Seniors Get First Crack At '55 Book

Wolverine Orders Accepted Tonight

By PAT A. VARCHI
State News Editor-in-Chief
Seniors will be offered the first chance at ordering the 1955 Centennial edition of the Wolverine tonight at the Senior Swingout.

The 1955 Wolverine will include an added 104 pages of pictures and copy showing the growth of MSC in the past 100 years. This section will include six full-page paintings, in color, of landscapes and college life through the years. They were painted by John Coppin.

The pictures will be taken from 22 x 30 inch paintings which will be donated to the college and may be hung in the new library. The Centennial edition of the Wolverine, although it will include approximately 700 pages, will sell for the standard price of 50 cents, according to Coulter.

The sales staff is aiming for a goal of 10,000 sales for next year. This is the first year seniors have had an opportunity to order the books before graduation.

Varied Acts on WKAR-TV 'Matinee' Televised From Union Grill

The Union Grill became the television studio for "Campus Matinee" for the first time Monday.

A full hour of entertainment which began at 3 p.m. featured program regulars, Tom Aquino and his band, vocalists Dee Meyer and Mac Mollison, and dancing by Sally Sue Morrison, western guitar music and a song by Art Walker. Ken Richards, WKAR-TV program director, was master of ceremonies.

Between songs and comedy provided by Mike May and Brick Rider, Richards interviewed Michael Dmochowski, Union Building manager; Miss Etolyle White, Union Building activities director; Betty Gase, Union Board president; Bill Thistle, senior class president-elect; and even Tom Wipple, Union barber.

Miss Meyer sang "Imagination" and "The Trolley Song" which for her numbers was provided by Tom Aquino's band, which also played "Where or When" and "I Remember April." Mollison sang "Everything Happens to Me" and "Wap Your Troubles in Dreams." Miss Morrison danced to "You're the Cream in My Coffee."

Richard said, "It was our wish at WKAR-TV to give the audience an insight into the Union Building, the various activities carried on, and to introduce the people who work to make the Union, the center of campus activity."

"The program," continued Bill Broecker, director of Campus Matinee, "proved to be a lot of fun and we gained experience toward making a televised broadcast from the Union an annual event."

Laos Post Saved After Red Siege

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—French Union forces outnumbered three-to-two beat off a six-day pocket-size Dien Bien Phu type siege by the Vietminh in northern Laos near Red China's border, the French high command announced Monday.

The French-Laotian post, Nam Tha, is only 18 miles south of China's Yunnan Province and 100 miles west of Dien Bien Phu. The defenders, who were subjected to continual mortar and machine gun fire beginning May 18, finally forced 400 attacking rebels to lift their siege.

The French and Laotian garrison were able to keep up the fight through parachute drops by French planes.

Nam Tha, has strategic significance, guarding a spot near the junction of China, Laos, and Burma.

The Nam Tha victory was announced as Laotian Genevieve de Colant, Terrault, pretty 29-year-old French nurse who tended Dien Bien Phu's wounded, reached Hanoi smiling and well in her sweat-soaked, torn combat uniform.

She was flown from the smashed fortress by helicopter and transport in the slowly accelerating airlift that had brought out 422 of the fortress's 1,300 to 2,000 wounded up to Sunday night.

The French also announced Monday that five more Thai soldiers from Dien Bien Phu's garrison who fought their way through rebel hordes in the fortress' final hours, May 7, had reached a French defense post in northern Laos Sunday.

A French spokesman at Hanoi said planes pouched rebel concentrations around Yenchu, Tuan Gio, Son La, and Meechau on Provincial Routes 13 and 41 Sunday.

U. S. Flying Arms Airlift To Nicaragua, Honduras

Honduras, Guatemala May War

Newsman Reports Troop Movements

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Tribune said Monday night in a dispatch from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, that war between Honduras and Guatemala appeared imminent.

Honduran border guards Sunday captured five armed Guatemalan Communists who had crossed over into Honduras, the dispatch by Jules DuBois, Tribune staff writer said.

