Spartacade to Open Tomorrow Night in Jenison Fieldhouse

By PAT ROGERS

The glamour of the midway will capture Jenison Fieldhouse at the second annual Spartacade carnival tomorrow night at 7.

Crowns, gambling dens and a medicine show will add to the color of the 31-booth event, sponsored by Campus Chest in the interests of charity.

Mitchell Tops UMOG Finalists

This year's "Ugliest Man on Campus" proceeds have already smashed all previous records with $1,334.05 in the first three days of voting.

The five finalists and their sponsoring living units are as follows:

Jim Mitchell, $122.79.
Duke Messenger, $118.15.
Gus Constantine, $106.99.
Ted Bowman, $96.49.
Bill Kish, $96.88.

This is an unofficial vote count, according to Will Sterzik, Alpha Tau Omega UMOG director. The votes will be recounted today.

Fourteen of the ten to tenth place winners were all in the $90.00 range.

Final voting, to decide MSC's "Ugliest Man" will take place at Spartacade tomorrow night from 7 to 12. The winning UMOG will receive a key and the sponsoring living unit is awarded a mug.

Three methods of voting will be open to those attending the Spartacade. The money vote, the secret counting one vote, can be used.

The second half of the admission ticket will count as one vote. Each admission ticket that has not been used for events will also count as 10 votes for the contest, Sterzik explained.

The UMOG winner will be named by Mrs. Maurice Gonon, counselor for women, at the Spartacade.

Conference To Discuss Mental Health

How to spend Michigan's $65 million bond issue for mental health will be the chief topic of discussion at a Citizens' Conference on Mental Health to be held on campus today.

About 400 probate judges, members of parent-teacher associations, professional mental health workers, educators and social workers are expected to attend.

Dr. Williams will discuss "The Long-Term Program for Prevention of Mental Disease" in the afternoon session.

Other speakers will include Dr. Sen. Elwood Bonine, Clarence E. Hilberry, dean of administration at Wayne University; Dr. J. Brown, former lieutenant governor; Judge Arthur E. Jones, Oakland County probate judge; Ray R. Eppert, executive vice president of Burroughs Adding Machine Co., Detroit; Dr. Herbert Schmalz, of the U of M Medical School; and Mrs. Fred L. Jones, Grand Rapids, first vice president of the Michigan Council of Parents and Teachers.

The morning discussion groups will tackle problems of admission to mental hospitals, how movement of patients may be accelerated and the role of teachers and health officers in the maintenance of mental health.

State News Asks Aid of Married Housing Residents

The State News yesterday asked the cooperation of people living in married housing in cleaning newspaper racks every day. Papers will not be delivered until the racks are cleared, Jim Smith, circulation manager, said. Enough papers are left for occupants of each building, he added.

He also asked that residents clear broken racks.

Judiciary To Discuss Tax Validity

Students Asked To Voice Opinions

Validity of the Student Government tax election will be discussed by the All-College Judiciary this afternoon at 3 in Room 32 of the Union.

Students will have an opportunity to voice their opinions in the open hearing. After the discussion period the Judiciary will go into a closed meeting in an attempt to settle the issue.

Chief Justice John Ringle expressed hope that a large number of students would turn out. He said attendance would play an important role in the final ruling.

The issue came under the Judiciary's jurisdiction when the Student Congress certified the election results last night.

The certification came after an investigation conducted by the Elections Committee and Student Government officials.

"We have found the charges groundless," Stan Brown, secretary of state affairs said yesterday.

"In disputed areas," he continued, "the dormitory councils conducted the voting—not the Student Government. It has been found that they supervised the voting in a satisfactory manner."

The expected ruling will be the Judiciary's second in the field of elections. Last Friday the Judiciary disqualified the AWS Judiciary Board election results.

Interplanet Spartan Issue To Go on Sale

"Interplanetary Exchange" will be the main feature of the March issue of the Spartan magazine. The issue goes on sale Tuesday.

The three-page supplement is a satire on the students of Kapok College, located somewhere in the universe.

