Ag Board Requests New School Name

Administrative Officials Favor Change to 'MSU'

The State Board of Agriculture sent a request Friday to the state legislature and Gov. G. Mennen Williams asking that MSC be officially named Michigan State University.

"Michigan State College is a misleading name," the board members said. "We are really a university in that there are many colleges involved in the organization."

Detroit Bans High School Night Games

Stabbing Prompts Severe Action

By DONN SHELTON
Stabbing of a Detroit high school basketball player Friday night has resulted in the abandonment of night athletic contests in Detroit's Metropolitan League.

School Supt. Arthur Dondineau's action in abolishing night basketball and football games came after a gang of 30 to 50 youths attacked Mackenzie High School's center, Ross A. DeBoskey and two other students following a basketball game Friday night between Mackenzie and Central.

DeBoskey was stabbed in the back with an ice pick as he left the Central gymnasium. The pick punctured his lung. He is in critical condition in Detroit's Receiving Hospital, but prompt action saved him from death, officials stated.

Dondineau announced his decision Saturday saying it was "reached with great reluctance." The idea of banning night games as an answer to rowdiness is not new in Detroit. It was proposed during the 1952 football season following several near-tragedies after night grid contests.

Dondineau said the high school principals had agreed that another serious incident would mean discontinuance of after-dark games. Dondineau said it is expected the Metro League will experience financial difficulties as a result of the action.

The decision will also be felt by the league's athletes who looked forward to the games as a treat on the schedule he said.

The panel discussion will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the club room.

Biggie Munn to Replace Young

Head Coach Position Goes To Daugherty

Board Makes Change Official

By CHUCK MILLER
It's official. The State Board of Agriculture announced at its meeting Friday the appointment of Biggie Munn to the post of Athletic Director, replacing the retiring Ralph Young.

After many weeks of rumors, the switch went off as expected with the appointment of former line coach Duffy Daugherty as the new head coach.

Daugherty took over as head coach Friday. However, Munn will not move into his new office until July 1, when Young resigns.

The possibility of Munn's appointment was discussed long before the Rose Bowl game and there were many who thought that the New Year's Day classic would be a fitting climax to Munn's long and successful coaching career.

He compiled a phenomenal record while at the reins of Michigan State's football teams, winning 54, losing only nine and tying twice.

Munn and Daugherty were guests at Bob Shackleton's "Sports Whirl" program telecast over WKAR-TV Friday evening for the first time.

The men congratulated each other on their new appointments and Munn wished Daugherty good luck in the 1954 campaign.

Duffy said that he hopes he has the foresight to meet the changing situations such as Munn has had to face. He added that he plans to go on with the Munn system of offense.

"Biggie left me with a good squad and we will lose only the best," Munn said.

5 Here Midwest Hit By Sweeping Cold Wave

With the temperature reaching a low of five below Sunday night and a high of 13 degrees today, Spartans will be expected to contend with the coldest weather this winter.

The temperature has dipped below zero to new lows for this winter in much of the Midwest as a result of a cold wave, which moved across the country toward New England Sunday.

The frigid air brought readings of as low as -40 at International Falls, Minn. Chicago had its coldest day on record since Dec. 17, 1951, when the temperature reached Sunday's seven below.

A -25 degree mercury reading at Minneapolis-St. Paul set a new low for Jan. 17, equalling the former record of -21 set in 1940 and 1952.

Minneapolis, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Indiana, North Dakota, Nebraska and Montana all reported below zero readings.

Men of Hedrick Find New Homes, Books

Wrecking Company to Raze Burned-Out Co-op House

Two weeks after the fire which left them homeless, the 26 Hedrick House men have found living quarters, clothes, books and other supplies. Wreckage of their co-op house still remains to be torn down.

The men have decided to get a wrecking company to do the job rather than try it themselves.

There is no East Lansing ordinance requiring them to do the dismantling themselves, as they thought, East Lansing police said.

The proposal to have "Help Week" crews and other volunteers aid the men was abandoned because of personal insurance and danger to inexperienced workers, according to Carol Prueck, a committee chairman of Christian Student Fellowship, which sponsored a drive to help the men.

At present, most of the men are living in college quarters. Several are in other co-ops, but the group is looking for another house.

The East Lansing Merchants Association arranged for the men to get discounts on clothing at a local store and purchase blankets at discount from Detroit. Books have been obtained through lists distributed to living units by CEF workers, and a CEF-sponsored square dance raised $60.

No final estimate has been made on the damage, which was attributed to an over-heated furnace Jan. 2.

