Authorities Press Hunt In Slaying

Child Killer Sought In California Hills

CHESTER, Calif. (AP)—Authorities of this little mountain town, shocked by the savage murder of a well-known grocer and three children, pressed the hunt yesterday for the killer or killers.

Sheriff's deputies scoured the rugged, pine forest country of Plumas and Lassen Counties for leads to the slaying that took the lives of Gard Young, 43, his two daughters, Judy, 6, Jean, 7, and a neighbor boy, Michael Saile, 4. Young's third daughter, Sandra, 3, was beaten and jammed into the trunk of Young's car along with the others. She was reported "doing well" at nearby Westwood Hospital.

A Change! Warm Weather Helps Combat 'Flu Epidemic'

Here's some good news for all "sniffers"—today's weather forecast predicts a high of around 60. Therefore last week's moans of "I gotta da cold" and stacks of Kleenex boxes are things of the past, maybe.

Anyway, start getting your voice reconditioned for cheering Saturday and forget buying that extra box of cough drops.

Who knows? Indian Summer may be just around the corner, and while today may be "blue," chances are good that it won't be "flu," Monday.

'Oklahoma' Slated for Auditorium

Famous Musical Presented Tonight

Rodgers' and Hammerstein's fabulous musical show—"Oklahoma"—will be presented in the Auditorium this evening at 8:30.

The Theater Guild National Company presentation will be a special number of the Lecture-Concert series, according to Dean Stanley E. Crowe, director.

Starting in "Oklahoma" will be Ralph Lowe as "Curley" and Florence Henderson as "Laurey." Other featured musical comedy stars include Mary Marie, Charles Hart, Charles Scott, John Addie, Victor Griffin, Alfred Gibell, Jr., and Jacqueline Daniels.

The production is directed by Rouven Mamoulian, with dances by Agnes de Mille.

A symphony orchestra of 20 will play Rodgers' unforgettable tunes including "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," "The Surrey With the Fringe on Top," "People Will Say We're in Love," "Out of My Dreams," and the title tune, "Oklahoma."

Physical production of "Oklahoma" has not undergone any change and is the same as it was on opening night, except for new scenery, costumes and electrical effects.

"Oklahoma" holds a world record of more than 10,000 performances in seven countries.

The MSC performance will be in three acts and six scenes. The action supposedly takes place just after the turn of the century in Oklahoma.

Carnival Help Get Invitation

All students interested in working on MSC's fourth annual Career Carnival are asked to attend an introductory meeting tonight at 7 in the Tower Room, Union.

The Carnival will be held Nov. 19, 20 and 21. This year, for the second time, the event is on a state-wide basis and is receiving national recognition.

It offers a picture of the job situation to graduating seniors and vocational counseling for undergraduates.

The purpose, plans and accomplishments of the 1952 Carnival and previous events will be explained and suggestions welcomed at the meeting, according to Kay Eide, Lansing senior.

members and Coach Biggie. The first football broadcast went out over WKAR early in '32. Similar programs were aired from time to time until 1934 when the station scheduled the sportscasts regularly.

Of 69 AM radio stations in Michigan, 33 carry the Spartan games. In addition to the 24 on the WKAR network, six belong to WJIM's chain and two to WILS. Another station, in Dearborn, carries its own broadcasts. Out-of-state stations carrying the contests are WJAM in Marinette, Wis. and WSPD in Toledo, Ohio.

Spartans Run Wild, Beat Texas A&M 48-6

This crushing tackle by Spartan Gene Lektia (42) will readily attest to the fact that things were often pretty rough on Ray Graves, aerial wizard from Texas A & M. Graves is seemingly stopped in mid-air as Lektia, dubbed "The Toe," puts some hefty shoulder work into his bone-jarring tackle. An unidentified MSC gridder (center) and John Motosch (13) converge on the Aggie's field general as a host of prostrate Texans sit this one out.

Win Streak Goes to 18: New Record

Princeton Loses, Helps State Cause

Displaying tremendous offensive power, Biggie Munn's splendid Spartans became proud new owners of the longest winning streak in big college football Saturday as they felled Texas A & M in a touchdown torrent, 48-6 for their 18th straight victory.

To capture the winning streak record, the Spartans needed an assist from Princeton, who fell before Pennsylvania, 13-7, after running up 24 in a row. But as far as their own contest was concerned, the Spartans couldn't have been more masterful.

