Congress to Aid Ticket Sales

Attempt to Relieve Distribution Line Congestion

By SYLVIA DE STEIGER
providing for a new system of Lecture-Concert ticket distribution was passed Wednesday by the Student Congress.

This plan, introduced by the student rights and welfare committee after previous investigation, will go into effect Monday when tickets for the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo will be issued.

Congressmen will distribute numbers beginning at 7 a.m. and continue until the ticket office opens. Students will be called by their number when tickets are issued. This is hoped to halt the congestion which has occurred previously, points out Art Jacobs.

A second bill passed by Congress transferred $300 from the General Unappropriated Fund to the Spartan Spirit Fund.

Bill Mansfield, president of the MSU Student Government said the transfer was suggested to help pay for the expenses of the 3,000 chairs rented for the Spartan Review.

Of the eight resolutions, presented to Congress, seven were accepted. Resolutions passed during the two hour meeting provided that:

1. The student rights and welfare committee investigate and report to Congress on the recent Butterfield controversy.
2. A special committee be established to study the congestion in Berkeley Hall.
3. A recommendation be made for chair plugs to be put on chairs in the assigned reading room of the new library to lessen the noise.
4. A recommendation be made to investigate the possibility of improving the acoustics in Macklin Stadium.
5. The finance committee explore the idea of the group life insurance plan and then recommend the most reasonable one to be considered for adoption.
6. The speaker appoint a temporary committee to study the traffic problem on campus.
7. An addition of one member to both the elections committee and the organization committee be made.

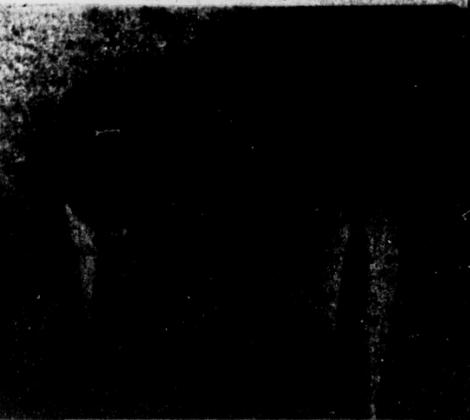

The only resolution defeated by Congress was the proposal of a standard committee to be set up to study the traffic problem on campus.

Barry Grant, Detroit junior, introduced the resolution to recommend exploration of the Macklin Stadium acoustics. Grant suggested the possibility of installing a loud speaker at the south end of the stadium. He explained many of the freshmen and sophomores could not hear the present speaker situated at the north end.

Referring to the discussion at the last session in which a representative from the Equitable Life Insurance Company spoke to the Congress on the possibility of a group life insurance plan, Bill Worm, Highland

Republicans to Push 9-Point Safety Plan

Increased License Fee May Cause Controversy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Republican legislative leaders today announced a nine-point traffic safety program they will try to push through during the special legislative session opening Nov. 1.

The program was announced by Senators Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek), the Republican caucus chairman; Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), majority floor leader; Speaker of the House Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo); Andrew H. Bell (R-Grand Rapids), speaker pro tem of the house; Allison Green (R-Kingston), Republican floor leader; and Thomas J. Whinery (R-Grand Rapids), judiciary committee chairman.

The GOP program:

1. An unspecified increase in the state police.
2. A state speed limit of 60 miles an hour on two and three lane highways and on four or more lane highways where posted and the adoption of a 60 mile an hour limit at night.
3. Transfer of the central violations and license files from the Secretary of State to the state police.
4. Special state police training for local law enforcement officials who issue driver licenses and the use of uniform procedures and standards.
5. The requirement that had drivers go to special drivers training schools to be financed by the state under a committee composed of the state police, local sheriffs and prosecutors.
6. Establishment of an accident research bureau within the state police.
7. A requirement for special examinations for school bus drivers.
8. A study of the possible formation of a bureau of motor vehicles to include the state police, central files, the research bureau, automobile registrations and all other traffic controls and safety functions.
9. Doubling the present $1.50 driver license fee for three years to finance the program.

Gov. Williams commented that the Republican program was

The Asks Reds to Aid Conciliation

Ministers Seek "Spirit of Geneva"

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower, on the eve of the Big Four foreign ministers conference, put it up to Russia Wednesday to join in promoting "a peace of justice" in a spirit of conciliation.

