Legislators Lay Base of MT Plan

Agreement Reached on New Draft Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A senseless conference committee agreement on a new draft bill yesterday laid the foundation for universal military training (UMT) in the United States.

The compromise legislation will drop the minimum draft from 19 years to 18½ and the selective service system until July 1, 1955.

The bill would also set up the framework for universal military training with the provision that Congress shall take a second, long-range idea before putting program into effect.

The House passed the bill yesterday by a vote of 287-139. The Senate is expected to pass it next week.

Iran Defies Hague Court in Oil Fight

TEHRAN—(AP)—Iran yesterday spurned the world court and made ready a secret plan for taking over Anglo-Iranian Oil company fields and the Abadan refinery from the British.

The oil company (AIOC) applied to the International Court of Justice at the Hague Saturday for appointment of an arbitrator under its 60-year contract with the Iranian government.

But yesterday Hossein-Fatemil, deputy prime minister, declared Iran would ignore any proceedings before the World court and would send no representatives to plead her case.

Foreign Minister Bagher Kazami sent a message to the Hague saying "I hereby declare the Iranian government is of the opinion that the International Court of Justice is not competent to handle this matter and when the full text of the complaint reaches us we shall give a detailed reply."

Meanwhile the national society to fight imperialistic oil companies, a front for the underground Communist Tudeh party, put finishing touches to plans for nationwide mass demonstrations today.

The demonstrations promise fire-works. They can be a mild stroke by the party to appear in the open again. It has been outlawed since an attempt on the life of the Shah more than two years ago.

Some newspapers carried reports that secret Russian agents had been sent here to guide the demonstrations.

Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's government was taking the usual precautions, ordering special military units to Tehran and other demonstration centers.

Examinations of basic ROTC students for advanced ROTC vacancies will continue tonight and Thursday, it was announced yesterday by Maj. John Johns, public information officer.

Dr. Charles F. Holland of the college health service, assisted by six doctors and a dentist are conducting the examinations in demonstration hall.

At 7 tonight, cadets, infantry, field artillery, and anti-aircraft men will take their physicals. The examinations will be completed Thursday at 7 when quartermaster corps candidates are scheduled.

With this issue the State News suspends publication until Friday for the Memorial Day holiday.

Al Jolson's Age Disputed; Answer Worth $122,000

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—How old was the late Al Jolson when he died? The answer is worth $122,000.

Jolson was generally believed to be 64 at his death. On that basis, his life insurance policies would pay off at $400,000.

However, the insurance companies say there is some evidence that the mammy singer was 70. If so, the payoff would be only $278,000.

That's because Jolson should have paid that much additional in premiums at the more advanced age.

A native of Russia, Jolson had no birth certificate.

Class Standing for Draftees Ready in June

Class standings for draft eligible MSC students should be ready by June 25, Tom King, dean of students, said. The standings are being released in accordance with a selective service ruling which states that men in the following classifications will be exempt from the draft until they complete their education.

Students who will be exempt are: Those passing the draft exemption tests, the first of which was given Saturday.

When compiling the class standings, only grades for the present year will be used, not previous years in college. Only men will be figured in the class standings.

Dean King said that students would have to get their class standing from the registrar's office in the Administration building. They would not be sent out, he said.

The class standings will not assure draft exemption, Dean King stated. The student's local draft board will be the final authority.

Writers' Clinic Starts June 18

About 80 Michigan high school journalists are expected on campus for the fourth annual, high school journalism course June 18-29.

Course activities will include classroom, workshops, lectures, publications of group papers and field trips. The course is designed to give a comprehensive picture of journalism and advertising fields.

It is sponsored by the MSC department of Journalism in cooperation with the Continuing Education service, and is under the direction of Prof. A. A. Applegate, head of the Journalism department.

Wolverine Meet

There will be a meeting of the Wolverine sales staff Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in room 33, Union. Anyone interested in working next year is invited to attend, according to Lincoln Stegman, business manager of the year book.

Pres. John A. Hannah dines on baklava and Arab-made coffee while Mohammed Toama, Karbula, Iraq, senior, explains the operation of a native water pipe. The "Father of the Arab students at MSC," a title which was bestowed upon him at the annual Arabic festival held Saturday night, witnessed Arabic singing and dancing, but did not venture a puff on the water-cooled pipe.

