to rumor, the rates in the Quonset huts have not been changed.

Cox Speaks for Committee

John Cox then gave a summary of the origin and investigation of the general committee. He included in his reports that one of the committee who had contacted the state legislature had found "the personnel completely cooperative." He then turned the meeting over to Gene Franklin who has been acting as statistician for the group.

Franklin told that students can still earn their room and board working under the new rate, 23 hours a week, the amount of work that was needed to meet the fees before, and read an "unsigned financial report sent out by the administration. He also repeated questions for which as yet no answers have been found.

The meeting was concluded by the reading of questions from the audience. For some of these, Foster was able to give factual answers, but was unprepared to answer others. All unanswered questions will be turned over to Pres. John A. Hannah this morning for answers.

USSR, Argentina Begin Diplomatic Relations

BUENOS AIRES, June 6 (AP)—Argentina today established diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union, the Argentine government announced. The move was the first step toward normalizing relations between the two nations, which have been at odds since the Russian Revolution of 1917. Argentina's foreign minister, Carlos Gardel, said the new relations would be based on mutual respect and cooperation.

Washington, Dr. Anton E. H. ... and trade relations ... will be ... in the very near future.

Truman Says No Case Veto

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—President Truman withheld decision today on the Case Union Control bill and put in another plug for his own emergency strike measure.

The President told his news conference that reports he has decided to veto the Case bill are not true—that he is still analyzing it.

He said further that he still favors his own emergency measure. Responding to a question, he said he favors it in the form in which the House passed it two hours after he proposed it to the joint session of congress. In that version the bill includes a provision, knocked out in the Senate, for drafting workers who strike against government-seized industries.

Shortly after Mr. Truman had restated his position, House leaders said they had decided to postpone, probably until next week, further action on the President's plan. They had proposed earlier to pass to the rules committee the task of figuring out a procedure for dealing with varying Senate and House versions.

When it does come up a motion will be made to send the measure to a Senate-House conference to work out an agreement. One objection to that procedure would automatically refer the issue to the rules group, and such an objection is fully expected.

PARTY POOPER!

Principal Stops High Schoolers From Grad Fest

CUMBERLAND, Mr., June 6 (AP)—Victor D. Heise, principal of Fort Hill high school, said today that plans of some members of the senior class to hold a "drinking party" to celebrate graduation had been nipped with the interception of a typewritten program.

The outline of the planned celebration, which was unsigned, said the private party would "likely prove the drunkenest, most disgraceful and most talked about party ever put on by a graduating class."

There was no comment from any member of the senior class.

The announcement of the Fort Hill party said that "a prize will be given to the man or woman who can drink the most beer or whiskey," and that there would be a consolation prize of a year's free membership to an organization of disabled war veterans.

You'd be surprised how you can win friends and influence people if you have some idea of what you're talking about.

Italians Talk Of Secession

ROME, June 6 (AP)—King Umberto II tonight was drafting a farewell message expected to urge unity for the new Italian Republic, already confronted with mutterings of secession in the South, before joining the Queen en route to exile in Portugal.

The royal household announced officially that Queen Margherite and her four children were on their way to Portugal aboard the Italian cruiser Duca degli Abruzzi, and Umberto was expected to follow after a final message to the nation and family ruled Italy for 73 years and his reign lasted just under a month.

Talk of secession came from the south of Italy, where its overwhelming majority vote in the plebiscite was a naught.

The urgency of the plebiscite union emphasized that the old division between industrial north and the agricultural south, born of economic and cultural unbalance, might be sharpened by the referendum split.

Officials Investigate Disaster

Witnesses Give Varying Reports

CHICAGO, June 6 (AP) — Investigators seeking to establish the source of a flash fire which killed 59 persons in the La Salle hotel early yesterday were told today the flames raced through the lobby like a "break of lightning" preventing employees from fighting the blaze with fire extinguishers.

The informal testimony was given by Emil Landnes, a night elevator operator, as the main job of identifying the dead is completed. Only two bodies remained unidentified — a woman and another victim of undetermined sex.

Discovered Fire

Another elevator operator, Edward Kowalske, testified he first discovered the fire at 12:14 a.m. The fire department reported the first call from the hotel at 12:35 a.m.

The inquiry of hotel employees and patrons was conducted by Harry Eckhardt, assistant corporation counsel acting as fire attorney.

Flames Spread Quickly

Landnes said he had been sent to the basement to obtain fire extinguishers when the first alarm was spread, but that the lobby was almost enveloped in flame when he returned a short time later.

