SO HELP ME

Poppy Day

By GORDON HANNA

THURSDAY IS POPPY DAY AT MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE.

MSC post, American Legion, aided by the Nursery school, is again selling Poppies to raise money for disabled veterans and the Spartan nursery.

Every cent the post gets in return for the Poppies will go to the Nursery school, except for the three cents per Poppy which goes to the veteran who made it.

Other organizations will be selling Poppies in and around the campus, but only the Poppies sold by the college Legion post and the wives will be used here.

Loyal Spartans are urged to support this annual drive.

THE LEGISLATURE MET AND PASSED the MSC building funds bill. This is to the credit of the gentlemen of the Legislature.

Education today is one of the most important forces that a democracy has to use to combat the foreign "isms."

Adequate educational facilities are probably the only media that Michigan youth have to learn the overwhelming advantages of the democratic system.

An appeal to the Legislature for their good work.

LAWYERS FOR JAMES ZARICHNY say that they will carry the contempt case to the Supreme Court. It will be interesting to see what will happen to this piece of meat making case.

THIS IS THE LAST WEEK OF SCHOOL for graduating seniors. One of the big problems seems to be getting through this week.

As senior marks don't go in until Friday, many tests have been scheduled for this week. Seniors don't have to take finals, but a couple of stiff tests the last week of school look a lot like finals to some of the departing students.

Oh well, I suppose that the main purpose of college is education.

AM GOING TO THE PRESIDENT'S reception tonight and shake hands with President John A. Hannah. This will be a double pleasure.

I am one of the few students left who can remember when he was secretary of the college and he is one of the few faculty members who can remember when I was a freshman.

WENT TO THE INDIAN STUDENTS fair with tea Sunday.

Under the direction of S. Krishnamurthi, the students from India put on an hour's show, climaxed by an original song of praise of MSC and the various big wheel faculty members.

Congratulations are due these foreign students who are doing so much to further world understanding.

I AM NOT A POLITICAL PROGNOSTICATOR, but I believe that the Republicans will nominate Ladd, Dewey, Stassen, or some other candidate for president.

However, all the commentators seem to think that Michigan's Arthur Vandenberg is a strong contender.

Turning Point

The future MSC student government will be decided today when students go to the polls to determine the fate of the proposed council constitution and aspiring candidates for council positions and class officers.

The election today should be a turning point of student government on campus. Students have the opportunity to vote in a new "streamlined" constitution and capable representatives to efficiently utilize the scope of the constitutional powers.

A relatively weak primary vote showed either lack of enthusiasm by candidates for the offices or complete apathy on the part of the student body. To show the college officials that students are capable of governing themselves by regular elections at least a clear majority of the student body must show enough interest to get out and vote. No stronger plea for self-government can be given by the student body than an all-out vote.

However, this vote must prove by the results that selections of representatives was made on a strictly qualified basis and not on social or block standards.

A committee of the Student Council has been working the entire school year on an adequate document to control student powers through their own government. The proposed constitution has been published in the State News for three consecutive issues and students should familiarize themselves with the constitution in order to give it a fair vote.

Equally important to new student government are the elected representatives to carry out that government. Many candidates were eliminated in the primary vote. Today the top selections will be made of the ones remaining. And stepping in should be representatives who are aware that efficient student government is obtained only by hard work, constant effort, and intelligent leadership with a thorough appreciation of student problems.

There is but one answer to the problem of adequate student government on campus. The answer lies in the voting power of each student. Today is the day to exercise that power and clearly show that the student body can and will govern itself through qualified representatives and provide a basic document for government.

As You Like It

The name of William Shakespeare is synonymous with good theater. Since the last of the sixteenth century his plays have been models of top notch drama. Rarely does a Broadway season go by without at least one of his performances playing to SRO audiences.

This spring "As You Like It" has been chosen for the all college term play. The production opens tonight for a three day run in Fairchild theater.

Approximately 2,088 seats are available for the three nights. To date little over 500 tickets have been reserved. The cast and directors have worked long and hard to offer a polished Shakespearean performance to the students of MSC. Lavish costume and stage design have been prepared to make the play complete in all respects. No expense or effort has been spared.

The drama department re-arranged its schedule this year so that it could bring Spartan students a serious Broadway drama, winter term, and a Shakespearean this term. In order to do this, dramatically poor comedy had to be presented fall term.

Everyone on campus owes it to himself and to the drama department to attend "As You Like It" this week.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

OPEN LETTER TO THE STUDENT BODY

Immobility, indifference, inactivity, lethargy, apathy, indifference, all existing for the most unworkable world which this generation is to inherit. Today the very future of our great country is at stake. When will you awake from this stupor? What will you do to help us to overcome our present world situation? Will you be content to let the world go by? There are organizations on this campus that have really worked this year to bring you a true insight into what is happening inside of the campus. You have seen around yourselves a group of classes and weekend parties but you have shown little or no interest except when certain groups were directly affected as in the A. L. F. issue. The Junior class and then those groups were just about the only people in attendance.

