It's Worth Your Donation

Tuberculosis, the scourge of yesterday, is taking a licking. At one time every fourth person was afflicted with TB sometime during his life span. Fatalities ran into the millions. Today, public health officials happily tell a different story.

It has been through the concerted efforts of volunteer groups of community-minded laymen and physicians that TB is gradually, but effectively being reduced. These public-spirited citizens, banded together in the National Tuberculosis Association, have been instrumental in passing legislation that provides for tax support of sanatorial treatment and the building of institutions for the treatment of tuberculosis.

In Michigan, free treatment is provided tuberculosis patients unable to pay their way. Nearly three and a half million dollars was spent last year in Wayne county alone for such treatment.

The TB association is now working on case-finding, re-habilitation and health education programs in a complete tuberculosis effort. Christmas seal funds support this work.

You can throw your weight into this fight to stamp out tuberculosis by buying Christmas seals. A desk is set up in the lower back of the Union for your convenience.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR:
The weather grows colder, our hearts beat faster, and we want to skate. We heard that before the war there were ponds frozen on the campus for this winter sport. Skating, a good clean sport could be enjoyed by a great majority of our student population. What can we ice-skating enthusiasts do to see that skating facilities are available this winter? TO THE EDITOR:
To say thank you to those thoughtful members of the Union Board who made our Thanksgiving day one long to be remembered is hardly enough. Those of us from U. S. Territories, Possessions, and from distant countries wish to express our gratefulness for the generous hospitality displayed in serving foreign students a sumptuous turkey dinner complete with all the trimmings.

We realize that Mr. Butler, Union president; Mr. Scott, Union manager; and Dean and Mrs. Crowe, as well as other faculty members and staff, took time from their own homes and in celebration to make this dinner possible.

Whoever arranged the elaborate table centered with a huge golden turkey, likewise supplemented by founts of Michigan's harvest is a real artist.

My sincere thanks to those who were instrumental in making this special day so memorable and enjoyable for the thousands of students who are here from all over the world.

The present coal shortage is causing the closing of schools in many of our communities. The Michigan State Board of Education has adopted a plan to meet the situation by suspending classes during the week. This plan is a most commendable one, and I am sure that it will be successful in maintaining our schools open during the winter months.

46 Spartan Cage Preview

Tough Card Awaits Hoopsters

By BU'D LAWSON
If the lament now being heard about State's basketball maestro of 21 years is to be taken seriously, then the cage in this locale is headed for the doldrums.

There are good sound facts to support those optimistic ideas. One of these impressive facts is Van Alstyne's record of 200 wins with but 134 losses in 19 campaigns.

The most encouraging of these facts is the list of names of those who will be out there patrolling the area between the peach baskets.

This list includes forward Robert Roberts, who was second highest individual scorer in last year's outstanding quarter. Roberts was tallied 206 counters, was selected by coaches and officials as the most valuable Michigan college player last season.

Third highest scorer from last year's squad is the veteran Ollie White, a guard hailing from Cleveland. Ollie was last year's honorary captain, a good floor general who accounted for 178 points.

Another guard from last year's starting five is Don Waldron, who toted the piskin from his halfback position for the Spartan grid warriors this fall.
Waldron last year, as freshman, played a bang-up game which resulted in his selection on the Chicago Stadium's all-star team.

Matt Mazza, also a member of the football squad, has been shifted from his familiar center position to a forward post where he has shown great promise.

Returning from a great 1942 five is Fred Stone, a Chicago fan who worked mechanically from a pivot position. Big Fred's height and ball handling skill were always an asset to an undersized team and in this day of basketball skyscrapers, his actual playing will be utilized.

Clay Kowalk, another letterman in 1942 is back. Clay is a speed merchant and operates at maximum efficiency in a fast-breaking system such as that employed by Coach Van.

Alvin Lee, the big man who played in the 1942 team, is back. Lee is a power forward and is expected to make the State varsity team.

Johnnie Grant, who played in the 1942 team, is back. Grant is a power forward and is expected to make the State varsity team.

Johnnie Grant, Hugo Dawson and Bob Carpenter will spell the regular forwards.

State's cage team should be able to handle the State varsity team.

One Day Left
For Entering
Mat Tourny

Michigan State's all-college wrestling tournament will begin Thursday and continue for two more days. Coach Fendley Collins announced yesterday.

The tournament is open to all students except varsity lettermen who have won in previous years.
Entries will close Wednesday at 6 p.m.

Interested persons should contact Collins in the wrestling room in Jensen gym, room 405. Entries must work out at least five times to be eligible.

Competition will be offered in the eight standard collegiate weight groups: 121, 128, 136, 145, 155, 165, 175 and the heavyweight class. Three rounds overweigh will be allowed. We think it will not be required except in borderline cases, Collins stated.

The bouts will be of three two-minute rounds duration. The first round will start even, the second and third on the mat.

State's 26-20 Victory
Ends Grid Season

Chandnois, Guerre Lead 'S' Attack Against Cougars In See-Saw Battle

By CHUCK STRATTARD
Michigan State's Spartans rang down the curtain on their 1946 football campaign Saturday in Macklin stadium with a luminous 26-20 victory over Washington State before nearly 15,000 spectators.

