Former MSU Olympic team members and 16 Spartan candidates will appear on the telethon fund-raising telethon Saturday night in the ice arena.

Summer Clark Scholes, the second MSU Olympic representative to win a first place in the 100-meter freestyle event, will be one of the former Spartans, according to Robert Stewart, director of scholarships and sports representative of the Olympic Night committee.

Scholes set an Olympic record of 1:57.1 in the 100-meter freestyle at Helsinki in 1952.

Former members of the 1948 Olympic team on the show will be: Bob Maldegan, swimmer; Howard Paterson, swimmer and boxer; Spieser, boxer; Walkers, Ernie Crosbie, 1932, 1936 and 1948, and Adolph Weinacker, 1948, 1952, will also be interviewed on the three-hour telethon starting at 11 p.m.

Trainer Jack Heppinstall, 1948, and former Athletic Director Ralph H. Young, 1932 assistant track coach and 1952 member of the finance committee, will be on hand during the $30,000 goal campaign.

Spartan Olympic hopefuls who will appear include NCAA boxing champ Choken Maekawa and boxer Johnny Butler.

Spartan gymnast Carl Rintz will perform on the side horse and parallel bars for TV viewers.

The sports personalities will be interviewed.

These are two of the good who will be taking your phone pledge Saturday night for the Olympics. Just call ED 2-1511 and tell them how much.

ed by Lindsey Nelson, NBC sports commentator, Jim Adams, WKAR and Bob Reynolds, WJR, Detroit.

Carol Heiss, world's champion figure skater, will star in an ice show preceding the telethon. The ice show begins at 8:30 p.m.

An Olympic seal has been painted in the center of the rink for the occasion.

East Lansing freshman skaters will be Dave Shubman, John Baker and Tim Glennon.

Television viewers will be able to phone in pledge donations while the telethon is in progress. Donors are to call ED 2-1511.

Presidents of living units, who intend to pledge at least $100, are requested to call the student government office Friday. Arrangements to have their donations presented on television can then be made, said Don Gillette, entertainment chairman.

Additional talent has been obtained for the telethon. The "Squires," a rock and roll vocal and instrumental quartet, will appear, said Gillette.

Coeds May Get Later Hours

10:30 Permissions Need Formal AWS Approval

Coeds will have an extra half hour to stay out on week nights if and when AWS approves a recent administration recommendation.

The recommendation, to extend women's dorm closing hours until 10:30 on week nights, was made by the administration when the new library was opened winter term, according to Dean of Students Tom King.

The recommendation was influenced by the extension of library hours from 10 to 11 p.m. Dr. Frances DeLisle, director of the women's division dean of students, said.

AWS received the recommendation, which had been signed by President John A. Hannah, at the beginning of spring term. There was no stipulation as to when it could become effective according to Lurline Lee, assistant dean of students, women's division.

Beverly Roush, president of AWS Judiciary, said the recommendation would be considered as part of the revisions to be made in the AWS handbook for women students later this term.

These revisions, including the closing hour change, would be voted on by both the activities and judiciary board and, if passed, would go into effect fall term.

The AWS activities board has already voted in favor of the recommendation but the action has no effect since both boards must act together on the matter, according to Miss Roush.

Sue Porter, president of the Activities board, said the vote was taken only to determine the attitude of the members.

Miss Roush said no action would be taken on the proposal until it can be included in the handbook revisions but said that there was a good chance that it would be passed.

If the recommendation is passed, all coeds, except first term freshmen, will have until 10:30 on week nights. Weekend hours, late permissions and special senior permissions would remain the same as they are at present.

First term freshmen would be required to keep the present hours.

Dr. DeLisle said that a survey of colleges and universities showed 10:30 was the "more typical" hour to close women's dorms.

Nethercot to Speak On Shaw Today

Prof. Arthur N. Nethercot, of Northwestern University, will speak on "The Schizophrenia of George Bernard Shaw," at 8 p.m. in 221 Physics-Math Building.