Reborelli fell like bowling pins as the Spartans piled up 592 yards for their largest total since 1940. Their amazing 30 first downs surpassed the old mark of 27 set last year against Pitt, and the 12 scored through the air broke last year's record of 10 against Penn State. State's balance was fresh in its 309 aerial yards and 283 rushing yards.

All things considered, the plot that overshadowed the crushing Spartan victory was probably the Willie Throver success story.

Throver, who has waited for two heart-breaking years for his "big chance," came in to lead a fresh team when Spartan power had already sailed down the victory lane. State was leading 34-6 with less than ten minutes remaining when Throver made his entrance.

The ball was on State's 34, the result of Ed Zimmerman's pass interference. In came Throver, with a trio of "rockie" backs, Bernie Baternik, Bert Zagers and Jerry McBride.

Throver called two running plays, then began to pitch. He slammed the ball into Zagers' arms from the 19 and the Cadillac flash went all the way, but the crowd groaned when a backfield-in-motion penalty called the play back.

Then the team began to move with the forward wall giving Throver magnificent protection, he got the ball down to the 19 on the strength of three completed aerials. The drive was capped on the next play when Zagers caught a Throver pass on the 10 and scampered over at 13:48. Evan Shonak's conversion made it 41-6.

When Bob Edmiston recovered an Aggie fumble on the opponents' 34 after Lektia's kickoff, Throver got another chance. But there was less than a minute left to play.

This time it was sheer passing perfection. A shut to Zagers brought the ball down to the 24. Then Chuck Fairbanks gathered one in down to the 11. Throver fired again and hit Baternik, who jumped into the end zone as the clock ticked off the last second of the wide open contest.

Student Programs Discussed by NSA

Twenty-eight student members of the Regional Executive Council of the National Student Association met at yesterday.

These students are representatives of colleges and universities throughout the country.

They held sessions in the Union Board-room of the Union.

Although MSC is not an NSA member school, representatives of the student Congress sat in the meeting, according to Dick Lewis, speaker of the student Congress.

Regional programming was set for four areas: student government, student affairs, cultural and social affairs and international affairs. According to Lewis, agenda was presented under these divisions to be passed at the next regional meeting, for Ann Arbor on Nov. 2.

One of the questions under discussion was public relations training. Another was foreign student programs, the 18-year-old vote.

Director of student leaders' meetings, schools to be met by Wayne University.

Faculty director, Janet Cooper, of Detroit, was named president of the NSA program. Plans are handled through the Travel Bureau in the Union.

Business meeting was also held with the regional assembly for late November or December, Lewis added.

Senior Hit By Auto at Berkey Hall

Several accidents put a damper on East Lansing activities over the weekend.

Kenneth Smith, Davisburg senior, is in the college hospital after being hit by a car while crossing Grand River in front of Berkey Hall Friday. He suffered a compound fracture of the left leg as well as several bruises.

Last night Dr. Charles Holland, Director of the Health Center, reported his condition as "very good."

Saturday afternoon a six-year-old child was struck after he and a companion got out of a car in the middle of a block. The child sustained head injuries. His companion was not hurt.

Smoke from an electric motor in the basement kitchen of East Lansing was investigated by East Lansing firemen after 11 p.m. Saturday. No damage was reported.

Three students are out on bond after they were jailed on a drunk and disorderly charge by East Lansing police at 3:30 a.m. Saturday. They were on foot on Grand River.

A fourth member of the group was badly cut when he ran into a construction truck as he was trying to resist arrest. The four will be turned over to Tom King, Dean of Students, for disciplinary action.

... Oops! Pardon

Two male upperclassmen came in with the bus boys to go through the breakfast line at Landon dormitory the other day. Everyone took them for substitute kitchen workers and had their looks of mild bewilderment to that.

Everyone that is, but an alert dietitian who questioned their right to be there, explaining that Landon is a coed dormitory.

"A women's dorm," they yelled. "We're from Purdue, and thought this was the Student Union."

San Francisco Feels Shocks In Earthquake

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A tolling earthquake felt in downtown San Francisco as two distinct shocks struck the city, apparently without causing any serious damage.

The quake was felt at 4:34 a.m. PST, in the San Francisco Associated Press Bureau building, shaking motion lasting about 15 seconds.

It was felt in all parts of the city, in suburbs to the north and south and along the eastern shore of San Francisco Bay.

The Cal Tech seismograph laboratory at Pasadena said it recorded only an extremely light variation—indicating a localized quake in the San Francisco area.

The tremor was not felt at Los Angeles or in the Bakersfield-Theracene area devastated by quakes this summer.

