Chiang Rules Out Force

In Mainland Return Plan

Nationalist

Garrisons

Cut Troops

Propaganda Try

Behind Statement

TAIPEI (AP)—Chiang Kai-Shek ruled out force Wednesday as the main means of returning to the China mainland and reportedly agreed to trim his offshore garrisons slightly.

Chiang's renunciation of force was announced in a communique at the wrap-up of three days of talks with Secretary of State Dulles.

The communique said nothing specifically about a troop reduction, but a competent authority said Chiang and Dulles had come to broad agreement on it.

This source said this was the plan.

The Nationalist offshore garrisons would be cut by 15,000 to 20,000 from the 100,000 reported force now. These garrisons then would be organized with modern weapons for defense.

No time for the start of troop cuts was set. It would depend partly on whether the Communists rejected pressure on the islands. It would be postponed so as to give the appearance of yielding to Red threats and would be coordinated with the arrival of modern weapons.

The idea behind Chiang's renunciation of force and the streamlining plan is to emphasize to U. S. allies and the American public that Nationalist China is on the defensive, the source said.

The United States since 1949, has been trying to get the Chinese Communists to renounce the use of force in Eurasia.

Cheer Spartans

Primaries Hit High

Campbell, Day to Vie

For President Post

Heavy freshman class helped Thursday night AUSA primary election yield 37,000 votes, a polling increase of 400 more than last year's primary.

A numbering of primary class members for student Congress and Freshman Council, each 250, totaled to total Thursday night tabulation.

Heavy voter participation took place in Butterfield (134), East Shaw (127), Baldy (134), West Shaw (127) and Bryan (106) among the men's dorms, while 192 female cast ballots. A total to top the women's dorm vote.

An expected freshman class presidential "battling" topped other offices with 1,366 votes cast. Larry Campbell with 411 votes and Joe Day with 300 outdistanced other challengers and will meet in next Thursday's final election to decide on a winner.

In West Shaw's Congress primary Larry Osterick named 81 votes to top A. Skovitska who got 77 and Doug Stradwick the present representative, who polled 53. Osterick will meet Skovitska in next Thursday's showdown battle for the seat.

Fresh-Soph Council Freshman primaries took place at Atwood and South Campbell. The South Campbell contest pitted eight candidates against each other with Scott, Souler and Joan Hill eliminating all comers.

Atwood's election saw only 20 votes cast resulting in a close victory for Carol Vogt and Suzanne Atwell over Melie Silver. The primary victors will meet another each other in Thursday's final.

At East Lansing, Pat Podas led Nancy Strayer and Kay Harris, placing her opposite Miss Strayer in the dorms, fresh-soph final.

Brenda Campbell edged Linda Swartz in Socratic race, but the vote of eliminated Winnifred Bailey could swing the race either way next week.

Pete VanDyke polled 324 votes to lead the fresh vice presidential race with Bob Cantrell's 290 total edging Pete MacPherson's 260 for rights to challenge Vander in the final. A total of 1,344 freshmen went to the polls in this contest.

Four more voted in the class treasurer primary with Sandy Marsh gaining the highest vote of all election candidates, her 889 tabulation placing her well ahead of nearest challenger Jan Woodruff who polled 390 to gain the final ballot.

The closest race of all developed in the secretary position where Diane Anderson's 437 count narrowly surpassed Cathy Vickerman's 414. Other candidates were far behind in this contest.

Two Student Congress seats required a primary run-off. Meg Priestman with 33 votes and Shirley Andrews with 28 eliminated incumbent congresswoman Garry Batz in the runoff election.

The Gilchrist primary was Marilyn Martin's outpoll Kathleen Bardeen and Carol Foxen. Miss Bardeen will face the preliminary winner in the final.

Elections Commissioner Reinhold Schumann termed the primary turnout "quite good" and better than his pre-election prediction of 1,500. Schumann is now laying plans for the decisive Thursday election, hoping voter interest will remain high.

Elections in general were conducted with less polling problems than spring term elections, though Commissioner Schumann closed the Berkeley Hall polls when an early afternoon count indicated only five persons had voted there during the morning.

Senior Pictures

Seniors have only four more days to make appointments for Wolverine senior pictures at the Union desk, open from 9-5.

Men's Hall Assn.

To Appropriate

The Men's Hall Assn. president's assembly voted Thursday to appropriate $325 for a new, specifically designed, miniature machine to be centrally located in Bowley Hall for the use of all men's residence halls.

As soon as the machine is installed the present one owned by MHA will be placed in Shaw Hall for their use in addition they will absorb costs for repairs of the old machine.

Also disclosed at the meeting by President John Shannon was that MHA has been given authority to form a Judiciary Committee comparable to that of IPC and AWS judiciary.

