MISS B. L. RACINE, WIS.
Miss L. is studious and inclined to be introspective. She has an inquiring mind and a strong artistic sense, but she has not enough aggressiveness to be a business leader. She has much sweetness and sympathy in her makeup and cannot bear to hurt people under any circumstances.

MISS B. U. ZANESVILLE, O.
Miss U. is a forceful person, prizing firmness just a shade too much. She is keen minded, strong willed, and extremely practical, but she is undemonstrative and therefore misunderstood. She has talent and ambition and is tenacious enough to reach her goal.

MISS R. A. CHICAGO.
Delicacy and refinement are decidedly evident here. Miss A. has great charm, combining the feminine characteristics of kindness, tact, and understanding, with good judgment and self-reliance. She wins confidences and respects them.

MISS K. W. DOWAGIAC, MICH.
Miss W. is a person of sweetness and strength. She is gentle, fair minded, and generous, but she also has excellent reasoning power and an acquisitive mind. She has poise and serenity, a quiet sense of humor, and is a most restful person.

MISS M. S. PERU, IND.
Reserve, moderation, and calmness probably rule Miss S.'s life. She likes harmony and a peaceful atmosphere; opposition depresses her. She is kind and lenient with her friends and senses qualities and conditions that surround her, making her an intuitive, understanding person.

MISS J. G. JACKSON, MICH.
In this winning face are expressed all those qualities of wholesome youth—a happy disposition, imagination, vitality, sociability, and a facile mind. Miss G. likes people and is liked by them. She has considerable firmness of character, but not enough continuity of purpose. She likes diversions and excitement.

MISS E. B. DEFIANCE, O.
Miss B. has the youthful quality of light heartedness, but she has a mature mind and a good perspective. She is studious, gentle, deliberate, and unprejudiced, fond of people and quite tolerant of their faults.

MISS M. A. CENTRALIA, ILL.
Miss A. seeks to please and understand others, and her winning manner draws friends. Courtesy and hospitality are instinctive with her, and she finds much pleasure in her social life. She is not vivid, but she has sterling qualities, particularly integrity and the faculty of devotion.

MISS M. H. OTTUMWA, IA.
Kindness, humor, and fair-mindedness are evident in this face. Miss H. is discriminating about people and things, but she is fair in pronouncing judgment. She is conscientious and steadfast, with high ideals of loyalty.

MISS M. V. SPRINGFIELD, ILL.
This vivid face reflects a vivid personality. Miss V. has physical vitality and mental ability much above the average, and considerable force of character. She is a born leader, having the three essential qualities for leadership, a level head, energy, and determination.