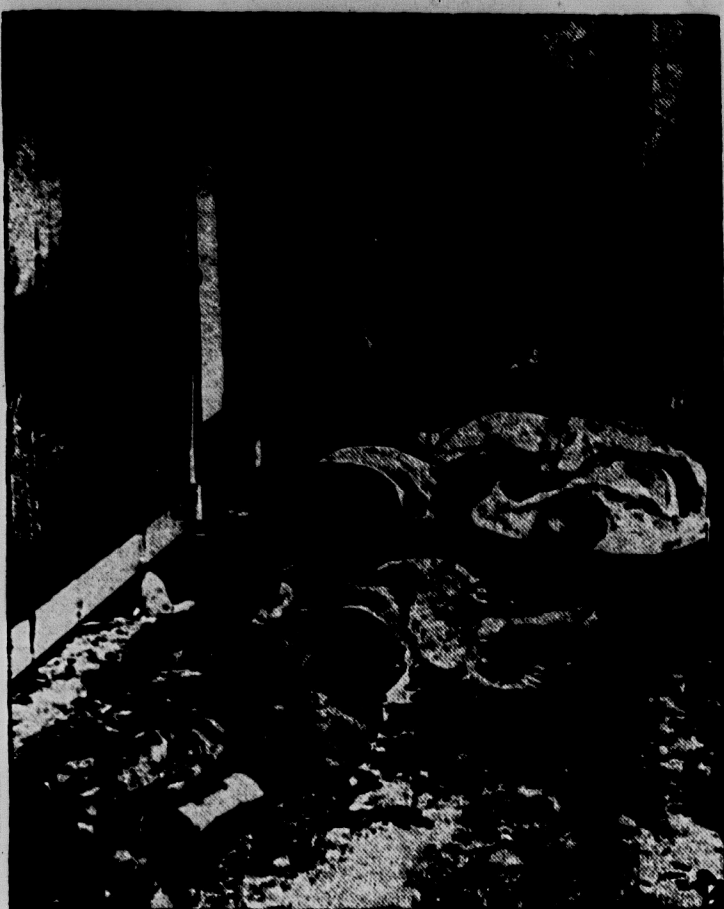

"The flame spread like a break of lightning," he said. "The wood didn't seem to be burning, just the varnish on top."

Ag Education Club Elects New Officers

New officers were elected at a recent meeting of the Agricultural education club.

Mike Venema, Monica junior, will serve as president of the organization for the coming year. Other officers of the club include: Max Bacht, Boyne City senior, vice president; John Frith, Hastings junior, secretary; Lloyd Highland, Lansing sophomore, treasurer; Bob Powell, East Lansing junior, recorder; and Don Miller, Olivet junior, representative to Ag council.

George Devbe, A. S. Education, and Lloyd Churchill, Farm Creek, were named as faculty advisers.

Bodies of three unidentified victims are sprawled in the corridor of the LaSalle hotel in Chicago, Ill., as firemen hunt through the fire-scarred building. Approximately 55 persons lost their lives and 200 were injured in the blaze.

Price Administrator Attacks Bill To End Effective Price Control

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP) — Price administrator Paul Porter asserted tonight that "effective price and rent control will end" if the senate banking committee's OPA extension bill becomes law.

His statement, attacking the measure served to underscore the comment of Senator Taft (R-Ohio) that a major battle may be expected when the Senate takes it up next week, especially over a provision lifting meat and dairy price controls at the end of this month.

Though they are on opposite sides of the issue, Porter in his tonight statement and Taft in talking to reporters had their positions on the same point — the meat and dairy price ceiling question and the regulations on postwar allowances.

Taft, who supported in committee the lifting of the meat and dairy ceilings, said he expected the big warrent over that point. He added that sharp debate is likely on a committee-approved bill forbidding OPA to force cost absorption upon dealers in "conversion" items such as automobiles, refrigerators, and radios.

Taft Expects Major Fight On OPA Bill

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP) — Senator Taft (R., Ohio) conceded today that a major legislative battle may be expected in the senate next week over a provision of the OPA extension bill lifting meat and dairy price controls the end of this month.

Taft, who supported the provision in the banking committee, told reporters that sharp debate also is likely to break around two other proposals:

Forbids Absorption

1. A committee-approved provision forbidding OPA to force cost absorption upon wholesalers and retailers of "conversion items" such as automobiles, refrigerators and radios.

