

Party Themes to Vary from 'Formal to Casual'

Groups Plan Reunions, Farm Party

JOAN LICHTENBERGER
Farmers, circus costumes, and formal clothes are the make-up on campus this weekend.

The formal side of the so-called Delta Upsilon reunion is having their term parading. The DU's will give their sixth annual "Birth of a Nation" Saturday night. Bob will provide the music.

The same night FarmHouse will escort their dates "Crescent Ball" in Lansing. The orchestra will provide the music.

Phi Kappa Sigma House will have a party Friday night. Favors will be given to the guests. Also the Shaw Club will have a record dance in lounge. A band dance will take place at Brody Hall Friday night sponsored by Bry.

Members of Alpha Gamma Rho will have a record dance Friday night at the AGR house. The same night, Alpha Gamma Rho will have a party. The same night, Alpha Gamma Rho will have a party.

Recreational Program Planned

The combined planning of men and women's intra-mural sports are organized for students and faculty. If interest is shown the program will be open Friday from 7 to 9:30 for ping-pong, badminton, shuffleboard and pool.

Students or faculty members interested in attending these programs are asked to call the intra-mural office at 687.

It is emphasized that persons are in couples or stag.

More than half the Americans live in rural areas.

Living Units Discuss Practical Christianity

By LOUIS GROPP
State News Associate Editor
A team of three college graduates arrived at MSC last week to begin a series of discussions on "Practical Christianity" in the various living units.

The discussions opened with a short talk on "Man Alive, Who Is?" by one of the team members. The students then tossed questions at the group and at one another.

Typical questions included:

Who is a Christian? Is Christianity a unique religion or is it just one of many? How does someone find God? What is the real value personally in Christianity?

And so the discussions went as questions and answers were batted back and forth in the different groups.

With their final discussion at the Kappa Delta house tonight, the team plans to leave for Ohio State Friday.

While here they were guests of Butterfield, East Shaw, Mason, Snyder, FarmHouse and Alpha Omicron Pi.

They also visited North Campbell, Short Course Dorm, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Sigma Chi and Alpha Gamma Rho.

Host of the team for their two-week stay on the Spartan campus was Spartan Christian Fellowship, the local chapter of the national Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, sponsors of the team.

SCF is a denominational fellowship of college students, the second IVCF chapter to be started in the United States.

Included in the team are Suede Christensen, Iowa State College, 53; Bill Young, Indiana University, 50; and Frank Van Aalst, Dartmouth College, 54.

While at MSC the team was joined by Deane Fowell, a former coed of the University of Missouri, now an Inter-Varsity staff member, and Mike Coldren, a University of Michigan grad and now IV staff member for Michigan.

Icers Face Non-League Foe Here

Western Ontario Set For Weekend

Hockey Coach Anna Bessone's stickmen are at work in a big way this week in an attempt to get back in the win column.

The Spartans take on the Western Ontario Icers in a pair of non-league contests Friday and Saturday night.

Last time the Spartans met the Canadian club, in 1950, Western Ontario came out on top, 9-5 and 12-2, giving them a 2-0 edge in the series.

The only Western Inter-collegiate Hockey League action this week sees red hot Michigan Tech take on an inept Minnesota squad at Minneapolis. A win would move the second place Techmen to within a half game of league-leading Colorado College.

Leading Spartan scorer Jim Ward slipped to 13th in the standings as a result of last week's action, just ahead of MSC's Jack Mayes.

Goalie Ed Schiller continues to occupy the cellar spot, percentage-wise, among league net tenders with a .44 allowed goals per game average.

Reserve goalie Ron Sveden is failing no better in the secondary listings with a 6 allowed per game average.

The pucksters swing into an eight league-game stretch drive Feb. 4 and 5 against cellar-dwelling Minnesota at Minneapolis.

High Scorer

Ferrari Gets Odd Praise

By JOE HOFFMAN

"I'll certainly be happy to see him graduate this year."

This was the comment made by Ozzie Cowles about Al Ferrari after Cowles' Minnesota basketball team bowed to the Spartans last Saturday night.

Ferrari, a senior from New York City, dumped in 27 points against the Gophers and played a fine all-around game to pace the Spartan win. The tribute paid to him by Cowles is especially significant since the Minnesota mentor isn't noted for his kind words about opposing ballplayers.

Ferrari came to Michigan State in 1951 after attending Brooklyn Tech High School. Under Coach Henry Goldman, Ferrari, teamed with former Spartan star Ricky Ayala to give Tech one of the strongest teams in the city.

Since becoming a member of the Spartan basketball squad, Ferrari has been one of its steadiest performers.

