

Vandals Operate by Beaumont

Vandals Strike

Maize and Blue Mars Tower Walk

Blue and maize paint appeared on Michigan State's campus this morning spelling out "M.A.C. is still a cow college to us" in large letters on the walk in front of Beaumont tower.

College police said the artwork was done by unidentified vandals.

Dean of Students Tom King said "I hope that our students will attempt no retaliation to the painting that has been done."

"I am sure that they are sufficiently mature so that they will not be interested in that kind of activity," he said.

The paint job followed on the heels of a statement by a U of M alumnus accusing Michigan State students of "acting like kids" who "haven't grown out of short pants yet."

His statement was made to members of the U of M Alumni Assn. in connection with the U of M's fight against having the McCue bill passed changing State's name to Michigan State University.

The name change debate will go on television tonight at 8:30 over WJIM-TV in Lansing.

Jack Kule, State News editor-in-chief, Bill Hurst, student government president, and Dave Hyman, chief justice of the student traffic court, will represent Michigan State.

The U of M's trio will include Eugene Hartwig, managing editor of the Michigan Daily, John Baitty, president of the inter-fraternity council, and Richard Pinkerton, secretary of the Michigan Union.

Howard Finch, vice-president of the Michigan Daily, will moderate the half-hour show over channel 6.

Record Slump

Stock Market Drops Sharply

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavy blows of two selling waves sent the stock market staggering back Monday in the heaviest decline in nearly five years.

Not since the United States intervened in the Korean War against the Communists in 1950 has the market suffered such a selling shock in a single day.

Prices were clipped 1 to 6 points in every division and some losses exceeded that range.

The total estimated loss in the value of all securities listed on the New York stock exchange came to around four billion dollars as measured by the loss of $3.90 in the Associated Press average of 60 stocks.

Only a handful of stocks managed to post plus signs at the close. All were engulfed in the slide—blue chips as well as the more speculative issues.

Wall Street brokers said today's action was a continuation of last week's major shakeout, the greatest weekly fall of the past 15 years.

Because of last week's extensive markdown in prices, many brokers felt that a rebound was in order for today.

Selling began with the opening bell. Instead of drying up, it seemed to attract even more liquidation from all sources.

Previously placed orders to sell at prices under the market were touched off as the general level of prices subsided. This stop-loss selling accentuated the slide.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell $3.90 at $151.50, the largest single decline last week was $3.10 on Tuesday. Today's drop was the heaviest since June 26, 1950, when the average declined $4.00.

The industrial component today was down $5.40, rails were off $3.50, and utilities retreated $1.30.

Volume mounted to 4,220 shares, not a record but one of the larger totals this year. Friday's market accounted for 3,040,000 shares.

The American stock exchange was lower all around on volume of 1,140,000 shares. That compares with 1,040,000 shares traded Friday.

The bond market was lower. U. S. government issues in the over the counter market were firm.

FFA Meeting Scheduled at State

As State students pack their bags to leave for home next Wednesday, young farmers from all parts of Michigan will be doing the same thing in preparation for their three-day conference at Michigan State.

The Future Farmers of America annual convention will be held from March 24-26. Leadership contests, awards and a banquet are included in the program.

Gals Wonder Where Men Are

2-1 Ratio Proves Misleading

Many a fair coed wanders around the campus under the delusion that there are two eligible men for every female enrolled at State.

Statistics show that the ratio is two to one, actual figures being 10,600 men to 5,500 women. However, 2,550 of the men are married as opposed to a mere 500 married coeds.

Then there is the group pinned, engaged or going steady with girls not attending Michigan State, which further narrows the field of eligible dates. If these facts are disseminating, here is some information

Williams Discusses Education

Expansion Cited As Main Problem

By JERRY JENNINGS
Michigan's Governor G. Mennen Williams presented his blueprint for solving the state's educational needs in a "Government Workshop on Education," held Monday night in the Union.

Governor Williams led off the session by declaring "I feel the crisis in education is the most important issue now facing the people of the United States." While the need for higher education is steadily increasing, he said the states are lagging farther and farther behind in providing the necessary facilities.

There are three main problems facing Michigan in matters of education, Williams said. They are: 1. Building and equipping more elementary and secondary schools. 2. Recruiting an adequate supply of school teachers. 3. Expanding the facilities of universities and colleges.

