By DAN McCARY
State News Associate Editor
Accelerated program placing MSC on a year-around basis toward final readiness this week amidst University of Michigan officials that no request made by defense officials for a speed-up in col-

William H. Combs, administrative assistant to the president on academic affairs, returned from a Washington meeting of educators on the accelerated program last week. He said the meeting, sponsored by the American Council of Education, dealt with problems arising from accelerated programs.

Up to Institution
A report of the council meeting said that representatives of the army, navy and air force showed a willingness to cooperate with ROTC institutions who desire to accelerate, and a general feeling that the decision is entirely up to the institution.

MSC announced more than a month ago that it was returning to a four term curriculum. At that time the college announcement said defense department officials had requested MSC to speed up their program. However, a U. of M. spokesman, addressing a conference of junior college faculty members in Ann Arbor, said the defense department made no such request.

Urgent Request
James H. Denison, administrative assistant to the president, immediately announced that MSC had received an urgent request and would place its program in effect June 18.

"We understood that many other schools in the middle west, particularly land grant colleges like our own, are doing likewise," he said.

Denison added that the accelerated program would not only fulfill military needs. He said that an accelerated program would make it possible for trained men to graduate a year earlier for defense work.

Shortage of Engineers
President John A. Hannah reiterated Denison's statement. The greatest shortage at present is engineers, he said.

Robert L. Williams, assistant to the president at the University of Michigan, in his statement to the junior college representatives, said "The department of the army has no occasion to request the colleges and universities to accelerate their programs at this time."

Denison promptly replied, "We considered to have adequate reasons to accelerate a month ago."

Further he added, "The department of defense has supported the program by making provisions under which ROTC instruction for entering freshmen this summer will be possible."

He cited a survey taken by Registrar John A. Fisher of Coe college, Iowa, which indicated that a majority of colleges and universities are either going on a year-around program or are considering such a move.

Students driving regulations will be enforced on campus this term as usual, according to campus police Chief Arthur F. Brandstatter.

The regulations, he explained, do not allow any student to drive on campus unless he has a driving permit. Those with storage permits may drive only in and from their parking area.

Students with other driving permits are allowed to drive on campus between 6 p.m. and 4 a.m. any day of the week. Those with permits other than storage may also drive on campus Saturday and Sunday any time except between 4 a.m. and 8 a.m.

Brandstatter explained that the reason for the 4 a.m. to 8 a.m. driving ban on Saturdays and Sundays was to prevent congestion of parked cars near the dormitories.

Students May Gain Exemptions
WASHINGTON—Selective service board yesterday the 1,000 examination centers at which college students will take tests for possible draft deferment.

At the same time the agency set forth the rules of the examination which will be given May 26, June 16 and June 30.

Black Ruled Eligible By NCAA Board

Wisconsin Daily Asks For Review

By HERMAN GRULLICH
State News Sports Editor
Jed Black, the Spartan 145-pound contender, has been ruled eligible to compete in NCAA boxing competition.

The association's rules committee made the decision by unanimous vote at its meeting yesterday.

It was the second time this year that the question of Black's eligibility was raised. In January, State's boxing coach, George Makin, asked William J. Black, chairman of the rules committee, for a decision on the case. Blackwin declared the Spartan eligible.

Cardinal Insists
At the instance of the Daily Cardinal, the Wisconsin student newspaper, the committee reviewed the case.

Gerald Jeff Black, Michigan State boxer, is not now, or never has been, eligible for intercollegiate boxing competition, Dick Shaw, Cardinal sports editor, wrote on the March 25 issue of Wisconsin's paper. The Cardinal went on to quote the rule in question.

Rule Says
Article I, Section 3 of the code says:

"Anyone who has ever participated in a public boxing contest after reaching his 18th birthday, whether an admission to the contest was charged or not, except when carried on between colleges, preparatory schools, or high schools, shall be ineligible to participate in college boxing."

Blackwin said his committee determined that in participating in a bout at Delavan, Wis., on June 5, 1948, at the age of 19 years and two months, Black had committed a technical violation of the above rule.

