Coeds Honored At Ceremony

Hannah Speaks at Annual Lantern Night Program

By LOUIS GROPP

With lanterns swinging, MSC coeds left the Union Terrace Sunday evening and proceeded around Circle Drive observing Lantern Night, a unique tradition at MSC for the past quarter of a century.

Standing on the patio of President John A. Hannah's home, Doris Humes, Mortar Board president and mistress of ceremonies, greeted the coeds as they arrived at the drive beside Cowles House.

The light, a symbol of goodness long associated with womanhood, is the true significance of Lantern Night, said President John A. Hannah as he spoke to the coeds and their friends.

The honoring of outstanding senior coeds and the passing down of responsibility from the graduating seniors have only a part in the ceremony, Pres. Hannah said.

Mary Ellen Weigle, past Activities Board president and Justine Ray, past Judiciary Board president of AWS pinned their presidents' pins on their successors, Gabrielle Muehling and Ann Martineau.

Mortar Board's first scholarship was awarded to Anne Janochka, Rochester junior.

Officers for next year's Mortar Board were announced by Miss Humes. Joan Petrunick will be president, Elaine Jennings, vice president, Gene Armstrong, secretary and Sally Garvin, treasurer.

New Tower Guard officers, introduced by Carol Lewis, past president, are president, Margaret Foster, vice president, Janet Berry, secretary, Judy Ast and treasurer, Mary Irwin.

The Gamma Phi Beta's, winners of the Sorority Sing, and the Alpha Gamma Delta's, runners-up in the Sing, sang at the ceremony.

A white carnation and note was presented by Mrs. John Hannah to each of the 50 outstanding senior coeds chosen by Mortar Board. Included in the list of outstanding senior coeds were Winifred Anderson, Dearborn, Marie Buck, Scotia, N. Y., Elizabeth Burt, Hudson, Virginia Carter, Fosterio, Ohio, Alicia Cuminsky, Birmingham, Jean Carahan and Anna Cox, Clare.

Also honored were Jackie DeHaas, Marquette; Betty Ex-Meek, Polly Klingensmith, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Judith Mathews, Grand Rapids; Barbara McInnis, Royal Oak; Delores Meyer, Detroit; Elizabeth Peabody, Canandaigua, N. Y.; and Mary Plumb, Jackson.

Others were Carol Betteloff Bessinger, Nancy Ward Gillen, Niles, Joan House, Kay Anderson Laird, Battle Creek, Foy McLellan, Jean McClure, Chelsea, Joy Pomerey.

Prof. Harold Skansen of the engineering drawing department was elected secretary-treasurer of the engineering drawing division of the American Society of Engineering Educators Friday.

Deadline Extended for Village Jobs

Candidates Apply For Council Posts

Petitioning has been extended until 5 p.m. today for councilmen in Districts 3, 4 and 12 of the newly-formed Spartan Village Council, governing body of Spartan Village. The deadline was extended due to lack of petitions in the three districts.

The petitions must be turned in at the Married Housing Office on Shaw Lane with 25 signatures from people within these districts. Elections will be held from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday.

District 3 includes the 300 block on Shaw Lane, the 700 block on Chestnut Road, and the even numbers of the 800 block on Chestnut Road.

District 4 covers the 700 and 800 blocks on Birch Road and Districts 12 includes the odd numbers in the 100, 200, 300 and 400 blocks on Hickory Lane.

At the present time elections will be held for Districts 1, 2, 6, and 8, the only districts with two or more candidates.

Candidates for District 1 are council positions are Mrs. Jean M. Borsanis, Merlin K. Reeds and George Dimmick.

District 2 candidates are El Kennedy and John Anderson, Robert E. Russell and Art Jarvis will run in District 4.

Gene V. Elliott and Jack Grounds are candidates for District 8. Automatically seated are Patrick Callahan, District 5; Lee E. Young, 7; Joseph Sundell, 9; Harry H. Plymale, 10; Cletus W. Friend, 11; and Dennis Rochi, 13.

Promenade, Anyone?

