Frosh Officer Results Delayed by Phillips Hall

Primary election returns for Fresh-Soph Council and Student Congress representatives were counted as scheduled last night, but results of freshmen class elections must wait until tonight. Primary returns for freshmen class officers will not be available immediately because Phillips Hall failed to vote in yesterday's campus-wide primaries and is holding its election today.

Winners in the Student Congress primaries include: Abbot, Roy Theuerkauf, 81 votes, and Lyle English, 55; fraternities, Wallace Brown, Sigma Chi, 33, and Wallace Clark, Beta Theta Pi, 31; sororities, Joyce Blasko, Pi Beta Phi, 43; and Joan Pace, Sigma Kappa, 20; and East Lansing, William Hurst, 36; and Joyce McElic 31.

Other Fresh-Soph freshmen primary winners are: West Landon, JoAnn Lassen, 19, and Ann Ferguson, 10; and Mason, Jean Broadwell, 36, and Donna MacLeod, 21. In East Mayo Ruth Joy led with 20, and Sylvia DeSteiger and Helen Stevens tied with 9 for second. All three will go on the final ballot. West Yakeley named Michaelen Telep with 19 and Christine Crotty, 16; and Lansing named Ron Reedy, 39, and Suzanne Rouse, 27.

Phillips failed to hold its primary for freshmen class officers yesterday because the dorm president was not contacted directly about the election, said Don Hosie, Student Congress elections chairman.

Hosie explained that a Congress representative called the dorm twice, but was unable to contact the president. Instead, said Hosie, the representative talked to two dormitory residents who promised to notify their president.

Leaders of the living units were supposed to pick up their election material from the Student Congress office by Wednesday. By 10 p.m. Wednesday, when Phillips, president had not done so, Hosie said he took the ballot boxes and material to the dorm and left it in the post office there. The post office attendant, added Hosie, said he would accept the material, but would not be responsible for it.

Phillips' president said he did not find the material until 7:30 p.m. yesterday, half an hour after the election closed.

Primary results for freshmen class officer election will be carried by the State News Monday. Polls at Phillips will be open from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and from 5:30 to 7 p.m., the same as elections hours yesterday.

Primaries were not held in all living units, Hosie stressed. Only those units which had more than two people petitioning for each position voted. Elections today named two people per position for each living unit.

Those living units whose representatives are automatically on the final ballot for Student Congress include Mason, East Shaw, women's co-ops, Phillips, West Shaw, Snyder and Gilchrist.

Only one petition apiece for freshmen representative for Fresh-Soph Council was submitted in four living units. Automatic winners were: Phillips, Harry Blunt; East Landon, Sut Lane; West Mayo, Pat Peacock; and Wells, Shirley Ulrich.

Those dorms which had only two petitioning for freshmen representatives on the council, and thus will have final elections but not primaries, are: South Campbell, North Williams, South Williams, and East Yakeley.

Only the East Lansing district held primaries for sophomore representatives to the council. All others had only one petition per office. Automatic winners were: Abbot, Kies Hagadorn; Phillips, Dale Blunt; West Shaw, Leon Swartzell; North Campbell, Jessie Fieselmann; East Landon, Joan Board; West Landon, Pauline Bagshaw; North Williams, Annette Baciow; South Williams, Jane Bicknell; and East Yakeley, Dorothy Davis.

Altogether, 35 petitions were submitted for freshmen class offices. Fifty-one petitioned for Fresh-Soph Council, and 52 for Student Congress, Hosie said it was a good representation.

Final elections will be held Thursday.

Petitioners Ask New Vote on Student Tax

Lack of Benefits Cited
As Basis for Protest

By FRANK BUTKIEWICZ

Petition calling for a referendum on the newly initiated tax was put into circulation Tuesday night. Organizers of the referendum movement hope to gather signatures to place the student tax on the ballot again.

Failure of the Student Government to live up to its promises was listed as the reason for the petitions.

"I don't believe students have gotten proper benefits out of the tax," said Joe Dwyer, one of the organizers of the movement. "People who paid the tax want benefits right now, not five years from today."