2. Taft's proposal, defeated by a tie vote in the committee, to allow manufacturers their 1941 prices plus the average unit increase in production cost since then in their industry. The Ohioan will try to write his amendment into the bill on the floor.

Sends Bill to Senate

The committee, which voted on the last of the disrupted provisions yesterday, looked over the final draft of the measure today, dotted a few i's and sent it on to the senate without a record vote.

To Majority Leader Barkley (Ky.), a high ranking member of the committee, fell the task of formally reporting it to the senate.

U.N. Delays Spain Talks

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP) — The United Nations Security council yielded to a request by the United States and Great Britain today for postponement of full-dress debate on a proposal for a complete United Nations diplomatic break with Generalissimo Franco's Spain by next September.

Positions Undecided

Both Herschel V. Johnson, sitting for the first time as the United States delegate, and Sir Alexander Cadogan of Great Britain, said their governments had not had time to decide their position on the Spanish issue. They requested that the discussion be put off.

Council President Alexander Parodi of France announced adjournment until next Tuesday.

The question before the Council was a formal proposal by Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, Australian delegate and chairman of the Council sub-committee which investigated Spain, to approve the recommendations his group has reached after a month-long study.

Threat to Peace

The sub-committee decided that the Franco regime is a "potential" threat to world peace and should be isolated unless Franco is ousted by September.

The group suggested that the Security council convey to the general assembly, which meets here in September, a recommendation that every member of the United Nations break off relations with Franco if he still is in power by that time.

Softball Semi-Finals Match Top 'Mural' 10s'

By CHARLEY GABEL

Four top flight teams will square off this evening for the semi-final round of the all-college tournament. DZV will meet Wells F on diamond 4, while Abbot 16 and Sigma Nu clash on diamond 3.

Ollie White will hurl and probably bat cleanup for the power-packed DZV squad which has shown all-around power in its four previous starts. They are after their third straight softball tilt and so rate as favorites. Key players include Howie Pierucki and Bud Meade, both infielders.

Wells F brings a record of five wins and one loss into the game. On the mound will be George Meade, whose speed and control were a dominant feature of Wells' loop play this year. Although the team is not considered a heavy-hitting bunch, men like catcher Ivan Thome may give the opposition plenty of trouble.

Abbot 16 came out on top in the hotly-contested Abbot season and will present a major obstacle to the title plans of Sigma Nu. Wes Coffon will once again start for the confident 16s, while George Stein, Vernon Nelson, and Virgil Anderson will present an array of 400 hitters at the plate.

Sigma Nu will feature Jim Pruitt on the mound, with George Kinas and Dick Kjeppie leading the attack. This squad is also undefeated in five starts. The team has been hitting well of late, collecting 22 hits in its last two starts.

The winners of these two games will meet Monday in the final game of the year for the college title.

Intermittent director Lyman L. Frimostad has announced that "No man can take part in the playoffs unless he has played as a member of the team competing in the campus championships in two or more regular season games."

Kobs Names Kell As All-Star Player

Three more names were announced yesterday for the Midwest All-Star baseball squad. Coach John Kobs, bringing the total list of names selected to 14.

Latest addition to the roster was W. J. Kell's third baseman, Walt Kell, second baseman Clarence N. Kell, first baseman East Kenton, State Teachers College, and catcher Don Case of Bradley Tech.

Kobs, head of the committee for selection, announced that the Midwest squad will assemble in the city of Detroit, the All-Star game will be played on the 14th, and it will be held at 10 minutes of the first game.

Spartans into the lead and provided the winning margin.

Skrocki gave up five hits, three runs, struck out four Navy batsmen and walked four.

Bull Losing Hurler

Cliff Bull making his first appearance as a starting pitcher for the Sailors was charged with the defeat. Bull struck out two Spartans and issued only two bases on balls.

Beside Skrocki, Capt. Ben Hudenko, Jack Breslin, and Floyd Guest also closed their collegiate careers. Hudenko polished off his diamond days at MSC with a reounding triple, which he came home on when the relay was bobbled, and a single in four times at bat.

Hansen, who will play in the college all-star East-West game in Boston on June 14, Dick Mineweaser, and Ed Soberak also collected two base knocks to bolster the State 10 hit attack.