Other features appearing in the issue are "Snow White and Red Rose," a fairy tale by Marilyn Wachtman; John Jones' mystery, "Dead Men Don't"; Spartan profile on Dr. Vander-Kroet, "Deities of the Good" and "One Lousy Cup of Coffee."

The Spartans will also present awards to the 10 worst pictures of the year.

Spartans will be sold at the Union desk, Berkeley Hall, Olds Hall, Electrical Engineering, Home Economics and Natural Science buildings.

Frosh-Soph Day Planned

Frosh-Soph Weekend, sponsored annually by the Frosh-Soph Council, will be held May 23 and 24, according to Dan Webster, president of the council.

Featured will be an egg-throw between frosh and soph girls, a greased pole climb, and a ball game.

The program also includes a dance to be held in the Union Ballroom Saturday, May 24. The theme for the dance has not yet been decided.

The Council heard committee reports on the event at a meeting held Wednesday night. According to the reports, publicity will begin at the start of next term. Chairmen of the event are Barbara Ryan, Lansing freshman, and Phil Thornton, East Lansing sophomore.

The amended constitution of the Council was read and adopted during the meeting. Voting was unanimously in favor of the changes.

Ham Station Reaches Africa

From the sixth floor of the Electrical Engineering Building, a ham radio station, W8SH, sends messages all over the United States. Its broadcast casts have even reached South Africa.

W8SH is operated by members of the MSC Radio Club, under the direction of trustee I. O. Ebert.

The station is used on Thursday nights when the Radio Club meets. Equipment includes a 600 watt transmitter with power to broadcast anywhere in the United States.

Most of the equipment in use was purchased by the college but some has been made by the club members. Membership in the club is open to any interested party. Experience is not necessary.

According to Ebert, the type of transmitting an operator can do is limited to the type of license he has.

An operator starts with local transmission. Any member is free to use the equipment that he is licensed to use.

W8SH, in connection with other local hams, has formed

Seven Story Fall Humpty Dumpty Put to Shame By Ohioan

CLEVELAND (AP)—How does it feel to fall seven stories—and live to tell about it? Windows flashing by. A helpless feeling of turning over and over. A fear of sudden death. And then a surprised and happy feeling when the fall ends and you are still alive.

Those are the sensations turned into the memory of Walter Gairty, a 40-year-old construction worker. He fell from a wing of St. Vincent Charity Hospital Tuesday and landed in a shallow excavation after crashing through planks covering the opening.

State News Appointees Announced

Department Heads For Spring Named

Spring term editorial appointments for the State News were announced last night by Dean Wakefield, newly-appointed Spring term editor.

Connie Courtois, Louisville, Ky. senior, was named editorial assistant. Bill McGraw, Detroit junior, was appointed sports editor and Vicky Conway, Grand Rapids junior, was reappointed as society editor.

Other department heads named were Phil Gentry, Lockport, N.Y. sophomore, feature editor, and Marlin LaFond, Oklawaha junior, photo editor.

Night editors appointed were Margaret Fuller, East Lansing senior; Bill Smith, Flat Rock senior; Sara Murray, Menominee senior; Jim Smallegan, Detroit senior; and Alex Langis, Traverse City junior.

Appointees to the positions of Assistant night editors are: Bob Popa, Detroit junior; Sally Phelps, Prairie View, Ill. junior; Rosemary Coleman, Saginaw senior; Mary Lou Folger, Hillsdale senior; and Kay Myers, Allegan junior.

Jim Heinebach, East Lansing senior, was reappointed circulation manager and Lee Harmon, Birmingham junior, will again hold the post of assistant.

He is thought to head off a possible congressional move to decontrol some prices.

There was a flood of delegations during the day on the economic controls front and in related labor situations affected by them. They included:

1. The rubbering-out passengers on production of the April-June quarter, previously announced as 230,000, was raised to 1,050,000 by the Defense Production Administration. The truck quota was raised from 225,000 to 250,000 for the same period.

2. The National Production Authority (NPA) dropped plans to limit the size of new houses. It increased from 1,800 to 2,300 pounds the amount of steel which may be used in single.