At Vallejo, at the northern end of San Francisco Bay, residents said the quake was "very strong." One woman reported being knocked off a couch where she was napping.

Many Uses Planned for P.A. System

By DONALD LEWIS

In the opinion of the Spartan Spirit Committee, the newly-purchased address system made a successful debut at Saturday's Texas A&M game.

The committee's feelings were summed up by Kees Hagadorn, committee chairman, yesterday when he said, "The public address system, from the angle of the Spartan Spirit Committee, has helped to unify student cheering. We still need to do more work with it but it is a step in the right direction."

One of these steps will be the eventual purchase of six additional speakers. Costing $15 each, they will be installed in pairs in each corner of the stadium.

This arrangement will allow pickup of all student cheers and assist alumni in participating in cheering. It should also give a better pick-up of the band music throughout the game, Hagadorn said.

At the moment the entire public address system consists of two speakers, an amplifier, and a microphone, which cost $200. It is portable and can be either mounted for use, such as on a truck, or used for the stationary work, as at dances. Available for use by any organization, only an operator's rate of 80 cents an hour will be charged.

Hagadorn went on to say that the system will eventually be permanently installed in the stadium.

Similar systems are now being used by various other universities including the University of Michigan and Ohio State.

Happy Autograph Hounds

During the past five years these fellowships have been awarded to nearly 300 graduated students from 42 countries. They have studied in 28 different countries and 120 different schools and universities.

HERE IT IS ALREADY, YOUR FALL FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Last day of classes for fall term is Monday, Dec. 9. All final examinations will be given by the following schedule. The time of the examinations in basic courses can be found in column 3 and 5 according to the course number of the particular basis. Examination rooms for basic courses will be announced by the instructor.

Time of examinations in sections other than basic courses is determined by the days and hours the class is scheduled during the term. To determine when an examination is to be given, find the block in columns 2, 4, 5 or 6 which lists the days and hours of the class. The column heading will indicate the time of day and column 1 will then give the date on which examination is to be held.

Examinations for courses other than basic courses will be given in the same classroom as assigned for class meetings; at the end of the term. All students, instructors, and room schedules will automatically clear if all courses follow this schedule.

NOTE: At least two of the days and hours must follow the regular pattern. In a few courses, at the request of the department concerned, the final examination has been scheduled by the single hour lecture section and in some instances students may encounter conflicts. In that event, the examination scheduled by the class meeting two hours a week would take precedence over the examination scheduled by the single hour lecture. The examination would have to be arranged between the student and the department requesting the special scheduling of its examination.

Pope Pius XII Warns of Peril

VATICAN CITY—The perils that beset the world today are greater than those in the time of Attila the Hun, Pope Pius XII told a gathering of more than 150,000 members of Italian men's Catholic Action Sunday.

The Pontiff made a special trip here from his summer palace at Castel Gandolfo to greet the delegates (who jammed St. Peter's Square. The delegates are in Rome for a two-day celebration of the 20th anniversary of their organization.

Historians, these days have re-fused the "Columbus Myth" by publishing a list of facts somewhat contradictory to what the third grade used to believe.

Christopher Columbus did not pawn his Queen's jewels; he borrowed some money from the treasury of the Italian police.

And his crew were able, capable and respectful. Only a minor discussion was apparent when the ships ran out of water on the voyage to discover America.

There wasn't even an argument about the shape of the world. Everyone was more concerned with whether the Western Seas were navigable or not. Italian admirals were concerned about the possible three years it would take to sail to Asia, according to Samuel Morrison, author of "Admiral of the Ocean Sea."

CAA to Test 'Airphibians' Within Weeks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal government is about to make its first serious test of airplanes that convert into automobiles.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration disclosed Sunday that it plans to rent up to seven "roadable aircraft" as soon as the builder makes the available.

CAA has selected the Robert Fulton Airphibian, a 165-horsepower, 2,100-pound two-place craft.

This plane is able to fold its wings, tail and propeller at an airport and then travel along the highways like an automobile.

A spokesman said the first plane probably will go into service at CAA's regional headquarters at Kansas City, Mo., within a few weeks. The planes will be used by safety agents on routine missions.

The Most Decisive Triumph Since Notre Dame

A Yewic pass is completed to the State 43 in the first quarter. Doug Bobo (64) takes in the aerial as Aggie halfback, Joe Boering (35) comes in to make the stop. Paul Dekker (51), who was used as a decoy nearly all the game, comes up to assist.

The Spartans' second touchdown was scored early in the second quarter as LeRoy Bolden ships over fallen defenders to score.