Coach Fordy Anderson, who calls Ferrari the best forward in the Big 10, says that Al is a natural leader and is looked up to by the other members on the squad.

"He's a real hustler," Anderson adds. "He's as good a player as I've ever coached, and I feel that he is very much underrated by most sports people."

In addition to being a fine scorer, Al is our finest defensive player and always draws the toughest defensive assignments.

In addition to averaging 20 points a ball game, Ferrari leads the Spartans in assists and is near the top in rebounds.

In addition to the comments made by Anderson and Cowles, many others honors have been bestowed upon Ferrari, or "Moose," as he is called by his teammates.

Last summer, Al was picked to captain the Italian All-American team as selected by the Unico Society.

He was voted the most valuable player on the Spartan team for the past two years.

In his sophomore year, Ferrari broke the Michigan State season scoring record by netting 331 points. However, this record was short-lived as Julius McCoy established a new record last year with 409 points.

One record that Ferrari still holds is the individual scoring mark. The previous record, 691 points, was set by Bill Rappach, but Al topped that during the opening game this year against Marquette.

This year, Ferrari has scored 220 points in 12 games and is fifth in Big 10 scoring with a 22-point average.

When Al graduates in June, his presence will really be missed by Spartan basketball fans and also by Anderson, but not by rival Big 10 coaches.

Ferrari Slips to 5th In Big 10 Scoring

Spartan Shooting Ranks No. 1; Peterson Tops in Percentage

Although he scored 27 points in his only appearance of the week, Al Ferrari dropped from fourth to fifth in the Big 10 scoring race.

Ferrari upped his average from 21 points per game to 22 but was passed by Northwestern's Frank Ehmann, who has a 24.6 average according to statistics released Wednesday by the Big 10.

Robin Freeman of Ohio State continues to lead the pack with an average of 31.7, despite not playing because of a bad ankle.

Indiana's Don Schlundt trails Freeman with a 30.4 mark, with Dick Garmaker of Minnesota third at 27.6.

Julius McCoy, who also hit 27 points against Minnesota, jumped from 16th place to 12th with an average of 18.1.

The Spartans as a team rank No. 1 in the conference in shooting average, following the 50 percent mark against the Gophers.

Duane Peterson, Spartan center, is still the top shooter, sinking 56 percent of his shots.

Minnesota is tops in team scoring, averaging 86.7 points per game and Iowa is the best defensive club, holding its opponents to 78.3 points per game.

DiMag Named To Baseball Hall of Fame

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe DiMaggio led a four-man ticket into baseball's Hall of Fame Wednesday as the 10-year members of the baseball writers association elected the former New York Yankee star, Ted Lyons, Dazzy Vance and Gabby Hartnett to membership.

Vance and Lyons, two of the great right-handed pitchers of the 1920s and 1930s, Hartnett, a former standout catcher with the Chicago Cubs, and outfielder DiMaggio will be inducted formally at the Cooperstown, N.Y. museum, July 25.

The four men breezed home with room to spare under the rules that required mention on three-fourths, or 139, of the 251 ballots, for election.

And Tuesday night Belmont turned the trick again 115-100.

Preliminaries for the Inter-dorm Swimming Meet will be held Feb. 15 and 16 at 7:30 in Jenison Pool.

The same eight events as last year are scheduled: 50 yard freestyle, 50 yard backstroke, 200 yard freestyle, 100 yard backstroke, 100 yard freestyle, 75 yard medley relay consisting of freestyle, breast and back stroke, and diving.

The six individual events will be run off both nights of the preliminaries. Finals in these six events, plus the two relays, will comprise the second meet.

The six men with the best time in each individual event will qualify.

A contestant may enter three events in the preliminaries including the relays.

The captain of each dorm will select the relay teams to represent his dorm.

Eligibility will be limited to men who have not earned varsity or minor swimming awards at MSC.

Gymnastic team members will be eligible for all competition except diving.

The IM office announced that the pool will be open for practice Monday through Friday 7-8:30 p.m.

Closing date for all entries is 5 p.m. Feb. 14. The dorm finals will be held Feb. 17.

Fraternities begin their swim competition Feb. 15-22, with finals held March 3 at the IM Open House.

Rules will be the same as above except that two men may enter each event from one house. If a fraternity qualifies, any team member may swim the relays.

Inter-dorm table tennis play-offs are scheduled for Feb. 21-25. All dorms are asked to start intra-dorm matches to decide their teams. Teams must be entered in the IM office by Feb. 18.

Notice to all handball contestants: the deadline for entries is 5 p.m. Friday.