Alumni Club Addressed by U of M Head

University of Michigan's one resident, Hatcher, addressed Lansing's U of M Alumni Club after a luncheon at the Ohio State last night.

The club celebrated the inauguration of U of M's first president. The school was started in 1817.

Hatcher, who has been the university's president for a little over six months, compared America's college and university enrollment figure of a century ago—26,900 with the present figure—1,308,000.

He told the group one of the main problems facing today's university is keeping pace with the rapid extension in fields of knowledge.

He also discredited the assumption that as an institution grows, it becomes more impersonal and loses its sense of concern for the individual.

"Growth does not necessarily mean concern or lack of interest," he said.

The former Ohio State University vice-president praised "the ease of the relationship between the faculty and students at U of M."

Government Eases Auto Restrictions

Arnall Says Prices May Dip in Spring

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government eased slightly yesterday its curbs on auto production and on construction, but price director Ellis Arnall told Congress that this is no time to start demobilization.

Arnall, the former governor of Georgia who took over as head of the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) two weeks ago, predicted to the Senate Banking Committee that prices probably will dip a little this spring, then climb again.

He sought to head off a possible congressional move to decontrol some prices.

There was a flood of delegations during the day on the economic controls front and in related labor situations affected by them. They included:

1. The rubbering-out passengers on production of the April-June quarter, previously announced as 230,000, was raised to 1,050,000 by the Defense Production Administration. The truck quota was raised from 225,000 to 250,000 for the same period.

Konno Wins MSC Tied with Ohio State

McAllister Second, Norman Fifth In Big Ten 1500 Meter Swim

By GEORGE WEEKS

Ford Konno proved to the world last night that he is one of the greatest swimmers in the sports history as he broke through the 1500 meter event in 18:15 to open the Big Ten Championships in Jenison Pool.

Michigan State's Bert McAllister captured second place and Dave Norman gathered fifth to give the Spartans seven points and a tie with Ohio State for team honor.

Konno's feat sets new Big Ten, NCAA, and MSC pool records and brands him a good bet for an Olympic victory.

Texas and Minnesota moved into a tie for second when Dave Anderson of the Gophers took third and Don Walden and Ross Lucas of fourth and sixth respectively.

Throughout today and tomorrow time heats and final will be run off.

In the 50-yard freestyle MSC's Charlie Schuler, defending champion, took first, then who have beaten him, 600 yard—Dick Cleveland, Ohio State, and Michigan's Don Hill, Cleveland set an official record of 2:21 while Hill was a 2:27, timing Schuler's best at 2:29.

Ohio State's Jack Taylor appears unbeatable in the 100 and 200-yard backstroke races. He holds every listed record in these events. Chief threats are Hal Shoup, MSC; Yoshi Oyaka, Ohio State; Indiana's Larry Meyer; Purdue's Everett Brooks; and Rumpy Jones, Michigan.

Another Michigan State athlete, Bert McAllister, is "out" in the underdog race. The 220 and 440 conference champ will struggle against the amazing Ford Konno, Ohio State, who led in the 1500.

Konno is the man to beat in the quarter mile. Michigan's Rumpy Jones also has chances to sensational things.

Berry Holan, Ohio State; Michigan's John Decker; Iowa's Boomer Stansforth; and Steward Elliott, Michigan, will make it a race in See SWIMMING, Page 6

U.S. Court May Get Strike Law Dispute

LANSING (AP)—The way was cleared yesterday for the Detroit DSR unions to carry their fight against Michigan's Hart-Connors Act to the United States supreme court.

The State Supreme Court refused to reconsider its recent decision which upheld the law forbidding strikes by public employees—and declaring last spring's DSR strike illegal.

President Appeals for $7.9 Billion

Legislators Call For Large Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman appealed to Congress last night to support his foreign aid program.

He said: "We'd better off to have the right against Communism than to have any particular program."

Earlier in the day, the president had asked Congress to raise $7.9 billion in new foreign aid.

He said every penny of it should be used to meet a Russian threat to the survival of the world.

That message, Truman said, was "a call for action of the highest order."

He said the western hemisphere and on building up the defense of the world would raise a "bloody" threat of "bloody" war.

