Cross to Purdue May Aid MSC's Big 10 Relations

Wilson Cites Maturing Ability After Defeat

Michigan State's gridgers may still feel the sting of defeat from the loss to Purdue which may have helped Spartan win the Big 10.
It was the opinion voiced by the commissioner of the conference, Wilson, at the weekly luncheon of the State College Club, a faculty organization.

Porpoise Lists Tea for Queen Candidates

Swim Group Plans 'Skirt Hawaii' Event

Porpoise Fraternity, men's national swimming honorary, will hold a "Queen's Tea" Sunday from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. in 21 Union, to meet the candidates for Porpoise Queen.
Entrants from 30 living units will compete in the contest and the winner is expected to be announced in the football program for the MSC-U of M game.

Pictures of the queen and her court will also appear. A television program in which the queen will star is being planned with a Lansing station.

The Aqua Maniacs show, which will be staged November 19, 20 and 21 in the Jensen swimming pool, is being called "Skirt Hawaii." The queen and her court will appear at all the shows.

Publicity Chairman John Berlegh announced Tuesday that for the first time in the history of the Aqua Maniacs shows, there will be four shows instead of the usual three.

Two shows will be held on Saturday evening, Nov. 21.
The change was made due to the large crowds at last year's shows.

Education Men to Attend National Convo

Dr. Edgar L. Harden, dean of continuing education, will head a group of eight MSC staff members at the third annual conference of the national Adult Education Association this week in New York City.

Attending will be: Robert Shaver, vice-president of the association, Russell Kleis, John Holden and Charles Westie of the continuing education staff; Robert Crawford and David Potter of the department of speech, radio and dramatics; and Walter Schroeder of the vocational education staff.

The 2,000 delegates attending the conference will discuss a proposal to build a national network of adult education centers aimed at community improvement and individual learning. The plan will be based on the work of "flying squadrons of experts," AEA executives said.

Both Harden and Prof. Shaver said that they regard the "flying squadron" idea as questionable. "We believe adult education problems must be answered at a grass roots approach," they said.

Freshman Candidate Disqualified

Pat Brady Accused On Poster Charge

Freshman vice-presidential candidate Pat Brady, of Northfield, Ill., was disqualified for the coming freshman class election by a three member All-College Review Board Tuesday night.

Her disqualification rested on an accused violation of a section of the All-College election laws concerning the attaching of campaign posters to trees on the campus.

Following a complaint issued by three Abbot Hall coeds, student government officials and Bill Hurst, the temporary commissioner of elections, warned her of the violation.

The candidate stated that after being notified of the violation she took the offending posters from the trees but someone else apparently replaced them.

During the hour-and-a-half trial, numerous character witnesses testified on her behalf. In her testimony she noted a long string of previous student government activities in high school and vigorously denied that she would perform such a violation.

Hurst said that the decision of the review board was appealable to the All-College Judiciary, and that since the defendant plans to appeal the case her name would not be dropped from the ballot until final decision has been made on the case.

Group to Study Human Affairs At Conference

Michigan State College will be represented at the second annual College Conference on Human Relations at St. Mary's Lake Oct. 30 to Nov. 1 under the sponsorship of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The purpose of the conference, which will be attended by delegations of students and staff from most of the colleges of Michigan, is to explore inter-group relationship problems of college campuses and their possible solutions.

Faculty members who will attend are Edwood Voller, assistant to the dean of men, and Hoyt Coe Reed, of the social science department.

Students attending will include Mary Lou Zeal and Beverly Root from the Christian Student Foundation, Al Froh Long and Lee Mah from the Chinese Club, Frances Reed from Student Government and Stanley Stemborn and Sharon Schwartz from Hillel Foundation.

Dr. Reed, who is educational consultant to the National Conference of Christians and Jews, will arrange an exhibit of materials on inter-group relations and deliver a talk on race tensions in Africa.

Seniors Schedule Third Coffee Hour

The third Senior Coffee Hour of the year will be held this afternoon in Old College Hall at 3:30-5:30 for all members of the class of 1954. Sandy Miller will entertain at the piano.

The coffee hour, presented by Senior Council, is a weekly event designed to create closer unity between members of the class of '54. It is a chance to meet other members of your class over a cup of coffee. A free one, too.

