NSA Background, Significance Told By 'S' Observer

State: Student attended the December, 1946, Chicago student conference which resulted in formation of the National Student Association. The News prints his article as part of a program to inform students about the NSA. An all-campus vote on NSA will be held Monday, November 18.

By HARRY MELSTON
NSA is by no means a dictatorial organization. The national office will be primarily a storehouse of information which member student bodies can come for facts and power lies in its ability to publish the picture of a particular existing situation with a contrasting picture of what the situation should be.

It is the nature of the organization and most of the activities will be of a fact-finding nature directed toward building up of files. For this is the NSA's first program project. Many surveys and studies, such as: Housing, student government, educational opportunity, student relief.

delegates at the national congress, held in Madison, during the summer, recognized the fact that an organization of student relief was already in existence. To set up another agency would be a duplication of effort. Therefore, it was decided that the NSA should sponsor the World Student Service (WSSS).

International activities involving the feasibility of NSA's affiliating with international organizations, ran the length of the convention, and finally settled only after several days of discussion. The delegates were convinced that international affiliations were not essential but necessary. The delegates realized that the influence in the International Union of Students is very great but it was also urged that it should not be hoped to meet this tendency by being on the outside looking in. The final resolution passed in the NSA, Page 2

U.S. To Cut Tariffs On 3500 Items

Wool, Beef, Sugar
Listed For Slashes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP) — Sweeping concessions in United States tariffs were announced, affecting three-fourths of all imports and dropping the nation's tariff barrier to the lowest point in decades.

They will take effect January 1, under the General Trade and Tariff Agreement signed at Geneva, Switzerland, on Oct. 30. Cuts and trade concessions by the 22 other Geneva nations are effective simultaneously or soon thereafter.

3,500 Items Affected
Tariffs on more than 3,500 American products were affected. The trade agreements act of 1940 gave the administration authority to sign tariff-cutting pacts in return for concessions from other nations. Such pacts are not subject to Congressional approval. Slashes of 50 per cent — the limit allowed by Congress — were granted by the United States on See TARIFF, Page 2

Water, Light, Heat Ebb as MSC Utilities Groan

By JIM MCARTNEY
Element supplying water, electricity, steam and gas to the campus is taxed dangerously near the breaking point, Kinney, Building and Utilities superintendent, disclosed today.

He said that the additional load on the four utilities would be dangerous to the body.

It is not due in any of the utilities before February. The situation on heating oil is in the worst place. The delivery is far behind.

The power plant is operating at the same facilities as last year. Only 2,500 students are served. Kinney said that the supply of water is not adequate.

Police will check all parking lots on south campus, and in addition will patrol the Red Cedar and Grandview village parking areas for unauthorized cars.

The city is becoming congested with unauthorized parking, Kinney said, "and it is unfair to the students who have properly registered their vehicles."

Term Play Cast In Rehearsal

WEDDING BELLS Gifts Swamp Royal Bride; Altar Near

LONDON, Nov. 17 (AP) — Like all new brides, Princess Elizabeth and Lt. Philip Mountbatten may be a little baffled by some of their wedding presents. Among these received are an ostrich egg, a shoe worn by one of Queen Victoria's ladies and a set of knitted hosiery for boiled eggs.

And still more presents are arriving. From rare jewels to linen handkerchiefs, gifts of high and humble status have come from Britain's Heiress Apparent enough gifts to stock a small department store.

No responsible authority would even venture to place a value on them.

Included was a necklace of pearls, diamonds and rubies, a gift of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth to their daughter for her marriage Thursday to Lt. Philip Mountbatten.

The King and Queen also gave her two strings of pearls the size of small grapes. The jewels were from the personal collection of the royal family.

Tonight the bride's parents throw as much of a feast as their realm's tight rationing laws permit to entertain foreign royalty here for the ceremony in Westminster Abbey.

The select dinner-dance, attended by only 150 guests, climaxed an exciting day for the bride-to-be. Earlier she received visiting dignitaries and went to one of the largest indoor royal parties since the war.

Campus Thefts
On Increase

Police recently continue to increase throughout the campus as the fall term total of stolen goods reached approximately $10,000, according to reports from the campus police department.

The complaint is growing out from the campus's development with only one car reported from the main dormitories.

Shaw's hall was the scene of the largest theft in the fall term when a car was stolen, clothes and $50 in cash were taken. The stolen car was recovered by the campus police.

