

Alumni May Advise Fraternity House Supervision

Deans Suggest Group Action on Vacation Rules Violations

Deans for more supervision of fraternity houses during vacation periods may come from fraternity alumni, administrative officials said yesterday.

Merchants Wait Ruling on Parking

On behalf of East Lansing, the Michigan State Highway Department has been prepared to present to Circuit Judge Louis Coak.

Prohibition and what causes it hurts the fraternities immensely, Thorburn said. For Greek groups' own good, action should come from them, he pointed out.

Tom King, dean of students, said action to be effective should come from the fraternities themselves or from Inter-Fraternity Council.

"If, under normal circumstances, would have acted in the Delta Tau Delta case instead of the Dean of Students office," King said. "If immediate action hadn't been needed" The council was inactive during vacation to prevent robbery.

John Green, IFC president, said the council would give the vacation supervision problem plenty of discussion. Houses, however, aren't completely lockable, he pointed out because fraternity members check them during vacation to prevent robbery.

Seventeen merchants' own rules in the area. August 1951, the business obtained an injunction to prevent the Highway Department and the State Police from enforcing the parking order.

At that time, it is expected that out-of-street parking facilities will be available to lighten difficulties.

Winners are determined by the number of signatures on their petitions. No formal election is held. The winners will represent the district from which they are nominated, Thorburn continued.

Only students in the candidate's own living unit may sign the petition and students may sign only one petition.

Petitions may be picked up Thursday at the Union Desk and must be returned to the desk by 5 p.m. Jan. 19.

Students in the food distribution curriculum at Michigan State College will hold an inauguration of a newly formed Food Distribution Club tonight in the Union.

Main speakers will be John A. Logan, Washington, D. C. president of the National Association of Food Chains, Purpura of the club is to advance and maintain relationships with the food chain industry. It is the first club of its type in the nation.

MSC Chapel Nearing Completion

Dedicated to 500 Alumni War Dead

MSC's Memorial Chapel, now under construction, will be available for religious activities and student weddings early this spring, according to Charles R. Erickson, chairman of the Alumni Chapel Building Committee.

The $175,000 chapel, to be completed in March will be built with contributions from alumni and parents of students. It is dedicated to 500 MSC alumni war dead. Names of the honored men will be chiseled in stone in the chapel's narthex.

Stained glass windows, depicting the history of MSC, brotherhood, hope, belief in God and world peace, will be a highlight of the brick and stone building. The windows will be given by parents of students in the classes of 1950 and 1951, officials of the MSC Fund reported.

The Chapel will seat 200 in the nave and 25 in a minstrel gallery above the narthex. There will be room in the chancel for 35 chorists.

Some 29 stones from German cathedrals will be embedded in the nave and narthex walls along with two from Westminster Abbey and St. Paul's Cathedral in London. The stones were donated by officials of the European churches.

A lounge and kitchen for caterings is housed in the basement of the building. "We certainly hope that students will use the Chapel for summer weddings," Erickson said. Both the basement lounge and a garden which will face the Red Cedar could be used for receptions, he pointed out.

The building has oak doors, pews, chancel, altar rails, and pulpit are not yet installed. The slate single roof, ceramic and asphalt tiled floors, windows, and final painting are slated for completion during March.

General And Successor?

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower (left) leaves his SHAPE headquarters in Paris with Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, SHAPE chief of staff, who has been mentioned as a possible successor to Eisenhower if he receives the Republican nomination for president. Taft backers yesterday claimed that Eisenhower had left his campaign managers holding the bag by not entering the race officially.

Taft Promised Votes For GOP Nomination

Eisenhower Backers Equally Confident as Campaigns Begin

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) claimed enough pledges yesterday to give him the Republican presidential nomination if all his backers can produce the convention voting strength he expects from them.

At the same time John D. M. Hamilton, one of the senator's top campaign aides, said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower had pulled the rug out from under his supporters and left them without a candidate.

The statements from the Taft camp in response to word from Eisenhower that the North Atlantic Treaty organization commander would obey a "clearcut call to political duty" but would not take any personal part in a nomination drive.

Eisenhower backers claimed that the Paris statement assures the general's nomination and election. Eisenhower's statement was elicited by the announcement of his plans to enter his name in the Republican primary in New Hampshire in a follow-up move yesterday.