President Juan Manuel Galvez of Honduras has asked the United States to invoke the mutual assistance pact signed Friday in a move to forestall the spread of Communism in Latin America, the story said.

DuBois wrote that the control tower at Tecomitan Airport at Tegucigalpa reported it had been notified from Guatemala that a blazer zone of 20 miles had been established on each side of the Motagua River near Puerto Barrios. No planes are permitted to fly in that vicinity.

Guatemalan troop movements also were reported in the vicinity of Chiquimula near Santa Rosa de Copan, Honduras, the Tribune story said.

Honduras air force planes recommissioned the frontier to report on troop movements.

Molotov Hampers Peace Talks

GENEVA (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, apparently shifting his ground in the negotiations for a quick ceasefire in Indochina, snarled proceedings Monday with a demand for political discussions.

A reliable informant said Molotov raised the issue at Monday's secret session as the Geneva conference went into its fifth week.

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, just back after high level talks with Prime Minister Churchill and other Cabinet ministers in London, said what happens here this week may be decisive.

Molotov, after presenting the conference Friday with a five-point agenda for getting down to business on a ceasefire, proposed Monday that the nine-party discussions be devoted to a permanent political settlement.

The informant said French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault immediately protested, refusing to discuss political aspects of the dispute until a ceasefire agreement had been achieved.

Seniors to Parade In 44th Swingout

Marching Band to Lead Procession From Ag Hall

By CYNTHIA EATON
Approximately 700 seniors are expected to line up in front of their various schools to participate in the 44th annual Senior Swingout, Bob Sackrider, general chairman, said.

Leading the Swingout, the marching band will start the parade from Ag Hall at 7:30 p.m.

The parade will continue around campus picking up the rowed seniors, stationed in front of their respective schools, in the order in which they were founded on campus.

Students enrolled in the School of Agriculture will wait at Ag Hall. The procession will then proceed to Olds Hall for engineering students and then to the Home Economics Building. Seniors in Business and Public Service and Education will join the parade at Morrill Hall. Science and Arts students at the Natural Science Building and Vet Medicine seniors at Gillette Hall.

When the last seniors have joined the parade, the band will lead the procession to Fairchild Theater for the 44th club officers.

Passing out and counting of the ballots will be undertaken by Alpha Phi Omega, men's service honorary.

Running for the office of president are Bob Sackrider and Gene German, both of Battle Creek, vice-presidential nominees are Phil Gunby, Lockport, N. Y., and Bill Shannon, Niles, Dick McClaughry, Whiting, Ind., and Doris Humes, Lansing, will run for the secretary-treasurer position.

Highlighting the Swingout program will be a farewell address by President Hainnah.

Other features on the program will be a welcome by Bob Sackrider, swingout chairman; See SENIORS, Page 4

Red Gun Aid Causes Plan To Speed Up

Help Results From Mutual Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is flying guns to Nicaragua and Honduras, neighbors of left-wing Guatemala, which is being armed by the Communists.

Reports of the Central American airlift were confirmed Monday by a State Department press officer, Lincoln White, who said a special effort is being made to speed up the shipments because of the 70 freight carloads of Red weapons just unloaded in Guatemala.

A Defense Department spokesman said C124 Globemaster transports are flying small arms, ammunition, jeeps and three-quarter ton weapons carriers to Nicaragua and Honduras. He said the equipment is of the type used by light infantry troops.

White explained the airlift is an implementation of mutual defense assistance agreements recently signed with the two countries.

It is understood the shipments are on a "rapidly as possible" basis, with a priority similar to that given goods destined for Korea and Indochina.

The State Department did not indicate how much U. S. equipment will go to Nicaragua and Honduras. Nor did it give routine details. But it is reported the shipments are being flown out of Mobile, Ala., on the Gulf of Mexico.

Last week the State Department announced that a shipment of military equipment had reached Guatemala from Communist Poland. It was estimated to be worth 10 million dollars.

