New Rules

Lansing Houses Now Approved

The boundaries covering approved off-campus housing will be extended to include all of Lansing, Dean of Students Tom King said Thursday.

Past policy had included only the homes on the college side of Pennsylvania avenue on the east side of Lansing.

Now housing will be inspected in Lansing proper and homes that meet the proper qualifications will be approved for MSC students.

Students wishing to live in a house in Lansing which has not yet been approved may ask to have the house inspected and MSC officials will do so, King said.

Scattered exceptions to the rule were made only in unusual circumstances.

College officials said the Pennsylvania avenue limit was set because it was thought that housing on the far side of Lansing was too far from the campus for the convenience of students.

To be eligible for approval by college inspectors, a home must meet requirements on sanitation, fire and safety facilities.

Other rules applying to off-campus housing will remain the same for the present, he said.

French Vote On Policy Due Today

Assembly Challenged By Mendes-France

PARIS (AP) — Premier Pierre Mendes-France, facing what appeared to be almost certain defeat, challenged the French National Assembly Thursday night to approve his policy in North Africa or throw him out.

The Assembly will vote on the question of confidence in the government today.

Although the Premier, heading France's 20th government in a little over 10 years since liberation, appealed Thursday night "with all my force and conviction" for the support of the Assembly, he appeared to have helped his cause but little.

The fate of the government has been extremely doubtful for a week because many deputies have grown disgruntled over many things.

But it seemed to have been sealed Thursday afternoon when former Premier Rene Mayer broke with Mendes-France and came out against the government.

Mayer is the leader of the right wing of the Radical Socialists, and Mendes-France is a spokesman for the left wing of the same party.

Many deputies expected 20 or 30 members of the party, which has 76 seats in the Assembly, would follow Mayer.

Although the vote would be on Mendes-France's policy of negotiating for democratic reforms to give North Africans more say in their government and undercut the nationalistic terror campaign there, many deputies hoped for his fall because he has put on pressure for the rearmament of West Germany.

Free China Withdrawal Hits Snag

Red Pressure In Tachens Ebbs

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — A Nationalist withdrawal from the Tachens appeared snagged today in negotiations, but the Reds seemed to be putting no pressure on the islands 200 miles north of Formosa.

There were reports the United States was reluctant to give a clear-cut guarantee to help protect Matsu and Quemoy, the most important Nationalist offshore islands, after a Tachens withdrawal. For the second straight day there was no report of any Communist activity in the Tachens area except for the usual shuttling of supply ships.

Nationalist officials discounted some published reports that the Red ships were an invasion fleet.

There were indications that if the United States gives no guarantee for Matsu and Quemoy, the Nationalists will ask to reconsider the whole Tachens question.

The Nationalists, say sources who should know what is going on, would prefer to make a death stand for the Tachens.

These sources gave the impression the United States once agreed to give assurances about Quemoy and Matsu, then changed its mind.

Nationalist quarters indicated there was no agreement reached at a long meeting Wednesday between President Chiang Kai-shek and U.S. Ambassador Karl L. Rusk.

They were believed to have discussed the wording of a pronouncement on the Tachens issue.

The Nationalist position appeared to be that Chiang did not think he could afford to pull out of the Tachens without an open U.S. assurance of help in defending Quemoy and Matsu.

Another shipload of refugees was due in from the Tachens, but so far the civilian withdrawal is only a dribble. There are 15,000 civilians on the islands.

Enslaved Housewives Capitalists 'Not Lovable'

By the Associated Press

MOSCOW (AP) — Women in capitalist countries have been enslaved by men and consequently married women hate their husbands.

Love between men and women is only possible under communism where women have gained complete equality.

These are the twin themes of an article in the magazine "Questions of Philosophy" by A. G. Kharchev.