Spartan pass receiver at work: A pass from Willie Thrower is good for a first down on the Aggie 27 yard line in the final quarter. Dale Knight (93) stretches way out to make one of the finest catches of the game. Coming in to make the stop is Herb Scott, (41) Aggie back.

Spartan Sidelights

By TOM RYAN

Evan Slone, the pony fullback, continued his fine extra point kicking, making six conversions in seven attempts Saturday. He has now tried 13 conversions and made 11 of them. Slone has also attempted a field goal, but missed it.

End Ellis Duckett, a converted right halfback, is tied with pony left halfback LeRoy Bolden for team scoring honors. Both Duckett and Bolden, who were halfbacks together at Flint Northern, have scored three touchdowns. Slone is next in the scoring column with 17 points.

Duckett, a sophomore, has caught five passes for 218 yards, an average of 43.6 yards per catch. Paul Dekker, who drew special praise from Aggie coach Ray George for his play, has caught the most passes, six. He is second to Duckett in yards gained for MSC ends with 90.

Saturday's game was Michigan State's most one-sided contest since the final game of the 1949 season when State defeated Arizona, 75-0. The Spartans scored 53 points against Pittsburgh last year but the Panthers tallied 26 points.

Bert Zagers and Bernie Raterink scored touchdowns in their college debuts. Zagers, a promising right halfback, took Thrower's first TD pass while Raterink was on the receiving end of Thrower's second scoring pass. Last season, both Zagers and Raterink were on the junior varsity and tied for scoring honors with 24 points apiece.

Darrow Hooper, the Aggie's 225-pound end, missed his first extra point try this season against the Spartans. Previous to Saturday, Hooper had made six conversions in six tries. Last season he set a Southwestern Conference record in the PAT department.

Hooper was a member of the U.S. Olympic shot team in this summer's games. He holds the Southwestern Conference shot and discus records, with heaves of 54' 7" and 170', respectively.

Coach Ray George of Texas A & M rated Saturday's Michigan State squad as one of the best college teams he has ever seen. The Aggie coach was an All-Pacific Coast Conference tackle in 1938-39 at the University of Southern California. "I think they (MSC) could beat any club on a given Saturday if they had the opportunity," George stated following the game.

Giants Win Third

Lions Trowned by 49ers, 28-0

DETROIT—The injury riddled Detroit Lions gave a record crowd of 56,029 stifled fans nothing to cheer about Sunday afternoon as the power-packed San Francisco 49ers coasted to an easy 28-0 victory.

The once-potent Lions' offensive, that rolled over six opponents in pre-season play, was held to a measly 65 yards. Without their big guns, Doak Walker and Pat Harder who were sidelined with injuries, the Detroit club was held without a first down until the fourth quarter.

Meanwhile Hugh McElhenny, a slippery rookie halfback, and veteran Joe Perry reamed at will through the Lion's line with bruising ball carrying to help keep the 49ers record unblemished and on top of the National Football League's Western Division standings.

McElhenny, prize catch from Washington, scampered six yards through right tackle in the second quarter to give the 49ers a two-touchdown lead.

The Lions threatened only once, moving to the nine yard line with the help of rookie Tom Dubinski's 40 yard pass to Joe Girard.

Detroit 0-1-0-0

In other games played Sunday, the New York Giants completely stymied the Cleveland Browns' running attack to take over undisputed leadership of the American Division of the National Football League by defeating the 1951 sectional champions 17-9 before a crowd of 51,858.

Steve Owen's men held the Brown rushing attack to 21 yards. The only points racked up by the Clevelanders were on three field goals by golden-toed Lou Groza, one a prodigious effort from 52 yards.

All freshmen interested in trying out for the basketball team are urged to attend a meeting on Thursday, October 16, at 4:30 in room 209, Jensen Field House. Practice will begin Monday night, Oct. 20, at 7.

Hockey Meeting

There will be an important meeting of last year's varsity and junior varsity hockey team members in front of the Skate Shop in the Ice Arena at 4 this afternoon.

Four members of Michigan State's No. 1 offensive line this year were defensive linemen last season.

Eighteenth Victory

Thrower was mobbed after the game by his teammates, in fitting tribute to a player who has tried so hard and achieved so little—until Saturday. His spectacular seven completions in nine tries for 107 yards and two touchdowns prompted the Spartans to forward him with the game ball.

The dazzling array of Spartan fireworks probably has the Aggies groggy. State's 48 points are the most scored against Texas A & M since way back in 1898, when Texas shut out the Aggies, 48-0.