With the conference opening Thursday in Geneva, the convalescing President said "peaceful progress" for which the world long has yearned can be achieved there if the Soviet Union matches the sincerity of the Western powers—the United States, Great Britain and France.

Eisenhower's statement came from a dispatch on his doctors' continued encouraging reports.

The 12:30 p.m. (CST) bulletin from Fitzsimons Army Hospital said Eisenhower had another "excellent night's sleep" of 8 1/2 hours and that he awoke refreshed and cheerful.

President Eisenhower said U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles "speaks for me with authority for our country... as my personal representative having my complete confidence."

Both Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Dulles expressed hope on their meeting that "the spirit of Geneva" created by the summit parley can be retained as the keystone in diplomatic efforts to reduce East-West friction.

In spite of their hopeful comments, the two diplomats spelled out differences of opinion. Dulles said his delegation would work hard to carry out the Big Four aim of handling the closely linked problems of German reunification and European security. He mentioned these in that order.

In his equally careful description of the objectives, Molotov listed European security first, Germany second and disarmament third.

Facing the Big Four were these basic problems:

1. European security and reunification of divided Germany.
2. World disarmament.
3. Trade and cultural exchange between East and West.

Creeping into the picture were last minute developments the conference may have to deal with before it closes, probably in three weeks. One of these issues is an Israeli complaint that the Soviet Union is supplying arms to Egypt through satellite Czechoslovakia.

Clipper Girls To Speak at Kellogg Convoy

"Anyone Can Run a Newspaper" will be the contention of the "Clipper Girls" at the sixth annual Small Business Clinic here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Grace Hamilton and Miss Nina Babcock, of Cedar Springs, will speak at the annual Saturday night banquet at Kellogg Center about their experiences with the "Cedar Springs Clipper," a weekly newspaper near Grand Rapids.

More than 300 men and women who are operating or who are planning to begin small businesses will participate in the two-day educational conference.

U.S. Rep. Martha Griffiths, of Detroit, member of the Detroit Business Women's Club, will speak at the closing luncheon Sunday noon. The Rev. Mrs. Helen Riggs Brown, Lansing, will conduct the chapel service.

Once again, the conference is sponsored by the department of business, Continuing Education Service, U.S. Department of Commerce, Michigan Department of Economic Development and Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Spartan Spirit Extends Purdue Ticket Sales

Faculty May Be Included If Sale Fail to Increase

Michigan State's not-very-enthusiastic students today get what may be their final chance to buy tickets for the special train excursion to the Nov. 5 Purdue-State game.

Originally planned as a two-day campaign, the ticket sales will continue today from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Union ticket desk.

Wednesday's meager total of 20 sales raised the total to only 100 tickets sold, of a possible 600.

If today's sales fail to make a large dent in the remaining ticket stock, sales next week may be thrown open to faculty members and alumni, according to Spartan Spirit officials.

The all-day excursion was planned following last year's successful migration to the State-Notre Dame game at South Bend.

That train, of similar size, was full for the trip at $10 per person.

This year's longer trip will cost students, or possibly others, $12.50 for the combination game-train ticket.

The Nov. 5 afternoon in Lafayette may be a sad one for Spartan fans if the football team has as much trouble there as Spartan Spirit is having getting people to watch the game.

AFROTC Picks Corps Sponsors

Nine corps were picked as AFROTC Corps. Sponsors Wednesday night by MSU members of Arnold Air Society, national AFROTC honorary.

The AFROTC Honorary Cadet Colonel will be named from the nine girls at a banquet Nov. 3.

The nine girls were selected from 18 semi-finalists chosen by AFROTC cadets during drill periods this fall.

Included in the duties of the corps sponsors are reviewing the spring term parade and reigning over the AFROTC-BOTC blood drive spring term.

Committee To Study Substitutes

Greeks Pledge Full Support of Chest

By GENE RITZINGER
State News Night Editor
The future of "Spartacade," Campus Chest's annual charity carnival is in extreme doubt today.

The Inter-Fraternity Council decided Tuesday night that no fraternity represented in IFC will participate in Spartacade this year.

The Council voted unanimously that a committee be appointed to look into an alternative fund raising event to support Campus Chest.

George Snyder, IFC president, said his group thinks "there is a better and more efficient way of contributing to the chest."

"Money spent in building displays," said Snyder, "is not going to Campus Chest, and we are therefore defeating its purpose."

