BULLETIN

The Student Congress refused to recognize the election of East Shaw representative Douglas Van Zandt after uncovering evidence of ballot stuffing; a Congress election official said last night.

Under the power of a special election ordinance, the Congress has the right to appoint a representative if the election has not been properly handled. It is the dormitory council's responsibility to see that the election is honestly and efficiently handled.

The Student Congress has the final say whether the representative was honestly elected.

The incident happened in Tuesday's special election to fill three vacant Congress seats, two from Shaw and one from Lansing.

Other candidates that were in the running for the Shaw positions were Ken Berman and Charles DeHaven and Larry Thompson.

The Student Congress has the stuffed ballots in its possession.

Enrollment Falls, Higher Colleges

Enrollment this year has fallen about 275,000, according to the United States Office of Education. It is estimated that there will be about 2.2 million students in 1951-52. The decrease is far less than was feared last spring. It is due to the diminishing number of college-age draftees, says the New York Times. The enrollment drop will help to ease the financial strain on many of the colleges — the small, independent arts institutions — are suffering. Large numbers of colleges will be forced to close their doors, and they may be forced to lower their standards.

Studio Theater Shows Draw Varied Criticism

By ROBERT BARCOCK

The Studio Theater Workshop made a fairly smooth take-off last night, attained some altitude briefly, and then came in for a crash landing.

George Kelly's comedy, "The Flattering Word," is a clever piece having to do with a successful and prominent actor, played, for the most part, with poise and urbanity by Lee Hanson. He drops in on an old classmate, now the wife of a stern, theater-disapproving minister, and proceeds to win the minister over to his side by means of the flattering word, the subtle suggestion that he is a natural born actor.

Pat McFate as the passive minister's wife, was properly mild and unassuming, though perhaps in need of some coaching on her walk. Paul Quilars, as the staid minister, was well cast but seemed to slouch somewhat.

Dale Baum gave a refreshingly humorous and thoroughly entertaining performance as the sloopy and garrulous housewife friend. The difficult role of her avily gum-chewing adolescent daughter was ably carried off by Nancy Metz.

Playwright Tennessee Williams' "Moon's Kid Don't Cry," a Bentley Lenhoff production, is a dynamic, intimate, earthy, sometimes profane, but always touching drama of a poor young married couple, with their first baby, living in a squalid tenement apartment.

A bouquet of red roses is in order for the stirring performance of Marilyn Washburn as the shabby, intense, hard-bitten young wife and mother, Ron Van Tassel as her stubbornly star-gazing

Spartan Grad Makes Good in Television

By DEY BURCH

An MSC "local boy makes good" story has been provided by a 1942 graduate in the television industry, Paul Ritts.

Ritts has recently had a satire on television, "TV Jeebies," published by a Philadelphia company. Also, he is at present an executive producer-director at WCAU-TV in Philadelphia.

One of the programs he has worked on is "The Big Top," which is broadcast over the CBS-TV network.

At MSC nine years ago, Ritts began his career, majoring in speech and dramatics. He got his start in radio announcing and writing for the campus station, WKAR.

After his graduation, the TV executive joined the Army and gained more experience in radio with an Army station in Texas. After approximately a two-year period in the service, Ritts joined radio station WPIL in Philadelphia.

While working for WFIL, he was persuaded to switch to television and because the field was new and not highly competitive at the time, started out as a producer at CBS' WCAU-TV in Philadelphia.

His next move up came when CBS asked him to help set up its first television station in Hollywood. After a year in Hollywood, he returned to his present position at WCAU.

Ritts, who is married and has a five-year-old son, Mark, has also written several articles for Collier's, Post and Redbook magazines.

In a letter to Ethlyn Sexton, book editor of the Lansing State Journal, E. Russell Snyder, Trade Publicity Director of the Winston Company which is publishing "TV Jeebies," called the work one of the company's best books this fall.

"The author is a remarkably young man to be director of the Big Top, which goes out over the entire CBS-TV network.

"If Michigan State is responsible for producing men like Paul Ritts, I wish they'd send us a few more authors like him. He's a grand guy," Snyder stated.

Starr Keesler Keeps Alumni Briefed on College Activities

By PRISCILLA HALL

When caps and gowns are donned and seniors bid goodbye to MSC, it will not be with a tone of finality, for they will always remain in contact with the college. This is primarily done through the alumni office, of which Starr Keesler is the director.

Keesler, who graduated from MSC in 1941, was a prominent track star.

As a student he was president of Blue Key and a member of Excalibur and Alpha Zeta, senior men's honorary. He was also listed in Who's Who in American Colleges.

Keesler, whose home is in Okemos, was awarded the athletic and scholastic medal in his senior year. This award is presented to the man who has shown himself best in a combination of scholastic and athletic activities.

Student member of the Athletic Council, he also belonged to the Varsity Club.