SCIENCE MADE SIMPLE: No. 1

In this day and age, as I like to call it, everybody should be something about science. Unfortunately, however, the great mass of us are majoring in elocution, and we do not get a chance to study any science. But we can at least learn the foundations.

Though this column is intended to be a source of pleasant moment for all sexes and not to concern itself with weighty matters, I have asked the makers of Philip Morris whether I might not be time to time use this space for a short lesson in science. "Mmm," I said to them, "might I not from time to time use this space for a short lesson in science?"

"Bless you, lad!" cried the makers, chucking. "You may certainly use this space from time to time for a short lesson in science. They are very benign men, the makers, fond of children, of animals, community singing, and simple country food. Their benevolence is due in no small measure to the cigarettes they smoke."

Philip Morris is a cigarette to soothe the most savage of passions. I said to them, "might I not from time to time use this space for a short lesson in science?"

Just Squirt Frosting? Never!

When you decorate a cake, do you just squirt a lot of frosting in the middle of it and let it go? If so, the Michigan Bakers Association would be mighty displeased with you. To them, cake decorating is a definite art, and they compare the results to women's hats. "It's not how big or small the hat is, but the way she puts it on her head that makes it attractive," said Emil Hilbert of Chicago. He was speaking to 200 Michigan bakers at their conference held at MSC last week. He contended that cake decorators should follow the basic principles of good art design and composition. A cue for you cake bakers. The cake should be divided into various size areas and the center of attraction should be the upper right hand corner. One of the highlights of their conference was an extensive display of elaborately decorated cakes fashioned by Michigan's leading bakers.

The Myriad "Ein, Zwei..."

By MYRA MacPHERSON
State News Feature Editor

A good rousing drinking song seems to appeal to almost everyone.

"Drink, Drink, Drink" is almost worn out on all the student copies of the "Student Prince" albums I've heard, and stores sell musical German steins that tinkle away "Ein, Zwei, ..." etc.

"Crazy Otto" the German bar room piano chief, seems to have upset America with his versions of such oldies as "Heart of My Heart," which are good group songs if not exactly drinking songs.

And at the risk of seeming unpatriotic, I might even suggest that we turn the "Star Spangled Banner," into a drinking song, but that would be nothing new. Ever hear of "To Anacreon in Heaven"? This English song was sung at social gatherings, long before the words "Oh, say can you see ..." were ever thought of to go with the melody.

Brush up your history with this little bit of information. Just think of all the people you'll be able to astound, if you can ever get them to pay attention.

The song was composed in London between 1770 and 1775 by John Stafford Smith, one of the best Anacreons you ever saw. So what's an Anacreon? Members of a drinking club called, but of course, the Anacreontic Society of London.

It was founded in the honor of a Greek poet, Anacreon, who choked to death on a grape seed, according to legend.

The tune soon traveled to America, where more than 16 songs cropped up based on the same tune but with different lyrics. Among these highly patriotic songs were: "Freedom Triumphant," "For the Glorious," "Adams and Liberty," "Our Country's Efficiency," "Brave Sons of Columbia," "Embargo and Peace," and "Well Met, Fellow Freeman!"

These were followed by the long lasting version of the "Star Spangled Banner," which legally became our national anthem in 1931.

But back to "Anacreon in Heaven." Here are the words if you want to try to fit them to the tune. If the meter doesn't come out right the first time, don't be discouraged. Or after the third or fourth try, either, unless you're a music major. It'll come to you eventually and then you can pop out with it the next time you're socializing.

"To Anacreon in Heav'n, where he sat in full Glee,
A few Sons of Harmony send a petition,
That he their Inspirer, and Patron would be;
When this answer arrived from the Jolly Old Grecian—
'Voice, Fiddle and Flute, no longer be mute;
I'll lend you my Name and inspire you to boot,
And besides, I'll instruct you like me, to intwine,
The Myrtle of Venus with Bacchus's vine."

Art Honorary Exhibits Pledging

Pledge activities sometimes run to eating garlic, playing "moo" under carpets, carrying paddles and other requirements.

Delta Phi Delta, the art major's honorary, has made an exhibit of their pledges' requirements in the South Campus art building. The projects, which can be both beautiful and useful, are two of the pledge's works. Whatever the pledge is working on—sculpture, ceramics or painting—can be submitted.

The annual pledge show, selected from the projects the pledges turn in, is now open in the Delta Phi Delta gallery in A7. The honorary also sponsors other shows in their gallery during the year.

Other requirements for Delta Phi Delta are junior standing, a 3.0 average in art department classes and an all-college 2.0.