Chairmanships Open

Students wishing to apply for chairmanships on the 1959 Wolverine Carnival committees may pick up petitions in the Union Commons on senior council office at the Student Services Bldg.

'Forgotten Memorial' Still-Intact

A stone with a bronze plaque marks an almost forgotten MSU war memorial west of Williams Hall.

Wolverine Deadline!

All contracts must be signed today in the Wolverine office. 341 student services in order for campus organizations and living units to have their group picture in the 1959 yearbook. University account numbers will be necessary.

before the people are educated, administratively and economically ready, Scott predicted.

The rate of formation of economic capital is extremely low in Africa, according to Scott. This is a serious problem which the newly independent democracies will face in their formative years, he said.

Another problem Scott discussed was the lack of trained personnel to run the new governmental and operate new industrial facilities which are rapidly increasing in Africa.

"This is perhaps an opportunity for many young Americans to move in and help operate airports, businesses and other facilities that Africa will not have the personnel to operate efficiently for some time," Scott said.

America has perhaps a decade to influence African political and social development before it reaches the stage which has already been reached in Asia, he predicted.

"Though we have never had colonies in Africa, we have tended to regard it in terms of the extractive industries rather than as 220 million people producing nothing but wanting to produce everything," he said.

Independents Want Off-Campus Living

ONE OF THE CURRENT trends at Michigan State is for the men students to reside in off-campus housing.

A rigid University law requires all students to live in dormitories during their first year.

The majority of off-campus students feel that it's less expensive and that there is more independence.

With the Brody group at the far Western end of campus and Shaw Hall across the Red Cedar River on the Southern edge, many students feel that they can find a more suitable location in the neighborhoods of East Lansing.

THE WORD "INDEPENDENCE" is the strongest argument—By living off-campus, many students feel they can come and go when they please and eat when they wish.

The dormitory system affords much activity for the students, such as intramurals, glee clubs, dorm councils and others.

Other students, especially those working their way through college, find it less expensive to live in off-campus housing.

THE FOOD SYSTEM is also an argument heard from many students. In the dorms, they must eat what's given to them and at specific times, but living off-campus affords them the chance to eat where they please, when they please, and what they please, dressed the way they please.

Fraternities are also enemies of the dormitory system. Many fraternities demand that brothers not living in the house live off-campus, so that they can move into the house when there's a vacancy.

When signing a contract with the dormitory, the student is signing a year's lease. It's a tough proposition for a student to break this contract.

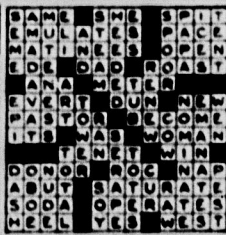

FRATERNITY MEN not living in the house many times wish to eat their meals at the house. Again because of the dorm contract, this would be impossible unless the student can afford to pay for two meals and only eat one.

Another group of students, namely service veterans and graduate students, do not wish to be tied down to dormitory life. Many veterans feel they have lived long enough in the dormitory style, and many wish to have a room of their own and not be linked with excessive group life.

The main reason for this trend towards off-campus housing, which deserves the attention of all university people, is that students feel they have more freedom and independence. Off-campus residents are not tied down to full school year contracts or the social pressures of the dormitory system.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

Involving Socialist Convoy

Freedom of Ideal Questioned

To the Editor: Monday morning, October 13, a sign on the Jensen bulletin board attracted my attention. It announced a meeting for students interested in socialism.

Monday evening when I passed the same bulletin board I noticed the sign was gone. This really aroused my interest. It meant one of three things.

1. The person who put it up for some reason changed his mind and tore it down. 2. Another student became outraged at the possibility of his going to the same university as a socialist, and tore it down.

3. A university representative removed it. The last two possibilities were not unthinkable at any reputable institution of higher learning. The one thing that has made education and knowledge proper has been the tradition of academic freedom.

The right to think and investigate unpopular ideas is a necessary right in any free democratic educational institution. Any attempt to interfere with this is a slap at the traditions of our educational institutions, as well as a direct repudiation of the American tradition of free speech.

In order to determine which of the above ideas had happened I attended the announced meeting. I discovered that the student who had posted the sign had not taken it down. Needless to say few people showed up at the meeting.

The major issue is that the sign did not remain posted. Some person or persons evidently took it down themselves to act as censor of who can or cannot meet at MSU. This condition cannot and must not be tolerated if MSU wishes to hold its head up among the academic institutions of America.

It was announced Sunday that another attempt will be made to organize a group of students interested in socialism. This meeting will take place Monday at 8:30 by the fireplace in the Union Lounge. All students are invited who are interested in discussing or studying socialism.

Warsaw Denied Press Freedom

WARSAW (AP)—Warsaw Express, Poland's most popular evening paper, pledged in a front-page editorial recently to follow Communist Party Chief Wladyslaw Gomulka's directive to use its columns to propagate communism.

