

Spink, Mercer Appointed To Student Executive Posts

Augustine Named Treasurer

Centennial Plans Given to Congress

JUNE TURNER

Student Government appointments for Fall term were made by President Bill Mansfield at the first meeting of the new congress Wednesday night.

Roger Augustine was named treasurer and Gordon Spink secretary of state affairs. Secretary of Governmental Affairs is Bill Mercer.

Russ Palmer and Andy Foeller were appointed to the All-University Judiciary. Campus Chest director is Bob O'Hara and Student Centennial Commission director is Bill Barry.

Other appointments are Betty Williams, Small Loans director; Don Gillette, Spartan Spirit; Rudy Petzold, High School Cooperation, and Jean Trinklein, Student Orientation Committee.

Heads of other committees are Henry Guyot, Academic Benefits; Carolyn Roth, Elections; Joe Rrea, Information Services; Bill Kline, Organizations, and P. A. Brady, Personnel Bureau.

Recommended for the Motor Vehicle Committee is Mattie Lu Thorpe from Mortar Board. Ex-calliber has not recommended a member yet.

Student-Faculty Social Committee member is Carolyn Lyns. George Clute will serve on the Athletic Council.

A faculty-student committee has been set up to plan the Presidential Convocation. Student Government president, an AWS representative, the editors of the State News and Wolverine plus the four class presidents are on the committee.

President Eisenhower is expected at the Presidential Convocation to be held the week of October 10. The exact date of the President's arrival will be known by July 15.

A motor caravan will meet the president at the Lansing Air Port and escort him to Kellogg Center where the activities band will be stationed.

The President will speak in Macklin Stadium. Student Government hopes that every student on campus will attend.

Cost of the Centennial Parade as been set approximately $6,000. The faculty Centennial committee will share Student Government expenses.

The parade will begin at 9 a. m. on October 22, the day of the Illinois game. Approximately 32 floats representing campus living units will be seen. The floats will replace Homecoming displays.

A student award banquet, students answer to Founders' Day, will be held on Nov. 3. Two students from every organization on campus will receive recognition for work in their own activity.

Student Government is attempting to get Sec. of State John Foster Dulles to speak at the reception and banquet to be held in Brody Hall. The oldest living graduate of Michigan State will be invited to attend the award's banquet.

Alumni Relations committee has been asked to recommend 20 Michigan State graduates who were active during their four years on campus.

"The object of the awards," according to Bill Barry, Student Centennial Commission Director, "is to show appreciation to students for work not only in Centennial affairs but also in all activities on campus."

This summer approximately a quarter of a million people will be on campus for the Centennial of Farm Mechanization. A See GOVERNMENT, Page 2

CIO Heads Call End to Strikes

Walkouts Said 'Sabotage To GM Contract Talks'

DETROIT (AP) — The leaders of the CIO United Auto Workers said Wednesday that wildcat walkouts idling some 45,000 General Motors employees around the country are "sabotaging national negotiations."

They ordered the strikes ended. More than 13,000 Ford Motor Co. employees also were off their jobs because of other unauthorized stoppages, boosting the day's walkout total to about 58,000 in nearly a score of widely scattered plants.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther and Vice President John W. Livingston said the walkouts were embarrassing them as they entered contract talks with General Motors Wednesday afternoon.

Steel Firms Begin Wage Bargaining

Strike Deadline Set at June 30

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The nation's three biggest steel producing firms gathered around separate bargaining tables Wednesday with the CIO United Steel Workers intent on working out a wage settlement before June 30—the union's strike deadline.

Union committees headed by president David J. McDonald presented demands for a substantial wage increase to Bethlehem Steel Corp. Wednesday morning and to Republic Steel Corp. Wednesday afternoon.

The same demands were served Tuesday on U.S. Steel Corp. All three firms are expected to hold daily meetings with the union until the end of the week. After that the firms likely will seek brief recesses to study the demands.