New East Lansing Sanctuary Opened

The new sanctuary of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, East Grand River Ave. at Haslett St., was officially opened Sunday with morning and evening services.

Now completed is the main unit, including the church auditorium seating 250. The wing which will house Sunday School facilities is still under construction.
The congregation had been holding services in the State Theater.

Tower Guard Coeds Aided by Workshop

Four speakers at a workshop Saturday morning instructed 35 Tower Guard coeds in the arts of using their talents tutoring, reading to the blind, and voice recording.

The workshop, which was held at Kellogg Center, was the first meeting of its type to be planned by Tower Guard and was designed to help the coeds in their service projects and in getting to know one another.

New Ruling Stops Two Year ROTC Course for Vets

Veterans entering college to complete the Army ROTC course in two years and get their commission will be unable to do so under a new nationwide ruling.

Hereafter, a veteran must complete the full four years of college or the equivalent credit hours before he receives his active commission.

Ag Engineers Set Annual Mixer Date

The annual student faculty mixer of the Agricultural Engineering Department is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 3 at 6:30 p.m. in 114 Agricultural Engineering Building.

All agricultural engineering majors, farm mechanics majors and students in the Farm Equipment Service and Sales Course are invited to attend.

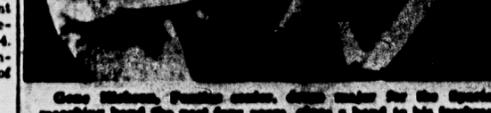

A home-cooked potluck supper will be served and a short program explaining the work of the department in the fields of teaching, research and extension has been arranged.

Wood-Gathering Plans For Pep Rally Vetoed

The wood-gathering contest that was scheduled to take place Friday for the Oregon State pep rally has been cancelled.

The Buildings and Grounds Department will supply the wood instead.

Other plans for the pep rally and fire will materialize.

Freshman Named to Lead Marching Band Saturday

Keth Ferguson, Lansing freshman, will get his first chance to lead the MSC marching band Saturday of the Michigan State-Oregon State football game.

Ferguson plays the french horn in the winter concert band and in the winter concert band and in the winter concert band.

Red Feather Drive Ends On Campus

Lansing Area Drive Ends In Cleanup

Clean-up campaigns are being staged by college and Lansing officials of the 1954 Community Chest drive.

Alvie L. Smith and Charles Blagdon, co-chairmen of the college drive, asked Tuesday that all department solicitors turn in cards and contributions to B-10 Wells Hall by 5 p.m. today.

Richard P. Lyman, Jr., general chairman of the drive, issued a revised report of Lansing for last Monday night at a special meeting of division heads. $660,473.81, or 97 per cent of the $705,341 quota has been collected.

"Last minute drives by all workers must be staged to bring in every contribution that has not previously been reported. We will also need to get increases on those outstanding accounts if 100 per cent is to be assured," Lyman said. Tentative deadline has been set at 6:30 p.m. tonight, the time of the Victory Dinner.

Team reports, campaign awards, and special plaques of commendation to leaders will be given at the meeting. The 1953 chairman will be announced and ballots distributed for the election of five members to the Board of Directors.

MSC students scheduled to appear on the program are Dan Karney, vocalist, and Jack Wipper, who will present a magic act.

Conspiracy?

An interesting sequel to the "Dave Hyman Story," or how to be discriminated against, that ran in yesterday's "Today's Campus" was revealed to the press today.

Hit Parade

They will continue selling Wolverines in dormitories every Wednesday night throughout the term.

Sloppy Shortcuts Sidewalks Lure Spartans as Rain Dampens Leaves

The weatherman will continue to help the grounds department, with cloudy skies and occasional showers expected to make Spartans stick to the sidewalks. A west to northwest wind traveling at 15 to 20 m.p.h. will pile the dead leaves to make cutting across the grass a very sloppy walk. The temperature will climb to a high of 55 degrees today and 55 tomorrow. Clouds will remain over the campus.

Collegiate Who's Who Lists Grad

Mike Hurst One Of Top Leaders

An MSC graduate has been chosen one of the ten outstanding student leaders in the nation for 1953, and 19 more have been listed in "American College Student Leaders, a student 'Who's Who.'"

Mike Hurst, who received his degree in restaurant management, magna cum laude, last spring, is the only student from the Big 10 or the Midwest to be named to the top category.