An unconfirmed report reached Washington Monday that five fighter planes, either American-made Mustangs or British Spitfires of World War II vintage, were included in the shipment from Poland.

There were also rumors circulating that two more shipments of arms are en route to Guatemala from behind the Iron Curtain. There also is an official confirmation from the State Department, which said Saturday the rumors were current in Guatemala.

Great News For the Reds

Georgia's Gov. Herman Talmadge made a statement Sunday that the leaders of Soviet Russia were eager to hear.

"The people of Georgia will not comply with the decision of the court," Talmadge said, referring to the Supreme Court action that ruled school segregation unconstitutional.

"It would take several divisions of troops down here to police every school building in Georgia and then they wouldn't be able to enforce it," he challenged.

About the only cooperation Talmadge could offer was to give assurance that Georgia was not planning to secede from the Union.

As of Sunday, the Soviet press had not mentioned the historic decision.

But it won't be long now.

Moscow has always seized upon the statement of such people as Talmadge. Each word can be built into something potent—as Soviet propaganda.

Not that Talmadge doesn't have the right to disagree. But the refusal to comply with a Supreme Court decision is sheer violation of the U. S. governmental system.

Talmadge's reference to the use of troops is uncalled for. If troops are necessary to enforce such a decision, the situation is dangerously close to secession, which Talmadge claims is not his intention.

Apparently, he is still living in the pre-Civil War era—when the intense feeling about slavery caused constant threats of secession by southern politicians.

Apparently Talmadge doesn't consider the elimination of something as undemocratic as segregation as a step forward.

His conception of states' rights is an attitude of open defiance toward the national government whenever such an attitude may come in handy.

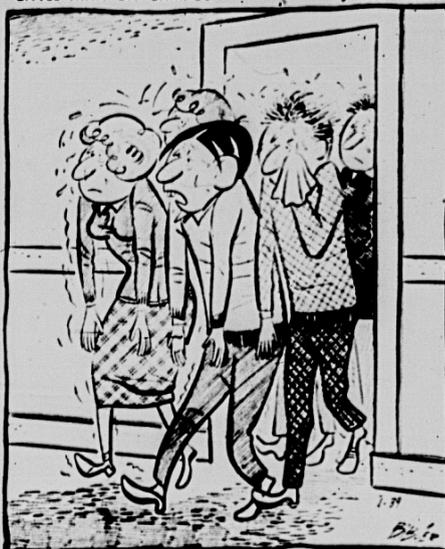

A long-time advocate of white supremacy, Talmadge enjoys wielding power for a cause that will further his own ends—and at the same time, keep a non-white race at a serious and unfair disadvantage.

The Communists don't even have to rewrite this kind of a doctrine that has spread like a disease to all parts of Europe and Asia.

And how can Americans look the citizens of Communist-dominated countries straight in the eye and call the United States "the land of the free" when such an attitude is taken by the governor of a state?

But Talmadge doesn't consider this factor. He's more interested in booming "white supremacy."

Scheer Nonsense

Showplace

By CYNTHIA SCHEER State News Feature Editor

Grillhounds know that if they hang around the Union's most-populated spot long enough, benefits other than the expected social ones are theirs.

A while back it was free malts, and there's always a chance of being selected Union Board's "Grillhound of the Week."

Yesterday a few Spartans may have made their television debuts—if only as atmospheric background blur—when WKAR-TV moved its cameras into the Grill for the "Campus Matinee" show.

A stage was placed where the large, round table usually stands, giving the murals on the south wall, people waiting at the soda counter and a number of boothstuffers a better-than-average chance of getting into the picture behind the featured performers.

This probably didn't warrant wearing pastel shirts to cut down on camera glare, and it's doubtful that any censors were mentally tape-measuring the depth of background coeds' necklines.

However, viewers within WKAR-TV's approximately 65-mile radius expected the same courtest and good taste from on-campus students as Californians saw from Spartans who made the Rose Bowl trek in January.

