Lindemer to Give Republican Views

AUSG Academic Benefits Features Political Ideas

"Politics—1958" will have a distinctly Republican flavor when State Central Committee Chairman Larry Lindemer presents the GOP view on this year's election issues at 8 p.m. in 32 Union.

Tart Tito Gives Kick To Kremlin

States Objections To Soviet Ideology

The 36-year-old Lindemer, second speaker on the Student Government Academic Benefits series, promises to cast a different light on the major political issues than did "Politics—1958's" first speaker, Democratic National Committee Chairman Paul M. Butler.

LJUBLJANA, Yugoslavia (AP)—President Marshall Tito to tartly advised Moscow Tuesday to abandon attempts to force this country's Communist Party into a Kremlin-designed mold. The Yugoslav leader's defiance of the Kremlin brought to their feet the 1,700 delegates to the party's seventh congress. The hall rocked with applause each time Tito emphasized a difference between Yugoslav and Soviet ideology.

Despite his youth, however, Lindemer has had his share of practical political experience. The Stockbridge Republican attended Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y., but received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1943. In 1948, after serving in the U. S. Air Force, Lindemer earned his bachelor of laws degree.

Lindemer's first position in government drew from this past legal study. From 1949 to 1950 he held the position of assistant

LAWRENCE LINDEMER, state GOP leader... prosecuting attorney of Ingham County.

Tito's 35,000-word speech, distributed in advance to the delegates, said Yugoslav-Soviet relations were improving on the basis of the 1955 Belgrade-Moscow declaration after Nikita Khrushchev's pilgrimage of apology to this country. In delivery, Tito chanced this to read that relations "until today were developing very successfully."

The Russians obviously have been stung by this turn of events in Moscow today Peter Pospelov, a Soviet party theoretician, lambasted the Yugoslav party's draft program being considered here. He called it "a document aimed at weakening the unity of the Communist and Workers' parties, at weakening the unity of the Socialist (Communist-ruled) countries."

Tornado Strikes North Texas City Killing Eighteen

MIDDLEBURY, Tex. (AP)—The north central Texas area around this town of 1,200 began to straighten itself out Tuesday after a tornado slashed through a section a dozen miles square, injuring 18 persons, yesterday. The tornado, which struck first about 5 p.m. (CST) was one of two which hit Texas. The other was 90 miles south, near Marlin about two hours later.

The twister near Middlebury destroyed or damaged 23 homes, all in rural areas. Of the 18 persons treated for injuries, only two remained over night in a hospital and they were released Tuesday. Half—some stories larger than baseballs—and torrential rain added to the misery and loss. A lightning bolt helped cut workers at a gravel pit seven miles east of Marlin. Workmen had finished tamping home 50 cases of dynamite to shatter rock in the pit. The dynamite, weighed 2,800 pounds. Then rain and wind struck and the workmen found shelter. Lightning struck a wire leading to the dynamite and set it off—just as the workmen had planned.

Pics to Appear Living Units Advertise Ugliest Man Entries

The Ugliest Men on Campus are on us again! Pictures of candidates will soon be staring students in the face from Berkeley to the Union.

Life entries are still being accepted, according to Lloyd Reynolds, general chairman. Applications must be turned in to the Alpha Phi Omega office, 314 Student Services.

Preliminary voting will take place Tuesday and Wednesday in living units and the Union (for off-campus students).

According to Reynolds, the top 10 will be placed on the final ballot and admission tickets to the UMOG dance, May 2, will be worth two votes. Each woman's living unit is eligible to sponsor one male student.

The contest winner will be presented with a key, crown and plaque. The sponsoring unit will receive a traveling trophy.

Last year's UMOG was Henry Kennedy, "Hurrying Hank the Scouring Scotchman," sponsored by Zeta Tau Alpha, John Green, sponsored by E. Mayo, was second.