He concludes that the family unit is falling apart and the birth rate declining catastrophically in capitalist countries and especially the United States. He says:

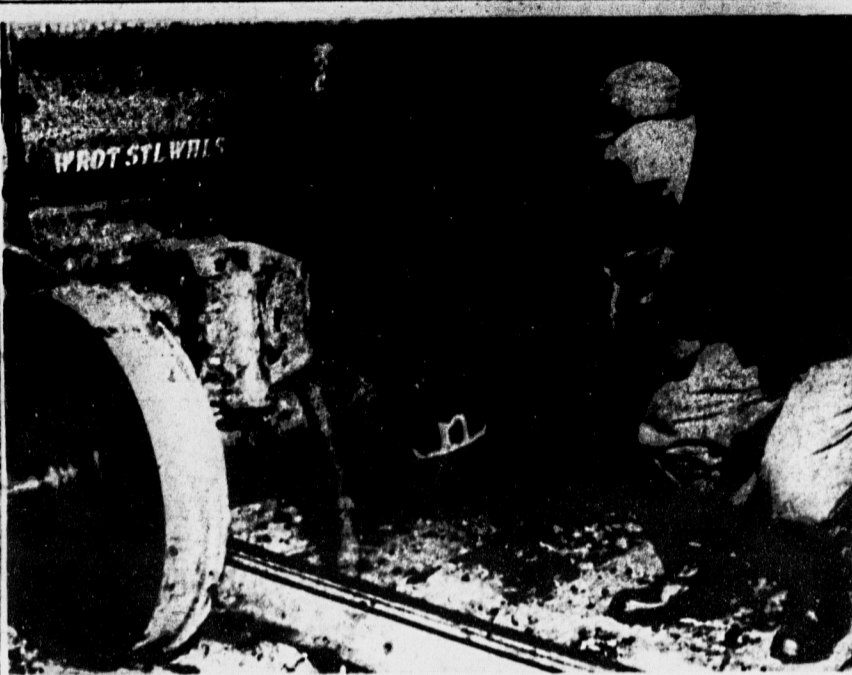

"In capitalist society a woman is supposed to stick to the kitchen, her children, church and clothes. A woman is not considered a whole human being capable of carrying on fruitful labor, political and cultural activities.

"This brings about an unavoidable mutual hatred between married couples. Unfaithfulness and prostitution are growing from year to year. The crises of the family is symbolized in the citadel of modern capitalism—the United States."

In an array of statistics, there is one which Kharchev does not feature—statistics showing that the birth rate in the United States was higher in 1954 than at any time in history, that it was the highest for decades in France and is rising constantly all over the West.

"A solid, truly monogamous family based on mutual love and friendship between husband and wife can be created only by doing away with the oppression and enslavement of the female half of humanity," he wrote.

C&O Freight Train Derailed In Lansing

By ERIC LUNDBERG
A Chesapeake & Ohio freight train was derailed north of the Pere Marquette passenger station holding up rush hour traffic on Saginaw Street and Michigan Avenue and closing Shiawassee Avenue for an hour and a half late Thursday afternoon.

No one was hurt in the accident.

The derailment was caused by a set of wheels breaking on a box-car about ten cars behind the engine, according to switch yard foreman Orrie Ellsworth.

Ellsworth said nine cars were derailed and parts of the wheel were strewn along the tracks for about one hundred yards.

The train was traveling north on the New York Central tracks between Michigan Avenue and Saginaw Street when the accident occurred. There were about 80 cars on the train.

Elected to the supervisory committee were Charles Lawrence, chairman, V. G. Grove, and Dale Hathaway. Credit committee members are Vern Severance, chairman, Ray Bailey, and Howard Winters.

The Credit Union, a savings and loan association for college employees, now has 1,356 members. Its office in 102 Power Plant is open weekdays from 12:30 to 2 p.m.

As of Dec. 31, 1954, the Union had $497,000 in assets, and declared a 4 per cent dividend for shareholders for last year.

House Votes Tribute To MSC

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, by unusual action, Thursday passed a resolution extending greetings to Michigan State College on the 100th anniversary of its founding.

The resolution was introduced by Rep. Hayworth (D-Mich.) and was acted upon immediately without going through committee as is customary.

Democratic House Leader McCormack of Massachusetts told the House the procedure was "most unusual, and a tribute to that great university."

Twinkle Toes Ready Tonight For J-Hop

One thousand five hundred dancers are expected to jam the auditorium tonight for the first edition of the 1955 J-Hop.

Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra will provide the dance music and the "Salt City Five," a dixieland combo, will shake the rafters during the intermission.

The theme, "C'est Magnifique," will be illustrated in an 11-foot fountain placed in the center of the floor. The setting is the Palace of Versailles, following the French theme.

WJR will broadcast the dance nationally over the CBS radio network from 11:30 p.m. until midnight.