Letters to the Editor

Professor Praised; Rule Challenged

To the Editor:

I have just finished reading your last Tuesday's edition of the State News, and would like to add an "Amen" to the letter some gentleman who went unnamed wrote eulogizing the teaching of both Dr. Hart and Dr. Leitner in the chemistry and physics departments respectively.

Personally having had no contact with Dr. Hart I can say nothing concerning him, but Dr. Leitner still sticks in my memory as perhaps one of the outstanding teachers during my undergraduate years.

The clarity with which he taught his course and the insistence on fundamentals rather than high-headed theories were indeed heartening after other drudgery courses which so often became too theoretical for anything we were interested in.

Might I also add further praise for Dr. Richard Fennell of the zoology department and Prof. Bruce Hartsuch.

Naturally, anything that is worthwhile seems to come with some moaning and gnashing of teeth and such was the case perhaps with their courses of histology, embryology and comparative anatomy from Dr. Fennell, and the organic chemistry series, 340 from Hartsuch.

I know that at this point I am only one among many who is silently saying "thank you" for their insistence that we get the material, because it has stood us in marvelous stead—in our professional studies.

It would have been immensely tougher than otherwise is the case. I'm sure.

Hindsight is always better than foresight, but perhaps this letter might help let these gentlemen know that their labors have not gone totally unappreciated.

Robert C. Ward Kansas City College of Osteopathy and Surgery

To the Editor:

Since our government is of a republican form, I take it that office holders, members of the Board of Agriculture, are representatives of the people. Those elected are to carry out the wishes of the people, and any laws which are passed are to be for the benefit of the people.

I hardly believe that it is the will or to the benefit of the people of the state of Michigan that a student at MSC should be fined $50 for a second offense of driving on campus without a permit.

Furthermore, Amendment 8 to the Constitution of the United States reads thusly: "Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted." A $50 fine for the above stated offense is most obviously in conflict with the Federal Constitution.

Dennis A. King

(Editors note: As far as we know, no member of the electorate from off-campus has ever made a protest to the State Board concerning the fines for students with unregistered cars driving on campus. It seems these voters aren't too displeased with the way the Board is operating. As for the term "excessive," the courts must decide when a fine is excessive.)

Green-White Game To Unveil Cage Team

Climax Spring Practice in Contest Today

By MIKE CARR

Today is the day when the followers of Spartan basketball get a chance to see the revamped cage team in action.

The Green-White basketball game, an intrasquad contest signifying the end of spring practice, will be held this afternoon in Johnson Gymnasium at 4:00. There will be no admission charges and its main purpose will be to acquaint students with the team and its new coach, Freddy Anderson.

Anderson has divided the team up into two squads and the game will be played as a regulation contest.

Starting for the White team will be Al Ferrari and Bill Werner, forwards, Duane Olson, center, and Bob Devenny and Pat Wilson, guards.

In the Green lineup will be Billy Hillemeier and George Ferguson, forwards, Duane Peterson, center, and Donald Corbett and Harry Lux, guards.

Other members of the White team are Dave Raspler, Walt Godfrey, Bob Armstrong, Harry Kouslik, Charles Sessom, Mike McGrath, Dominic Marino, Dan Moroney and Tom Evenson.

Reserves for the Green squad are John O'Toole, Julius McCoy, Ed Purnish, Tom Krawicki, Stuart Jovnt, Harold Dukas and Frank Urban.

Armstrong and McCoy are also members of the track team and have not had the opportunity for much practice while Godfrey has been working out as a pitcher on the baseball team, newly-crowned champions of the Big 10.

Last year McCoy set the Michigan State season scoring record with 407 points while Armstrong started at his regular center position but ended the season fighting for the spot with Peterson. Godfrey missed most of the season because of scholastic inability.

Ferrari is the player who held the scoring record as a sophomore before McCoy came along. His 351 points led all previous Spartan players. Last year injuries and a switch to guard held him back, but he finished strong with 336 to bring him within 24 points of the career scoring record.

