Smuckler Discusses U.S. Foreign Values

Change in World Position Confronts American Public

Dr. Ralph Smuckler of MSU's political science department, keynoteed the local "kickoff" meeting of the "Greater Decisions . . . 1958" program with an address entitled "Responsibilities of Citizens in the Field of Foreign Relations" Sunday night at 7:30 in the Lincoln Room of Kellogg Center.

The program, designed as a citizen education plan concerning matters of foreign policy, is sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association, a private, non-profit organization.

Dr. Smuckler stated there has been a revolution in the world situation of the U. S.

Whereas in the 1930's we decided whether we should participate in international affairs, he said today it is a question of how we should participate.

Having inherited an isolationist tradition, we are now faced with the responsibility of making major decisions each day concerning areas of the world where we have little experience or information, Dr. Smuckler said.

As a result of this sudden revolution we are politically and energetically active in international affairs, but we still have polationistic characteristics, the professor said.

The public has not grasped the full complexities of problems but tend to oversimplify solutions. Also, we tend to be less economically developed as backwards in all respects," Dr. Smuckler said.

To do not each our young people the four value systems in those of a minority, which used internationally. What cross-cultural awareness that be exist is often limited to those similar to ours, he said.

As alert citizenry can not rely leadership, according to the professor, but an alert public be of service by evaluating foreign policy in a realistic manner keeping leaders alert to conveying their opinions, recognizing that "bipartisanship" is the panacea for the problems of foreign relations; and by understanding panic, Dr. Smuckler said.

We have been politically and energetically self-sufficient so that we have developed the illusion that we are not dependent upon others, the educationist stated.

In order to find a satisfactory answer to our dilemma Dr. Smuckler stated that we must look at our world situation as a whole and not concentrate ourselves on the military and economic fields.

Law and business must become more internationally minded and the citizenry must be made for their role in the world situation of the U.S., he said.

Boy Escapes Drowning in Red Cedar

An unidentified 8-year-old boy nearly drowned Sunday afternoon in the icy Red Cedar River. His parents sat nearby unaware of the danger.

The boy was pulled from the submerged waters by a man who refused to give his name.

The boy, his rescuer said, was on the ice feeding ducks on the rapids on the river's side. He was stamping the edge by open water when the ice gave way. He fell into water over his head.

The man ran out on the ice and pulled the youngster from the water almost-tomb, clad in a heavy snowsuit. The lad was up on the bank, spitting water, before his parents had an idea of what had occurred.

The rescuers only comment was "I value my children, and I would like to think that I was playing there unsafely at such a dangerous

E. L. Hitch-hiking Causes Problem For Auto Drivers

Cools hitch-hiking from the corner of Central Street and Grand River Avenue near Ellsworth House are a menace to drivers, an East Lansing official stated Sunday.

There is no legislation at the moment to prohibit hitch-hiking at that corner but something may have to be done, he added.

In the morning hours when cools are campus-bound, stopping vehicles cannot be seen by other cars approaching the rim of the hill. There have been several rear end collisions there caused by cars stopping to pick up hitch-hikers.

The official said there would be no problem if people would hitch-hike from corners that allow greater vision distance for oncoming autos.

Harry S. Truman

Truman Raps Eisenhower's Leadership

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman said Sunday President Eisenhower was a great military commander because "he had someone to tell what to do."

Truman also told newsmen "I do not think Eisenhower is a good policy maker; nor is he a good cabinet member."

Interviewed in a hotel lobby, Truman said the President was a great military commander in Europe and in NATO, whom he had someone to tell him what to do.

Truman said a good policy maker is one who knows where he is going and carries out his program. Eisenhower doesn't carry out the policies that he proposes.

On the President's State of the Union message, Truman said Eisenhower "is about three years too late with his proposals."

Truman also said Eisenhower should be able to curtail rivalry among the defense services.

"I don't have any trouble, as they understand it, with Eisenhower," he said. "Eisenhower should be able to handle the military as no one has had more experience than he."

"The only trouble could be change in policy if the man in charge wants to make them."

