

THE MORRO CASTLE DISASTER: DEATH ON A FLOATING INFERNO

LIVING AND DEAD BROUGHT TO SHORE IN THE SMOLDERING MORRO CASTLE—Surviving members of the crew in the bow of the flame-swept liner aboard which scores died eight miles from the Jersey coast. The ill-fated vessel here was being towed to Asbury Park. (Tribune photo)

OTHER PICTURES OF THE MORRO CASTLE DISASTER WILL BE FOUND ON PAGES 6, 7, AND 8.