A car was also stolen from the main dormitories, and a car was also stolen from the main dormitories.

Mystery-Comedy To Open In Fairchild Tomorrow

By ALMA EVA
The play is a mystery comedy, the first of its type to be presented at MSC in two years.

The story concerns Gerald North, a well-to-do New York publisher and his scatter-brained wife, Pamela, who has an amazing capacity for getting in and out of trouble.

The Norths are returning from out of town as the play opens. Deciding to make cocktails, Pam opens the door of the liquor closet and is horrified at a strange body falls out.

Police investigation begins, with Lieutenant Wiegand using the North's apartment as his headquarters. Complications ensue when a second murder occurs in the same apartment.

North's Suspected
Suspicion falls in turn upon Pam and Gerald and several of their friends before the murderer is, finally discovered, inadvertently, by Mrs. North.

The cast includes William Devoreaux and Barbara Karch as Mr. and Mrs. North, Stanley White as Lieutenant Wiegand, Harold Calkins as his assistant, Detective Mullins, and Anthony Chapp as the apartment house keeper.

The Norths' friends are played by Jack Trammor, Robert Harrel, Police Bureau, Chauncey Schumacher, and Don MacDonald.

Others in the cast are James Reed as Inspector O'Malley, Ted Lee as Cooper, the policeman, Clinton Strobel as Timothy Brown, Arnold Brandt as the Fuller brush man, Brian the security company, Page 2

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP) — Senator Taft (R-Ohio) tonight denounced, as "a step toward a completely totalitarian nation," President Truman's proposal for a revival of partial wage, price and rationing controls.

Seeks 10-Point Plan To Check Inflation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP) — President Truman asked a hesitant Congress today for power to restore limited wage, rationing and price controls as "short-run insurance" against the "economic catastrophe" on continued inflation.

Mr. Truman said there and other "drastic" measures of a 10-point program need not be used if voluntary action meets the "ominous threat" of climbing living costs. But he cautioned:

"If we fail to prepare and disaster results, we shall have gambled with our national safety — and lost."

With his plan for combating inflation at home, the President coupled another administration bid for $597,000,000 to aid France, Italy and Austria this winter.

In an obvious jab at Russia, he said this country will not let "criticism so loudly expressed" halt its foreign program.

He laid all his proposals in person before the full Senate and House 90 minutes after Congress assembled in special session to tackle the inter-twined issues of foreign aid and domestic inflation.

Among Republicans and Democrats alike there appeared to be general agreement that aid to Europe is necessary and that speed is in order.

Republicans Oppose Controls
But Republicans in general found fault with Mr. Truman's ideas for reviving the authority for economic controls even for possible use in "limited areas of acute danger."

Much of their comment followed the pattern set by House GOP Leader Hiram Bingham of Indiana. He said the President wants "dictatorial powers." Senator Carmichael (R-Wash.) cried: "Regimentation!"

NCAA Meet Entry List Sets Mark

A record number of individual and school entries — 236 individuals and 32 schools — will make up the ninth annual National Collegiate Athletic Association varsity cross country championships with Michigan State playing host next Monday.

The final list of 32 schools was released yesterday by Ralph Young, director of athletics.

Drake University, the defending champion with eight participants, is led by Howard Johnston, sophomore, and returning veteran Johnston was on the Drake championship team in 1944. The Drake aggregation won the title in 1944, '45, and '46.

Individuals Champs Entered

Returning as the defending individual champion of 1946, Quentin Brelford will lead a team from Ohio Wesleyan consisting of eight runners. Brelford established a record for the four-mile course of 20:22.9.

Michigan State will enter the field with seven entries. Although the first seven are not yet selected, a team consisting of Captain Ed Kienitzki, Bob Sewell, Jack Dianetti, Tom Irwin, Clark Atkinson, Kevin Higgins, and Don Trull will probably set the nod. They ran in the IC-4A meet at New York yesterday.

Wisconsin Enters Thirteen

The University of Wisconsin leads the list of individual entries with 13. Penn State college, Syracuse University, University of Wyoming all follow with 12 entries each.

Since the inception of the NCAA in 1932, the meet has been held each year over the Michigan State college four-mile cross country course. In 1943 the meet was dropped due to war difficulties.

Best time to date of an NCAA four-mile run is 20:12.9 made by Greg Rice of Notre Dame in 1938.