No Violation of Spirit
However, although they recognized the technical infringement, the committee found no violation of the spirit of the rule.

There were no protesting circumstances noted by the group, which prompted them to make Black an exception to the general rule. They cited the fact that Black's high school had no boxing team, and therefore the MSC boxer had no way of knowing the implications of the rule.

The violation was a single one and there were no infractions before or thereafter also had bearing on the no precedent set.

In conclusion, the statement said, the committee added it would be recommended that the so-called "letter rule" be still very much in effect, that it is established no precedent in this case, but that it judged the Black case as an individual merits only.

Republicans Strengthen State Leads

Board Incumbents Lead Dem Rivals

By The Associated Press
Republicans continued to dominate bi-annual spring elections late last night as they built up leads of more than five to three over Democratic opponents.

State Board of Agriculture incumbents were leading their Democratic rivals by nearly 43,000 votes with 822 of the state's 4,354 precincts reporting.

Forest H. Akers (R) had 5,631 votes and Frederick H. Mueller (D) 24,527 to Hiram Sackett's (D) 44,619 and Mrs. Minnie Starr (D) 46,643.

Dem Stronghold Falls
The Democratic stronghold in Detroit appeared to have fallen to the party as the Motor City gave only about 65 percent of its votes to the Dem.

In the 1950 election the same precincts delivered about a 90 percent majority to the Democratic ticket.

VanWagoner Trails Opponents
Former Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner, whom Governor William E. Gurnea appointed to the University Board of Regents to succeed to the expiring ticket, was leading the state by about 8,000 votes but falling behind his Republican opponents by 20,000 votes. Van Wagoner had 35,192 votes to 1,400.

Leiford L. Dean and Bruce Bonstedt, both Republicans, had 73,600 votes at 1,400 votes, Wendell Stron, of Escanaba, Van Wagoner's running mate, had 44,000 votes. Bonstedt and Van Wagoner are incumbents.

Other candidates and their votes were Lawrence Kohlman, 789, and Howard Walsh, 745.

Voters favored three constitutional amendments by four to one votes. Proposal number one for annual sessions of the legislature had 324 "yes" votes to 193 "no" votes with two precincts reporting.

The Korean war benefits bonus had 211 "yes" votes to 124 "no" and the proposal for equalizing supreme court justices was ahead 726 to 306.

Faculty Approval Needed Before Vote

Council Rule Under Study By Big Ten

By PHIL GUNBY
Voting on the proposed new Student government constitution at spring term registration was canceled by decision of a special administrative group meeting March 29.

According to administrative officials, the college presidential advisory group halted Student council voting plans for three reasons. First, the group did not wish to proceed without consulting the over 400 professors, associate professors, and officials who make up the MSC faculty.

Secondly, the administrative group felt the constitution, especially with last minute wording changes, was not well enough known to the student body.

Reason Given
The third reason given was ambiguity in the wording of the proposed document. Tom King, dean of students, said the reviewing group felt the unclear wording might possibly lead to misinterpretation.

President John A. Hannah said, however, that the complaint lay more in grammatical errors than what the words actually said. These errors have been corrected, King said, and the document will be returned to the administrative group this morning.

To Go To Faculty
King pointed out that if the group could get the contents of this document to all faculty members, it would be sent to all faculty members. "If there is no serious objection by the faculty, the constitution could be voted on within three weeks," he said.

Administrative officials pointed out that only a majority of those voting would be needed to pass the constitution if a campus-wide election is held. This would mean that if only a small percentage of all MSC students voted, and a majority of those who cast ballots were for the constitution, it would pass.

Ag Board Approval
While this applies to the proposed student government constitution, President Hannah hastened to point out that the State Board of Agriculture must first approve the amendment, which would institute 25 cent tax per term on all students.

If the Board approves the suggested source of revenue for the Student government, a majority of all students enrolled at MSC must vote affirmatively.