Dr. Nethercot is the author of a number of books on English drama, including a recent Shaw anthology, "Man and Superman."

The lecture is being sponsored by the MSU English department to celebrate, on July 26, the centenary of Shaw's birth. It will be open to the public without admission charge.

Disarmament Talks End In Complete Stalemate

LONDON (AP)—The East-West disarmament talks dragged to their deadlocked end Thursday. The final meeting comes Friday but that is just a formality to close out the seven-week session.

Delegates to the five-nation UN Disarmament subcommittee further progress at the current have agreed they can make no series of talks in finding a way to halt the arms race.

A highly placed source said tomorrow's meeting will merely put final approval on a report to the full UN Disarmament Commission—the 11 Security Council members and Canada.

"The subcommittee will not be disbanded, just adjourned," Western sources explained. The speculation is it will meet again in about six months.

The subcommittee, made up of the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Canada, has held 83 sessions over three years.

The consensus among Western officials seemed to be that the talks brought East and West closer together on disarmament than ever before but that major differences still barred the way to agreement.

Sunday's program will open with the "Symphony in E Flat Major," by Mozart. The orchestra will also perform Hugo Wolf's "Italian Serenade." Rascher will be featured as soloist in Ibert's "Concertino." The program will conclude with the five movements of the "Dances Concertantes" composed by Stravinsky in 1942.

Rascher will also meet Saturday with saxophone students from this area to discuss problems of the instrument and give a demonstration.

House OK's Ike's Bill for Soil Bank

Dems Denounce Advance Payments

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House passed a new farm bill Thursday, approving President Eisenhower's soil bank program but denying him authority to advance farmers 500 million dollars in soil bank benefits this year.

Democrats denounced the advance payments plan as an attempt to buy farm votes in the November election. The major test of the day, they defeated a pre-payment amendment 121-137 on almost a straight party line vote.

The roll call vote on passage of the bill was 214-178. The bill now goes to the Senate.

There were many elements of victory for the Eisenhower administration in the legislation.

It would give the President the soil bank he asked for, even though it may not be in full operation until next year. It would also give the farmers a wide range of other non-controversial benefits in an election year.

And it does not call for a return to high, fixed price supports at 90 per cent of parity, one of the reasons why Eisenhower vetoed the first general farm bill April 16.

A last minute GOP attempt to send the bill back to the Agriculture Committee was defeated 211-181 on another roll call vote.

Republicans and Democrats came to terms on a policy for corn and feed grains, however.

The bill was amended to guarantee corn farmers in commercial growing areas price supports of $1.25 a bushel if they put a percentage of their land in the soil bank.

Dag Continues Success In Cease-Fire Promises

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Dag Hammarskjöld came up Thursday with three Palestine cease-fire agreements. Aimed to muzzle the guns of both sides of the frontiers, they were reached by Israel and three of her Arab neighbors — Syria, Jordan and Lebanon.

The UN secretary general, who broke the ice with an Egyptian-Israeli cease-fire pact in the Gaza area effective April 18, announced these results of his five-weeks old Middle East peace mission in a preliminary report from Jerusalem to the Security Council.

He will make a full report to the council at a meeting expected to be called by Council President Jozef Brierly of Yugoslavia late next week. But Hammarskjöld is expected to hurry back to the area to keep on negotiating for complete compliance with the 1949 armistices that brought uneasy peace to the area.

The secretary general dickered with government leaders in Cairo, Jerusalem, Beirut and Damascus on this trip.

He is expected to have a final talk with Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser in Cairo Thursday night, then head for Rome.

Wolfgram, Bopf Voted Jr. Finalists

Kyburz Way Ahead In Sophomore Race

Barry Grant and Pat Wilson will battle it out for senior class president.

Final primary election returns show Grant with 299 votes and Wilson with 273.