Trips Abroad Beckon Students Summer Starts Wander-Lust

By LIZ TROSTER, State News Night Editor

Being feet and summer vacation are an irresistible combination for almost all college students. Whether it's counseling at a camp; fieldwork in the upper peninsula or merely a summer session at a different university, many collegians feel a change of scenery makes the best summer. Most attractive of all is the summer abroad. Although the recreation has cut travel plans for some, there are still many students who will take advantage of the tours offered. One of the most intriguing trips for the summer is the 73 day tour of Russia and eastern Europe. Sponsored by the Lisle Fellowship, the trip will be led by Milton McLean, coordinator of religious affairs at Ohio State University. The trip begins with a Mediterranean cruise stopping at Lisbon, Gibraltar, Barcelona, Naples, Palermo and Patras, Greece. The 23 days in Russia include the cities of Kiev, Odessa, Yalta, Rostov, Stalingrad, Moscow and Leningrad. Also included on the itinerary are short stays in Italy, Yugoslavia, Poland and Germany. The $1700 tour includes transportation, twin bed room, breakfast and main meal except in Russia where three meals are included. Other tours offered by Lisle, a non-profit organization which concentrates on intercultural leadership education, include travel to Scandinavia and Germany. Students on these trips will investigate social agencies, farm communities, and local governments. General program for the fellowship tours includes orientation and evaluation periods where trip members are acquainted with the history, economics and social structure of the areas they are to visit. At the close of the trip the session concentrates on interpreting and understanding the trips experiences and integrating them with the triper's daily life.

A Lisle trip, limited to 15 Americans, is scheduled for India. The 55-day tour will concentrate on a month in this country. While there, trip members will live with Indian students for two weeks at the Allahabad Agricultural College.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy testified Tuesday that the Pentagon organization is out of date in the age of missiles and nuclear weapons. He urged Congress to modernize it as President Eisenhower wishes. "It would be tragic indeed," the Secretary said, "if in the moment of crisis we should be found wanting because of an attempt to graft the weapons of modern warfare onto an outmoded organization structure."

Before the House Armed Services Committee and its hostile leaders, McElroy opened the administration's drive on Capitol Hill to put through Eisenhower's program. Powerful opposition lies ahead, in strongly entrenched positions.

McElroy encountered it at the outset. Yet Chairman Vinson (D-Ga), a formidable foe of the plan, promised that the committee "will consider the President's recommendations seriously, objectively, and in detail, and with full awareness of the constitutional responsibilities of Congress."

The Secretary, in turn, promised no penalties or retaliation against civilians or men in uniform who testify against the program. But outside the committee chamber, he told reporters, "an officer can't search out a forum to oppose his commander in chief."

The reorganization plan would give McElroy greater flexibility over defense spending and considerably greater authority over the separate armed forces. In support of it, McElroy said that it "rests on the continuing of the concept of the united command" which made "an immense contribution to the strategy and tactics of modern warfare" in World War II.

He relied heavily on Eisenhower's reputation and prestige as a military man. He said it is the plan of the President, that the judgment of a man with a "lifetime of personal experience, in peace and war," deeply marked every element in it.

"The future security of our nation," the Secretary said, "rests on the soundness of the decisions reached as a result of the hearings on this subject."

And he voiced a belief that most of the concerns expressed about it will disappear after the legislation to back it up has been studied carefully.

The study may go on for weeks. Only five of the 37 committee members had their chance to question McElroy Tuesday.

A full committee and a turn-away crowd came out for the initial hearing. Vinson allotted each committee member 15 minutes to quiz the Secretary.

Bishop's Company to Present Shaw's 'Saint Joan' Thursday

By NELDA TROUT, State News Managing Editor

A combination of drama and religion will be presented Tuesday when the Bishop's present Bernard Shaw's play, "Saint Joan," in the Peoples church sanctuary.

Performed as part of a workshop service, the play will take the place of the sermon, in line with the Bishop's Co. conviction that "great plays can be powerful sermons."

"Saint Joan" highlights a two-day workshop on drama in the church, being held at Edgewood Peoples Church Thursday and Friday.

The appearance of the company is sponsored by the Lansing Council of Churches and the university YMCA and YWCA.

Advance tickets are available from the Union ticket office, Peoples Church, the YMCA-YWCA office, and Edgewood Peoples church, at $1.50 for the general public and $1 per student.

The Bishop's Co., in a previous visit to Lansing, presented "The Beloved Country" and "A Man with a Cart."

The Bishop's Co. was formed in 1952 by a group of Hollywood actors who believed that the dramatic arts have a rightful place in the service of the church.

They resolved to present great plays that deal with the problems of greed, fear, prejudice, and faith in an effort to speak about the meaning of life from the religious perspective.

Receiving encouragement from Bishop Gerald Kennedy of the Methodist Church, they named their group after him.

The company performed for the World Council of Churches meeting in Evanston, Ill., in 1954. Plans for the first overseas tour in 1959 have resulted.

Following Shaw's play about Saint Joan, a peasant girl who glimpses the "fires of heaven," will be an opportunity to meet the cast and discuss the play in the women's parlor of the Peoples Church. Dr. John Howell, Lansing Council of Churches executive will lead the discussion.

