

Truman Reveals He Kept White to Help FBI Quest

AS CITY (AP)—Harry S. Truman said Monday he was of disloyalty charges against the late Harry White, but decided to retain him in the government in order not to endanger an FBI investigation.

Truman before a nationwide radio and TV audience to answer all the questions in the White case controversy. The President also leveled a charge of "shameful secrecy" against the present administration.

Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell who set off the first days ago in Chicago. He said White was known to him as a "spy" by the very people who appointed him to a sensitive and important position he ever held in the government.

Truman declared Brownell's charge was "false," and Brownell "must have known it was false at the time he was making it."

Taking up the White matter in detail, the former President said a lengthy FBI report on alleged subversive activities in this country was sent to the White House in December, 1945.

"The report contained many names of persons in and out of government service concerning whom there were then unverified accusations," Truman said.

"Among the many names mentioned, I now find, was that of Harry Dexter White, who had been in the Treasury Department for many years and who was at that time an assistant secretary of the Treasury."

He said as best he could determine, "I first learned of the accusations against White early in February, 1945, when an FBI report specifically discussing the activities of Harry Dexter White was brought to my attention."

He added the report "showed that serious accusations had been made against White, but it pointed out that it would be practically impossible to prove those charges with the evidence then at hand."

Truman said he sent a copy of the report to the late Fred Vinson, then secretary of the Treasury, and later discussed it with Secretary Vinson as well as with Secretary of State James Byrnes.

He added he learned White's long planned appointment as a U. S. member of the Board of Executive Directors of the International Monetary Fund had been confirmed by the Senate before he saw Byrnes and Vinson.

He said Vinson consulted with Atty. Gen. Tom Clark, now a Supreme Court justice, and other government officials at his (Truman's) request.

"When the results of these consultations were reported to me," Truman said, "the conclusion was reached that the appointment be allowed to take its normal course. The final responsibility for this decision, of course, was mine."

He said hundreds of FBI agents were investigating charges of subversion against many accused persons, and that "it was of the greatest importance to the nation that this investigation be continued in order to prove or disprove these charges and to determine if still other persons were implicated."

White died in 1948, shortly after he appeared before the House Un-American Activities Committee and denied charges of Communist ties. The charges were made by former Soviet agents Whittaker Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley.

Drinking Party Leads in Raid

Possible 150 Students Involved in 'Celebration'

AS CITY (AP)—A drinking party at Haslett Saturday night drew up to 150 Michigan State students are being investigated by the dean of students office, Dean Tom King said Monday.

King said he expects final police reports today on a raid made by Campus Police and Ingham County sheriff's officers on the Haslett American Legion Hall shortly after midnight Saturday.

Police reports of four cards bringing liquor into a dormitory also are being investigated, King said.

The raid followed complaints by Haslett residents of a noisy party at the hall, according to police. Both men and women students were found in the hall and on adjoining streets, police reported.

All apparent party-goers in the area were taken into the hall, and released after names and identifications were checked. They were permitted to go home after identification had been made, police said.

The 150 names taken at the party are being classified according to age and student status, according to King.

Action by the college is pending a full review of the facts, King said.

Students from the University of Michigan also were apparently involved in the raid, police reported. Their names will be forwarded to the dean of students at the U of M, King said.

Police report finding large quantities of gin, beer and whiskey in the possession of students.

Haslett Legion officials said the hall was rented for a dance. Whether an organization or an individual was responsible for organizing the party was impossible to determine immediately, police said. A fraternity is rumored to be involved.

College rules prohibit an organization from holding an unregistered party. King said no party had been registered with the dean of students office.

Two youths, one an MSC student, were arrested on drunk and disorderly charges. Chief Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Predmore reported.

The two youths pleaded guilty in Lansing Township Justice Court Monday morning before Justice George J. Mutter. They each paid $15 in fines and $4.30 in court costs.

Reports Hint Record For Solicitations

First general campus solicitations reports Monday night after annual Campus Chest Solicitations Day showed $816.17 collected by campus solicitors. Collections in dormitories, fraternities and married housing will be reported in Wednesday's State News.

It looks as though this will be a record year for Campus Chest. Ted Merriam, solicitations director said after results were tallied.

Early reports from Lloyd Mitting, head of married housing solicitations, indicated that more than $1000 will be collected at married housing alone. Total funds collected during Solicitations Day last year were $2,317.42.

We especially want to thank Jan W. Williams, Solicitations Day chairman, area captains and solicitors, Merriam said.