Coeds will have until 4 a.m. to enjoy the festivities tonight. Saturday night permissions extend until 3 a.m. The Union Grill will be open for breakfast after the dance tonight.

Saturday night's formal edition of the Hop, will be highlighted by the crowning of Miss Big 10 during the intermission.

WJIM will broadcast the dance Saturday night from 11:30 until midnight.

Hot Dance, Cold Night; Stay Cool

Winds today will come from the north, at 6-16 miles an hour.

UN Told Nationalists Must Go

Assembly Votes 'Price Too High'

TOKYO (AP) — Red China today rejected the United Nations' invitation to participate in talks on a cease-fire for the Formosa Strait.

Premier Chou En-lai informed the U. N. he will not send a spokesman to New York unless Nationalist China is ousted from the U. N. Security Council.

And in any case, Chou said, he would send a representative only to discuss Soviet charges that the United States is guilty of aggression against China.

Votes in the U. N. have shown it is not prepared to pay such a price for Red China's participation in discussions.

Only last Monday the Security Council overwhelmingly voted down a Soviet demand that Chiang Kai-shek's ambassador be excluded from the Formosan debate.

Two questions are before the council:

1. A New Zealand proposal that the U. N. seek to end hostilities on certain islands off the Chinese mainland. This refers to the Tachens and other islands in Formosa Strait, but not to Formosa itself.

2. A Soviet proposal which charges the United States with aggression against China and calls for withdrawal of all U. S. forces from the China area.

The Council has agreed to give priority to New Zealand's proposal, but the Western powers still have not put forward a formal resolution for a cease-fire.

In his message Friday Chou contended that the Council's decision to consider the New Zealand move was "intervention in China's internal affairs" that is no concern of the U. N.

He stressed that his government would have no part in such discussions and would regard any U. N. action on this subject as "illegal and null and void."

At U. N. headquarters, the news of Chou's stand was received with disappointment.

Chou's decision, broadcast by Peiping radio, was in reply to an invitation sent by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold Monday on instructions from the Security Council.

Under the invitation, the Chinese Communist representative would have been permitted to take part in the Council discussions but would not have had a vote. Once before, in 1950, Red China sent a representative to the U. N. for debate on alleged U. S. aggression against China, but the Council threw out the charges.

Chou's message said:

"The government of the People's Republic of China hold that only for the purpose of discussing the resolution of the Soviet Union, and only when the representatives of Chiang Kai-shek's clique have been driven out from the Security Council and the representatives of the People's Republic of China attend in the name of China, can the People's Republic of China agree to send a representative to take part in the discussions of the Security Council."

There appeared to be no loophole in this which would permit a compromise.

Chou devoted most of his 800-word message to an attack on the Council and the New Zealand cease-fire proposal. He called the plan a "direct violation of the fundamental principles of the U. N. charter."

"The government of the People's Republic of China is firmly opposed to these proposals to interfere in China's internal affairs," he said.

"Therefore the government of the People's Republic of China cannot send a representative to take part in the discussion of the New Zealand proposal in response to the invitation of the U. N. Security Council."

Queen Contest Gets a Boost

It just goes to show you what can be done with an idea. "Let's bring the Big 10 Queen Contest to MSC," said a couple of student groups last term. It was just a thought then, but now it's snowballed into the real thing.

Seven coeds from Big 10 colleges will arrive today to join MSC's Queen, Judy Bradley, in a weekend of contest festivities.

Though some people might say there are too many queen contests now, MSC doesn't seem to share that opinion. Everyone seems to welcome the contest—and the girls—with open arms. A weekend of banquets, parties, guest appearances, and J-Hop engagements have been planned for the coeds.

After only two years of existence, the contest looked like it might be falling flat on its pretty face. Northwestern University wasn't particularly interested in sponsoring it again after last year's attempt when only four contestants showed up.

The contest was hanging in mid-air and MSC's student government thought perhaps some group on this campus would like to sponsor the project. The junior class did, and stepped in to make the idea a concrete thing.

It is encouraging to note that this year there will be eight contestants. And the two colleges not represented simply do not engage in conference queen contests.

It seems as though the whole contest got a shot in the arm at just the right time. The hard work which has gone into this year's contest may bring the queens to Michigan State every year. Big 10 college presidents will be voting on such an idea in the near future.

