

TODAY'S CAMPUS

...River Stay' Way

Sigma Alpha Epsilon became the only fraternity on campus with a private swimming pool last night. A flood of five inches depth in the dining room sent the swimmers to higher land.

...Hold That Line

Alpha Gamma, members of the so-called "weather crew," made a strong bid last night for positions in the Spartan Group. Using a pair of blue jeans wrapped in a towel for a ball, the women started quite a game of touch football. The game almost came to an abrupt halt when three enthusiastic players were sent to the showers for "unnecessary roughness."

...More Light

Joyce Kilmer would have shuddered in grief had he seen the going-on in front of Campbell hall yesterday. A tree on the way was pulled from the subject ground because of its successful efforts to shield a streetlight and darken the entrance Campbell crows may well be consoling with Hal Kemp's famous song about "a boy, a girl, a lamp-light."

College Forum Will Consider Political Clubs

"Should Political Organizations Be Allowed On Campus?" will be the first question asked by the College Open Forum at its inaugural meeting in Music auditorium Tuesday evening. The meeting will start promptly at 7.

Six speakers will be on the platform to present the various aspects of the question and voice arguments for and against political organizations on campus. The Young Citizens Political Action Committee and the American Youth for Democracy will be represented among the speakers.

Following their talks, each speaker will be permitted to question anyone of the other speakers. After this short cross-questioning period, the floor will be opened to comments and questions from the audience.

The meeting is designed to crystallize student opinion on the question of whether political organizations should be allowed on campus. Student council has established the forum so that it may more accurately gauge student opinion on vital issues. All students are invited to attend.

Sumner Settles Problem

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP) — President Truman decisively settled an intra-governmental squabble today by announcing that the United States will place former Japanese islands under United Nations trusteeship which this country will administer.

Parties Call For Cooperation

Republican National Chairman Carroll Reece asserted today that the outcome of the election constituted "more than a party victory," and Democratic National Committee Chairman Robert E. Hannegan said that "the Republican party is faced with a great responsibility."

"With Democratic administration, it is jointly responsible to the people for a program to establish peace in the world and continued prosperity for America," Hannegan said.

In a statement released at Republican headquarters, Reece hailed Republican gains as a "durable mandate by the American people."

Let's in the day Democratic publicity chief Sam O'Neal handled Hannegan's statement to the press and said the Democrats and Republicans should join in a "united front" to "strengthen our country."

Council Hears Opinions On PAC, AYD Question

Student council opened its ears last night for information and opinion on the question of whether to permit the Political Action Committee and the American Youth for Democracy organizations on campus. Students, as well as well as council members, were allowed to speak.

Don Lamont, chairman of the council committee on organizational constitutions, read the constitutions of the two organizations and presented the findings of his committee. His report was incomplete, as replies from other colleges regarding the activity of such groups on their campuses have not yet arrived.

Heated debate ensued between members of the proposed organizations and other students questioning the advisability of having these organizations on campus. Some speakers labeled PAC and AYD as "Communist inspired," others maintained that students should be permitted to organize regardless of affiliation.

The council deferred action on the constitutions until its meeting next week. Councilman John Cox, chairman of the College Open Forum committee, suggested that students interested in the question should attend the forum meeting in Music auditorium Tuesday at 7 p. m. when the question "Should Political Organizations Be Allowed on Campus?" will be discussed.

More Than Asked For

Sigler Gets Job, But Voters Give Him Work He Opposes

DETROIT, Nov. 6 (AP) — Voters who saddled Kim Sigler in the governor's chair also saddled him with a financial program which he personally opposed.

Returns from Tuesday's election more than two-thirds complete, showed that two of every three voters approved the controversial sales tax diversion amendment to the state constitution.

They also showed similar backing of an amendment for state control of internal improvements and a two-to-one majority for another providing for payment of a $270,000,000 soldiers' bonus.

Hotel Ad Majors To Hear Frawley

The Michigan State College Hotel association members will gather tonight at 7:30 to hear J. Edward Frawley, managing director of Detroit's Fort Shelby hotel. The meeting will take place on the Union sunporch.

