Program Planned for Wives, Too

Livestock Tops Day's Activity

Week will be the feature in today's sessions of the Week program. About 500 were present at meetings devoted to discussions of problems of and small fruit grower-sugar beet producers.

said sugar beets grow best in loose soil and should be planted as soon after plowing as possible.

Today, Livestock Day, will host beef cattlemen, sheep raisers and hogmen.

Michigan beef cattle breeders will hold a series of meetings this morning to discuss new ideas in this field. A smorgasbord banquet at 6:30 p.m. in the livestock pavilion will highlight tonight's activities.

Among the other groups meeting today are the muck farmers; vegetable and small fruit growers; foresters; beekeepers, and feed and grain men.

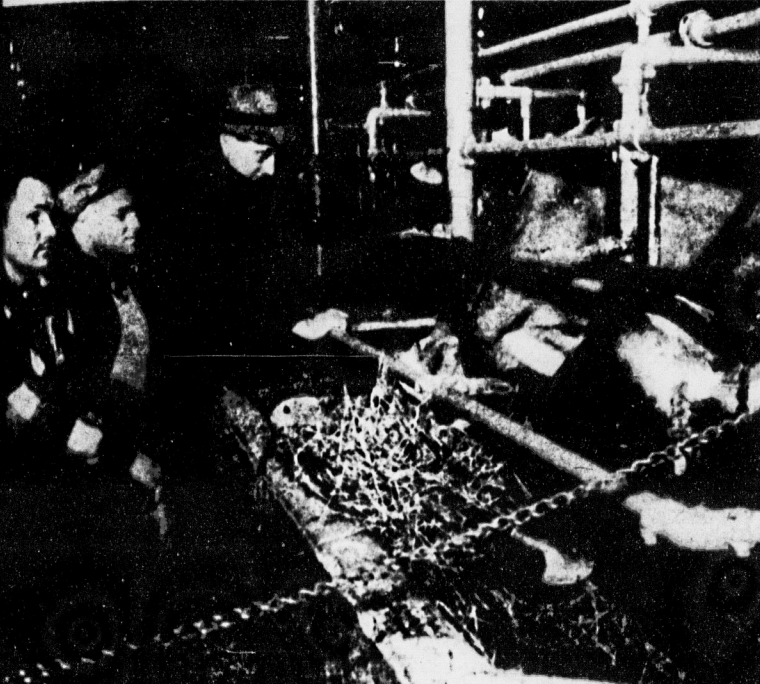

The farmer's wives will be occupied in a series of programs devoted to household equipment and home furnishings. Miss Ruth M. Beard, of Ohio State University, and Helen Ludwig, assistant professor of home economics at the University of Minnesota, will be speakers.

Included in the list of Home Economics activities will be lectures on such subjects as arranging home furnishings, by Miss Ludwig, and "Music for Everyone," by Roy L. Underwood, head of the music department.

Open house will be held in the Home Ec. building from 12-1:15. About 500 are expected to attend the short course alumni banquet in the Union Ballroom starting at 6 p.m. Dr. J. C. Christianson, director of agriculture short courses at the University of Minnesota, will be guest speaker.

A special attraction on tonight's program will be an intercollegiate debate between students of MSC and the University of Wisconsin. The topic in debate will be the agricultural price support program. The debate will start at 8 in the Kellogg Center auditorium.

An increase in attendance is expected tomorrow when the feature attraction will be a talk by Ezra T. Benson, Secretary of Agriculture.

Tachen Evacuation Nears End

Formosa (AP)—The U.S. Seventh Fleet anti-aircraft gunners removed Tuesday the last Chinese carrier plane from the island.

Otherwise, the Chinese Communists from nearby island positions still made no attempt to interfere in the withdrawal, which was moving in such high gear that some authorities expected it to be completed by Monday at the latest. The Communists are expected to move in shortly thereafter.

The Tachens are honeycombed with tunnels in solid rock, bomb shelters, subterranean command posts and supply caves. The Nationalists say they do not intend to leave these behind for the Reds.