A contest of this stature stirs nationwide interest and recognition for the Big 10 since this year's winner will ride in next year's Rose Bowl parade.

Congratulations are in store for student government which presented the idea, and for the junior class which proved that something new can be started at MSC, if enough interest is shown.

Whoever the winner, it'll be a weekend and a contest to remember.

For Founders' Day Ticket Distribution Ripped by Student

To the Editor: The method of distributing student tickets for the Founders' Day Convocation raises several issues.

The distribution of the tickets on a living unit population basis presupposes that all living units have the same percentage of students equally interested in attending the convocation, and that those students from each unit who really want to go will get the tickets. The validity of this assumption is questionable.

A further complication is that each living unit president is placed in the unfortunate position of having to devise a fair method for further distribution of the tickets—that is, not including the four gift tickets "which he, the president, can use as he pleases."

cedure is quite obvious, and there seems to be little justification for this method of ticket distribution.

It is unfair to the student body as a whole and to the individuals in each living unit who must distribute the tickets.

As the number of student tickets for the Convocation were limited, a much more sensible and logical basis for distribution would seem to have been simply:

- 1. College enrollment, and
2. First-come, first served, with one ticket for each person who was willing to walk over to the Union to get it.
Any future ticket distribution of this nature might well be handled much more efficiently in this manner.

Formosan Stalemate: Loss for Both Sides

By J. M. ROBERTS Associated Press News Analyst

Stalemate has been the overwhelming pattern in the East-West conflict, and President Eisenhower referred to the word Wednesday as though it might fit his expectations with regard to Formosa.

Stalemate would mean a return to the situation of several months ago, with a lot of words but few bullets passing back and forth.

It would mean a cease-fire without any agreement on a cease-fire.

It would mean a recognition by Red China of the fact that pursuit of her intent to invade Formosa would involve payment of too high a price, the price of war with the United States.

It would mean recognition by Nationalist China that the United States will not support the Chiang Kai-shek dream of an invasion of the mainland.

Both sides would lose by it. The Reds would lose face, in that they would be backing down from their promise to take Formosa.

The West would lose much of the deterrent effect of Chiang Kai-shek's poised forces, representing a threat to the Reds if they deploy their troops for military adventures, such as Burma or Thailand.

Thus, in effect, stalemate would mean the avoidance of an immediate war threat while increasing the danger of later war threats.

This is the procedure which has become recurrent ever since the Berlin blockade and the fall of Czechoslovakia. There is little doubt that it is a consistent part of Communist policy.

It began with the idea that it would encourage economic upheavals upon which the Communists could capitalize in their hope of world conquest, and continues as a part of both political and military strategy.

For instance, at this moment, although President Eisenhower reiterates his adherence to his plan to reduce the size of the Army, the Formosan situation is having an effect in Congress, where there is a strong tendency to keep up peak defense preparations despite the expense.

As the President contends, there is certainly no implication of appeasement in the search for a certain type of coexistence, or "Two Chinas," as some refer to it.

Student Pleads Don't Ask Me to Fight In Formosa

To the Editor:

One cannot rationalize the defense of Formosa by saying "the Philippines are involved" or "the Japanese feel the breath of the Reds closing around them."

Either it is legitimate to defend Formosa, or it is not—past mistakes to the contrary.

Peking cannot be said to be the aggressor in her own "defacto" waters, and where no international boundary exists. She can, however, very easily fear the presence of U.S. air and naval task forces there.

Let us remove fear and misunderstanding from the hearts of our foes, and then, if we come to Japan or to the Philippines, we may feel justified in the savage defense thereof.

I fought aggression in Korea. Do not ask me to fight for power and strategy on Formosa.

Most Michigan Normal Informal Meet Saturday

By HAL BATEMAN

Spartan track team makes its first home appearance indoors when they meet the Michigan Normal in an informal dual meet Saturday in Jenison Fieldhouse.

The running events will begin at 2 p.m. and the pole vault and broad jump start at 1:30.

An unofficial team score will be kept and all events will be run. There will be a freshman event following each varsity event.

Leading the varsity will be Capt. Kevan Gosper, who is entered in the 300 and 440-yard runs plus anchoring the mile relay.

In jeopardy will be the quarter-mile fieldhouse record of 48.8 set in 1942 by Michigan's Bob Ufer. Gosper, earlier in the season, set a new varsity indoor record of 48.5.