Frawley, who is extremely interested in the hotel administration course here at State, will speak to students upon various phases of hotel work and will offer a question and answer period after his lecture.

He is past president of the American Hotel association, an active member in the Michigan Hotel association, and a well known hotel director. During the day he will speak before members of the hotel accounting course sections, picturing verbally to them the importance of workable accounting and checking systems in today's modern hotel.

Magazine Editor To Give Lecture

He has given lectures at the University of Michigan and other colleges throughout Michigan and Illinois. The meetings are open to all who wish to attend.

Talks Rage In Council Six Hours

Britain, Egyptian His Persecution In Steering Group

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP) — An Egyptian question about the "persecution and discrimination against racial and religious minorities" in Central Europe touched off tonight one of the most violent quarrels in the history of the United Nations assembly's powerful steering committee.

The argument waxed so furious that the interpreters sometimes were drowned out and made only futile attempts to translate the barbs. Paul-Henri Spaak, assembly president, finally banged the gavel at 7:20 p. m. CST to end a 6 hour and 20 minute session, with the announcement that the matter would be reported to the assembly as a tie vote.

The vote actually was there for an Egyptian resolution and three British resolutions.

Major Congressional Changes In Order As GOP Sweeps Land

Disputed Areas Of Europe

Issues mark locale of major disputes facing Big Four foreign ministers in New York. Shaded are Finland, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Italy for which peace treaties must be drawn. Problems of the final form of peace with Germany will not be considered until Nov. 20.

Air, Sea, Coal, Hotel Strikes Still Pending Settlement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP) — The end of the TWA strike awaited action, the soft coal dispute talks were resumed, and a national maritime strike was raised again Wednesday as the Philadelphia hotel tieup continued.

A back-to-work call for some 15,000 employees of Trans World airlines, idle 16 days in a strike of 1,400 AFL pilots, awaited union acceptance of a government agreement already accepted by the company.

Indications were that the call could not be forthcoming immediately. David L. Behneke, president of the striking AFL Air Line Pilots association, was expected to summon the union's master executive council to Chicago for a decision.

The company said it would not recall the 15,000 furloughed employees and resume service over its 30,000-mile system until the union's formal acceptance was announced by Federal Mediator Frank P. Douglas.

TWA's pilots walked out Oct. 31 in support of union demands that the present pay formula, written in 1934 be adjusted upward for certain flying. Present pay in top brackets was estimated around $12,000 a year. The union asked up to $15,000.

Negotiations between John L. Lewis in his struggle with the government resumed, after an election day recess. At issue was whether the government's contract with the AFL United Mine Workers could be opened by Lewis.

Joseph Curran, president of the CIO National Maritime union, said the national council of the union has recommended a national maritime strike, if necessary, to compel west coast ship operators to settle their dispute with CIO unions.

Truman Asked To Quit

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6 (AP) — President Truman should resign and give the Republicans complete government control by appointing one of them secretary of state to succeed him, U. S. Senator J. William Fulbright (D. Ark.) suggested today in the wake of the GOP election sweep.

'Sun' Secunds Motion

CHICAGO, Nov. 6 (AP) — The Chicago Sun, which supported Democratic candidates generally in Tuesday's election, tonight urged President Truman to resign as a "patriotic and courageous" step.

Dewey Role Stronger

Twenty Republican gubernatorial victories in Tuesday's balloting gave the party a majority of two in the nation's state houses and furnished Thomas E. Dewey, who won reelection by a huge majority in New York, with a strong role in the forthcoming presidential deliberations.

Republicans Hold Both Houses, Snare 270 Major Offices; GOP Reveals New Program

A triumphant, revitalized GOP wrenched control of both House and Senate from Democratic hands yesterday in an overwhelming election victory that ordained major changes within the American government.

The Republicans elected at least 23 senators, 232 representatives and 20 governors. They gave them three more than a majority in the Senate, 14 beyond a majority in the House, and a man in no less than 28 statehouses of the nation.