Thursday and Friday's workshops will include experimentation in concert reading of drama by Theta Alpha Phi members, MSU drama honorary, and by workshop participants.

U. S. Hosts Vodka Vets Gathering

Chicago Bus Driver Pleas for Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—Five Soviet war veterans sipped vodka and clucked in sympathy Tuesday when their American host, near tears, complained he might go broke paying their bills.

Then one of the Russians—a one-eyed writer named Boris Polovsky, got up and—through an interpreter—said that wasn't necessary. He said with a broad smile that he and his comrades had plenty of money and would pay their own bills.

But their host, Chicago bus driver Joseph Polowsky, said nothing doing. Choking back tears, Polowsky said he had seen their guest at a 1955 reunion in Moscow and now it was his turn to pick up the tab even if it takes me 10 years.

Reporters, witnesses to this emotional scene, shifted uneasily in their chairs. It occurred at a news conference called by Polowsky to publicize his dream of a Washington reunion of veterans of the U. S. Soviet link up at the Elbe River in Germany 13 years ago.

I sent out 300 letters in England to some of the most important persons in this rich country, and I received less than $200, and my printing expenses alone are over $500," Polowsky said.

I promised my wife I would go into debt. I am a bus driver and I have two children and there is nothing to do except go in debt."

Polowsky said he got the cold shoulder from veterans organizations and others from whom he sought financial backing. Polovsky and Alexei Maresyev, legless Soviet airman who shot down seven German planes after he got artificial legs protest.

They said the Soviet committee of war veterans, which ready paid their transportation, was quite wealthy and had even them ample pocket money for Washington.

The news conference ended with Polowsky's pride and Russian riches at an impasse. But Polowsky said he hopes the American people somehow could come up with contributions to cover about $1,000 in hotel and printing

Tigers Whip Chicago Behind 8-Hit Assault

Hoelt Stifles Pale Hose To Win 1st

Maxwell Clouts 3-Run Homer

DETROIT (AP)—Bill Hoelt got off to a flying start on the Tigers' three-run assault, and the Detroit Tigers sailed to an 8-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox Tuesday.

The Tigers, batting well over .300 and showing remarkable power in their first eight games, needed eight safeties and five home runs for extra bases.

Maxwell, batting well over .300 and showing remarkable power in their first eight games, needed eight safeties and five home runs for extra bases.

The Sox had two runs in the ninth but Hoelt pitched them out.

Hoelt pitched seven innings, giving up three runs on seven hits and one walk.

Maxwell's homer in the first inning was the only home run in the game.

Auburn Calls New Penalty Unwarranted

AUBURN, Ala. (AP)—Auburn Tuesday asked the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee to hear a report which school authorities say prove that Auburn is innocent of illegal recruiting charges.

The SEC school which produced the Nation's No. 1 football team last year said the staff NCAA penalty for illegal recruiting was based on unsupported statements later disproved by signed affidavits.

Auburn has been barred from participating in both post-season bowl games and NCAA title competition until September, 1961.

Athletic director Jeff Beard disclosed at a news conference that the new probation grew out of charges that freshman quarterback Don Fuell was offered a motorboat, an air-conditioned apartment and an automobile or $2,000 in cash to play football for Auburn.

Beard said these charges had no basis in fact.

Sweep Series With 12-7 Win

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees pounded three triples and a home run in one inning—the fourth—during which they scored seven runs and went on to defeat Boston 12-7 Tuesday for their sixth straight victory and a sweep of the two-game series with the Red Sox.

Dave Sisler, the only pitcher to defeat the Yankees this year, was the victim of a major portion of the assault. The bespectacled righthander, who beat the Yankees 3-1 last week, quit after yielding triples to Bobby Richardson and Hank Bauer and a home run to Gil McDougald.

Braves Down Buc

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A three-run homer by Hank Aaron in the fourth inning boosted the Milwaukee Braves to a 5-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates and earned righthander Bob Buhl his second victory. The loser was Ronnie Kline.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Bob Cerv continued to scourge Cleveland Indian pitchers, hitting a seventh-inning home run—his second of the afternoon—to insure a 9-6 victory for the Kansas City Athletics.

Orioles Beat Nats, 4-2

WASHINGTON (AP)—Billy O'Dell checked budding rallies in the eighth and ninth innings to preserve a 4-2 victory for Jack Harshman as Baltimore defeated Washington. Brooks Robinson collected three of the Orioles' seven hits, including a solo home run.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A recent ruling of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. (NCAA) will "in no way hinder the continuance of the annual Senior Bowl football game," a sponsoring official said Tuesday.