Defense Ministry and Air Force sources said the guerrillas might go to other islands, possibly Nanchuan, which the Nationalists seem anxious to hold. Nanchuan is 80 miles south of the Tachens.

Announce to Attend Coffee Hour

Hannah will be the major coffee hour attraction from 3:30 to 4:00 in College Hall.

Most of the 15,000 civilians are on South or Lower Tachen. Most of the 15,000 National regulars and guerrillas are on North Tachen.

A press dispatch from the Tachens said guerrillas but no regular soldiers were loaded aboard Tuesday.

Happy Birthday Bureau Expects No Slip-Up in Forecast Today

Mostly cloudy weather with little change in temperature is expected today. There possibly will be light snow. A high of 32 to 38 degrees is expected. The Weather Bureau does forecast with extreme certainty that it will be 85-years-old today. Here's hoping for many happy forecasts to come.

House OK's Extension Of Draft

Bill Passes Easily With Vote 394-4

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House voted 394-4 Tuesday to continue the draft four years beyond June 30. It is currently taking about 11,000 young men each month.

The legislation, asked by President Eisenhower, now goes to the Senate. The same international pressures that helped to sweep it to passage in the House will be pushing it there, but the Senate is expected to take more than the one day of debate the House held.

Uncertainties of the Formosa situation and the designs of Russia were in the background as the house debated.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the Armed Services Committee, successfully resisting a move to limit the draft extension to two years, told the House: "We're about as close to shooting as has ever happened in the history of this government. In 1951, we had trouble in Korea. In 1955, we have trouble in the Formosan Straits."

A vote of 153-62 defeated an amendment by Rep. Wier (D-Minn.) to make the extension only two years beyond June 30.

In brief, the approved bill would continue until the middle of 1959 the government's authority to draft young men from 18½ to 26 years of age for two years of active duty, followed by six years in the reserves.

The measure continues present law under which all 18-year-olds must register, becoming subject to induction six months later. Deferments for essential industrial and farm workers and some students are permitted, but they are subject to the draft until the age of 35.

The House approved these two amendments by the Armed Services Committee: 1. Youths joining the National Guard under 18½ and serving until the age of 26 cannot be drafted in peacetime. 2. Men with six months' duty in the uniformed services or 24 months in the Public Health Service since Sept. 16, 1940, also would be exempt from the draft except in event of war.

Who's Who Flowers to Mark Guests At Centennial

There'll be no "mystery men" among MSC Founders' Day guests.

Keith Oelle of the Continuing Education Service, and Don Edwards, assistant professor of accounting, will make sure of that.

In cooperation with J. R. Gwinn, chairman of the Greater Lansing Community Committee, they worked out a plan to meet all planes and trains arriving in Lansing on Friday and Saturday.

Another problem came up. How would the Centennial guests and committee members recognize each other?

Each car will carry MSC Centennial signs, but they might be missed in the rush, transportation committee members thought.

Now, Capital Airlines stewardesses will ask each passenger for his destination. Each Founders' Day guest will be given a flower from the college greenhouse for his lapel. A similar system will be used on trains.

Return Founders' Day Tickets by Thursday

Students with Founders' Day Convocation tickets who do not plan to attend the Saturday meeting are asked to return the tickets to the Centennial desk in the Union Concourse by 5 p.m. Thursday.

Students who need tickets must register at the desk. Returned tickets will be distributed Friday to those students who register.

City Leaves Lass Breathless

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK (AP)—Few visitors arriving in New York by ship bother to bring along their own lifeboat anymore.

But Miss Janet Jones, a young lass from Wales, did. Stepping ashore clad in a red cloak, an 18th century style Welsh dress and a hightopped black beaver hat, she took one look at busy Manhattan and exclaimed: "Aeth a fy ngwnt i fwrdd yn symyd mor gyflym!"

This, as any Welshman would grasp instantly, meant: "It takes my breath away—everything moves so fast!"

Molotov Says U. S. Poses War Threat

MOSCOW (AP)—Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov Tuesday accused President Eisenhower and the U.S. Congress of openly threatening Communist China with war over Formosa and the Pescadores. He hinted also that the United States may be behind the Soviet Union in atomic weapons development.