"The IFC," he continued, "has formed a committee which will work with Chest officials to find a more efficient way to help Campus Chest in lieu of Spartacade."

A new IFC policy designed to de-emphasize extra-curricular activities so that fraternity men can concentrate on studies, and the fact that Spartacade is held during spring term at a time when many fraternity and all-university activities take place, were given by Snyder as other reasons for IFC's action.

Bob O'Hara, Campus Chest director, said Wednesday, "IFC made a decision, in effect, for the whole campus, whether knowingly or not."

"In pulling out, they are taking a terrific responsibility," he said. "They are an important cog in Spartacade's success."

"Proceeds from Spartacade," said O'Hara, "are the biggest single donation Campus Chest receives."

"If Spartacade is cancelled because of IFC's action," said O'Hara, "UMOC is not going to run on a money basis."

(UMOC is the "Ugliest Man on Campus" contest which was combined with Spartacade, Oct. 12, after its sponsors, Alpha Phi Omega, national service honorary, heard a unanimous decision from living unit heads, including one representing IFC, to join the two events.)

O'Hara said the UMOC contest would have to be run "a different way" since IFC has pulled out of Spartacade.

He estimated Campus Chest would suffer a 75 per cent decrease in funds if both Spartacade and UMOC were cancelled.

Student Directory Grows Up

By BOB HAFER
At one time MSU's student directory could be carried in a pocket, but someday it may be too heavy to carry.

The first directory on record was a small, two by four booklet published in 1917-1918 and containing only 53 pages.

This booklet was a combination of all student and faculty names, and remained so until 1946 when the first separate student directory, with 197 pages, was published.

In this year's directory as in past years, the Smiths lead all other clans on campus with a total of 180 names. Second in line are the Johnsons, who number 108. The Millers rank third with 101, and the Browns fourth with 81. Other common names are Anderson, 68, and Williams, 56.

Duplication of full names, which doesn't happen too often, finds the Smiths on top again with two Ruth Anns, Barbara Jeans, Mary Es, and Marcia A's. The Barbara Jeans have student numbers just a digit apart.

There are nine Robert Smiths from Michigan, but each has a different middle name. So do the eight Robert Joneses and seven Richard Smiths.

The directory presents a great cast, but no plot. Aaron is the first name this year, and Zysk faces the back cover.

The longest name, with 17

letters, is Cardmanquerry.

Competition is keen for the shortest name, but Fox and Day hold the titles for the most in number.

Of all MSU students last year and this year, there are none whose last names begin with the letter X.

Names beginning with S take 23 pages. The B's take over 20, and the M's and H's, in that order, take 15 and 19 pages, whereas the Q's occupy only one-fourth of a page.

It has been a hectic campus for many years, with students whose last names begin with "Mac" or "Mc" numbering 240 in the directory. Their nearest competition is the students whose names begin with "Van."

Reported New Evidence Found Chicago Murder

New evidence was uncovered Wednesday that school boys whose naked bodies were found in a preserve woods Oct. 18 may have been slain two days away.

Police officers near the prairie preserve were alerted by a woman who gave separate accounts of a murder. She said she saw a man in a white shirt and dark pants running through the woods. She also heard screams and a muffled cry.

Trade Assn., C of C Execs To Train Here

Michigan State University will become a training center for chamber of commerce and trade association executives.

The National Institute for Organizational Management has notified MSU officials that its board has voted to establish a training center on the Spartan campus. Formerly the National Institute for Commercial and Trade Organization Executives, the program has been located at Northwestern University for the past 23 years.

The Institute annually sponsors a school in June for executives of chambers of commerce, trade associations and allied groups. Executives receive certificates after completing a three-year curriculum. A graduate program also is offered.

Michigan State specialists and student people in the field will comprise the faculty. The school will be located at the Kellogg Center and with the MSU decision to establish a new course in the College of Business and Public Service the winter term.

Charles E. Boyd, Retail Merchants Association Detroit, is president of the institute. The vice-presidents are John O. Burch, executive vice-president, Chamber of Commerce, Birmingham Ala. and Leslie W. Scott, assistant dean, College of Business and Public Service, Michigan State.

Park senior, introduced the resolution.

This resolution is the first plan which may be presented to other insurance companies. The two plan would be recommended to Congress.

