

"And Berry Finishes are Best for the Kitchen too."

You can point with pride to any room finished with Berry Brothers' varnishes or enamels. From kitchen to guest room these celebrated finishes impart an enduring beauty that may be varied to harmonize with any desired scheme of decoration.

The high cost of labor makes it more important than ever to select varnishes or enamels of known quality.

Labor is the chief item of expense, and it costs no more to apply finishes that wear indefinitely than the kinds that go shabby the first year. The difference in the price per gallon is a mere trifle.

Liquid Granite Floor Varnish, Luxeberry Enamels, Luxeberry Wood Finishes and Luxeberry Wall Finishes are a few of the many "Berry" brands that insure beauty, durability and economy.