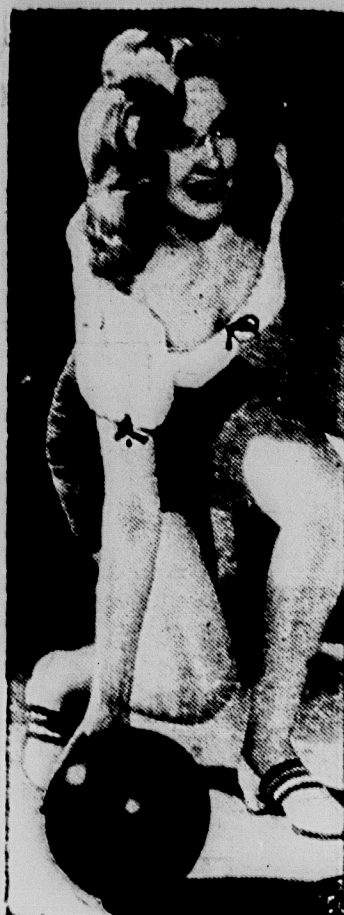

Great Lakes centerfielder Bud Wessel paced the Sailors with two singles in three times at bat.

MSC Varsity Sport Shorts

Since the first MSC building programs got under way, 32 tennis courts have been ripped to make way for new structures. Courts formerly occupied the grounds of the sites of college hospital, Snyder-Phillips dormitory, and the ground now used in the boulevard areas of Grand River.

Inability to get rubber, weather-resistant grips for their golf clubs may have cost the Spartan golf squad some meets this season. Since several meets were played in the rain, the unfortunate golfers have helped a great deal.

Harry Doesn't Want Pirates

Prexy Won't Take Over Ball Club

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP) — President Truman today denied any plans to seize the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club which has been threatened with a strike.

If I had to take over all the ball players who might go on strike, the President replied, he would have two damn good teams in St. Louis.

The President, who is from Missouri, joined in the laughter that followed the question and his reply.

Pittsburgh Players To Follow Murphy

PITTSBURGH, June 6 (AP) — Robert Murphy, labor relations director of the American Baseball Guild, declared today the Pittsburgh Pirates would go ahead with a strike tomorrow unless the management agrees to an election on the question of Guild recognition.

Murphy made his announcement to newsmen after President William E. Benswanger of the Pirates called for settlement by "orderly legal" methods of the dispute. Benswanger said he expected tomorrow night's game with the New York Giants to be played as scheduled.

The Guild representative retorted that the situation respecting the players was the same as last night when, he claimed, by a show of hands they voted to strike unless the guild demands for an election to determine a majority representative were met.

Murphy added: "They definitely will not play baseball tomorrow night unless the club or its attorneys attempt to iron things out in an honest way without stalling and agree to a consent determination of the majority."

Drynan Gets Award For Track Work: Captains Chosen

In a double election held recently by the MSC track squad, Ted Wonen, star pole vaulter, was elected honorary 1946 captain and Jim Fraser, sprint man, was elected 1947 captain.

The M. M. Knappen award for track and field was re-established this year, the recipient being Bruce Drynan, field events standout, who was captain of the 42 squad. The award was donated by M. M. Knappen, head of the history department now on leave with the army.

Drynan will receive a replica of the award, and will have his name inscribed on the original in the Jensen gymnasium lobby.

MSC Soccer Squad Planned For Fall

Ever increasing athletic activities at Michigan State this year may include soccer. Plans of Spartan coach Heppinstall and assistant coach Bob Valliere, from Brooklyn, N. Y., as planned.

Back in 1942 Heppinstall started a team, but the war kept players into the service. Valliere's idea at State was put into storage for the time being.

If there is a surplus of players out next fall the Spartans probably arrange for a team in New York. Valliere is a former runner-up for the national championship in 1940.

State Baseball Hitting Crown Won By First Sacker Breslin

Senior Jack Breslin took top batting honors for the Michigan State baseball team, finishing the season with a .333 average on 26 hits in 75 times at bat, when averages were unofficially computed last night after the Great Lakes game.

Following Breslin are Ricky Walsh, who compiled a .333 count on 13 hits in 39 times, Dick Mineweaser, at .318, 14 for 44, and Bobby Groves at an even .300. Groves got 21 hits, Dick Massuch had 333, he only batted 12 times, getting four blows.

Ben Hudenko, who won the batting crown last year, posted a .300 average for himself in the last game of the season when he crashed out twice. He batted 40 times and got 12 baseknocks.