The run starts on the parking lot east of Jensen gymnasium and concludes on the running track near the 110-yard high hurdles starting post.

Browns Trade Jack Kramer, Vern Stephens

BOSTON, Nov. 17 (AP) — The acquisition of shortstop Vern Stephens and pitcher Jack Kramer from the St. Louis Browns for seven players plus undisclosed cash — estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000 — today highlighted Joe Cronin's first public appearance as general manager of the Boston Red Sox.

Smiling broadly and apparently highly pleased with his new job in owner Tom Yawkey's front office, Cronin told baseball writers that the Browns gain immediate possession of infielder Eddie Pellagrini, catcher Roy Partee, both with the Red Sox last season, and pitchers Jim Wilson, Al Widmar and outfielder Pete Layden, members of the Longview American Association farm team.

Cronin added that two other Red Sox hirings will be turned over to the Browns later. He refused to discuss the cash involved but in St. Louis Bill Dwyer, the Browns' general manager, described it as "a substantial amount."

"Stephens of course will be the Red Sox's 1948 third baseman," a writer pointed out. "Joe McCarthy will handle him." Cronin countered.

'S' Jayvees End Season With Loss

JV's Finish Year With Three Wins

By BOB HOLDING

The curtain came down on the Michigan State Junior Varsity's 1947 season in disastrous manner last Friday as the State "B" team dropped its final game of the year to Western Michigan, 26-21.

The defeat at the hands of the Broncos, despite Marty Kelly's three touchdowns, gave the Spartans a record of three wins and two losses for the year.

Hopes High

Hopes were high for a great season when the State "B" squad started the year off with a bang and ran all over a favored University of Michigan team, 13-0. The Wolverines failed to cross the MSC 20 yard line.

Michigan State continued to keep its goal line uncrossed the following week as they trampled the Central Michigan Chippewas, 41-0. Once again the opposition did not cross the 20 yard mark.

The third game of the year against the Iowa Reformatory was another field day for the Jayvee backfield and MSC continued to roll along the rocky road of unbeaten football teams. Halfbacks Marty Kelly and Don Sharrad led the way in the 50-0 triumph.

Fall To U. of M.

Then came the downfall. A vengeful U. of M. team repaid State's earlier visit to Ann Arbor and knocked the Spartans from the unscored upon, undefeated ranks. The Wolverines took advantage of the rain and muck to trim Michigan State, 13-7.

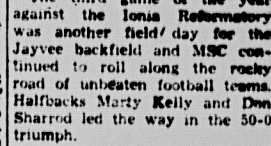

Last Friday, State's Marty Kelly hooked up with Western Michigan's right end Jimmy Betchek in the wildest football performance of the season.

Betchek had the amazing ability to make uncanny passes right out of the arms of the State defensive backs. Kelly was a wizard at his feet and ramped to all three of MSC's touchdowns.

It was just the right day for Mr. Betchek and his mates and the Broncos won out, 26-21.

'Hard Luck' Halfback

Lynn Chandonis, Spartan right halfback, displays the action that makes him one of the top-ranking ball carriers on the squad. He was a true "hard luck" back in the Temple game, twice reviling off long college drive into enemy territory only to see the plays called back on offside penalties.

Spartans Given Rest After Beating Owls

By JACK WORTH

Spartan gridders, back from the East, took a well-earned day of rest yesterday after clipping Temple, 14-6, in Philadelphia Saturday.

Looking to the near future, the squad has the pleasant prospect of a long trip to sunny Hawaii, where they will play the final game of the season, already a 30,000 seat sellout, November 29, against the University of Hawaii.

The Rainbows of Hawaii, coached by Tommy Kaulukuku, former 2nd great for the islanders, has a five won, two lost record for the season.

Open Home Stand

The game with the Spartans will open a final home stand for the Rainbows, featuring contests with Michigan State, Fresno State, Denver and the University of Montana. Hawaii is also the host team in the annual Pineapple Bowl, January 1.

Only 3,000 persons were in Temple stadium Saturday to watch Horace Smith race 54 yards on a pass play and 12 yards with a punt return for both of State's scores.

Rain, which began to fall early in the morning and continued throughout the day, kept many fans home by their radios. "The game of the day" in the East—the Army-Penn clash in nearby Franklin field, also cut down the attendance.

No Serious Threat

With less than two minutes remaining in the half, Temple Coach Ray Morrison withdrew his backfield ace, Phil Stangburg, with the Spartans apparently going nowhere in the vicinity of their own 40-yard line.

