Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov evidently is attemptto set a special trap for the United States in the Geneconference on Far Eastern questions which epons April

The Soviet and world Communist press has been building up the Geneva conference to a fare-thee-well, as if the decision to meet was a signal victory for Soviet diplomacy.

That was not necessarily so.

But most asterorthy is the fact that the Mossowdirected gress is building up papalar hopes that the Goneva talks of Britain, France, Bod China, the U.S.S.R. and the United States will bring positive results in the direction of world peace.

Pravda, for example, a few days before Molotov's blast of last Friday, said the decision to summon the conference was greeted with "feelings of special actisfaction in all countries of the world." The Geneva special, Prayda said, "is viewed as an aid to final settlement of the Korean question," and it added that the conferees also would "consider the question of restoration of peace in Indechina." All this, Pravda went on, demonstrated the "consistent correctness of the Soviet government position" that nothing could be accomplished in the way of world peace without the participation of Red China.

intov elaborated on the thome. He conten monter emerated in the ineme, the contended the Berlin four-power conference was worthwhile because it led to the Geneva meeting. He want on to say the chaices of spitling the long Indechina war depended on the French government and "the position of the U.S.A., which is increasingly interdering in the affairs of indechine"

It seems plain that Molotov is seeking to build up t hopes, particularly among the French who are so weary of their Indochina war. He then may expect to maneuver the Geneva talks in such a way that their collapse can be blamed solely upon the United States.

Geneva will be a propaganda battleground. If the talks collapse completely, the Soviet Union wants to be in a position to point the finger of blame at Washington.