"In spite of all this," he said, "these islands have now been taken there, at their expense, the seized by the U.S.A. who maintained a gang of Chiang Kai-shek that was expelled from China, preparing with the aid of hired forces an attack against China."

"Lately things went so far that the President and Congress of the U.S.A. got carried away to such an extent with their policy of strength that they began openly to threaten with war the Chinese people who are protecting their rights to these islands and defending their national honor and sovereignty against the aggressor."

As the two branches of parliament their national honor and sovereignty of the Soviet of the Union and the Soviet of Nationalities listened to Molotov's speech, the United States against China over Formosa. This is in line with charges of aggression already leveled by Moscow in the United Nations Security Council.

Molotov declared the Russians consider "the aggressive actions of the U.S.A. and its threats of war" as an aggression which must be unconditionally condemned by the United Nations, if it values its authority.

In effect, he demanded the withdrawal of the U.S. 7th Fleet, whose task force now is screening the evacuation of Nationalist Chinese from the Tachens and Pescadores and any attack from the mainland.

"The U.S.A. must withdraw from Taiwan Formosa and the straits of Taiwan all its armed forces including its forces in the air and at sea," he declared. "Then military actions will cease in the Far East and Peace will prevail."

Molotov made a wide-ranging 2½-hour foreign affairs speech to Russia's Supreme Soviet Parliament in the great Kremlin Palace, capping an eventful day that saw Georgi M. Malenkov resign as premier and Marshal Nikolai Bulganin elevated to succeed him.

The veteran foreign minister declared that Formosa and the Pescadores, "without mentioning other islands adjacent to China, are undoubted Chinese territory."

Declaring that the position of the United States on the Formosa question "leads to the creation of a threat to the maintenance of peace and to an increase in tension of international relations," Molotov insisted Russia wants to reduce international tension and strengthen peace in the Far East. He said Russia regards the Formosa question as "an internal affair of China."

Shift Seen In Economy, Government

Bulgari Wants More Guns, Less Crops

MOSCOW (AP)—Georgi Malenkov's resignation from the Soviet premiership likely will mean a substantial reshuffle of the whole Soviet government under the eye of Nikita S. Khrushchev, West-erners in Moscow believed Tuesday night.

Malenkov stepped down Tuesday with a confession of failure to do his job. To succeed him Khrushchev nominated Nikolai Bulganin, defense minister and an army marshal, as the choice of the Communist party's Central Committee, which Khrushchev heads. The Supreme Soviet Parliament voted in Bulganin by acclamation.

The day's developments underlined the Soviet Union's renewed emphasis on production of heavy goods, including armament—a policy exemplified by Khrushchev. The tough policy was further supported in a long speech by V. M. Molotov, the foreign minister. He criticized the United States as an aggressor, upheld Communist China's claim to Formosa and presented a picture of possible atom warfare which communism alone would survive.

Recent articles in Pravda and in other papers have concerned the priority of expanding the Soviet Union's heavy industry as a necessity for furthering the nation's military might and producing prosperity.

Pravda last month said people who disagreed with priority for heavy industry are rightist deviationists and spoilers of Marxist-Leninist-Stalinist theory.

That would seem to put a quietus on the campaign for more consumer goods through which the Malenkov government sought to popularize itself with the people.

It also seemed to many Western observers an admission that the Soviet Union cannot do all things at once. They cannot push a massive farm expansion program taking hundreds of thousands of people out of city factories and placing them on the virgin land of Siberia and Central Asia, at the same time pushing a big livestock program, a big consumer goods program, and yet have expansion of heavy industry too.

Something had to give.

The resignation of Anastas Mikoyan as trade minister was a recent tipoff to differences in the Malenkov Cabinet. Khrushchev apparently swung his support to those persons demanding more heavy industry and defense production, and that decided the issue.

Now what's going to happen? Wednesday's meeting of the Supreme Soviet may get an announcement of a reshuffle in the government. It is expected that Premier Bulganin will relinquish the defense ministry. Will it go to Marshal Zhukov, the Soviet Union's No. 1 soldier, who has come strongly to the fore again since Stalin's death?