Truman also implied the proposal by George F. Kennan, his former ambassador to Moscow, that the Western powers should withdraw their troops from Europe in return for a Russian withdrawal to their own borders.

Ike, Bulganin Set on Convo

Red Paper Hails Step For Peace

Blasts Secretary As Opposing Meet

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press published reports from abroad Sunday hailing Premier Nikolai Bulganin's proposals for an East-West summit conference as the first step toward peace.

This was coupled in one newspaper with a scathing blast at U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' stand for lower level conferences.

Pravda and other morning newspapers splashed Bulganin's latest letters to Western nations proposing highest level conferences to settle disarmament and other problems.

Pravda reported that 80 percent of the British people favor the Soviet proposals and at the same time almost ignored Dulles' rejection of the summit talks as the first step toward East-West understanding.

Most of the other papers carried long reports from various nations under such headlines as "public abroad hails Soviet proposals—build conditions for lasting and durable peace."

Soviet Russia, the organ of the Russian federation, carried the front of the attack on Dulles, referring to Dulles' news conference on Friday, it said the Secretary of State "once again exposed the idea of a summit conference and was trying some how to justify his stand that preparation at a lower level is necessary."

It said Dulles made it clear that Soviet acceptance of Western demands—especially on Germany—must be the preliminary step.

"This is proof that the Secretary of State, contrary to common sense, sticks to his unreasonable line."

"As millions in the West wait for an answer on Bulganin's proposal the phrase 'Dulles must go' is becoming ever more popular in the United States."

Every time there is an indication of an easing of tensions aggressive critics in the West do everything in their power to step up feverish activities to blow up in flames the cold war," Pravda said.

Senators Investigate

Butler Asks Probe of 'Goons'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Butler (R-Md.) said Sunday he has asked the Senate Rackets Committee to investigate what he called acts of violence by "Walter Reuther's goons" during a strike against the Perfect Circle Corp. of Hagerstown, Ind.

The committee already has said it is investigating incidents in the streets as part of its probe of the United Auto Workers which Reuther heads. Reuther also is a Vice President of the AFL-CIO.

The investigation has centered primarily on the four-year-old UAW strike against the Koblitz Co. of Wisconsin, involving charges of violence by both the union and the company and of improper boycott practices by the UAW.

Hearings on the Koblitz strike now are scheduled for next month, and committee sources have indicated that testimony about the strike at the Perfect Circle Corp. also may be taken then.

The UAW probe has stirred some friction within the special committee, set up to investigate racketeering and other improper or illegal activities in the labor-management field.

After a closed-door meeting of the committee last week, however, Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) said he would take personal direction of the inquiry and the assignment of staff personnel.

Reuther had protested to McClellan about the conduct of John McGovern, counsel to the committee's Republican members, in the investigation of the UAW. Sen. McNamara (D-Mich.), a committee member, had called for McGovern's dismissal.

Butler, who is not a member of the special investigating committee, issued a statement saying he had written a letter to McClellan assailing Reuther and urging a probe of violence during the Perfect Circle strike.

In the latter part of 1955, the plant of this corporation was struck by a union, and territorial regions in Hagerstown, Ind., and Richmond, Ind.

According to my information," Butler added, "more than 100 unlawful acts on the part of Walter Reuther's goons occurred. There were shootings, beatings, the intimidation of workers—in short, union lawlessness on a rampage."

He said that as a result of the situation, three of the four UAW locals representing the Perfect Circle workers were decertified by the National Labor Relations Board.

This terrorism occurred under the leadership, if not the specific direction of, Walter Reuther," Butler said.

Decorations Begun on '58 J-Hop

The 1958 J-Hop decorations and stunting committees, by members strong, have already begun transferring the Auk into a replica of the Taj Mahal.

Decorations and special effects are being constructed to create an illusion of the famed Indian temple, that of this year's junior class show.

J-Hop, MSU's largest and a nationally most popular dance of the year, is scheduled for the weekend of Feb. 7-8, George Yank, Bloomfield Hills, is publicity chairman of the event said.

