

SKIING OVER ROOFTOPS on Mount Rainier, Washington. At the lower left is seen the tunnel, through the snow to a buried cabin. (Acme photo.)

FOUR of its five occupants were killed when this British army bomber crashed on Wexcombe Down, England. (Associated Press photo.)

THE FORMER GERMAN CROWN PRINCE takes a wreath to the funeral of a Nazi victim of the recent Berlin riots. (Associated Press photo.)

THE VEIL worn by Miss Florence Crane of Chicago at her recent wedding to William A. Robinson of New York was once the property of Empress Elizabeth of Austria. (Associated Press photo.)

THIS EIGHTY-FOUR AND ONE-HALF POUND SAILFISH was landed at Miami Beach, Fla., by Forbes W. Morgan of New York (at left), uncle of President-elect Roosevelt. (Acme photo.)

A NEWLY DEVELOPED AIR BRAKE makes 150-car freight trains, operating at passenger-train speed, as easily handled as a small auto. This train, whose cars are among the 1,000 already equipped with the new brakes, is hauled by a locomotive with sixteen driving wheels.

$1 WILL BE PAID for the best caption for this picture—Roto Editor.