

MANSTFIELD WINNER IN CLOSE PRESIDENT RACE

Tops Thomas By Narrow 26-23 Count

Boersma, Wurm Get Speaker Posts

By GENE RITZINGER

Bill Mansfield is the new student government president. The Madison, Wis., junior was elected on the tenth ballot in a tense Student Congress session Wednesday night. Final vote was Mansfield, 26, George Thomas, Detroit junior, 23. Third candidate Roger Augustine, Batavia, N.Y. sophomore, withdrew from the contest following the ninth ballot.

Diane Boersma, Grand Rapids junior, was elected Congress speaker by acclamation.

Sue Silver, Shorewood, Wis., sophomore, defeated Pris Staugh, Mansfield, Ohio, sophomore, to become Congress secretary.

Augustine's withdrawal threw the presidency contest into a decisive one-vote affair between Mansfield and Thomas. All Congressmen voted, the winner needing a minimum of 25 to be elected. The first ballot had Mansfield leading 29 votes to 18 for Thomas and 11 for Augustine.

Subsequent ballots varied but slightly until the eighth, when Mansfield and Thomas tied with 21 votes. Augustine trailed on every ballot.

On the ninth ballot, Thomas went ahead of Mansfield for the only time, 23 to 22.

Augustine then withdrew. He told Congress he favored neither remaining candidate over the other, and suggested that members vote wisely.

The new president said he realized he was assuming an important responsibility and said he "hoped Congress will give me its support."

Mansfield is a member of the Student-Faculty Motor Vehicle Committee, and until his election was West Shaw Congress representative. He is also a member of the baseball team.

The speaker pro tem contest was a runaway for winner Bill Wurm. The one ballot-vote was Wurm, 28, Whitehead, 11, and Bosco, six.

A fourth speaker pro tem candidate, Art Jacobs, New York City freshman, withdrew before balloting began.

In other voting, Congress elected representatives Barry Grant, Sharon Johnson, and Rick Van Orman to the committee on committees.

New Fight Pending on Segregation

Negro Leaders Prepare Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The spotlight focused Wednesday on a pair of rural counties in South Carolina and Virginia as Negro leaders worked out a strategy for winning an end to segregated schools in the South.

Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said he isn't going to tip his hand about those plans in advance of a conference of Negro leaders in Atlanta Saturday.

"We'll decide then just what steps will be taken," Marshall said. "We'll study the situation state-by-state but the immediate problem is concentrated in South Carolina and Virginia."

In declaring last year that segregated schools are unconstitutional, the Supreme Court acted on appeals by Negro parents from South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

"There isn't any problem in the District or Kansas or Delaware," Marshall said Wednesday.

The court, in amplifying its original decision Tuesday, handed to U.S. district courts the task of bringing school segregation to an end "as quickly as practicable."

Marshall indicated it is likely the NAACP will institute suits in other states practicing segregation in order for the issue to get into the courts quickly.

But the first action will be in the cases involving Clarendon County, in the east central part of South Carolina, and Prince Edward County, in central Virginia.

In the year since the court's original decision, neither South Carolina nor Virginia has made any specific moves toward ending segregation.

Prince Edward County took a step in the other direction Wednesday night. The board of supervisors, which is responsible for appropriation of school funds, voted unanimously to cut off funds for operation of county schools in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Marshall said he was "not too worried about spontaneous actions." We're more concerned about sober actions taken after serious reflection."

He added that the NAACP has plans—he didn't say what they are—for dealing with situations where states abolish public education in order to avoid integrated school systems.

Special trains will transport the band to both the Wisconsin and Indiana games. Enroute to Indiana, the band will probably play a concert at Indianapolis.

Free to End Pact

Postponed Next Monday

ROIT (AP)—The CIO Auto Workers and Motor Co. agreed Wednesday on a five day extension of their contract, just 12 hours before 140,000 Ford workers were scheduled to workers across the nation poised to leave their 12:01 a.m. local time on call from the Union.