Robert Says
Robert Robinson, Student Council president, declared that at least 6,212 or 150 students would have to vote yes. That is about 51 percent of the student body, and we've never had more than 30 percent vote at a spring election. Frankly, I'm disappointed.

Robinson agreed that the constitution had a good chance of passing if approved by the faculty, but expressed doubt about the passage of the tax amendment at this time. Used it passed, See WAIT, Page 6.

Ag Board Rules To Let Faculty Enter Politics
The MSC policy on faculty participation in partisan politics was approved by the Board of Agriculture during spring vacation.

Adoption of the policy ended an eight-months dispute between the Board and the MSC chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

According to the ruling, a staff member campaigning as a "political party" candidate shall obtain a leave of absence or continue his work at the college on a part-time basis. The Board will make decisions concerning a candidate's ability to work part-time.

A staff member may become a candidate for a temporary office without a member of a local school board, without a leave of absence, the policy states.

Approved Six to One
This policy was approved by the AAUP last Jan. 29 by a ratio of six to one, according to Victor H. Noll, president of the chapter.

Final settlement of the faculty-politics question ended what had developed to become an explosive academic issue in its early stages.

Former Policy
Last July 13, the Board passed a policy stating that "staff members who desire to take any active part in partisan political campaigns or to interfere directly in partisan issues must obtain a leave of absence without pay, or resign their positions."

The Board took this action because, the public does not always associate the private views of faculty members from the official position of the college itself.

Requested Review
On Oct. 19 the AAUP voted to request the Board to review its decision. The academic freedom committee of the AAUP drafted a see POLICY, Page 6.

Campus Police To Back Rules

Students driving regulations will be enforced on campus this term as usual, according to campus police Chief Arthur F. Brandstatter.

The regulations, he explained, do not allow any student to drive on campus unless he has a driving permit. Those with storage permits may drive only in and from their parking area.

Students with other driving permits are allowed to drive on campus between 6 p.m. and 4 a.m. any day of the week. Those with permits other than storage may also drive on campus Saturday and Sunday any time except between 4 a.m. and 8 a.m.

Brandstatter explained that the reason for the 4 a.m. to 8 a.m. driving ban on Saturdays and Sundays was to prevent congestion of parked cars near the dormitories.

Proposed Constitution Vote

Within the next couple of weeks both the faculty and the State Board of Agriculture will meet. Then, you'll know how you stand.

Meanwhile capitalize on the time you have and give full publicity to the new constitution. We promise to help you.

You have worked hard on this constitution for a long time. We know how you feel. You should be commended for a job well done. You can wait for a couple of extra weeks and put in some extra work. It's worth it. If this constitution passes, it will stand as probably the greatest accomplishment thus far in student government at MSC.

To the students we say: "Get out and vote at spring election. Show your leaders you're behind them. Show us we're wrong in judging your interest in student government. And show the administration you want student government. Then, the old red-brick building will have a greater respect for you at large and your representatives in the Student Council chambers.

Heads, how many of you stopped to think when you left the auditorium last week why you weren't asked to vote on the new constitution?

The Jed Black Case

By HERMAN GRAULICH
State News Sports Editor

Congratulations to William Bleckwenn and his NCAA boxing rules committee for displaying a sense of justice and fairness neglected by the Daily Cardinal, Wisconsin student newspaper.

The committee yesterday declared Jed Black, Spartan 145-pound boxer, eligible for NCAA boxing competition. The details of the Black case are on the front page of this paper and need no elaboration here.

The point is that the rules committee judged the eligibility of Black on the merits of his case and not on the hard-and-fast written words. In doing so the committee took into account the extenuating circumstances involved and came up with a decision that was just and fair to all concerned.

On the other hand, the Daily Cardinal was obviously interested neither in justice nor fairness to the Spartan boxer and everyone else concerned.

We don't know what their reasons were. We aren't mind readers in East Lansing. Maybe it was last Saturday's boxing match that Wisconsin would have won if Black hadn't competed. Perhaps they're mad because a Spartan mitt team dealt Wisconsin its first home ring defeat in history. Maybe it gruels them a little to have "little Jed," a Janesville, Wis. product doing so well so far from home. Maybe they can't stand the thought of having him around for two more years.