Following graduation from MSC, Keesler taught high school for two years and coached track in Dundee. He returned to MSC for one year to serve in the Short Course Department prior to duty in the Navy during World War II as a lieutenant, junior grade.

After the war Keesler was appointed director of college housing and assistant director of alumni relations until July, 1950, when he was named to his present position as director.

Keesler is the manager of alumni relations and aids areas in organizing alumni clubs. "We set up the clubs and work with them, forming a program of activities for the groups," Keesler said.

In the fall the alumni office sends narrators to the 93 clubs, showing MSC football films and giving news of college activities.

During the winter a more formal program is carried out. Banquets are held with staff members of the college speaking to the clubs on college life. Keesler estimated he attended 55 or 60 such banquets.

Kansas U. Freshmen Wear Traditional Beanies Again

In a burst of old-time school spirit, the University of Kansas has put the traditional beanie back on the heads of freshmen.

But it's strictly a voluntary thing now. Freshmen don't have to wear them if they don't feel like it. The days of "murder the frosh because he forgot his beanie" are gone, commented the University Daily Kansan.

In making his decision the Kansas freshman will have the words of the Union director echoing in his ears. "I hope," said the director, "the freshmen will think enough of the University of Kansas to want to wear freshman caps."

The Daily Kansan attributed the previous falling off of the beanie tradition to World War II, when nobody had time for that sort of thing.

But a woman student that year summed up the prevailing opinion on caps. "What are they?" she asked.

JV's Elect Raterink, Nystrom Co-Captains

By TOM SYAN
Bernie Raterink and Cary "Buck" Nystrom were elected co-captains of the 1951 Michigan State Junior Varsity football squad at a team meeting this week.

Raterink played left halfback on the Jayvee squad and was tied for scoring honors. The Zealand Freshman scored 24 points in four games. Besides being a top offensive candidate for the varsity next Fall, Raterink is also considered a good defensive player and was one of the few Jayvee players that played both ways.

Nystrom played linebacker on defense and saw limited action as an offensive fullback. The 180 pound Marquette Freshman was a defensive stalwart and will be a top contender for the varsity posts left vacant by Bill Hughes and Doug Weaver.

"I thought the team did a swell job in picking co-captains," commented Dan Devine, JV coach.

This year's Jayvee team, the first in three seasons at Michigan State, had a season record of three wins against one loss. The squad's final two games, both against Notre Dame, were canceled due to inclement weather.

Fifty-six players were given awards. 16 upper classmen received Minor letters and 40 Freshman were presented numerals.

The players awarded minor letters include: Linemen: Thomas Beer, Robert Graham, Robert Gutshall, Art Ingram, James Jebb, Dale Knight, James Neale, Robert Schriber, Thomas Saldeck and Don Schiesewohl. Backs: Marian Benjamin, Thomas Brogan, Ivan Chudrinski, Roy Gustafson, and Harry Tamburo.

The oldest team in the National Hockey League is the Chicago Black Hawks. The average Hawk player is 27.8 years old.

State Gridders Named to All-American Team

Michigan State placed two men each on the 1951 All-American football team and the UP All-American team, announced yesterday. The Spartans were the only school with two selections on the All-American team.

Captain Bob Carey and Don Coleman, selected as the most valuable player on the Spartan squad, were the two MSC players named by the UP writers to the All-American and All-Midwest first teams.

The All-American first team included Carey and Bill McColl, Stanford, at the ends; Coleman and Jim Woodruff, Oklahoma, at the tackles; Len Richter, California, and Bob Ward Maryland, at the guards; Dick Hightower, SMU, at center; with Dick Kasmarer, Princeton, Johnny Karvas, Illinois, Vito Parisi, Kentucky, and Hank Lauricella, Tennessee, in the backfield.

Eleven other Spartan gridders received honorable mention. Guard Frank Kush was named to the second-team on the All-Midwest eleven and quarterback Al Dorow placed on the third team. Other Michigan State players honored were: Paul Dekker, Marv McFadden, Frank Kapral, Jim Creamer, Bill Hughes, Dick Tamburo, Dick Panin, Jim Ellis and Leroy Bolden.

Graham Talking

Vince Graham, veteran of the Detroit Lions, tells of Cleveland Quarterback Graham as happening during meeting of these two National Football League teams.

"As Graham took his place under center, he kept me to our line. 'Gimme a line,' or he would say, 'Give six or seven-man line'."

After the Lions' tackle Graham for losses, the coach, on returning to his post, remarked, "Ah, hell, fellow, stand still."

The longest punt in Southern Conference history was kicked by Alabama's Dixie Howell in 1933. The kick carried 64 yards.

Over .800 Mark Munn's Win Percentage Boosted by Perfect Slate

Michigan State's undefeated, untied football campaign this fall boosted Head Coach Biggie Munn's career coaching record over the .800 victory mark, a figure that can be boasted by very few other active coaches.