The contract extension Monday morning—no date specified—ended the strike that had been building daily in the bargaining process negotiations started weeks ago.

President Walter P. Reuther of the union and company far apart on many issues, in addition to the of the guaranteed annual confirmed earlier reports, that Ford had put a new offer on the bargaining table last week. Details of offer were not disclosed.

Reuther said Reuther, who had been in charge of the bargaining table, said he was not satisfied with the offer.

The reports were to the Ford's latest offer was line with union demands for a company pay-off of workers in addition to unemployment compensation. There still was no consensus of this, but the union's strength to extend the agreement was not clear.

Leaders had indicated they would not extend the contract if the real proposals being made towards their demands. And they wanted wage taps the list.

The GM-UAW counter-offering GM's plan to raise wages was summarized in a special report in Detroit last Tuesday. It was a report on negotiations to "take whatever is necessary."

W. Livingston, UAW vice president in charge of its GM Division, said "It's proper to assume there will be no GM strikes until council meets." He answered questions about possibility of a strike of GM's largest auto manufacturer.

GM's contract was extended May 29 to June 7. No mention was made of an hour to which the contract was extended and Livingston declined to answer questions.

Small Guides Aid Visiting Alumni

By ROSELYN BROWN
Alumni visiting the Beal-Garfield Botanic Garden this weekend will find something new.

They will be guided through the economic section by white plastic section markers. The purpose of the guide markers is to sub-divide the plants into small groups, and to give general information about the history and uses of each plant.

George Parmelee, curator of the garden, plans to add English labels to every bed in the garden as soon as possible.

An addition of greenhouse plants has completed the garden's Centennial year display. The number of species included in these displays has been doubled by an extensive relocation of the plants and rearrangement of species in the plant beds.

The economic section, west of the crosswalk, now has 44 beds of plants and a capacity of 1,237 species.

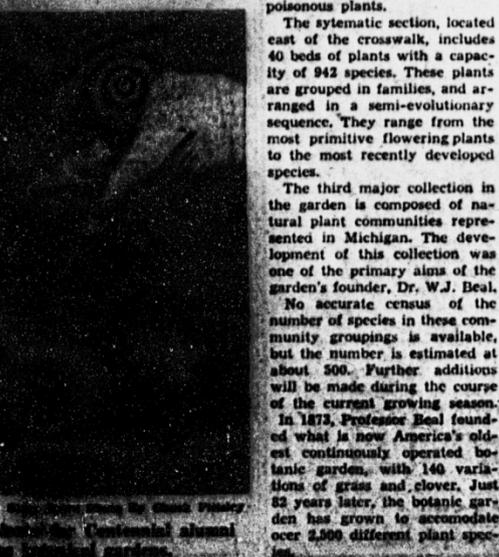

It contains fiber, dye, oil, and medicinal plants, vegetable or preservative-flavoring plants, and poisonous plants.

The systematic section, located east of the crosswalk, includes 40 beds of plants with a capacity of 942 species. These plants are grouped in families, and arranged in a semi-evolutionary sequence. They range from the most primitive flowering plants to the most recently developed species.

The third major collection in the garden is composed of natural plant communities represented in Michigan. The development of this collection was one of the primary aims of the garden's founder, Dr. W.J. Beal.

Seniors Sing Swan Song With Floats

Spring term activities will float to a finish tonight through Saturday as the senior class offers the 1955 Water Carnival.

This is sort of the swan song of the senior class. It is the old regime's last official function, and it is only right that it should end on a happy note. So "Sense and Nonsense" will be portrayed this year.

This is an all-college tradition dating back to 1930. That is the official date, although the Indians used to paddle their canoes up the Red Cedar with less fanfare long before.

And with any luck, maybe it won't rain this time.

No one has to plug Water Carnival to get Spartans to attend. This is one campus event that has traditionally played to solid audiences.

And Water Carnival is played strictly for fun. A lot of time, money and imagination is put into the show, by dorms, fraternities, sororities and other living units.