Joseph M. Larkin, vice president of industrial relations and head of the Bethlehem negotiating committee, apparently ruled out any question of a guaranteed annual wage being brought up in the negotiations. He said: "We have come here to discuss wages. We certainly won't raise the guaranteed annual wage question."

McDonald said earlier the union will stick strictly to terms of the contract which permits a discussion on wages only.

After Ford Motor Co. agreed earlier this week to give the CIO United Auto Workers a contract containing the modified guaranteed annual wage, speculation arose the subject may be brought up at steel talks.

New Outfits

12 Cheerleaders Chosen for '55-56

Six coeds and six men will lead Spartan fans next year during football and basketball games. The recently selected coeds are: Claire Waters, East Lansing freshman; Barbara Carlson, Western Springs, Ill., sophomore; Nancy Schlichting, Lansing sophomore; Betty Lou Lundstedt, Tarenton, Pa., junior; Jo Ellen War-mouth, Lincoln Park sophomore, and Pat Kelly, Fraser freshman.

Men cheerleaders for next year will be: Dee McDonald, Okemos junior; Nick Smith, Addison sophomore; John Sutherland, Huntington Park, California, junior; John Thomson, Kalamazoo freshman; Max Wad-daver, San Salvador, El Salvador freshman, and Lloyd Wilson, Tuckahoe, N. Y., sophomore.

New green skirts, pants and white sweaters are being ordered for the new squad. The group will then have four changeable outfits including their white skirts and pants with green sweaters of this year.

According to directors of the cheerleaders, Miss Pauline Hess, physical education instructor and George Szypula, assistant professor of physical education, the squad will participate in the away games scheduled at the University of Wisconsin and University of Michigan.

Hotel and restaurant equipment from dainty glassware to massive kitchen appliances are being studied on the Michigan State campus this week. The students are sales personnel in the food equipment industry from Michigan, Connecticut, Illinois, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Vermont and Wisconsin.

Meeting at Kellogg Center and Brody Hall, the course is sponsored by the National Assn. of Food Equipment Manufacturers in cooperation with the division of hotel, restaurant and general institutional management, School of Business and Public Service, and Continuing Education Service.

Other new officers are: vice president, Sylvia Jackson, Angola, Indiana sophomore; secretary, Mary Irwin, Grand Rapids sophomore, and treasurer, Peggy Fischer, Grosse Pointe junior.

Representatives from all the speech organizations, honoraries and classes constitute the Speech Council.

State Personnel Urged To Get Fall X-Rays

All members of the State faculty and employees may have their yearly chest X-rays September 13-18. The entire personnel is urged to have the X-rays which will be conducted in the X-ray department at the Health Center.

WKAR 'Reading Circle' to Hear 300th Book

Today listeners of WKAR's "Radio Reading Circle" will hear the program's 300th book selection—"A Man Called Peter" by Mrs. Peter Marshall.

The book was chosen by radio listeners after they were asked to send in their preferences. Lawrence Fyrmir, assistant director of WKAR-Radio, reads the book which usually takes from three to four weeks to complete.

The first book read when the program started in 1936 was Jane Austen's "Pride and Prejudice." Since that time, the program has been a continuous feature on WKAR-Radio and is heard every Monday through Saturday from 9 to 9:30 a.m.

Phi Gam Delegates Tour State Today

Delegates from the University of Michigan Phi Gamma Delta national fraternity will be on campus today to observe State's fraternity system. The U of M fraternity is making preliminary investigations in colonizing a chapter here.

George Snyder, Grand Rapids junior and IFC president, and Robb Gardiner, assistant to the dean of students, men's division, will conduct the tour.

IFC Appoints New Secretary Pro Tem

Fred Koenig, Royal Oak freshman, recently was appointed secretary pro tem of InterFraternity Council replacing Don Slazak, Bay City junior who will be practicing teaching fall term.