Predict 60 More Summer In Sight, Says Straggling Injun

The wind Monday was so strong it carried the scream of township fire department steam across campus. Today, however, it is expected to die down to a 15 to 20 m.p.h. breeze.

Fair skies and a high of 60 degrees are also predicted. Tonight the mercury will drop 20 degrees, but will rise again Wednesday to a high of 68. The sunbath will continue, the Weather Bureau promised.

120 Meet Them Harriers Win ICAA Crown

By JOHN CORNELLI
One hundred and twenty Spartan sports fans were on hand to greet the Michigan State cross-country team as it landed at the Capitol City airport after winning the ICAA championship in New York City for the second straight year.

It was the second successful defense of a major title for Coach Karl Schlademan's team in three days. Last Friday it won the Big 10 crown at Chicago for the third successive season.

Next Monday the Spartan harriers will defend the final crown on its 1953 triple crown when they host the best in the nation on the local course in the NCAA meet.

Michigan State scored a total of 82 points at New York's Van Cortlandt Park to barely edge past a surprising Pittsburgh team by two points. Penn State, pre-meet co-favorites with MSC, finished third, with 88.

Except for the final team tally, not much else is certain. With a tremendous number of individuals entered in the meet — 270 started the race — just keeping track of who was running was a job.

To complicate the matter, a number of schools had entered incomplete teams. In such cases, the representatives from these schools were allowed to run for individual honors, but were not counted in the team scoring. Their places in the actual finishings were taken by the next men in line when it came to the team totals.

Final official tabulations of the meet will not be available for two days, according to Schlademan.

"We had to leave for the Newark airport as soon as we finished," Schlademan said. "We didn't know until officials called us at the airport that we had won the meet. We didn't even know the official score, till we heard what the wire services had to say about the meet when we got home."

Schlademan, after being introduced to the welcoming crowd at the airport by Athletic Director Ralph Young, commented on the closeness of the victory.

"We managed to sneak by," he said. "The boys won because they wanted to. Last year we had lots of talent, and we won this year because we had lots of desire to win."

"I am very proud of this team," he added.

The crowd on hand to meet the team had been rallied to get by appeals made by phone and radio by the student government.

Some fraternities recessed their meetings so members could attend the rally.

For the record, the Spartan finishers placed in the following order: Capt. Lyle Garbe, John Cook, Dick Jarrett, Ron Barr and Ken Barby.

In actual placing, Garbe was 11th, Cook 10th, Jarrett 10th, Barr 20th and Barby 31st.

Congress, Council Seats Special Elections Slated for Thursday

Special elections for four Frosh-Soph Council seats and one Student Congress post will be held Thursday, Janice Dempsey, government elections commissioner, said Monday. Petitioning closed Monday at 5 p.m.

Vets Charter Clarified at Latest Parley

Members of the newly organized Veterans Association, whose charter was sent back to committee last week by student government, were told Monday night by government members that they would have no trouble if they keep on their toes.

The group called the Monday night meeting in the Union to discuss why their charter was turned down.

Government representatives, Carol Rafferty of East Lansing, and William Conrad and Robert Cox of Butterfield, requested permission to sit in on the meeting.

Besides the charter, an organizational platform was discussed, and a membership clause clarified by John Opream, chairman of the advisory committee.

Four MSC staff members, Harold Schlichting, Dr. Jack Elliott, Ilen Hickok, and Fremont Shull were introduced as possible advisers.

Frosh-Soph Group Sets First Session

A newly-formed Frosh-Soph Council will hold its first meeting tonight at 8:30 in 22 Union to acquire new members with council procedure and activities, according to Jack Strasser, sophomore class president.

Special elections will be held Thursday to fill vacant seats on the council. Later elections may also be held, depending on how many candidates are named after Thursday, Strasser said.

Probation To Have 'No Effect' Decision Due Next Weekend

CHICAGO (AP)—The majority of Big 10 athletic directors indicated Monday that Michigan State's probation will not influence their vote for the conference's representative in the Rose Bowl.

An Associated Press survey showed generally the directors will vote strictly for the football team they think is the Big 10's best and can make the finest showing against the Pacific Coast Conference entry at Pasadena next New Year's Day. They will not get involved in other factors, they said.

If Illinois defeats Northwestern Saturday, it will share the title with Michigan State, each with 5-1 records. Wisconsin also can become a co-champion by beating Minnesota but is ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl.