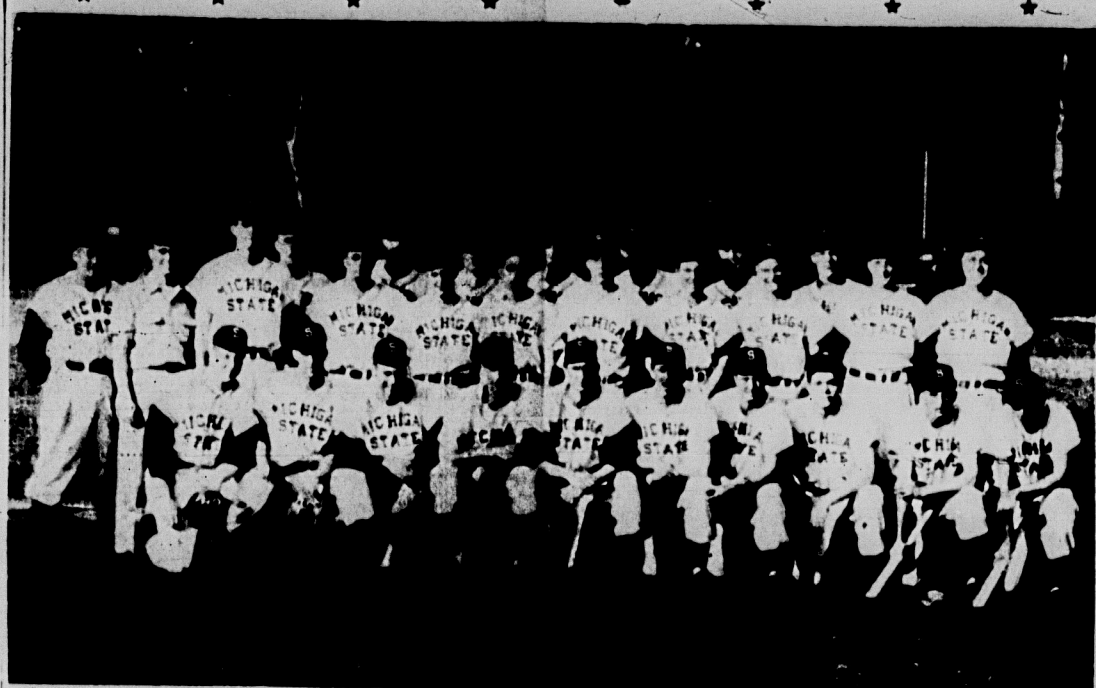

Ladies, Gents Swing for Eight O'Clocks

By DICK LEHMAN

Spartans who have a rough time croaking a "Hello" to their roommates at 8 a.m. may be surprised to learn that some students are calling square dances at that hour every Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

The student-callers learn the "how's and why's" of the promenade, swing and other square-dance figures in a course taught by Margaret McKeane, assistant professor of women's physical education.

Mrs. McKeane said students who are really eager to learn to call don't object to the early hour. When the course was first taught student-callers were so enthusiastic that they met at 7:30 a.m., she explained. "Gents" outnumber the ladies in the class 15 to nine. Mrs. McKeane says men have a calling advantage coeds lack—they have deeper, more pleasant voices and the ability to project clearly on high tones. Most students take the course

Rallies Bring MSC First Diamond Title

Sweep Over Ohio State Eliminates Badgers, Bucks

By ED SLOBODNIK

The Spartans are Big 10 baseball champs! Michigan State's baseball team followed the lead of the football and cross-country teams by winning its first Western Conference crown here Saturday.

And, not unlike the harriers and gridders who took Big 10 titles earlier this school year, the Kobsmen combined speed with eleventh-hour tactics to turn the trick.

After beating Indiana, 5-2, Friday, the Spartans grabbed the crown with a twin sweep of their doubleheader with Ohio State Saturday, 6-4 and 6-5.

Bob Powell's eighth inning bloop single, in the scheduled seven-inning second game, scored Dan Brown with the tie-breaking and title-earning run, after George Smith's daring base-running in the seventh had helped erase a 5-3 Buckeye lead, sending the game into overtime.

Bob Williams, substitute first baseman from Adrian, provided the hitting punch in the nightcap, with two home runs.

Friday, Bud Erickson put the Spartans on the glory road with his fifth straight Big 10 win, limiting the Hoosiers to just eight scattered hits.

But the game ended on a sour note when a foul tip on the next to the last pitch of the day, broke catcher Tom Yewic's right index finger.

Yewic, who quarterbacked the Spartans to the national football championship in 1952 and the Big 10 title and Rose Bowl win last season, was replaced by Brown in Saturday's games.

Sophomore Ed Hobaugh, who scored his fourth consecutive conference win in Saturday's opener, limited the Buckeye's to just five safeties.

The Spartans knocked Buckeye ace Paul Ebert out of the box with a four-run burst in the seventh. Michigan State tagged Ebert for 13 hits, handing him his first loss of the season.

Dick Idzkowski, Walt Godfrey, and Bill Mansfield divided mound chores in the second game.

Wisconsin also swept its three games over the weekend. Had the Spartans lost their second game to Ohio State, Michigan State and Wisconsin would have tied for the title.

As it was, the Spartans ended the season with an 11-2 record for an .816 percentage, while the Badgers wound up with a 10-3 count and a percentage of .769.

In the Indiana game and in Saturday's first game, the Spartans ran into first inning bugaboos, allowing their opponents two runs to start off each game.

Indiana broke in front when the first four men to face Erickson singled before he could get three men out.

The Spartans tied it up in the second on Yewic's single and centerfielder Jack Risch's 360-foot home run over the left field fence.

Michigan State went ahead to stay in the third, when Chuck Mathews opened with a long triple to right-centerfield. He scored on John Matsock's infield out.

With two out in the fifth, Matsock singled to center and went to third when the Hoosier's centerfielder Pat Lind juggled the ball. Jim Sack singled Matsock in with the Spartans fourth run.

Michigan State got its final run on a leadoff home run by Brown in the sixth. Brown hit the first pitch over the right field fence.

Ohio State also jumped off to a two run lead in the first inning of Saturday's opener on a single, a fielder's choice, two errors, and a double.

They held a 2-0 lead until the fourth when the Spartans broke into the scoring column.

After two were out, Risch got the second of his four singles, a drive to center. He stole second, then scored on Smith's Texas League single to right.

The Spartans tied it up in the fifth when Matsock led off with a triple to right-center and scored on a Buckeye error by shortstop Howard Cassidy.

