Relief Denied Soviet, Satellites In House Approved Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP) — The administration's foreign relief program suffered a jolting blow today when the House passed a bill slashed from $350,000,000 to $200,000,000 and clamping sharp controls on help to Russian-dominated countries.

TODAY'S CAMPUS

Fever

The tired-looking student on campus claims she is carrying 36 hours. When questioned by a classmate, she answers: "Yes, I'm carrying 20 hours of classes and 16 hours of spring fever."

Sprig Cents

At Midterms in the Spring? No Lanning card got on the Calber-Fisher bus with a dime, a nickel, and a 1943 silver penny.

"She dropped a coin hurriedly in the box."

"That was a penny," said the driver.

Again she scrambled around the box and dropped in a coin.

"Shall we go around again?" asked the driver. "That was a dime."

"Yes, she finally made it to Lanning."

Theta Sigs Bring Speaker To MSC

Miss Lillian Jackson, public relations director of Ernst Kern Company, Detroit, will speak to the journalism and retailing majors tonight at 7:30 in the Music Auditorium.

Miss Jackson's talk is being sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, national professional journalism society for women. Miss Jackson is the first of a series of speakers the organization will bring to speak to the women on campus in journalism.

The speaker has handled various promotion programs, skills in fashion shows for the Kern Company and is the organizer of the college board for the company.

A discussion period will follow the talk at which any questions connected with Miss Jackson's talk may be asked.

Women's Honoraries Tap 41 At Sing

By JUDY GRAMM

Forty-one women were honored at the May Morning Sing this morning at 8:45 in front of Beaumont Tower when Mortar Board, senior women's national honorary, tapped 12 new members, and Tower Guard, sophomore women's honorary, tapped 29.

Jane Cade, president of Mortar Board announced the women who will lead women's upperclass activities next year. The Mortar Board members were selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and service.

Selected For Cooperation

As Mortar Board stands for much more than scholarship and activities, although both are stressed, the women were chosen primarily for their cooperation shown in the rendition of services to the college and to their friends during their three years at Michigan State college.

The 12 junior class women who will be seen wearing their mortar boards to classes today include Patricia Hough, Adrian, who has been selected to be the new president of Mortar Board. Miss Hough is an active member in the music department, and the Christian Science club. In Tower Guard she was secretary, and was president of Mayo dormitory.

Also tapped was Fay Blakely, Rockwood, Ill., who is on the women's debate squad, AWS representative, and AWS chairman of study room committee. Miss Blakely was also a Tower Guard member and is affiliated with Chi Omega.

Sarah Dimmers, a new Mortar Board from Hillsdale, is active in the YWCA on the junior cabinet, is a member of the Big Sister council, and the Home Economics Board. As a member of the Studio theater she has helped on the stage crew of various plays. Miss Dimmers is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Mortar Board Tapers Linked

Jean Englehardt, of Royal Oak, also tapped today, is co-chairman of the Big Sister council, is a member of the AWS activities board, and treasurer, and co-chairman of the AWS convocation. Miss Englehardt is a member of the Wolverine staff, and belongs to Alpha Gamma Delta.

President of WAA, May Ellen Evans, East Lansing, was also tapped for Mortar Board. She is president of the Physical Education majors club, on the AWS board, and a member of Delta Psi Kappa, education honorary, and Sigma Kappa.

A member of the debate team, Orchesis, state president of the Methodist student club, president of student club, a member of the YWCA cabinet, and a past member of Tower Guard, Maxine Pinkbeiner, East Lansing, is another new Mortar Board.

Another tapped, Ruth Janet Fuestenau, East Lansing, is a member of the women's cooperative league council, the Student club, Omicron Nu, and an AWS representative.

AWS Judiciary-legislative president, Virginia Gilhooly, East Lansing, is also co-chairman of the Big Sister council, a member of Tau Sigma, and Spartan Women's league, and affiliated with Chi Omega. She was also a member of Tower Guard.

New Members Have Wide Activities

Among the activities which made her eligible for Mortar Board, Judy Longnecker, East Lansing, is president of the AWS Activities Board, chairman of WSSP drive, junior class vice-president, on the YWCA cabinet, and was president of Tower Guard. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority.

Jean Loring, Highland Park, is another of the women tapped. She is on the AWS Point Limitations board, organizer of the ISA Ride bureau, head of the stenographic group on campus, and president of Tau Sigma. She is also a member of Sigma Chi Gamma.