Earle To Give Soviet Speech In Auditorium

"Must We Clash with Russia?" is the timely topic which George H. Earle will discuss this evening in the College auditorium. After sitting on the powder keg of Europe for eleven years as personal representative for the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt in the Balkans and the Middle East, Earle is well qualified to speak on Soviet affairs.

Having the rare ability of combining the most popular concepts of liberal and conservative thought helped Earle to maintain an even political status in Pennsylvania during the four years he was governor. It was after his term as governor in 1933 that this versatile diplomat was appointed Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Austria and Bulgaria by the President. Earle concluded his political missions with a Naval assignment to Samoa in 1944 and is now resuming his business interests in Philadelphia.

After completing his education at Harvard university and receiving an LL.B. degree from Temple university, Earle aided his father in the management of the family's sugar interests in Pennsylvania and the Far East where he became experienced in international trade and finance. Following World War I, he established the Flamingo Sugar Mills in Philadelphia.

In addition to his success in the field of business, the quality of Earle's radio voice is rated second only to the famous voice of President Roosevelt and he has received high recognition throughout the world as a professional speaker.

Prof's To Pass On Proposals

Michigan State's faculty will meet today in College auditorium to pass on a number of issues regarding fees and new courses, which, if approved, will go into effect winter term.

An important money question regarding registration will be introduced. If the proposal passes, new students will be charged $25 for an "admission" fee, which will be refunded if registration is completed.

Also subject to approval is a recommendation that a flat deposit of two dollars cover quarter fees and special deposits, such as State News, and lab breakage deposits.

New courses in music, botany, political science, agricultural engineering, industrial management and philosophy will be passed on. "Recreation" may be established as a major subject for men in the physical education department, and graduate schools are under consideration for psychology and public administration.

Republicans Back In Power

Thomas E. Dewey's call for "change" in the 1944 Presidential campaign finally took hold in Tuesday's elections. The Republicans are back in power.

For the first time in 15 years the Democrats are the minority party. Though Harry Truman still occupies the White House, the American people have repudiated his leadership by electing a Republican majority to Congress.

Democratic party supremo and Franklin Roosevelt were synonymous. He characterized the party to John Q. Citizen. It was largely the magnetism of his personality that swung election after election for the New Dealers. When FDR died, the influence of the party died with him.

Post-war conditions and problems have unsettled the people. They feel a need for leadership that the Truman administration has been unable to provide. The pendulum swung the other way, and on it the Republicans rode into power.

We need some new blood in Washington. Here's hoping the Republicans can provide it.

Slavs, Italians Hit UN Solution

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Both Yugoslavia and Italy today attacked a proposed big four settlement of the deadlocked east-west dispute over strategic Trieste.

Representatives of the two involved countries told a session of the Council of Foreign Ministers that proposed controls for the new international territory would be dictatorial and undemocratic.

This brought an immediate rebuff from Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who declared that both Yugoslav and Italian statements, particularly the Italian, which amounted almost to threats, have made a bad impression on the Soviet delegation.

Whether this means a departure of Soviet backing from the Beigrade government on the critical issue blocking a peace treaty with Italy could not be answered immediately.

Yugoslavia, however, offered two minor concessions with respect to boundary and the proposed powers of a United Nations governor. But diplomatic authorities said these did not appear to advance a solution.

Russia Accuses U. S., Britain

LONDON, Nov. 6 (AP)—The leader of Russia's parliament accused the United States and Britain today of "organized obstruction" to the Soviet program and told a cheering Moscow meeting that Russian peace aims would prevail despite "atom blackmail."

LETTERS to the EDITOR

To the Editor: Somewhere on this campus there are culprits with the mentalities of five year olds. I am referring to those people who go around defacing posters.

With the advent of election the AVC has put up posters expressing its sentiments regarding the bonus bill. It seems as if their feelings are contrary to the feelings of the many veterans on the campus. They are to me, even though I'm not a veteran. Fortunately the greater majority of these veterans who are not in accord do not revert to such childish tactics to express their feelings. They use sound, logical argument, such as befits their position.