Using charts and statistical tables, Williams pointed out that 20,000 new classrooms will be needed in Michigan in the near future, while only 4,000 are being built. Moreover, many children are being housed in old and unsafe buildings.

To remedy the situation, he said, it will be necessary to assist some of the school districts in raising the money to pay for school construction.

One such method of assistance is Proposal 3 on the spring election ballot, which will be submitted for voters' approval on April 4.

This proposal would pledge the state's "full faith and credit" to bond issues for school construction. Such a guarantee would allow school districts to get money for construction at low and uniform interest rates.

Other means of easing the construction load on the state's school districts were also recommended by Williams. Among these were: state assistance in planning new school construction, adoption of reasonable standards of health and safety for school buildings, and a resolution in the state Legislature urging Congress to pass federal aid for school construction.

Michigan's ever-increasing teacher shortage was the second

Death Near Lansing

Truck-Car Collision Kills Four in Family

A truck-car collision eight miles north of Lansing on US27 Monday afternoon took the lives of four members of a Jackson family and injured a fifth.

State police identified the dead

as: George Schroeder, 42, of River Junction.

Gerald Schroeder, 18, Schroeder's son, a member of the armed forces on leave from Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Diane Schroeder, 5, and Sharon Schroeder, 2, daughters of Schroeder.

Mrs. Schroeder, 42, wife and mother, was taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital in St. Johns.

State Police reported that the suffered scalp laceration and a fractured rib and shoulder. She was reported to be in "generally good" condition later Monday night.

Jason G. Denslow, 29, of Mount Pleasant, the driver of the truck, was uninjured but was taken to the State Police post at East Lansing for questioning.

According to the police report, the Schroeder car had backed out of a driveway and was proceeding south on the highway when the truck, a large oil tanker, smashed into it from the rear.

State Police said that Denslow was unable to account for the accident.

Denslow will be held on a negligent homicide charge police said.

The truck ran off the road but did not suffer injury in the collision.

State Police said they were having trouble piecing together an account of the accident because Denslow asserted he did not see the Schroeder car and Mrs. Schroeder was too confused to give a clear explanation.

Homecoming Termed 'Mysterious'

No Clues Given On Reappearance

Paul Bunyan returned to the U of M campus Monday evening but nobody will say where he was or how or when he reappeared.

The three-foot, hand-carved trophy, a gift of Gov. G. Mennen Williams to the winner of the annual Michigan-Michigan State football game, disappeared last fall shortly after the football season ended.

Paul's disappearance from the dressing room of the Wolverine football squad caused red faces of bewilderment on the Michigan campus. It seems he was stashed there without ceremony when Michigan won his last fall.

Now that he has reappeared, even telling where he is a perplexing question.

News of the return of the Governor's Trophy first reached the Michigan State campus via a telephone call from a member of the staff on the Michigan Daily, the U of M student newspaper.

The caller could only say that Paul had been returned in a "mysterious manner" and that Les Etter, sports publicity director, refused to give any further information.

The trophy, symbol of U of M-State football supremacy, disappeared from the Michigan Stadium Jan. 10.

At the time of Paul's "homecoming," the State News received a letter which said:

Because of the shabby treatment given Paul Bunyan, leaving him in a dusty corner of the U of M locker room, Paul has returned to a home where he can be appreciated."

The typewritten letter was identified only by an "Operation Reveal."

The loss of the hand-carved statue caused little furor on other campus.

One U of M student apparently summed up the sentiment of the majority, according to a Daily staff member, when he quipped:

Why not send them the base too.

When the statue was taken the three-foot high base, which it rests on, was left behind.

Since that time no clues had been uncovered as to what happened to the trophy.

Although it was first believed that State students had taken the statue, the Daily later claimed that the statue was taken by a prominent Michigan student.

The paper went on to claim that the statue was hidden in the home of a Michigan undergraduate in "Lansing or East Lansing."

At East Lansing the State News received anonymous telephone calls claiming that the statue would show up first at Michigan.

Debate Team Splits Even In Wisconsin

State's debate team split evenly at the University of Wisconsin debate tournament held in Madison, Wis., March 11 and 12.

The negative team composed of Lynn Bergman, Escanaba junior, and June Turner, Farmington sophomore, won four debates and lost none. Miss Bergman and Miss Turner received individual speaker's ratings of 16.5 and 16 respectively out of a possible 20 points.