Other groups, such as the gymnastic, trampoline and tumbling teams, will be featured at forthcoming games, according to Dave Hyman, Student Government president.

A special committee headed by Bill Wynn, Highland Park, Ill. sophomore, has been organized to plan an informal get-together for students, the basketball team and coaches.

It will probably be held in the United Ballroom with the Activities Band and a jazz band providing the music, Hyman said.

Officials Participate WKAR-TV Debut

Education Banquet Climaxes Program Hours Friday

By ANN HOOLOTHLIN
The MSC educational television station, first of its kind in the state, made its debut at a dedication banquet and ceremony climaxed nine hours of programs.

Part of the dedication program in the WKAR-TV studios were Gov. G. Mennen Williams, state and federal officials, leaders from five educational and television stations, city and school officials from Lansing and East Lansing and representatives of state and local organizations.

In the ceremony at the MSC Men's Club, 150 guests were seated at tables. A Marine color guard, led by Lt. John A. Hannah, played at the dedication banquet. The purpose of Michigan State College when established 100 years ago was to help the people of Michigan learn to live better and to learn to enjoy life.

Telecasting is the greatest tool ever known to carry out the program for all the people.

C. Doerfer of the Communications Commission spoke at the banquet and dedication ceremony. He told officials that television is the greatest tool ever known to carry out the program for all the people.

Sen. Homer Ferguson, National Broadcasting Company and Iowa State College, spoke in educational television.

More than 250 television officials from the first day's program from the auditorium and Center.

Approximately 250 to 300 persons attended the WKAR-TV debut held Saturday and Sunday evenings, according to C. Davis, operation manager.

Union Board Sets Try-Outs

Union Board and Junior Council will begin auditions for the J-Hop intermission and Union Board Variety Show and will start a bridge instruction series this week.

J-Hop and Variety Show try-outs will be combined so that talent can audition for both at once. The try-outs are scheduled for tonight through Thursday from 7 to 10 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

Entertainers who previously auditioned with Union Board or the Junior Council at WKAR-TV are asked to audition. The J-Hop try-outs will be Feb. 11 and 12 and the Variety Show during Union Board week, March 1.

Bridge instruction will begin on Feb. 22 and continue through the end of the year. The try-outs are held in the Union Ballroom.

Time for Another Change?

Those old "growin' pains" are catching up with Michigan State College again.

With its 100th birthday just around the corner, the college may be in for a new name. A State Board of Agriculture request sent Friday to the Legislature and Gov. Romney has officially asked that the "C" in MSC become

Michigan State University? It has been only 29 years since the college had its last name changing. Many old-timers still haven't got out of the habit of calling it Michigan Agricultural College. Now the board feels that it's again time for a change.

The proposed alteration can be viewed from any number of viewpoints, all of which must be considered and carefully weighed before a quick and unhesitating adoption of such an important change.

On the positive side, the Board of Agriculture is absolutely on solid ground in its claim that the college's rapid and phenomenal growth has earned it the status of a university. By definition, a college is more or less limited to one branch of learning, although popular use is disproving this more and more, and a university consists of many colleges in which a variety of subjects is taught.

There can be little doubt that MSC falls into the latter category. As one of the growing schools in the nation, it has earned university status and official recognition as such is deserved. Such progress would be especially gratifying in conjunction with the long-awaited Centennial Jubilee.

But the issue is a two-edged sword. Opponents of the name change will undoubtedly come up with considerable fuel for argument. The most obvious, of course, would be the great amount of physical confusion engendered by the sudden switch. College property and articles would have to be replaced to account for the misplaced initial. And don't forget "MSC Shadows."

Another obvious flaw: many sections of the country that have only recently come to realize the differentiation between East Lansing and Ann Arbor might fall into confusion over just which school is where. Would it be a setback to the college's rising fame?

Other difficulties could and probably would arise. But the affirmative attitude of the college administration—and Pres. John A. Hannah in particular—indicates that there is plenty of solid reason for the change.

Final disposition of the request will lie with the State Legislature, which must pass a law to change the name. Before it is decided, in one way or another, considerable debate will probably ensue.

You, as students, have every right to "get in the act." If the Legislature is unsure of popular opinion on the planned change, student viewpoint must assuredly be taken into consideration.

It's your college. Write the State News and tell us how you feel.

At Smith College Sophomores Leading the Cut Field

(ACP) — Among students at Smith College, sophomores are the most prone to cut classes. A recent poll showed 58 per cent of the sophs cut at least once a week, and for three main reasons: Studying for exams, dull classes and out-of-town week-ends that conflict with Saturday classes.