In any case, maybe the rest of the nation's colleges should thank their lucky stars that the Daily Cardinal sports staff doesn't comprise the NCAA rules committee.

HAPPY TO HEAR IT—I was glad to find that during the vacation, Ray Steffen, Spartan basketball center, was selected Michigan State's most valuable player by press and radio representatives who covered the team during the 1950-51 season. As far as I'm concerned the six-foot-five senior never received all the recognition he deserved. His play was one of the big reasons for the Spartans' record of 10 wins and 11 defeats in their first year in Big Ten competition. Last year State won only 4 of 22 games.

Trackmen Close Indoor Season With Exhibitions

Running before 5,342 fans, the Spartan tracksters finished a four meet exhibition tour Saturday night at the annual Purdue relays at Lafayette, Ind. to wind up the 1950-51 indoor campaign.

Versatile Jesse Thomas and sophomore Art Ingram turned in sparkling performances for State against some of the best runners of the nation.

Thomas won the 60-yard high hurdles and placed second in the 100. Ingram took second in the highly contested 60-yard dash. The Spartan two-mile relay foursome finished fourth.

The tracksters competing with a small select squad started their exhibition circuit March 16 in the Knights of Columbus classic.

Thomas again turned in the best performance of the team by running a close second behind national hurdle champion Hal Risold Dillard in the low hurdles. Makielki finished third in the 100-yard run.

The following night Coach K. M. Schladenman's crew competed in the Milwaukee Sentinel relays and dominated the events they were entered in.

A two-mile relay team of Walt Schoenege, Steve Little, Keptord and Makielki took top honors. Thomas capped second place behind Big Ten champ, Don Hoover, in the high hurdle race.

Bill Williams, Walter, Keptord and Makielki formed a distance medley team and took runner-up honors.

Stout Leads S' Gymnasts

Led by Capt. Mel Stout, the Michigan State gymnasts finished second in the Big Ten championships and seventh in the NCAA meet.

Stout set a new conference record when he took five first places to win the all-around title with a total of 1,494 1/2 points.

Illinois, the defending champion, beat State 62-49 for the Big Ten title. The Illinois first three places in the tumbling event secured the meet.

Bill Peterson was another big asset to the Spartans as he placed third in the all-around event to go with Stout's first in the horizontal bar, free exercise, parallel bars, flying rings and all-around title.

Florida State took top honors in the NCAA meet with 26 points to oust defending champs Illinois. State netted 16 1/2 points. Stout gained a first in the flying rings and a fifth and sixth in the high bar and parallel bars respectively. He also took third in the all-around event.

Tankers Brilliant In NCAA Title Meet

Brilliant performances by eight Spartan swimmers won Michigan State a rating as the second best tank team in the NCAA classic in Texas last week.

Yale captured first place with 81 points. State gathered 60 points while Ohio State tallied 58. Although all eight men turned in what Coach Charles McCaffree termed, "the finest exhibition of a State swim team," Clarke Scholes emerged as the Spartan scoring star.

The muscular, All-American blazed to first in the 50 and 100-yard sprints and teamed with Dave Hoffman, Jim Quigley and George Hoogerhyde to form the freestyle relay quartet that came from behind to nip the Yale men. Bert McLachlan placed second to the Eli's John Marshall in the 1,500 meter while collecting a fourth in the 220 and a fifth in the 440. Marshall set an unofficial world's record with a 4:30.2 clocking.

The MSC medley relay Hal Shoup, Dave Peterson, George Hoogerhyde and Clarke Scholes placed second. Big Al Omans took the 200-yard breaststroke and took fourth in the 100-yard freestyle. Hal Shoup placed fourth in the 200-yard backstroke.

Boxing Tickets Now On Sale

Tickets are now on sale at the athletic ticket office in Jensen fieldhouse for the NCAA boxing championships to be held at the fieldhouse April 5, 6 and 7.

