

High Moments in the News of 1937

THE MEMORIAL DAY BATTLE at South Chicago when police repulsed a C. I. O. attempt to invade a steel plant. Ten persons were fatally injured.

THE MOST FAMOUS ROMANCE OF MODERN TIMES—An official wedding picture of the duke of Windsor and Mrs. Wallis Warfield taken at Monts, France, on June 3.

THE JAPANESE INVASION OF CHINA—Scene of frightfulness was Shanghai, where air bombs created this scene of death and destruction.

A STAR SET IN HOLLYWOOD with the death in June of Jean Harlow.

BECAUSE EDWARD VIII. HAD ABDICATED, the archbishop of Canterbury on May 12 placed the scepter in the hand of King George VI. of England. At left: Queen Elizabeth.

WAR IN SPAIN—Rebel stretcher bearers rescue wounded in the outskirts of Madrid.

AIR TRAGEDY—On May 6 the dirigible Hindenburg burned at Lakehurst, N. J. Killed were thirty-three passengers and members of the crew.

INTO THE SILENCES OF THE PACIFIC flew Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan. No trace of them has since been found.

FOUR HUNDRED TWENTY-SEVEN DIED, most of them children, in a gas explosion which wrecked the consolidated school at New London, Tex., on March 18.

THE MASSACRE ON THE HIGHWAYS—In this symbolic scene a nephew consoled a New York woman, Mrs. Edward Roth, widowed by an automobile.

JANUARY FLOODS took a heavy toll in life and property in the Ohio and Mississippi river valleys. In Cincinnati water rose to these roofs.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT tried unsuccessfully to pack the Supreme court. This official picture was made following the appointment of Senator Hugo L. Black. Front: Sutherland, McReynolds, Chief Justice Hughes, Brandeis, Butler. Rear: Cardozo, Stone, Roberts, Black.

AN ENGLISH BID FOR THE AMERICA'S CUP WAS DEFEATED in August, Harold Vanderbilt's Ranger sailing to four straight victories over T. O. M. Sopwith's Endeavour II. Ranger here leads in one of the races.