Ruth Meinke, Detroit, is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and is student council representative of the science and arts department. Among her other activities are representative of AWS, WSSP committee chairman, and was a Tower Guard member.

Completing the list of the 12 women tapped is Jaunita Soergel, South Haven, affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority. She is the president of the Home Economics club, a member of the student council, and was Tower Guard vice-president. Among the many organizations of which she is a member are Omicron Nu and the Glee club. She also worked on the J-Hop committee, and the Mardi Gras committee.

Tower Guard Selects Members

The 29 freshman women who were tapped this morning for Tower Guard, sophomore women's honorary, were selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. A 2.1 all college average is required. Marilyn Pierson, present president of the honorary presented the red and gold ribbons to the following women:

Claire Alice Aluhowicz, East Lansing; Alice Anderson, Lansing; Rena Bouwman, Fremont; Mary Isabelle Couture, West Branch; Vonda Eckard, Easton; Irma Feichtinger, River Rouge; Charlotte Hansen, Ironwood; Sophie Lee, East Lansing; and Edna Leyrer, Philadelphia, Penn.

Other women who will serve as Tower Guard members during their sophomore year include: Laura Miller, Dearborn; Shirley Minter, Lansing; Mikred Mitchell, East Lansing; Daphne Morrison, West Branch; Judy Moss, Detroit; Natalie Nobel, Cummington, Mass.; Eunice Noordyk, Grand Rapids; Carol Parker, Birmingham; and Gloria Patten, Saginaw.

Tower Guard Members Listed

Others tapped were: Sara Pearson, Lansing; Leora Pratt, Boone, Iowa; Ruth Prillwitz, Herrien Center; Pat Sawyer, Traverse City; Persis Schultz, East Lansing; Dorothy Smith, Lansing; Joan Washburn, East Lansing; and Mary Telford, East Lansing.

Completing the list of the 29 women tapped are: Louann Woelk, Alpena; Diane Young, Detroit; and Margaret Van Ringelsteyn, Grand Rapids.

A Mortar Board alumni reception will be held at 7:30 and 9 tonight in the Faculty club room in the Union. This tea is given by Mortar Board alumni, to honor the new members of Tower Guard and Mortar Board. All of the old members of these two honoraries are invited.

Those who will pour at the reception are Mrs. John Hannah, Mrs. Isabelle Gonon, Mrs. Lloyd C. Emmons, Mrs. Fred Shaver, Mrs. H. Cooper, and Mrs. Curtis Beachum.

Sue Averill, alumna of the speech department, and a member of last year's Mortar Board group has planned the program.

President and Mrs. John A. Hannah are entertaining old and new members of Mortar Board at a breakfast this morning in the Union sunporch. Parents of the new members have also been invited to the breakfast.

UN Stalled On Problems In Palestine

Informal Negotiation Fails To Break Down Committee Tie-Up

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP) —

Dr. Oswaldo Aranha, president of the United Nations assembly, said tonight that informal negotiations had failed to break the Palestine deadlock in the assembly's steering committee.

The House version as redrafted:

1. Authorizes expenditure of $200,000,000 in American and abroad.

2. Lays nearly all the aid to Italy, Greece, Austria, Hungary, Poland and China.

3. Provides that none of these countries can get help if their governments are under the domination of Russia, unless they agree to start American control of the supplies down to the point of their actual distribution.

4. Sets aside $15,000,000 of the fund for "emergencies" in such unfortunate places as Trieste.

5. earmarks another $15,000,000 for the United Nations children's emergency fund.

6. Requires at least 90 percent of the relief supplies to be purchased in the country.

7. Provides distribution of relief in countries having war reparations out of current production.

8. Demands as a condition for obtaining the aid, the right of the American press and radio to report on its distribution free from censorship.

WKAR To Air ABC Program

Michigan State's department of public relations will team up with the American Broadcasting Company to present a network program from the campus Saturday, June 7. This will be the third time within a year that the two groups have cooperated to present the American Farmer program.

The theme of the program will be experimental results with the use of thyroid extracts in livestock feeding. The program will go on the air through 108 stations across the country.

Dr. E. P. Reineke, research professor in physiology, E. N. McMillen, swine specialist in the animal husbandry department, and J. A. Davidson, research professor in poultry husbandry, will participate in a panel discussion.