There was a short delay in the tabulation of ballots because of a jamming in the IBM machine, according to Sherla Jennings, elections commissioner.

Only two votes separated junior presidential finalists Bill Bopf and Bob Wolfgram. Wolfgram edged out Bopf, 197 to 195.

Sophomore presidential finalists are Bruce Kyburz, 727, and George Curtis, 316.

Other senior finalists are vice president—Tom Gregory, 499, and Ed Doherty, 350; secretary—Marylou Brown, 337, and Pat Tavenner, 315. There was no primary for treasurer since Kay Moran withdrew from the race, according to Miss Jennings. The finalists for treasurer are Laz Bendin and Bobbi Williams.

Junior finalists are vice president—Dan Webb, 354, and Lynn Campbell, 279; secretary—Jane Sterling, 267, and Ann Mottlinger, 222; treasurer—Marion Mausteller, 159, and Fred Koenig, 201.

Sophomore finalists are vice president—Dave McCaffrey, 334, and Louise Hornebeck, 299; secretary—Dana Larson, 412, and Arlene Thompson, 230; treasurer—Linda Coulter, 483, and Sally Sharp, 310.

Congressional primaries were held in three dorms. Finalists are: East Yokeley—Karen Milligan, 14, and Joanne Linton, 11; Gilchrist—Dolly Lashman, 13, and Barbara Ties, 12; West Shaw—Jack Hahn, 159, and Lyde Sanders, 141.

Other candidates and their votes are:

Senior president—George Beech, 179, and Dan O'Neill, 144; vice president—Tom Gregory, 499, and Ed Doherty, 350; secretary—Sylvia Jackson, 199.

Junior president—Jim Clyma, 296; vice president—Gerry McGinnis, 263, and Gordon Schultz, 163; secretary—Sue Hauer, 154, Nancy Wimmer, 111, and Joanne Wright, 111; treasurer—Paula Pelen, 114, Elizabeth Stewart, 114, and Marsha Thornton, 114.

Sophomore president—Charles Walther, 212; vice president—Richard Kramer, 214, Tom Coghlin, 112, Lynn Johnson, 111, and Herb Harman, 69; secretary—Cindy Coulter, 114, and Nancy Verneal, 194; treasurer—Sandra Richardson, 132, Linda Hefley, 164, and Virginia Vostech, 18.

East Yokeley congress—Barbara Delandus, 36.

Gilchrist congress—Mary Jo Ballor, 45.

West Shaw congress—Len Efron, 117, Bill Krouch, 112, and Wayne Lock, 111.

Football Squads Clash In Green-White Contest

Game Set
For 2 p. m.
Saturday

Assistant Coaches
To 'Sub' for Duffy

By PETE WALTERS
A preview of Michigan's 1956 football picture will be shown at 2 p. m. Saturday when the Spartans' Green and White teams clash in the annual intra-squad tilt at MacLean Stadium.

Head Coach Duffy Daugherty will view the game from a spectator's position for a change, while the members of the supervisory staff coach the opposing squads. The Greens, composed primarily of the first and fourth string players, will be coached by Tommy Agnew, Lou Agnew, Doug Anderson, Al Dorow, while the Whites, made up of the second and third stringers, will be under the guidance of Bob Deane, Bill South, Bill Yeoman and Jim Ninoski.

The starting Green backfield will probably consist of Pat Wilson at quarterback, Warren Peaks and Walt Kowalski at the halves and Don Hubert at fullback.

At the ends will be Tony Koloski and Jim Hinesly. Joe Carney and Pat Burke will fill the tackle positions. Don Currie and Tom LaRose will play guard. Capt. John Matsko will be at center.

For the Whites, Jim Ninoski will play quarterback. In the backfield with him will be backdrops Dennis Mendyk and Ed Zisk and fullback Bob Hubert.

On the forward wall will be Ed Sam Williams and Dave Law, tackles. Les Rutledge and Tom Sadeck, guards. Arch Stas and Ron Rickens and center Don Berger. This line averages 285 pounds per man compared to the Greens' 198 pound average.