Dick Kralich, Wyandotte senior, and Bill Martin, Jackson junior, suffered four defeats on the affirmative side. Two of their defeats were lost by only one point.

State debated Minnesota, La Crosse, Iowa State Teachers, Marquette, Northern Illinois, Iowa and Purdue at the tournament.

The tournament, which is held each year, sponsored debate, discussion, news casting, and oratory contests. A total of 172 debaters representing 27 schools participated in 152 debates.

The next event scheduled for the debate team is an elimination tournament Saturday to choose four debaters for the Phi Kappa Delta tournament at Redlands, California.

Campus Police To Hold Cars Of Violators

Student cars will be impounded by campus police when driving permits are cancelled because of violation, Dean of Students, Tom King announced today.

The keys to the student's car will be held until it is convenient for the student to take the car home, King said. When the student can drive the car home he will be able to pick up his keys and do so, King added.

The new policy was set to alleviate students getting a fourth ticket for driving after their permit had been cancelled, King said.

A fourth ticket means automatic dismissal from college, according to King.

Housemother Honored At Alpha Xi Open House

By JOAN BRENNAN

Touring the Alpha Xi Delta home Sunday afternoon were over 300 guests.

The open house served a dual purpose: that of honoring housemother, Mrs. Priscilla Watson, who recently returned after being ill, and formally introducing the new chapter house.

The house, 520 Linden, was purchased last summer and converted from an apartment building into a home for 36 sorority members. The apartment system was retained in the remodeling, with six coeds now sharing a bedroom, a larger living-sleeping area and bath.

The living room occupies the space formerly taken by two downstairs apartments. The housemother's apartment, soundproof communication rooms and den complete the first floor. The kitchen, dining room, laundry room and chapter room are in the basement.

The guests at the open house included housemothers and presidents of the living units and members of the administration and faculty.

Members of Kappa Delta Pi, Education honorary, will hold an informal rush and open house in Old College Hall at 7 tonight.

All junior and seniors interested with an all-college three point and majoring in education, are invited.

Score Lone Run in 9th

Tigers Lose to Cardinals, 3-1

By The Associated Press
The St. Louis Cardinals threw their regulars against the Detroit Tigers Monday and came up with a 3-1 victory over the American League spring exhibition opposition.

Stan Musial turned in a perfect day at the plate with four hits in four trips, and Red Schoendienst was just a hit behind with three out of four.

Pitchers Harvey Haddix, Floyd Woolridge and George Schults held the Tigers to five hits until the ninth. Then a hit batsman, a wild throw by Schults to first and a sacrifice fly produced the single Detroit tally.

It was the Redbirds' fourth triumph in five games. There wasn't a legitimate run scored in the contest. Bud Black pitched the first three innings for Detroit and held the Redbirds scoreless. He was followed by rookie Bill Frosts and George Zuverink. Frosts and Zuverink both gave up runs.

The Cards scored twice with two out in the fifth. Musial's pop fly into short centerfield was muffed by second baseman Fred Hatfield allowing Schoendienst to score and putting Musial on third. Rip Repulski scored Musial before the Redbirds were retired.

St. Louis scored again in the eighth on Reno Bertoia's error and a second hit by Cardinal reserve first baseman Tom Alston.

The Tigers couldn't make any headway until the ninth when J. W. Porter was nicked on the arm and left the game for Chick King, who ran for him. Schultz tried to pick King off first but threw the ball way to install him on third. King scored on a flyball.

The Tigers collected only five hits while St. Louis produced nine.

Al Kaline had a pair of singles, Ferris Fain went five innings for the second straight day and singled for his first hit of the spring. Porter and catcher Red Wilson grabbed off the other hits.

Floyd Woolridge was credited with the victory. Frosts was marked with the loss. The Tigers play the Cards again today at Lakeland.

Mickey Mantle snapped out of a hitting slump with a grand slam homer and three other hits Monday as the New York Yankees defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 12-11, for their first Grapefruit League victory in five attempts.

Mantle, hitless in 12 times at bat previously, drove in six runs, and shared hitting honors with Milwaukee's Joe Adcock who also drove in six runs. Adcock twice homered with two

Bill Skowron also homered for the Yankees with one aboard. The Cincinnati Reds pushed across an unearned run in the ninth inning for a 1-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox Monday.