Those few who go around defacing posters create a reaction that is unfavorable toward their cause. They distract people's attention from the issue and center it upon the fact that the opposition does not have any respect for the other party. Hence the purpose defeats the cause.

Posters take a considerable amount of money and time to prepare. Every poster, no matter what it is trying to put across, is private property, and if we disregard this we can go on further and create a nation of anarchists. Let us act and speak the way that benefits college students by using sound and logical argument.

Sister Council Helps Frosh

Big Sister Council is making a definite effort to locate big sisters for little sisters who have not yet been contacted. Cards will be sent out the early part of next week to little sisters telling them who their big sisters are, and little sisters are requested to contact them as soon as possible.

All freshmen women who have been assigned big sisters, but because of difficulties of making contact, have not yet been contacted by big sisters.

Co-chairman Marie Matte, Detroit senior, and Virginia Gilmore, East Lansing junior, have announced that plans for a big sister coed party are now underway. This event will take place in November. Priscilla Parker, Detroit senior, will be chairman of the event.

Another social event is being planned for big-little sisters is a Christmas fashion show to be held early in December. Virginia Ull, Niagara Falls, N. Y., sophomore, and Louise Woodman, Bayport junior, are in charge of the show.

The big sister council plans to have a program for big and little sisters each month. This group is striving for a closer knit organization of freshmen and upper class women, and is hoping this plan will alleviate the problem caused by the loss of the freshman orientation groups.

Bachman Aides Map Saturday Strategy

Secret Practice Follows Conference As Spartans Bear Down On Defense

Charley Bachman, his three assistants, and track coach Carl Schladerman, who has scouted Fritz Crisler's Michigan Wolverines constantly this season, went into a lengthy huddle in the mentor's office yesterday mapping additional strategy they hope will be coming on the Maize and Blue Saturday in Ann Arbor.

After emerging from the hour and a half conference, Bachman and his aides sent the Spartans through a lengthy and spirited drill held entirely in a "hush-hush" atmosphere on the secret practice field.

Spartan Team in Style

The squad divided into three units as Lou Zaran drilled the ends on downfield coverage of punts and defensive maneuvering, while Al Kaval held a chalk talk with the guards and tackles. Johnny Pingel took charge of the backs, injecting offensive power in the State running attack.

Blaik Sings N-D Blues

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP) — As Army's football team went through another strenuous practice session today for Saturday's struggle with Notre Dame, Coach Earl Blaik replayed the 1945 Army-Notre Dame tussle as a sort of strategic counter-attack to the Irish discussions of the humiliation they suffered in the past two years.

Blaik, as usual, insisted that Notre Dame has not only plenty of personnel but a tremendous incentive to win the game. Army hasn't either, in his analysis of the situation, but the red-thatched Army coach is doing his best to

Lujack Hurt

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Nov. 6 (AP) — Johnny Lujack, Notre Dame's sparkling quarterback, suffered a sprained right ankle today in the final Irish workout for their important game with the Army at New York Saturday.

Dr. Joseph Cason, Notre Dame physician, ordered Lujack to remain in the infirmary overnight to undergo treatment. The ankle was immediately taped and plunged into cold water to reduce the swelling.

Dr. Cason would make no prediction as to Lujack's chances of playing Saturday.

discount the last two tussles and bring up what happened the last time a really good Notre Dame team faced Army.

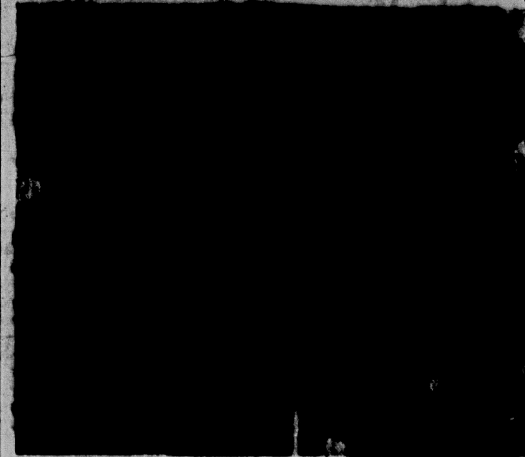

The Irish won, 28-0, then, and Blaik insists that this year's Notre Dame team is far superior to the 1943 outfit. Notre Dame, in fact hasn't been extended all season and has concentrated ever since last spring on one thing — beating Army.