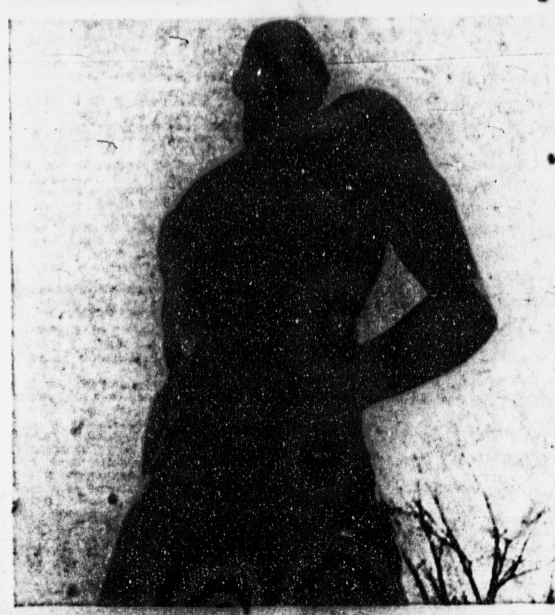

Tallest Free-Standing Ceramic Sparty Celebrates 10th Birthday Today

By DON CHOWN Sparty's namesakes can sing "Happy Birthday" to him today. The statue will be 10 years old.

Sparty was born in the mind of Ralph Young, retired athletic director, in 1932. Young was visiting the campus of Southern California at Los Angeles and spotted a huge statue of a Trojan.

The term "Spartans" was in use at the time of Young's visit. George Alderton, sports editor of the Lansing State Journal, first used it in 1926 to describe the efforts of the Michigan State baseball team on a southern tour.

"Spartans" had lost out in a contest held that same year to choose a new name for Michigan State teams. The Michigan Slaters was the winning selection, but had the bad feature of being awkward for headlines. "Spartans" caught on and soon was used exclusively. Students attempted to design a Sparty upon Young's return to Michigan State, but the project failed.

Summer Fashions Casual Styles

Apparel Shows Effect French and Italian Ideas

By SUE ANDERSON
Summer fashions spell casual in capital letters. The wardrobe is simple and extremely casual. The silhouette is simple, or full and flowing. The newest in silhouettes are the huge collars which add width at the top.

French and Italian influences in sportswear design. Cotton, rayon, and silk are the favorite materials. The new styles are simple with a few decorative touches. The new styles are simple with a few decorative touches. The new styles are simple with a few decorative touches.

Roommates Reach Test Of Friends

By JOANNE BECKER
State News Society Editor
Do you roll out of bed on the wrong side too often lately? Well, gals, don't think that yours is an isolated case—it's been happening to everybody.

Right about now, when the weather's too warm and so are you, and your roommate is on edge and so are you and finals are coming—yes, indeed, that's when everybody gets a little tired of everyone else.

We can't advise a cure-all, nor can we give the best of advice. —we need a little at times ourselves.

It seems to us, however, that patience is the keynote during the last week before, and the week of, finals. Your roommate, the gal across the hall, and you are all under that last minute strain.

Everyone has faults, and it's about this time of year when the big endurance contest comes up—can we withhold complaints?

Maybe it isn't this bad as far as you're concerned, but for those who have noticed a need for self-control, we offer this motto, "Be kind to your roommate, she is definitely your better half."

Coed Contest Sponsored Nationally

If you are an undergraduate between 17 and 24 years old, you are eligible to become the National College Queen.

The third annual National College Queen Contest is to be held at Convention Hall at Asbury Park, New Jersey from September 9 to 11.

The purpose of the contest is to select and honor on a national level the typical and most all-round versatile college girl in the nation.

The winner will receive the National College Queen Trophy Award, a grand Tour of Europe with all expenses paid, scholarship awards and $5,000 in prizes including an all-purpose wardrobe of designer's clothes.

Free entry blank forms can now be obtained by writing to: College Queen Contest Director, Convention Hall, Asbury Park, N. J.