Will Khrushchev enter the government as a deputy premier or continue as chief of the Communist party and general expeditor of everything from livestock and grain through expanding the populations to huge building programs.

And what new duties will be assigned to Malenkov? There are riddles still to be solved here and most observers believe the full story is far from told.

Does Bulganin's appointment as Premier mean that the Army is coming further to the fore and taking over in the Soviet Union?

Most people here, however, still See RUSSIA, Page 6

Hannah to Present Honorary Degrees

The Honorary Doctor of Laws degree will be presented to 13 outstanding national figures by President John A. Hannah at the 3 p.m. Founders' Day Convocation Saturday.

One degree will be presented Thursday at a Farmers' Week meeting.

"On its 100th anniversary, MSC has chosen to pay special tribute to the men who represent the ideals and forces which have contributed to the growth of democratic education and to American progress," Dr. Hannah said.

"The recipients have been chosen in a manner to place MSC within its proper historical context."

James B. Conant, U.S. high commissioner in Germany and former president of Harvard, will receive the degree as speaker of the day, distinguished educator, and as a representative of American National interests in foreign affairs.

Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State University, will be honored as head of MSC's sister land-grant college, also celebrating its 100th anniversary this year.

U. S. Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson, will be awarded the Doctor of Agriculture degree Thursday, for his work in behalf of agriculture within the national economy.

Five men from government, labor, industry, and public and private education will be honored.

These are: Gov. G. Mennen Williams; James P. Mitchell, U. S. Secretary of Labor; Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors; Harlan H. Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan; and W. W. Whitehouse, president of Albion College.

Within the historical pattern, A. D. P. Heeney, Canadian ambassador to the U.S., will be honored.

Canada is a member of the British Commonwealth which once held dominion over the Northwest Territory, including Michigan.

Presidents of the land-grant colleges in the five states included in the original Northwest Territory will be awarded degrees.

These are: Howard L. Bevis, of Ohio State University; E. B. Fred of the University of Wisconsin; Frederick L. Hovde, of Purdue University; Lloyd Morey, of the University of Illinois; and J. L. Morrill, of the University of Minnesota.

The Founders' Day activities will be attended by about 5,000 of the nation's educators, and government, business, and industrial representatives. Student governments from leading U. S. colleges also will be on campus.

The Convocation will be preceded by a formal academic procession.

A special program honoring the three-cent Centennial stamp of MSC and Penn State will be held at 10:30 a.m. in Brody Hall. The Awards Banquet will be held in Brody at 7 p.m.

3 1/2 Foot High Birthday Cake Michigan Bakers Honor MSC

By ANN McGLATHLIN
State News Associate Editor
Michigan bakers will say "Happy Birthday" to MSC on Feb. 12 with a three and a-half-foot tall cake.

The cake will be presented to the college at the Founders' Day banquet Saturday night.

Awrey Bakeries of Detroit will bake the six-tier, 150-pound fruit cake, which will stay edible about six months and serve 1,000 persons.

The cake eventually will be eaten, Founders' Day chairman Kenneth Wilson said, although it will be displayed in Kellogg Center following the banquet.

Robert Awrey, who graduated from MSC in 1947 with a degree in business administration, has outlined tentative decorations for the cake.

The college seal, with a Spartan head in the center will be on top. The first tier will be six inches in diameter, with a notation of the founding date, 1855, and a scroll depicting the Morrill Act of 1862. The first MAC president, Joseph R. Williams, will be mentioned, together with the first college buildings, Saints' Rest and Old College Hall.

Tier two, eight inches in diameter, will show the 20 year period from 1875 to 1895. One or more college presidents from that decade will be mentioned. A soldier with the date, 1884, will symbolize the start of ROTC, and an athletic figure, the beginning of intercollegiate athletic competition.

The third tier will be 10 inches in diameter, depicting the period from 1895 to 1915.

Decorations for this period may include the establishing of the Veterinary School in 1907, and the first Farmers' Week in 1911. A football, with the date, 1913, and the score,

"MAC-12—Michigan-7," will symbolize MAC's first undefeated and untied season.