Juniors can pick up tickets at $6 per couple Jan. 21. Other classes may buy tickets Jan. 22. Tickets announced.

Rudolph Marrow's band, directed as a bandwagon process will carry out the stunts during the event. The bandstand is to be located in an archway leading to the formal gardens of the "Taj Mahal."

Inside the temple, Frank said, dancers will put a "Taj Mahal" in the center. Food and root beer refreshments will have a dining on six national benches by bringing across.

Dominant colors of white and gold, to arrive elegantly and modestly, will be a background for a sparkling fountain and pool in the Auk basement. A statue of an Indian goddess will stand by the pool.

Tips (which tales say were once hiding places for a bandit or secret lover) have been built to add a touch of the romantic to the temple.

Traditionally the J-Hop gives away favors. Decorations chairman Jim Johnson said, however, the prizes are being kept secret until opening night.

Intermission entertainment will be supplied by Kai Winding and his septet, a jazz combo.

MSU Student Knifed Friday After Game

An MSU football player returned to campus Sunday after being knifed Friday night at a Benton Harbor high school basketball game following a free-for-all.

At Hill, 19, Holland freshman, was taken to Mercy Hospital in Benton Harbor suffering from two knife wounds in the right thigh.

Police said trouble had been brewing throughout the entire game and after the game five Holland youths, wearing caps with the red and white school colors, were jumped by a group of Benton Harbor students, who started a series of fights.

Hill said he entered the fight when he saw "Benton Harbor and St. Joe boys" beating up on his brother, Ken.

Police continued questioning students involved to determine the person responsible for the knifing.

Hill lives in Rafter Hall and is attending MSU under a football scholarship. He is majoring in Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Prince Phouma Here On Friendship Tour

NEW YORK (AP)—Prince Souvanna Phouma, Premier of Laos, arrived by plane Sunday for a visit of "friendship and gratitude."

President Demands Good Faith

Careful Planning One Requirement

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin in a personal message Sunday that "I am ready" to attend an East-West summit conference on condition that it is carefully prepared and shows "good hope" of promoting world peace.

At the same time Eisenhower proposed to the Soviet Premier a sweeping series of agreements at this "decisive moment in history" to renounce outer space warfare, abandon use of the veto in the United Nations over peaceful settlement of disputes, and call off nuclear weapons tests "indefinitely" under a program to stop making nuclear weapons.

But the President rejected by clear implication Bulganin's recent call for a Summit conference by early April. And he brushed aside as unnecessary or inadequate half a dozen recent Bulganin proposals including an East-West non-aggression pact, an agreement not to use force in the Middle East, and creation of a zone free of nuclear weapons in West Germany and Central Europe.

The President set forth his views and proposals in a 4,000-word message which Ambassador Lewellna Thompson delivered to the Soviet Foreign Office in Moscow late Sunday.

The letter replied specifically to a Bulganin letter of Dec. 10. It clearly covered also another long note the President received from Bulganin last week, although that may get a further specific reply later.

The leaders of Britain, France and other NATO nations, who also received December and January messages from Bulganin are expected to reply within a few days, taking the same line as Eisenhower.

The tone of the President's letter was cordial but tough in spots.

In appealing for political freedom in eastern Europe, he reminded Bulganin of the Hungarian revolution 14 months ago and he said bluntly that Soviet Communism is responsible for the 1954 war. He also demanded that Russia live up to its Geneva Summit Conference agreement to refrain from Germany through free elections.

In spite of the obvious deadlock on how a summit conference should be arranged and the Eisenhower-Bulganin stalemate on great basic issues, the President's letter advanced the possibility for a summit meeting, possibly sometime later this year.

In discussing his appeal to eliminate the capacity for space war even before it is fully developed, Eisenhower recalled that 10 years ago the United States offered a plan to renounce making atomic weapons. If Russia had accepted it, he said, the world would not today be under the nuclear menace.

Although stated in positive terms of willingness to meet, Eisenhower's declaration about the Summit conference Sunday obviously ruled out any early top-level session because of "his declaration that it would be essential" to work out issues in advance "through diplomatic channels and by our foreign ministers."