While he said he was not in either the "red" or "blue" camp, he said this was obviously a reference to the "red" camp, he said.

Many legislators of both parties immediately called for cuts ranging up to one-half the total.

Chairman Richards (D-S.C.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee said the administration would be "doing pretty darn well" to escape with a billion dollar cut.

Truman, in an address broadcast and televised from the White House, said he was not asking for "unlimited" aid.

He said he was asking for "a reasonable" amount of aid.

Churches To Feature Speakers

Dinners, dances and speakers have been scheduled for the weekend by East Lansing churches.

A symposium on the theme "Essentials of World Brotherhood" will be presented by three MSC students Sunday in the Women's Parlor of Peoples Church at 7 p.m.

Speakers will be Ishwarbhai A. Patel, Bombay, India, graduate student; Will Uehald, Nurnberg, Germany, graduate student; and Alfred Skania

Yehua, Kwahu, Africa, graduate student. They will present conditions for world brotherhood reflecting their own views and those represented by their native lands. A forum period will follow their presentations.

A motion picture, "Kyojo Story," will be shown followed by a coffee hour.

The College Lutheran Church will be the scene of a congregational dinner Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

In C. U. W. Hall, the Chicago Lutheran Seminary will give an illustrated lecture on "Holy Week in the Holy Land."

Dr. Wolf studied in Jerusalem at the American School for Oriental Research. He will show picture slides that he took in connection with his studies in Jerusalem.

A square dance will also be held at the College Lutheran Church tonight from 8 to 12, according to Barbara Miller, dance chairman. Refreshments will be served.

Gamma Delta will hold its annual spring banquet Sunday at 6 p.m. at Christ Lutheran Church. This year marks the 10th anniversary of the campus chapter.

Guest speaker will be Walter Patenge. Coupled with the banquet will be installation of officers for next year.

Entertainment will feature a song trio composed of Mary Jane Webster, first sophomore; Mary Scott, New Boston junior; and Joyce Frank, St. Joseph sophomore.

Eastern Star Sets Smorgasbord Date

The Red Cedar Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star is sponsoring a smorgasbord Friday night in the basement of East Lansing's Masonic Temple.

This is the first sponsored by the organization has sponsored it in open to the public.

Guests will be served at 5, 6 and 7 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling 4-2516 or 4-2596.

The Singing Boys of Norway practice their art which will be part of the Spindler's Spin entertainment April 4. They are Robert Hoyer, Grand Rapids graduate student; Jim Mehuke, Detroit junior; Clyde Adler, Dearborn senior; and Robert Lefkowitz, Tawas senior. Lee Barrett and his orchestra from Cleveland will play for the annual girl-bid dance.

Singing Boys of Norway To Visit in Community

MSC and Lansing residents will be hosts to the Singing Boys of Norway today and tomorrow.

The 62-member choir will present a concert tonight in the College Auditorium at 8:15. The concert will include selections from Beethoven, Grieg, Mendelssohn and Mozart.

The choir made its American debut in Carnegie Hall, in New York City, Jan. 23 and is celebrating its 25th anniversary.

Besides boy sopranos and alto, the choir group includes basses who are former boy sopranos.

Students will be admitted with activity tickets. Series B season tickets will be honored.

Choir members, who range in age from nine to 18, will be housed tonight by Lansing families.

After a tour of the campus, some of the boys will visit junior high schools and the filmmobile plant this afternoon.

Host families plan dinners and visits with neighbor children following the program. Boy Scouts plan to give the visiting Norwegians scout knives as host gifts, according to Mats Peterson, assistant counsellor for women.

Embroidered nylon net will be used in many games. Stages to match are popular and will be worn with most summer dresses for evening.

Art Shows Open at MSC

Two new art shows are opening in campus this weekend.

Members of the Michigan State College art department will display some of their work to the public in the "Staff Show" tonight in the Art Room of the Union.

Paintings, sculpture, jewelry and prints done by the staff may be seen from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. each day until March 30.

An exhibition will open this weekend in the Art Building on South Campus. It includes drawings, paintings and crafts by students of all grade levels in Grand Rapids.