Singles by Sack, Ray Collard; Risch, Smith, and Hobaugh, and Brown's sacrifice along with two Buckeye errors, netted the Spartans a four-run seventh inning.

Hobaugh, after allowing just one hit since the first inning, weakened in the ninth and gave up two straight singles.

Chuck Gorman relieved him, but the Buckeye's managed to score two runs to make the final score read: MSC 6, OSU 4.

The pesky Buckeyes grabbed a two run lead in the second inning of the nightcap on two hits and two Spartan errors.

In the Spartan half of the second, Williams teed off with the first of his two bases-empty homers, a long 100-foot drive over the centerfield wall.

Michigan State tied it up in the third when Smith led off with a triple and came home on Sack's single.

Petitioning Continues For Council

Petitions for positions on the newly-formed sophomore executive committee may be obtained in the student government office, third floor Union, until Tuesday. The office is open from 2 to 5 p.m. daily.

Deadline for turning in the petitions is Tuesday night, according to Howard James, student-elected. They must be returned to the government office.

Purpose of the new committee, to consist of six students and the sophomore class officers, is to act as an advisory body to the Fresh-Soph Council and encourage class spirit. The six committee members automatically will become members of Fresh-Soph Council.

Candidates must be second or third term freshmen at the time of application, James said. Eligible applicants will be interviewed by sophomore executives Tuesday night.

They will be chosen on the basis of activities, reasons for petitioning and ideas for class functions, he explained.

Quality Control Group Elects Baten

Dr. William D. Baten, Agricultural Experiment Station statistician and professor of mathematics, has been elected vice-president of the Michigan Section of the American Society for Quality Control for next year.

For the past two years Dr. Baten has been a director of the section, and for the past three years has been invited to be one of the speakers on the program of the forum of the section. During the fall of each year he offers a course, quality control by statistical methods, for the personnel in industries within 50 miles of East Lansing.

Canoeing, Tennis, Summertime Gets Underway In East Acres

Loks like summer is here at last with a high of 75 degrees forecast for the second straight day. The morning's low, however, will be a chilly 45, with partly cloudy skies during the day.

Possible showers in the late afternoon or early evening are predicted.

Distribution Of Yearbook Set Wednesday

Those yearbooks are off the presses, but students will have to wait until Wednesday to get them. That's when distribution of the 1954 Wolverines will begin—at 1 p.m. in the Union Bookstore. The books will be passed out until Thursday and Friday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

After that students can obtain their books in the Wolverine Office on the third floor of the Union.

Dick McLaughry, Wolverine business manager, said that either a receipt or an ID card will be required to obtain a book. Students may pick up books for friends by presenting corresponding receipts or IDs.

Comm Skills Instructor Speaks to Leslie PTA

Judson Perkins, instructor in communication skills, addressed the Leslie PTA installation dinner Thursday. His topic was "The Importance of Reading in a General Education Program."

Variety in Song Men's Glee Club To Present Concert

Variety in song, from the religious to the popular, will be the keynote of the Men's Glee Club spring concert in the Auditorium tonight at 8.

Edward L. Richmond, Glee Club director, will conduct most of the concert, but Donald A. Toms, assistant director, will have charge of the final group of selections entitled "Spartan Varieties."

Following the Michigan State Fight Song, the group will present three religious pieces, starting with "My Heart Commends Itself to Thee" from a 16th century madrigal by Orlando di Lasso.

A four part round by an American composer, William Billings, will head the next section entitled "When Jesus Wept," the piece is an early hymn which the composer called his "fuguing tunes."

Included in the section will be the "Hallelujah Amen" from Judas Macabaeus by Handel and the ever-popular "The Lord's Prayer."

Negro spirituals and American folk songs will be presented in the fourth part of the program.

Spartan Varieties, after the intermission, will provide the semi-classical and popular side of the concert. Starting with "This is My Country," the Glee Club will go into Irving Berlin's "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor," based on the inscription on the Statue of Liberty.

The "Battle Hymn of the Republic" will be the third selection in this final group.

With background music by the Glee Club Ensemble of 16 voices, a reading of James Welton Johnson's "Creation" will be offered. The music was written by Foy Solosky, Melvind Freshman, and adapted for the group by Lowell Everson, director of the Ensemble.

A group of songs from Sigismund Romberg's "The Student Prince" will feature the well-known "Students' Marching Song" and the "Drinking Song."

The male quartet, consisting of Toms, first tenor, James McManis, second tenor, Don Springer, baritone, and Everson, bass, will sing three novelty tunes.

Winding up the program will be the Glee Club's "College Medley" arranged by Everson. Accompanist for the concert will be Peter R. Jolly, Muncie, Ind., senior.

WKAR-TV To Telecast From Grill

Campus Matinee is coming to the campus today. The daily WKAR-TV program, which usually runs an hour long, will be telecast for an hour directly from the Union Grill starting at 3 p.m.

Purpose is to promote WKAR-TV around campus, officials said. If this first Grill telecast is successful, the presentation may become an annual affair.

Ken Richards, station program director, will be master of ceremonies. Singers Dee Meyer and Mac Mollison and Tom's Aquino and his band, regular performers on Campus Matinee, will be presented, along with other talented students whom directors plan to have in the Grill.

Aerobats Stage First Circus

Spartan Circus played before a "good-sized" and appreciative crowd Friday and Saturday nights in the annual showing of the event, according to George Szypula, aerobat club sponsor.