Alongside this qualification he put the condition that it would have to be determined "that such a top-level meeting would in fact, hold good hope of advancing the cause of peace and justice in the world."

Reed Interviews On 'Conspicuous'

Dr. Owen Reed, music department, will be interviewed at 8:30 tonight on "Conspicuous," WKAR-TV program.

Jerome Landfield, department of communication skills, will interview Dr. Reed on his career.

The program is part of a weekly series on outstanding faculty members.

Although seriously crippled with Polio, 24-year-old Mrs. Julie Speese of Kalamazoo has assumed complete charge of her family of four children and as a result of her great comeback has been named Michigan's Polio Mother of the Year. Able to walk with the aid of braces, Mrs. Speese will be marching with other mothers during the March of Dimes.

Rebel Playwright's Maxims Presented

At 8:15 tonight the Canadian Players of Stratford, Ontario, present their version of Bernard Shaw's "Man and Superman" at Fairchild. Although some persons find it impossible to agree wholeheartedly with the British playwright's cynical views...

Today the State News presents a sampling of Shaw's "Maxims for Revolutionists" from "The Revolutionist's Handbook," a supplement to "Man and Superman."

ON EDUCATION

The best brains of children are those who have seen their parents and more. Hypocrisy is not the parent's fault. The student is he who attempts to mould a man to his own image.

Do not teach a man something he does not know to somebody who has no aptitude for it, and gives him a certificate of proficiency the latter has completed the education of a gentleman.

A fool's brain digests philosophy into folly, science into superstition, and art into pedantry. Hence University education.

ON DEMOCRACY

Democracy substitutes election by the incompetent many for appointment by the corrupt few.

Democratic republics can no more dispense with national idols than monarchies with public functionaries.

ON THE GOLDEN RULE

Do not unto others as you would that they should do unto you. Their tastes may not be the same.

Never resist temptation; prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

Do not love your neighbor as yourself. If you are on good terms with yourself it is an impertinence; if on bad, an injury.

ON MARRIAGE

Marriage is popular because it combines the maximum of temptation with the maximum of opportunity.

The essential function of marriage is the continuance of the race—the accidental function of marriage is the gratification of the amorous sentiment of mankind.

ON HOW TO BEAT CHILDREN

If you beat children for pleasure, avow your object frankly, and play the game according to the rules, as a foxhunter does; and you will do comparatively little harm. So foxhunter is such a cad as to pretend that he hunts the fox to teach it not to steal chickens, or that he suffers more acutely than the fox at the death. Remember that even in childbeating there is the sportsman's way and the cad's way.

ON THE PERFECT GENTLEMAN

A gentleman of our days is one who has money enough to do what every fool would do if he could afford it; that is, consume without producing.

He who believes in education, criminal law, and sport, needs only property to make him a perfect modern gentleman.

ON MODERATION

A moderately honest man with a moderately faithful wife, moderate drinkers both, in a moderately healthy house: that is the true middle class unit.

ON VIRTUES AND VICES

Virtue consists, not in abstaining from vice, but in not desiring it.

Disobedience, the most and most courageous of the virtues, is seldom punished from neglect, the laziest and commonest of the vices.

ON SELF-SACRIFICE

Self-sacrifice ends only by sacrificing other people without blessing. If you begin by sacrificing yourself to those you love, you will end by having those to whom you have sacrificed yourself.

Canadians' 'Man and Superman' Faces Hazards of Adaptation

When the Fairchild curtains rise at 8:15 tonight on the Canadian Players' offering of Bernard Shaw's "Man and Superman," L.C. Series patrons will likely be witnessing a performance differing vastly from the original English version.

State Democrats Discuss Tax Issues

Industrial Climate Also Discussed

Ike Policy Cause Of Unemployment

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Michigan Democratic State Central Committee members Sunday got an early briefing on two issues almost certain to head up the 1958 campaign battles on the state level—taxes and Michigan's industrial climate.

In their first election year meeting, the committee adopted a strongly worded resolution blaming President Eisenhower's "hard money policy" for unemployment troubles in Michigan and elsewhere.

