Noted Journalists Address Convo

By BEVERLY BUNCH
Approximately 2,000 high school journalists and advisors from 160 Michigan schools will invade the Michigan State campus today to attend the fourth annual High School Journalism Day.

CHARLES E. WILSON

GM Executive, C. E. Wilson, to Speak Tonight

Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Motors Corporation, will speak on "Fair Wages and Economic Stability" tonight at 8 in Fairchild Theater.

The talk, designed for business students, is sponsored by the Business Administration Department. Wilson's speech is one of a series of talks by industrial executives scheduled this year.

Wilson is a member of the Board of Directors of General Motors, chairman of the Operations Policy Committee, a member of the Financial Policy Committee and chairman of the Administration Committee. His headquarters are in Detroit.

The GM executive will be the guest of honor at an informal dinner in Kettog-Center preceding his talk. He will be introduced by President John A. Hannah.

Wilson's talk is open to the public without charge.

Detroiters Offered Employment for Christmas Holiday

Students who are residents of Detroit and desire employment during the Christmas holiday season are requested to turn in their names to the college Placement Bureau.

In addition to being residents of Detroit, students must have reached the age of 18 and be citizens of the United States. The hourly rate of pay is $1.26.

Government Sets Senior Interview

A representative of the United States Government will be on campus beginning Monday to interview seniors and graduate students interested in positions in Intelligence.

Male citizens, 23-28, preferably unmarried, who have good academic records and who have demonstrated leadership in athletic or non-athletic extra-curricular activities are eligible.

Drowning Coed Doesn't Get Wet; Only Breaks Heel

Sometimes a person doesn't realize he is dreaming. At least that's what Doreen Jantz, Cadillac sophomore, alleges. Doreen had a vivid dream Thursday night. She was on a sinking steamer in the middle of the ocean. Someone yelled "Abandon Ship," and she leaped from her upper bunk in East London.

Liason Teams Resume Truce Negotiations

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Communist and United Nations liason officers still miles apart on conditions for resuming the Korean armistice talks—make a seventh effort today to break the seven-week deadlock.

After six attempts, the two liason teams seemed no nearer success yesterday than when they began discussions one week ago.

However, another meeting was scheduled for 10 a.m. today (8 p.m. Tuesday, EST) at Panmunjom, the Communist check-point six miles east of Kaesong.

While the Reds conferred with Allied officers for three hours and 20 minutes yesterday, the top UN negotiator, Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, and Air Force Maj. Gen. L. C. Craigie, another truce delegate, flew to Tokyo.

Their departure raised immediate speculation that hopes for a quick renewal of the armistice conference—broken off by the Reds on Aug. 23—were dimming.

East Lansing Taxis Granted Meter Rates by City Council

East Lansing City Council voted Monday night to establish meter rates for taxis and left a proposal to ban street dances tabled on the evening's agenda.

Basis for the rate is a 35 cent maximum charge for the first half-mile with four passengers. The scale, requested by State Cab, Inc., and Varity Cab Co., is similar to Lansing's scale with taxi fares varying with distance, number of passengers, and packages carried.

New Health Clinic for Local Children Starts Tomorrow

An immunization clinic for children from four months to 12 years old will begin tomorrow at the Spartan-Wives Clubhouse, Verna Ross, vice-president of Spartan Wives Club, announced.

All children living on campus and in the East Lansing area who have not been provided with shots from their family doctors are eligible for single shots, booster shots or the complete series.

The clinic will be held in the Clubhouse, Quonset 94, at the corner of Birch and Willow, from 1 to 4:30 p.m. They are being sponsored by the Spartan Wives and East Lansing Mothers Club in co-operation with the Lansing-Ingham County Health Department and the Ingham County Medical Society.

SOS Spurs Search for Lost Airplane

WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass.—(AP)—A faint SOS in the North Atlantic yesterday spurred an around-the-clock air and sea search for a lost strato-freighter plane and her crew of 11.

