

Bunny Boy

AND HIS PLAYMATES

PRIZE Cut-Outs

Girls! Boys! $5,000⁰⁰ In Cash Prizes

FOR DRESSING BUNNY CUT-OUTS!

GIRLS and Boys! Easter is coming! Can you dress "Bunny Boy and His Playmates" for Easter? 490 big cash prizes will be paid for the best dressed sets.

Each Sunday, for twelve Sundays, the Tribune will print a new Bunny cut-out. With each Bunny there will be THREE outfits or costumes. Simply pick out the ONE you think looks best and put it on the Bunny. That's all you have to do.

You may paste or pin on the costumes, or paste the dressed Bunnies in scrap books or in any simple form. Remember, simplicity is best. Parents are allowed to help children.

Each entry must consist of the twelve Bunnies. Each Bunny must be dressed in the ONE costume you think looks best.

NOTICE: DO NOT SEND IN ONE AT A TIME! Save until you have all twelve. Then send to "Bunnies," Post Office Box 1539, Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Ill. Entries must be in not later than midnight Easter Sunday.

The Chicago Tribune will pay $5,000 in cash prizes for the best dressed and neatest entries. (See Prize List.) Any boy or girl anywhere may compete except children of Tribune employees. It's free! You do not even have to buy the Tribune. You may copy or trace the cut-outs from the Tribune at our offices or Public Libraries. In case of ties, duplicate prizes will be paid.

Dress "Bunny Boy" printed here. Then get "Honey Bunny" next Sunday. 490 children must win!