Sometimes the senior class has come across some stiff obstacles in presenting a "different" show. In fact, not far back in Water Carnival history, in 1950, the senior class went all out so that Life Magazine would get the right picture for its feature layout. The senior class spent $400 to dye the Red Cedar red. It was a good thought, even if Life's photographers didn't show up.

But along with playing Water Carnival strictly for laughs, and the class gift, it is the seniors' final fling to State.

Maybe this tradition is missed under floats like "Candy Is Dandy But Liquor Is Quicker," but it's all part of the same idea. The show is put on to carry along the tradition of a big windup for a year of activities.

Each year the Carnival tries to get a little bigger. This year, a portable water fall has been installed.

Whatever the gimmicks and whatever the theme, Water Carnival does a good job of providing seniors with a swan song. Or on the Red Cedar, it is a duck song.

"The only class I'll give is that it came from the student cafeteria."

Interpreting the News

Reds Silent Over Treaty

By J. M. ROBERTS
 AP News Analyst

Soviet Russia is expected to play much the same sort of game in the current Japanese peace treaty talks that she has been trying with regard to Germany.

It seems probable that she will give another good display of sweetness and light while trying all the time to create difficulties between Japan and the West, particularly the United States.

In some ways she is in a better position with regard to Japan than she is in Europe.

She has some things she can offer without too much expense to herself, while the reunification of Germany involves important dangers.

She can give back the Kurile and other Japanese islands she occupied after the war, she can return Japanese war prisoners which she obviously has been holding as a bargaining factor, and she can offer a trade agreement which would be extremely important to Japan despite the latter's adherence to Western embargo regulations. Better fishing rights would be an important part of the bait.

The rub comes in what Russia wants in return. She has not said.

But there are two objectives which are at the bottom of general Russian policy these days. One is to stir up sentiment against American military bases on foreign soil and the other to stall the general rise in Allied military strength.

This business of military strength is already a matter of delicate relations between the United States and Japan.

Under the peace treaty between Japan and the United States, Japan is supposed to return at least to the point where she can defend herself.

Pressed by internal demands for increased government support of public welfare schemes, the Tokyo government is procrastinating on rearmament.

It's not only a matter of money, but also a recognition of an important segment of public sentiment against any return of the militarism which cost the country so dearly 10 years ago. It is the type of bait which the Western position on which the Russians have to press.

CONVERT

(ACP)—There was a musical thing in Washington, D. C. at the British embassy and one of her majesty's subjects brought along his eight-year-old son, who had been living in Washington ever since he was five.

At the wind-up, the orchestra played the traditional "God Save the Queen" and the youngster joined in the singing. Only difference was that he sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee" in a clear penetrating soprano.

When it was over, one of the guests remarked in a crisp British accent: "My word! The lad's been brain-washed!"

In 1933, France had 48 auto manufacturers, but now 90 percent of her cars are produced by five manufacturers.

Special Little Women Eligible for PHT Degree

By JOANNE BUCKER, State News Society Editor

That special time is here again . . . graduation.

Of all those who have worked for their coveted degree, it seems to us that a special hand is due for the little woman behind the married male student.

True, she may not be graduating, but she plays a large part in hubby's fight to win that valuable diploma. As the JVMA Auxiliary so beautifully puts it, she is eligible for her PHT . . . pushing hubby through.

As we know, studying is hard enough, and we can presume that the everyday cares and trials of married life can easily complicate that valuable study time.

Graduation is not always easily secured by those of the married status, and that diploma stands for a great deal of special struggling on the part of the male student and his wife . . . who have earned it.

So, about now, we of the typewriter extend a special hand to the married graduate and his wife . . . as they depart from this university with a delayed honeymoon, a new baby, and a certificate which means, "You've made it!"

Water Carnival Days of Preparation

'Sense and Nonsense' to Show Living Units Ingenuity

By SUE ANDERSON

Water Carnival involves ideas, ingenuity, planning cooperation on the part of the living units that are preparing floats during the last few weeks.