The new National College Queen winner need not be a four point student, nor a "Marilyn Monroe." She will simply typify in beauty and ability the thousands of typical college girls.

The members and their respective activities for next year are: Homecoming, Jack Huffman, East Lansing junior; Hannah Teas, John Saltzstein, Milwaukee, Wis., junior; Coffee Hours, Jeanne Joy, Arlington, Va., junior, and Senior of the Week, Pat McDonald, Detroit junior.

More new council representatives are: Publicity, Myra Mac

Pherson, Ann Arbor junior; Great Issues, Bob Brubaker, Sturgis junior; Commencement, Carol Lundgren, Grosse Pointe junior, and Senior Swingout, Sally Crick, Alpena junior.

Members-at-large are Dick Morsches, Columbia City, Indiana junior and Jack Strasser, Evanston, Ill., junior.

Automatically members of the council are the senior class officers: president, Dick Wood; vice president, Bill Mercer; secretary, Mary Alice Ritehlin, and treasurer, Tooney Kanney. The other council members were selected by them.

Among the plans setup by the council include Hannah Teas which will be held in various schools each month with Dr. and Mrs. Hannah.

Also the annual Senior Week has been moved up to Commencement Week to allow time for seniors to complete their term projects.

Coffee hours will be expanded and the Council will also complete plans for a "Great Issues" course for next winter term.

The Great Issues is a course which was initiated by this year's Senior Council whereby leaders in various fields will speak to seniors followed by classroom discussions. The course is similar to one set up in various colleges such as Dartmouth and Yale.

The council is also making plans to continue the Senior Ball and to organize the '56 Club earlier.

Senior Council Members Confer For First Time. Government Appointments

International Day which was sponsored by Student Government has been named one of the most successful events of the Centennial year. Letters from the Vice President of the United States and the Secretary General of the United Nations have been received complimenting Michigan State on the event.

Sharon Johnson was named chairman of the summer Student Congress. Summer Congress will be composed of students from the Lansing-East Lansing area or present members attending summer school.

The chief function of the congress is to carry on public relations and solve pressing business matters.

A fall and winter term budget of $7,000 was passed by Student Congress. The budget is composed of an operating fund, a Spartan fund, and a General Unappropriated Fund.

Standing committees for next year were also named. Organization and Eligibility committee members are Everett Christensen, Nancy Miller, Helen Dennison, Marilyn Douma, Pris Slabaugh and Robert Lawrence.

Congress Business and Student Affairs committee members are Charles Collinson, Caroline Bromley, Linda Verplank, Nancy Frost, Larry Trevarrow, and Sharon Johnson.

Connie Paris, Peggy Bosonetto, Dick VanOrman, and Elliot Mann are also on the Congress Business and Student Affairs committee.

Elections committees consist of Doug Brown, Jan Wright, Lynn

Washburn, Jim Wahlberg, Jan Claude Watson.

Evelyn Stogdill, Barry Grant, Bob Bosco, Bob Besas, Jenn Elliot, and Jacobs make up the Rights and Welfare

Those named to the committee are Dick Johnson, Nancy Borgquist, Bill Wurm, Schramek, and Virginia Dudley.

Walking Tours Slated by

New students will have to walk around the campus this summer during the annual tours sponsored by Inter-Fraternity Council. According to Kies Hagadorn, Alma senior and chairman of the event, the tours will not be conducted in buses as in past years.

"Instead we will have the students walk so that they will see more of the buildings and acquaint themselves with the campus," Hagadorn said.

The tours will be during the first two weeks of the term. Tentative plans made for the tours open during the first two weeks of the term. Interested students

DON NEWCOMBE wins 10th straight

HOOT EVERS homer edges Chisox

Newcombe Bats, Hurls 10th Win

BROOKLYN (AP)—Brooklyn's big Don Newcombe, still unbeaten, breezed in as the first pitcher to win 10 games in the major leagues this season with a masterful four-hit 3-1 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs in rain and cold Wednesday night.