Trio Acts Way to West Coast

By BEN WHITEHEAD

Vaudeville performers have nothing on three Spartans who wound up having the coolest Yule possible out in sunny California where the temperature never dropped below 80.

Bill Buchanan, Jack Wipper, and Ron Grow did a little cross country entertaining as they worked their way out to the coast and back. Transportation was solved when they drove an agency car to Hollywood for delivery.

The three MSC television majors started on their trek Dec. 18 and their first stop—and hit—was Joplin, Mo. They were well received, with Grow as master of ceremonies, Buchanan doing impersonations, and Wipper turning into a magician. When they passed the hat, enough money was taken in to meet expenses for the next day.

Amarillo, Texas liked them well enough to pass the lure their way for cats and incidentals. From Amarillo, they went to Los Vegas where they played the Cal-Neva Motel. This was their jackpot, because the motel supplied the meals and a room for the night (but no money).

When the trio arrived in Los Angeles, they set up headquarters in a UCLA fraternity house and set out to see the town.

Student Sells Car Just in Time

One MSC student figures may be he sold his car just in time.

Two weeks after George Montel, Grand Rapids senior, sold his 1949 sedan, Grand Rapids police picked it up.

The car was perforated with bullet holes.

Police chasing a suspected thief who was driving the car fired 19 shots at the fleeing auto.

While touring Universal-International, they bumped into Jeff Chandler, Joan Crawford, Ann Baxter and Julie Adams.

A trip to CBS Television City found them hobnobbing with Red Skelton, Jerry Colona, and Bob Crosby as well as appearing on the Art Linkletter show.

Red Skelton gave the group the following advice when they asked about aspiring young comedians.

"Be humble. Be like me—I can't dance, can't act, can't sing. I'm not funny, but I can't quit or I'd starve to death."

Their California days ended on Christmas day when they started their hitch back to East Lansing. They made it in three days—in plenty of time for their show at a Lansing entertainment spot New Year's Eve.

Light exerts pressure when it falls on an object.

MSC Coed Featured In Magazine

The American Magazine's "Coed of the Month" is an MSC sophomore who loves to ride horses.

Ellarene Copp is a skilled horsewoman who earns her college expenses by conducting her own riding school during the summer. This member of the Block and Bridle Club is studying animal husbandry.

Ellarene has been riding since she was three years old, and has "a kind of warm feeling toward horses" as a result of a childhood accident. One day she was playing in a field where her father was plowing and accidentally fell in the furrow directly in front of the horses but out of her father's sight.

One of the horses recognized her, stopped and refused to move, thus saving her life.

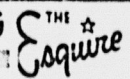

She now owns six horses and teaches anyone who wants to learn to ride. Her pupils range from 4 to 50 and at times she has both the children and their parents in her classes.

In the future she hopes to have a much larger school than her present one and to even go on tour. She would also like to be able to give underprivileged children a chance to ride.

Ellarene, who is from Okemos, likes MSC very much and says that "it just seems to have everything I wanted in a college."

MacArthur Urges Abolition of War

Rejects Preparedness as Means to Peaceful World

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gen. of the Army Douglas MacArthur Wednesday night urged this nation to "now proclaim our readiness to abolish war in concert with the great powers of the world."

Coast Guard Cutter Aids Plane at Sea

8 Persons Safe In Atlantic Storm

NEW YORK (AP) — In a delicately tricky hide and seek maneuver, a crippled four-engine military plane covered hundreds of miles of stormy mid-Atlantic Wednesday, then ditched beside a Coast Guard cutter. All eight persons aboard the plane were picked up safely.

For 2 hours and 21 minutes, the plane groped through storm and gathering dusk toward the Coast Guard cutter Coos Bay, a tiny speck on the sea.

Minutes before nightfall, the plane found its target. The pilot brought his craft down on the heaving, gale-swept sea. Lifeboats plowed to its side and the survivors were brought to safety.

The Coast Guard here said the plane, bound from the Azores to Bermuda, apparently accidentally lost 350 gallons of gasoline. Short of fuel and 1,000 miles east of Bermuda, there seemed to be no hope of making land.

At 12:37 a.m., the pilot radioed the U.S. Air Force base at Bermuda, said he was bucking vicious headwinds and despaired of reaching land.

The Coast Guard cutter immediately changed course, meanwhile guiding the pilot in its direction by radio.

A Coast Guard spokesman said it was almost dark when the plane came down. Total darkness, he explained, would have made a rescue all but impossible in such heavy seas.