On the next play Horace Smith slipped into the Temple secondary to take a pass from Click on the 20-yard line. Smith eluded the Owl safety men and outran several defenders for a touch-

Small Men, Big Punch Do Combine

MSC 125-Pounders Battle For Berth On Boxing Squad

By BILL SABLE

"Little men with a mighty punch", is the classification given to Ernie Charbonneau and Wally Nagao, Michigan State's bantamweight fighters.

Charbonneau and Nagao are both and neck contenders for the number one position in the 125-lb. weight class on the Spartan boxing squad.

Charbonneau is a veteran from last year's Green and White squad and a former Marine fighter.

He began competitive fighting in intramural tournaments at Cooley high school, Detroit. When the war came he joined the Marines and may well have been the smallest "leatherneck" in the service.

Reached Meet Finals

At Cherry Point, North Carolina, he was a member of the camp team, which was rated by the Associated Press as one of the finest amateur squads in the nation in 1943-46.

Last year, "Mighty Mouse" as he is called by his teammates, dropped his opening fight in the match against powerful Syracuse. He then rallied to win his three remaining fights.

Nagao Fights Veteran

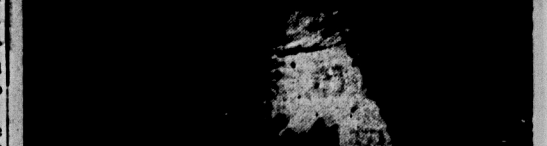

This year Charbonneau is hard pressed for his position by the Hawaiian-born Nagao. Wally worked out with last year's squad before being forced to retire in favor of the textbooks.

In 1942, Nagao, a civilian attached to the combat engineers, topped the All-School Barracks bantamweight title.

Shortly after he became a member of Army Military Intelligence and spent the rest of the war as a second lieutenant, seeing service in all parts of the world.

With over a year at Michigan State, two at Hawaii university before the war and over 200 credits, Wally is still classified as a sophomore, since he is a first year Vet. Medicine student.

Coach George Makris may be given the opportunity to use both men at the same time during the Senior Bowl match with Maryland, as two new weight classes have been added.

Coed Swim Squad Wins Opening Meet

State Trims Western Ontario For Second Straight Year

By ROSE NARRA

Michigan State college women's swimming team defeated the University of Western Ontario's swimming squad, 50-28, last Saturday night in Ontario.

This was a repeat performance of last year's meet, when MSC defeated the Ontario team, 52-32.

Altogether the MSC team placed 16 out of a possible 25 in either first, second, or third place spots. They claimed seven firsts, four seconds, three thirds, and one fourth place.

Paced by Donna Maddock and Peggy Rawls who accounted for four of the seven firsts, Michigan State held the lead throughout the meet.

Sensory Maddock Stars

Miss Maddock won the 40-yard backstroke in 27.3 while in the individual medley event, she took first with a timing of 42.1.

With 3:39.3 time, Miss Rawls hit the finish line first in the 60-yard free-style event. In the synchronized singles competition, she totaled 48.10 point to gain another first.

In the 80-yard free-style relay, Misses Maddock, Rawls, Weinburg, and Kerr placed first with a timing of 44.4 seconds.

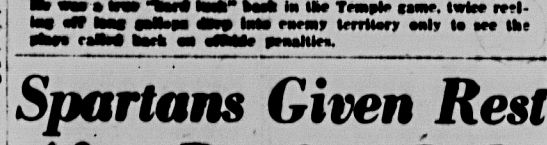

Wet Medley Relay

The medley relay team, composed of Donna Maddock, Peggy Rawls, and Dorothy Weinburg finished first, in 33.3.

Michigan State topped first place in the diving competition. Betty Burton with a total of 61.6 placed first, and Jean Bowen, totaling 40.4, placed third.

Seconds were taken by Virginia Baldwin in the 40-yard breaststroke, by Miss Rawls in the individual medley event, by Dorothy Weinburg in the 60-yard free-style race, and by Lois Soderquist and Jean Bowen in the synchronized duet.

"IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN"

How often we are forced to use this saddest of all phrases because of a little inertia. For instance along about October we photographers beg, pray, and plead that you have those Christmas portraits made. What happens? About the 1st of December you call and ask if it's too late.

Well, it's almost the 1st of December. Need I say more?