Not Now, MSC Cow

Athletic Dept. Rejects Mascot

By ROSEMARY CORCORAN
What happened to "Spartan Boy," the cow that was informally scheduled to appear at the pep rally during half time at the Marquette game?
Ralph Young, athletic director, answered the question yesterday.
"Any stunt put on in the stadium has to be passed on by the Athletic Council. The Council disapproved of the cow," he said.

Hearing Slated Nov. 1 for Bad Check Charge

William E. Masterson Jr., Wayne senior, was charged yesterday with uttering and delivering a check with insufficient backing.

Masterson pleaded not guilty to the charges with the statement that he had not intended to defraud with the check.

Justice Henry Schram, said Masterson came before the East Lansing Traffic Bureau to settle a number of traffic tickets that had accumulated. He wrote a check for $25 which bounced.

An examination of Masterson's case has been set for Nov. 1, before Justice Schram. Masterson was released this morning under $500 bond which was furnished by an East Lansing businessman.

Blood Typing Program Registers Busiest Day

Competition among off-campus students yesterday led to the busiest day spent so far by the blood typing team as they opened offices in the Union, according to Mrs. Harriet Schuman, nurse in charge of the typing team.

Mrs. Schuman reported that competition was especially keen between sororities and fraternities.

Pakistan Head Assassinated by Terrorist

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Prime Minister Liaquat-Ali Khan was assassinated last night by a Muslim extremist who wanted a holy war with Hindu India.

The assassin, Sher Akhtar, was killed by a mob which surged onto the speaker's platform at Rawalpindi, 30 miles from the seething Punjab border of disputed Kashmir State. Official sources said the mob caught the killer and "tore him to pieces."

The 56-year-old Liaquat, long a conciliatory influence in the embittered relations with neighboring India, had just started to address a meeting of the Muslim League. He was shot twice at close range, in the chest and head, and died in a hospital after an operation.

UN Oil Compromise Lashed by Soviets

NEW YORK (AP)—Russia lined up with Iran last night against UN Security Council action in its explosive Iranian-British oil controversy and forecast a "Soviet veto on compromise proposals calling for resumption of oil talks."

Seymour K. Tsarapkin, acting Soviet delegate, lashed out at any Security Council decision in the case shortly after Iran's aged premier, Mohammed Mossadeq, slammed his open hand down on the council table and rejected a British proposal, or the compromise amendments put up by India and Yugoslavia.

Foreign Student to Talk on Travels

Robert Carinaud, foreign student from Normandie, France, will speak on his travels in the United States at 8 tonight at a French Club openhouse in the International Center.

Norway Rejects Russian Charges

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Norway rejected yesterday a Russian charge that her membership in the North Atlantic Treaty organization means she is violating the Paris agreement of 1920 which demilitarized the Spitzbergen Island group.

A Russian note declared NATO armed forces had been given permission to "take military measures" in the area of Spitzbergen and Bear Island, its Arctic neighbor, at the discretion of the NATO command and that this imperiled Russian-Norwegian relations.

Taft Throws Hat In Presidential Race for 1952

Platform Hits at 'Socialism,' Corruption of Government

WASHINGTON (AP)—A broadly smiling and apparently confident Robert A. Taft formally threw his hat into the Presidential ring yesterday.

The Ohio senator made the long-expected announcement of his candidacy at a jam-packed, steamingly hot news conference. He predicted the Republicans would nominate him, and the voters would elect him to the White House on a platform pledging:

1. Restoration of progress within the principles of liberty rather than the principles of Socialism.

2. Restoration of "honesty and integrity" in government, with an end to corruption and influence-peddling.

3. A reversal of U.S. foreign policy to halt the spread of Communism, including the establishment of Korea as a free country and the completion of the armistice of Western Europe to enable it to defend itself against Russian aggression.

For Taft, son of President William Howard Taft and regarded by many as the Senate as "Mr. Republican" since his dominant role in the GOP-run 80th Congress, this was the third all-out bid for his party's Presidential nomination.

He lost out to Wendell L. Willkie in 1940 and to New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in 1948.

Yesterday, reading his announcement above the swirl of newsreel cameras and amid the flashing of photographers' bulbs, Taft declared:

"I am going to run because I believe I can conduct the only kind of campaign which will elect a Republican to office."

