Admen work awfully short hours

A lot of us in advertising just can't seem to switch off our enthusiasm when the clock hits five. But our hours go by with astonishing suddenness when we're wrapped up in an intriguing problem. Which is almost always. (Oh, we've got our share of clock watchers, like every business. But their number is dwindling, because people don't pay attention to their ads. That's fine with us.) If you're a little bit interested in working very, very hard to develop an effective piece of advertising, drop us a line. Any time. We'll be happy to answer, no matter how late we have to stay.

Lions Pull Out A Real Plum

By JIM WALLINGTON

It's easy to imagine Detroit Lion coach
George Wilson in the following situation after trading off former Spartan Jim Ninowski for trading off former Spartan Jim Ninowski for the National Football League's leading quarterthe National Football League's leading quarterback: Big George Wilson sat in the trading corner, Trying to make a trade.

He put in his thumb And pulled out Milt Plum, And said "What a good trader am I."

Sounds a little corny. However, the Detroit Lions pulled off a trade which could carry them past the runner-up spot they have held two seasons in a row and into the title game

Not only did the Lions as a team gain from the swap, but a former Michigan State All-America end, Sam Williams, has his pro foothall future brightened, although he was not directly involved in the trade with the Cleveland

The Lions benefited because they have obtained a consistent tosser in Milt Plum who led the NFL in several categories last year. He completed 58.6 per cent of his tosses and 18 for touchdowns. Ninowski and Earl

So Detroit will have an accurate passer throwing to such sure-handed receivers as Jim . Gibbons, Gail Cogdill and Terry Barr.

Sammy Williams, who played here last in 1958 when he was selected All-America end was designated by Wilson to fill the huge gap left in the defensive line by Bill Glass who went to Cleveland along with Ninowski and Hopalong Cassady.

"We hated to give up Glass," Wilson said,
"but Sam Williams did a good job at defensive end late in the season. We don't know whether he can take over. That's something we'll have to find out.'

Williams has been mainly on the sidelines since the Lions obtained him from the Los Angeles Rams over two years ago.

Ninowski will be hurting in Cleveland because when he left Cleveland two summers Paul Brown insisted that Ninowski would never be a top-notch pro quarterback.

When Ninowski, who succeeded Morrall as MSU's starting quarterback in 1957, learned of the trade last week he said,"Who wants to go back there."

Cleveland fans will probably be on his back because Brown shattered any confidence they might have had in Ninowski. Cleveland fans also resent losing Plum.

EDUCATIONAL TV: ITS CAUSE

It has been said that television allots no desirable viewing hours to educational and intellectual programs. This is simply not so. For instance, you can see "The Kant and Hegel Hour" every day at 4 a.m. This excellent show is followed at 5 a.m. by "Kierkegnard Can Be Fun." For such lazy scamps as he abed beyond that hour, there is a splendid program on Sunday

So much for the myth that TV gives no prime time to educa tional programs. Now let us deflate another canard; that TV is not eager to inject intellectual content in all its programs If you have sat, as I have sat, with a television planning board, you would know that the opposite is true. I was privileged recently to witness a meeting of two of TV's topmost

"Binkie," said Binkie to Binkie, "if there is one thing am bound and determined, it's that we're going to have intellectual content in next season's programs.

"Right!" replied Binkie. "So let us put on our thinking caps and go to work." "I forgot my thinking cap in Westport," said Binkie, "but cigarette that lets you settle back and get comfortable?" 'I said Marlboro," answered Binkie. "Weren't you listening?

What is better than a Marlboro?" 'A Marlboro and a match," replied Binkie, "Got one?" Binkie had, and so they lit their good Marlboros and settled back and got conifortable and proceeded to cerebrate.

Right!" said Binkie. "Something offbeat.

"Or about glass blowers," said Binkie.

That's the word-offbeat," said Binkie They smoked and cerebrated. You know," said Binkie, "there has never been a series

A Controy, a deep set siver with I law degree plas an M. D.

a cliché situation - provided, of course, it's offbeat. Right!" said Binkie. "So let's say we do a series about a guy who's a family man with a whole bunch of lovable kids who play merry pranks on him.'

Yeah, and he's also a cowboy," said Binkie And a deep sea direr," said Binkie.