By contrast, the thin Cadet squad has been forced to go all out at least twice this season, against Oklahoma and Michigan, and the coaches have had to get all out for virtually every game. Even when Army figured to win handily there were immediate problems that kept the coaching staff from looking far ahead to the Nov. 9 contest.

Actual preparations for Notre Dame didn't begin until last week, Blaik said today and then it was more the coaching standpoint than real work by the players.

This week they're working harder, but contact work is limited to short periods each day and it has been noticeable that the three "big" backs, Doc Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker, have been held out of the scrimmages.

NO Victory In The Balance

Dorm Block Finals Feature Wins By Scant Margins

Precinct 6 hurdled Precinct 9 by a score of 9 to 8 in a wild grid battle to capture the Block II crown of Mason hall, last night. The game was Wednesday night's feature attraction on the dorm intramural schedule with each team displaying championship qualities.

Chalking up the TD for the victors was a Jack Dillon to Bud Erickson pass and a lateral to Ed Foster who crossed the goal. The conversion was made on a toss from Jack Dillon to Ed Kozen. Precinct 6 added two more points on a safety. The previously unbeaten Precinct 9 team scored when Lee Dibble pitched to Dean Teider for the only other TD of the fray.

In another closely contested game, Precinct 13 downed Precinct 11, 15 to 9, and threw the Block I area over Abbot way into a wide-open race. Starring for Precinct 13 was the Joe Haughey-Elmer Lent combination which clicked for TD's in the first and final periods.

A safety on the opening play provided the additional points. The defeated Precinct 11 griddees managed to enter the end zone on a tricky lateral. A Don Brown to Norm Coggins pass and lateral to Howard Bowdle scored for Precinct 11 and a safety finished their markers. Biggest score of the evening

UCLA End Gets Second AP Award

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP) — For the second time this season Burg Baldwin, of UCLA, hailed as an "out-of-this-world" end, has won the lineman of the week award in the Associated Press weekly poll. Baldwin put on a topflight performance as the Uclans routed St. Mary's 46-20 last week. He scored three touchdowns, two on pass plays that covered 49 and 23 yards. The other six-punter came when he scooped up a blocked kick. He was equally superb on defense.

Other "workhorses" of the forward line drew high praise. Weldon Humble, line guard, played such a terrific game against Texas Tech that Del Morgan, Tech coach, declared "I was glad to see Jess Neely take Humble out. I was afraid he was going to hurt some of my guards or backs."

Joe Tereshinski, Georgia end, Bryant Marks, South Carolina center, Knox Ramsey, William and Mary guard, Frank Wydo, Cornell tackle, Ed Mead, Princeton end, John Cannady, Indiana center, Russ Deal, Indiana tackle, and David Schmidt, Kansas end, were among the others singled out for particular praise on the back.

Bucky Harris Says Eight Yanks Safe

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP) — Seven Yankees besides jolting Joe DiMaggio are not for sale or barter, says Bucky Harris, newly appointed manager of the New York American leaguers.

"We are out to make deals by the wholesale if they look as if they could help us," Harris said today. "But we will consider no propositions for Joe DiMaggio, Charley Keller, Tommy Henrich, Sauffy Starnweiss, Phil Rizzuto, Aaron Robinson, Yogi Berra and Bobby Brown. These players are set. We do not intend to disturb them."

John G. (Jack) Heppinstall has been serving as trainer of Michigan State athletic teams since 1914.