He said he believed congressmen had backed down on their promise of last year to stage free concerts and other beneficial, campus-wide programs.

Although the petition has been circulated in only one living unit, the petitioners said they hope to launch a campus-wide campaign soon.

Signatures of 10 per cent of the qualified voters are necessary in order for the measure to appear on the ballot. This means that approximately 1200 undergraduate students will have to sign a petition. About 40 signatures have already been obtained.

"I don't think we'll have any trouble getting 1200 signatures," said Virgil Snyder, another backer of the referendum.

Bob Bolo, Student Government president, refused to comment on the petition when informed of its circulation.

Horatio Lewis, speaker of Congress, said that the petitions must contain the full name of the student, his student number and address in order to be considered valid.

The petitions must then be turned in to the Student Congress for checking and if found satisfactory then a vote will take place within two weeks.

The student tax, one of last year's most controversial issues, was voted upon twice after the first vote was found invalid. It went into effect this term on a two-year probationary period.

Home-Bound S. S. Spartan Makes Voyage To Ludington

The S.S. Spartan, namesake of MSC and the world's largest and newest catamaran, made her maiden voyage to her home port of Ludington yesterday.

The Spartan is the newest member of the Chesapeake and Ohio's fleet of six ships which cross the lake connecting Michigan with Wisconsin. Built at a cost of $3,500,000, the ship is designed for transporting passengers and cargo.

The S.S. Spartan's keel was laid Dec. 19, 1949, and the catamaran was christened Sept. 6 by Mrs. Joan A. Hannah.

Homecoming Activities Expected To Draw 37,000 Visitors, Alums

Nittany Lions Get Crack at Win Streak

Two Undefeated
Teams to Meet

Michigan State's top-ranking Spartans will try to show an alumni-filled Homecoming crowd why they are rated as the nation's number one football power tomorrow afternoon before an expected sellout throng.

To do this, State will have to spoil Penn State's undefeated record and add one more to their own victory streak which has claimed 19 straight victims.

Pep Rallies, Dinners Fill Weekend

Living Units Don
House Displays

By MYRA MacPHERSON

Approximately 37,000 visitors and alumni are expected to return to the MSC campus for the 37th annual Homecoming festivities this weekend.

The activities will include parties, banquets, pep rallies, parades, open houses and class reunions, in addition to the MSC-Penn State game and the Homecoming Dance.

Already, more than 11,000 alumni are crowding hotels and other housing facilities in the Lansing-East Lansing area.

Alumni Club representatives will attend workshops today in the Union Building. Pres. John A. Hannah will speak to about 145 people at the club's president's banquet which will be held tonight in the Union. After the banquet there will be a smoker for alumni, and a reception for alumni, both to be held at the Hotel Olds.

The Penn State Club of Chicago will also hold a pre-game smoker in the American Room of the Hotel Olds tonight at 8:30. Penn State alumni and guests are invited. College athletic officials, including Ernie McCoy, ex-Michigan coach, will be present. A buffet luncheon will be served.

Also meeting on campus Saturday will be the Michigan section of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers. Their annual meeting will be held at the Agricultural Engineering Building.

Homecoming Queen Dee Means and her court will meet the Penn State team arriving in Lansing by train at 10:30 this morning. A parade will be formed from the station to the Hotel Olds, where the team will stay.

This afternoon, a pre-pep rally will be held on the South Terrace of the Union from 3:30 to 5:30. Co-sponsored by the Junior Class and the Union Board, the rally will feature Jimmy Mason and his combo and other entertainment.

Following the Student Congress sponsored pep rally in the Handshell, a Union Board record dance has been planned for 9 to 12 p.m. in the Union Parlors.

Homecoming displays, set up by fraternities, sororities, and dorms in front of the living units will be judged Saturday morning. Howard Brown of the MSC Art Department, Archie Brown, representative of the Lansing Display Club, and Bert Tenny, representative of the Lansing Alumni Association, will act as judges.

Carnival Heads Given Trophies

Chairmen Named
For Next Year

Trophy awards were presented Activities Carnival committee heads last night in the College Hall and the 1953 co-chairmen were announced.