The 6-4 righthander, who had only a 9-8 record after returning from service last season, pitched perfect ball over the last five innings. He didn't give up a walk all night, struck out seven and retired the last 16 men he faced.

It was Newcombe all the way. The big guy, who bats left handed, smacked a single and a double, figuring in two of the Brooks' runs, as the Dodgers sent Gerry Staley to his fourth defeat against four victories with a 10-hit attack.

The only lapse he suffered was a fourth-inning pitch that Ted Kluszewski hammered against the wind and over the right field screen. It was his 16th homer of the season.

It's Airplanes for A's Athletic Boss Scoffs At Air Travel Fear

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Recurrent reports that big league baseball moguls may seek to ban air travel for their high priced diamond darlings drew a sniff of disbelief Wednesday from President Arnold Johnson of the Kansas City Athletics.

Working hard to get the transplanted A's going on the majors' westernmost flank, Johnson put himself on record as being definitely in favor of flying his club across the country whenever necessary or if air travel would be more restful for the players on a long trip. And from here to Boston, the easternmost outpost of the American League is roughly a 1,500-mile jump.

The hullabaloo about air travel got going good recently as result of a narrowly averted collision between a Canadian jet fighter and a chartered plane carrying the Milwaukee Braves to Quebec for an exhibition game. Some sportswriters predicted a move would be made next winter to ban team flights.

One of the leaders in such a move is likely to be George Weiss, general manager of the New York Yankees. He won't let the Yanks fly as a team now.

"I've talked with Weiss several times about not letting his club fly," Johnson said in an interview with Joe McGuff of the Kansas City Star. "He always tells me that he doesn't want to take a chance on putting his whole team in one plane at a time. He says he could not begin to replace his ball club in five years if it were lost in a crash.

"I've told him just to double his insurance from 5 to 10 million dollars.

"You can't tell me that you wouldn't be able to buy outstanding ball players for $400,000 to $500,000 a piece. When you get into that kind of dough, anyone will listen to you.

"Statistically, planes are just as safe as any other means of transportation. If the weather is good, they are probably safer."

'Toe' Blake To Coach Canadiens

MONTREAL (AP)—Hector (Toe) Blake, one of the most prolific scorers ever to play hockey for the Montreal Canadiens, became manager of the Canadiens Wednesday.

Blake, known as the "Old Lamplighter" during his playing days, succeeds Dick Irvin, who moved to the Chicago Blackhawks after the 1954-56 season. His appointment completed a two-year coaching turnover which has brought new coaches to every National Hockey League club.

In addition to the Canadiens and Blackhawks, the New York Rangers changed coaches this summer, naming Phil Watson to succeed Muzz Patrick, who was made general manager. Lynn Patrick, Muzz's brother, also moved up to the manager's job at Boston and Milt Schmidt became coach there last December.

Detroit's Jim Skinner was new on the job at the start of the season. Frank King Clancy of Toronto became coach there before the start of the 1953-54 season.

IM Results

Bernie Kuchek hurling his second no-hitter of the season Wednesday to put ATO into the IM finals with a 1-0 win over Rathner.

Kuchek hooked up with Bob Stokes in a tight pitcher's duel that Gordon Crimmins won with the only hit of Stokes. Kuchek struck out seven.

ATO will meet West Shaw 2 today at 6 for the title.

Joe to Captain Track Team Gosper and Savoldi Honored

Joe Savoldi and Kevan Gosper, Michigan State's two most outstanding track and field performers, have received top citations for their 1953 work.

Gosper, the living Australian, has added the M. M. Knappen Merit Award to the list of honors he has won for scholastic and track performances at State. Savoldi has been named team captain for 1956.

Gosper recently won the Western Conference medal, given each year in each institution to the athlete who best combines athletic and academic performances. He also was one of three final candidates for "Senior of the Year" honors at Michigan State and was captain of this year's track team.