Seven Convos Scheduled for MSC This Summer

Seven state, national and international conferences will be held at MSC this summer.

The annual International Luther League convention is slated for August 21-26. Approximately 4,000 are expected to attend. The group plans to discuss the work of the Lutheran churches—at various colleges and their connection with the students.

Three thousand Boy Scout leaders will attend the meeting of Boy Scout executives Sept. 5-12. The advancement of scouting is the scheduled topic of discussion.

The conferences open June 21-29 with the annual meeting of the American Society for Engineering Education. Over 1,600 engineers from all over the country are expected. The conference will cover every phase of engineering.

Three hundred to 350 women will be present for the annual Future Homemakers Leadership conference July 2-6. From July 19-23 approximately 600 Michigan girls will attend the annual Homemakers conference.

The national College Housing conference will meet at MSC from Aug. 2-4. Representatives from all colleges in the country are invited to attend. Chairman of the conference is Kenneth Lawson, manager of the men's residence halls at MSC.

The National Home Demonstration council expects about 2,000 women for their four-day conference Aug. 12.

Representatives of all groups taking part in the 1951 Activities carnival are to meet at 7:30 p.m. of 9 p.m. tonight in the Tower room, Union. Harley Heckel, publicity chairman, said registration and payment of fees may be completed at the meeting.

ROTC Grads to Receive Commissions

Reserve commissions will be awarded to 243 ROTC graduates at the final drill parade of the year at 4 p.m. today on Old College field.

Maj. Gen. Ralph A. Loveland, commanding general of the Michigan military establishment, will award the commissions at the parade which has been rescheduled from 4:30 p.m.

A large audience, including Pres. John A. Hannah is expected to attend the ceremonies. In event of rain the commissions will be presented in Fairchild theater at 2 p.m. and only those receiving them will be required to attend, according to Maj. John Johns, public information officer.

Maj. Johns requested that all those scheduled to receive commissions report in front of demonstration hall at 2 p.m.

In addition to the commissions, special honors will be bestowed upon 43 distinguished military graduates. The students receiving these honors were selected for their high scholastic achievement in ROTC.

The distinguished military students are: Quartermaster Dale Corcoran, Cadillac; Thomas A. Greaser, Oak Park, Ill.; John R. Daily, Detroit; Charles S. Ellingwood, Howell; Hassan, Harold F. Koopman, Saginaw; Jack O. Reed, Lansing; and Frederick J. Wiles, Lansing.

Stokes Republicans Want South Coalition

By THOMAS L. STOKES Copyright, 1951, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc. WASHINGTON—Senator Karl E. Mundt (R-S. Dak.) has roamed far afield into the deep south to proselyte for a Republican-southern Democratic coalition for the 1952 presidential election.

General Eisenhower is offered as ball to head the ticket without going into the dispute about whether he is a Republican or a Democrat.

The theme of his crusade is to check centralization of government which he sees as leading to socialism. As to civil rights, Senator Mundt said the party should put it honestly and frankly in the framework of state legislation.

A two-party system is needed in the south, and loud overture, with lines of political philosophy clearly drawn. Senator Mundt eventually sees a realignment all over the nation, including the south.

First Title

By HERMAN GRAULICH
State News Sports Editor

Michigan State has won one Big Ten championship. They came close to winning another.

It is high tribute to the ever-increasing national prominence of Spartan athletic teams.

The power-laden tennis squad walked off with top honors in the meet held at Evanston, Ill. last week. Len Brose was the leader as he captured a singles crown and combined with John Sahrtman to win a doubles championship. It wasn't easy for Brose. In the singles final he had to overcome a 2-5 deficit to take the second set and the title.

However, Brose couldn't have done it alone. It was a great team triumph. Dick Rieger grabbed a singles title. Wally Kau and Keith Kimble lost in the finals. Rieger and Kimble lost in the doubles final.

The team will go into Spartan athletic history as one of the best to ever represent MSC. They certainly deserve the honor.

TRACK-Coach Karl Schladehan's charges gave a good account of themselves in placing second to the highly-favored Illinois squad in the Big Ten meet last week. They held a two point lead going into the final two field events. The fact that they lost by 6 1/2 points did not detract from the brilliance of the team. Spartans placed heavily in most events but the Illinois strength in the high jump and pole vault were too much to overcome.