Wilmington Bows To Detroit, 1-0

WILMINGTON, Del., June 6 (P)—The world champion Detroit Tigers, who rolled into town anticipating an easy win over the Wilmington team of the Interstate, had a tough time eking out a 1-0 win over the Interstate league team in an exhibition game here tonight.

The American Leaguers were held to six hits by George Joseph, former Philadelphia Phillies pitcher, while three Tiger twirlers blanked the losers with four hits.

Tom Bridges, Hal Manders and John Gorsica each worked three innings.

Jayvees Meet Muskegon JC Today Shooting For Season's Eighth Victory

Trying for their eighth win of the season the Spartan Jayvees will meet Muskegon Junior college on the Reds' diamond this afternoon with Grant (Lefty) Mauldin and Ken Jordan slated to do the hurling for State.

Spartan's ace pitcher Zeke Vogt, who has won six out of his seven starts this season, will also make the trip, but is expected to see duty as an outfielder, since several of the regular Jayvees are not making the trip.

Catching Mauldin and Jordan will be John Elmqvist, Hesperia freshman. In the infield Coach Doc Mannon will probably have Clark Broadwell at third, Norman Schmittzer at short, Del LeVette at second and Jim Bongercker at first.

The starting State outfield will be Andy Pizzuti on left, Tom Riordan in center, and either Vogt or Jim Rowland on right. The team will leave by school bus promptly at 11 this morning, Coach Mannon stated.

Boxing coach Len Zarza will be spotting for Harry Wismer again at the College all-star grid game August 23. During 1945, Zarza served with Wismer in the freshman. In the infield Coach Mannon will probably have friends while students at Michigan State.

WOMEN'S • SPORTS

By BARBIE ALLEN

At the annual meeting of the Women's Athletic Association, Miss Dorothy Parker, physical education instructor, gave awards to 14 women for all around participation in seasonal sports. Points are awarded for each sport entered, and after 100 points have been earned, a miniature "S" is awarded.

Women receiving "S" awards are June King, Mary Kye, Elaine Lanlois, Mary Raymond, Lil Luman, and Sue Rumbold.

After 500 points have been earned, an "M" is awarded. Pat Lan, Mary Ellen Evans, Barbara Lammy, Lucille Way, and Barbara Jenks received "M's". Edna Sargent and Lucille Bolman have earned 1,000 points and were awarded "C's". They now have the three letters which represent long participation in athletic events.

The highest award was awarded to Margaret Wells, the only woman this year to have totaled 1,000 points, as she signed the "Roll of Honor," a parchment sheet with names of well-known women athletes of Michigan State college.

Miss Wells being only a freshman, she had had to earn most every intramural sport the last two years to get many points, and is the only woman in the last five years to obtain this feat.

College women's singlet champion is Jackie Rohne, Phi Beta, who defeated Alpha Phi. This tournament is independent of intramural sports, and no points are earned.

Red Sox Win; Umps Bumped

BOSTON, June 6 (P)—After bumping umpire Hal Weater and being bumped in turn, St. Louis pitcher Jack Kramer was thrown out of the game today as the Boston Red Sox trounced the Browns 5-4.

There had been several arguments between umpires and members of both clubs before the Kramer-Weater affair.

With the score one-all, three men on base and two out, catcher Hal Wagner banged one of Kramer's serves down the first base line and Babe Dahlgren tumbled.

Comes the Bump

Johnny Berardino, recovered the ball and flipped it to Kramer covering first. Weater called Wagner safe and was rushed by Kramer.

Meanwhile, Rudy York had scored from third and DiMaggio had crossed the plate from second. Kramer, who earlier had been arguing with plate umpire Art Pa-sorella over balls and strikes, slammed into Weater a couple times and Weater bumped the Browne flinger in turn. Kramer was thrown out and turned and heaved the ball over the stands.

Boxos Take Turn

Jack Miller came from the bullpen to pitch for the Browns. Pa-sorella ordered DiMaggio back to third base.

Then Joe Green and several others took over the pitching. The argument was settled with DiMaggio's triple. Berardino got into Weater, declaring that the umpire called him out when his argument with Kramer began.

DiMaggio promptly tried to steal home and was out at the plate ending the inning.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

The entire faculty is watching to see just what the student body will do when they have a chance to express their sentiments on an important issue.

This is the first time that we have gotten a chance to make our own decision on an important matter. Don't let down your newly elected Student council in its first major step to bolster its power to help you. Vote today, vote one way or the other, but vote. We are on trial. A vote cast in this election is also a vote of confidence for student government.