Cincinnati pitchers Corky Valentine, Gerry Staley and Jerry Lane combined to allow Boston only four hits.

One of the Boston hits was a triple by Faye Thorneberry, who had to leave the game after he was hit by a Jack Jensen drive.

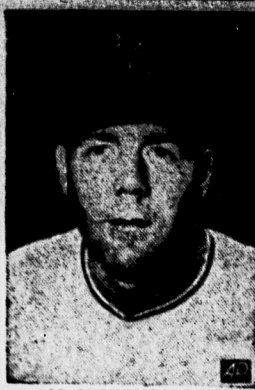

The New York Giants staged a four-run rally in the seventh inning to break a 6-all tie and go on an 11-7 victory over the Chicago Cubs in a Cactus League game Monday.

With the score deadlocked in the seventh, Dusty Rhodes, in his familiar role of pinchhitter, singled Billy Gardner home from second and the big rally was on.

Warren Hacker was the victim, being shelled from the mound before pitching a full inning.

Fur Flies!

Westlake Fired Up By Bean Ball

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The bean ball stopped by Wally Westlake in the Cleveland Indians' exhibition game with the New York Giants Sunday almost resulted in blows.

In the seventh inning, Giant hurler Al Worthington let go a pitch that conked Westlake on the head.

Westlake went down, most of the impact absorbed by a protective plastic strip inside his cap, and heard Giants Manager Leo Durocher explain:

"It was an accident, Wally. He didn't mean it."

But Westlake replied, "I owe you one. Before this is over, I'm going to cut somebody open with my spikes."

Westlake's roommate, Al Rosen, stepped up and for a time it appeared the argument would get physical. But cooler players managed to head it off.

Don Kellett, general manager of the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League, played nine games as an infielder with the 1934 Boston Red Sox.

U. S. Pulls Ahead in Pan-Ams

2 Broad Jumpers Face Yank Surge

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Two U.S. soldiers leaped more than 26 feet in the broad jump and their teammates won three other track and field championships Monday as the United States made a near sweep of honors in the Pan-American games.

Roselyn Range, an Army private from Los Angeles, won the broad jump with a mighty leap of 26 feet 4 1/2 inches—one of the greatest in track history—and he was closely pressed by John Bennett, former Marquette University star, with 26-3 and one-eighth.

Only the great Jesse Owens, star of the 1936 Olympic games, and Willie Steele have done better than Range. Owens' leap of 26 feet 8 and one-fourth inches is the world record.

A crowd of 25,000 saw the U.S. win four of the five track championships contested and boost its unofficial score of 115 points compared with 37 1/2 for Argentina, its chief rival.

In a star-spangled performance which shot the U.S. far in front of Argentina for team honors, the North Americans also came through with these performances:

1. Josh Culbreath won the 400 meter hurdles in 51.5 seconds, 1.9 seconds better than the Pan-American record set by Colombia's Janume Aparicio in 1951.

2. Parry O'Brien, the former Southern California star and world record holder, led a 1-2-3 North American sweep in the shot put with a toss of 57 feet, 8 1/2 inches, also a games' mark. Fortune Gordien of Los Angeles and Martin Engel of New York followed him in order.

Rod Richards, former UCLA sprinter now a lieutenant in the U.S. Army, won the 100 meter dash in 10.3 seconds, tying the games' record. Mike Agostini, the Fresno State student who runs for Trinidad, was second and Willie Williams of Illinois was third.

Richards' time equalled the Pan American record set by Williams and Agostini in heats during the day.

Most Valuable Player Al Ferrari receives congratulations from Coach Anderson and Julius McCoy, who was awarded the Coaches' Sportsmanship Trophy.

McCoy Gets Sportsmanship Award

Ferrari Honored Again

Al Ferrari, forward on Michigan State's basketball team had two more honors bestowed upon him Monday night.

At the team's annual banquet held at The Famous Grill and jointly sponsored by Paul Automotive Incorporated, Ferrari was voted the Most Valuable Player Award and was also named as this year's honorary captain.

The other big award of the night, the newly established Sportsmanship Trophy, was awarded to Julius McCoy.