Jesse Thomas, who was the workhorse of the team all year, topped a brilliant collegiate career by taking the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard low hurdles crowns. Don Makielski copped the half-mile run. Bob Carey became the shot put champion by dethroning Cliff Anderson, Indiana's defending champion. Not to be overlooked are Capt. Warren Druetzler, Art Ingram, John Walter, Jim Kepford and Dick Henson. They all helped pile up the points for State.

HONOR—Another honor was bestowed on Michigan State. At the Big Ten meeting last week in Evanston, the athletic directors awarded the 1952 conference swimming and fencing meets to MSC.

While I'm on the subject of the Big Ten conference, I was happy to hear that the conference voted to extend the Rose Bowl pact. If the Pacific Coast conference concurs with the Big Ten action, and it seems likely they will, the Pasadena classic will have a representative of the Big Ten for the next three years. Maybe it's wishful thinking but it might be Michigan State on January 1, 1954.

West Shaw 6 Wins 4-3, Gain IM Softball Finals

Pitcher Ron Pierdon's bases-loaded-single in the last of the fifth inning gave West Shaw 6 a 4-3 victory over Lambda Chi and a berth in the all-college finals in IM softball play last night.

The game was a rough hard fought affair with the Lambda Chi's losing their starting battery because of fisticuffs.

Two walks and a single by Dave Merrill set the stage for Pierdon to win his own ball game, which was the sixth of the year.

BULLETIN

Today's tennis game with the University of Detroit has been called off.

Pitcher Walt Kuhta singled and scored on Dick Brutus' bunt single for an early 1-0 Lambda Chi lead in the third stanza.

In the last of the fourth, Shaw nicked Kuhda's replacement, Tom Dewey, for two runs on five saf-

Spartan Nine Finishes Season with Four Games This Week

By STAN KUTZMAN

With a flurry of four games in five days, the Michigan State baseball team will finish their regular season's play.

After a disastrous weekend against the Minnesota Gophers, the Spartans will try to regain their winning ways against the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor this afternoon.

Tomorrow, the University of Detroit will meet the State nine on Old College field and a two-game series is scheduled for this weekend with Ohio State, the current Big Ten leader.

MSC Coach John Kobs has nominated Don Quayle to start for his squad. Quayle, who has been used extensively in relief roles, will be making his first start of the season. The husky left-hander has appeared in ten games as a relief hurler.

Against Detroit Wednesday, Coach Kobs will use either Bob Daniel or Tom Lawson as his starting hurler.

With Minnesota sweeping the two-game series, the Spartans' hopes of annexing the Western conference title were erased.

State dropped a 9-2 decision Friday and was edged 5-4 in an abbreviated, rain-swept five-inning contest on Saturday.

Vince Magi and Bob Ciolek were the big guns in the losing cause for State. Both pounded out two hits including home runs.

Magi's homer, with none on in the first, extended his hitting streak to 19 consecutive games and brought his season's batting average to a respectable .333.

The Spartans' record in Big Ten play now stands at a three-three wins against four losses. Ohio State, the conference leader, has eight victories in ten games.

Even if State wins its remaining three Big Ten games it will only have a 6-4 record while OSU will have 8-4, giving them the title.

Bathing Suits Abroad Follow French Style

French bathing suits seem to have gained more popularity in other parts of the world than in America.

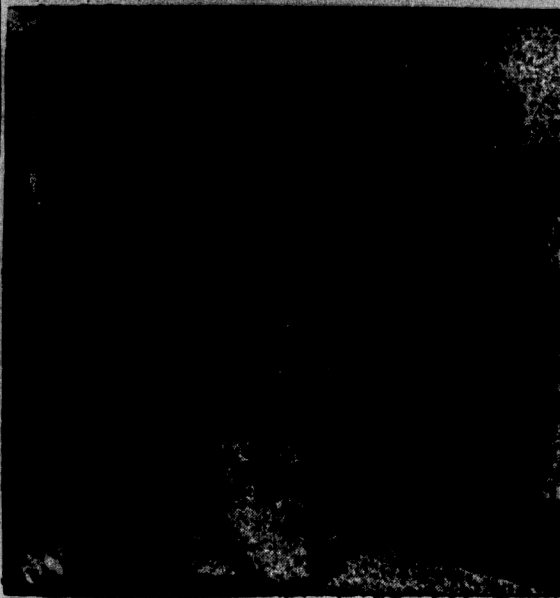

Ram Kochhar, Indian graduate student, said even the Indian girls came out of their long robes and wear bathing suits like the American girls.