Put on by the MSC Aerobats' Club, the circus took place in Jensen Fieldhouse amid elaborate decorations set up by club members.

Members of the club staged juggling, trampoline, high wire and balance acts.

Featured in the events were the trapeze and Spanish Web acts.

The main work for the circus was done by Bud Bronson, president of the club, and Jerry Gillemaster, vice-president. Both are members of the varsity gymnastics team.

Cooper Biography To Highlight Films

Three films dealing with American authors and literature and a technical animal picture will comprise the Audio-Visual Center's show Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. in the Music Auditorium.

Two of the films will deal with American literature, while the third will be a biography of James Fenimore Cooper.

KEEP AN EYE OPEN FOR SENIOR ACTIVITIES THIS WEEK

Editorially

Senior Activities Take the Spotlight

Thirteen hours of the next 13 days on MSC campus will be devoted to senior activities...

The actual time spent at the activities represents about one thousandth of the manhours spent planning them...

This time was not used merely as a means of gaining prestige for the workers...

But it was spent as an effort to honor the members of the graduating class...

The best way for the members of the senior class to say "Thank you" is to partake in the activities planned for them.

Admittedly, it is a fact obvious to anyone associated with one member of the graduating class...

But, 13 hours (and it could really be more, because the number 13 includes three nights of the Water Carnival out of 312 is not very many to devote to getting together with old friends in continuing the traditions of the college.

College means a lot of things. It's school spirit, knowledge, friendship and maturity...

The KOLEMINE Looks Like a 'Banner' Year For Campus Campaigns

by JACK KOLE, State News Managing Editor

Future campus election campaigns ought to be real interesting as the result of the All-College Judiciary's decision last week in the Brubaker case.

The decision already has student government officials wondering what kind of a campaign law will stand up before the Judiciary...

When campaign time appears next year, those "banners" will be unchallenged as the most popular items on campus.

There's only one problem. No one is sure just what a banner is.

A banner isn't a "poster". Nor is it "campaign literature." Or so the majority of the Judiciary members ruled, anyway.

Following logically was the most important section of the majority opinion—that since a banner is neither a poster nor campaign literature...

Under the student government law, candidates may post "campaign literature and posters... only within 10 feet of the sidewalks running from the Union to Berkeley Hall and from the Union to Beaumont Tower."

But student politicians now have one of the biggest legal loopholes ever devised by any court.

"To hell with the posters and campaign literature," they'll say. We'll just "banner" our campaigns—from start to finish.

Think of the unfortunate students who now pick up a few extra shekels by making posters. They'll lose all of their business—unless they switch their talents to banners.

Just picture it. A huge campaign sign draped like a flag from Sparty's neck. Furious rivals bombard student government with complaints—pointing angrily to section 11-E of the election laws.

"But that's no poster," the candidate will answer innocently, citing the precedent set by the Judiciary. "That's a banner."

No campus spot will be safe from banners. The big smokestack will be plastered. Candidates will install their own flagpoles for display purposes.

Student government might even cooperate by passing legislation on "bannepoles" and giving candidates equal time to boom their election.

With all this, the historic Brubaker banner could be preserved forever in the Auditorium Museum.

And just to get into the swing of things, the college could use banners to advertise the momentous addition to its archives.

'Mademoiselle' MSC Coed to Assist In Magazine Editing

MSC will be represented on "Mademoiselle's" 1954 August college issue by Dorothy Ripper, Dearborn senior, who was recently selected as one of the magazine's 20 guest editors.

Dorothy was chosen from 1500 candidates representing campuses throughout the country and nine foreign countries who competed for places on the Mademoiselle National College Board. Applicants for guest editorships were selected from the 700 college board members.

Her transportation will be provided to New York City June 1, to help edit, illustrate and plan the magazine. During her four weeks work, Dorothy will live at the Marlborough Hotel and receive a regular editor's salary.

While in New York, the guest editors will visit publishing houses, advertising agencies, fall fashion previews, press meetings and magazine reviews. Television shows, stage plays, parties, night-clubbing and a beauty salon appointment are also on the agenda for the guest editors.

A regular feature of the magazine's college issue has been for the 20 editors to interview outstanding men and women in their field.

Miss Ripper, a commercial art major, will interview one of the following three men: Sal Stemberg, cartoonist; Jon Whitecomb, illustrator and David Stoneman, advertising artist.

To qualify for the guest editor position, Dorothy had to complete three assignments in which she made ads in magazines and did series of humorous cartoons including "The American Woman As Seen Through Advertising" and "The College Coed As Seen by Others." She also had to write a criticism of the August 1953 issue and a criticism of the art work in general.

Dorothy also wrote an application to Mademoiselle in which she planned the complete college issue, illustrated the fashions, designed clothes, chose authors and selected the central theme.

She first became interested in the annual contest when Miss Rachel Mellinger, campus reporter for the magazine, visited MSC last fall to explain the college board contest.

Sports COED CORNER

The Women's Athletic Association annual letter award dessert will be held Thursday in the second floor Union Parlors.

Letters are given to women who have earned 200, 500 and 1,000 points. Georgia Rohms, Franklin senior and Evelyn Smith, Durand senior, who have earned 1,500 points will sign the WAA scroll. Each intramural sport gives a coed 100 points. Joan Board, Chicago, Ill., junior and WAA president will present the awards.

