

IN THE LIMELIGHT

The latest thing introduced by Nathalie Gourtchakoff, the famous Russian painter, is the picture of a figure or head painted directly on the face. This is completely superseding the beauty patch.

SOMETHING NEWER THAN A PATCH

UNDERWOOD and UNDERWOOD PHOTO

A TERRIBLE SNAPSHOT FROM OUTSIDE MEXICO CITY

"THE SEA-GREEN INCORRUPTIBLE"

Three Mexicans about to be shot "at sunrise against a wall." Only one of the three has availed himself of the privilege of being blindfolded. The officer on the right drops his sword as a signal.

AS FAR APART AS THE POLES

Sir Ernest Shackleton as he looks ready to start on his 1914 Imperial Trans-antarctic Expedition, and as he will look in 8 months.

PURVEYOR OF SWEET GIRLS to the AMERICAN PUBLIC

Charles Dana Gibson's name and signature are well known from Los Angeles to Portland, Me., thanks to magazine covers, but he is the hardest man in the world to get a photograph of.

GIRL, 14, SPEAKS 5 LANGUAGES

Krassavin Treasa, of Woolwich, Eng., recently served in court as an interpreter.

PHOTO BY PAUL THOMPSON

This defiant statue of Maximilien Robespierre, the "sea-green incorruptible" of Carlyle's "Revolution," has recently been erected in Paris.

GRACE GEORGE'S DOUBLE

La Marquise de Pracomtal, one of the best known hostesses of Parisian society, bears a marked resemblance to the American actress.

A VALUABLE ARMFUL

These five Pekinese spaniels are worth $25,000.

DOESN'T SHE DESERVE A MEDAL?

UNDERWOOD and UNDERWOOD PHOTO

Mme. Malot, mother of the largest family in France, has petitioned Pres. Poincare for a Legion of Honor medal in consideration of having borne and raised 22 children. The oldest is 24 years and the youngest 14 months.