Bob Jewett, a strong contender for the first string right end position, is nursing an injured ankle and will not dress for Saturday's game. Halfback Blanche Martin and a similar ailment.

Jackie Ed Bartz and center Ed Wicks both suffered knee injuries which required surgery during the week, and will be out of action for an undetermined period of time.

Halfback Glenn Burgett injured his knee Thursday, and was lost to the team for the week according to Dr. James P. Long, team physician.

Peaks and Kowalsky both missed Thursday's practice session. The former with a mild case of flu and the latter with an ear disturbance, but both will be ready for the Green-White game.

Saturday's contest, which closes the Spartans' 20-day spring training schedule, will be played under regulation game rules, in contrast to earlier weekend scrimmages. It is expected to draw more than 10,000 spectators, including high school and college grid players who are in town for the annual MSU football

Full Weekend

State Nine to Meet Badgers, Wildecats

Another full slate faces the Michigan State baseball squad this weekend as the Spartans journey to Wisconsin for a single game today and then to Northwestern for a twin bill Saturday.

The Badgers have posted a record of 11 wins against 3 defeats so far this season.

In Big 10 competition they are unbeaten as they turned back Minnesota, 6-4 and Iowa, 2-0.

"Wisconsin has a good team with good pitching," Coach John Kuhn stated. "We look for a hard game."

Walt Godfrey is expected to hurl today's game with Capt. Ed Hobaugh and Ron Perranowski starting Saturday.

The remainder of the Spartan lineup is expected to be just about the same as before.

If a righthander faces the Spartans, Frank Palamara will lead off and play second. He will be followed by Earl Morrill at short and Jimmy Sack in left field.

Al Luce is slated to do the catching and hit in the clean-up position. Ray Collard will be in center and John Polomsky in right to round out the Spartan outer gardens.

Roscoe Davis is scheduled to hit seventh and play first and Bob Bird will be at the hot corner.

If the State nine faces a lefthander either Frank Franchi or Barry Fullerton will do the catching. There is also a possibility that Franchi will be in rightfield in place of Polomsky.

On the mound the Badgers are expected to start one of two hurlers. Sheldon Rusch, a righthander, or John Aehl, a lefthander, could get the call for today's contest.

Daugherty Instructs Coaches

Annual Coaches
Clinic at MSU

Duffy Daugherty, with the help of Jim Tatum and Paul Bryant, is teaching the T formation to some 600 high school and college coaches at MSU's ninth annual coaches clinic this week Thursday through Saturday.

Jim Tatum, North Carolina head football coach, formerly of Maryland where he won 10 and lost none last season until Oklahoma stopped him in the Orange Bowl, will lecture today.

Paul Bryant, formerly head coach at Kentucky now at Texas A & M, will also speak today.

Saturday, Daugherty and his staff will teach line points in the morning and the football team will show how it's done in the Green and White game.

Bryant will talk about his Texas style wide open passing system which uses the flanker and optional T formation plays.

Tatum will lecture about the split and optional T plays that he used with so much success at Maryland.

Duffy will offer short courses in the straight T, the split T, the winged T, other T variations, the single wing, the double wing, the short punt, flanker plays and other, what are they going to do next plays.

NCAA Tightens Amateur Code

NEW YORK (AP)—It's getting so you can't hardly ever hire a college football player any more. The NCAA won't let you.

Six years ago the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. was almost torn apart because of efforts to enforce the strict amateur code on athletics. It had to dump the code and establish new methods of procedure to preserve peace among its members.

Since doing that in the face of threats by other groups to take over and end abuses in college sports, the NCAA has emerged with probably the strongest and most vigorous enforcement in amateur sports.

In less than four years, the NCAA has placed 16 of its member institutions on probation for various violations of its code of athletic conduct. It has punished 15 others with censure and reprimands and even slapped down the border conference because it failed to pass a rule complying with NCAA standards.