Commented the Sophian, student newspaper: "The reasons or excuses for missing classes reveal neither maturity nor responsibility."

Letters to the Editor Beard Feud Rages-- Let's Try a Snood

To the Editor:

Re: Words about Whiskers. Dear Name Withheld:

I do not intend to argue the pros and cons of beards in the cafeterias. But, may I humbly suggest that a person of your mentality consider his words before writing another letter to the editor. I believe general condemnation of beards, foresters and the Shindig was a bit hasty. Because a person is interested enough in an activity to grow a beard does not mean that he should be in the Army.

The fact that a person shows interest in activities relative to his chosen profession, indicates that he may make a better job of it than an ivory tower 4-painter.

Maybe you believe that the sophisticated student with six suits and a 1.5 average is better material for a diploma. Your rash generalizations seem to indicate that you might make a good infantryman yourself.

As for the Shindig, you'd be surprised at the number of "model" college students who have a darned good time there. If you are curious, purely in the interest of science, to find out, I'll buy you a ticket.

Harvey Vorstrog
(An Ignorant Forester)

To the Editor:

To the lady (or was it a gentleman?) who so vigorously attacked the forester's beards, we extend an invitation to the Shindig. If you would like us to dig you up a bearded date, contact Emil Falasky, 122 Snyder Hall.

An Open Letter to Biggie Munn

Dear Biggie:

You've heard about mixed emotion.

Well, that's what some of us feel right now about your new job. Congratulations, coach. It's a step up the ladder and one that you certainly deserve.

But there are more than a few of us who will miss your familiar figure on the Macklin Field sidelines next year. It seems hard to believe that seven years have gone so quickly. Can that first day—that 55-0 thing you joke about so often—really be that far in the past?

Enough has been said about your 54-9-2 record. It's brilliant and certainly few can hold up a mark with similar pride. But those are the sort of things we'll leave to the statisticians, the boys with the slide rules.

You've done more than just win ball games, Biggie. Your college, your student body, this state are proud of what you have done to bring MSC so far out into the limelight of success and recognition.

We know that your new job will give you an opportunity to further that work. And we're glad. We also know that you've left the team reins in capable hands. Duffy Daugherty will keep up your record, we're sure.

But, just for old time's sake, so long and it's been wonderful. Good luck, coach.

Wingers Lose in Lost Second; Tankers Drop Second

By GARE BOONAUBO

A basketball game in the last second of play has predominantly this season in the Big 10 Conference. Michigan's goal with only a second remaining in the game a 62-63 deadlock as the University of Michigan team edged Michigan State, 64-62, in a game at Ann Arbor.

Michigan State and Michigan both won and dropped in the final second of the campaign. The Wolverines led 62-60 at set-back of powerful Indiana, but Illinois, the Spartans, McCoy sank a free throw his teammates a 61-

Spartans Set Three Dual Meet Records

By BOB KOSLA

Placing first in seven of 10 events and taking second place in every event, Michigan State's swimming team submerged Wisconsin, 66-57, in a dual meet before a city crowd in Jenison Pool Saturday afternoon.

Three dual meet records were shattered by Coach Charles McCaffree's powerful tank crew as the Spartans notched their second straight win of the season.

French Poganski, John Sulek and Charles Sulek were the pace setters in the 100-yard freestyle as they breezed through the 200-yard medley relay in 5:08.5, setting the old mark of 5:23.2 set by USC in 1945.

Tom Fayette, Grand Rapids Junior whom McCaffree has labeled as an outstanding sprinter, added to his rapidly growing string of swim honors by striking the 50-yard free style event in the record time of 23.1 seconds. Fayette's performance replaces James Richards' 24.3 mark set in 1947.

Baldwin, Buffalo, N. Y. senior, posted the third dual meet record of the afternoon by winning the 100-yard free style in 53.2 seconds, wiping out the old record of 58.5 set in 1945 by George Hoogerhyck.

Perhaps the outstanding performer against the Spartans was Jack Beattie, in his second try at Big Ten competition, the Big Ten sophomore took first place in both the 200-yard and 400-yard free style events to lead his teammates in scoring with 16 points. Beattie's times in the 200 and 400 were 3:14.5 and 5:56.9 respectively.

Bruce Aldrich and Dudeck registered the other two first places for State. Aldrich, veteran tankster from Lansing, was checked at 1:36.8 in the 150-yard individual medley and also finished second behind Dudeck in the 225-yard breast stroke. Dudeck's winning time was 3:31.4.