The pledge ran between stories telling of a London divorce caused by a man's admiration for Brigitte Bardot, an item saying Marilyn Monroe expects a baby and one telling of a Polish professor convicted of feeding his wife cyanide.

Who Dropped The Ball?

Spartan Spirit

To the Editor: The students of MSU presently view our football team in the same way as two plaintiffs in a court case might be viewed. One of their wins and the other goes to jail.

Since 1953, we have been one of the football powers of the country. At first the students were enthusiastic over this title, but now have they tended to take this fact for granted? Is this lack of spirit going to keep Michigan State number one in the nation?

The hardest part of being on top is not to get there but to stay there. We, the students, have arrived there, but with the spirit that has been displayed this term, will we stay there?

The apathy of the students is such that to attend a pep rally they must be bribed by top entertainment. Are you as a student coming to the pep rally for the purpose of viewing professional talent or for the purpose of displaying to the school and to the football team your enthusiastic spirit?

An example of this low enthusiasm was displayed last Saturday evening when the football team arrived from Lafayette. The team was greeted at the airport by a small handful of their friends.

This contrasts with student reaction years ago, when a defeated Spartan team, also beaten by Purdue, was met at the airport by over 9,000 students.

Our team can never be expected to win or to play their best if the students do not support them 100 percent. Everyone cannot be the "football hero," but everyone can be the "spirit behind them."

Are we going to let the defeat of last Saturday defeat us again? Or are we really the victors of last Saturday's game in that this will not obliterate our spirit but enhance it? Let's take the "bribe" out of our pep rallies and put the team back in!

Dulles, Chiang Agree On Same Old Terms

By J. M. ROBERTS

The communique marking the close of the Dulles-Chiang negotiations contains just about as much real meat as such statements usually do—which is very little.

The Nationalists have agreed not to do what they haven't been doing. They aren't going to rely on force for reconquest of the mainland, Dulles said that the United States wouldn't allow that.

The United States has agreed to do what it has been doing. It will help defend Nationalist territory against attack. It requests any idea of permanent Red control of the mainland.

Nationalist interpretation accompanying Chiang's part of this statement reserves the right to act according to circumstances if political action should produce a real revolt among Anti-Communists on the mainland.

Nevertheless, it leaves as some assurance to other Allies of the United States that Chiang will not precipitate a situation which might drag the United States, and them, into war. This was one of Dulles' chief objectives.

As a factual matter, Chiang has been under American-imposed wraps all the time. If the Nationalists are right that a mainland counter-revol-

Kellogg Center Ballroom 'New York' Dinner Dance Set

Holiday, annual dinner dance sponsored by the Hotel Assn. will be held Nov. 13, in the Kellogg Center ballroom. Limited number of tickets will go on sale, 9 p.m. Monday, in the Union Concourse. Price of the tickets are $5 per person and $7.50 per couple. Holiday will open with a social hour preceding the dinner, and wind up the evening with entertainment and dancing. Open to students, faculty, and guests, the event will be semi-formal.

The dinner will be prepared and served by members in the School of Hotel Administration. Music for dancing will be provided by the Bob Eberhardt orchestra.

Douglas Meny is chairman of entertainment for the program "New York, New York!" Assisting Meny will be Gini Christman and Bert Weesner who will act as hostess and host for the journey through New York. The musical program will include an escorted tour to various night spots in New York City. The first stop will be at Pan Soir where Marge Tappen and Troy Meyers, a dance team from Grand Rapids, will perform "Steam Heat" from the Broadway production, "Pajama Game."

Following this number, the scene will change to the Latin Quarter with Harry Griffin, singer and pianist with the Men's Glee Club. At the Copacabana, Stephanie Barnes will be guest singer.

From here the show will move to the Blue Angel where Clem Cramer will star at the piano. Joyce Georis of Grand Rapids, star of the summer stock production of "Palama Game," will be guest vocalist at the next stop, the Plaza.

The final act will take place at the Waldorf with Meny, Miss Christman, and Weesner doing a medley of songs from top Broadway musicals.

A chorus, consisting of members of the men and women's glee clubs, will furnish background music for several numbers during the program. Caldwell will accompany the group.

Ike Promotes Rickover; Needs Senate Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rear Adm. Hyman Rickover, the controversial developer of the nuclear powered submarine, was promoted to vice admiral by President Eisenhower Thursday.

The appointment is to be effective while Rickover serves as head of the Naval Reactors branch of the Atomic Energy Commission. The promotion is subject to Senate approval after Congress returns.

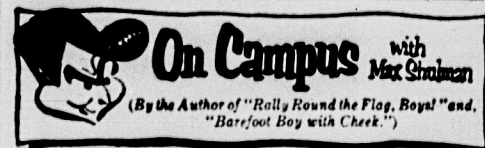

The 58-year-old admiral has been something of a bone of contention between the White House and democrats on Capitol Hill.