Admittedly it hasn't yet achieved perfection in getting the colleges to operate in accordance with its rules of amateur conduct. But the rules are getting stricter and the punishment more severe each year. The six institutions placed on probation one for three years at the just completed NCAA Council meeting in New Orleans learned that much.

Coaches and college officials have begun to think twice before they bid for a promising athlete and they're beginning to look askance at the foundations, booster clubs and alumni who used to look after the under the table expenses. The NCAA holds the colleges responsible when those associated groups get out of line.

Actually, very few of the offenses could be called hiring football athletes. And basketball was equally responsible with football.

Football was the cause of the three-year probation of Auburn Thursday and the one-year-plus probation given Texas A. and M. Tuesday.

Basketball got Louisville, Mississippi College and Kansas into trouble and the University of Florida was charged with violations in all sports.

An Auburn assistant coach handed Harry and Robert Beane money to insure their enrolling at the college. The kids told about it, the Southeastern Conference heard about it and there were fines and an indefinite suspension for Auburn. The NCAA action followed.

It was the stiffest penalty ever meted out by the NCAA. It included banning Auburn athletes and teams from all NCAA and related sports and tournaments, football bowl games and from participation in the national football television program. It also carried a threat of expulsion from the association if Auburn doesn't meet NCAA requirements. The University of Miami, under continuing probation first imposed in 1954, also has been threatened with expulsion if it doesn't comply.

In the sanity code days of 1949-50, an attempt was made to expel seven institutions which refused to say they would follow the code. They maintained special conditions made it impossible and they wouldn't be hypocritical. Last June a certification of compliance program was inaugurated and colleges were warned that stiffer punishments would be inflicted for violations after that time.

That's why Auburn, Florida and Louisville were punished more severely than others. And of last report, only five of 402 institutions had failed to certify compliance and three of those had resigned from the association.

2 Officials See Boom In Economy

Question Necessity Of Inflation Check

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—Two of President Eisenhower's Cabinet officers Thursday reported the nation's economy is continuing to boom, and questioned the need of applying anti-inflationary brakes.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks, reporting a new record high for personal income and a continuing high rate for the gross national product, said the nation's economic outlook despite soft spots in automobiles and home building.

Weeks said employment figures due to come out soon will show a substantial increase in the number of workers with jobs.

Secretary of Labor Mitchell questioned the need of last month's credit-tightening action by the Federal Reserve Board, saying:

"I don't happen to believe there is an inflationary trend. Weeks put it this way."

In view of the tight money situation today, the rise in the Federal Reserve discount rate for lending might prove to be a handicap to business expansion and the economy, but in the long run I have confidence that the economy will still move forward.

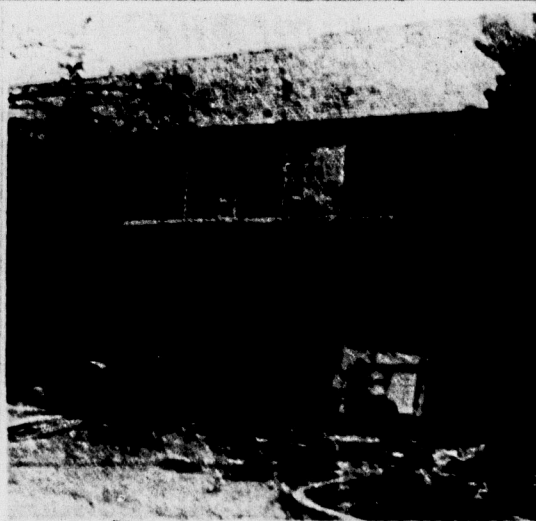

The Federal Reserve Board raised its bank lending rate last month to the highest level in more than 20 years. This trend is to raise borrowing rates all along the line.

Weeks also reported that personal income, mainly from wages and salaries, rose in March to a new high annual rate of $15 billion dollars. This was an increase of 1 1/2 billion dollars over February.