Plastic pillars will divide the third and fourth tiers, because of the weight of the cake.

Tier four will be 20 inches in diameter, to show the 1914-1935 period. A radio tower, with the notation "WKAR, 1923," and picture of Macklin Stadium, built in 1923, will be shown.

The name change from MAC to MSC, in 1925, will be included.

Tiers five and six will show the present day college, including new buildings. The national football championship in 1952, and the Rose Bowl win will be included. The State News change from a five to an eight column paper will be shown.

The installation of President John A. Hannah in 1941 will be included.

Each tier will show the transportation typical of that period, from the buckboard wagon to a modern car.

All the decorations will be icings and jellies, with some art work done with an air brush.

This is the first cake his company has baked for a college, Awrey said.

2 Coeds Arrested For Larceny

Two coeds were arrested Tuesday by the campus police for larceny in Mason-Abbott.

One coed, picked up in Abbot, had taken over $220 from 20 persons. The other, a Mason resident, took over $90 from four coeds, according to officer Roberts who made the arrests.

The two made restitution and were turned over to the Dean of Students.

Detective Lt. Charles Becker requested that whoever took the police and indicate where they hid the loot of Hartmut Welzel from Jensen could phone the campus had dropped it.

The wallet contains valuable papers and his passport.

First 2 Days Attract 14,500 Farmers

More than 14,500 farmers have participated in the 40th annual Farmers' Week activities to date.

An estimated 6,000 attended the Monday sessions devoted to the dairy farmers and 8,500 were reported present at Tuesday's sessions on sugar beet growing.

Dairyman and livestockmen Tuesday attended the first of three meetings devoted to the study of brucellosis control. The meetings held in the veterinary building featured talks by specialists in animal husbandry, dairying and animal pathology. Similar clinics will be held today and tomorrow.

Tuggled Mat Line-Up Pinned by Illinois, 16-10

Summer, Sinadinos Post Wins

Early State Lead Fails to Hold

Despite some line-up jugs and good individual performances, Michigan State's tugging team lost to Illinois, 16-10, Tuesday night at Jenison Fieldhouse.

Summer and Jim Sinadinos were in wins for the Spartans, Fred Keuster and Dick Abner adding draws.

Keuster earned his draw tugging 20 pounds over his weight, while Ted Lennox, normally a 167-pounder, lost at heavyweight post.

Summer jumped into a 3-0 lead on Dick Meeks' win over Dick Abner, 1-0, at 123-pounds.

Summer tied the meet up, beating John Outiveros, 6-4, at 130-pounds.

The match wasn't decided until the final period, when Summer scored two points to break deadlock.

Sinadinos followed with a 10-3, round win, giving the Spartans a storied lead, 6-3.

With time running out in the period, Sinadinos scored with a tugging and had the Illinois tuggers to a pin when the buzzer sounded, scoring two points to lead.

Illinois tied the match in the pound bout, with Bill Turner topping Norm Gill, 5-1.

Illinois, 3-1, in the final period shot the works in an effort to win the match but was out by Turner, for two Illinois wins.

Jackson beat State's John Outiveros, at 157-pounds, to the Illinois lead they never relinquished.

When Keuster, battling at 130-pounds, two weights above his own, kept the Spartans in contention with a 1-1 draw.

When grapplers keuster came to take-down in the final period but went off the mat before he gained control.

Abner followed with another 1-1 draw, with Emil Dieckmann, both men scored on tugging and Abraham came out in the final seconds. He was downed and threw down, but knocked the Illinois tuggers out of himself in the process.