Roy Black, general chairman for the 1952 carnival, was awarded a trophy by Bob Gardner, assistant to the dean of students. Black, a first senior, gave an award to his assistant, Betsy Arnold, Grosse Pointe junior, and other chairmen.

Next year's carnival chairman will be Marilyn Hintz, Fremont, O. junior. Don Harmer, Grand Rapids junior, was appointed to serve as his assistant.

Other persons given chairmanship trophies were: Harmer, staging; Gloria MacFarland, Saginaw senior publicity; Chandler Denton, Milwaukee, Wis., senior, entertainment; and Dick Bird, Belleville senior, organization.

Black reported that 84 organizations participated and the attendance equaled about 6,000 students.

Monroe Show To Salute MSC

The "Vaughan Monroe Show" will salute Michigan State and Penn State on an NBC radio network broadcast at 7:30 p.m.

The MSC-Penn State game Saturday has been picked as the "game-of-the-week" and the Monroe show will feature the MSC Fight Song and the Nittany Lion Victory March. In addition, historical highlights of the two schools will be given.

Dick Panin will get the full-back nod over Wayne Benson who is recovering from a sprained ankle. Benson might play, however, Tom Yewick at quarterback and Capt. Don McAuliffe will round out the Spartan backfield.

Munn said he would start his regular line crew of Paul Dekker and Doug Bebe at the ends, Gordie Serr and Larry Fowler at the tackle ends and Feris Hallmark and Bob Bealiff at guards. Jim Neal will be at center.

The only mar on the Penn State side is a 20-20 tie against Purdue, currently tied for Big Ten leadership.

Teams that have been conquered by the Penn State crew include Temple, 20-13; William & Mary, 35-23; and West Virginia, 35-21. Nebraska was added to the team string last Saturday in a 16-0 contest.

Freshman Coach Dan Devine, who saw the Nittany Lions tie Purdue and beat West Virginia has nothing but praise for Penn State Devine comments, "Penn State had to come from behind in almost every game this season. They always seem to have it in the clutch."

Weather-Wise Balmy Breezes To Blow on Fans At Game Time

If it's all in the weather, this year's Homecoming will be a top-notch edition of the annual event.

The warm breezes will continue tomorrow with a high of 52 degrees. Although the sky may be partly cloudy, no rain is predicted.

Today the sun is expected to shine, and the mercury to rise to the 64 degree mark. A southwest wind will blow with a velocity of 12 to 13 miles an hour.

Bolo Says Congress To Report on Housing

Group President Clarifies Aim;
Denies Trouble Making Charge

Student Congress President Bob Bolo yesterday denied that the Congress is trying to inspire trouble over college housing regulations.

Bolo said "At Monday night's meeting we merely agreed to have Jean Warren, representative from Lansing, compile a report on general rules governing housing at MSC."

"It is to be a purely factual report and has nothing to do with trying to inspire trouble," he said.

Earlier this term a protest was made by two Snyder Hall residents that the college was violating the housing law of Michigan because there were not 500 cubic feet of space per resident in men's dormitories.

The protest was brought up before the Congress at Monday night's meeting and it was decided at that time to have Warren compile his report.

A check with authorities revealed that the law in question only pertains to cities of over 100,000 population, or to cities or villages of 10,000 population or more who desire to be included under the law. East Lansing operates under this law.

Emery G. Foster, director of dormitories, foods and services, said yesterday "Although the housing law does not apply to college housing, the students are protesting over a difference of about 20 cubic feet of space per man." Approximate figures show that the air space in men's dormitory rooms is 1,400 cubic feet.

Adults Better Education at Kellogg Center

By BILL GALARNO

Education is a life-long process and MSC has established the Kellogg Center for Continuing Education for those out of college. The Center is an educational meeting ground for the citizens of Michigan.

The modern Kellogg Center is divided into three departments: The Department of Special Courses and Conferences, the Department of Business and Industry, and the Department of Education and Community Services.

Adults from all over the state of Michigan come to MSC to attend special courses and conferences. In this division they may gain added knowledge in fields of health, public service, agriculture, education, labor education, citizenship, safety, transportation, and law enforcement.

