

OVER THERE

MOTOR TRUCK DOING SERVICE FOR THE AMERICANS BACK OF THE LINES—The roads in France in the fall and winter are usually in bad condition, but the big motor trucks employed by the United States army can negotiate most of them.

(Photograph copyright, 1917, by the Committee on Public Information.)

BUILDING MORE BAKE OVENS AT THE AMERICAN CAMP IN FRANCE—The boys appear, from this picture, to be in good spirits and indications are that they are well housed and fed.

(Photograph by the International Film Service)