Petitions Still Available for Lansing Seats

Petitions for vacant Student Congress seats will be accepted for the Lansing district until 5 p.m. Friday, Elections Commissioner Jan Dempsey announced.

No far two petitions have been turned in for the Lansing seats. Since two seats are open in this district, two more petitions are required.

Primary elections, scheduled for Tuesday, include four districts with their candidates: West Shaw, three; fraternities, five; sororities, four; and East Lansing, four.

In the final elections on Feb. 3 three other districts will be represented. These are Phillips, Rother and Bryan.

The Union Concourse will have a voting box set up from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on election days for fraternities, sororities, East Lansing and Lansing districts. The dormitories will hold voting during regular meal hours.

Payment for European Trip Begins Today

Deposits for a summer trip in Europe will be taken by Union Board today. Students wishing to go on tour abroad must make a down payment of $100 before Feb. 10. The balance is to be paid by six weeks previous to the sailing date.

The sailing date has been changed from July 1 to July 15 and New York City will be the starting place for the 58-day tour, according to Jack Winkler, MSC graduate and representative of Gibb's Tours.

Slides were shown of different European scenes at a meeting Wednesday night.

One full day in Barcelona, Spain, has been added to the tour without extra cost to the student. The SS Roma will carry the tourists to Europe from the New York harbor.

Germany, England, Italy, France and the low countries will be visited during the tour.

The tour will cost $1,313.30. This is approximately a saving of $200, according to Winkler. Most of the clerical work in arranging the tour is being done by Union Board.

Viewers to See Writing Course

"Clashes, Killers of Originality" will be the topic discussed at 3:30 today on WKAR-TV by Dr. William Butt, instructor in communication skills.

The "deadliness of trite expressions" and ways to detect and eliminate clichés from writing be stressed on the program.

The telecast will be produced as part of the telecourse series "Clear Writing" which is presented every Tuesday and Thursday.

Troops Hunt Costa Rican Stragglers

Nicaraguans Say Revolution Over

San Jose, Costa Rica, (AP) — Government troops were searching for the last straggling rebels in northwestern Costa Rica Wednesday and San Jose relaxed into its normal quiet after a fortnight of war tension.

There were probably no more than 100 rebels still wandering the wooded hills of upper Guanacaste province. They apparently were small groups lost from the main body that retreated into Nicaragua Tuesday, ending a two-week-old rebellion.

In Managua, Nicaragua's President Anastasio Somoza said he felt the Costa Rican revolution is over. The three top rebel leaders had taken about 210 of their men across the border into Nicaragua, where they were disarmed and interned.

The three leaders, all confined in Managua, are Costa Rica's ex-president Rafael Angel Calderon Guardia, who was the revolution's supreme commander; his brother, Francisco Calderon Guardia; and Capt. Teodoro Picado Jr., West Point-educated son of another ex-president.

Somoza said the rebels thought it "useless to continue fighting against such odds."

He added they would remain politically interned for some time but said he hoped Costa Rican President Jose Figueres would permit the exiles to return home. Somoza said he understood only two rebel patrols failed to cross the border.

Figueres has accused Somoza of supporting the revolt but the Nicaraguan president denied this. Any rebels still at large apparently are far enough from the Nicaraguan frontier and in small enough groups to be rounded up without danger of embroiling the two countries.

Cadillac Base Funds Asked

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP) — Air Force Officials said Wednesday they will ask the House Appropriations Committee to release $8,500,000 to start construction of a jet base at Cadillac.

Appropriations Committee Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo) ordered the money held up after he learned the appropriations were granted by the last congress to build the base at Homestead in Benzie County.

After Congress acted, the House Armed Services committee rejected the Benzie site. Air Force Secy. Tamm then picked Cadillac over the third site considered—Kalkaska near Traverse City.

A letter written by Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) strengthened the air force support of the Cadillac site. Vinson wrote Rep. Thompson (R-Mich) and Rep. Knox (R-Mich) that his committee will not hear any arguments against Cadillac unless they relate to national defense.

The Homestead and Cadillac sites are in Miss Thompson's district. The Kalkaska site is in Knox's district.

Dimes Drive Gets Support Of Congress

Spartan Village mothers will campaign for the March of Dimes tonight with the support of Student Government.

Student Congress passed a bill last night to allow a collection, other than Campus Chest, to be conducted in the married housing area.

Mrs. Jean Wilson will head a crew of 125 women from Spartan Village, who will collect funds between 7 and 8 p.m. in the married housing area. A similar drive will be conducted among faculty residences.

Solicitors will visit only homes that leave their porchlight on or attach a white flag to their porch to signify they are willing to give.