The Equitable plan provides any student could be insured for $400 with an annual premium of $10. In order to effect this plan, would have to be adopted by 75 per cent of the student body. This policy could be converted to a regular life insurance policy within a year after graduation.

The addition of one member to both the election and organization committees was provided to compensate for the increase in the size of Congress due to the rise in student enrollment.

Congressmen accepted the challenge of Lushwell A.C. in the annual Shovel Bowl football game to be played Nov. 6 at 2 p.m.

President Marquette recommended Phil Stangor, Marquette Ohio senior to replace Joe Rhea, Lansing sophomore as director of the student government information services. Rhea resigned from this position last week.

Westinghouse Plants Closed

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Westinghouse Electric Corp. Wednesday closed its plants because of two striking unions in operations over wages and contracts.

The CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, with about 44,000 members and the independent United Electrical Workers, which claims 12,000 are both seeking a 15-cent wage hike. Another 10,000 employees people have been added to the strike.

The UE membership claim is disputed by Westinghouse. The company says the union has about 10,500 members at its plants.

The CIO-UE called by 44,000 members and on strike Oct. 14. The UE members walked off the job at midnight Tuesday.

Defeat Phillips 8, 14-6

Phillips 5 Remains Unbeaten

By PETER WALTERS
By downing Phillips 8, 14-6, in Wednesday evening intramural football action, Phillips 5 extended its unbeaten streak to three games.

Late in the first quarter, 8 drove from deep in its own territory to within a foot and a half of scoring, but lost the ball on downs.

In the second period, Ellis, who alternated with Sparpana in the quarterback position, connected with Chuck Simpson on a 30-yard touchdown pass.

Shortly after halftime, lineman Bert Larkins tagged Loren Clifford in his end zone for a 5 safety.

Eight's only score of the game came in the last period when Clifford hit Ken Vesley on a 35-yard scoring play.

E. Shaw 7, 13; E. Shaw 6, 7. E. Shaw 7, also unbeaten this year, maintained its perfect record by outscoring E. Shaw 6, 13-7.

Gene Hansen passed for both 7 touchdowns, collaborating with Jerry Best and Jerry Nuerminger on the first and Al Brittain and Ron Boeve on the clincher.

Six spoiled a shutout by scoring on an aerial from Duane Christie to Jack Wall on the last play of the game.

W. Shaw 1, 13; W. Shaw 6, 6. Bob Ferguson scored in the second and third periods to pace his W. Shaw 1 team to a 13-6 victory over W. Shaw 6.

Al Balda scored the extra point after the second touchdown.

The lone touchdown for 6 was tallied by Cliff Green late in the final stanza.

Short Course

Six teams made up of general agriculture short course students played their first games in their own independent league Wednesday.

After playing three periods of scoreless ball, the Eager Beavers scored in the dying minutes of their game with the Rockets to eke out a 6-0 victory.

The Rockets had several long gains and one touchdown called back on penalties during the second quarter, and lost the ball three times on interceptions. However, it was the Beavers that registered the all-important touchdown on a pass from Vic Engelhardt to Larry Squires to Paul Schmidt.

In another agriculture league contest, the Pallbearers shut out the Goal Getters, 15-0.

The Pallbearers scored a safety in the first quarter when Louis Young trapped a would-be passer in his end zone.

Then they scored two quick touchdowns in the second period to sew up the game.

From the Infield 'Track Nut'

By HAL BATEMAN State News Sports Editor

This is my first column with the name "From the Infield" and as might be thought the name doesn't apply to baseball. I'm what you call a "track nut" and a lot of my information comes from the infield of a track.

The Spartan cross country team has looked very good so far this season but, as usual, attendance is sparse. Probably one of the points that cuts the attendance is the scoring system used in the meets.

Scoring is the reverse of the normal method. The low score wins and the points are determined by adding the places of the first five men that finish on a team.

If a team has men that finish in the first five places they will get 15 points, a perfect score. In a big meet a team can build up a score of five or six hundred points.

A constant headache to cross country writers is the seven man scoring rule used by the NCAA. Under the ruling a home team in a dual meet may enter up to 12 men in the race. However only seven men may count in the scoring against the other team.

For instance, if Michigan State's eighth and ninth men to cross the finish line took the eleventh and twelfth team places, and the other team hasn't finished their fifth man, the places automatically revert to the opposing team. The National AAU further confuses the matter by using an eight man ruling.