A loud outcry was raised when Rickover was not invited to a White House ceremony after the nuclear submarine Nautilus cruised from the Pacific to the Atlantic beneath the North Pole.

Rescue German Tourists

BERCHTESGADEN, Italy (AP) — Two U. S. Army helicopters defied high winds Thursday and rescued 11 Germans trapped by a week-long blizzard in Hitler's old "Eagle's Nest."

The rescue party, led by Capt. Kellerbauer, and 10 employees were trapped by the blizzard and Kellerbauer telephoned a distress call Wednesday as food ran low and two women became ill. He warned that winds were too strong to effect a center rescue.

THE DRESS PARADE

In all my years of observing cool fashions—and I have been arrested many times—I have never seen such virtues, such dash, such Je ne sais quoi as can be found in this year's styles!

I am particularly enchanted by the new "baby wisp" dresses which so many of you girls are favoring this season. How demure you all look in your "baby wisps"! How sweet! How innocent! How colorful when your housemother hits you up and burps you after dinner!

Another trend that leaves me laughing is the oversized hooding, too loose to drink little passes that hold nothing at all! Hurrah for today's sensibly sized bag with plenty of room for your makeup, your pens and pencils, your slither ball, your Stinky toy, your Mox, and your Marlboros.

Did I see Marlboros? Certainly I said Marlboros. What girl can consider herself in the van, in the swim, and in the know, if she doesn't smoke Marlboros? What man, for that matter. Do you want a filter that is truly new, genuinely unadorned, but at the same time, does not rob you of the full flavor of first-rate tobacco? Then get Marlboros. No get matches because the pleasure you derive from a Marlboro is necessarily limited to light.

To return to cool fashions, let us now discuss footwear. The popular flat shoe was introduced several years ago when it became obvious that girls were growing taller than boys. For a while the flat shoes kept the sexes in a state of uneasy balance, but today they will no longer serve. Now, even in this year, girls are towering over their dates, for the feminine growth has continued to rise with disturbing speed. In fact, it is now thought to be that we will see fifteen-foot girls in our lifetime.

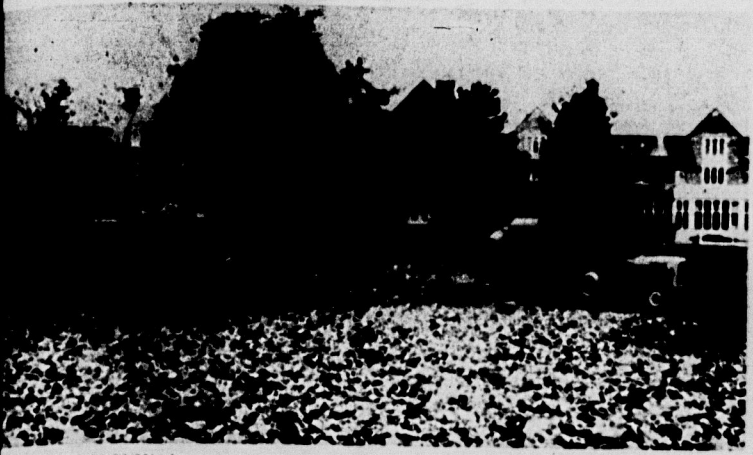

But someone is working on the problem, and I feel you American know how well you can solve a problem. A temporary measure is available, the reverse wedge.

The reverse wedge is simply a wedge turned around. It fits a girl's backside of a 14 degree angle and cuts to minus three feet all her height. It is not, of course, possible to stick in this position unless you have support, so your date will have to keep his arm around your waist at all times. This will tire him out in fairly short order, then you can most constantly grow him encouragement. Keep looking up at him and letting your eyes and repeating in sweet tones, "How strong you are, Shorty!"

Next we turn to hair styling. The hairdo that is definitely the chicest of the year is very low, very close, like a Chic look, and the new Mohican cut seems to be having a good run at all. In fact, I saw only one girl with a Mohican—Lila Skala. Her date, who is someone of Bennington. Her classmates laughed and laughed at her, but it was Lila who was the last to laugh, for one night a dark, handsome stranger leaped from behind a bush and hooked his arm in Lila's and said, "I see Lila, the last of the Mohicans. I'm I need not be the last, dear Lila, if you will let me be your wife." Today they are happily married and run a candy-apple stand near Mason City, and have three little Mohicans named Patti, Maxine, and Lawrence.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lucas and to all of you who have discovered the pleasures of Marlboro and Marlboro's sister cigarette, non-filter Philip Morris, both made by the sponsor of this column.

WINDS OF THE AUTUMN leaves go flying again and starts to "buff and puff" in their direction. The machine certainly saves time, but what is going to happen to the old art of leaf raking?