In the diving event, Rollin Bestor, Wisconsin captain, scored 285.55 points in seven dives for top honors. John Hoaglund won the 220-yard back stroke in 2:16.9. Bob and Ray Kolbe, twin brothers; Bob Kevetter, and Hoaglund, proved to be Coach John C. Hickman's winning combination in the 400-yard free style relay, winning in 8:46.7.

Since 1947, McCaffree's teams have accumulated a great dual meet record, boasting victories in 26 of 68 matches.

Freshmen Surprise Upsets Mark Boxing Tryouts

By ED SLOBODNIK

Upset wins by freshmen Johnny Butler and Andy Ronie over varsity men Max Jozwiak and John Reilly proved the big surprise of the nine-hour All-Varsity Boxing Tourney Saturday before 400 fight fans at Jenison Fieldhouse.

The two-day tourney tabbed the following boxers for tentative starting varsity berths in nine weight divisions: Shedd Smith, 119 pounds; Choken Maekawa, 125 pounds; Jozwiak, 132 pounds; Bob Mullins, 139 pounds; Herb Odum, 147 pounds; Georgia Sianni, 154 pounds; Tom Hickey, 163 pounds; Bill Greenway, 178 pounds; and Reilly, heavyweight.

Butler, NAAU 132 pound boxing champ from Grand Rapids, used an assortment of solid jab and hard, effective blows to score a TKO win over Jozwiak with 41 seconds gone in the second round of their scheduled three-rounder.

Scoring with frequent hooks and crosses to the head and body, Detroit's Ronie carried the fight throughout to take a unanimous decision over varsity heavyweight Reilly.

Tom Hickey, the Spartan's NCAA middleweight champion, scored a game opponent in Billy Raynes, Attles, Indiana freshman. Hickey got the unanimous nod mainly on the strength of his more solid punching and ring savvy. The best new boxers in good exchange throughout.

After landing solid jabs to the chin and mid-section for two rounds, Hawaii's Choken Maekawa opened up in the third with a flurry of head and body blows to take a unanimous decision over Bob Jemilo, Chicago freshman, in their 125-pound bout.

In a well-matched, free-swinging 119 pound bout, Shedd Smith, Minneapolis sophomore, won a split decision over freshman Bob Foudras.

State Loses Mat Opener To Pitt, 21-9

Casalichio Takes Only Spartan Win

Michigan State wrestlers won only one bout as they lost their season's opener to Pittsburgh Saturday, 21-9.

A win by Ed Casalichio in the 137-pound class netted State five points. The other Spartan points came from draws by Bob Hoke and Vito Perrone.

The Spartan wrestlers meet Iowa today on the road before returning home.

Saturday's results: 123-pound—Hugh Peery (Pitt) pinned Don Phillips. Time—6:23. 130-pound—Ron Kurtz (Pitt) dec. Jim Sinadinos, 3-2.

Any student interested in working on the State News sport staff is invited to come up to the office, located on the third floor of the Union Building, between 1 and 4 this afternoon. It is not necessary to be a journalism major.

137-pound—Ed Casalichio (MSC) pinned Harold Miller. Time—5:29. 147-pound—George Mathews (Pitt) dec. Bill Tambo, 3-0. 157-pound—Bob Hoke (MSC) drew with Charles Uram, 1-1. 167-pound—Ed DeWitt (Pitt) dec. Ted Lenox, 4-0. 177-pound—Vito Perrone (MSC) drew with Joe Solomon, 3-3. Heavyweight—Harold Hunter (Pitt) dec. Dick Abraham, 3-1.

Pfeil Leads Spartans Wayne, U. of D. Beat Fencers, 16-11, 14-13

Spartan fencers beat Wayne in the sabre, 7-2, and Detroit in the epee, 7-2 but lost close matches in other events to place third in the season's opening triangular meet Saturday at the University of Detroit's Memorial Fieldhouse.

Wayne's score was 16-11, and Detroit topped the Spartans, 14-13.

Wayne won the most bouts on the strength of Bob Starnes' top individual performance. Starnes won all six of his bouts in the epee division.

Dick Pfeil, Niles senior, led the Spartans in their sabre conquest of Wayne with wins in three bouts. Ralph Powell, of Hazel Park, and Grand Rapids' Gunars Ejups aided the Spartans cause with two wins each.

In the epee events against Detroit, Jack Moffett, Kalamazoo senior, took three bouts, and Ray Clark, Grand Point sophomore,