The regular scoring methods also leads to some confusion. In a big meet, such as the ICAA or the NCAA a team must finish five men to be counted in the scoring.

If a squad doesn't finish five men the places taken by that team are not counted in the scoring. Let's suppose that a Rutgers runner won the NCAA and a Yale man was second. If Rutgers didn't enter a team the Yale squad would get the first team place.

Again the AAU has a similar situation with unattached entries. At times spectators aren't sure who represents who. In the National AAU cross country meet last year Henry Kennedy and Selwyn Jones finished fifth and eighth respectively, but they were unattached and didn't count in the team score.

Most athletic conferences score five men in meets but the Big Seven Conference is different. They add more confusion by scoring only four men.

If the NCAA, AAU, and the various athletic conferences could get together and devise a much easier method of computing cross country scores, it is possible that interest in the sport would increase.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mississippi's Paize Cothern, who might be called a "relatively" good football player, looked like a great player last Saturday as he turned in a star performance against Arkansas that earned him The Associated Press "back of the week" designation.

Cothern is a nephew of three of the best football players ever to come out of Mississippi — Ray, Buster and Barney Poole. That might be a handicap to a player of lesser ability, but Cothern, a 195-pound junior fullback, has lived up to his relatives' reputation.

Against Arkansas, Cothern was the solid man in the ground-gaining department and he scored 11 of Mississippi's points in the 17-7 victory. He might have made all of them but a penalty nullified a touchdown the second time he plunged the ball across.

In all, Cothern carried the ball 11 times for 65 yards, ran 11 for the first score, kicked both conversions and added a 12-yard field goal after intercepting an Arkansas pass to set up the three-pointer. He blocked brutally and played stoutly on defense.

Cothern's feats gave him the edge over another husky fullback, Stanford's Bill Tarr, and an array of fleet runners and sharp passers.

Prominently mentioned in the back of the week balloting were Earl Morrall of Michigan State, halfbacks Jon Arnett of Southern California, Art Luppino of Arizona, Walt Funder of Texas and Bobby Burris of Oklahoma and quarterback Eddie West of North Carolina State.

Heat on Yankees After Swap

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Now that Cleveland finally has come up with a shortstop and Chicago has added a cleanup hitter, the heat is on the New York Yankees to keep up with the Joneses at the American League meetings.

No smashing deal, such as the 18-man swap with Baltimore last year, is to be expected in the immediate future for one sound reason: General Manager George Weiss is in Japan with the Yankee tourists.

However, Bill DeWitt, the assistant general manager, insists nothing is on the fire.

DeWitt doesn't agree with the idea that the Yanks now are under pressure to make a move because the Indians acquired shortstop Chico Carrasquel and outfielder Jim Busby and the White Sox added Larry Doby as a much-needed slugging power.

"Sure the Indians have a good shortstop now in Carrasquel," said DeWitt. "But they don't have Doby in center field any more. Look up the records and you'll find that Doby and Al Smith hurt us plenty, much more than their shortstop weakness."

DeWitt said there had been no negotiations between the Yanks and White Sox concerning Carrasquel since last summer.

"We could use a starting pitcher and a shortstop," said DeWitt. "But we won last year with what we had, didn't we? We may have the shortstop we need right in our own organization, Jerry Lumpe from Birmingham. Men who saw him in the Southern Assn. tell us he's ready."

The Yanks, of course, are definitely interested in Billy Pierce, star Chicago southpaw, among others. By the time of the league meetings at Columbus and Chicago in December, something definite may have jelled. After the pitching failures in the World Series, Manager Casey Stengel is certain to insist on added strength before spring training starts.

No Podres in Japan; New York Wins, 11-0

SAPPORO, Japan (AP) — The New York Yankees shut out a Japanese all-star team 11-0 Wednesday before 32,000 fans. The barnstorming American League champions solved five Japanese pitchers for 14 hits.

And for those who think Sebo won't be around in 1956, let alone 1958, don't bet on it. Athletic Director Jerry Ford says that as far as he is concerned, "Sebo knows and teaches well the best, most modern, most successful type of football in America."