The Spartans ended their conference campaign with a 14-6 victory over Michigan last week. They finish their regular season against Marquette Saturday, and a victory would give them an overall mark of 8-1, their only loss in a 33-game stretch being 8-0 to Purdue.

An Illinois triumph would give the Illini an all-time record of 1 tie, 21-21 to Nebraska, 7 victories and 1 defeat, a 34-7 walloping by Wisconsin Saturday.

Thus, potentially, athletic directors will be voting for either Illinois or Michigan State.

Directors will wire their votes to Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson Saturday night, and his announcement is expected Sunday or Monday by the latest. He said in case of a 5-5 tie, votes will continue to be taken until the stalemate is broken.

The commissioner has no authority to break a tie himself.

Wilson reiterated Monday that Michigan State was making "very satisfactory progress" in clearing up the matter of an outside booster-sponsored fund called the Spartan Foundation Inc. Allegedly the organization operated for recruiting purposes without school supervision.

Wilson, however, would not say whether he will or will not recommend the probation be lifted during the Big 10 winter meeting in Chicago Dec. 9-12. Every indication is that Michigan State will get a clean bill of health, however.

Here are some of the directors' outlooks on the Rose Bowl vote:

Paul (Pash) Sheroff, Indiana — "Michigan State's probation will not influence my vote. We feel Michigan State is a consistent member and has played a consistent and hard-fought game and this should be taken into consideration."

Guy (Bud) Markey, Purdue — "I'm sure the Big 10 will vote to cast on the basis of the best team and the most representative team and without regard to the probation."

Bad Rule Hits Auditorium

The unfortunate incident stands out to dim the brightness of this past weekend.

On Friday night a board of "enthusiastic" boosters for Alma Mater probably succeeded in giving a world-famous speaker a very poor impression of Michigan State.

Miss Marguerite Higgins was literally driven from the stage of the Auditorium when a mob of students decided to hurry her up so that the Spartan Review could begin.

Again the heights of rudeness have been reached by MSC students.

The fault for this incident may not lie entirely at the doorstep of the crowd coming from the pep rally. Whoever tossed the doors of the Auditorium should certainly have taken measures to keep the hooting, milling students out until Miss Higgins had left the stage.

One wonders how the many renowned people who have performed here feel toward MSC after the many gross displays of disrespect, for this was just one more example of the state of our manners.

Much has been said in the past about the continual tardy arrivals of students to the Lecture-Concert events. Many more failures can be cited.

Half of the audience began to leave the Auditorium while the performers of the Sadlers' Wells Ballet Company were taking their well-deserved bows. At the opening of the ballet, it was appalling to see the number of students who did not have enough sense to stand while the national anthems were being played.

The rules of courtesy were again violated during the Sadlers' Wells performance when the audience insisted on clapping during the individual routines. Surely they must know that it is proper to withhold applause until the performers pause to receive it.

Perhaps the only solution to the consistent lack of manners on the part of the student body is a required course in common courtesy, training which should have been learned long before college days.

Letter To The Editor:

Lonesome Marines Write

To The Editor:
This letter comes from a lonely group of Marines. We are all in our boot camp training in California and would like to get a few girls up there to write to us. Most of us are from the upper part of Michigan and would like to be reminded of home again.

A few of our buddies are writing to a couple of girls at State and we thought maybe someone would write to us from there. There are six of us in a tent here.

We are all pretty good guys and have joined the corps because of no money to finish our college educations. We are all hoping that this letter will reach one of the sorority houses there. We thought that the girls might like to have sort of a pen relationship with us fellows.

We will be out of here in December. We might get to go home for Christmas and we may not. We know that we will be sent to Indo China as stand-by troops in case help is needed by the French. The Marine Corps have given their word that we would give one division to them.

We have been in here now for 15 weeks and it's mighty lonesome when no one writes to you. If it wouldn't be too much trouble, please see if someone couldn't write to us. We send our best wishes and regards to Michigan State College and its staff and people enrolled in the institution.

Truman

The speech the administration took, Truman said, "protected the public interest and security and, at the same time, provided the intensive FBI investigation that is program to go forward. No other course could have served both of these purposes."

He broadened his criticism to include the Eisenhower administration as a whole in his reference to McCarthyism. "I am not referring to the senator from Wisconsin," he pointed out, adding, "He is only important in that his name has taken on a dictionary meaning in the world."