Coach Anderson's style of play, featuring fast breaks, passing and offense seems made in order for two high scorers such as Ferrari and McCoy.

Another feature of the game will be the chance for the fans to become acquainted with the sophomores who will be playing their first season with the varsity.

Included in this group are Wilson, Ferguson, Lux, Godfrey, Sessom, McGrath, Marino, Evenson, O'Toole, Purnish, Krawicki, Jovnt, Dukas and Urban.

Two Clubs Top Tigers With Ease

Detroit Troubled By NY. Chisox

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers are going to have to beat two teams if they are going to stay in any kind of contention in the American League.

With 29 games under their belts, the Tigers find that most of their 13 defeats have come from two ball clubs—the same two clubs that have not lost a game to the Tigers at Briggs Stadium this season.

Those clubs are Chicago and New York.

Five of Detroit's 13 losses this season have been to Chicago. Four of them have been to New York. That means the Tigers have lost a total of 17 of their 29 games to the five other teams in the league.

The Tigers have a 6-1 game edge over Cleveland, Baltimore and Washington. They have a 2-0 edge over Philadelphia and a 2-1 edge over Boston.

But Chicago has let the Tigers win only two of seven games and the Yankees have allowed the Tigers only one of five.

The Tigers face the league's weaker teams in their next 12 games. The first three are against Baltimore in Detroit.

Then the Tigers face the Orioles in three more in Baltimore, Washington and Boston are the next stop on the Tiger itinerary. Boston, which has just whipped the Yankees two straight, may be the toughest opponent up to that point.

But then the Tigers have to face the Yankees in three games. Then follows a four-game series against Philadelphia before coming home.

Baseballers Hit .313 In Weekend Series

Michigan State maintained its lofty .300 plus batting average as the Spartans connected safely for 32 hits in 102 times at bat in last weekend's showdown battle for the Big 10 baseball championship, and remained, unofficially, pacing the circuit in team batting with a mark of .316.

State, in sweeping 11-3 three-game series with Indiana and Ohio State with a .311 performance, boosted its all season batting record from .277 to .294.

In the Spartan camp, Chuck Mathews took the lead at the plate. Mathews, 20-year-old Mt. Pleasant junior who walked off with the team batting crown last year with a .276 mark and had a Big 10 average of .286, has 26 hits in 76 at bats in all competition for .342.

Outfielder Ray Collard, who paced the Spartans going into the Indiana-Ohio State games, with a season average of .360 dropped into second position, batting .311 Collard, a week ago ranked second in the conference with .400.

Phil Cavarretta Signs With Chicago White Sox

CHICAGO (AP)—Phil Cavarretta Monday signed with the Chicago White Sox and 30 minutes later was working out on the field with the characteristic hustle that endeared him to Chicago Cub fans for 20 years.

Cavarretta was signed some 18 hours after the Sox General Manager Frank Lane had given the Boston Red Sox a reported $100,000 and Grady Hatton for third baseman George Kell.

Cavarretta, fired as Cub manager last March and replaced by another city favorite, Stan Hack, signed with the Comiskey for 1954 as a utility first baseman, outfielder and pinch hitter. He will be 38-years-old July 19.

Terms were undisclosed, but, ironically, the Cubs will wind up paying nearly all of Phil's salary for playing with their South Side rivals.

He was continued on the Cub payroll for the season at a salary of something like $30,000. The pay for any new baseball job he took was to be deducted from this amount.

"It's certainly good to be back playing baseball in Chicago and I'm here to stay," said Phil, who has a career batting average of .292 and won the National League crown and most valuable player award with 355 in 1945.

Due to parade today, all tennis matches will be played at 6:15 p.m. instead of 5:30 p.m. as previously announced.

State News Photo by Ed Tenney. Lab Sackrider, Water Carnival publicity chairman and Gene Gerson, general Carnival chairman, presented Governor G. Mennen Williams with the first tickets to the annual show.