It declared: "We denounce as the ultimate in political dishonesty the shabby attempt by Michigan Republicans to blame this state's current economic distress upon phony charges of an unfavorable industrial climate."

In the tax area, the committee heard both Secretary of State James M. Hare and Alfred B. Fitt, fiscal adviser to Gov. Williams, outline the governor's plan to double the state intangibles tax, collecting an additional 21 million dollars for the next two years.

Party workers pelted both men with questions on the effect of the possible increases, but were told by Fitt to go easy on talk of what taxpayers might expect until the governor comes up with something specific proposals in an upcoming message to the legislature.

All that is known so far is that Williams hopes to bring Michigan's tax on stocks, bonds and other intangibles to the level of Ohio's—now about double the rate here.

In other business, Democrats adopted a budget of $107,200 for 1958, a $23,700 increase over 1957 expenditures. The committee was told it has $1,517 in the bank, but has debts totaling some $30,000.

The Republican State Central Committee Saturday approved a $28,000 outlay for 1958 and learned its cash balance amounts to $9,016.

The committee also resolved to oppose calling of a constitutional convention when the question comes before the voters in November unless the Legislature revises the method for selecting delegates. Currently representation is based on senatorial districts which the Republicans control 23 to 11.

Said the resolution: "With the greatest of reluctance we conclude that constitutional reform should not be attempted unless there is revised a more equitable method of choosing the delegates to such a convention—a method based upon fair, honest and proportional representation of people rather than geography."

The committee also heard preliminary plans designed to give Democrats control of the House of Representatives.

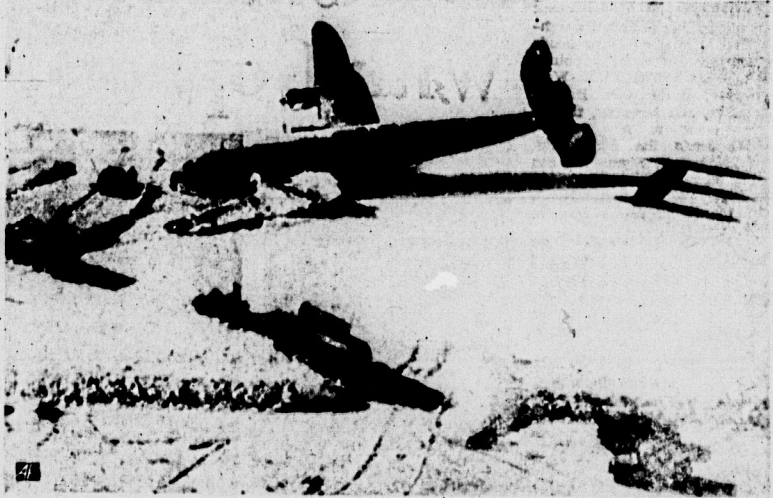

Democrats now hold 49 seats in the House and Republicans 61. This year they plan to turn 24 more seats in legislative elections, concentrating on the 10 or 12 so-called "swing" districts which Republicans won by less than a 5 per cent majority in the 1956 election.

Concert Pianist To Play Friday

Erno Balogh, pianist, is scheduled Friday on the music department concert series in the Music Aud at 8:15 p.m. Admission is by season ticket an official said. There will be a few single admission tickets at $1.50 at the door.

Balogh has attained a top reputation as concert pianist and specialist in the works of Bela Bartok, the spokesman said. He is particularly well equipped to give Bartok works the performance intended by the composer. Several Bartok compositions are included in the Friday program.

7 Countries Represented NATO Leaders to Visit MSU

A group of parliament and defense leaders from seven North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries will get an on-the-spot picture of a large state university in America when they visit MSU Tuesday.

The delegation is on a month-long tour of this country sponsored by the International Educational Exchange Service of the U. S. Department of State as part of its Foreign Leader Exchange program.

The Lansing and East Lansing visits will be their only opportunity to visit a state government and a large state university.

Nations represented in the group include Canada, Denmark, France, Germany, Iceland, Italy and the United Kingdom.