When these organizations on the campus of the Michigan State University have worked so hard to bring you a true insight into what is happening inside of the campus, you have seen around yourselves a group of classes and weekend parties but you have shown little or no interest except when certain groups were directly affected as in the A. L. F. issue. The Junior class and then those groups were just about the only people in attendance.

prize would be given for the composition accepted to replace our present school song. This contest should be publicized on a National wide scale and be open to both professional and amateur writers. Another method would be to hire a composer to write a school song for us.

Although the class of '49 would not have their class number set in concrete, they would have the honor of dedicating a school song to their alma mater.

Roy Crissey, El's pitcher, supplied the winning punch both at the plate and on the pitcher's mound as the El's defeated ATO, 4-1, to win the Block 2 championship in the intramural softball playoffs last night.

The El's, Brannum's Boys, and Snyder 12 are the three teams who are competing in the round robin tournament. Brannum's Boys won over Snyder 12 last Monday night to put them one game up in the playoffs. The first team to win two games in the series will be all college champs.

Ticket Plans For U. of M. Game Listed

Assistant Athletic Director Lyman L. Fridmoldig has announced the procedure which will be used for the distribution of student tickets for the University of Michigan M.S.U. game.

Since the contest will be played after registration but before regular classes meet, the usual method of issuing tickets to students cannot be followed.

For this game the following plans have been adopted:

1—An estimate of the fall enrollment by classes will be furnished by the Registrar's office and will be used to determine the number of seats allotted to each class. Tickets will be issued on a class preference basis.

2—At the time the student receives his activity book he will be given his seat reservation stub in exchange for Coupon No. 1. Coupon No. 2 will be used to pass through the gate.

3—Students will be unable to purchase adjacent reservations for this game.

4—Parents and friends of students who expect to attend the game should apply for their reservations now. A call-out is expected for this game. Tickets are listed at $2.00 each.

5—Massed students wishing to purchase seats should look for their seats about 10:30 p.m. paying their fees. They may then secure their reservations together.

6—Reservations for all other games in the home schedule will be handled as formerly.

Slides Home Safely

Eddie Miksis, Brooklyn second baseman, steals home in fourth inning of Dodger Cincinnati game in New York (May 24) beating throw from Pitcher Red Lively to Catcher Ray Lamanno. Peeewe Reese walks to bat and Empler Al Barlick calls the play Miksis stole home after clearing bases with a double in six run inning which gave Dodgers 9 to 4 victory over Reds and ended eight game losing streak.

COACH LIKES IT

'Mural Fencing Contest Very Good' - Schmitter

The intramural fencing contests held Thursday and Friday of last week were termed "very satisfactory" yesterday by Coach Charles Schmitter, who conducted the meet.

The foil division was held Thursday night, with twelve men entering six preliminary winners moved into the finals.

Salazar Wins Foil Crown
Paulino Salazar won, followed by John Probert and Al Walker. George Frank, John Van Dingen, and Ted Haskell were the others competing in the finals. Probert, one of the meet's outstanding fencers, came back Friday night to take first place in saber after a hard struggle. Because of the two fence offs were necessary to determine the winner in this event, Van Dingen, second, and third place went to Fred Durand.

Epee Fencing
Epee entries comprised the smallest field, but good work was shown there, too, as Frank and Richard Taylor took the top spots.

Early Lead Run Up By Sigma Nus

IFC Track Crown Virtually Clinched

Sigma Nu took an early lead in the first day of the IFC track meet by garnering two first places, three seconds and a fifth for 27 points. John Beermann finished first in the 800 for Sigma Nu. The time for the distance was 2:09.

Bill Clemmons captured the other first for the leaders when he won the 300-yard hurdles in 4:7. Sigma Nu men also finished second in these events as Dick Piele was runner up in the 800 and Dave Scholte followed Clemmons across the finish line in the 100.

Phil DeLo Second
Phi Delta Theta grabbed the second place spot in the standings with 10 points, which is a one point margin over Phi Upsilon, holding down third.

Although in second place, Phi Delta Theta failed to finish as high as second in one event. Finishing third in three events netted nine points. The other point was picked up in the shot put.

Team Totals Listed
Trailing the three leaders are Lambda Chi with six points, Kappa Sigma, four points, Alpha Tau Omega, three points, Phi Tau, two points, and Theta Chi, also with two.

Remainder events in the meet are scheduled for Thursday afternoon at 5:15.