Another of the outgrowths of Eisenhower's statement was a declaration from Harold E. Stassen, another of the avowed aspirants for the GOP nomination, that his bid is being made on his own and is not a "shadow campaign" for Eisenhower.

The general's outline of his stand also sparked a plan in Illinois to enter a slate of delegates for him in that state's presidential primary.

Taft made his claim of delegate prospects in a talk with a reporter in Washington. He prefaced it with a comment that in his opinion Eisenhower's words reduce him to a mere possibility.

Campus police report that 21 tickets for traffic parking violations have been issued since Jan. 6. This term's violations are much fewer than the 151 reported for the same period last year, according to Sgt. A. S. Ellis of the campus police.

Congress Reconvenes For Turbulent Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 82nd Congress reconvened yesterday with Democratic and Republican leaders apparently agreed on fighting any major boost in taxes but far apart on other issues in this critical presidential election year.

Today at 11:30 a.m. (CST), President Truman will address a joint session of both houses in his annual "State of the Union" message outlining the administration's legislative program.

The President's speech, expected to run about 5,500 words, will mark the real kickoff of what many legislators forecast as one of the most politically turbulent sessions in history.

And all the usual handshaking and backslapping, bitter political overtones were evident at the outset as both parties jockeyed for advantage. The slogans and war cries that will be heard across the land in the months to come began to erupt in both chambers.

Before the session was 30 minutes old, Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), newly elected GOP floor leader set the tempo by issuing a statement denouncing what he called "the subject failure of the majority (Democratic) party to provide forthright, honest, responsible and forward-looking leadership."

Promptly at the stroke of noon Vice President Barkley raised his gavel formally calling the Senate into session while Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) performed the same chore in the House.

Eighty-five of the 96 Senators were present. In the House, the first quorum called produced 435 of the 435 members, including 45 newcomers who were quickly sworn in. A score of members showed up later.

Hannah Spikes Rumors of TCA Appointment. Rumors that President John A. Hannah might be the next administrator of the Technical Cooperation Administration (Point Four Program) received a setback recently when Dr. Hannah issued a statement giving his position in the matter.

The statement made it clear that Hannah was not seeking the appointment. It explained that "it is extremely doubtful that I could accept" even if the position were offered.

Hannah expressed his gratitude to Carl Sanders of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot, and to others who had suggested he might be the man to replace Administrator Henry Bennett, who was killed in an airplane crash.

The statement was issued Dec. 27. Hannah expressed his gratitude to Carl Sanders of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot, and to others who had suggested he might be the man to replace Administrator Henry Bennett, who was killed in an airplane crash.

The program also calls for $225,000 to remodel the Bacteriological and Botany buildings and $69,000 for a seed storage building. The University of Michigan will receive a grant of $4,508,203 to be used in the construction of an outpatient clinic, storage library, an addition to Angell Hall and the modernization of the University hospital.

GOP Question Mark

The nation now knows where General Eisenhower stands on his candidacy for president. He has thrown his hat as close to the ring as he deems necessary. If he is handed the Republican candidacy it's sure bet he'll take it.

A second look by many elated Republicans is liable to make them slightly uncomfortable. They have little knowledge of Eisenhower's domestic policies.

His foreign policies are well known and probably supported by more Democrats than Republicans.

Some of Eisenhower's policies reveal themselves in his speeches of the last few years. But close study of these speeches emphasizes the usual vagueness of political speeches. And it must be expected that his views a couple of years ago are not necessarily the same now.

Eisenhower should be commended for staying on the job but he owes the public a little more. If he has convictions on issues other than European defense he should take them to the American public.

If he doesn't have any convictions on labor, the Far East, the farm program, and the many other complicated issues that face a president, the presidency is not his lot.

America is more than a tool to stop foreign aggression. America is supposedly a country of 150 million informed individuals who elect to the presidency a man whose policies they favor.

If Americans elect Eisenhower they will do so because of his name and not because of his policies.

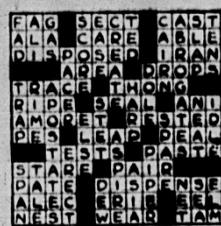

On the evidence now available, Eisenhower can not be called a good or bad presidential candidate. He should not be called a presidential candidate at all.