Living units plan for the carnival "Sense and Nonsense" early during Spring term. Chairmen from each living unit are appointed by their presidents. These living unit chairmen are responsible for finding another living unit to work with and together they plan and carry out these plans until the float is completed.

The two chairmen attend a general meeting and they are given the rules and regulations governing the carnival. The drawing for float themes also takes place at this meeting. Both partners are allowed to draw them from a group of themes set up by the carnival committee and these chairmen decide which one of these themes to accept.

This theme is then submitted to a committee in the living unit or posted in the living units. Plans and suggestions for carrying out the theme are turned into the committee and living units chairmen. As soon as one plan is selected, the details are worked out by the committee with the originator of the idea.

The approved plans and tentative working schedule for carrying out the plans are then presented to all interested workers at an open meeting in one of the living units. At this time the chairmen of artwork and paper mache, construction, electrical, and mechanical work are appointed along with their committees.

The actual construction of the float begins only after newspapers, old lumber, tools, cardboard, wall board, paint, etc.

The living unit chairmen invite members, attend work on the project during the time of construction. Planning can now relax in the announcement of the float. Also a party is in the final night of the carnival to celebrate around the float.

Final Preparations for Water Carnival

Finish Touches on Social Events

The floats and carnivals for the annual Water Carnival "Sense and Nonsense" will be on display over this weekend's carnival.

The Carnival will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Bob Eberhart provides the music.

Arnold Air Society and Chi Alpha are co-sponsors for the evening in the Union Gymnasium. Joe Cappo's band will provide the dinner dance.

The pledges of Alpha Phi are planning a game of cards at their living unit Friday night.

Phi Kappa Tau and Chi Alpha are co-sponsors for the term party Friday night. Joe Cappo's band will provide the music.

Motts Co-op will have a picnic at their annual term picnic at Brighton Park.

Les Gourmets will have a breakfast picnic at the dining hall.

Ends Four-Game Famine

Hoest Blanks Nats on 2 Hits, 9-0

Kaline, Boone, Phillips Pace Tigers at Bat

DETROIT (AP) — Young Billy Hoest pitched a brilliant two-hitter Wednesday as the Detroit Tigers broke a four-game losing streak with a 9-0 triumph over the Washington Senators. Hoest struck out seven and yielded hits only to Tom Umphlett in the first inning and Bob Kline in the seventh.

It was the 23-year-old Wisconsin pitcher's fifth victory against two defeats as he advanced toward his first winning season in four years.

Jack Phillips, substituting for the sore-kneed Ferris Fain at first base, drove in three Tiger runs with three of their 10 hits and a sacrifice fly.

Al Kaline hit a two-run double and single, and Ray Boone, back in the lineup for the first time since May 17, homered in the second for Detroit's first run off Dean Stone.

The Tigers scored five runs in the eighth when relief pitcher Ted Abernathy hit one batter and walked three.

Stand Out From Field

Score, Speake Race for 'Rookie of Year' Honors

NEW YORK (AP)—If the voting for rookie of the year were to be held Tuesday, the winners probably would be outfielder Bob Speake of the Chicago Cubs and pitcher Herb Score of the Cleveland Indians.

Speake and Score easily stand out among a flock of good-looking freshmen.

Score, of course, was the most highly publicized player in the minor leagues last year but Speake was practically an unknown until about a month ago. He probably is the least known of all regular players in the major leagues.

The 24-year-old Speake who joined the Cubs this past spring as a struggling first baseman, has been a ball of fire since he was given a chance in left field when Hank Sauer was injured four weeks ago.

Speake's .304 batting average, tells only part of the story. Since he took over as a regular, he has driven in 31 runs and whalloped 10 home-runs. Seven of those were hit in the last 10 days.