Entertainment will include music by the Gamma Phi Beta quartet and a monologue by Jennie Pond, Detroit sophomore.

Special guests of the WAA will be Miss Mabel Peterson, dean of women, Miss Dorothy Parker and Mrs. Lurline Lee, assistants to the dean of women, President and Mrs. John Hannah and Dean and Mrs. Clifford Erickson.

Housemothers and sports chairmen of the women's living units, winning intramural teams, award winners and the old and new WAA cabinet members will also be guests.

All women are invited. Tickets may be purchased from the sports chairman or at the door.

East Yakeley Bridge Team Wins Trophy

East Yakeley's team won the Kappa Delta Invitational Bridge Tournament yesterday afternoon at the KD house. Barbara Siegle, Mookagon junior and Diane Karsoll, Chicago, Ill., junior were the winning players.

Their prize is a traveling trophy that will be engraved with their dormitory's name.

Second and third place were taken by Delta Zeta and Zeta Tau Alpha respectively.

Also participating in the tournament were Gamma Phi Beta, Delta Gamma, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Gamma Delta, Sigma Kappa, Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Abbot, South Campbell, Gilchrist, East and West London, East and West Mayo and North Williams.

Seniors to Elect Officers At 'Swingout' Program

Elections of alumni officers for the senior class will be held at the 44th annual Senior Swingout tomorrow.

Nominated by the newly-chosen members of the alumni club, they will be elected by the entire graduating class at the traditional procession around campus.

Running for the office of president are Bob Sackrider and Gene German, both of Battle Creek. Vice presidential nominees are Phil Gunby, Lockport, N. Y., and Bill Shannon, Niles, Dick McClaughey, Whiting, Ind., and Doris Humes, Lansing, will run for the secretary-treasurer position.

Highlighting the Swingout program at Fairchild Theater will be a farewell address by President John A. Hannah.

Other features on the program will be the official announcement of the '54' Club members, by Star Keesler, alumni director. Keesler will also give the welcoming address to seniors as alumni. Ferris Hallmark, class president, will deliver a farewell address.

Preceding the program, the marching band will lead the parade from Ag Hall at 7:30 p.m.

The parade will continue around campus picking up the conviced seniors stationed in front of their respective schools in the order in which the school was founded on campus.

Students enrolled in the School of Agriculture will wait at Ag Hall. The procession will then proceed to Olds Hall for engineering students and the Home

Slow Cars Ousted Time Runs Out For '500' Racers

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Here's what happened Sunday at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, where, with just one week left, faster cars bumped the previous slower qualifiers for places in the 30-car May 31 race lineup:

Jerry Hoyt of Indianapolis qualified the Belanger Special at 137.825, bumping the Pete Wales Special driven by Eddie Elisian of Oakland, Calif.

Paul Russo qualified the Ansted Rotary Special at 137.687, bumping the Peter Schmidt Special driven by Walt Faulkner of Long Beach, Calif.

Len Duncan of Germantown, Pa., qualified the Ray Brady Special at 139.217, eliminating the Elgin Piston Special driven by Jim Rathmann of Miami.

Rathmann qualified a Bardahl Special at 138.228, eliminating the Micro-Nut Special driven by Danny Oakes of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Elisian qualified the Chapman Special at 137.794, eliminating the Springfield Welding Special driven by Art Cross of La Porte, Ind.

Larry Crockett of Columbus, Ind., qualified a Federal Engineering Special at 139.557, eliminating the Travelon Trailer Special driven by Bob Scott of Gardena, Calif.

Cross qualified a Bardahl Special at 138.675, eliminating the Fullerton Special driven by Marshall Teague, Daytona Beach, Fla.

Travis "Spider" Webb of Dayton, Ohio, qualified the Advance Muffler Special at 137.979, eliminating the Pat Clancy Special driven by Jimmy Davies of Parma, Calif.

Spartans to Host NCAA Preliminary

Memorial Day Twin-Bill To Decide Series Team

By DONN SHELTON

Luck of the draw has left Michigan State just one step away from a collegiate world series berth.

In an NCAA District Four Baseball selection committee meeting Sunday the Spartans, as Big 10 champs, were chosen for the play-offs, along with Ohio University, champion of the Mid-American Conference, and Ashland College, champion of the Mid-Ohio Conference.

Ohio U. and Ashland will play a best-two-out-of-three series Tuesday and Wednesday at Athens, Ohio, home of Ohio University.

The winner of the series will then travel to Michigan State to meet the Spartans in a two-of-three series for the right to go to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., June 10-14.

The first two games of the finals will be played on Old College Field as a doubleheader on Memorial Day, with the third game to be played, if necessary, June 1.

The college world series will be an eight team tourney, with one team from each NCAA district participating.

Ordinarily the Spartans would also have taken part in the semi-finals. A fourth team, Marietta College of Marietta, Ohio, was also invited to the tourney but declined because of financial difficulties.

Ashland College, a school of 200 students, has compiled a phenomenal record this year. They have a season mark of 17.4, and over the past weekend won three games, scoring 72 runs in the process.

Their top player is Bill Maxwell, a senior shortstop. Maxwell is currently hitting .410 and is the object of strong major league offers.