He lashed out at what he called the "New Deal philosophy of constant increase in federal government power and federal government spending."

"And, in brisk question-and-answer exchange with some 150 reporters packed into the marble-pillared GOP senators' conference room, Taft said:

1. He will welcome the support of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) or any other Republican senator.

2. He believes his candidacy "received encouragement" from Sen. Taft, Page 6

Med College Test Applications Due

Applications for the Nov. 3 medical college admission tests must be in Princeton, N.J., by Oct. 22. Paul L. Dressel, chairman of the Board of Examiners, announced yesterday.

Bulletins and information about this Education Testing Services examination are available in the Examiner's office, third floor of the Administration building. The test is primarily for those who plan to enter medical schools in the fall of 1952.

Convicts Revolt in West Virginia

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va.—(AP)—Revolting convicts stormed the prison commissary in a violent mutiny at the West Virginia Penitentiary last night and wild shooting broke out.

House Rejects Tax Increase Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House rejected the compromise $5,732,000,000 tax increase bill yesterday in a stunning upset that left key lawmakers questioning whether any revenue measure at all will be passed this year.

American Convicted of Espionage

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—The Swiss Federal Court yesterday convicted Charles E. Davis, 23, Pasadena, Calif., of political espionage. The American Negro was charged with spying on Communists and United States diplomatic personnel in Switzerland on behalf of U.S. agents and Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Violence Threatened in Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Strong-arm dock warfare was threatened yesterday to break a wildcat stevedores' strike that has imperiled the Army's supply lifeline abroad.

MSC Swimmers Honored

Eight Michigan State College swimmers have landed 10 places on the All-American team chosen by the College Swimming Coaches Association.

Freestyle champion Clark Scholes took top places as did Hal Shoup, star Spartan backstroke.

McLachlan's award-winning performance came in the 1000-meter, 200-yard, and 400-yard freestyle events.

Scholes, a Highland Park senior, was the country's best in the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyle events.

Backstroke Shoup won mention in the 100-yard and 200-yard events.

In the breaststroke event, MSC's Glen Omans had the sixth best time in the 200 with 2:22.1.

The Spartans took eighth place among the 100-yard freestylers with a time of 1:51.6.

The nation's tank coaches also singled out the Green and White 300-yard medley relay team.

The 400-yard freestyle relay team of McLachlan, Hoffmann, Scholes, and Hoogerhyde was also second best in the nation.

By team standings Michigan State ranked third in the nation behind Yale and Ohio State among the 27 colleges represented by 106 individuals.

Spartans Hold All-Time Edge Over Penn State

Michigan State claims a decided advantage on Penn State in their all-time series, but Homecoming fans never will forget the thrillers staged by these two rivals in 1946 and 1948.

It was little George Guerre who did the damage in '46. Backman, in the throes of a bad year, was on the pan when Penn State took a first-half lead.

Panin Hits Hard at Fullback

By DALE ARNOLD. One of the prettiest scenes in football is a well-executed down field block.

Coach "Biggie" Munn said that "Panin is working harder this year and really came through for us in the Ohio State game.

Last season Panin was the fourth leading ground gainer on the Spartan squad.

Before coming to Michigan State in the fall of 1940, Dick was hailed as one of the top high school gridirers of the state.

ing his prep days at Denby high school in Detroit. He played third base and leftfield on the baseball team.

The gridiron, coached by Jim Munn, led to Cookey for the Detroit public school championship in 1947, but won the title in 1948 and 1949.

Spartan Tackle Jack Morgan, who was lost to the team when he broke his leg three weeks ago, also attended Denby.

A 6'4" tall, 185-pounder, Dick plans to go into economics when he gets out of school.

When asked if he used the T formation in high school, he said he didn't but the type of play was not exceptionally hard to get used to.

Interim champs Abbot 18 continued their winning ways last night by defeating Abbot 10, 7-0.

Abbot 18 scored in the second quarter on a 45-yard pass play from Ray Wiedner to Ted Baillstone.