If the Republicans continue to promote a man they do not know, it would seem that they are more concerned with a name to get them back into power instead of an able administrator.

Eisenhower may be a good man for the presidency but unless he comes out with more than a short statement saying he would accept the nomination, the Republicans have no business pressing him into service.

Trivia

Post-Cards

By Dan McCrary
State News Editor

January is a pretty good time to reminisce, so I'll take time out and think about the penny post card. There will be no advantage to this. The penny post card is just as dead as left over coffee. But a thing like the penny post card rates some comment if only because it was kicked around so long.

The old and new post cards are different only in the color of the stamp and the "This side for address" motto, and the price. But now the old zing is gone and the penny post card era is over.

The penny postcard was a tradition. It was cheap, and a skilled manipulator could put just as much on the back, front, and sides of a post card as on a three page letter. It was always a joy to turn a crowded card over and over trying to figure out what had been written thereon by a penny-wise correspondent.

The place that the change will really hurt will be the companies who advertised with postcards. I hate to think that we will stop receiving those little gems that offer free correspondence courses for potential beauticians or 30 day trial offers for patent medicines. But I hardly think that much of this stuff is worth more than a penny to the enterprising drummer.

The new name is an indignity. It was so easy to say "penny postcard", and everyone always knew what you were talking about. But not any more. Two penny postcard makes me think of something more like a pound of nails.

But it's all for a good cause, because the whole situation was brought about to save the Post Office Department money. The quiet old postcard started getting wide publicity and even attention in the hallowed congressional chambers. The situation wasn't settled until Congress finally got down to work and decided the penny post card was as up to date as 1913 Stutz-Bearcat.

Well, that's life, I guess. It went the way of the five-cent beer, the two-for-a-nickle cigar, and the 35 cent-per-pound butter. But the postcard must be at least have the satisfaction of knowing that it took an act of Congress to put it out of the way.

Better hang on to one or two of them so you can show your grandchildren what the penny postcard looked like. On second thought, maybe you better save a couple of pennies for the same purpose.

Truce Talk 'Breakdown' Stumps UN

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

The sudden change of atmosphere in the Korean truce negotiations probably represents more of a temporary tactical move by the Communists than a real threat of breakdown.

Last summer the Soviets attempted to use a halt in the truce talks as part of their unsuccessful effort to thwart American plans for a Japanese peace treaty.

Now they are using it as part of the maneuvers in the United Nations to promote their own "peace offensive" and block the one begun by the Allies in the General Assembly.

Communist negotiators in Korea, who were really negotiating a relatively few days ago, have suddenly become diabolical and derisive of Allied efforts to reach an agreement. They are also described as giving the appearance of waiting on word from headquarters before they take any new steps.

They may, as some Allied spokesmen claim to fear, be going through the whole motion of negotiation as a blind for a new military buildup and a renewal of their drive to take all Korea. But the facts of the situation, with the Allies just as capable of build-up and presumably overlooking no bets, seem to call for both sides to abandon the Korean war as a bad job all round.

The half-war in Korea, however, is just what the Kremlin likes. Without too great expenditure on her part, chaos is extended to another point. Allied resources are drained at another point, and Tass correspondents in Washington have another reason for asking "How long can the U.S. economy stand the strain?"

For propaganda purposes, then, Russia can stand in the international peace forum in Paris and pretend to be seeking a way to a peace, while her puppets in Pannunjon yield the stage to Vishinsky.

Hand Injury Shelves Hartman for Season

Players Prepare for Important Clash With Minnesota Saturday

BY TOM RYAN

Michigan State's basketball squad suffered a setback when it was learned that center DeNeal Hartman had been lost to the squad for the remainder of the season. Hartman, a 6'3 1/2" sophomore from Ft. Wayne, Ind., was injured as the Spartans' center in the first game of the season. He sustained a bruise on his right hand which caused him to be sidelined.

Kuharich Takes Cardinal Reins

CHICAGO (AP)—Joseph F. Kuharich, 34, coach of the University of San Francisco's unbeaten 1951 eleven, today was named head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. He signed a two-year contract.

Kuharich, former Notre Dame and Cardinal star quarterback, became the National Football League's youngest mentor. His salary was not disclosed but was believed to be $15,000 annually.