The show was arranged by Marie Ann McCall, art supervisor in Grand Rapids. It was planned as a special unit to Lansing art teachers and students at MSC.

Thursdays will continue until the end of the month.

Spartanettes Take Honors

The Spartanettes, sponsored by the Green Splash, emerged victorious in two of the three divisions of the first annual Intercollegiate Synchronized swim meet held at the University of Illinois last Saturday.

Bert Busch, Pat Feanside,
Carol Needler, and Lynn Lane won top honors in the team competition with the performance of "Backfield in Motion."
The quartet held a wide edge over their nearest competitors.

In the solo division, Miss Busch won to first place with her outstanding rendition of "The Court Jester."

Two promising newcomers to the synchronized team, Barb Edwards and Dorothy Pappas, made their first appearance in competition and placed third with their duet, "My Neighbor and Miss Lane were fourth."

Saturday morning at 10 the Spartanettes speed team will meet the Purdue University team
in their final dual meet.

Swims are available in the natuatorium, balcony free of charge for Spartanettes' meals.

Gymnasts Take Clean Season Slate to Finals

By BOB LEWIS

The first gymnastics title
since the sport was introduced on the Michigan State campus five years ago is the goal of the Spartans' gym team
when it travels to Bloomington, Ind., today for the Big Ten championships.

Preliminary events will be held today with the finals slated for Saturday.

The favorite role goes to Michigan State, which may or may not be an advantage for Coach Strydom's young squad, since the other teams in the conference will be gunning for the Spartans.

Illinois, Minnesota, and Iowa are expected to furnish the most serious opposition. The Illinois defending champions will be led by Bob Sullivan, who was runner-up to MISC's Mel Stout in individual scoring last year.
Gill Brinkmeier and Frank Bate round out their all-around trio.

Minnesota will pin its hopes on Ken Bartlett, a six-event performer. Iowa top star is Frank Ladner, touted as the best team coach in college gymnastics.

The Spartans will rely on Dan
Feldmeier, Carl Batts, and Bud
Faulk on the pommel horse. Al Hannan,
John Walker, and Tom McInnes
on the rings, and Don Vest, Walker, and John Eberly on the bars.

MISC Coach Charles Schmittler
will start the same lineup that he has used all season. Fred Frei-delt, who has lost only one bout
in eight meets, will head the saber trio, along with Ray Monte
and Bob Bristol.

Al Walker, Dick Berry, and Bill
Pierson will lead off in the epee,
and Ralph Kalmay, Ray Tette,
and George Carr will start in the
foils.

John Corbelli, Michigan State's
crack sophomore hurdler, is as accomplished in the classroom as he is in timber-topping. A sophomore in journalism, he has had just one grade below a "B" since
entering college.

'MURAL SIDELIGHTS

THE FINALS of the IM bodminton tournament are set for tonight—7-10 at Den Hall.

ALL CONTESTANTS in the handball tourney must complete semi-finals matches by Monday, March 10.

ENTRIES for volleyball competition are being accepted at the IM office.

Fencers Meet Illinois Squad Here Saturday

Michigan State's fencing team will carry an eight game winning streak into its final dual clash tomorrow when it tackles last year's Big Ten champions, the University of Illinois, at 1:30 in Jenison Gymnasium.

A victory over the Illini will make the Spartans top contenders for the conference title in the Big Ten meet March 22.

Illinois will be led by Jorge Quiros, captain and number one saber fencer. Quiros won the Big Ten saber title last year and placed fifth in the 1951
NCAA championships. Bruce Sublette, fifth in the conference last season, holds down the number two position in saber.

Vince D'Orazio, who placed third in foil in the Big Ten, is the Illini's top foil.

Loss of Len Atkin, third in the NCAA last year, has forced Illinois Coach "Mac" Garret to dip into his stockpile of reserves in the epee division. Atkin won the Big Ten epee crown.

MISC Coach Charles Schmittler
will start the same lineup that he has used all season. Fred Frei-
delt, who has lost only one bout
in eight meets, will head the
saber trio, along with Ray Monte
and Bob Bristol.