Junior Petitioning Deadline Today

Today is the final chance for students to petition for the outstanding junior awards.

A box is located on the Union desk for petitions to be placed. Each petition should give the junior's name, student number, addresses, participation in, and reason for nomination.

A view of the addition to the Music Building

Music Building Addition To Open Early in June

The new addition to the music building is expected to be ready for occupancy sometime during the first two weeks of June, according to Max Underwood, head of the music department.

However, before any university building can be approved for occupancy, it must first be inspected by building officials and corrections made.

According to Underwood, one, and perhaps two, more houses will be held for faculty, music teachers, and students.

The new choral room has been especially designed with good ventilation. Large windows across the south side of the building have glass which is slightly tinted to offset the sun.

Adjacent to the large choral room is a special storage room and, behind the choral room, is a number of closets for storage of choir robes. Behind the hallway is storage space for the racks of folding chairs to be used in the choral room.

Every room in the building, including practice and classrooms, has been fitted with soundproofing. Even the corridors have soundproofing squares reaching past the door to the walls for added effectiveness. Practice rooms are found in every classroom and special glass block windows have been installed with non-erasable music staves.

On the second floor, two music education rooms are joined by a storage room to house the numerous books necessary for the course.

In the basement are 43 new well-ventilated practice rooms, each of which will have its own piano. Although no windows are found in these rooms, a complete ventilation system will provide fresh air.

The wall paint in the basement corridors has been varied to add brightness to the hall.

Lockers of all sizes are also found in the basement reaching from one end of the addition to the other. These include sizes from ceiling to floor for the bass fiddles and those smaller ones for flutes and clarinets. All lockers are especially made of wood and fit into the corridor walls.

A double-staircase elevator is located opposite the loading dock which faces the old music practice building.

Notables Face 'Bondage' on Auction Block

Administration officials campus queens and AFRICAN instructors will be auctioned off at the annual Student-Faculty Auction to be held May 11 on the Union terrace at 2:30 p.m. The auction will be sponsored by Green Helmet and Campus Chest.

All profits will be given to Campus Chest.

President John A. Hannah will be up for pre-auction bidding. Living units interested in bidding will find an auction bid blank in today's State News. They are to be enclosed and turned in to the Student Government office. Those being auctioned and their services are: President Hannah, dinner guest, Duffy Daugherty, dinner guest, Fordey Anderson, dinner guest, and Ron Gardner, dinner guest.

More are Judy Bradley, Donna Keeling, Barbara Patonide, and Kathy Arnold, bus girls; Dave Kaiser, Ed Brabham, Joe Savolli, Walt Godfrey, bus boys; Major Black, Major McGrain, Captain Council, and Captain Savage, bus boys.

"A magazine like The Reader's Digest takes up where school leaves off. It touches on an impressive array of significant subjects. It throws a whole light on the issues that confront us. It educates as it entertains."

In May Reader's Digest don't miss:

CONDENSATION FROM BEST SELLER: "HOW TO LIVE 365 DAYS A YEAR." Half of those seeking medical aid can blame badly handled emotions, says Dr. John Schindler. Here he contrasts the damage done by flare-ups and worry with the healing power of good emotions, and gives "clues" for cultivating a happier disposition.

THE CURIOUS CUSTOM OF GOING STEADY. Cameron Shipp describes the elaborate rituals and taboos of modern teen-age social life.

THE ART OF UNDERSTANDING OTHER PEOPLE. Before we judge another, we should ask, "Might I not be as bad or worse if faced with his troubles?" Clarence Hall shows how astutely our souls are enlarged by searching out the best in others.

WHAT WOMEN DON'T KNOW ABOUT BEING FEMALE. As a doctor, says Martin Hillard, "I don't believe there is such a thing as a platonic relationship between a man and woman who are alone together a good deal." Here are 562 reasons.