Another Wiedner pass, this time to Ernie Kosch, was good for the extra point.

In Monday night's featured attraction, two undefeated teams battled for three scoreless quarters.

before Sparty's Outcasts broke the ice in the last period and went on to win, 7-6, over Club 439.

Champs of 1944, Al Condino started a pass play from his own five yard line and climaxed the same play by taking another pass from Francis Toti in the end zone.

Condino then flipped a short pass to Bob McDonough for the all-important extra point.

and when to come out of the line. Dick believes that Panin's defensive end on last year's Spartan squad, was the under-rated player on the squad.

"He really could smash in opposition's backfield and I remember once that they around his end."

Again commenting on "spin" of the fullback, Dick said that LeRoy Crane, captain of year's squad, said he never had the spin down pat in senior year.

With reports of Wayne's probable comeback to State lineup, and Panin's notch play the last two games, fullback position appears to be the strongest on the squad.

"Magic" Munn has a smile of approval as right halfback Billy Wells, of Marquette, and left halfback LeRoy Bolden of Flint, Michigan State, talk over the game-winning touchdowns against Marquette. Wells galloped 69 yards for Michigan State tally and added another receiving end of a 66-yard pass play in the Spartans' big fourth quarter. Bolden wheeled around end for 13 yards and the final TD to give the Green and White its 29-14 victory. Wells, a sophomore, and freshman Bolden are members of MSC's fast moving "pony" backfield and are slated to see plenty of action against Penn State this week.

Spartans Sent Through Heavy Contact Session

Staff Stresses Ball-Handling and Blocking

By The Associated Press
Some rough scrimmage sessions with everybody bumping heads were on order yesterday for the Michigan State football team.

Last week, for the first time since the start of practice, the Spartans had it comparatively easy. There wasn't a real all-out scrimmage all week prior to the Marquette game.

Coach Biggie Munn was particularly annoyed by some of the poor blocking by his linemen against Marquette.

"Maybe we've been blocking these sawdust dummies too long in practice," Munn said. "It looks like we've got to get back to hitting live ball."

Munn was also irked by the rash of fumbles that marked the game. "Sloppy ball-handling is our worst enemy," he told his players.

Assistant Coach Steve Sebo, who scouted Penn State, predicted another tough one for this weekend. Penn State beat Boston University 40-34, lost to Villanova 20-14 and took Nebraska 15-7.

"This is no time to rest," Sebo warned. "We can't beat Penn State without a full head of steam and that means we've got to improve. They're just as tough as Marquette was and even stronger in some spots."

Some of the pressure was off the Spartans, meanwhile, as they dropped to third in the Associated Press poll.

End Bob Carey returned to active duty this week performing his pass-snatching specialty in the workouts. Fullback Wayne Benson, who also missed the Marquette game because of a leg injury, is expected to be ready for the lineup next Saturday.

According to Al Michaels, who drew the assignment of scouting the Spartans for their forthcoming duel with Penn State, Michigan State fully deserves its rating as one of the nation's top teams.

"Surprisingly," Mike adds, "this team is just as tough defensively as it is offensively. I never saw a better defensive team than the day the Spartans blanked Michigan. They were superb."

Offensively, he says Bob Carey at end and Don Coleman at tackle are superlative. "Coleman's one of the best blockers I've ever seen," is the way Mike sizes up Michigan State's all-American tackle Carey he described as "a tremendous end."

Gymnastic Team Names Bob Feldmeier Captain

The newly elected captain for the Spartan gymnastic team for the coming season is Robert J. Feldmeier, Chicago senior.

It will be the job of Feldmeier to fill the shoes of Big Ten and NCAA champion Mel Stout.

Bob had a great background in gymnastics before coming to MSC. At Lindblom high in Chicago, he lettered in the sport for four years, and captained the squad his last two years.

In Illinois prep competition, Bob placed third in the free exhibition for two consecutive years. In 1948, he was the Central Junior AAU all-around champ.

Since coming to State, Feldmeier has improved greatly. Coach George Szypula believes that if he continues his improvement, he can win a Big Ten title and possibly an NCAA championship.