ELHS Trojans Meet Oilers In Feature 'B' Tilt Friday

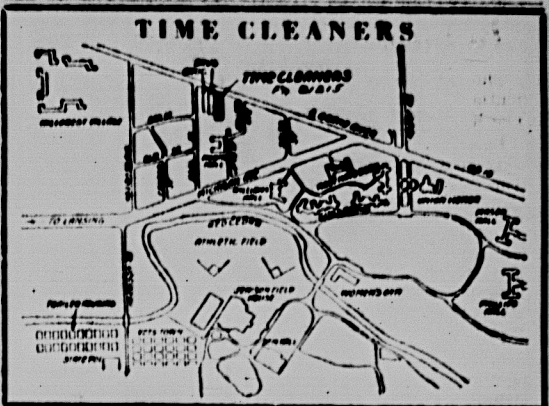

Coach Sam Ketchman's East Lansing High School Trojans will wind up their 1946 football season this Friday at the local athletic field when they entertain the strong Mt. Pleasant Oilers.

The Mt. Pleasant griddees will come to East Lansing with a record of 3 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie and will be out to win their fourth game at the expense of East Lansing. The Oilers will bank their hopes for victory on Leroy Crane, their triple-threat left halfback. Crane has been the offensive workhorse for the Oilers and is considered one of the better prep halfbacks in the State.

The Trojan record to date is 6 wins and 1 loss, and they will be out to avenge last year's trouncing by the Oilers. Both teams shape up evenly on paper as far as weight is concerned with East Lansing's line averaging 175 as compared to Mt. Pleasant's 165.

With both teams about evenly matched, it looks like the Friday's contest promises to be one of the better Class B games of the week. The game is scheduled to start at 7:30.

Alge Connor, here shown as he appeared against Michigan in 1945, will be the Spartan's game captain in this year's contest with Michigan.

In the '45 tilt Connor had proved his mettle as a lineman Sunday by returning to Ann Arbor as an experienced rugged veteran.

"Headlin" to reason the Spartans will be on the short end of some very long odds Saturday when they tangle with the Wolverines, the line observers have been heard to say to find a trace of gloom at the practice sessions all week.

Most of the squadmen who came out of the Kentucky fray with cuts and bruises were back in uniform for yesterday's workout, and the team showed a touch of sharpness that has been lacking in some previous drills.

Triple-threat star Tom Rieder who suffered a dislocated knee in a game against Kentucky, missed his third consecutive practice and is suspected he will not be ready for the Crislerman.

Steve Skowroski, job-driving fullback had his left wrist severely injured against the Wildcats, and although he has done heavy lifting from the sidelines this week, he is expected to play Saturday.

Aiming somewhat for the loss of Rieder and Ed Sagan, is the return to the team of big Matt "Matt" Mann, 230-pound end who is a specialist in place taking. "Matt" underwent his maling leg during Wednesday's workout.

Mann had left the team early

GI Insurance Conversion Offers Several Plans

(This is the second of a series of three articles explaining and clarifying the conversion of the National Service Life Insurance. The third article in the series will cover special features of GI insurance, beneficiaries, and premium payments.)

By JIM POWATY

All government life insurance policies must be converted to one of the three basic types of policies now or at some date within eight years after the date of issuance.

These policies, including ordinary life, limited payment life, and endowment policies, offer many advantages which are not obtained under the cheaper term insurance now held by most veterans.

Converted policies offer among other things, interest payments, cash and loan values, pension plans, and disability payments.

Low Percentage Converts
At the present time only five percent of veterans holding GI insurance have converted from term insurance to one of the six types of permanent policies offered.

To aid in understanding the various benefits to be derived from the different policies the following facts are presented. In all cases the figures are based on the insured's having taken out the policy at the age of 20.

Term Insurance
Most term insurance has no cash value and no loan value. If the insured stops paying nothing is left. This type is the cheapest, costing $7.80 a year per thousand dollars of insurance. This can continue for eight years.

Ordinary Life
The ordinary life policy is the least expensive of the converted policies, offering maximum protection at a minimum cost. The annual premium is $14.56 per thousand, with an accumulating loan value of $61.76 per thousand after 10 years. Late all converted policies it offers interest payments which can be added to the cash value or taken as dividends.

Limited Payment Life
There are two types of limited payment life policies: the 20-pay life, and the 30-pay life. Payments stop after 20 or 30 years, and the veteran then has a paid up policy, under these policies.