Al Walker, Dick Berry, and Bill
Pierson will lead off in the epee,
and Ralph Kalmay, Ray Tette,
and George Carr will start in the
foils.

John Corbelli, Michigan State's
crack sophomore hurdler, is as accomplished in the classroom as he is in timber-topping. A sophomore in journalism, he has had
just one grade below a "B" since
entering college.

Meet at Champaign

Spartan Thinclads to Compete For Honors in Conference Final

Michigan State's young and inexperienced track squad gets into action tonight at Champaign, Ill., in the Big Ten's 42nd annual indoor championships.

Running on the Illinois Army
Navy, Coach Karl Schlademan's
Spartans are expected to wage a duel for third place with the University of Iowa.

The Michigan State entry will consist of 20 athletes, who are entered in all events of the two day affair which is scheduled to wind up Saturday evening.

Of the entire State squad, only sprinter Art Ingram has placed in an indoor meet previously. Ingram grabbed a second in the 60-yard dash of last year's meet.

The Spartans are handicapped
by the absence of two possible point-getters in the shot put and hurdle events. Team Capt. Dick Hensen, third place finisher in the low hurdles in 1951, is out with a muscle injury.

Shotputter Bob Carey, the conference outdoor champ, was not able to make the quick shift from the basketball floor to the track squad.

Potential point-getters for the Spartans include John Corbelli,
Dick Jarrett, Jim Vrooman,
Mickey Walter, Jim Keptford, Jerry Zerbe, Chuck Roland and Ingram.

Corbelli rates best in the low hurdle event, where he should run close to the favored Willie Williams of Illinois. He also will go in the highs.

In the half mile event, Jarrett rates as a dark horse. He is capable of doing 1:55 in the event.
Henry Cyver of the Illini looks like the man to beat in the half mile. Keptford and Walter both have run the distance in 4:16, which places them in contending positions. Zerbe is State's main hope in the two mile, where defending champ Don McEwen of Michigan has things all to himself.

State's Vrooman has already cleared 6'3 1/2" this season, and belongs in the top portion of the entrants in the high jump. Ken Mitchell of Illinois and Peron Duhard of Ohio State are the favorites.

Ingram will be stepping in fast company in the dash event. Northwestern's Jim Golliday, one of America's top sprinters, is set to see his first conference action.

Chuck Roland, Spartan broad jumper who took a first in the Michigan-MSC dual meet, should place for State in this event. His best, to date has been 23 1/2'.

Sigma Nu's Edge Sphinx To Take IM Cage Title

By DON CAMERON

The trophy symbolic of dominance in Intramural basketball is nestled securely in its ease at Sigma Nu today. It landed there when its new owners gained the All-College title, 25-23, after a titanic struggle against a hard-fighting Sphinx quintet last night.

Sphinx kept the outcome in doubt all the way with the lead changing hands nine times before Sigma Nu wrapped it up in the fading seconds.

Every starter shared in the scoring for the winners as they once again displayed the team balance that has featured its all-victorious season. Forward Tom Walsh and center Don Cook were the biggest thorns in Sphinx's plans as they teamed up for 18 points.

Walsh kept the champs in the game during the first half with his timely long shot. He led both teams by hitting double figures with ten tallies. Cook, used only sparingly because of four early fouls, still managed to drop in eight. Dave Detar produced five more.

Sphinx had three big stars in Bill Reid, Ellis Duckett, and Will Thrower. Together they almost turned the tide and at several Tankris defeated Rivers, 30-26, in their previous meeting. After a poor start, this season, Leon Hamilton will go for his third straight win against Harry Holmes.

Flint's Herb Odum is a possible entrant in any one of three weight classes, 129, 117, pound nod, then Odum and Ted

two heavier weights.

Makris has announced that there will be no admission charge for the bout and that tickets can be obtained by contacting him at

UN Leaders Term Latest Offer Communist 'Needling Device'

MUNSAN (AP)—Tightly knotted Korean truce talks were tightened yesterday. Allied negotiators quickly rejected Communist proposal that neutral truce inspectors, including Russia, be allowed to examine secret military equipment.