Ohio has compiled a 15-4 record this year. Their top star, outfielder Dick Murphy, is a hold-

Big 10 Champions

A single, two walks, and another single moved the Buckeyes in front, 3-2, in the fourth.

Williams' second home run, a 350-footer over the left field fence, tied the score in the Spartan half of the fourth.

In the Buckeye seventh, a walk, a double and a single, made the score 5-3 against the Spartans.

Lowell fanned to open the Spartan seventh. Dick Finn, the Ohio State hurler, then weakened, pitching eight straight balls to John Polonsky, Risch's pinch-hitter, and Smith.

Pitching to Mathews, who batted for Godfrey, Finn added two more balls before he was relieved by Hal Northrop.

Northrop walked Mathews to fill the bases. Then, on a ground ball to deep short, Polonsky scored. The Buckeye shortstop made a force on Mathews at second.

At the same time, Smith, who was on second when the play began, went streaking for the plate and scored the tying run.

The Spartans won the game in the eighth.

After Brown singled and Williams walked, Powell blooped his Texas League single into short left-center, scoring Brown with the run that meant the championship.

Spartan Baseballers Grab First Big 10 Championship

"Off the floor in '54." Biggie Munn's Rose Bowl half-time war cry could very well be attached to the Spartan baseball wins Saturday.

Four times during the doubleheader the Kobsmen were forced to come from behind, finally winning the second game in extra innings.

For the second time in two weeks the Spartans had to win two of a three-game series to retain their first place position in the Big 10 race.

Bill Mansfield, the pitcher in the second game, will find home life a little difficult this summer.

He is the son of Wisconsin's baseball coach, Art Mansfield. With the Badger double header win Saturday, Bill's victory eliminated his dad's team from a chance to share the Big 10 title with State.

A special vote of tribute should go to Buckeye shortstop Howard (Hop-a-long) Cassidy.

His four errors in the first game were instrumental in the Spartan win and his fight with Chuck Mathews in that game led to the second game win.

Mathews was forced to leave the game as a result of his battle with Cassidy and thus made way for Bob Williams.

Williams' two homers kept State within striking distance during the game.

The fight between Cassidy and Mathews emptied both benches in a matter of seconds.

It all started when Cassidy was doubled off of first by a throw from third baseman Jim Sack, following a Buckeye pop fly.

Mathews claimed Cassidy spiked him on the latter's return trip to the bag and dove on the Buckeye ace.

Cassidy, who is also a football star at OSU, rolled Mathews over and they separated them.

Mathews was stuck in the head during the fight and was forced to the bench later.

He explained after the game that he "forgot a lot about battling" after the fight and "hoped he didn't look silly at the plate in his last appearance of the game before being benched."

In his last trip, he hit a hard grounder over second that Cassidy fielded and stepped on the bag to force a runner.

Bob Williams, after his second homer in the nightcap, crossed the plate with the comment, "Boy I sure am getting into a rut."

The big first baseman's chant-ed his first homer over the 397-foot marker in centerfield. His second one tied a Big 10 record, along with six other players.

The most spectacular play of the day was the daring sprint by George Smith to tie the second game and send it into overtime.

With one out and the bases loaded, Capt. Jack Zettler hit a groundball to shortstop. The fielder hit and tossed to second, forcing a runner. The relay to first wasn't in time to catch the flying Zettler.

Risch scored from third, just scant steps ahead of Smith, who hadn't even slowed down as he rounded the thirdbase bag and set sail for home.

The bespectacled second sacker slid across with the tying run as the Buckeyes looked on in amazement.

It took brains to figure the play out, speed to carry it out and guts to even start it. Had Smith been thrown out on his heading dash, he would have been a worse goat than the OSU runners who were picked off of bases during the game.

Last week State did the trick by defeating Michigan, 6-4 and 8-4, before falling to the Wolves, 9-8, in the second game of a double header at Ann Arbor.

A season's record crowd of 2,635 was on hand Saturday to see the Spartans nail down Michigan State's first Big 10 baseball crown, in addition to the uncounted fans who followed over WKAR and WKAR-TV.

In winning the conference championship, Michigan State will play 8 league contests and lead with Wisconsin, 3-3. In a no-count game that was called at the end of 13 innings because of darkness, State's only league defeat came at the hands of Purdue, 5-2.

Yewick will miss the NCAA semi-finals to be held here Memorial Day, but will be ready for the college World Series at Omaha should the Spartans get that far, according to Dr. James Furig, team physician.

Golf Team Defeats Titans; Netters Edged by Illini, 5-4

Linksters End Season, Tune For Play-Offs

By JERRY LORIG

Michigan State's golf team closed out their regular season campaign Saturday with a 16-10 1/2 victory over the University of Detroit at Red Run golf course in Detroit.

The Spartans returned to their winning ways with an impressive comeback after three straight conference defeats.

It was the State linksters' final tune-up before they leave for the Big 10 play-offs at Minneapolis Friday and Saturday.

Detroit jumped off to a 3-0 win in the first best-ball doubles foursomes. But the Spartans rebounded taking a 2-1 split in the second match and shutting out the Titans 3-0 in the final duel. This gave State a 5-4 edge in the morning event.

The Titans forged ahead in the medal play again as Ron Stelter turned in a 74 to top State's captain Bill Albright, 3-0. Stelter's card also claimed medalist honors for the home team.