Sebo Set at Penn

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Despite rumors to the contrary Penn football coach Steve Sebo says he has no intention of quitting and promises presently downtrodden Quaker fans an Ivy League championship contender by 1958.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Takes Women's IM Swimming Meet

Connie Watkins paced Kappa Kappa Gamma to first place Wednesday night in the women's IM swimming tournament as she scored 20 points. Her sorority finished with 84 points to Alpha Chi Omega's 64.5.

This was the second meet. Another meet will be held and the first two teams in the sorority league and the first two in the dormitory league will meet for the all-University championship.

In third place Wednesday night was Sigma Kappa with 59 points. Pi Beta Phi finished fourth on 29.5 points and Alpha Phi scored 26.5.

Judy Haga of Kappa Kappa Gamma was fourth in the individual standings with 12 points. Between Miss Watkins and Miss Haga they scored almost half of their sorority's points.

Sally Fearforth of the third-place Sigma Kappas compiled 18.5 edging Lou Sheridan of Alpha Chi Omega who had 17.

Hoad Signed Pro Promise

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Alan Hoad, father of Australia's 20-year-old tennis ace, said Wednesday night his son, Lewis, signed an agreement in the United States to turn professional subject to the approval of his parents.

"Lewis signed a two-page agreement accepting Jack Kramer's offer but it is not a contract," said the elder Hoad. There is nothing concrete about it. The agreement carries no weight without his parents' consent.

People close to the tennis scene believe Hoad will change his mind and turn professional. Kramer planned to see young Hoad and his parents Thursday for further talks. The amount of Kramer's offer has not been disclosed.

Michigan State's string of 28 consecutive football victories (1950-53) is the second longest in modern grid history. Oklahoma's string of 31 (1948-50) ranks first.

One-Act Productions Called 'Enjoyable'

Large Crowd Sees Plays Grow 'Progressively Better'

By JACKIE OLDHAM

A near-capacity crowd spent an enjoyable hour and a half in Studio Theater Wednesday night, watching fall term's first series of student-produced one-acts.

The Studio Theater workshop plays grew progressively better with the evening.

"A Sunny Morning," a sentimental comedy by Serafin and Joaquin Quinter, began the program inauspiciously. John Goets, Fenton senior, was the best of the four-person cast. Aside from his portrayal of the old man Don Gonsalo, the acting proved rather wooden.

The Tennessee Williams drama, "The Lady of Larkspur Lotion" was much more even, well done job. Jan Rose, Detroit junior and former Spartan Oscar winner, turned in a good performance as the alcoholic Mrs. Hardwicke-Jones. Walter Tannenbaum, Montreal, Quebec sophomore, did equally well as the equally alcoholic writer.

Perhaps the best of the group was the realistic, practical French Quarter landlady played by Judith Berkowitz, Detroit sophomore, as foil for the two escapists. The final one-act of the evening, "Lima Beans," turned out to be as insane as two newly-weds baby-talking and as sparkling as their engagement diamond.

Definitely the best performance of the evening came from Barbara Yennery, Sandusky, Ohio sophomore as the wife, Alva Cudworth, Williamston junior, the husband, and Robert Greer, Alpena freshman, the resonant-voiced huckster.

The light-weight comedy-fantasy was written by Alfred Kreymborg.

Death of scenery enhanced rather than detracted from at least the last two experimental theater productions.

Directors of the three one-acts were Ellen Harrington, Detroit sophomore, "Sunny Morning"; Don Murray, Kenosha, Wis. grad student, "Larkspur Lotion," and Mary Braithwaite, East Lansing grad student, "Lima Beans."

Coffee and doughnuts were served afterwards to go with the audience's re-hash of the shows.

Acrobats' Club To Meet Tonight

Tumbling, juggling, unicycling, and baton twirling are just a few of the activities in which MSU students may participate when the Acrobats' Club meets tonight from 7:30 to 9:30 on the third floor of Jenison Fieldhouse.

Sponsored by George Szypula, the Acrobats' Club also meets Saturday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 when there are no time conflicts, in addition to the regular Thursday night sessions. All coeds and men interested in the club's activities may attend meetings; gym attire is the only requirement.

Heading the club is president Jon Friday, a trapeze artist who has appeared on such television shows as "Big Top" and "Super Circus." Under his leadership, the club provides acrobatic entertainment on campus.

Carnival To Spotlight Careers

Seniors and undergraduates will have a chance to meet representatives of more than 70 national companies Nov. 7-8 at the seventh annual Career Carnival.