In his four years at State, Hurst was on the dean's list every term and became a member of Tau Sigma honorary, which requires a 3.5 scholastic average.

Hurst was treasurer of the student government last year and was cadet Lt. Col. in the regimental staff of ROTC. He was elected outstanding quartermaster at MSC for 1952 and 1953.

At present he is working for his master's degree in accounting and should get the degree at the end of winter term. Hurst had completed his undergraduate courses after three years at State and spent his senior year working toward his master's degree.

State students listed in the book are Bob Bole, Joan Donkin, Bob Duryea, Helen Ellis, Margaret Fuller, Kay Hammon, Leo Hanson, Gene Lewison, John King, Bud Lewis, Donna Mathias, Walter McHenry, Dan McCrary, Joan McMahon, Dick Meyer, Kay Myers, Marilyn Ringler, Dean Wabelfield, Nancy Wells.

"American College Student Leaders," is published by Leader Publication of Los Angeles. College administrations of 1,000 leading institutions send names in to a reviewing board of the publication which reads the petitions and makes the selections.

India Doubts Solution by Commission

PANMUNJOM, Wednesday (AP)—Indian officers expressed doubts Tuesday that "explanations" for anti-Communist prisoners ever would begin again on a large scale.

The deadlocked Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission was meeting again today in an atmosphere of paralysis and frustration.

BULLETIN

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The head of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission revealed Wednesday that three definite cases of murder and possibly a fourth had taken place in the anti-Communist prisoners compounds since Sept. 24.

The cases were disclosed when the NNRC met to consider disciplinary action. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the commission, said the murdered men were North Korean and Chinese and one had been badly tortured.

But no hope was held out by the Indian chairman that any solution will come out of the session, described as routine.

No far, no way has been found to break the impasse caused by the violent refusal of anti-Communist North Korean prisoners to face Red interrogators, and the Communist demand that they be interviewed by force if necessary.

The five-member commission is still split two to two on the issue, with the Red Czechs and Poles insisting on North Korean interviews and the Swiss and Swedes refusing to allow the use of force.

The fifth member, Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya of India, not only frowns on the use of force against prisoners, but has demanded a unanimous decision if even mildly forceful tactics are to be used.

Today marks the 11th day of the split, which has carried the commission's work past the one-third mark with only 921 of 22,963 prisoners, held in the NNRC's North and South camps being interviewed.

Even if the Red interviews began today, the Communists would have to explain their case to at least 400 prisoners a day to work through the whole roster of one-time Communist soldiers.

Injuries Mount as Rain Falls

Impeding Spartans Forced to Practice in Jenison

Biggie Munn's Spartans ran into a new problem as heavy rain drove them into Jenison Fieldhouse practice.

The rain seemed to mark a climax to the gloom of the last few days. Strangely, the balmy Indian came to an abrupt end last Saturday—coinciding with the end of State's win.

While Spartan injuries more gloom to the situation prepared his charges for region State contest.

He explained that Mor-gular fever was of a nature and would re-act a lot of rest.

Muskegon sophomore did make the Purdue trip—a fact which put a serious crimp in Spartan aerial attack. Dr. Morrell would like to participate in light this week, but that he have to "conserve his strength."

As Spartan coaches were informed, they hoped that Morrell would be in shape for the important Ohio State con-which is only 10 days away.

Schreengost and center Neal were still limping at on injured legs, but Dr. Morrell said they would dress for today's tilt. He said that they be withheld from action.

JOHN LEWIS

What—No Ping Pong? Sophomore Flanker Three Sports Star

By BOB FREY

A sophomore end who totes a football, basketball or base- ball glove with equal enjoyment was just about all-every- thing in high school.

A six foot-four inch giant who moves with the speed of a scabbard, Lewis was dubbed "Big Thunder" by a local sports editor while he was prepping at Fremont-Ross High, Fremont, O.

He was named to the all-Ohio, all-star, all-Buckeye league, and high school all-America teams while running from a backfield slot. He was switched to end at MSC to capitalize on his height and speed.

But football is not his only forte.

"Big Thunder" pitched and played first base for Fremont in the Ohio State baseball league during the summer months, besides playing for the prep nine.

He was also a basketball stand-out, establishing records in in- dividual scoring in one game and total points scored for a single season.

"It was a little hard to make the switch," Lewis commented on his back-to-end conversion. "There were blocking assign- ments to learn as well as pass plays."