The team received a valuable addition with the return of Dave Hoke, who had been sidelined with an injured foot.

Hoke, a 1:53 half-miler, is entered in the 440, 880 and mile relay.

Joe Savoldi again assumes the role of all-around man by entering in the high-jump, broad jump, shot put, high hurdles and low hurdles.

Doug Stuart, Jim Wrozman and Alex Waier are entered in high jump while Chuck Cockendall and George Best are in the pole vault.

Hurdlers will be Savoldi, Neely and John Coleman.

The weightmen include Bob McKillop, Dave Gostell and Bob Muessig.

Michigan Normal will enter such outstanding men as hurdler Duane Root, middle-distance runner Ernie Bennett, Jerry Ziney and Bob Rowland. Maryland Blum is entered in the pole vault.

The 70-yard low hurdles will pit Michigan State's Howard Neely against Willard Neely, his brother, who attends Normal.

The freshman mile race will see Henry Kennedy attempt to crack the freshman mile indoor record of 4:21.2 set by Jack Dianetti in 1947.

The Spartan sprinters will be Ed Brabham, Travis Buggs, Jim Bigelow, Howard Neely, Tom Flynn and Ron Sues.

Skiing is excellent at Caberfee with a 2" powder over a 12" packed base.

Swim Rally Tops Illini, 54-39

Staging a perfect comeback in the last three events, Michigan State's swimming team scored a 54-39 win over Illinois Thursday night at Jenison pool.

Trailing, 33-30, the Spartans placed first and scored in both the 200-yard breaststroke and the 440-yard freestyle to sex up the meet.

Seven dual meet records fell during the meet, four to MSC and three to the Illini.

Illinois won the first event, the 300-yard relay, in dual meet record time of 2:53.7.

Spartan Jack Beattie followed with a win in the 220-yard freestyle to tie the meet finishing in 2:13.9.

Illinois regained its lead as Don Larson edged Tom Pavette in the 50-yard free style. Larson set a dual meet record with a time of 23.5.

Illinois added to its lead, winning the 150-yard individual medley and the diving, with Bob Carey's time of 1:34.4 setting a dual meet record in the medley.

Pavette set a record, winning the 100-yard free style in 52.6 and Frank Paganini followed with a record performance in the 200-yard backstroke, winning in 2:22.1.

With the Spartans trailing, John Dudeck and Paul Kienke finished one-two in the 200-yard breaststroke, giving the Spartans a 28-14 lead.

Dudeck's time of 2:32 set dual meet, pool and MSC varsity records.

Jack Beattie and Jim Rickard followed with first and second in the 440-yard free style to mathematically win the meet.

In the finale, the MSC 400-yard relay team of Tom Wines, Jim Clemens, Frank Parrish and Pavette broke an eight-year-old dual meet record, winning in 3:34.3.

The swimmers now leave for a weekend meet with Purdue at Lafayette.

Maurice Richard of the Montreal Canadians scored both his 325th and 400th National Hockey League goals against Al Rollins of Chicago.

Hoopsters Take to Road For 4 Games

Face Wisconsin Saturday

Four straight victories will be the aim of the Spartan capers Saturday when they start a four-game road trip at Madison, Wis.

After Wisconsin, State must face Notre Dame, Northwestern and Illinois before returning home on Feb. 19 to engage Iowa.

Wisconsin will be out to seek revenge for the 94-77 thumping received from the Spartans on Jan. 8. What made it especially humiliating for the Badgers was that the game was nationally televised.

Since playing the Spartans, Wisconsin has won two games and lost one, beating Indiana and Butler and losing to Michigan.

Still leading the Badgers in scoring is forward Dick Cable. His 9.2 points per game average places him ninth in the Big 10 scoring race. Cable has been the high scorer for Wisconsin in all but three of their 13 games.

Michigan State needs to win Saturday if they are to remain in the first division of the Big 10 race.

The Spartans are currently tied with Northwestern for fourth place, both teams one game behind league-leading Minnesota.

Other Big 10 action Saturday finds Purdue at Iowa, in the television game of the week, Northwestern at Illinois and Indiana at Ohio State.

Fencers to Host Tartars Saturday

Michigan State's fencers play host to the Tartars of Wayne University Saturday in their second home meet of the season.