Since 1932, when Munn started as freshman coach at Minnesota, his alma mater, he has compiled a slate of 130 victories, 34 losses and ten ties in 20 consecutive seasons as assistant or head coach at five institutions. Disregarding the ties, that figures out to an .808 winning average, pretty fair going in any league.

His head coaching record (two years at Albright College, one at Syracuse and five at Michigan State) shows a .780 percentage of victories, despite the adverse weight of the only losing season of his coaching career, a 4-5 record at Syracuse in 1946.

But since becoming head man of the Spartans in 1947 Munn has piled up the most impressive record of his career. His Green and White teams have heard the opening whistle 46 times in five seasons and the final whistles of said games have found the Spartans on the long end of the score 36 times. Two games ended in ties and eight were lost. Disregarding the ties again, his Michigan State record is a gaudy .818.

This year's undefeated team is the third with which Munn has been connected. The 1933 and 1934 Minnesota teams went unbeaten. Seven other Munn teams lost but one game, including his 1950 Michigan State aggregation.

The five Michigan State seasons went like this: 1947, won 7, lost 2; 1948, 6-2-2; 1949, 6-3; 1950, 8-1; and 1951, 9-0.

Yankee Squad Bolstered by Spartan Trio

MONTGOMERY (AP)—The Yankee Squad for the Dec. 29 Blue-Gray gridiron tussle was bolstered yesterday with the addition of three star linemen from Michigan State's undefeated Spartans.

They are Marvin McFadden, 210-pound tackle, and Guards Frank Kapral, 205, and Dean Garner, 190.

All three had an important part in Michigan State's rise to national prominence, ranking second in the nation on the last Associated Press poll.

MSC Gridders Honored at Club Banquet

Kenneth "Tug" Wilson, athletic commissioner of the Big Ten, was the principal speaker at a banquet last night honoring the Michigan State football squad and its coaches. Around 750 persons attended the fete given by the Lansing Downtown Coaches' Club at the Reo clubhouse.

C. W. (Bill) Otto acted as toastmaster while referee Bill Alexander, Oklahoma City, Okla., was another principal speaker.

Ice Squad Meets Aggies Tonight

Face Tough Test With Improved Ontario Club

Michigan State's hockey squad opens its season against Ontario Agricultural College tonight at 8 in the Dem Hall ice rink.

Ontario is reported to be a much improved club this year. The college has added an indoor hockey rink since last season, lengthening their practice time.

Fred Mason has taken over the coaching duties for the Aggies, replacing W. O. Kennedy.

Another fact that gives the Ontario club a slight edge over the puck chasers is that they have two games under their belt, winning one and tying the other.

An indication of their improvement is that last year's starting goal tender, Guy Hamilton, has

One of last year's stars still on the team is Center Keith Hutchison. This 22-year-old, 150-pounder gave the Spartans the most trouble last time the two teams met.

Coach Amos Bessone had the Spartan regulars through a brief scrimmage yesterday in preparation for their opening game. He expects a hard game, and says the Green and White team will show plenty of scrap and hustle.

State's regulars are set for the first game. The three starting lines will be: Bill McCormick, Ray Brooks, and Bob Brown; Jack Mayer, Gordie King and Steve Ras; Jim Ward, Weldon Olson and Jack Skibald.

Behind him are Vito Perrone, Lansing sophomore, who placed 3rd in the Michigan High School Tournament in 1950, and Chuck Wallace, Lansing freshman, who was second at 154 lbs. last year in the State championships.

Oris Bender, senior letterman, rates best call at the 167 lb. post. Fourth in the Big Ten meet last year, he had a season's record of three wins, five losses and one draw.

ORRIS BENDER

There are only eight in collegiate wrestling who might be added here is an Olympic year and divisions are necessary.

Behind Bender is Karl Rundquist, East Lansing freshman, who was second in the High School meet last year.

Gill leads the candidates in the 177 lb. division. A letterman in 1950, he was out of action last year with an injury. Marlow Richards, East Lansing junior, is the other contender for this spot.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Nick Liotta, star football guard for Villanova college and a top-ranking All-American candidate, was found dead yesterday in the basement of his dormitory.

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Bradley University last night withdrew from the Missouri Valley Conference, following the same action taken by Drake University Tuesday night.

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Tate, line cracker of Illinois' Rose Bowl eleven and York Roffler of Washington State yesterday were named the backs of the week in the Associated Press football poll.

CHICAGO (AP)—Johnny Bratton, Chicago, showing a complete reversal of form, last night fought Cuba's Kid Galivan, world's welterweight champion, to a blistering 10 round draw in the Chicago Stadium.