Groups Set Weekend Party Pace

It's the last October weekend and everyone is wondering that one last party before frost really settles on the skin and the north wind starts nipping at the nose.

Straw hats and sun visors will be the style at the Gamma Delta House tonight at the FJI's and their dance at a "Harvest Party."

You'll be able to let off steam or assemble a lot of hot air this evening at the Lambda Chi Alpha "Safety Valve" Party. The dance will feature a surprise band.

Sigma Phi Delta will entertain tonight at the Civic Center from 7:30-12 at a chapter dance.

The American Legion Hall will be the scene this evening from 9-12 of the Alpha Phi Alpha dance.

Butterfield Hall, from 8-11 and 8 are gathering tonight at a hayride at Woodland Park.

"Village Ventures" a Bohemian party will transform the Delta Zeta house into a fall skelter Saturday evening from 9-12. Between dances the girls will paint murals and create their own decorations.

The women of Gamma Phi and their dates will go on a hayride Saturday from 8-12. Alpha Epsilon Phi is planning an informal dance from 8-12 Saturday evening. Zeta Tau Alpha will have a pledge dance at 8:30 Sunday evening from 8:30-11:30. Phi Mu Alpha Omicron will have a semi-formal dance and banquet honoring its initiates.

SWEATER DRESSES . . . the elongated cardigan in mohair wool yarn, buttoning from V-neck to hem.

The big news among the hand-knitting fans this fall is the full length sweater that has grown to be a dress. All you do is start out to knit a sweater and keep going.

Most popular are the bulky-sweater-dresses done in rib or cable knit, buttoning all the way down the front, and as simple to knit as the classic cardigan.

Prehistoric Wonderland

Campus Museum Features Music, Mummies, Monkeys

By JUDY VANDONGEN

A nation mummy-lovers, fossil-hunters and all students busily searching for term papers, the campus museum is the whole wide world from the walls.

colorful display of Oriental art and prehistoric Indian relics from Ingham County. In a special case lies a charming Bolivian mummy, a partly preserved eight year old girl. A special room shows Oriental art and writing.

Few people realize the extensive labor behind these scenes. Doctor H. H. Baker, museum curator, F. N. Elliott, curator of history and M. S. Maxwell, curator of anthropology, and their assistants do thorough research. They also built exhibits which will serve as visual stores for public enjoyment and study.

The new museum, now housed in the remodeled brick building which was once the campus library, was opened last March.

The entire building gives a glorious air impression. At the head of a large marble staircase towers a stately grandfather clock.

Deep, particularly appreciate the modern lounge, with one entire wall of murals and frosted glass doors and panels.

In strong contrast an old, hard-backed seat stands near the entrance. One can't help feeling that to sit in this heirloom from Spain would be impossible on time.

The wandering through the maze of halls lined with glass cases, one might be surprised to find a Tyrannosaurus Rex in the place of soft romantic music.

The power there is devoted to the development of animal life and culture of man in time sequence. There are fossils, the skulls of a young chimpanzee, a large cheetah's skull including the elephant's tail and spear.

A SENSATIONAL SALE!

Knapp's has never had one like it before, and that's saying a lot. Four of America's top (easily recognized) leaders in men's furnishings offered us their salesman's samples of fall merchandise at most unusual reductions.

This is the largest sale in quantity and broad selections of quality merchandise we have ever been privileged to offer in one single event. Naturally Salesman's Samples are limited in size ranges. Every man cannot find his size...for instance in men's dress shirts the sizes are 15 and 15 1/2 and in sport shirts the medium sizes prevail.

Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, thousands of shoppers have already taken advantage of the tremendous savings offered since this sale started yesterday. It's an important event, we think you'll agree.

Hundreds of items SALESMANS' SAMPLES of men's furnishings

There's no doubt about it! This is one of the most unusual offers we've ever been able to present and the values are really great! The listing below is just part of the many items you'll find in this big variety of this season's wanted styles.

Delts Topple Sig Phi Epsilon, 15-13

Delta Tau Delta scored touchdowns in the first and third periods and a safety in the second to eke out a 15-13 win over Sigma Phi Epsilon in intramural action Thursday night.

The entire DTD line collaborated to score the two point safety which proved to be the winning margin.

ATO 7, AK PSI 6
Defending fraternity champion Alpha Tau Omega squeaked to a 7-6 win over Alpha Kappa Psi on a pass from Frank Nettwald to Bob Huebner for TD and PAT with two minutes remaining in the first half.

AK Psi scored first on a pass from Karl Schwinger to Jim Jewell after they got the ball on ATO's seven-yard line as the result of a penalty.

The games were prevalent in Thursday's action as both Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Alpha Mu and Phi Kappa Psi and Zeta Beta Tau battled to 6-6 scores and Delta Upsilon and Alpha Gamma Rho fought to a scoreless deadlock.