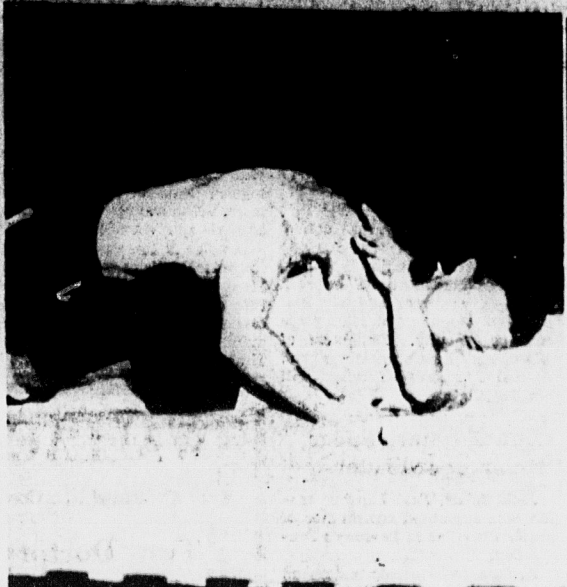

Abner was also shaken up, the match was stopped while he recuperated.

The heavyweight match, Lennox (167-pounder) met Larry Saban (157-pounder) in some tugging that came close to a tugging.

The match started in a wild tugging, with 12 points scored in the first 40 minutes.

Illinois led at that point, 7-5, the match having been tied twice.

Lennox couldn't keep up with Saban and lost, 12-7.

Guglielmi Fails to Sign Redskin Pact

Hint Discussions To be Renewed

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—All-American quarterback Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame and Washington's head coach, Joe Kuharich, failed to agree on terms Tuesday, but will meet again in a few weeks to further discuss a Redskin contract for the Irish star.

Guglielmi, first-round draft choice of Washington, and Kuharich lunched together and then conferred several hours in the office of Julius Tucker, business man who negotiates for Notre Dame's pro-minded players.

Tucker indicated Guglielmi and Kuharich, former Notre Dame player whose home is in South Bend, would renew their discussions in Washington.

It was believed Guglielmi was striving for a $15,000 salary and that several Canadian teams are willing to pay him what he asks. One source, however, said after Tuesday's huddle that Guglielmi and Kuharich were only $1,000 or $2,000 apart in their bargaining.

Defensive Dons Replace Wildcats

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The San Francisco Dons, who want to prove they're the best college basketball team in the nation, already have done a pretty good job of convincing the sports writers and broadcasters.

That was seen Tuesday when San Francisco was voted the No. 1 team by a big margin in the ninth weekly Associated Press ranking poll.

The Dons were named first by 68 of 126 voters and polled a total of 1,107 points. Kentucky, the leader ever since the second week of this season's poll, dropped to second with only 19 first place votes and 867 points.

San Francisco, with the nation's best defensive record this season, wasn't listed in the pre-season poll.

Top place in the current ranking wasn't enough to satisfy Coach Woolpert and the Dons.

USF wants to really prove its the best in the nation," Woolpert said.

And it's willing to try that in either the NCAA or the National Invitation Tournament, with the NCAA getting first call.

In winning 16 of 17 games so far, San Francisco has beaten George Washington, ranked sixth this week; UCLA, eighth, and Oregon State, 18th, and has lost only to UCLA.

The poll is based on performance through last Saturday.

Pretty Crusty Grid Baker Declared Out of Bounds

By The Associated Press
Contrary to popular belief, it doesn't pay to be a football hero.

Dick Wood, a grid star at Mt. Pleasant high school, won a local pie baking contest with the third pie he ever baked, and a county contest with his fourth.

Now he has been ruled ineligible for a state-wide contest—because the contest is for women and girls.

The first prize in the state contest is a home economics scholarship.

Goal Getters Get Goals In 36-19 Win

Eager Beavers Not So Eager

By JOHN LOFGREN

Unable to score a basket in the first 10 minutes, the Eager Beavers dropped a 36-19 decision to the Goal Getters Tuesday night. The Beavers could gain only a lone free throw in the early minutes of the encounter.

Scoring at will in the first stages of the game, the winners compiled a commanding 19-3 lead as the first half came to a close.

Led by the aggressive plan of Dan Crowell, Beaver forward, the losers pulled to within eight points as the final half opened, 19-11.

Paul Schmidt and Ron Schlattman tallied 11 points for the victors.

Raiders 35, Net Stretchers 28
Displaying better basketball under pressure, the Raiders downed a fast-moving Net Stretchers quintet, 35-28. The lead changed hands three times in the first six minutes.