BULLETIN

DENVER, (AP)—Denver University's hockey team broke home for four goals in the third period last night to widen its lead in the Midwest Hockey League with a 7-1 win over Michigan State.

The visitors eliminated the rough tactics that held them back in losing 8-2 Monday night and played it fairly even through two periods.

Goalie Del Reid had 35 saves in holding off numerous Denver bids.

Spartan Boxers Train For West Point Match

With but ten days remaining before its opening match with West Point, the MSC boxing squad continued its daily workouts and individuals continued to battle for starting positions against the Army Cadets.

Last season the Spartans dropped the meet to West Point, 4 to 3 1/2, even though MSC captured the 1951 NCAA boxing crown.

Coach George Makris has three returning veterans from last season's championship team: Chuck Spiser, 175, capped the NCAA light-heavy-weight crown in 1951 while teammate Ed Black brought home the 165-pound title.

Middleweight Len Hamilton returns to the veterans on this year's squad, which also has several promising fresh candidates.

Herb Odum, 139-pound light-weight from Flint, has shown plenty of promise. Tom Hickey, who follows his brother Dan to MSC, is another freshman with a future. Tom's brother was a member of the team around 1944-45 and served as an assistant coach in 1946.

West Point, which appears here Jan. 19, will be the first of 14 teams that MSC faces in dual meets this season. Five of the matches will be played at home.

Both tackle Don Coleman and left Bob Carey were consensus All-American selections in 1951, making Michigan State the only school to boast two.

Untried Gym Squad Faces Illini Friday

Michigan State's gymnastics squad will open the 1952 season this Friday with a Big Ten meet against the U. of Illinois at Navy Pier in Chicago.

The Illini, last year's conference champions, are again rated as one of the top title contenders. Michigan State won five and lost three to take runner-up honors last season.

With Mel Stout, last year's all-around performer out of the lineup, Coach George Szypula will depend heavily on well-balanced team action.

In the horizontal bar, parallel bars, diving rings and side horse, much of the load will fall on Capt. Bob Feldmeier, Chicago senior. Russ Paul, Jersey City sophomore, and Carl Rintz, Quarryville, Pa., freshman.

Fumbling, a glaring weakness of last year's Spartan squad, has shown great improvement according to Coach Szypula. On hand to handle the duties in this event are John Walker, Niles junior; Don Vest, Ypsilanti senior; and John Furry.

The rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association yesterday voted to retain the liberal substitution rule.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—

A federal judge yesterday ordered a full trial of the government's anti-trust suit against the National Football League.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—

A free throw by Dick Peterson in the last two minutes of the second quarter period gave Bradley's aroused Braves a 51-56 upset victory last night over St. Louis University.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—

The Indianapolis Star said last night it has been told Bernard (Bernie) Gummis, Notre Dame backfield coach, was as good as hired as Indiana University's head football coach.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—

The Notre Dame Irish ended a two-game basketball losing streak with a 55-49 victory over Butler's stubborn Bulldogs last night.

High School Cager Scores 87 Points

PORT JERVIS, N.Y. (AP)—His performance never will go down in any national record books but Roy Walker had himself quite a day as he scored 87 points in a City League basketball game.

Walker's points came on 43 field goals and one free throw as his Oswego, N.Y., team defeated a Port Jervis five, 142-49, in a 40-minute game.

The national individual record for colleges is 87 points by Jack Ryan of Rio Grande in 1941. Paul Arizin, now with the Philadelphia Warriors, dropped in 85 while playing for Villanova in 1949 for the major college record.

Bolt Wins Play-off

LOS ANGELES (AP)—North Carolina's Tommy Bolt won the rich play-off of the $17,500 Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament yesterday with a brilliant score of 69 that ended par by two strokes and the hope of his rival for the $4,000 top money, Jack Burke, Jr., and E. J. Dutch Harrison.

Bolt finished in a tie at 269 with Burke and Harrison at the end of the regulation 72 holes Monday.

Coaches Criticize De-emphasis Program

CINCINNATI (AP)—Criticism of the de-emphasis program adopted yesterday and announced by the NCAA to a national press conference was widespread.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association is meeting here this week to act on proposed legislation to stabilize sports. Chief provisions call for a year's study of local games, reduced spring practice and strict university control of athletic scholarships.