More companies will sponsor displays in the 1955 Carnival than in past years, representing the fields of manufacturing, sales, finance, education, social services, and government service.

The Carnival, which in past years has attracted more than 10,000 students, is sponsored by the Placement Bureau and will be held on the second floor of the Union.

The purpose of the annual event is to give seniors an idea of company operations and an opportunity to meet the representatives of large companies.

A second purpose is to help undergraduates choose a vocation with particular attention given to the college training needed for that vocation.

Chairmen of the 1955 Carnival are general chairman, Dick Morsches, Columbia City, Ind., senior; staging, Roger Schultz, East Lansing senior; publicity, Charlene Brown, Toledo, Ohio, junior; of campus publicity, Pete McKnight, East Lansing senior; banquet, Pat McDonald, Detroit senior; and executive secretary, Tooney Ranny, Greenville, senior.

Jack Breslin, director of the Placement Bureau is the faculty advisor.

'Shorts' to Appear On Campus Again

"Union Shorts" will be published again this term. The first issue will be available today. All copies will be available at Union Concourse and the Union Board office.

The publication is a small news paper put out by the Union Board to tell of happenings around the Union Building.

2 Detroiters 'Strike It Rich' In Sweepstakes

DETROIT (AP)—A factory worker and a construction worker in Detroit won $198,000 in the Irish Sweepstakes today and will get to keep about $90,000 after taxes.

They were John Elmitsky, 47, a $70-a-week employe at Plymouth Motors, who held a first prize ticket worth $140,000, and Leroy A. Whitmore, 59, who held a $58,000 second prize ticket.

Internal Revenue agents said Elmitsky's tax bite will be about $82,000 and Whitmore's about $23,000.

Elmitsky had been notified earlier by letter that he had drawn the horse, Retrial, which won the Cambridgehire race on which the drawing was based, but he said he read it hurriedly and thought "that word Retrial meant they were going to run the race over again or something, and I didn't pay much attention."

"I can buy a car at last," he said. "The rest of the money will go for a home."

The Detroit area has had three first prize winners since 1957.

WKAR Schedules Student Plays, Reviews, Drama

WKAR is presenting a variety of drama programs including the reviews of current Broadway plays and all student productions. "Curtain Going Up," a weekly review of the current and best on Broadway, is heard every Friday at 4 p.m. Don Buell, director of dramatics, gives comments on live theater production of the students as well as in the Lansing area and all of Michigan.

Heard every Tuesday at 7:30 a.m. is the "Spartan Playhouse" produced by the department of speech with an all-student cast.

Another weekly program heard at 8 p.m. Thursdays is a full length play available through the British Broadcasting Corporation. This features the best actors and actresses of the English stage. On Oct. 27 Oscar Wilde's "An Ideal Husband" will be presented.

Sue Ann Burlingame, Phi Mu, is from Marshall, Michigan. She is a sophomore majoring in Business Administration—Retailing.

Suicide Plane Hits City Bank

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A man fired Tuesday from a Bank of America branch at International Airport rented a light plane Wednesday, then flew the craft into the bank in an apparent "get-even" suicide crash.

Witnesses said the pilot, Benjamin Fauth, 28, of Toppenish, Wash., directed his plane through a large window in a new, unoccupied addition to the structure. He was killed instantly.

Witnesses said the plane, an Aeronca, came in downwind with its engine turned off. It was headed the wrong way for a landing and was a quarter of a mile from the normal landing strips at this airport, one of the world's busiest.

University Police Seek Adding Machine Thief

Campus police are investigating the theft of an electric adding machine.

The adding machine was taken last week from the Business Administration Building. The adding machine was valued at $300 by the department.

The police have taken the theft out of the prank class and the person responsible may be charged with grand larceny.

Korean Veteran Proves His Merit

DETROIT (AP)—Policeman Gerald F. Stephens, who fought through the Korean War, proved his mettle in action on the home front today.

The newest and youngest officer on the suburban Farmington police force, Stephens, 23, was detailed to rush Mrs. John I. Maloney, an expect mother, from her home to the hospital.

Halfway there Mrs. Maloney announced the baby would not wait for a hospital birth. Stephens quickly stopped the patrol car, sent Maloney off for some hot water and towels and delivered the baby himself.

Mother and daughter arrived in good condition at Mt. Carmel Hospital.