Score has lived up to all advanced billing. The 21-year-old southpaw who set an American Assn. record of 330 strikeouts last year, is still whiffing 'em at the rate of better than one per inning. He's 82 strikeouts in 72 innings are only two fewer than Bob Turley's major league leading figure. He has allowed only 48 hits in winning five decisions against two setbacks.

Reds Beat Giants

NEW YORK (AP)—Home runs by Ted Kluszewski and Roy McMillan, backed up by the five-hit pitching of Joe Nuxhall, gave the Cincinnati Reds a 5-2 victory over the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds Wednesday.

Nuxhall had a four-hit shutout until the ninth inning when Willie Mays followed a walk to Don Mueller with his 13th home run of the year off the left field scoreboard.

Successive walks to Hank Thompson and Ray Katt with two out in the ninth put Nuxhall in a jam but the lefthander retired southpaw pinch-hitter Whitey Lockman on a soft fly to Gus Bell in short center to end the threat. It was Cincinnati's first victory over the Giants in four starts this season.

Jim Hearn started for the Giants and was tagged with his fifth defeat although he pitched creditably until taken out for a pinch hitter in the eighth. The big righthander gave up only two runs on six hits, one of them being Kluszewski's sixth inning four-bagger over the right field roof.

Amateur Standing Questioned

Santee Running Despite Expense Money Charges

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Running star Wes Santee of Kansas was given the go-ahead signal to compete in the Compton Invitational Track and Field Meet Friday night by the local AAU officials Wednesday. The matter of any expense money problems remains something for his own Missouri Valley AAU Assn. to handle.

Larry Houston, registration chairman of the Southern Pacific AAU, made the announcement Wednesday as Santee, America's premier miler, emphatically denied published charges that he has been collecting excessive expense money for meets in California.

Houston issued a formal statement after a meeting of his committee. It read:

"Because Wes Santee is a registered athlete in the Missouri Valley Assn. of the AAU, and has been traveling under proper authority of that association, with copies of the travel permits on file in the local office, the Southern Pacific Assn. of the AAU has no jurisdiction in this matter.

"Initiation of any action relative to the alleged receipt of expenses over and above those permitted by the rules and regulations of the National AAU must be taken by the association in which the athlete is registered.

"As of now, no formal allegations or complaints of the nature as listed in the San Francisco newspaper have been received in the local AAU office from any sponsor of the events in this area in which Wes Santee has competed or will compete."

The controversy originated in San Francisco when a newspaper—the Chronicle—printed a story that said Santee would receive about $3,000 "in expenses for five races in California within a month."

Soon reports began to trickle in from various points... Los Angeles, Fresno and Modesto, where Santee has performed this month... and Compton, where he is slated to race Friday night, and Stockton, where the Kansas athlete is booked for June 10.

Yanks Win Duel

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Irv Noren's single in the ninth scoring Andy Carey broke up a magnificent pitching duel between John Kucks and Ray Herbert and gave the New York Yankees a 3-1 victory over the Kansas City A's in the first game of a double-header Wednesday.

Students Present Own Pieces

A program of Michigan State student compositions will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday in the Music Auditorium.

The opening number will be a "Trio for Woodwinds" by Patricia Dengler Smith, Saginaw graduate student. It will be interpreted by an oboe, clarinet and bassoon trio, composed of Mary Ellen Dunn, Lansing senior; Charles Aurand, Battle Creek senior; and Ralph Sordyl, Flint graduate student.

Next on the program will be three songs from "Alice in Wonderland": "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," "The Mock-Turtle's Lament," and "They Told Me" by Richard Goldworthy, Detroit graduate student.

Soprano Joan Pierce, Jerome graduate student, will be accompanied by pianist Anthony Romans, St. Clair, Pa., graduate student. Charles Aurand and Anthony Romans will play "Sonata for Clarinet and Piano" by Anthony Romans.

"Suite from 'Medea' for Woodwinds, Percussion, Harp and Piano" by Norman Kimmell, Midland graduate student, will follow.