Old Age Attacks Bones First—Science Says

CHICAGO, April 30 (AP) — If you think you feel old age in your bones, you are right, for a discovery reported to the American College of Physicians today showed that bones are one of the first points of attack by the fellow with the scythe.

The ageing bones become lighter in weight or mass. The reason is a battle between sex hormones, and a recently discovered sugar hormone. This sweet hormone finally wins the battle and in so doing brings on some of the mysterious changes that are old age.

The report was made by Dr. Fuller Albright, associate professor of medicine, Harvard Medical School. He spoke in response to receipt today of the John Phillips memorial medal, given for his discoveries on how kidney stones form in humans and remedies to get rid of them.

"In youth and in the prime of life," said Dr. Albright, the sex hormones help to build strong bones.

They faced defeat on their effort in the assembly's steering committee to add to the free Palestine proposal to the business the 55 nations must consider in the extraordinary meeting.

A vote on the issue appeared to be near when the committee recessed at 4 p.m. (CDT) for tonight. The interim was allowed.

The rally for candidates from Co-op houses found a number of voters in attendance, but only one candidate present, Earl Reed, of Hedrick house.

Voters from Lansing, East Lansing, and other local areas were represented by only six students, while 25 of the 40 candidates from these precincts were in attendance.

Reed spoke to the voters from the Co-op houses, and each of the 25 candidates from off-campus areas was asked by Dick Mosher, chairman of the rallies, to limit his talk to an introduction in view of the limited audience.

The original purpose of the rallies was to permit student voters to become acquainted with the candidates representing them, and to hear platforms of the various candidates.

Campaign rallies for student council and class offices failed completely last night when voters and candidates failed to appear for the meetings.

HERMIE SAYS—

Are You Too Busy?

By TOM RIORDAN

TOO BUSY, TOO BUSY, TOO BUSY.

This answer is passed out hundreds of times each day. Everybody is always too busy; too busy making money; too busy studying; too busy just trying to be busy.

If we paused for a moment, we would not doubt find that all this business of being busy is pretty superficial and as a matter of fact, just our way of pretending we're really covering ground.

WHEN SOMEBODY starts talking about democracy and America, almost immediately, after making a few choice remarks about these things being trite and far fetched, we usually launch into the old excuse, "besides, I can't bother about this stuff, I'm too busy."

Thousands and thousands of words have been thrown at us about America, the "land of the free and the home of the brave," with ideas about how we could make our nation a really great one, but few even attempt to do anything about carrying them out.

Then this writer took in a performance of the musical revue "Ideas Have Legs", and suddenly found out that somebody is doing something. It was entertaining and told a story in a simple and down to earth manner.

There was no Orson Welles directing the affair, no Alfred Lund or Helen Hayes playing the leads, no music by Gershwin or story by Steinbeck. It was the work and effort of 150 Americans, young and old, amateurs all, who really believe the message they delivered.

The ideas weren't stupendous, but ones that can be put into effect this very minute. They were, in reality, the answer to all of the problems that plague us today.

"These people must have something," those in attendance found themselves saying. And they did have something. They had a message that hits like a bolt out of the blue. They believe that democracy can work; that this nation of ours can really roll.

It wasn't anything that smacked of the old patriotic theme. None of that war hysterical shouting of "Hurrah for the Red, White and Blue." No, there was none of that. The thing sort of soaked up on the audience and then exploded.

CONCERNING THEMSELVES with basic things in our lives, the family, the community, the factory, the players in "Ideas Have Legs" told in plain language, how we can get along with one another and build ourselves, our families, our communities, and our nation into the best.

Merely by stopping a moment to analyze our actions and reactions in everyday situations we can get a quick inside into the problems of today. Maybe, by some strange fate, we are the cause of uncomfortable moments in our own circle of bickering and hard feelings, that it's ourselves who should accept the blame.

If we are sensible enough to accept our findings and then correct them, things will begin to brighten up around us and soon we'll be witnessing a new and welcome change.

This "Ideas" gang, which gives its time with no monetary compensation in return, has drawn a battle line against materialism which breeds ill-will, discontent, jealousy, and bigotry.

THEY'RE STRIVING to foster cooperation and understanding between parents and children, between worker and foreman, between labor and management. "Ideas Have Legs" shows that with personal quirks and grudges cast aside, any two groups can get together and make a happy and peaceable go of it.

It's unfortunate that this presentation can't be put on in the College auditorium. However, a long standing Ag board ruling prohibits anything but college-sponsored entertainment from being staged there.