Detroit continued to set the pace with an 83 by Ray Conlon to take a 2-1 win over Dave Humes, Humes, who replaced veteran Bob Rivest in the State lineup, holed out for an 85.

State turned the tide in the third match as Dave Mancour fired 83 strokes to squeeze past Detroit's Bud Belanger by one swing to direct a 2-1 victory toward the Spartans.

Bill Dietrich brought home two and a half more points for State by turning a 79 effort. Opponent Tom Chisholm picked up one half point for his 85 blows.

The Spartans wrapped up their seventh victory by adding a pair of 3-0 triumphs in the last two matches. Ken Rodewald's 77 stopped Ray Masewich's 85 and Hal Ware's 75 took Bill Huttman's 77. Ware's 75 was low for State.

The linksters will spend today and Tuesday in final preparation before leaving by plane Wednesday for Minneapolis. Van Alstyne's squad will get the feel of the Minnesota course in a trial tour on Thursday.

Each school is allowed to bring six men, but only the five lowest scores will count in the competition.

Bosox Trade Kell to Chicago

DETROIT (AP)—The Chicago White Sox, seeking their first pennant since 1919, Sunday acquired veteran third baseman George Kell in a trade with the Boston Red Sox.

The White Sox gave up infielder Grady Hatton and a "very, very substantial sum of cash."

A $100,000 deal was made by General Manager Frank Lane, who has a White Sox completed a three-year sweep of the Detroit Tigers Sunday.

Kell previously had played with the Philadelphia Athletics and the Tigers.

In his last eight seasons, Kell has been a steady 300 hitter—leading the league in 1949 with a .343 average.

Tennis Team Loses Match In Doubles

Spartan netmen were defeated, 5-4, Friday by Illinois in a match decided in the last doubles play.

Each team won three singles matches, but Illinois copped two of the three doubles matches, providing the necessary victory margin.

In singles play, Jim Fore and Dick Menzel were both defeated. Fore by Conrad Woods, and Menzel by Roger Bielefeld. Ed Pechous defeated Dana Squire for the Illini's other singles win.

Squire gained the right to start in the number five spot by defeating John Brogan in a challenge match. The two will play again this afternoon to decide who will play in the Big 10 tournament, which begins Thursday at Bloomington.

The three singles winners for the Spartans were Dave Brogan, Dean Britton and Arnie Hoffman.

In the first completed doubles match, State's number two team, consisting of Squire and Britton, defeated Illinois' Doyle Glass and John Greenleaf. This gave State a 4-3 lead with two matches left to be played.

The Illini tied up the match when Woods and Bielefeld defeated Fore and Menzel in a three-set dual, 3-6, 6-2, 6-0.

This left it up to the number three doubles teams. The Spartans' Jim M. Beechum and Dave Brogan entered the contest with a streak of nine consecutive victories, but the Illini team of Pechous and Harry Brandt handed them their first defeat.

Brogan and Beechum won the first set, 6-3, and led in the second four games to one, when the Illini put on their determined rally. They won five straight games to take the set, 6-4, and then went on to win the third set by the same score.

The Spartans play their last regularly scheduled dual match of the season Wednesday, when they take on Iowa at Bloomington. The following day, they will start play in the Big 10 tournament.

Practice Run Preps Thinclads for Big 10

By BOB SMITH

For the first time this season Michigan State came out of a track meet in good physical condition and set look forward to Saturday's Big 10 meet with a team at full strength.

Friday's practice meet at Michigan showed the Spartans' Killop finishing third in the respective events.

Roger Maugh of Michigan took the pole vault with Chuck Cyskendale tying for second. Jim Yrostran and Bob Armstrong finished in a tie for third in the high jump with Mark Booth winning for the Wolverines. Michigan won both the mile and two mile runs.

Vargha ran two fine relay legs for the Spartans, perhaps indicating that he will be ready to go on Saturday. Vargha has missed almost all of the indoor and outdoor seasons of a pulled leg muscle.

A brilliant 45.5 anchor leg in the mile relay by Gosper proved that his cramped leg has rounded back into shape. With these two men back in condition the Spartans may cause a lot of trouble in the conference test.

In the other events John Corbelli took the high hurdles and Bill Brendel won the lows. Corbelli finished second and Ray Eggleston third in the low timbers. The winning times were 1:19 and 2:45 respectively.

Ed Brabham took the 150 yard dash in 1:52 with Julius McCoy second. Brabham and McCoy teamed with Art Ingram and Vargha to finish first in the 440 relay and second in the 880 relay. Gosper's fine anchor leg in the mile relay brought the Spartans from behind to win in 3:17.4. Brendel, Ron Suess, and Dave Hoke also ran on the team. Gosper passed Big 10 outdoor champ John Carroll to win the event.

Returning in the two-mile relay Gosper teamed with Dick Stutsman, Dick Jarrett, and Hoke to win in 7:52.4.

Michigan stole the show in the field events. Fritz Nilsson took the shot put and discus with State's Dave Goodell and Ed Mc-

Four-Run Eighth Wrecks Detroit Chicago Homers Tame Tigers

DETROIT (AP)—The Chicago White Sox, silenced for seven innings by Steve Gromek, erupted in the eighth for three home runs—by Minnie Minoso, Cass Michaels and Sherman Lollar—to complete a three-game sweep over the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, Sunday.