Once again it was State's one-two punch, lean Lynn Chandnois and little George Guerre in the role of opponent weaker, who tore the heart out of the invading Cougars with inside and outside scoring jaunts in a hectic second half touchdown jammer.

With both teams turning loose offensive fireworks over head and in the air to cross the goal line five times in the wild second half, what looked like a low scoring game, became a topsy-turvy touchdown contest that had the crowd on its feet most of the final 30 minutes.

The red and gray clad Cougars struck first midway in the first quarter of a 35-yard pass from Gordon Brunswick to Lippincott.

After an exchange of punts the Spartans drove to Washington State's 24 with a first down but the Cougars dug in and moved State back to the 43 in four plays. On the first play Brunswick passed to Lippincott on the Spartan 38 and the speedy Cougars halfback outran Guerre and Frank Waters to the goal line. Warren Huey blocked Johnny Godfrey's conversion attempt.

Washington State's attempt to kick the field goal failed. The Cougars' defense held the Spartans to a punt. The waiting hands of Carl Mazzera score remained 6-6 until half

Minor Leagues
Favor Troutman

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2 (AP)— Support for George Troutman of the Detroit Tigers as successor to Judge W. G. Brannan as boss of the minor league system apparently gained strength today.

One prominent minor league executive who declined use of his name said that if the major league executive Ward Troutman, he is in the minor league in control 80 per cent of all minor league clubs. That means he can win by a 4 to 1 vote.

Troutman, executive vice president of the Tigers, has spent most of his career in 15 minors and this would have the viewpoint of the smaller baseball clubs. However, some small clubs oppose him on the grounds his election might give the majors dominance over the minors.

That was the only deep penetration of the period. A Michigan State drive carried to the Scarlet and Gray 31 but failed, when Blomhorn fumbled and Elwood Standerant recovered for the Cougars.

The second half wasn't two minutes old when a weird series of fumbles that saw the teams change possession of the ball three times, gave warning of things to come.

Eggers returned the kick off to the 33. On second down Lippincott fumbled and Mannery recovered for the Spartans on the Cougars 34. On the first play Waters hit the center of the line, fumbled and the Cougars had the ball again on their own 40-yard line.

Lippincott got four yards through guard, then Eggers fumbled and quarterback Bob Fischer fell on the loose ball on the Washington State 48. Guerre punted out of bounds on the 24-yard line. The Cougars went to the 34 and a first down.

U.S. Broaches Problem Of Spanish Franco To United Nations Political Committee

Australia Snipes At Russian Use Of Veto; Disarmament Issue Will Be Discussed

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 2 (AP)—The United States in two important daily moves on urgent United Nations problems, demanded today that the U. N. set up a "comprehensive system of disarmament" minus any veto for safeguards and urged the assembly to ask Generalissimo Franco to step down as head of the Spanish state.

The United States also urged the assembly to ask Generalissimo Franco to step down as head of the Spanish state. The United States also urged the assembly to ask Generalissimo Franco to step down as head of the Spanish state.

Brunswick's aerial from this point backfired. Blenkhorn intercepted on the Scarlet and Gray 42, picked up three blockers and raced untouched down the west sideline for the score. Mazda's second conversion attempt was blocked but the Spartans were rolling.

After the next kick off the Cougars went to the State 35 and lost the ball on downs. On the first play Guerre slipped through tackle and ran through the bewildered Washington State secondary 65 yards for the third touchdown.

Pete Fornari, the only senior on the Spartan squad playing his final game for Michigan State, came in to kick the placement. His try was good and the Spartans led 19-6.

Matching bombshell for bombshell the big boys from the far west took the kick off and paraded 68 yards for their second score. Brunswick passed 15 yards to Eggers who went to the State 36 before Fitz could make the stop.

Jerry Williams took Brunswick's next toss on the 34 and scampered the rest of the way. George Dyson converted and it was MSC-19, Washington State-13.

The Cougars carried to the three yard line with Don Paul blasting the Spartan line. On fourth down with a yard to go for a first down, Paul sifted through to drop Sturdevant on a guard around smash back on the seven to stop the threat momentarily.

Five plays later Paul intercepted Guerre's hurried pass on the Michigan State 23 and wiggled his way over the goal line. Dyson's conversion was perfect and the 13 point Spartan lead had gone glimmering in the dusk.

Warren Huey returned the kick off to the Michigan State 39-yard line. Blenkhorn ran seven yards through tackle to the 46. Then Guerre cut inside end and raced 19 yards to the Cougars 35-yard line.

On the next play Chandross, on a reverse, swung wide to the left, dodged two Scarlet and Gray defenders near the sidelines, and behind a wave of Spartan blockers dined 35 yards to the Washington State double stripe hurdling a last desperation tackle as he crossed the line standing up. Fornari converted to make it MSC-26, Washington State-20.

Chandross and Guerre led the resurgent Spartans to Washington State's six as the game ended.