In Washington it was reported that Brownell would have no comment on the Truman speech Monday night.

With uproar over the White case still going strong, a Senate Judiciary subcommittee began hearings to determine whether White tried to influence government policy along lines favored by Russia in the handling of millions of dollars worth of property seized from Germans and other aliens during World War II.

Sen. Eilanson (R-IL) undertook a one-man inquiry into this possible phase of White's background.

Meanwhile, the Senate internal security subcommittee under Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) as chairman set the stage for this afternoon's hearing of Atty. Gen. Brownell, who touched off the White case explosion in a Chicago speech 10 days ago.

Jenner's group also considered the possibility of questioning James M. McInerney, former Justice Department official who reportedly knew details of what Brownell calls "espionage activities" on the part of White.

The White House withdrew further from the case Monday with a statement from Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hargarty that President Eisenhower didn't see or approve Brownell's speech before the attorney general delivered it.

Eisenhower himself told a news conference last Wednesday that Brownell talked with him about the White affair and he told the attorney general to follow his own conscience in the matter.

Brownell, in his Chicago speech, said Truman promoted White from assistant treasury secretary to U. S. director of the International Monetary Fund in 1946 despite FBI reports which Brownell said established that White was a Soviet spy.

"After reviewing your case we're still in a stepping around here for a moment."

Commies Change Mind

Interviews Canceled With Red Prisoners

PANMUNJOM (A)—Without explanation, the Communist command suddenly called off repatriation interviews with 500 Chinese anti-Red prisoners Monday only a few hours before the talks were to begin.

The Red surprise move came after another overwhelming rejection Monday from shouting, screaming North Korean captives.

Of the 228 interviewed by Communist officers, only six chose to return to the Communist north. The rest signified—often at the top of their lungs—that they preferred to remain in Allied hands.

The Communist cancellation was handed to the Indian chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission at 8:30 a.m.

Nearby, Allied and Communist diplomats met to open subcommittee debate on arrangements for the Korean peace conference.

In the prisoner interviews, only 32 working days remain in the 90-day explanation period and it was considered virtually impossible for the Reds to talk to the 20,522 North Korean and Chinese prisoners who have not yet faced Red terms.

The Communists failed to finish talking to all the 471 North Koreans who turned out Monday. Only 236 were interviewed. The other 245 were sent back to their compound without facing the Red Korean officer teams.

Previously the Communists had talked for 10 days. They demanded permission to finish quizzing the remainder of a compound they had left incomplete.

The Reds abandoned this stand last Saturday. They suddenly complied with orders from the Indian custodial command to interview entire compounds at a single sitting.

"HOW DOES IT?" dials New York—and a building in Illinois answers

Shell Oil Co. wanted a small brick building in Illinois to be able to teletype automatically to a dispatcher in Radio City—more than 800 miles away. The building in Dennison, Ill., is one of four pumping stations on an important oil line. For efficiency, all these stations were to be controlled from New York. Bell System engineers were asked to help.

Now the New York dispatcher operates these stations by using an ordinary telephone dial. By dialing a number, he can make a pumping station automatically report back its meter readings by teletype! He also dials numbers to open and shut valves, start and stop pumps, and summon an attendant. It's done through Bell System facilities.

These remote-control installations represent salesmanship, research and engineering skill on the part of many Bell System people. That's the reason there are rewarding opportunities in many lines for college people in the telephone company. Why not check them with your Placement Office as your chance to start with the Bell System after graduation?

Beats Phi Delt, Wins Fraternity Title

Victors Enter Round-Robin With 12-6 Win

By GENE BUONAUBO

The 1953 Fraternity intramural football championship went to Psi Upsilon Monday night as it squeezed past Phi Delta Theta by a 12-6 count.

In winning the title, Psi Upsilon advances into the All-College Round-Robin. The champs encounter the JFU, winner of the Independent League crown, tonight.

Psi Upsilon scored the initial touchdown of the game in the opening minutes of play when Bill Doherty intercepted a pass and scampered over.

Bill Jonson crossed the goal line with the winners' second TD of the contest after pulling in an aerial from Jack Nell. The attempt for the conversion was stopped for the second consecutive time by Phi Delt.

In the third period Phi Delt came up with its lone tally on a series of short passes and laterals.

West Shaw 3, 19; Butterfield 5, 13. Arnie Rottman's long pass to Al Beers in the third quarter broke a 13-13 deadlock as West Shaw 3 won its opening game of the All-College Round-Robin by defeating Butterfield 5, 19-13.

