MISPLACED FACES OF MOVIE STARS

SET NO. 12

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star who is an accomplished instrumentalist. (Chicagoans have seen her at Balaban & Katz Theaters.) The eyes and nose are those of a star whose last name is that of an Eastern town. The mouth and chin are those of a star in whose first name the same vowel appears more than once.

★ ★ ★

CLUE: The forehead is that of a petite Scotch lassie. (Chicagoans have seen her at Balaban & Katz Theaters.) The eyes and nose are those of a star who is 5 ft. 5 in. tall. The mouth and chin are those of a star whose first and last names contain the same number of vowels.

★ ★ ★

CLUE: The forehead is that of a dark-haired star whose eyes are blue. (Chicagoans have seen her at Balaban & Katz Theaters.) The eyes and nose are those of a star, one of whose names is also a man's name. The mouth and chin are those of a star, the initials of whose first and last names are the same.

NOTICE TO ENTRANTS:

Entries Must Be in Not Later Than
Midnight Monday, January 20th

HERE is Set No. 12—the final set of the Chicago Tribune's "Misplaced Faces of Movie Stars." Cut out, assemble and name the movie stars whose pictures are printed here. Then send them in, together with the 11 sets of pictures previously published. Each entry must consist of 36 complete portraits.

For your convenience, an entry coupon is printed below. Use this or write your name and address on a separate sheet of paper.

All entries must be in not later than midnight Monday, January 20th. Address your entry to "Misplaced Faces," Chicago Tribune, Postoffice Box 1539, Chicago, Illinois. Watch the Sunday Tribune for announcement of winners.

THE RULES:

WHO CAN ENTER: Every man, woman, boy and girl is eligible, regardless of residence, excepting employees of the Chicago Tribune, employees of Balaban & Katz theaters and members of their families.

WHAT TO DO: The pictures must be cut apart, assembled and pasted together. Below each picture must be written the name of the star. You may trim off rough edges if you wish to make perfect rectangular pictures. Three pictures have appeared each Sunday in the Chicago Sunday Tribune for 12 Sundays—a total of 36 pictures. Each set of three pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits.

WHERE TO SEND ENTRIES: DO NOT send in pictures one at a time. Hold all pictures until you have the complete set of 36. Then send them to "Misplaced Faces," Chicago Tribune, Post Office Box 1539, Chicago, Illinois. No entry will be returned. All entries must be in by midnight Monday, January 20th. Each entry must be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Post Office Department.

THE PRIZES: The Chicago Tribune will pay 428 cash prizes totaling $10,000 to the persons who send in the nearest correctly solved and neatest complete sets of pictures in accordance with these rules. See prize list below. You do not necessarily have to solve each of the 36 pictures correctly to win. Prizes will be paid to the persons whose entries rank highest. Elaborate entries are not necessary. Just make your entry simple and neat.

JUDGING: Entries will be judged by a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept this committee's decision as final. Accuracy in assembling and naming the pictures, and neatness of entry will be the sole determining factors. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be paid.

NOTHING TO BUY: It is not necessary to buy the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the pictures. The Tribune may be examined at any of its offices or at public libraries free of charge.