An official welcoming committee headed by Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart and Lansing Mayor Ralph W. Crego met the visiting officials on their arrival Sunday night at Capitol City Airport.

The group from the NATO countries will leave Lansing for Chicago Tuesday night.

Today the visitors will meet with state government officials and agencies, will be guests at a luncheon sponsored by the Lansing Council on World Affairs and will hold a press conference in the Judiciary Room, House of Representatives, at 2 p.m.

The group is to meet at 9 a.m. Tuesday with Dr. Ralph Smuckler, assistant dean of MSU's International Programs. They will tour the campus, meet with President John A. Hannah and be guests at a luncheon.

Attendance at a joint session of the Michigan Legislature will highlight the Tuesday afternoon schedule for the visiting dignitaries.

The group includes: Canada—Erick A. Winkler, member of parliament; Denmark—Carl Langseth, permanent under secretary, ministry of defense; and A. C. Norman, member of parliament; France—Sen. Jacques De Menditte, member, council of the republic; and Jean Seiffinger, member, chamber of deputies.

Germany—Dr. Franz Engst, staff assistant to the Bundestag defense committee; Iceland—Johann Hafstein, member of the Althing (parliament); Italy—Dr. Franco Restivo, member of the Sicilian regional assembly; and Sen. Giuseppe Sibille, senator of Italian republic; United Kingdom—R. Crisham Cooke, member of parliament.

The Youth Council, if successfully organized here, will work to encourage Negro students to integrate more fully into college life by participating in campus activities.

The Council would serve as a coordinator in organizing better race relations among college students and in combating discriminatory practices.

A primary aim of the MSU branch would be to reach some agreement with East Lansing householders in regard to Negro off-campus housing.

The present situation forces many Negro students wishing to live off-campus to live in Lansing.

Membership in the NAACP and in the Youth Council is open to all persons interested in advancing the status of the Negro.

All students interested in forming a Council on this campus are requested to attend the meeting Tuesday night.

Security and Civil Rights Series Set

A new radio program series will be aired over WKAR and WKAR-FM during the first three months of this year. The series "Security and Civil Rights" will be broadcast at 2:30 p.m. Saturdays.

It consists of 13 half-hour documentaries produced by the University of Minnesota Radio Station KUOM for the National Assn. of Educational Broadcasters.

Such questions as "What Is National Security?" "What Are Civil Rights?" "What Constitutes Loyalty, Freedom and Subversion?" "What About the 5th Amendment When Used in Loyalty Hearings?" will be answered.

These topics and questions, basic to all Americans, will be answered by some of the nation's leading authorities and outstanding personalities in the areas of "Security and Civil Rights."

Congressman Howard Smith and John B. Ovenson, manager of the National Defense Dept., U.S. Chamber of Commerce, will debate the issue "Special Laws for Loyalty and Security," with Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., president of Americans for Democratic Action, and Royal W. France, executive director of the National Writers Guild.

Jan. 18 will see Thomas J. Herbert, chairman of the National Subversive Activities Control Board, and Professor Ralph S. Brown, from Yale University Law School, discuss "The Actual and Legal Aspects of Dealing with Subversion."

Presented on Jan. 25 will be a report on "Specific Security Cases and How They Affect Those Involved" by Adam Yaromolinsky, secretary of the Fund for the Republic.

West Over East in Pro Bowl

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fullback Alan (The Horse) Ameche cracked loose with a 66-yard run in the last moments of the first half to set the scene for a key score and the West rolled on to a 26-7 victory in the Pro Bowl football Sunday.

The smashing run by the big Baltimore Colt star led to a field goal by his teammate, Bert Rechichar, that sent the West into a lead it never relinquished.

A record crowd of 66,634 sat under sunny skies to see this eighth game in a series that starts the pick of the Western Conference against the best of the Eastern of the National Football League.

The game was televised for the first time nationally but blacked out in this area.

Ameche's great gallop came moments after quarterback Earl Morrall of Pittsburgh had arched a beautiful 39-yard pass into the end zone to Cleveland's Rex Renfro for a touchdown that put the East in front, 7-6.

