The GREAT SUNDAY TRIBUNE

Gives You the World's Greatest Reading on the Day

when you have lots of time to read!

THE news of six continents and seven seas—keen editorial comment on local, national and international affairs—sporting and automobile gossip—society—colored comics that are funny—and the finest rotogravure and colorotogravure section in the world—

These are only part of the rich collection of reading matter that the Chicago Tribune brings to you every Sunday!

Fiction by world-famed authors—latest fashions from New York and Paris—motion picture, stage and musical criticism by Chicago's best critics—accurate financial reports and illuminating comment—the news of building, builders and real estate—

These also help make your Sunday Tribune the greatest reading value in existence—a value that only the tremendous resources and world-wide organization of the Chicago Tribune can give you. Don't miss it—today or any Sunday. Read everything in your

Chicago Sunday Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

"MISS MELINDA"

MUSIC BY BROOKE JOHNS

LYRICS BY LOUIS McDERMOTT

BROOKE JOHNS

COPYRIGHT BY BROOKE JOHNS & LOUIS McDERMOTT 1929