Last year in the Big Ten meet, Bob placed third in the free exercise; third in the horizontal bar; second on the long horse; fifth on the flying rings, and third in the all-around event.

This great performance was overshadowed by the still greater feat of Mel Stout in winning five firsts in the conference tournament. Both of these performers were largely responsible for the Spartans second place finish in the championship competition.

At last year's NAAU Gymnastics championships, Bob placed ninth. This was a creditable showing considering that it was his first try at this national meet.

By moving up a notch in this journey, Bob can earn himself

State News Sports Editor

Low and Inside

How much an All-American can improve after he leaves college may be seen in two former Spartans, Lynn Chandnois and Dorne Dibble.

Chandnois, who was anything but a great passer when he starred with the Spartans is now one of the best passers with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Playing his second season with Pittsburgh "Chad" is receiving top billing along with Michigan's Chuck Ortmann and Joe Geri as a passer.

A member of the '49 team, Chad's passing was a little on the anemic side and his throwing arm was used mostly as a surprise element.

Steve Owen, the New York Giants' coach, said "Chad will develop into one of the dangerous passers in the league before long," after his Giants were held to a draw by the pass-throwing Steelers.

Dibble, who was a so-so end until he blossomed into All-American contention in his senior year, has really been the biggest surprise.

With ends like Leon Hart, Bill Swiacki, Jim Doran, Jim Martin and Johnny Greene, Dorne was given little chance to break into the Detroit Lion's lineup.

Before the Lions opened this season, Dorne was listed as a member of the kick-off, receiving and punting teams, that Coach Buddy Farker uses for one play. He also was a defensive halfback replacement.

In the Lion's 35-17 win over the Washington Redskins on opening day, Dorne caught a 38-yard pass from Bobby Layne to set up a Detroit TD at a time when the score was tied. This was Dorne's first play from the offensive end position.

Last Sunday, he caught a 47-yard touchdown pass in a losing cause against the Los Angeles Rams and alternated frequently with Swiacki in the end slot.

Five Profs Land at Okinawa

By MARION TUTTLE

Five MSC professors are now beginning their duties at the University of Ryukyus, MSC's "adopted" college near Naha, Okinawa. Dr. Milton E. Mueller, director of the program, said.

Arriving Sept. 10 at the island, the faculty and their families are part of an educational version of the Point Four program of aid to underdeveloped areas of the world. The MSC mission is designed to help bring an organization pattern and philosophy of a land-grant college system to the one-year-old university, the first established on the island.

The five-member team, headed by Prof. Samuel E. Harwood, district extension supervisor and secretary of the U.P. Experiment Station, includes Miss Eleanor Summers, Kent County home demonstration agent; Guy H. Fox, assistant professor of political science and public administration; and Prof. Edward F. Fox, Jr., education and education administration; and Harold C. King, instructor in business administration.

MSC was selected from many other applicants for the special assignment last June, because of its strong offerings in agriculture, home economics, education and public administration, adult education and agricultural extension work. President Hannah said in a news release after the acceptance.

"Positive commitments for the project are for one year," Mueller said, "but we hope it will last longer."

It is sponsored by the U.S. Army with the co-operation of the University of Ryukyus students work in the drafting room of their one-year-old school which has been "adopted" by Michigan State College.

American Council on Education. Three extension conferences for townspeople and teachers in Ishikawa, Nago, and Naha have already been held to begin relating the University to community interests.

Housing facilities were not yet ready when the team arrived and temporary housing was set up from 5 to 10 miles from the University. In a recent letter, Miss Summers said, "During one hard rain, Mr. King returned to his home to find his suitcases floating in 2 inches of water."

The faculty were not allowed to take automobiles to the island. They share two jeep station wagons provided by the Army.

Representatives from the entire Ryukyus Island chain comprise a student body of more than 700, as compared to 500 last year. In American standards, the University is comparable to senior high school or first year junior college.

At present the campus includes an Administration Building, which stands on the site of the throne room of an old Shuri castle high on a hill. Grouped around the edge of the hilltop to form an oval shape campus are the classroom buildings, an Extension Building, and a Library. The center of the oval is now being landscaped with lawns and flower gardens.