Against Indiana two Saturdays ago, Lewis grabbed a Tom Yewic pass to register his first touch- down for the Green and White.

"I got a feeling I never had before," the big sophomore said after the game. "It was certainly my biggest football thrill."

It was only his third collegiate grid game. Lewis first saw serv- ice against Iowa this year, and also got into the Minnesota tuss- le. But it was against the Hoos- iers that he got his longest test.

Student-Faculty Traffic Board Plan Discussed

Government Introduces New Project for Violators

By BETTY ZUEGE
Plans for a student-faculty Traffic Appeal Board were discussed at a Student Government coffee hour, Tuesday. The board, a new project of the government, would consist of one member of the Dean of Students Department, one member of the police administration department, and three students. An act up now, the board would hear cases appealed by traffic violators, but would have nothing to do with issuing or re-issuing permits.

Dean Tom King, present at the meeting, said that what disturbs him most about driving problems is that "95 per cent of the disciplinary cases on campus occur because someone had a car."

"Far too many become involved with the police and that is one big reason for not giving more permits," King stated.

To clarify the positions of the Dean of Students office and the campus police in regard to driving regulations, John W. Truitt, assistant to the dean of students, said that the dean's office is responsible for the welfare of the students but has no administrative connection with the campus police department.

"It is the police that issue and revoke permits," he said, stressing that the only connection between the two departments comes when the police refer a case to the dean's office as a discipline center. Dave Hyman, government president, said that the next step in forming the proposed board is to hold a conference between Truitt, Brantstadter, chief of campus police, Larry Heitsch, speaker of the Student Congress, and himself.

Sanatorium Reads X-Rays For College

Protection by the college of students' health got another boost this fall as the staff of the Ingham County Sanatorium undertook the reading of all X-ray films of new students.

Two consultations are held each week, consisting of four of the sanatorium staff doctors under the supervision of Dr. C. J. Stringer, head of the sanatorium. Dr. Clifford Menzies, head of Olin Memorial Health Center also sits in on the meetings.

The films were read in previous years by the staff of the Olin Memorial Health Center, according to Dr. Stringer. Two active cases among students have been discovered by the system since it began the first week of classes. Both have been hospitalized.

Over 2,000 films have been read so far, according to Dr. Menzies. Each case is checked on the small-sized films taken at the hospital and if doubt arises concerning the condition of the student, he is called back to the hospital for another X-ray on live-sized film. Then the doctors check the film again to confirm or disprove their suspicions.

Booklet Provides Answers to Many Senior Problems

The Office of the Registrar has announced that copies of the booklet "Answers to Commencement and Placement Questions" are now available in 106 Administration Building.

This booklet was passed out to seniors at registration. However, so many questions from fall term candidates for graduation have come in that extra copies of the pamphlet have been printed.

Fall term graduates will be especially interested in the answers to questions such as "Will I be able to participate in a commencement exercise?" and "When does class work end in the fall?"

Sang at Coronation Cathedral Choir Performs Friday

The St. Paul's Cathedral Choir of London will come to the Michigan State College campus as part of the Lecture-Concert series Friday at 8:30 p.m.

The choir will be presented in the college Auditorium in the concert "B" series, according to Dean S. E. Crowe, series director.

The St. Paul's Cathedral Choir is in America on tour for the first time in commemoration of the American Chapel in St. Paul's, London. The Chapel honors 28,000 American soldiers killed in Britain during World War II.

The choir, which sang at the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth last June, has many applicants and members have their own school at which they live and study for 40 weeks of the year. In that time, they sing more than 200 services, as well as attend a normal prep school.

Made up of 30 boy choristers, "Children of Paul's", the choir is including Carnegie Hall, New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and New Orleans in its current American tour. They will also tour parts of Canada.

History of the choir dates back to early England. Much of the tradition and melody of the country is displayed in their music which will include the "National Service of Preparation" at which the Archbishop of Canterbury presided at St. Paul's two days before the Coronation.

The choir will sing several selections they sang at the Coronation, among them the traditional

"The only word is 'Bueno!'"

Mr. Lawrence carries off his role of hard-boiled, hard-drinking and hard-boiled in a Douglas Fairbanks with his usual assurance. And he takes Captain Madhouse's endless intrigues with the ladies in glee.