Tom Lynn figured in West Shaw's first two touchdowns. He crossed the goal after intercepting a pass for the first score and caught an aerial from Rottman for the other.

Johnny Krogman's passes to Joe Basko and Bob Jenilo accounted for both Butterfield tallies.

Butterfield 5 still has a chance to get into the All-College Finals. It plays its second Round Robin encounter tonight against Snyder 12.

Snyder 12, 38; Phillips 4, 6. Snyder 12 met little resistance as it captured the Snyder-Phillips dormitory title by romping over Phillips 4, 38-6.

Howie Scheppeler was the star of the game as he flipped three touchdown passes.

The last bare knuckle championship fight was fought in Richmond, Miss., July 8, 1899. John L. Sullivan defeated Jake Kilrain in 75 rounds.

number 60 trots out for the toss-up to make a good football captain, however, and Doherty has all the requisites.

"He's a real leader," Coach Biggie Munn has said many times. "He's got lots of heart, but best of all, he never lets up."

One of the biggest thrills of his career came just two weeks ago against the Spartans of Oregon State. Playing on defense before this year, Doherty had never been presented with such chance to score a touchdown.

Against the Braves, he caught two touchdown passes, but only one counted. The one that counted was his first six-pointer in college competition.

Snyder's victory against Marquette, a team more than a lobby nation, was the last time Snyder had a possible Rose Bowl appearance.

'Mural Sideline'

The availability of the intramural individual championship was stressed Monday by IM Director Frank Beeman.

Anyone eligible to participate in 'mural sports' is also eligible for this award. Points are awarded each participant in each sport. The man with the most accumulated points at the end of the year is awarded a sweater with "Intramural Individual Champ" written on it.

Last year's champ was Sam Mehl.

Wells Out of Olin, May Play in Finale

By RON SMITH

The Long Wait. That's what Michigan State's green shirters faced Monday as Coach Biggie Munn started grooming them for the season finale against Marquette.

Billy Wells, regular right halfback, watched Monday's signal drill session from the sidelines. Wells missed the Michigan game, which the Spartans won Saturday for their fifth conference victory.

Wells said that he was released from Olin Memorial Hospital at noon Monday. The Chicago center spent a week in the clinic with labor pneumonia.

"I'll be glad to get back out there," Wells said. The stocky senior said he expected to be in uniform today for practice.

With their first Big 10 season already in the book, the Spartans can do no worse than finish with a share of the title with Illinois and Wisconsin.

A Rose Bowl bid may hang in the balance of next Saturday's action between the Illini and Northwestern, and a part of the conference crown goes into the Badger-Minnesota tangle.

Should both Illinois and Wisconsin drop their games, the Spartans would rule the Big 10 all alone, and probably be sent to the Rose Bowl.

There has been much speculation about who will represent the Big 10 in the New Year's Day classic in case of a tie in the Big 10.

Wisconsin is ineligible to return, but Illinois can gain this year. The Illini have already won twice in the Pasadena tussle.

The probation slapped on the Green and White is also a prime factor in the speculation. Just how much the probation will affect the voting is indeterminate.

A "wait and see" policy appears to be the best solution to the problem.

No serious injuries were reported Monday, with only the always-present bumps and bruises getting any special attention.

In slipping past Michigan, 14-6, the Spartans finished with a 5-1 conference record, and a scoring total of 131 points, compared to 50 points for the opposition. Both marks are tops in the Big 10.

All that remains for the Spartans is Marquette—and Munn was quick to tell his gridders that the Hilltoppers are no soft touch.

Two years ago the "Toppers" almost upset MSC, but Wells pulled the game out of the fire with a 67-yard run.

Marquette will carry a 6-2-1 record into the tilt.

J. Paul Shedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flashed His Finger-Nail Test

"You hat's no joke" belittled Shedy's girl. "Those cowlicks... Why not take the bull by the horns and get yourself some Cream-Oil, America's favorite hair tonic? Keeps hair combed and greasy. Makes you look cut-dy. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Relieves annoying dryness. Contains Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. I won't wonder why you start using it heifer day." Paul was utterly stunned, so he bought some Wildroot Cream-Oil for just 29¢. He told his girl the good news and now they're hitched for life. So just steer yourself down to any toilet goods counter for a bottle or handy tube. And remember to ex your barber for Wildroot Cream-Oil too. You'll be the cream of the campus—and that's no bull.