Student and employee tickets can be purchased for sixty cents. Lyman L. Primodig, business manager of athletics, announced that this charge is in accordance with the NCAA boxing committee ruling that established the non-transferable general admission rate.

The tickets are on sale according to the following schedule:

Preliminaries: To be held Thursday, April 5, at 2 p.m. Tickets must be purchased before 12 noon, April 5.

Preliminaries: To be held Thursday, April 5, at 8:30 p.m. Tickets must be purchased before 5 p.m., April 5.

Semi-Finals: To be held Friday, April 6, at 7:30 p.m. Tickets must be purchased before 5 p.m., April 6.

Finals: To be held Saturday, April 7, at 7:30 p.m. Tickets must be purchased before 5 p.m., April 7.

For people other than students and college employees the schedule of prices ranges from $2 for ringside seats to $1 for general admission. Tax is included in all prices.

Spartanettes Take Runner-up Honors

Pat Scott led the Spartanettes to second place in the Michigan AAG meet Saturday in the Women's pool with two firsts, a second, and an assist to MSC's two medley relay teams.

Women's City club of Detroit captured the Hardy trophy by piling up 57 points to State's 41. Miss Scott's wins were in the 100-yard backstroke and 90-yard individual medley. She lost the 200-yard backstroke to Carol Hoeck of Kronk Recreation.

The medley relay of Miss Scott, Betty MacDougal and Dee Weingberg settled in second place. Dee Lucke and Nancy O'Rourke joined forces in the freestyle relay and took second.

In a tight squeeze, MSC's Pat Fearnside lost the diving event by 1.3 points to Marie Benedict of the Women's City club. Benedict is the national junior diving champion.

Emily Ward of the Women's City club nosed out Miss Weingberg in the 50-yard freestyle by two-tenths of a second.

Aim At Clearer Job Hunting Picture Carnival Offers Career Advice

Two-Day Affair Slates Talks, Display Booths

By MARY HILBERT

Job hunting students will get the lowdown on employment opportunities in 1951 at the all college Career carnival scheduled for tomorrow and Thursday.

Representatives from more than 60 firms and agencies, covering all phases of employment, will take part in the two day session in the auditorium.

The senior Career carnival, held for the first time last spring, has extended its committee this year to make the event an all-college affair, Orland Scheuner, student director, said.

Organized around the theme "Opportunity in 1951", the carnival has been set up to give all students a clearer picture of job opportunities and conditions. Invitations have also been sent out to all greater Lansing high school seniors, Scheuner said.

The carnival will get under way tomorrow with a program at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. Highlighting the events of the evening will be an address by C. F. McCaffery, personnel director of the Kroger company, Detroit. His topic will be "Your Future Is What You Make It."

Welcome Address

Welcoming addresses will be given by John Schleuter, director of the college placement office, and Dr. C. E. Erickson, director of testing, counseling and guidance, Jack Foglio, New Rochelle, N.Y., senior will act as master of ceremonies for the evening.

Also featured in the program will be a student skit and question and discussion period.

The skit, entitled "Life Begins", will describe the day of two job hunters, "Joe State" and "George Kah Rah", portrayed by Frank Bradley, Royal Oak freshman, and Chuck Green, Augusta sophomore.

Questions Director

Student questions will be directed to an eight member panel comprised of company representatives and students. Nine coeds will be stationed in the audience during the evening to pick up and relay audience questions to the panel.

A luncheon in the Union Thursday at 11:40 a.m., honoring company delegates, will open the second day session. Students are invited to buy tickets for the luncheon, according to Lois McKinley, luncheon chairman. Tickets may be purchased at the Union ticket office until 7 p.m. Wednesday.

a lack of funds will continue to curtail Student council activities," he asserted.

Policy Confusion

Gaylord Sheets, chairman of the Student council Student government improvement committee, declared the postponement came as the result of a policy confusion between his committee and the administration.