However, for those of you who would like a stimulus of real America vigor, this writer highly recommends "Ideas Have Legs". If ever you have an opportunity to see it, by all means do so.

Cellist Collins will play Brahms' First Sonata in E minor and the Intermezzo from "Concert for Violoncello by Lalo for her first two numbers. Ravel's "Piece en forme de Habenera" and "Allegro Spirituoso" by Sena will conclude Miss Collins' part of the program.

Compositions by Pergolesi, Caldara, and Paisiello will be Miss Dieckhoff's opening selection. The second trio of songs will be "Aufenthalte" by Schubert, "Der Schmetterling" by Brahms, and Richard Strauss' "Morgen."

"The Hills of Grana" by the two composers by lesser-known Russian composer Mednikoff, and artists will be sung by Miss Dieckhoff.

The recital is open to the public.

According to Jack Rose, MSC gardening specialist, a few simple, lightweight, good quality tools can lighten the work of home gardening.

Hope Nine Stages Late Inning Uprising To Nip Spartan Jayvees In Overtime

Single Run In Tenth Frame Gives Visitors 6-5 Win Although Outthit

By ED BROWN

George Hill's JV nine bowed to a greatly improved Hope college squad yesterday afternoon, ending up on the short end of a 10 inning 6-5 score.

Chuck Dietrich started on the mound for State, opposing Bill Verhey in what was to be a close pitcher's battle.

The first two Hope batters were set down on pop flies, Bob Dorsh, the third man up, worked Dietrich for a pass, but got out first when Ken Rotman hit back to the pitcher for the third out.

State put two men on in their half of the first, on an error and a walk, but the next two batters on the MSC roster flied out and Tony Rhodes was picked off second to end the inning.

State came back in their half of the second, converting a double by Ted Maupin, and a single from the bat of catcher George Pavlick into a run to tie the score.

Visitors Get Two More

Hope parlayed three errors by Ted Carrow on third base, one in the third, and another in the fifth.

BULLETIN

ANN ARBOR, April 30 — The University of Michigan golf team handed Michigan State's Spartan golfers a 21-11 setback here today on the university course.

Two more tallies, to go into the seventh leading 3-1.

The Spartan bats began to boom in the seventh. Pavlick, leading off, walked; Dietrich singled; sending Pavlick to third. White sacrificed, scoring Pavlick. Tony Rhodes, who came in for Gordon Thomas at center in the fifth, singled, scoring Dietrich. Carrow doubled, and scored when Joe Bechara singled, and went to second on a wild throw. Verhey struck out the next batter, Maupin, and Ray Steffen flied out to end the inning.

Hope was set down on two strikes by Neil Kicketts, JV specialist, who relieved Dietrich, in the top of the eighth, and Verhey did the same for the Spartan batter who faced him.

Hope came back in the ninth to combine a double, a single, and a walk into two runs to tie the score. Verhey struck out one man, and the outfield counted for the other two outs to send the game into extra innings.

The JV's Lose In Tenth

Hope saved up the game in their half of the tenth, when Rotman

Bosox Power Runs Rampant In 7-1 Victory

DETROIT, April 30 (AP)—Getting classy four-hit pitching from their rookie southpaw Mel Parnell, the Boston Red Sox won their first game in five starts today, chasing Hal Newhouse to his third straight defeat with an 11-hit assault that beat the Detroit Tigers, 7 to 1.

While Parnell was facing only 31 batters in achieving his first major league triumph, another Boston rookie, right fielder Stan Mele, took a major role in making it easy for him.

Mele batted in four runs with a triple and two singles and Ted Williams and Ed Pellagrini, subbing at shortstop while Johnny Pesky is out with a cold, each had three singles.

Newhouse, who won 26 games last year, was batted out for the third straight time in the ninth inning and hasn't won since the opening day of the season.

He was shaky from the start, walking two men in the opening inning, but he wasn't scored on until the fourth when singles by Williams and Dom DiMaggio, Roy York's foul fly and the first of Mele's three hits gave Parnell a 2-0 lead, enough to win.

York's pass, Mele's triple and catcher Roy Parce's single accounted for two more Boston runs in the sixth and the last three came in the ninth when Pellagrini singled, Russell walked, Williams lined a run-scoring single through the box and relief pitcher Art Houtman walked York and served up a two-run hit to Mele.