Minoso, who beat the Tigers with a three-run homer Saturday, put the White Sox into a 2-1 lead when he hits his seventh home run following an inning-opening single by Nellie Fox.

INDIANS WIN 11th CLEVELAND (AP)—Pitcher Art Houtteman won his own game Sunday with a 12th inning double that scored George Strickland and gave the Cleveland Indians a 2-1 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles in the nightcap of a doubleheader. The Indians' 11th straight victory was sent into extra innings on a homer by Al Rosen, his 11th of the season. Bob Feller won his 25th major league game in the opener, 14-3.

RED SOX EDGE YANKS NEW YORK (AP)—The stumbling Boston Red Sox broke out with an 18-hit attack against four New York Yankee pitchers Sunday to come from behind for a 10-9 victory after helping the Yanks build up a early lead on their shoddy defensive play.

The Sox were trailing, 7-3, when they got three runs in the seventh off reliever Johnny Sain—the first runs he has given up this season. Sain left the game in the eighth with Boston taking the lead on two more runs.

VERNON BEATS ANS WASHINGTON (AP)—Mickey Vernon smashed a home run and three doubles to pace a 15-hit Washington attack Sunday as the Senators defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-4. Elmer Valo clouted a three-run homer for the A's. Dean Stone, rookie left-hander who replaced Connie Marrero in the fifth inning after the Senators tied the score at 4-4, won his first major league game.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Wally Post, who hit two homers Saturday night, drove in five runs Sunday with another home run and a double as the Cincinnati Redlegs knocked the St. Louis Cardinals out of the N. L. lead, 13-6.

BRAVES TIE FOR N. L. LEAD CHICAGO (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves blasted their way into a tie for the National League lead with Brooklyn Sunday by taking a double-header from the Chicago Cubs, 4-2 in 10 innings and 9-3, before 36,306 and running their victory string to seven straight. The double victory meant a sweep of the Braves' five-game series with the Cubs. PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The New York Giants peppered Curt Simmons and two other Philadelphia Phillies pitchers with 11 well-spaced hits Sunday as the Giants took their second in a row from Philadelphia, 6-4.

Three Giant pitchers constantly balked the frustrated Philadelphiaans, leaving 13 of them stranded on bases. BUMS TAKE TWO BROOKLYN, N. Y. (AP)—Duke Snider hit two home runs as Brooklyn blasted Pittsburgh 6-2 in the second game of their Sunday twin bill and run their longest winning streak of the season to four straight, all over the Pirates. The Dodgers took the opener 5-4 with Preacher Roe going the route for the first time this year and scoring his own winning run.

Seven Solo at Honors Program

Department Concert Features Seniors

By CYNTHIA SCHEER

A new MSC tradition was begun Sunday when the first music department senior Honors Concert presented seven soloists with the MSC Symphony Orchestra.

Air Force Offers New Commission

AEROFO seniors who have not been notified of a commission have been offered an opportunity to accept a commission through a new Air Force rule.

Exact interpretation of the ruling will be outlined in the chapter report of a special meeting today according to Col. Greene S. Bond, professor of air science and tactics.

He requests that all Air Science Four-lets who are in Categories 1 and 2 and who have not been notified of a commission report to the meeting in Quonset 5 at 4 p.m.

The group includes the men in these categories who will graduate in June and December of 1954 and March of 1955.

Under the new plan, the men would serve three years on active duty for training purposes before serving as second lieutenants in the Air National Guard Unit in their state.

The active duty work of the National Guard-bound men would closely parallel that of regular commissioned officers. About 60 men at MSC will consider the new ruling.

Kellogg to Host Conference of Negro Women

The Midwest regional conference of the National Council of Negro Women, Friday and Saturday at Kellogg Center, will present the first of continuing education courses and conferences in the coming week.

Largest of the conferences will be a two-day industrial conference, Friday through Saturday, which will draw 200 persons to Kellogg.

A home administration, agent conference, Friday through Saturday, and a seminar for YWCA secretaries, Thursday through June 1, will also be held at Kellogg Center.

Conference meeting at the Union will be the basic fundamentals of insurance course, today through Saturday, the Lansing supervising teachers, Tuesday and an industrial relations workshop, Wednesday.

Rose Prizes Won By MSC Students

Final prizes awarded made by the American Rose Society in a recent contest went to Michigan State students.

The contemporary division winners were John Barrett, Fred Van Arman, Edward and Bill Thompson. They in the traditional division. Barrett took second.

Both professionals and amateurs participated in the contest which called for a landscape design featuring roses. All winners were given a certificate and their work in the contest was done as a part of the regular course requirements.

Guests Fill Kellogg for Graduation

Kellogg Center is already filled up for the 1954 and 1955 commencement week ends.

The year's reservations filled Kellogg Center for June 4, 5 and 6. The Centennial year is filled for June 3, 4 and 5.

Students are usually advised to make their reservations for a commencement weekend within the year of their graduation," said Veldon Garrison, manager of Kellogg Center.

The reservation office is now processing requests make reservations for 1955 at one of the Lansing hotels.

A probable reason for the early reservations is the Centennial program, Garrison said.

1954's waiting list numbers 32, but the waiting list for 1955 has only five names. Cancellations will go to the people on the waiting list when and if they occur.

Kellogg's reservation office works only a year ahead. Therefore reservations for 1956 are not yet being accepted.