The award is presented to the player who, in the eyes of the coaching staff, made the most sacrifices to contribute to team play.

In accepting the award, McCoy said, "I've received many honors in my life, but this one is by far the greatest."

Many of State's top officials were on hand at the banquet.

Included among the guests were Tom King, Dean of Students, Leslie Scott, Director of Kellogg Center and faculty representative to the Big 10, James Denison, assistant to the President, and Athletic Director Biggie Munn.

All gave short talks on the success of this year's team.

King said that "no team ever tried as hard as did this one."

Each player on the squad was presented with a token trophy by Paul Automotive.

Awards were also given to head coach Fordy Anderson and the three members of his coaching staff, John Benington, Bob Stevens and Gordie Stauffer. Anderson received a traveling kit while the assistant coaches each received traveling clocks.

After the introductory speeches, Anderson got up and spoke of this season as "one of the finest I have ever had."

Anderson thanked everyone for all their help and cooperation and wished his four graduating seniors the best of luck in their future endeavors.

But the man who really stole the show was Benington. The deadpan humorist joked for 10 minutes about some of the highlights of the season.

Braves Can Win Flag, Says Optimistic Grimm

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Charlie Grimm, starting 17th season as a major league manager, thinks the Milwaukee Braves can win the National League pennant.

American League Establishes Plan For Expansion

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The American League Realignment Committee Monday set up a yardstick for picking new league members if the loop ever goes to 10 clubs.

Frank Lane, general manager of the Chicago White Sox and chairman of the committee worked up a check list for minor or prospects should a league expansion ever come.

This yardstick for choosing members would include a check of attendance for the last five years, the population of the city's trade area and the size of the baseball park.

One reason for Grimm's optimism this spring is because of the team's shape. The Milwaukee Braves are expected to open ready to play in the season, and he expects to win the pennant.

Joe Adcock, the Cardinals' star, is showing signs of his return to the field. He is expected to play in the August and September games. Adcock and Hank Aaron are their broken ankles to be healed by the time the campaign gets under way.

"Although I expect the best opposition to come from New York and Brooklyn, not overlooking the strength of St. Louis, Cincinnati and Philadelphia. Give those Cardinals or Reds decent pitching either one could take a shot."

Joe Adcock, the Cardinals' star, is showing signs of his return to the field. He is expected to play in the August and September games. Adcock and Hank Aaron are their broken ankles to be healed by the time the campaign gets under way.

"Although I expect the best opposition to come from New York and Brooklyn, not overlooking the strength of St. Louis, Cincinnati and Philadelphia. Give those Cardinals or Reds decent pitching either one could take a shot."

One reason for Grimm's optimism this spring is because of the team's shape. The Milwaukee Braves are expected to open ready to play in the season, and he expects to win the pennant.

Big 10 Accepts NCAA Compromise' TV Plan

Decision Threat Revolt

Plan Favors National Program

The Associated Press Big Ten Conference approved the NCAA television program.

Members of the conference, however, expressed some negative expressions about the plan.

The plan also decided to televise rights of all members participating in the NCAA national regional games will be pooled and distributed.

Members Saturday passed the plan Monday. The plan also decided to televise rights of all members participating in the NCAA national regional games will be pooled and distributed.

The difference from last year's plan is that the Big Ten will televise the national games which have clamored for national TV to the extent of sending a bolt from the Big Ten.

The noteworthy concession is that a school could appear once on the 13-game national program. This compromise was developed at an emergency meeting of the NCAA's TV committee in New York last week after an originally planned meeting of the plan to members March 2 was called off.

Miller to Lead Keglers In Big 10 Tournament

Carl Miller hit a 180 pin average in Union Board's 30-game tourney to win the top spot on the Michigan State bowling team.

The team will compete in the Big 10 tourney at Ohio State, April 22-23.

The other members of the team are Ray Dane, Bill Hershey, Jack Frucci and Richard Schweigen.

Schweigen is the only repeater from last year's team, which finished second to Minnesota at Wisconsin.

Del Kowalk, Union bowling manager, will make the trip as team manager.

Kowalk, who has managed six other teams, says this is the best squad to represent State so far.

Dane averaged 179, Hershey 174 and Frucci and Schweigen 177.

In the tourney, the five Spartans will compete in the team event, the doubles and the singles.