In the Department of Business and Industry courses in management, development, re-training and insurance are offered. Very few states in the nation are as dependent upon business and industry as in Michigan.

Educational and community services include evening college sessions, extension courses, driving education, world understanding, custodial training, PTA services, community development and leadership training. Extension centers are located at Flint, Grand Rapids, Midland, Battle Creek and Chatham.

Indicative of the fast-growing awareness among Michigan residents of the opportunities open to them on the MSC campus are increasing enrollment figures. In 1947-48 about 7,000 adults took part in 30 campus programs. In 1951-52 the Center served approximately 100,000 persons in more than 400 special courses and conferences.

Homecoming

Tomorrow MSC will again open its doors for another Homecoming Day.

The campus will be given to the people who once possessed it.

The alumni bring with them the flavor of raccoon coats and hip flasks. And, going back further yet, the flavor of the times when the inter-urban ran to Lansing in the middle of the Michigan Avenue boulevard.

They will come to East Lansing and again look with nostalgia at the 1952 Homecoming queen Dee Means. They will see a good football team meeting another good football team. They will meet old friends and say, "Brother, do you remember the time when..."

They will marvel at the newness of the campus—the new buildings, the new smokestack, the new look.

They will be here for a day. Then they will go home again, away once more from the "good old days."

It is always a pleasure to welcome alumni back on Homecoming Day.

United Nations Day

Amid bitter East-West debate on how to end the Korean War, the United Nations today celebrates its seventh birthday as a world organization.

In the seven years of its existence, not much in the way of concrete accomplishments has been written into the record books. The UN has been hampered by the bitter wrangling of factions within itself.

The wranglings have done little to create respect for the UN among the people who want to see it work.

No one can expect a group composed of so many persons with such differing background influences to iron out all the differences which arise in seven years. The economic and social complexity of the world makes it increasingly harder for the UN to advise and govern, within its limitations.

But it is no longer a matter of thinking on a purely theoretical basis that the UN can work. It is a time for taking stock of the UN's accomplishments and failures in the past and adopting the attitude that the UN must succeed.

The very fact that the organization has lasted seven years seems to indicate that members, while differing, can work together, even if they are working for different aims. Fewer abrupt departures from the UN by Russian delegates is one indication.

Working together does not necessarily mean that the UN must make concessions to influential component parts of its organizations; on the contrary.

The UN has grown considerably in the past seven years. It has a good deal of growing to do in the seven years ahead. The controversial Korean situation seems to be the first item to which they must allot consideration.

It is time now for the UN General Assembly to iron out the problems faced by its true teams in the country in which a war of principles is sapping the world's manpower.

The future existence of the United Nations may well hinge on its ability to end needless, senseless bloodshed on the craggy mount of Korea.

MISS DEE MEANS
HOMECOMING QUEEN

Dear Miss Means:

Perhaps I'm using an inglorious method of going about all this, but I've had this matter on my mind ever since I learned of your selection as Homecoming queen.

To put it bluntly, Miss Means, you and I once dissected a frog together.

It was in Bio Sci. first term, when I was as green as the frog. Both being M's, we shared a side of the lab table. We did other things too. We examined a cat that had green, red, yellow and blue blood vessels. We looked at various charts of various skeletons. We watched a frog which had part of its nervous system gone, twitch its legs. Oh, we had a fine time.

Now don't get me wrong, Miss Means, I'm not trying to say that your selection as Homecoming queen reminds me of dissected frogs or blue blooded cats. Far from it.

The fact is that you have awakened in me a certain form of nostalgia which must, at one time or another, be awakened in everyone.

I didn't particularly like Bio Sci. I think the smell of formaldehyde is nauseating. But Bio Sci was a part of the first term at MSC. Just as much as orientation week. I must say I feel rather honored by your selection, Miss Means. There will be very few people around MSC who will have the distinction of saying "I dissected a frog with the Homecoming queen."

And I can add, in parenthesis ("And look where she is now.") This is at best, a dubious claim to fame. But.

Candidate Disqualification Protests

TO THE EDITOR:

In the United States of America we boast of our freedom of speech, our freedom of the press and our right to assemble. Every four years we congregate in great numbers and beat our breasts, flail our arms and scream at the top of our lungs about these "inalienable rights."