No Seats Reserved Carnival Ticket Sales Begin Today

Ticket sales begin today at the Union Desk for Water Carnival, which will be held June 3, 4 and 5.

No reserved seats will be sold. Thursday night tickets are $1.25, and Friday and Saturday shows will cost $1.50. There is no limit on number of tickets for each customer.

"Forsyth and All That," the general theme for this year's show, will be carried out by 28 living unit-sponsored floats, each depicting a title or quotation from Shakespeare.

Trophies donated by East Lansing merchants will be awarded to the three floats judged to be the best. Michigan's Lieutenant Governor, Clarence B. Reid, will serve as one of the judges, said Jack Winkeljohn, chairman of judges and trophies committee.

Float construction will begin on the Red Cedar June 1 at 12 a.m. A "dry run" of the show is set for June 2 at 7 p.m. on the river to coordinate lights, production, music, and announcing.

Tommy Aquino and his band will provide the musical accompaniment for the floats. Aquino arranged all the songs submitted by living units for $5 per float, said Howie Adams, chairman of band and entertainment committee.

Water Carnival will begin all three performances at 8:45 p.m. with water sports. Finals chosen to compete after the preliminary contests in mixed and men's double canoe races, log burling, centipede races, and canoe tilting. Competition have not been determined yet, said Ron Turnbull, chairman of water sports.

The program's second half was led by Donald Toms, Jackson senior and the group's student director.

Contrasting "The Creation" song contest in the program was the reading of James Weldon Johnson's poem of the same title. Background music for the reading was written by Thomas Sinosky, Michigan freshman, and sung by the University Glee Club Ensemble, directed by Lowell Everson.

Four selections from Sigmond Romberg's persistently popular operetta, "The Student Prince," were sung, including "The Student's Marching Song," "Golden Days," "Serenade," and the "Drinking Song."

Three familiar selections concluded the regular program. The Glee Club gave excellent treatment to "High Noon" by Dimitri Tiomkin, "They Call the Wind Maria," from the Loewe-Lerner score of "Paint Your Wagon," and Rodgers and Hammerstein's "You'll Never Walk Alone" from "Carousel."

Theater following Everson's arrangement of a William Miller song, "There is Nothing Like a Friend," "Grand Night for Singing," and "Sophomore's Philosophy."

'Feeling and Harmony' Men's Glee Club Gives Stellar Show

BY CYNTHIA SCHIER
State News Feature Editor

"It's a Grand Night for Singing."

Rodgers and Hammerstein said it first; the Men's Glee Club repeated it and the audience who heard the Glee Club's two-hour program in the Auditorium Monday night heartily agreed.

From beginning to end, the Glee Club displayed a wealth of feeling and harmony in a variety of contemporary musical selections.

The first half of the program consisted of Edward L. Bachman, president, presiding over a series of songs.

"At Board Conference" dealt with the men's Glee club's past year and displayed the beauty and grace of the traditional form. Jim Cannon, Pitcock's senior, was soprano soloist in Frank Schurter's "The Omnipotence."

An early American hymn, "When Jesus Wept," by William Billings was given solemn depth in a four-part round treatment.

The Glee Club gave their most poetic best to "The Creation," and

Shots a Must

"The Family Prayer," which featured a tenor solo by Kenneth J. Potting, freshman.

Finishing the first half of the program was a group of four ball songs and spirituals: "Ban the Chariot," "Deep River," "I Wonder as I Wander," and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot."

"Spartan Varieties" keyed the program's second segment.

After opening with "This is my Country," the Glee Club gave country music "My Young Tree," "You're My Life," "Competition," "The Ballad of Davy Crockett," and "The Ballad of the Green Beret." Also Larry, the club's mascot, sang "The Ballad of the Green Beret." The Glee Club's mascot, Larry, is a green bear.

All songs were arranged by Gene Reid, the Glee Club's music director.