Catch John Koon, after the game, remarked: "It's the same as last year, when the Sox played the poorest game of the season here at Kalamazoo. Today's contest is the poorest exhibition they have given this season."

Circuit Clouds Feature Dorm Softball Tilt

In the Dorm league softball games played on Amis field last evening, Tom Marsh stole the show as he slammed out two home runs to pace his Snyder 13 team to a 12-9 victory over Snyder 15.

Bruce Smith and Paul Rankin formed the battery for the winners. Stan Clausen tossed them up for the losers with Vic Pagane catching.

Mason 6 won over Mason 2 by a 6-1 count in another contest. Bob Bassett was the winning hurler with Dick Barrett as receiver. Mason 2's lone tally came on a circuit clout by Mike Gregoriass. Sam Robinson pitched for the losers and Red Taylor handled the backstop duties.

The final tilt saw Mason 9 defeating Mason 4 by a 6-2 score. Jack Nelson twirled for the victors and Bill George Teale was behind the plate. The losing moundman was Norm Cummings with Jerry Ferris catching.

Snyder 10 was awarded a forfeit over Snyder 11 when the latter outfit couldn't field a complete team.

Net Squad Bows To U-M, 6-3

By JACK WORTS

Determined to snap a "foreign courts" jinx, the Spartan tennis team will play away-from-home matches tomorrow and Saturday with Kalamazoo and Western Michigan.

State lost its second straight match by a 3-6 score to Michigan, yesterday at Ann Arbor. The loss was the third of the year for the Spartans, against seven victories.

Captain Jake Dahlgren's first three singles men lost to the Wolverines and the match was decided in the final doubles after Mickey Elliot took a 2-6, 3-6 loss from Hal Cook at sixth singles.

Doubles Win Clinches Match
Al Reynolds and Roger Cessna, playing first doubles or State, bowed to Michigan's top combination of Andy Paton and Fred Otto in straight sets, 4-6, 5-7, to give the Wolverines a total of five points and certain victory.

In the singles matches the Spartans were handicapped by the composition courts in use at Ann Arbor. Al Reynolds dropped two sets to Andy Paton, 2-6, 7-9, in an uphill battle.

After slipping and sliding through a bad first set, Reynolds fought back from a 3-5 score in the second and ran the count to 7-6 and match point only to lose after a questionable call by the umpire on a blazing crosscourt placement that brought groans from the partisan crowd of Wolverine rooters.

Shingleton and Chuck Lose

Jack Shingleton moved up to the second singles position, but was topped by lanky Fred Otto, in three sets, 4-6, 6-4, 1-6. Bob Chuck also ran up against stiff competition and lost to Fred Ziemann after two hard sets, 5-7, 3-6.

In the other doubles matches, Chuck and Shingleton matched up the third State score by losing Mikulic and Ziemann, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2. Malaga and Elliot were no match for Lincoln and Mowmy Dayton, in a straight sets loss, 3-6, 4-6.

Bob Malaga added a second point to the Spartan total with a three set 6-2, 5-7, 6-1 victory over left-hander Dick Lincoln, but Mickey Elliot fell before the steady play of Hal Cook, 2-6, 3-6.

In the other doubles matches, Chuck and Shingleton matched up the third State score by losing Mikulic and Ziemann, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2. Malaga and Elliot were no match for Lincoln and Mowmy Dayton, in a straight sets loss, 3-6, 4-6.

Telephone Strikers Snub Michigan Bell $4 Increase Offer

DETROIT, April 30 (AP)—Leaders of Michigan's striking telephone workers today turned down an offer of $2 to $4 weekly wage increases from the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. as insufficient.

The company's proposal was for increases "geared to local wage conditions," and brought a statement from the union that "other industries have been granted increases, but we are entitled to similar consideration."

The union's rejection followed a day-long negotiating session with company officials and federal conciliators, the first round parleys, at which the issues were discussed since the 24-day strike began.

Counter Again

Both sides went back into conference after the union announced its refusal of the company offer, but officials declined comment as to the subject of the further talks.

The company offer also was the first it had made since the walkout started April 7 over union demands for a $12 weekly boost, which was later scaled down to $6 for 18,000 members.

Walter Schaar, president of the Michigan Telephone Employees Federation, said the wage increases offered by the company "did not take into consideration the fact the telephone workers are skilled craftsmen and entitled to as good a wage as any other worker."