In doubles competition, Miller and Dane will team up, as will Hershey and Frucci. Schweigen will join forces with the fifth OSU man.

Each man will compete independently in the singles event and the five will join forces for the team tourney. The announcement of the team climaxed a 10-week, 30-game tournament to choose the squad.

Union Board has also sponsored a billiard's tourney, and will host the national billiards championships on April 30.

The high man in each division is John Beaudette, pocket billiards; Bob Strange, straight rail; and Hal Edgar, three cushion.

Avila Remains Lone Holdout

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Second baseman Bobby Avila, the Cleveland Indians' last holdout, left by plane Monday for his home in Mexico after refusing the Indians' latest salary offer.

Avila was offered $27,500 Monday, but he wants $32,000. He got $18,000 last year, when he led the American League in batting with .341.

After turning down the final offer, Avila left for his home in Vera Cruz. He said he'd wait for a call from General Manager Hank Greenberg.

If no call comes, "I go look for some business. I have something in mind. But, really, I want to play ball," said Avila.

The youngest player on the major league rosters this spring is infielder Harmon Killebrew of the Washington Senators. He's 18.

Red Wings Face Crucial Week

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings' hope for a seventh straight National Hockey League title hangs on three games this week—the last of regular season competition.

Stanley Cup playoffs start next week but it isn't certain which team Detroit will face—Toronto or Boston.

Of more pressing concern to Detroit are the immediate games—Wednesday in Boston, Thursday in Montreal and Sunday at Olympia against the Canadiens.

The Wings can keep their crown from going to Montreal by winning all three. One slip, however, and their chances will be pretty well lost.

The Wings' fortune soared last night when they defeated Toronto, 6-1, at Olympia, while the Montreal Canadiens lost at Boston, 4-1.

The victory moved Detroit to within two points of the league-leading Canadian challengers, who also have three games remaining. Their extra one is at home Saturday against New York.

Another factor in Detroit's favor was the prospect that Montreal may lose the services of Maurice (Rocket) Richard. Richard drew a match foul Sunday night in the game with Boston when he attacked Hal Laycoe and an official.

He may draw a suspension from NHL President Clarence Campbell, as a result of the brawl. And if he does he'll leave a big hole in the Montreal forward line.

DETROIT'S victory over Toronto Sunday night knocked Harry Lumley out of the lead in the Vesina Trophy race and replaced him with Terry Sawchuk, who ended with a three-goal margin.

That was the Wings' sixth straight victory. They have lost only once in their last 14 starts.

"We're determined to catch Montreal," said Red Wings Coach

Jimmy Skinner Sunday night after his team beat the Maple Leafs. Detroit, however, suffered a reverse Saturday night when Capt. Ted Lindsay was knocked out of the lineup. The fiery captain re-injured his shoulder and doctors say he'll be out of action for one to two weeks.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — George Blanda, Chicago Bears quarterback, said today he "would not be much surprised to see Frank Leahy succeed George Halas as coach of the Bears."

Blanda, who spoke at a Mid-State Freight Lines luncheon here, said, in answer to questions, that Leahy attended every Bears game last season.

Wedding 'Decision' Denied by Townsend

Public Opinion Favorable To Controversial Marriage

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret may not have given Group Capt. Peter Townsend her final decision, but the impression remained in informed circles Monday night she is all in favor of wedding bells this fall.

The 40-year-old war hero, air attaché at the British Embassy in Brussels, complained Monday a London Sunday newspaper report implied "the princess has decided to marry me."

"The princess has made no such decision known to me, nor have I any reason to believe she has made a decision," Townsend said in a prepared statement.

London society circles all alone have assumed that Townsend's transfer from London to the Brussels post 16 months ago and the Princess' recent Caribbean tour were designed at least in part to help her make up her mind.

The current report is that she returned from the West Indies intending to go ahead and marry him.

The divorced RAF ace was commenting on a report which quoted him as saying that he and "a certain lady" would go into exile if circumstances demanded it.

Townsend has denied saying that but not before one London Sunday newspaper went to press with it under banner headlines.

Public opinion is largely sympathetic toward the princess. The feeling is rather general that love in palace or court should rule in its own way. The canon was the "last resort" party in its divorce case.

A hard core of stout opposition.

Who's the Coed?