Soviet Plans $28 Billion For Arms

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Government last night unveiled a budget proposing 113.8 billion rubles for military purposes in 1952. This figure—$28 billion at the Russian fixed rate of 25 cents for the ruble—is the USSR's highest since World War II.

Finance Minister A. G. Zverev presented the budget to a joint session of the Supreme Soviet, the Russian parliament, for approval. He said it estimates total revenue for the year at 508 billion rubles and expenditures at 476 billion.

This dispatch, which passed through Soviet censorship, did not mention intricate details of Russian finance which have led to Western charges that the Soviet budget figures do not tell the whole story about the buildup of the Soviet military machine.

The United Nations Economic Commission for Europe reported Feb. 4 that the military machine last year absorbed 77 per cent of the Russian "gross investment"—money put into plants and equipment plus depreciation.

The comparative figure for the United States, on an expenditure of 37 billion dollars, was listed at 67 per cent.

Pinay Confirmed As French Premier

PARIS (AP)—Antoine Pinay was confirmed by the National Assembly as French premier yesterday through a dramatic split in the usually solid opposition of the Gaullists to anyone but their own leader.

Pinay, 60-year-old Independent Republican (conservative), then set about to try to form France's first right-wing coalition cabinet since the end of World War II.

Truman

"It may make the difference between life and death for many of you who are listening to me tonight."

He said the $7.9 billion figure was not "just taken out of the air," but was arrived at after months of study as the exact amount which national security requires.

It would finance military aid, both direct and indirect, to this nation's allies in the fiscal year which starts July 1. There is also a relatively small amount for technical assistance to underdeveloped areas—the Point Four program.

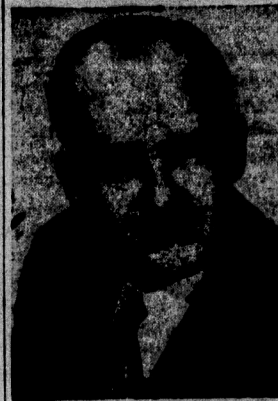

Truman said the whole program is "a carefully thought-out plan of action to meet the challenge—not only the challenge of the times."

Noting that the total is less than 2½ per cent of the national output for a year, Truman said there are many persons both in and out of Congress who say the foreign aid program is a fine thing but who advocate that it be cut by several billion dollars.

Billiard Team Places Third

Michigan State's billiard team took a third place in a sectional telegraphic three-cushion billiard tournament held last night.

First place in the section tournament was taken by Kent State University followed closely by the University of Michigan in second.

Herb Schroeter of MSC took individual honors with a high run of 86, which entitles him to compete in a face-to-face meet at OSU on April 18-19.

State's team is composed of Al Spigarelli, Dearborn junior; Schroeter, Detroit senior; Al Vecchioni, Dearborn junior; Bill Eavey, Detroit junior; and Joe Perio, Cortland, N.Y., sophomore.

Scholarship Head Sets Grant-in-Aid Deadline

Today is the final day to apply for spring term scholarship aid, according to J. Robert Stewart, scholarship director.

Stewart said applicants will be interviewed prior to March 15. The Faculty Committee on Scholarships will process the applications and winners will be notified before the spring quarter.

"The scholarship funds act as grants-in-aid for qualifying students," Stewart pointed out. "They are awarded for a term to meet an existing emergency."

New students applying for scholarships will be interviewed prior to March 15.

All students on scholarships should write letters bringing their situation up to date.

Michigan men are eligible for John A. Beaumont and Albert Vaughn Case scholarships. To apply for the Case award a student must be eligible for honor of the American Revolution and have been enrolled here one year.

Two Oakland county students, a male and a female, are eligible for Ganong scholarships while coeds alone may apply for Sanford Memorial Fund.

Hinman scholarships to Michigan juniors and seniors are available and applications for 1952-53 will be taken during spring term.

Needy students whose fathers were in World War I may apply for the LaVerne Noyes Fund.

Two sophomore Michigan students will be selected by the faculty committee on Scholarships and the dean of the Basic College to receive the Jesse P. Wolcott scholarships.