State's record to date is two wins and three defeats. Coach Charles Schmitter is hoping that the squad will be up to their old form and beat the Tartars, thus evening up their season's record.

Though many challenges have taken place in practice this week, Schmitter predicts no lineup changes.

Saturday's meet will be held in Jenison gym, beginning at 2 p.m.

Skaters Face Gophers Twice

Hockey coach Amo Bessone's skaters have a chance to get back in the Western Intercollegiate Hockey League race with a pair of wins over the Gophers of Minnesota at Minneapolis tonight and Saturday.

The Spartans, currently in fourth place behind Colorado College, Michigan Tech and Denver, are half a point ahead of the Gophers in the standings but the Minnesota squad has been coming along fast.

Sparked by the league's leading scorer John Mayasich and George Jetty, currently in fourth place in the tally race, the Gophers dumped a strong Michigan Tech team twice last weekend to climb out of the cellar to within a half point of the Spartans.

The MSC jers are in their poorest physical shape of the season going into the series, according to Bessone.

Matmen Face Boilermakers In Road Meet

On the road for the third consecutive week, the Spartan matmen face a man-size task when they tangle with Purdue, 1954 Big 10 champs, at Lafayette, Ind., Saturday.

The Boilermakers have a squad consisting of five lettermen from their championship squad, including Amet Senol, 177-pound Big 10 titlist and Turkish Olympic wrestler, and Clarence Weick, Big 10 147-pound champ.

Both Senol and Weick were out of action last week. Senol because of an injury, and Weick a victim of the books.

Dick Hoke, undefeated 123-pounder, will oppose letterman Bob Algarin whom he defeated, 3-0, in an earlier quadrangular meet.

Also in that meet, in which Purdue and MSC fought to a 44-44 draw, Jim Smadison, Dick Abraham and Ted Lennox defeated their Boilermaker opponents.

These men will all be moved down a weight to compensate for the loss of the injured Bill Tambo.

A new face in the Spartan lineup will be Fred Kuester, junior from Milwaukee, Wis., who defeated Norm Gill in a mid-week challenge match for the 147-pound berth.

Bounding out the Spartan lineup will be rugged Bob Gunner in the 130-pound class.

Serve Until May Elections Seat 10 In Congress

By JERRY JENNINGS
Balloting in Thursday's winter-term final elections sent 10 new representatives to Student Congress, to serve the remainder of the school year.

Symphony Concert Set For Sunday

A Sunday afternoon concert will be played by the MSC Little Symphony at 4 in the Music Auditorium.

The program will be the second the Little Symphony has given since it originated last fall.

About 28 faculty members, faculty wives, graduate students and undergraduates will play the five light symphonic works in the concert.

"It is a program anyone will enjoy," said Dr. Roy Underwood, head of the department and official symphony director.

Mozart's "Don Giovanni" overture will open the concert, followed by his "Sinfonia Concertante K. Ank. 9."

Samuel Scott, instructor, will conduct contemporary British composer Richard Arnell's "Sonata for Chamber Orchestra."

A "Fantasia on 'Greensleeves,'" created by R. Vaughan Williams from the well-known folk song, and "Lovely Joan," will be performed.

The finale, described by Underwood as "fun," is "Divertissement" by Ibert. Its six movements are mostly satirical comments on standardized musical forms.

Alpine Movie Postponed

As the J-Hop moves into the Auditorium Friday and Saturday nights, the weekly World Travel Series will move out but only for five weeks.

Next week's travelogue, "The Alps of Europe," by Neil Douglas, has been moved ahead to Saturday night, Feb. 12.

Originally the travel talk was scheduled for Feb. 11, but was changed so that Friday night could be used to set up the Auditorium for the next day's Founder's Day Program.

In West Shaw, Ronald Pataconi piled up 153 votes to win over Jon Thomson, with 69 votes. Phillips chose Lewis Janus, with 67 votes, over Stuart Hayes, who gained 60 votes.

A heavy vote in Rather Hall gave Richard Van Orman, with 122 votes, and Arthur Jacobs, with 59 votes, the two vacant Congress seats from that district. The losers were Art Rosenberg, with 47 votes, and Robert Fisher, with 42 votes.

Richard Johnson, with 137 votes, won the election in Bryan. His opponent, Benjamin Whitehead, received 54 votes.