I for one most heartily approve. If I couldn't do this I would take some five action to see that I got the right and I am sure that at least 90 per cent of the people that read this feel the same way. We also have another right that I feel is very important. The right to a fair trial by a jury of our peers. An important adjunct to this is the right to petition.

The last two of these are receiving a beating here at MSC every day. A notable case in point are the candidates for election to freshman class offices.

Several of whom have been disqualified by some arbitrary body for having signs whose surfaces exceeded the legal size limit by less than the surface area of a matchbook cover.

This brings up some interesting points. Namely, who made the rules? An organization in which the freshmen as yet have no voice. Therefore, we must assume that the powers that be don't want to hear the true voice of the freshman class but only the voice of those whom they can control. This, to me, smacks of dictatorship.

There have been charges of lack of interest on the part of the frosh. How can you be interested in anything that is only the front of a legal version of democracy?

I am not a disgruntled candidate, as far as that goes I am not any sort of candidate anything. My only wish is I hate to see anyone elected for the benefit of a totalitarian body such as I see here. normal tendencies of the American people to shut back and pushed is disconcerting to such things as this are allowed to slip through without any I propose that the next date, as far as that goes I am not any sort of candidate anything. Newman Club Wins Again in IM Play

By CHUCK MILLER and BILL TWAY

Newman Club moved into strong contention for the Independent League championship by downing Fess Club, 9-0 in last night's highlight game. John Christiansen climaxed a Newman scoring drive by running over for the only touchdown of the game. The extra point was added on Jerry Rafferty's pass to Dan Jessm.

Newman Club scored two more points in the final quarter when a Fess Club passer dropped out of his own end zone for an automatic safety.

Theta Chi, 16; Delta Upsilon, 7
Theta Chi grabbed an early lead on the first play of the game when a Delta Upsilon passer from center went out of the end zone for an automatic safety. The lead was short lived as Delta Upsilon came roaring back a few minutes later to score on a scoring play by Paul Phillips. Hutch Sising and Jim Theroux, with the latter getting credit for the TD. Theta Chi scored in the second period on a touchdown pass from Al Dorris to Jim Carver and Dorris added a score in the third period with a 65-yard pass interception.

AGR, 13; Phi Kappa Phi, 0
Al Dorris passed to Dick Hoge for a score in the first period to start AGR on the victory trail. Wayne Clement was fouled with a safety in the third quarter and Tom Williamson rounded out the scoring in the final stanza by taking in a pass from Frank Crocker to give AGR a 13-0 win.

Siema Chi, 21; Delta Tau Delta, 0
Led by Charles Cockendall, Siema Chi rolled over Delta Tau 21-0. Cockendall passed for two touchdowns and three extra points. Harley Burr and Al Ryan received Cockendall's scoring aerials, and Burr tossed to Jack Campbell for the other Siema Chi score.

Snyder 13; 6; Snyder 14; 2
Howard Sleepless passed to James Curries for the only touchdown of the game as Snyder 13 slipped by Snyder 14, 6-2. Snyder 14 scored their two points in the second quarter when Snyder 13 fouled in their end zone.

Bower, 6; Hedrick, 0
After battling through four periods of scoreless ball, Bower pushed over a score in the semi-fifth overtime period to win. Bill Cestowski passed to LaVerne Brown for the touchdown.

Phi Delta Theta, 26; AEP, 0
The passing and running of Dick Shaw sparked Phi Delta Theta to a 26-0 romp over AEP. Shaw passed to Jerry Fairman and Don Britton for two first rest in the main with Tony Rados, first passer in Penn State football history.

Penn State

Rados' passes scared the Spartans last year and it took three late touchdowns for the Spartans to win 32-21.

This year the 22-year-old transfer from Notre Dame has completed 49 tosses in 93 attempts for the unbeaten Nittany Lions to set a new Penn State season pass completion record.

The six-foot-one junior slingshot from Steelton, Pa., has had three big Saturdays.