Undefeated Booters Face Illini Saturday

Seek 9th Straight Victory

Kenney Juggles Starting Lineup

By LARRY GUSTIN

It's the big game of the year for Michigan State's high-flying soccer team as it meets powerful Illini Saturday at Champaign.

Both teams are unbeaten. The Spartans have three wins this season, and are unbeaten in 17 straight—ever since they came into the varsity program in 1956.

Since a deadlock with Chicago Navy Pier in the second game last season, they have won eight straight. The last six have been shutouts.

But all these records can be ended Saturday if the Spartans are too smug about their unbeaten career. Coach Gene Kenney's main worry is over-confidence, and he is quick to state that complacency will spell defeat against Illini.

The Illini have a 4-0-1 record. They tied Navy Pier, 1-1, and beat Indiana 3-2, Wheaton 2-1, MacMurray (Ill.) 9-0 and Pacific, 4-2.

The only common opponent was Purdue State defeated the Hoosiers, 4-0, last Saturday.

Kenney has juggled the starting lineup for the game. George Seppets, who normally plays right fullback, will replace Pete McKinnon at center half. McKinnon quit the team.

Aldo Longio will fill in at right fullback. Bruce Okine, who scored the only goal in a 1-0 win over Pitt two weeks ago, will replace John Southan at left wing. Kenney says he made the change "because of Okine's greater speed."

At Southan, who has seen limited action because of injuries this year, will start at center half. Southan's leg injuries have improved and he was looking good in scrimmages this week. Kenney said Southan is co-captain with Leo VanDer Horst and was top scorer last season.

A Big 10 trophy will be given to the top team in Big 10 action at the end of the year.

Teams eligible for the large trophy are Ohio State, Indiana, Purdue, Illinois and Michigan State.

Dale Long Undergoes Surgery for 4th Time

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Pitt baseball star Dale Long of the Chicago Cubs underwent surgery for the removal of a double cyst Thursday at Pittsfield General Hospital.

Long, 26, lives in neighboring North Adams, has had to undergo similar surgery after the baseball season the past four years.

BRUCE OKINE ... newcomers to starting lineup ...

Rigney Is Runner-up Murtagh Named Manager of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—As if there were any doubts about it, the voters in the Associated Press poll have made the selection official. Danny Murtagh is Major League manager of the year.

The man who piloted the Pittsburgh Pirates to second place in the National League race after they generally had been picked to finish seventh or eighth was a landslide choice of the sportswriters and sportscasters taking part in the balloting.

He received 149 votes, Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants in second place, who just closed his 25th season. Fred Jaquet of the National League Champion Milwaukee Braves and Casey Stengel of the Boston Red Sox were in third, fourth and fifth place, respectively.

Volleyball Practice

The Volleyball Club will hold a practice session at Jenson on Saturday at 9 a.m.

Champion New York Yankees coach received five nominations. Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox, four, and Jimmy Dykes, who finished the season as Cincinnati Redlegs manager, Harry Campbell of Kansas City, and Joe Gordon, who took over as pilot of the Cleveland Indians late in June, one each.

Rigney was the second choice on 71 ballots, Stengel on 22, Lopez 16, Murtagh 15, Gordon 11, Craft 3, Harry "Dookie" Lava-getto of the Washington Senators 2, and Bob Schefling of the Chicago Cubs, 1.

Murtagh has the added distinction of being the first manager to be chosen in a night which encompassed the managers in both seasons. Previous winners in the Associated Press poll received a manager for each season. Last year Lopez was the choice in the American League, and Harry, who gave Milwaukee its first World Series title, was the National League selection.

It was Murtagh's first full season as a major league manager. He has succeeded Boaz Bregman as Pittsburgh manager since Aug. 2, 1957, with the team in last place.

It was in a tie with the Chicago Cubs for seventh place when the season ended, and he had the tendency to park them for a higher position this year. There were just too many pitchers being the 4-10 record for the second baseman, who had been a coach with Pittsburgh for almost two years.

Dirty Play Denied By Indiana Coach

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Coach Phil Dickens said today he couldn't keep his tongue longer about Pittsburgh manager Rigney in Columbia, Ohio, his Indiana football team's 10-0 victory over the State last Saturday.

Dickens said his coaching line group of boys who were around, but who played clean—and with an amount of courage.

My staff and I have seen our game many times. Dickens said he had no basis for making any charges and imputing charges and imputing charges. But they're all lies and they'll be in the papers—and on both sides of the road.

Patterson Bout Sought By London Promoter

LONDON (AP)—Promoter Harry Levin said today he will try to get a fight next week with boxer Floyd Patterson, who has a 10-0 record in 11 professional fights.

Levin said he would like to see Patterson fight a 12-round fight with a contender.