The 20-pay life has an annual premium of $23.20 per thousand, and after 10 years $189.76 per thousand may be borrowed on it. The 30-pay life policy's premium is $18.23 per thousand dollars of insurance, carrying a loan value of $128.14 per thousand after 10 years.

Endowment Policies
Endowment policies are the most expensive of the three converted types. Premium payments under this plan are limited to 20 years, until the veteran is 60 years old, or until he is 65. Upon maturity of the policy the insured may elect to take payment of the thousands accumulated in pension payments covering a period of from three to 20 years, or in lump sum.

Annual premium for the 20-year endowment is the largest of all GI insurance policies, amounting to $40.96 per thousand yearly. The loan value is correspondingly high, totalling $408.10 per thousand after 10 years.

The endowment at the age of 60 has an annual premium of $19.06, with a loan value after 10 years of $138.64 per thousand.

Age 65 endowment will permit the insured to borrow $115.10 per thousand of insurance, after paying the annual premium of $17.17 per thousand for 10 years.

Further information can be obtained, which will fit each veteran's specific case, and policies may be converted, at either of the two local veterans administration offices. Insurance specialists in the area are Arnold Zeile and Charles Cashin in Demonstration hall, or H. N. Campbell in VA offices in the Michigan arcade building in Lansing.

GOP Heads Will Get Top Posts

Landslide May Bring Vandenberg New Job As Senate President

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—The twin burdens of power and responsibility fell today on two aggressive Republican senators — Michigan's Arthur Vandenberg as the likely president of the new Senate and Ohio's Robert A. Taft as a party leader risen to great new influence.

The political wave that swept Republicans back into control of Congress after 16 long years gave them at last their chance to prove the argument that "Republicans can do it better."

GOP Majority
Latest returns showed Republicans certain of 51 of the 96 senate seats. Democrats had 42 with three contests still in doubt. Forty-nine is a majority.

Vandenberg, re-elected by a huge margin, appeared the most probable choice for president of the senate, succeeding Senator Kenneth McKellar, Tennessee democrat.

Since there is no vice president, Vandenberg is expected to become the regular presiding officer of what its members call "the greatest deliberative body on earth."

Vandenberg the Boss
His seniority, even without his experience in cooperating with diplomatic and peace efforts of the present administration, also promised Vandenberg the chairmanship of the important foreign relations committee, succeeding Senator Tom Connally of Texas.

Senator Taft, long dominant in senate and national Republican affairs, probably can select any of a number of important senate posts that will swing to the Republicans.

Public Invited to Hear Lecture by Hunziker

"Developing Sales and Display Grounds" will be the subject of a talk by Harold Hunziker of the National Landscape Nurserymen's association Tuesday evening at 7:30 in room 206 of the horticulture building.

Hunziker, secretary of the association, is in charge of the nationwide contest which resulted in the creation of many unique plants for retail sales grounds in nursery products. These plants will be on display in room 206, horticulture building, during the month of November.

The meeting is open to the public, according to Prof. F. L. O'Rourke, coordinator in nursery and landscape management.

Republican Hints 20 Per Cent Cut In Personal Income Tax

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—A 20-per cent, $3,000,000,000 slash in 1947 individual income taxes was forecast today by Rep. Knutson (Minn.), slated to be Republican chairman of the powerful House ways and means committee.

Moreover, Knutson said, the Republican majority will press through a separate bill cutting back the entire tax list, which includes liquor, jewelry, furs, cosmetics and a long list of other items.

Knutson's own reelection contest remained unsettled late today on the basis of incomplete returns.

Re-elected, the bald, stubby Minnesotaan is expected to succeed Robert L. Doughton, 63-year-old North Carolina Democrat, as chairman of the tax-framing house committee.

Presidential Vote
But the Republican re-election drive may plunge head-on into a presidential vote.

The Democratic administration is committed to a high tax program, contending that stiff rates are essential to balance the budget and begin payments on the $262,000,000,000 national debt.

A two-thirds vote in both the house and senate would be necessary to override, if President Truman exercises his veto power. Knutson made no mention of corporation taxes in a statement