The sororities elected Jean Trinklein, with 59 votes, over Betsy Strickling, who had 36 votes.

Michael Bosco, with 43 votes, won in the fraternities. The losers were Don Hadden, with 39 votes, and Terry Wilson, with 36 votes. Wilson's name was not on the ballot, since he had lost in the primaries.

In extremely seamy Lansing balloting, H. Richard Herrman, 25 votes, and Joe Shea, 10 votes, took the district's two vacant seats.

Nancy Irwin, with 41 votes, won over Robert Lee Hammond, with 19 votes, in the East Lansing election.

The men's dormitories all showed large election turnouts. Voting in the other districts was less heavy.

The winning candidates in Thursday's elections will be sworn in at the Student Congress meeting next Wednesday night. They will hold office until the regular elections in May.

Since the start of election week, three more resignations have produced Student Congress vacancies. Two are in married housing, and one is in Bryan, where Bill Conrad became speaker of Congress.

These vacancies will be filled by dormitory council appointments in the near future.

Married Housing

Married housing residents will assemble tonight at 8 p.m. in the Spartan Village Hall to discuss problems and formulate a mutual aid program.

The meeting will aim towards a more effective unity among Spartan Village Council, Spartan Nursery and the Spartan Wives Club, according to Pat Callahan, president of the council.

The cattle egret, a bird formerly found only in Africa and Asia, suddenly appeared in South America in 1930 and was found in the United States in 1952, says the National Geographic Society.

Wigs and Bustles Baffle Term Play Thespians

By JUNE TURNER
Bustles, wigs, and English accents are just a few problems to be solved before the curtain rises for act I of MSC's term play Feb. 17.

MSC players in "The School for Scandal" are finding out all sorts of things about 18th century London society, clothing, hairstyles, and accent.

Twenty wigs and costumes are being constructed especially for use in the play by junior classes in stage costuming and make-up.

Ten different colors are being used for the wigs—some of them over a foot high and decorated with flowers, feathers, stuffed birds, and miniature castles.

More than 80 yards of lace and 70 yards of gold braid are being used to decorate the 20 costumes. Ladies of the 18th century concealed their figures with voluminous skirts but equally revealed them by low-cut bodices.

An adaptation of the present-day stage English used by British actors will be used by the MSC players. Helping to rid them of some of their Michigan brogue is Barbara Purvis, Newcastle, England, special student, who spends three evenings a week coaching dialects.

that the proposals still required State Board approval and that the present night and weekend parking regulations will still be enforced pending that approval.

That means that students cannot park their cars on North Campus at any time, except for 15-minute periods in the dormitory areas after 7 each night.

Although unlimited driving is permitted on North Campus on week nights, Saturday afternoons and Sundays, students may park only after 7 p.m., and then only in the dormitory areas for 15-minute periods.

No parking is permitted Saturday afternoons or all day Sunday. Misunderstanding about the weekend parking rules has existed since the new student auto regulations went into effect last fall.

The weekend before last, 114 tickets were issued by campus police, most of them for violations of the weekend parking regulations.

First official warning from the campus police on weekend violations was published in a front-page State News article last Wednesday.

Campus police have reported that the number of tickets issued last weekend fell to 38.

Student misunderstanding of the present regulations is pointed up in the fact that the Student Traffic Appeals Court still has more than 100 appeals on its books for $10 tickets issued for weekend parking violations.

A decision on the appeals will come during the next few weeks. If accepted by the State Board, the recommendations would be in effect late this term and would allow:

1. Unlimited parking privileges after 7 p.m., Monday through Friday, on all parts of the campus—except in the coed dormitory areas where parking would still be limited to 15-minute periods. All parking would still be banned in the Kellogg Center lot as it is now, however.

(The 15-minute parking restriction would be lifted from the Harrison Road men's dormitory group, which is considered a part of North Campus.)

2. Unlimited parking privileges on Saturday afternoons and all day Sundays—except again for the coed dormitory areas where the 15-minute restriction would still apply.

Still in effect would be the blanket ban on all North Campus parking between the early-morning hours of 2 and 6.

Further recommendations that are now being studied by student government would allow driving and parking on Saturday mornings and Friday afternoons, the latter to accommodate students who want to load baggage before leaving for home on weekends.