Seventeen completions out of 30 for 197 yards against Purdue; 13 of 20 for 129 yards against West Virginia; and 11 of 20 for 100 yards against Nebraska.

Penn State has gained almost half its yardage in four victories and a tie with Purdue by passing.

Rados' No. 2 target, End Joe Yulka, was injured in last Saturday's victory over previously unbeaten Nebraska and may miss the game.

However Rados' favorite receiver is six foot five inch Jesse Arnette, a sophomore who made his college debut in last year's State game.

Lake Michigan—State, Penn State leans heavily on pony backs for yardage.

The two best, and the team's leading ground gainers, are the 165-pound Jones and 168-pound Matt Yanosich was the most explosive Penn State back against MSC last year, averaging five yards a carry.

The backfield is rounded out by Pollard at fullback. He's the only senior in the first or second string offensive backfields and has averaged 2.4.

The radio "ears" of the nation will be on the eighth meeting of the two land grant colleges in a series dating back to 1914.

Three national networks—National Broadcasting, Mutual and Columbia—will beam the game direct to 45 millions of listeners. The Michigan and Pennsylvania areas of local interest will be saturated with four regional network broadcasts over more than 50 stations. Several other individual stations also will originate the game.

The spacious press box will be jammed with more newspaper, magazine, radio and movie and television newsreel representatives than in any Macklin Field game other than last fall's Notre Dame affair.

The Penn State team will arrive by train this morning and work out at Macklin Field in the afternoon.

Wolverines Enter Meet In Last Minute Move

By JOHN CORBELL

The dual cross country meet scheduled for 10:30 tomorrow morning between Penn State and Michigan State has been changed into a triangular affair with the last minute entry of the University of Michigan.

MSC Coach Karl Schladehman announced yesterday that a squad of nine men will accompany Michigan Coach Don Canham to toe the line at Old College Field against the Spartans and Nittany Lions.

Penn State, a perennial powerhouse, is considered by Schladehman as the top team in the nation. Coach Chick Werner's crew won the ICAA title last fall, and then finished second to Syracuse in the NCAA. The Lions have run two meets so far this season, slugging Cornell 15-14 and whipping Army 21-35.

This is the first serious crack at dual meet competition for the Wolverines. Only in the last two years have they entered full teams in the Big Ten championships. In 1950 they were fourth, and in 1951 they were one notch better.

The meet stacks up as a three-way battle for individual honors among Spartan Capt. Jim Keppelford, Muskegon senior Lamont Smith of Penn State and John Ross of Michigan.

Keppelford was fourth in the Big Ten meet last year and took first in State's only meet this season, against Wisconsin. Smith, regarded by Keppelford as one of the top distance men in the country this year, has paced his team to its two 1952 wins. Last year he was running among the leaders at the first mile of the NCAA meet when he collapsed, forcing him from further competition.

In addition to Keppelford, seven veterans will see action for MSC. Included are Lyle Garbe, Calgary, Alberta native; Dick Jarret, Oak Lawn, Ill. junior; John Cook, London Ont. junior; Wayne Scott, Penfield, N.Y. senior; Jerry Zerbe, Flint senior; and Mickey Walter, Buffalo, N.Y. senior.

This will be the first competitive

Opportunities in Optometry
Optometry is a profession offering special advantages to ambitious young men and women. Its scope is constantly expanding. Eighty per cent of the Nation's millions depend upon the Doctor of Optometry and his professional skill in restoring vision. There is a shortage of optometrists in many States.

The Doctor of Optometry possesses the dignity of being a professional man. He renders an essential service to the health and well-being of his community. Substantial financial rewards are obtainable almost from the beginning of his practice.

The U.S. Department of Defense and Selected Service grant optometry students the same consideration as accorded medical students.

The Doctor of Optometry degree can be earned in three college years by a student having six or more semester hours of Liberal Arts credits. Such students will be admitted at one year by Chicago College of Optometry.

Chicago College of Optometry is centrally located in the heart of the nation's greatest center for learning in the healing arts. It is nationally accredited and is fully equipped. Clinical facilities are unsurpassed.

Adlai Raps GOP Crusaders

Ike Blamed For Backing Falsehoods

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson last night accused Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of conducting a campaign "which accepts slander and the 'big doubt' as its instruments."