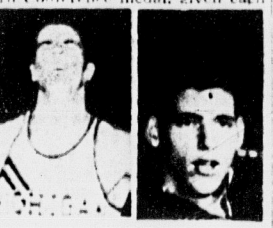

His track achievements include three Western Conference titles, the British Empire Games 440-yard title, a school record mark of :46.9 in the 440, two Central Collegiate Conference titles and a Coliseum Relays title. Most of these were in the 410.

The Knappen award is given annually to a varsity track man on the basis of his "degree of hard honest effort and team value entirely aside from points or places won." The 1954 winner was Louis Vargha, also a sprinter and 440-yard specialist.

Savoldi, son of the former Notre Dame gridiron great, is a crack hurdler, broad jumper, high jumper and shot-putter, among other things. He may hit his peak in the decathlon, in which event he already is considered a fine Olympic team possibility for 1956.

Comm Skills Final Winners Announced

Wright, Ebright, Maryland Take 1st Place Honors

Twelve freshmen—the finalists of some 3,500 who started the contest—competed Wednesday night in the Basic College's second annual speech contest.

First prize, a $85 tuition scholarship, went to Beverly Wright, Pontiac, for her speech entitled "Let Them In," a plea for educational benefits to crippled children.

George Halpin, Twin Falls, Idaho, won second prize for "Let's Get Rid of Sexual Perversion." His award was a $25 tuition scholarship.

Third prize went to James MacDonald, East Lansing, for his speech, "The American Way." He was awarded a $15 tuition scholarship.

Awards were also presented for the "Best Manuscript Written in Communication Skills 111," and for the "Best Research Paper Written in Communication Skill 112."

Charlotte Ebright, Lansing, won the Basic 111 award, while Cynthia Ferrell, Silver Springs, Maryland took the 112 award.

Second prize winner in the 111 contest went to Sandra Shook, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Third prize winner was Douglas R. Miller, Miss. New Hampshire.

In the 112 contest Joseph A. Pocher, Jr., Grand Rapids, took second prize.

Lena O'Connor, Fresh Meadows, N. Y., took third prize.

Dean Thomas H. Hamilton of the Basic college presented the awards.

In his remarks, he told the

E.L. Woman Found Dead In Home

Mrs. Hilde Thompson, 31, of 130 Center St., East Lansing, was found dead in her home by her husband at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Thompson is the wife of Wade Thompson, Communication Skills instructor.

Coroner Dorwin Hoffmeyer, after performing an autopsy early Wednesday morning, ruled the death a suicide. The cause of the death was an acute cyanide poisoning.

Thompson stated his wife asked him to get some magazines at Kellogg Center and when he returned he found his wife dead.

Mrs. Thompson was born in Berlin, Germany and came to America 16 years ago.

Besides her husband Mrs. Thompson is survived by her son Marc, 2½ years old and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Victor Wittgenberg of New York City.

The funeral will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at Gorsline-Runciman Funeral Home.

Boxing, Fencing Bouts 1st Sports Night Sponsored by Vets

By VERN KINSEY

The sports of ancient Greece and Rome were recalled last night by Dr. Stanley Idzerda, assistant professor of Humanities, who was guest speaker at the first annual Sports Night sponsored by the State Veterans Association.

Dr. Idzerda cited the motto of a Roman poet as one of the prominent ideas which distinguished people of the Western world from Orientals. This motto stresses "a sound mind in a sound body."

Sports in the Western world developed as early as 1700 B.C. on the island of Crete. The favorite Cretan sport of that period was an acrobatic contest performed with bulls.

Excellence in sports showed that the individual had the favor of the Gods and was one of the important characteristics of ancient sports, according to Dr. Idzerda.

Talks on modern sports were given by Gail Mikles, assistant wrestling coach, Jack Brotzmann, appointed boxing coach, and George Thomas, Big 10 sabre fencing champion.

Each speaker introduced members of his team who gave demonstration bouts.