4th Straight Win Abel's Red Wings Top Reeling Rangers, 3-2

NEW YORK (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings climbed into second place in the National Hockey League standings ahead of New York as they edged the reeling Rangers 3-2 Sunday night. The Wings' victory at Madison Square Garden was their fourth straight and also extended the Ranger's winless streak to eight.

Detroit jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first period and then had to shove off a belated Ranger.

The New Yorkers peppered attack in the final stanza, game Terry Sawchuk of the Red Wings in the third period but the Detroit net mender handled 18 shots flawlessly and wound up with 40 saves. Matched Laille the Ranger's goalie who has given up 23 goals in his last five games made only 22 saves.

With 80 seconds left to play, New York pulled Laille from the ice in order to gain an extra forward. Detroit's Forbes Kennedy had 19 seconds left to serve on a penalty, giving New York a two man advantage. The Rangers put the pressure on but despite a manpower advantage they failed to penetrate Sawchuk.

Nick Mackoski, a former Ranger, ignited the Wings' scoring by drilling in a 60-foot shot that bounced past Laille at 6:29. Less than three minutes later Johnny Williams outmaneuvered Laille on a breakaway and clicked on a post shot blank range to make it 2-0.

Andy Robertson got the Rangers back into contention midway in the second period on a

Wolverines Edge Spartan Tankers

In a heated tank duel here Saturday University of Michigan swimmers edged the Spartans 4-5 in relay events to top the mythical Big 10 Relays title.

Michigan's superiority was by virtue of freestyler Carl Woolley's hand length victory over State's Don Patterson in a thrilling last leg finish of the 400-yard medley relay.

No less than six events showed record breaking performances with State and the Wolverines breaking even in this department. One of the top individual times burst in by the Wolverines was Olympian Dick Haisley's unofficial 49.6 leg of the 400-yard freestyle relay. The American record for the 100-yards is 49.4.

Michigan's squad of Leigh Corby, Peter Fries, Carl Woolley and Hanley took the 400-yard freestyle with a time of 3:26.4 to top the old Relays record of 3:27.7 set by State's Lebaugh, Fornell and Parrish in 1956.

Spartans Lee Edington, Wally Dobler, Frank Modine and Rog Harmon whipped the Michigan team in the 400-yard breaststroke butterfly relay and erased the Relays MSU and Pool records of 4:08.4 with a 4:04.4 clocking.

Perhaps the widest margin of victory in the tight battle was provided the Wolverines when NCAA diving champ Dick Kimball and Tony Turner combined to total 39.33 points to Spartans Tony Kaufmann and Jerry Chastwick's 27.95.

Billy Stewart, Spartan freestyler, matched Hanley stroke for stroke in the second leg of the 500-yard freestyle relay which showed the South African pulling away for a two yard margin. A beautiful finish by Les Lebaugh gave State the victory in 4:22.8, a new Relays, MSU and Pool record.

In the 200-yard medley Spartans Don Nichols, Mastine Harmon and Patterson left Michigan in their wake with a 1:43 timing to eclipse the old Relays, Pool and MSU records of 1:44.4. Michigan finished far behind in 1:44.

Michigan was completely outclassed in the 200-yard freestyle relay when both State's "A" and "B" teams won over. The "A" squad of Lebaugh, Jim Laniker, Dean Taylor and Gordy Fornell topped the Michigan en-

By CLIFF VAN METER
The high-flying Michigan State hockey squad returned from their weekend series against the Minnesota Gophers with a split.

Minnesota won Friday night by the score of 4-3. State rolled back to win Saturday night 3-2.

The pucksters just couldn't get rolling against Minnesota the first night until the start of the third period, but then it was late. Ross Parke scored for State midway in the first period after taking a pass from Dick Hamilton. The Gophers were able to pick up two goals in the period and went to the dressing room with a 2-1 lead.