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, loosed a scathing attack on Eisenhower, his GOP opponent, and the general's vice-presidential running mate, Sen. Richard M. Nixon, of California.

Stevenson also slugged hard at Republican Senators Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin and William F. Jenner of Indiana.

In an address prepared for delivery at the Cleveland Arena, the Illinois governor said Eisenhower must accept full responsibility for the kind of campaign being waged in his behalf.

"I resent—and I resent, bitterly—the slanders and the innuendoes of the campaign that is being waged in behalf of the general," Stevenson declared. "and I am deeply shocked that the general would lead a so-called 'crusade' which accepts slander and the 'big doubt' as its instruments."

The governor rapped vigorously at Nixon for his attacks on Stevenson in connection with the case of Alger Hiss, former State Department official convicted of having lied when he denied ever having passed government documents to a courier for Russia. Nixon and McCarthy have sharply criticized Stevenson for giving a deposition at the first Hiss trial, which said that so far as Stevenson knew, Hiss' reputation was good.

MSC Hunters to Pursue Penn State Lion Pelt At Pep Rally Tonight

Hold that lion!
Hunters in full dress and armed with clubs will begin pursuit of an escaped Nittany lion from Penn State tonight at 7 p.m. at the Union.

Blazing the way across campus to the Student Congress Pep Rally in the Bandshell will be 35 Alpha Phi Omega members carrying flaming torches. Varsity and Phi Kappa Tau bands will render mood music for the chase. It will pick up students as it passes dormitories on the way to the rally, according to Bob Steele, director of the parade.

After the lion has finally been subdued by the Spartan brand of safari lion capturing, the pep rally will begin at 7:30 p.m. Featured will be an introduction of seniors on the football squad by Biggie Munn and presentation of the Homecoming queen and her court by Duane Vernon, rally chairman.

Dean Tom, Krag will give a short talk on Homecoming plans and a representative from the Lansing Chamber of Commerce will speak on "State Flags."

Cheerleaders plan to take special time on any cheers students wish to have explained.

MSC has the number one team in the nation according to the polls. The students should let them know we appreciate their efforts by turning out for the rally and letting them hear our approval," said Kies, Hagadorn, chairman of Spartan Spirit Committee.

Immediately following the game, the alumni will meet around class signs placed on the football field.

Fraternity and sorority parties, open house, and other reunions are slated after the game.

A sell-out crowd of approximately 1,500 couples will dance to the music of Fred Netting's orchestra at the annual Homecoming Dance tomorrow night. Decorations for the dance, held from 9 to 12 p.m. in the Auditorium, will feature the score of the Homecoming game and Big Ten pennants.

During the intermission Mary Lonn Trapp, last year's Homecoming queen, will present Queen Dee with her trophy. Members of the court will also receive trophies.

Duane Vernon and Quentin Stultz will act as masters of ceremonies at intermission. They will present gifts from Lansing and East Lansing merchants to the queen and court.

Beaumont to Get Six New Bells at Dedication Sunday

MSC's carillon will add six new bells to its set of 37 in Beaumont Tower Sunday.

Dr. Frederick L. Marriott, carillonneur of the Rockefeller Memorial Chapel, University of Chicago, will present the dedication recital at 2:30 p.m.

Prior to the recital, the new bells will be presented to the college by the alumni. William L. Davidson, MSC Fund director, will make the presentation of the bells which were recently received from Holland. With the purchase of four more bells, the MSC carillon will be complete.

Dr. Marriott's musical selections for Sunday's recital include 20 songs ranging from classical numbers to folk songs. Also included in the selections will be State's Alma Mater, "MSC Shadows."

Dr. Marriott has given many recitals in the United States, as well as in Holland, Belgium and France. He has recently been invited by the Holland government to play a Dutch carillon at the International Exposition in Mexico City next November.

A graduate of the Ecole de Carillon school in Malines, Belgium, Dr. Marriott's diploma was awarded the honor of "With Grande Distinction." Only seven persons have received this merit in the history of the school and he is the only non-belgian to receive it.