He claims also, "French bathing suits are seen on a lot of beaches near the larger cities of India, such as Bombay."

In Haiti, too, the French bathing suit is often worn. Gerald Neptune, Haitian graduate student, explained many girls from his homeland study in Paris.

Despite all the swimming in Holland, the girls stick to the one-piece suit.

When questioned, Helen Greg, French senior, said maybe they do wear the French suits in France, but she has been over here four years so she doesn't know.

Thomas A. Dutch, of the part-time student employment section of the college placement office, watches as Mary Jane Lane, office secretary, explains some of the summer jobs open to MSC students to Charles C. Perkins, Jackson sophomore.

Miss Sattler, representing Kappa Delta sorority, will receive a wardrobe of college clothes, and a complete cosmetic kit.

Miss Wright will have as her prize a set of matched luggage. Her sponsoring sorority, Delta Gamma, will receive a 17-inch television set.

Third place prize for Miss Clyma, representing Delta Delta Delta sorority, will be a set of matched cashmere sweaters.

Prizes will be awarded to the second and third place sponsors

Heinz Agent Plans MSC Interviews

A. E. Hildebrand, manager of contract crops for the H. J. Heinz company, will be on campus today to interview students for summer jobs.

Men interested should sign up for personal interviews at the part-time employment section of the Placement bureau, Tom Dutch, Placement bureau assistant, said. He also urged students to keep in contact with the bureau.

Last Foreign Film

"Secrets of a Ballerina," the last movie on MSC's spring foreign film series, will be presented in Fairchild theater for its final showing tonight.

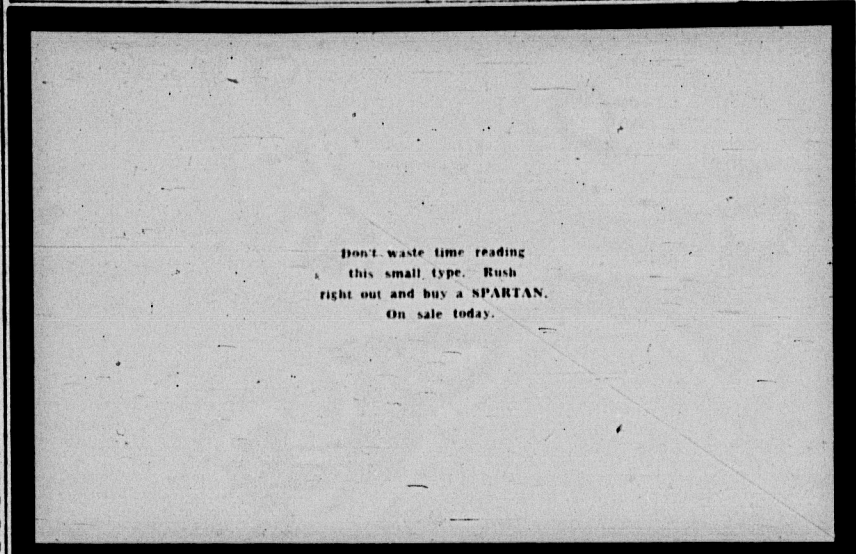

The French film stars Micheline Presle and Pierre Blanchard.

First Time

When Michigan State's touring tennis team defeated perennially powerful William and Mary 5-4 at Williamsburg, Va., this spring, it marked the first time in ten years the Indians had dropped their season's opener.

'Trio' to Open Forestry Award

Leo F. Baumgartner, Delta Phi senior, will receive the central states section of the Forestry Award as an outstanding student in forestry.

The annual award consists of one year's membership in the group.

Composed of three of W. Somerset Maugham's most ingenious stories "Trio" boasts an all star cast featuring Jean Simmons, Roland Culver, Michael Rennie, Ann Crawford, James Hayter and Maugham himself.

The three stories making up "Trio" are "The Verger," "Mr. Knowall" and "Sanatorium."

"Trio" just completed 25 record breaking weeks at the Sutton theater in New York and bids fair to demolish the sensational box office appeal of its predecessor "Quartet."