Williams completed 13 of 15 overhead attempts for 163 yards and three of the heaves were good for touchdowns.

Quartermback Tom Yewic moved the team up the field with increasing ferocity. With Wayne Benson and Capt. Don McAllister biting off huge hunks of yardage, the Spartans went over the top in 14 plays. McAllister plowed over the top in 14 plays. McAllister plowed over the top in 14 plays.

The Aggie totals seemed as pitiful when compared to State's 48 points as they were when they only went for 129 yards in the air. Rushing yardage was a meager 79 yards and the team only puffed up 12 first downs.

Proof of overall balance of the Spartans is shown by the fact that only one man, Dan Dekker, scored more than a touchdown of the seven.

Aggie mentor, Ray George, who heads for the press box every game, commented that the Spartans are tremendous in the back field. It's not so much the fact that hurts you, it's the fact that hurts you, it's the fact that hurts you.

In State's dressing room, Munn said, "We needed a win like this one. Our boys got going on them, they got going on them, they got going on them. You could see it, trying to run up the field, when we inserted our stringers in the last quarter."

And Munn was right. He had used 12 backfield players, four fullbacks, four backs, and two quarterbacks from start to finish. They sparked.

The third Spartan touchdown was probably the "coup d'etat" of the afternoon. It came when John Wilson had carried a interception back to the Spartan 20 with only 33 seconds to play in the first half.

Yewic faded and let a beautiful pass to Ellis Duckett, the Texas 35 yard line and Flint speedster outraced the position for State's third touchdown.

The third period was long and State couldn't get a start until late in the quarter. But when they did, the Spartans moved fast, covering 73 yards in just five plays.

The scoring play was a masterpiece. With the ball near the sideline, on the Duckett, brushing past two tackles, skipping down the sidelines to make it 27-7. State scored his only miss.

Just two Aggie plays left, fullback C. Munn, Munn fumbled at midfield and Zagers dashed up the pylon and all the way to score. But the play was called back. In plays later the Spartans scored the touchdown door again. Munn's piling over from the back.

It was 34-6 after the conversion and the stage was set for Thrower's grand entrance.

Munn's lineup changes, especially on defense during the entire fray. Guard Frank Yewic and ends Don Duhon and Luke broke through the seven times to nail passer far behind the line of scrimmage.

Syracuse Wins Third As Notre Dame Loses

By CHUCK MILLER

Four of the six teams remaining on Michigan State's schedule turned in victories last Saturday while two squads met defeat.

Heading the list of those who lost were the Irish from South Bend, Ind. Red Dawson's Pittsburgh Panthers pulled a mild upset as they squeezed by Leahy's men, 22-19.

Pittsburgh completely dominated play in the first half as they pushed across two scores and had Notre Dame bottled up in their own end of the field for the better part of two periods.

The second half saw the revamped Irish strike through the air on the arm of quarterback Ralph Gugliemi. The Panthers actually won the game in the points-after-touchdown department. They added a safety in the final minutes purely as an insurance measure.

The other loser was Indiana, who bowed to a strong Michigan team 28-13 at Ann Arbor.

Michigan has evidently found the all important tail-back so important to their single-wing attack. Ted Kress, a Detroit junior, made everyone in the Wolverine camp happy as he tossed to Lowell Perry for two markers and completed 11 out of 14 passes.

The only bright spot in the Indiana lineup was the pitching of quarterback Lou D'Amico who garnered 211 yards on 14 aerials.

Syracuse, Penn State, Purdue and Marquette all were victorious with the Boilermakers turning in the most decisive win as they romped over Iowa, 41-14.

Purdue backers are beginning to smell roses as a result of their two victories over OSU and Iowa. The scent was strengthened in the third quarter of the Iowa game. It wasn't the large margin run up against Iowa that electrified the crowd, but the public address announcement that Wisconsin had been beaten.

Penn State, State's homecoming opponents, were troubled by West Virginia in the first half but pulled away after the intermission to win handily.

Harriers Toppled by Wisconsin, 27-28

Harriers start the grueling four mile cross country race and Wisconsin, Dick Garrett, (1), Captain Jim Kepford, (10) and Lyle Garbe (14) finished seventh, first, and fourth respectively.

Although Michigan State was upset by the Rodgers, Captain Jim Kepford led the pack 1 other wire with a fine clocking of 20:44.3.