The ruling means, however, that the game henceforth will be played during the Christmas holidays. It was played Jan. 12 this year, after all other collegiate bowl games.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, announced at New Orleans Sunday that senior athletes who participate in such events as the Senior Bowl game would lose the remaining portion of their grant-in-aid athletic scholarships.

He said the money earned in such games exceeds the value of the remaining part of the grant-in-aid.

The Senior Bowl pays $500 to each member of the winning squad and $400 to each of the losers. The players turn professional in the game.

Book Sale

My enrollment officer just told me that Gibson's has thousands of reference books on sale, some for as little as 9c. He said many of them will help me on my thesis and term papers.

This will get me out of my library slump and I can add to my personal collection, too. Guess I'll cut my class and go shopping.

Save on:

- Reference Books
- Novels
- Pocket Books

Eisenhower Asks Congress For Railroad Appropriations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower Administration asked Congress Tuesday to help the financially hard-hit railroads modernize and cut costs by providing Federal guarantees of up to 700 million dollars in loans.

Stressing the need for speedy action, Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks said this isn't the time to consider repealing the excise tax on freight and passengers—as the railroads have asked.

He said the long-term ills of the railroads have been aggravated by the business recession and declared "special solutions are required."

In a letter to Chairman Smathers (D-Fla.) of a Senate Commerce subcommittee, Weeks made four long-term recommendations in addition to urging the loan guarantee program as a means of providing immediate temporary relief.

The loans, made by private interests and backed by the Federal government, would enable the railroads to make cost-cutting improvements immediately.

Jamaican Trial Begins Monday In Ingham Court

Claude Logan, 31, agriculture student, will go on trial Monday at 9:30 a.m. for the Feb. 6 assault on Mrs. Ralph Brown wife of an MSU student.

Logan, a married student from Jamaica, was charged Feb. 8 with assault with intent to rape. At the time, Logan denied all knowledge of the crime, but later he was identified by the victim.

Mrs. Brown sustained a compound fracture of the skull and several minor injuries, but she suffered no sexual attack, according to Dr. Clifford Menges, Olin Center director.

Mrs. Brown claimed that the injuries had been inflicted by some sort of weapon, but no weapon was discovered in a search by MSU police.

The trial will be held in Ingham County court, with Judge Marvin Salmon presiding.

Language Instructors To Present Lectures

Two MSU language instructors will speak at the quarterly meeting of the Michigan chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese (AATSP) Friday through Sunday at Haven Hill Lodge near Milford.

Dr. Carlos Teran, associate professor of foreign studies and foreign languages, and Donald Yates, instructor of foreign languages, will represent MSU in the program.

Teran will speak on "The Novel of the Indian in Ecuador."

Yates will discuss "Techniques in Mystery Writing," including the Spanish "classical mystery novel." He is doing his thesis on the Argentine mystery novel.

Teachers from Argentina, Chile, Peru and Venezuela, currently at U of M, will speak.

Dr. Federico Sanchez y Escribano, professor of languages at U of M, will discuss modern Spanish poetry.

Dr. Stanley Howell, associate professor of foreign languages, is president and Yates is secretary of the chapter, which includes teachers of Spanish and Portuguese of all high schools, colleges and universities in Michigan.

The AATSP meets to raise the standards of teaching in high schools and colleges. It also helps coordinate the curricula and methods of teaching Spanish and Portuguese in high school, with those of colleges and universities to ease the transition students must make in going from one to the other.

The purpose of meeting at Haven Hill Lodge, according to Howell, is "to have a congenial atmosphere in which teachers may get to know each other and exchange ideas."

FRANKIE LYMON, one of the many local attractions of "The Alan Freed Big Rockin' Coral Band," will display his style at the Civic Center Sunday at 8 p.m.

Nikita's Power Boost Yields Strained Red-West Relations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The more power Nikita Khrushchev obtains as boss of the Soviet Union the tougher and cruder his acts appear to be. This may put dangerous strains on relations between Russia and the West.

As an example, diplomatic authorities cite Russia's appeal to the UN Security Council to direct the United States to curtail its Strategic Air Command bomber operations. Russia lost on this issue in the Security Council Monday.

Officials here say somebody blundered by raising the issue in that way. And they believe that man was Khrushchev.

One major question in world affairs today is what effect

Khrushchev's emergence in position of seemingly dictatorial powers, will have on Russian policies and on international issues of war and peace.

This question cannot yet be answered fully. But those who make it their business to analyze Soviet behavior are worried Khrushchev is acting like a man who arbitrarily orders others act and finds out only later that his order was ill considered.