Which girl is a Michigan State coed? That's the question the A.S. Beck shoe company, which is opening a large new store at the Frander Shopping Center Thursday, is asking.

To announce its opening the shoe concern is running a three-day contest in which participants are asked to determine Spartan coeds and Lansing secretaries from a group of six girls.

Two complete shoe wardrobes plus 25 other prizes are offered. Spartans can participate in the contest by filling out the blanks which appear on Page 5.

Ballot boxes will be placed at the Union Desk and in the new A.S. Beck store at Frander. Extra entry blanks are available at the State News office, third floor Union.

New President Takes Over

Installation Banquet Set for IFC Officers

The Inter-Fraternity Council will hold its Installation Banquet April 6 for the recognition of newly elected officers and committee chairmen.

George Snyder, Delta Upsilon, is replacing Cort Lecklider, Phi Delta Theta, as president of IFC. Snyder was secretary of the organization last year.

Bob Kuhl, Beta Theta Pi, is taking over the vice-president's job from George Clute of Phi Kappa Tau.

Don Slezak of Delta Tau Delta has been appointed secretary and Mike Getto of Phi Delta Theta is the new treasurer.

The dinner will begin at 6 p.m. in Parlor C of the Union. Included in the program will be the presentation of IFC recognition keys to last year's officers, committee chairmen and outstanding committee members.

Committee chairmen for next year have been selected by the new officers.

They are: Chuck Duff, Phi Delta Theta, rush chairman; John Saltzstein, Zeta Beta Tau, social chairman; Dick Vanderveer, Delta Upsilon, personnel chairman; David Boyne, Farm House scholarship chairman; and Bob Jacoby, Sigma Chi, public relations chairman.

Gordon Sinclair, Delta Tau Delta, was named to head a new group to assist the five committees and to take charge of any special events of the IFC, including the IFC Sing.

The new officers and committee chairmen will meet early spring term to choose the members of the committees.

This is the second year that the IFC will be functioning under its new constitution and organization.

Directory Gives Story

Veterans Abound in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new "Congressional Directory" is out, and from it comes an interesting composite picture of those who make our nation's laws.

Each congressman authorizes a short biographical sketch for the directory. And anyone who plods through the lives and times of 435 representatives and 96 senators will come up with an impression something like this:

Most likely, your congressman is a war veteran. Probably he's a lawyer, although he may be a teacher, a farmer or an editor. Or he may be the operator of a restaurant, like Rep. John Kluczynski of Chicago. Or an undertaker, like Rep. Charles C. Diggs, Jr., of Detroit.

Your congressman may be exceptionally well educated. A surprising number made Phi Beta Kappa, the national collegiate scholastic society.

But it's in family life that a congressman shines.

This ranges from Sen. Herman Welker (R-Idaho), who proudly lists that he was the youngest of the eight Welker boys, to Rep. Louis Rabaut (D-Mich.), who has nine children, including three nuns and a priest, and to Rep. James Auchincloss (R-NJ), who lists eight grandchildren, including David and Lee, twins.

One American dream, the immigrant boy who made good, is still going strong.

Williams

More junior colleges in Michigan cities would be helpful in solving the enrollment problems, Williams said. He recommended more state aid for junior colleges, and legislation which would enable the state to pay half of their construction costs.

Williams asked for a $150-million capital outlay program, to be spread over the next six years, for expanding the physical facilities of Michigan colleges and universities. An increase of $6 million is provided in this year's budget, to allow the educational institutions to prepare for soaring enrollments.

The final major problem, Williams said, was coping with the "tidal wave" of college students expected within the next 15 years. College enrollments in Michigan are expected to jump from 92,000

As an antidote to these two factors, he called for a minimum annual wage of $4,000 for teachers with degrees, and $3,000 for those without degrees. He also recommended a law which would reduce the maximum classroom capacity to 30 pupils.

These positions are attractive in financial reward for the imaginative and creative person. They offer pleasant working conditions and rewarding careers for college graduates.

Jacobson's, an 86 year old Michigan Fashion Institution, seeks young people for its learn-by-doing training program, offering a salary while learning, and eventual executive positions.

Most of the important positions in this rapidly growing business have been filled from this training program.

SEE MR. J. BRILLANT OF OUR EAST LANSING STORE. He will gladly arrange an appointment with our placement director, who is now interviewing qualified applicants.