Keppford Takes First In Season's Opener

By JOHN CORBELL

The supposedly "weak" Wisconsin Badgers used unexpected strength and a quirk of fate last Saturday to upset a favored Michigan State cross-country squad, 27-28, in the season's opening meet on the local course.

Wisconsin coach Riley Best had brought only six men with him from Madison, expecting what almost everyone else had anticipated—to go home with Wisconsin's first dual meet loss since 1945.

Put, instead, five of the six runners finished within the first 10-second, third, fifth, eighth and ninth—to force seven of MSC's starters from the scoring column.

Leading the surprising Badgers to the upset were Don McLaughlin, a sophomore, and Tom Monfort, a junior. Although both were clocked in 20:58, McLaughlin was credited with second place.

The only bright feature for the Spartans was Capt. Jim Kepford, who finished first, posting a fast time for the first meet, 20:44.3. He and the courageous little McLaughlin were fairly even until the last half mile, when Kepford pulled away to win handily.

After the first three runners had finished, the hand of fate came to the aid of the Badgers. Dick Jarrett, who was running fourth, fell from exhaustion about 25 yards from the finish line. State's Lyle Garbe came along and stopped long enough to encourage him to continue. Jarrett got to his feet, staggered forward a few yards, only to fall again.

Thrower Makes Bid for Fame After Three Years on Bench

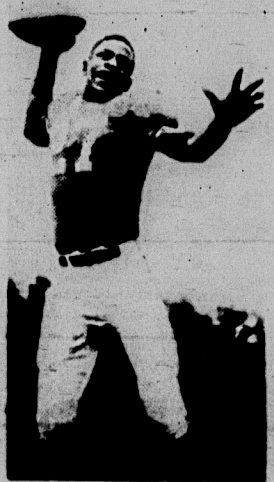

By JACK KOLE

Overshadowing the tumult of a 4-6 Spartan victory over A & M Saturday was the story of Willie Throwing's string quarterback for the Spartans.

Second-string Willie Throwing is about all that has been known since he arrived at Michigan State back in 1949. The Spartans' performers in the game were (left and right) Willie Throwing and Al Duvon, in sophomore and junior years, respectively.

Throwing's bid for fame was made in a game that was a grand entrance. Lineup changes put on defense during the game. Guard Frank Donohue and Willie Throwing were the only ones to see the game.

Burned Out

The inside of the Gill trailer which was almost completely destroyed by fire this weekend. All of the family's possessions were burned.

Fire Leaves MSC Family Homeless

Clothes and other contributions are needed for the family of an MSC senior whose trailer burned down Friday night leaving them homeless and without any clothes but the ones they were wearing.

Members of the family are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon P. Gill, their five-year old son Ricky, and an eight-month baby girl born a week ago. They are now staying in Trailer P-5.

Fire was discovered in their home, J-7 of Trailer Village, by a neighborhood boy at 7:20 p.m. Friday. Despite the efforts of the East Lansing Fire Department the trailer was completely destroyed. Cause of the fire apparently was an overheated motor in an electric refrigerator.

No one was home when the blaze started. Mrs. Gill, Ricky, and the new baby were with relatives in Lansing, and Gill was working in a Lansing used car lot.

Estimated damage to the trailer, which was insured by the college, was $1,500. The Gill family lost approximately $2,000 in uninsured possessions. Clothing and donations for the family are being taken at the Trailer Village post office. Mrs. Gill wears size 12. Gill size 33. A baby's layette is needed as well as clothes for the 8-year-old.

AFROTC Adds New Look to AFRONEWS

By TED RAKSTIS

There'll be a sleek, streamlined look to the new AFROTC cadet newspaper when it makes its first appearance of the term on Nov. 1.

The publication will appear under the name of AFRONEWS, according to Capt. Benjamin W. Davis, USAF, public information officer for Michigan State College. Each edition of the monthly publication will be lithographed, an expected improvement over the mimeographing method used last year.

A Lansing firm is handling the AFRONEWS job, and the new setup will enable the cadet staff to present readers with photographs of the many significant cadet activities on campus, Capt. Davis said.

In the revised edition, readers of the AFRONEWS will enjoy a neater, more readable and durable paper, with news of events from other AFROTC detachments and colleges and universities throughout the country, he added.

For several years, the council has held an annual Ball. Since little enthusiasm has been shown toward this activity, plans may be made for some other activity.

Among the choices offered are continuing the ball, and it should be semi-formal, formal, a square dance, appearance of the Harlem Trotters, and the showing of football movies next spring. Students will also be able to make other suggestions.

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-month period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected during the six-month period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