Duane Smith, Midland senior, will join violinists Patricia Smith and Robert Rasmussen, Portland, Ore. senior, and cellist Grace Taylor, Bala Cynwyd, Pa., freshman, in playing his own composition, "String Quartet."

The program will conclude with a modern dance, "The Revivalists," by Iris Bowman, Holland senior. Performers will be choreography, Marion Hunter, Houghton senior conductor; Richmond Browne, Flint senior; flute, David Wygant, Lansing freshman; oboe, Mary Ellen Dunn; horn, Martha Driver, Lansing senior; bassoon, Ralph Sordyl; and piano Iris Bowman.

Gala Celebration on Arrival

Freed Aviators Reach Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP)—Four U. S. fighter pilots returned from the Korean War Wednesday to a gala reception after more than two years in the prisons of Communist China.

"It's wonderful," exclaimed Lt. Col. Edwin L. Heller, Wynnewood, Pa., breathing in the balmy air of Hawaii.

"This is wonderful. It's just great," chorused his three companions—Capt. Harold F. Fischer, Swen City, Iowa; Lt. Lyle Cameron, Lincoln, Neb.; and Lt. Roland W. Parks, Omaha.

Tuesday, they passed through the Bamboo Curtain to Hong Kong and saw the first Americans since their planes were shot down in combat in the late days of 1952 and in 1953.

They flew here in the Bataan, once the personal plane of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The plane touched down after a 5,377-mile flight from Hong Kong. The flight took 53 hours including stop-overs at Guam and Wake.

Their release spurred efforts, both in Washington and at United Nations headquarters in New York, for the release of 11 U. S. airmen jailed as "spies," and other Americans held in Red China.

Thursday will be the big day for the four. That is when close relatives arrive for a happy reunion.

The four will tell of their experiences at a news conference later.

Smith to Get Honorary Degree from MSNC

Jullan Smith, Michigan State associate professor of outdoor education, will receive an honorary degree at Michigan State Normal College.

The presentation will be made at the school's commencement, June 11.

Nursery Songs Included Final Band Concert Enjoyed by Crowd

The Michigan State Concert Band closed out a successful three-concert season last night in the band shell, under the direction of Leonard Falcone.

Favored by a clear spring night, the highly enjoyable concert drew a good crowd.

The program opened with the lively "La Gassa Ladra" (The Thieving Magpie) Overture by Rossini.

The somber tones of Bach's "Come, Sweet Death" followed. And, to change the mood, the band turned to the gay "Italian Polka" by Rachmaninoff, which was well-received by the audience.

A clear and precise clarinet section interpreted the "Second Concerto for Clarinet" by Carl von Weber. Their fine job merited an encore of "Dizzy Fingers."

"Repression and Manifestation" by Norman C. Diets involved a progression from slow, heavy tones to a final crescendo of percussion and brass. Diets received his M. A. in composition at Michigan State.

The familiar "Come Back to Sorrento" by Ernesto de Curtis was played with lilting force.

The powerful "Light Cavalry Overture" by Franz von Suppe concluded the program.

Some of the most enjoyable pieces of the evening provided the encores. Three marches and a collection of children's nursery songs, accented with the sound effects of the toys, were included.

Battered Body of Young Girl Found in Pine Woods

DOSTER, Mich. (AP)—The partially decomposed body of a young girl, Jeannie Singleton, 8, was found hidden in a forest of pine trees in wild back country late Wednesday.

Clothes had been torn from her body from the waist down and police said she apparently had been raped and then murdered, possibly the day she vanished, May 23.

The Kalamazoo school girl, lame from an attack of rheumatic fever, had been beaten around the head. Most of the teeth were missing. The body was found lying face down. No attempt had been made to cover it.

Jeannie vanished while on her way home from school in Kalamazoo. A happy, friendly child, her complete disappearance convinced authorities she had been kidnapped.

The find climaxed a ground and air search by more than a 1,000 persons throughout Kalamazoo city and county in southwestern Michigan.