Grid Figures

Final 1951 Michigan State football statistics show that the Spartans' unbeaten season can be credited mainly to a devastating ground attack. In rolling up its nine straight victories this year, Coach "Biggie" Munn's squad amassed a total of 2,845 yards in 381 rushing attempts for an average of almost five yards gained on every running play.

This powerful running game coupled with the Spartan passing game gave MSU a total of 2,847 yards gained to 2,297 yards for their opponents.

Facing the State winners was captain-elect Don McAuliffe. The Chicago junior halfback piled up 566 yards on 124 attempts for a 4.56 average per carry. Close behind was Dick Pannin, Detroit fullback, who picked up 507 yards on 75 carries for a 6.77 average. Pannin also has a year of eligibility remaining. Third among the ground gainers and tops in the average department was Billy Wells, speedy sophomore right half from Menominee. Wells ran over and around opponents for 446 yards in 53 attempts for a brilliant 8.42 yards per try.

Senior quarterback Al Dorow, of Lima, Ohio, spearheaded the Spartan aerial attack with 64 completions out of 116 passes for a 542 yard total. Dorow shattered nine MSU passing records in guiding State to its first perfect season since 1913.

Leading the pass receivers again was Capt. Bob Carey, all-around great from Charlevoix. Playing his last season of college football, Carey snagged 20 passes for 283 yards and three touchdowns.

McAuliffe also was top man in the scoring column, with 54 points on nine TD's. Carey was next with 43 points.

Speed Merchant

DETROIT — Asked about his blinding speed that enabled him to return two punts for touchdowns against the Los Angeles Rams on runs of 69 and 47 yards, Halfback Jack Christensen of the Detroit Lions smiled.

"You'd run fast, too, if you had all those big guys chasing you," Christensen, a rookie this year in the National Football League, holds the Colorado A. & M. records in the 100, 200 and 400-yard runs.

"I can't believe it, I can't believe it!" exclaimed Christensen. "I'm a speed merchant." "How all those people so quickly got back into their grandstand seats after falling on me in that last play," uttered the emerald-eyed Lays.

Revenue Service Clean-Up Hits 31

Workers Ousted Include San Francisco Tax Collector

WASHINGTON (AP)—A big broom swept through the scandal-ridden Internal Revenue Service yesterday and when the dust had settled 31 "unsuitable" employees had been ousted from jobs in 16 cities.

State TV Staff Demonstrates Techniques

MSC's television development program favorably impressed delegates of the American College Public Relations Association Conference Tuesday. J. D. Davis, assistant professor of speech, dramatics and radio education, said the TV staff produced a demonstration show to illustrate the possibilities of television as a public relations medium for colleges and universities throughout the country.

President Truman fired James G. Smyth, San Francisco's tax collector, for "failing to manage his office properly."

Revenue Commissioner John B. Dunlap ousted 30 others, including nine deputy collectors. He said 18 had been fired outright and the rest forced to resign. Five cases have been turned over to the Justice Department for possible criminal prosecution. There were signs of more ousters to come. Several investigations haven't been cleaned up yet, and the cases of a number of employees under suspension still have to be disposed of.

New Library System Started by Michigan

As a direct result of the Michigan's library in downtown Lansing last February, the nation's first state-wide libraries is being established.

The library lost 35,000 books in the fire. Thousands more were water-soaked and partially damaged, and it was necessary to de-humidify the rest of the 500,000-volume collection. The library was temporarily closed, and today is still not operating on a total-function basis.

Meat Judging Teams Meet at Exposition

An MSC meat judging team competed against other collegiate teams yesterday at the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago. Lyman Bratzler, of the Animal Husbandry Department coached the team, composed of Philip Van Aillsburg, Lansing senior; Gerald Schofield, East Lansing senior, and James Willoughby, Detroit senior.

Mrs. Loretta D. Fyan, state librarian, decided after the fire to ask state officials for the teletype network she had long advocated. However, the state could only grant six teletype machines on an emergency basis, the Korean situation having made them hard to get. These machines are now located at public libraries in Detroit, Grand Rapids, Cadillac, and Marquette, and at the state library's emergency information center on the first floor of the State Capitol Building.

At present only unusual or emergency requests can be filled for library patrons. Eventually the service will be expanded and patrons here as well as at other larger public libraries in Michigan will be able to get almost any question answered on a while you wait basis.

Governor

(Continued from Page 1) (1) Reduce the 110 agencies to 40 by consolidation and elimination. (2) Have the governor, secretary of state, state treasurer and highway commissioner for four-year terms—no reappointment possible. Air Raid Drill Successful

NEW YORK (AP)—For 10 minutes yesterday, New York's eight million people cringed in grim, eerie silence beneath imaginary Atom bombs. It was the first all-out air raid practice since World War II. And there won't be another practice drill. The next—if it comes—will be the real thing. "A success," Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri labeled the test. Said Civil Defense Director Arthur W. Wallender: "I feel it would go just as well if an actual raid occurred."