'New' Gridders To Test Illinois

By HARDY CHRIST
State News Sports Editor

Coach Duffy Daugherty's experiment will get its first test under game conditions Saturday as the Spartan gridgers meet the University of Illinois in the latter's Homecoming Day.

A completely revamped Michigan State lineup will be put to the test with eight newcomers to the 11-man first team.

Only four of the starters against Purdue last weekend kept their positions, including captain and end Sam Williams, right guard Elison Kelly, halfback Dean Look and fullback Bob Berich.

Look, however, suffered a heavy-bruised back against the team's first opponent, the Spartans. Al Luplow will get the starting assignment in Look's absence.

Dean was banged up pretty good," said Daugherty, "but he was doing some running today (Thursday). His back should be healed by Saturday, and although we won't start him, he'll play."

As the Spartan coach announced his starting lineup for Saturday's game, he counted off six sophomores, three juniors and two seniors.

Juniors receiving the starting nod include center Don Wright, fullback Berich and quarterback Greg Montgomery. The seniors are Williams and Kelly.

Montgomery has taken the signal-calling job from senior Mike Panitch, who started in every game to date. Panitch, sustaining a sprained ankle against Purdue, won't be aboard the plane as the Spartans begin their flight to Champaign at 10 a.m. today.

Going into Saturday's fray, the Spartans' record stands at two wins, one loss and one tie.

FRED ARBANAS starting end

Illinois, possibly the Big 10's most underrated team this fall, has only won one game against three losses—but the Illini have dropped all three by a total of 12 points.

They lost to UCLA, 18-14, Duke, 15-13 and Ohio State, 19-13. Illinois stands even in Big 10 play with a victory and a loss. Its win was over Minnesota last weekend, 20-8.

Against the Broncos last week the Spartans were hampered by injuries as they were earlier in the Michigan AAU. In the Michigan AAU, Kennedy, the captain and the sparking of the team, was out with a pulled muscle as was his running mate and number two man on the team, Bob Lake.

Last week however, Kennedy took individual honors, running the four-mile course in 19:57.3, an exceptional time when you consider the fact that a runner very seldom gets below 20 minutes so early in the season.

The Spartans will have to be good to beat Penn State, for they are back with one of their stronger outfits and already have beaten Pittsburgh, Navy and Cornell.

With a triangular meet with Notre Dame and Wisconsin on Saturday, Nov. 1, coming up, the barrier squad needs a win at Penn State Saturday to prepare them for the rest of the season and the upcoming NCAA meet in late November.

Lions Unbeaten

Penn State Is Obstacle For Spartan Harriers

By DARWIN BENNETT

The Michigan State cross country team will be after its first win of the 1958 season this Saturday when it travels to University Park, Pa., to face Penn State.

After last week's heart-breaking 27-30 loss to Western Michigan, the Spartan harriers will be attempting to get back on the winning track by beating the Lions on their home course which is five miles instead of the more traditional four IC4A regulation courses of five miles and Penn State is a member of the IC4A.

In the second dual meet of the season, Capt. Freddy Kennedy will head an eight-man squad, composed of Bob Lake, Bill Reynolds, Tony Smith, Jack Crossell, Ken Wheeler, Jim Horan and George Tatu, as the harriers attempt to regain the form that has marked cross country teams over the years at State.

Fresh to Scrimmage Varsity Subs at 4:30

Coaches Gordon Serr and Carl Sydnor will put their freshmen through a series of scrimmages today with varsity men who failed to make the starting squad to Illinois for Sunday's game.

The scrimmage will be at the home practice field at 4:30.

Marshall in the Middle Colt-Redskin Feud Resumes Sunday

BALTIMORE (AP)—Feeling for Sunday's football game between the Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins needed building up as much as Marilyn Monroe.

But it's steaming hotter than ever because of George Preston Marshall, owner of the Redskins. The Colts and their fans will be playing him.

Marshall riled up the squad at a luncheon Monday by blowing his stack at Madison "Buzz" Nutter, the Colt center on offense. Nutter kidded Marshall about not receiving fare home when the Redskins cut him in 1952.

Marshall took the rib seriously and called Nutter a liar. The exchange has been given a lot of space in Baltimore newspapers and the fans have talked of nothing else since.

They've almost stopped mentioning that the Colts are undefeated in the first four games of the National Football League (NFL). They just want to beat Marshall, now.

The Baltimore-Washington rivalry always has been hot, from the Colt side anyway. The cities are only 40 miles apart.

Some Baltimoreans resented Marshall demanding $150,000 in territorial tribute to admit Baltimore to the NFL in 1950.

Colt fans also objected when Marshall charged them the same price for every seat in the Washington stadium for last year's game.

He boasted it was the highest total game for any sports event ever held in Washington.