Down the hillside near an old mess, men and women's dormitories are located. A president's residence was constructed near the University, and he has agreed to make it available as a model Home Management House.

The Library is small, not larger than four barracks apartments.

and the amount of classroom lab equipment is meager. A radio broadcasting station, completed with the University is being constructed and a daily radio education extension program to the public schools has been planned, Mueller stated.

The basic fields in which MSC personnel will give instruction as well as extension programs, include agriculture and forestry, home economics, public administration and public finance, education and education administration, and business administration including shorthand, typing, and office management.

State faculty are assisted by interpreters who will translate lectures and probably will be necessary to the MSC professors. It is expected, Mueller said, that students will acquaint themselves with the English language so that little translation will be needed later on.

Exchange of students and other educational services, including books and equipment are also part of the program.

Two professors and two exchange students from the University of Ryukyus are studying at MSC this year. They are: Matsuo Yonamine, assistant professor in education; Sadao Ikehara, assistant professor of agriculture; Yoshio Iizga and Morihito Yamaguchi. Yonamine is here on a full maintenance scholarship from MSC and Ikehara is sponsored by the Institution of International Education and the U.S. Army.

Nutritionist Elected to Post

Dr. Margaret A. Ohlson, head of the Department of Foods and Nutrition, was installed Friday as president of the American Dietetic Association.

Concluding the 34th annual meeting of the association, the ceremony took place in Cleveland. Dr. Ohlson succeeds Dr. Lillian Storms Coover of Ames, Iowa, as president of the Association.

Head of the Foods and Nutrition Department for seven years, Dr. Ohlson received the 1950 Borden Foundation award for her work in human nutrition. She will direct activities of the American Dietetic Association which is made up of 9,000 dietitians and nutritionists.

Williams to Hurry TB Fund Approval

LANSING—(AP)—Speedy Administrative Board approval of the allotment of $3,000,000 in construction funds to city and county tuberculosis sanatoria was promised yesterday by Gov. Williams.

Williams promised to call a special Board meeting to make the money available as soon as possible. The action was taken after officials of the Saginaw Sanatorium asked for immediate allocation of $700,000 earmarked for that institution.

have involved all seven sororities on M.A.C. Ave., was turned down.

Rubbish collection day was changed by the Council instead of collecting all rubbish on Friday in open trucks, the city will use one closed truck and collect throughout the week.

The city has been divided into five sections so that the truck could cover one section a day. Starting Monday at the east end of the city, the truck will collect as far as Haslett St. and Butterfield Dr. every Monday.

Haslett St. to Grove St. will be covered on Tuesday. Wednesday collections will include the area between Grove St. and Rosewood.

The north section of Grand River Ave. from Rosewood Dr. to the western city limits will be covered Thursday. On Friday rubbish south of Grand River Ave. from the intersection of Michigan Ave. and Grand River to the western city limits will be picked up.

A rate boost for street lights was accepted. From the Lansing Board of Water and Electric Light Commissioners, which provides East Lansing electricity. The new rate will cost the city approximately $100 a year more, John M. Patriarche, city manager, estimated.

Councilmen placed on file a letter from the governing board of the East Lansing Public Library requesting an addition to the north side of the Library. The proposed addition would run the full length of the Library, which is housed on the north side of the City Mall first floor.

Councilman Harold Piets was permanently appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late County Supervisor Arthur Stoppel.

Taft

Gen Douglas MacArthur in a recent Cleveland speech, MacArthur said in that speech that Ohio had contributed abundantly to American leadership. "Institutions multiply," the general added, "that this leadership may even increase in the not too distant future."

Taft doesn't believe there is any immediate occasion for Guy George Gabrielson to resign as Republican national chairman, but he thinks contacts such as Gabrielson made with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation might become an embarrassment to the party.

In all, Taft issued three mimeographed statements announcing his candidacy and a fourth one denying he told President Truman he was not "particularly disappointed" in the President's 1948 victory over Dewey.