First, the winners jumped quickly into a 10-4 advantage. However, the rangy Net Stretchers gradually put on a brief shooting exhibition to move ahead 16-14.

The Raiders slowed down the style of play in the remaining moments of the first half and regained the lead, 22-16.

Jim Conklin, Raider center, scored 15 points of his team's total in the initial stanza.

In accurate shooting slowed the game to a walk in the last half. Conklin counted four more to bring his game-winning total to 19 points.

Larry Evans led the Net Stretchers with 12 counters.

Bear Cats 27, Dad's Boys 16
Awarded the amazing number of 16 free shots, and scoring on eight of them, Dick Kleck led the Bear Cats to an easy 27-16 win over Dad's Boys. Kleck also added five buckets individually to outscore the losers by tallying 18 points.

A compromise settlement of $200,000 is to be paid Wednesday to William J. Rechele Jr., trustee for the now defunct Liberty Broadcasting System, which brought the suit Feb. 12, 1952.

The suit contended the defendants controlled and suppressed competition in the interstate broadcast of professional baseball games.

Russia

Malenkov resigned at a morning session of the Parliament, confessing himself a failure in the field of agriculture and an inexperienced hand in the affairs of government. At the afternoon session Khrushchev nominated Bulganin, and received a standing ovation.

Then Molotov went to the rostrum in the great Kremlin Palace. While diplomats listened in the packed and tense galleries, he outlined the Soviet idea of what would come from a hydrogen bomb war.

He said the United States had miscalculated the time it would take the Soviet Union to develop atomic weapons. Then he asserted:

"In the production of the hydrogen weapon the Soviet people have achieved such a success that it is not the Soviet Union but the U.S.A. which is in the position of laggard."

He said a comparison of the true strength of the United States and the Soviet Union would show this nation is not the weaker party. He declared the Soviet Union wants to compete with the United States in atomic matters only "in using atomic energy for peacetime aims."

He warned: "In case of eventual war, world civilization will not perish but what will be destroyed is the rotten social system with its blood-saturated imperialism which is being rejected by oppressed peoples."

In view of the tenor of Molotov's remarks-obviously to be taken as a major statement of foreign policy-Western diplomats noted with particular interest that a man associated with the military had become the new Premier. There was some speculation here that it meant a stronger role for the armed forces in Soviet internal and external affairs, even though Bulganin is not a career military man but an old Communist administrator.

The white-bearded, handsome Bulganin at 59 is six years older than Malenkov. During World War II he was the Communist official directly in charge of the armed services, immediately beneath Stalin.

Diplomatic quarters regarded Bulganin as rather a dark horse in the race for the premiership. Some speculated that Bulganin would be a sort of chairman of the board—a coordinator—and not a strong personal leader.

There was little question about the influential role of Khrushchev, personally identified with all the most important events in Soviet life the past year. He had charge of the new agricultural program with its stress on mechanization and the exploitation of virgin lands of Siberia and Central Asia. He sparked the drive for concentration on heavy industry.

Malenkov had been associated since August 1953, with a drive to increase light industry production for consumer goods—a program which Khrushchev personally discredited before last month's Central Committee meeting.

'Load Luger' Aids Rubbish Collections

The "Load Luger" is the latest thing in collecting rubbish according to Burt D. Ferris, Supt. of grounds maintenance.

The Load Luger is a new type dump truck equipped with detachable container-bins. A radio telephone connected with the grounds maintenance office is another Load Luger feature.

Rubbish collection room is a big thing at MSC. Three trucks a day were used to haul 57,000 cubic yards of rubbish last year.

Approximately 12,000 yards of cinders were collected from campus buildings and power plants last year.

The grounds crew also scheduled garbage pick-ups for 11,000 families in married housing. All dorms, the Union and Kellogg Center are equipped with garbage disposal units.

The decreased loading and pick-up time afforded by the Load Luger will be much more economical than former methods, according to Ferris. The planned purchase of additional container-bins will mean even greater use of the Load Luger.

Scientists have recently reversed a previous conclusion and now believe that cancer affects all peoples in all climates.