A special president's committee meeting yesterday in Washington, called for far sterner measures in a list of recommendations to the American council.

The presidents called for abolition of bowl games, athletic scholarships and out-of-season practices and tournaments.

They also urged the coaches' salaries be made to conform with those of regular faculty members.

Two members of the presidents' committee—Dr. John Hannah of Michigan State and Dr. Arthur Adams of Washington—confer with the NCAA's Executive Council here Thursday. There's no indication the presidents' proposals will be acted on by the NCAA this week.

"They have made only recommendations," said NCAA president, Dr. Huzh Willett.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Most of the men who direct the nation's athletic programs and coach its football teams were almost unanimous in agreement that such a broad program as presented by the presidents couldn't be put into force immediately.

Wes Foster of Minnesota, criticizing the spring practice provision, commented: "You might as well tell a violinist he can't practice three months of the year."

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 31...THE MOUNTAIN GOAT

He thought they were trying to make him the butt-end of a joke when he was asked to judge cigarette brands with a mere puff of one brand and a quick sniff of another. The fancy footwork didn't dazzle him. He knew that the pinnacle of pleasure comes from steady smoking... and that there is only one test that gives you enough time to permit conclusive proof. Smokers throughout America's have made the same decision!

It's the sensible test... the 30 Day Camel-Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "I Zone" (T for Throat, I for Taste), you'll see why...

Students Fined $4,935 Criminal Investigations Keep MSC Police Busy

MSC Rejects Bids to Handle Michigan Fair

A recent suggestion that the annual Michigan State Fair, held in Detroit, be moved to the Michigan State college campus was viewed with concern by College officials.

Speaking for the administration, E. L. Anthony, dean of the School of Agriculture, said, "As an educational institution MSC should not be impinged upon to supervise the entertainment, concessions and other commercialism which goes with a State Fair."

Farmers' Week and the State 4-H Club Show, two purely educational events sponsored for adults and youth of rural areas of the state, have been so successful that often persons who do not realize the function of the College have suggested turning over the State Fair management to MSC, he added.

The suggestion, coming from various sources, brought about a statement of MSC's position which said: "We have a deep interest in the Michigan State Fair. We have a more vital concern over the suggestion that the annual State Fair be moved to the MSC campus."

"We agree that Detroit may be a poor location for the Fair, and that one nearer the center of the state might be better. We would be glad to co-operate with a State Fair, wherever it is located, as we have done in the past, but we would not want it located at MSC."

Three considerations were listed:

1. MSC is an educational institution and should not be imposed upon to supervise a commercial venture like the State Fair.

2. A desirable and more satisfactory educational medium in agriculture, Farmers' Week, is held each winter, an event larger than any held anywhere in the nation.

3. The youth of the State is served by the annual 4-H Club Show, which is a week of educational training.

"In both Farmers' Week and the State 4-H Club Show, all entertainment which the College can provide is kept on a high plane, of a type that is always a credit to an institution of higher learning," Dean Anthony stated. The College does not have the land nor the buildings available or adaptable to handle a State Fair of the size and nature of that Michigan should develop, he added.

MSC officials said the suggestion was made with best intentions and that they sincerely appreciate the compliment it implies.

Papers Praise Soviet Leader

MOSCOW (AP)—Deputy Premier Georgi Malenkov came in for signal praise on his 50th birthday today in a way that seemed to have special significance.

All leading Soviet newspapers published on their front pages huge portraits of the smiling Malenkov, along with laudatory greetings from the central committee of the Communist party and Council of Ministers calling him a "co-advisor of Comrade Stalin."

The unusual tribute, surpassing that given other Soviet leaders on their decade birthdays except in the case of Premier Stalin himself on his 70th anniversary, may mean the struggle for power inside the Politburo has been settled and that Malenkov has been chosen as Stalin's successor.

Hannah to Attend Annual Ag Dinner

President John A. Hannah will be in his office today between engagements in the east and mid-west. He will leave for Cincinnati this evening after attending Michigan Agricultural Conference's annual dinner in the Kellogg Center.

Thursday, President Hannah will attend a NCAA meeting in Cincinnati. He has been invited to the Ford Engineers' Day in Dearborn on Friday, his secretary said. She did not know if he planned to attend.