Face Higher Living Cost

Mrs. Frances Smith, head of the operators' union, who with Schaar headed the MTEF delegation at today's negotiations, declared the offer had been turned down "on the basis of all members of the various telephone unions are faced with higher living costs."

Thomas N. Lacy, president of Michigan Bell, said in announcing the company offer that it was "in keeping with local conditions in the various communities, based upon extensive local wage surveys made by the company."

Pennsylvania City Joins Price Slash With Large Sales

POTTSTOWN, Pa., April 30 (AP)—Price slashes ranging from 10 to 50 percent today ended a spring-time buying slump in this eastern Pennsylvania town of 20,000 with many merchants reporting the "best business" since war's end.

Virtually all stores cooperated in the community profit-sharing plan to boost customer sales and a chamber of commerce spokesman flatly called the one-day sale an out-and-out attempt to clean out our merchandise so we can plan for a permanent reduction in the next few months.

Jack Hoffman, operator of the town's largest (New York) department store, told a reporter today was the biggest one-day sale in the 26-year history of his establishment.

that it might render a worthwhile service by regularly publishing the dates and times of all meetings of the State legislature.

I am sure that the officers and members of the other college organizations active in promoting political consciousness among students—the League of Women Voters, the Spartan Citizens Committee, and the newly organized Young Republicans—will agree.

Students attending Michigan State college have an unusual opportunity to observe their state government in action, and it is an opportunity of which they should be encouraged to take full advantage.

The announcements might be printed in a regular—and conspicuous—place in the paper, and should include a brief statement of what business is to be considered. The college SDA chapter would be glad to furnish the necessary information. Notices of meetings of the Student council might also be printed in this regular box.

Doug Kelley

TO THE EDITOR:

This is not a letter primarily to the Editor. Instead it is a letter to the entire student body of Michigan State college.

Enclosed you will find $1.00 which I hereby donate towards buying an ambulance for MSC.

Last week two people were critically hurt on this campus. It was almost impossible to reach an ambulance immediately. I do not wish to ever have to see this happen again on our campus.

Since nothing is being done about this situation by the school, I think that all students, especially those living on campus or in GI village should take this opportunity to donate for a lasting Memorial—an ambulance for MSC.

A Student

TO THE EDITOR:

How can we ever forgive fewer than 10 million GIs who tabbed up a bill to the American people of less than $4.00 per person.

I don't know what the dead would say, but those who are alive and half alive—if they could hold again the blood in their veins that is still dying the ground of Europe—if they could pick up the lost years and that peace of mind shattered in the tension preceding the bombs burst—each would give back the few dollars with accrued interest.

If there's any left—send it home, it will find good use—maybe to toast the vision of the Golden Lady, who holds above the gathering haze, the symbol of a more dignified and legitimate business nearly forgotten during the average year. For one, cannot forget. Please, won't you forgive Joe. He didn't mean it.

Charles King

Editor's Note:

Reader King is referring to a recent "The Flood" column in which European blackmarket operations were discussed.

TO THE EDITOR:

Having digested the recent correspondence concerning the ROTC unit at this school, I find it necessary to once again become opinionated. During the war, as an enlisted man I had the dubious opportunity to serve for limited periods of time, under various officers of the United States army. Their previous training was representative of West Point, College ROTC and OCS ninety day wonders.

Naturally a few of these were lemons. Sorry as I am to say, it was not the man from West Point, nor in the majority of cases was it the boy who had spent some time as an enlisted man and gone on to Officer's Candidate School. No, I am sorry to say, but the majority of the lemons were the ROTC graduates.

As a thought to the regular army men on this campus who are charged with the training of these future officers, I must say that as a person who has previously been afflicted with the army both as an enlisted man and officer, it is my opinion that fifteen officers of quality are better than five hundred officers in quantity.

College Ambulance Plans Face Barrier Of Maintenance Cost

President John A. Hannah clarified the viewpoint of the college on the need for a campus ambulance service yesterday.

"We are very much aware of the importance of the problem, and realize that the necessity of such a service is growing day by day."

The president said that cost is the greatest barrier now standing in the way of obtaining an ambulance for college use. "Roughly," he said, "the expense of purchasing the vehicle and providing drivers and medical technicians on a 24-hour basis would be around $15,000 per year."

Mr. Hannah added that future appropriations by the state legislature will determine the college's ability to provide an ambulance for campus use.

Window shades, if carefully chosen and cared for, can improve the appearance of homes in the spring. They affect both the inside and outside of the house.