Sheets explained that his committee had been at work on the new student government plan for two terms. A short time before the end of winter term, the faculty committee on student organizations (which includes the counselors for women and men and Dean King) reviewed the project. Committee Works

Members of the faculty committee had been working closely with the council and governing organization members while they drafted the constitution. Sheets said. At the time of the final check, some changes were requested in the wording.

These changes, which were of a minor nature, were made. Sheets stated. Then, in their last session—a special one—the administrative group voted by secret ballot to postpone the vote.

"Reversal Surprise
The "reversal of policy" in regard to what his group was "given to understand" came as a surprise. Sheets admitted. He had expected that the students would vote on the constitution before the faculty and on the amendment before the Board of Agriculture, thus accounting for the policy reversal, Sheets said.

Operatic Star Opens Concert Series Tonight

Kirsten Flaegstad, heralded as one of the greatest Wagnerian sopranos of all time, will start the spring concert series with a recital in the auditorium tonight at 8:15.

This will be her first appearance at Michigan State, and part of her second U.S. tour since the war, when she went into retirement in Norway.

Mme. Flaegstad's first American debut was with the Metropolitan Opera company in New York in 1934. She at once became celebrated for her performance of the roles of "Brunhilde," "Isolda" and "Elsa." Until her return to Norway during World War II, her singing opposite Lauritz Melchior was praised by critics as some of the best Wagner ever heard in this country.

Policy Settled

statement to the Board of Agriculture, declaring that the policy might be construed as a denial of constitutional and legal rights.

The Board replied by suggesting to the AAUP that it rewrite the policy to its own satisfaction for Board consideration.

AAUP Rewrite

The AAUP rewrite went to the Board at its November meeting. The AAUP's proposed policy said, "It is suggested that a staff member campaigning as a political party's candidate obtain a leave of absence. If this candidacy interferes with the proper discharge of his duties."

The Board said that such a policy would not be explicit enough. It insisted that a faculty-positives policy should include "a positive statement to the effect that staff members campaigning for state or federal offices" should do so on their own time.

A three-man committee was appointed to represent the Board in drawing up the present policy with the co-operation of the AAUP.

Annual U of M Concert Slated

Student composers from the University of Michigan will play their own compositions here tonight in the Music auditorium at 8:30.

The program is part of an annual exchange between MSC and the University, according to Prof. Owen H. Reed of the music department.

MSC music students will present their original compositions at Ann Arbor later in the term, Professor Reed said.

The program will include all types of music and is open to the public.

Theater To Hold Tryouts Tonight

Tryouts for Studio theater will be held tonight from 7 to 10 and tomorrow from 7 to 8:15 in room 146 of the auditorium. Stuart Chenoweth, director of studio theater, announced yesterday. Anyone who has not already been cast is invited to try out for the 35 roles available.

COLLEGE GIRLS CHEER HADACOL

Hadacol May Relieve Some of Troubles When Due to a Lack of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Nicotin and Iron, that interfere with Fun and Studies!

The marvelous benefits of HADACOL today's great nutritional formula, are equally helpful to young and old alike who are suffering from a lack of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Iron and Nicotin. Here's what these two pretty coeds, who may have been suffering from such deficiencies, have to say: "We are two college students writing you this letter. Before taking HADACOL we were nervous, restless and unable to sleep at night. We found we were foggy all day and ached all over. Now after taking only 3 bottles of HADACOL we are different persons. We are full of life and energy and our aches have completely disappeared. Thank you for your wonderful discovery of that remarkable product, HADACOL."

300 Registrants Expected To Enroll In Adult Classes

Spring term adult evening classes will start at MSC tonight with more than 300 central Michigan residents expected to enroll.

Courses range from "Protecting your garden against insects and disease" to "Guarding your health in later years."

The series of non-credit classes is designed to provide subject matter of widespread interest. The classes supplement adult educational programs in Lansing and other nearby communities, according to Russell J. Klein of the MSC continuing education service, sponsoring agency.

Most of the course will be given in Berkey hall on Tuesday evenings, 7:30-9:30. Classes will begin immediately after registration tonight. They last for ten weeks.