With Boston Celtics Conley Signs to Play Basketball

BOSTON (AP)—Gene Conley, in apparent defiance of his Milwaukee baseball agreement, Thursday signed a contract with the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn.

The salary was not disclosed.

Coach Red Auerbach said the lithe 6-7 athlete will alternate between center and forward for the Celtics Saturday night in their league opener at New York against the Knicks.

In exhibition games, Conley has been alternating at jumping center with Bill Russell and will continue to do so.

A week ago, General Manager John Quinn of the Braves said Conley hadn't asked permission to play basketball and that if he did he would not grant it.

Quinn added that playing with the Celtics would be contrary to the club's wishes and in violation of the standard players contract which forbids participation in any other sport.

Bothered by a sure arm most of the 1953 season, the big Braves pitcher decided to try basketball to get a change and take his mind off a poor season.

Conley had a tryout with the Celtics briefly in the 1952-53 campaign.

Narayan Does Work On Campus

MSU Press Prints Novels

"Wholly delightful," says the New York Times, "A writer of Gogol's stature," the New Yorker proclaimed.

These are just a few of the superlative phrases that are used to describe R. K. Narayan of Mysore, South India, author of five novels which have been printed in the U. S. by the MSU Press.

Narayan came to the U. S. to continue work on his latest book, a biography of President Magasaysay, late president of the Philippines, for the MSU Press. During his stay at MSU he plans to meet with students of the Honors College.

Although a native of India, all of Narayan's books are written in English. Many of them have been translated into other languages.

Narayan books printed by the MSU Press include "The Financial Expert," "Swami and Friends," "Waiting for the Mahatma," and "The Painter of Madurai."

His latest book "The Guide" was published last March by the Viking Press in New York. It was well reviewed by New York reviewers.

The biography of Magasaysay will be his first non-fiction book. All of the others were novels which took place in Madurai, an imaginary South Indian town.

Writing he describes as "a pleasant job." The actual work of writing is most important, he says. To keep on with his work he must write approximately 200 words a day.

He will be at MSU until the end of the year when he will leave for New York. This is his first visit to the campus since 1956.

3 Residents Attend Ohio Music Convo

Three residents of Lansing and East Lansing will participate in the ninth annual conference of the National Association for Music Therapy to be held Oct. 30-Nov. 1 at the Netherlands Hilton Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. Roy Underwood, professor and director of music in the division of fine arts, MSU, is immediate past president of the NAMT and will preside at an evening general session.

Robert Unkefer, assistant professor of music and psychology at MSU, is the first vice president and general chairman of NAMT.

Mrs. Albert Bradford of 2131 Delta River Dr., Lansing, will read a paper on "Volunteer Music Therapy in Michigan" during a general session. Mrs. Bradford is state chairman of the Music in Hospitals and Michigan Federation of Music Clubs.

The NAMT, founded in 1930, is devoted to the progressive development of the uses of music as a therapeutic tool for helping the handicapped and persons suffering from various illnesses, including mental illness, to better health.

Travel Film to Show Top Aviation Secrets

"Blackout in the Blue—Supersonic Age" is the title of the lecture-film to be narrated by John Goddard Saturday in the Aud. The program, a feature of MSU's World Travel Series, will begin at 8 p.m.

During his 11 years as a professional explorer, John Goddard has traveled through and explored some 33 countries. His travels on land, sea and in the air total over 300,000 miles, equivalent to over 14 times around the world.

He has sailed formidable seas in Europe and America; and has traversed and collected under sea life in the Pacific, Atlantic, Caribbean, Mediterranean, Adriatic and Red seas.

"Blackout in the Blue—Supersonic Age" is a new film which brings to the screen for the first time top secret information about America's Super-sonic Age.

John Goddard had the full cooperation of the Air Force, the Strategic Air Command and the Navy in producing this film which portrays the most exciting activities in the past of modern aviation.

Red Critic Wins Nobel Prize for Banned Book

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The Nobel Prize for literature was awarded Thursday to Boris Pasternak, a Soviet writer whose "Doctor Zhivago" criticizes communism. This book, banned in Russia and printed abroad over Soviet objection, is the first novel of the 69-year-old Russian poet.

The 18 members of the Royal Swedish Academy made the Nobel award, worth $41,420.

The Academy notified both Pasternak and Nikolai Vinov, Soviet charge d'affaires in Stockholm, of the award decision.

The book's hero is Yuri Andreyevich Zhivago, a wealthy doctor and writer. The central figure tells of what he considers the loss of personal and mass freedom and the tragedy of Russia under communism and collectivization.

The novel's characters talk like this:

"The great majority of us are required to live a life of constant, systematic duplicity. Your health is bound to be affected if, day after day, you say the opposite of what you feel, if you grovel before what you dislike and rejoice at what brings you nothing but misfortune."

Zhivago says in the concluding pages that freedom will return to the Russians.