Minnesota increased their lead to 4-1 before State started a futile comeback. Terry Moroney and Joe Polano scored goals for State, but Minnesota led 4-3 at the end of the second period. Jack McCartan, All-American goalie, lived up to his reputation as he constantly kept State from tying the score in the third period.

A high spirited State squad roared back Saturday night to win 3-2. State played good aggressive hockey throughout the game. The Gophers jumped off to an early lead as Dick Burg blasted a shot from just over the State blue line.

Terry Moroney scored his second goal of the series near the end of the first period to make the score 1-1 at the end of one period.

State stormed all over Minnesota in the second period and only the fine goaltending of McCartan kept State from walking away with the game.

State's Ross Parke scored midway in the second period to give State a 2-1 lead at the break after the second stanza.

Defenseman Bruno Polansky scored what proved to be the winning goal early in the third period after taking a pass from Parke. Both teams played good hard fought battles for the remainder of the game. Dick Burg scored his second goal of the evening for the Gophers with only ten seconds left to play.

Coach Ann Besenauer's comment that a hustling team is a good team was very evident in the second game in Minneapolis. All of State's players hustled and played heads-up hockey.

The home fans will get a chance to watch their hockey team against Michigan Tech Friday and Saturday nights.

Pistolmen Score Victory Over Purdue and Wisconsin

State pistolmen shot up the targets and Purdue and Wisconsin's victory hopes to rack up another win Saturday.

Purdue shot a score of 1244. Wisconsin hit 1255 and State marksmen hit 1303.

The match was a shoulder to shoulder gallery type with 22 cal. pistols. This win made a total of three the other two being against Texas A and M and Oklahoma.

The pistol team is usually composed of eight men. In the final tabulation of match scores the top five of these eight men are scored.

The pistol team is not a varsity team but is chosen from the Pistol Club.

The team is now looking forward to a match with the Mid-dies of Annapolis February 22.

Seven or eight men are going to Annapolis to compete. They will be firing against the Annapolis varsity team.

The Pistol Club meets every Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. in the pistol-rifle gallery of Dem Hall. The club is composed of both men and women.

Those interested in joining are invited to come to Dem hall at the regular meeting time.

Rockefeller Report Discusses Security

Calls for Extensive Changes

NEW YORK (AP)—Nelson of the much-discussed but still Rockefeller said Sunday there secret Galtner report since it appears to be no need for publication seems to parallel one just put out by the Rockefeller brothers.

Rockefeller, chairman of the 50-member group which issued the Rockefeller report on national security, was interviewed on the CBS-TV program, "Face the Nation."

Asked whether he agreed with those who have urged publication of the Galtner report, he replied that from reports in the press it appeared the two studies "closely paralleled each other both in findings and recommendations."

The Rockefeller report called for three billion dollar annual increases for defense, reorganization of the defense department and other moves to meet the Soviet challenge.

Rockefeller said it was "very important for the people to understand that the President can and should call for special reports on national emergencies."

If those asked to serve on such study committees know the information will be made public, he said, "people are hesitant to participate in it."

He was asked if he favored deficit spending if necessary to finance additional defense costs.

"National survival comes before budgetary considerations... if that means deficit spending, then it will have to be deficit spending. Our feeling is—first, survival," Rockefeller replied.

He said an estimated 60 to 65 million persons would be casualties if 50 American cities were bombed successfully, and that a shelter program to protect city dwellers is feasible.

Rockefeller said he had "great confidence in the President, and if he says he is going to reorganize our military defense, then he is going to do it."

'First Lecture' El Al-Spartan On Sale Tuesday

All the students who have been sitting in Berkey Hall classrooms looking at Spartan magazine posters will at last have a chance to find out what the professor does think during "The First Lecture."

An article on that subject appears in MSU's feature magazine, which goes on sale Tuesday.

Along with the photo feature, there will be a cartoon feature.

"Familiar Forms" found "round about the campus, by Gwynne.

A few other humorous entries appearing in this issue of the Spartan include a travelogue by Bill Keough, who went where he was told to go, "The Jungle," a revision of Vachel Lindsay's "The Congo," by editor Bob Slade, and an article lamenting old traditions—but not for long.
