BENTISTS CLAIM FIRST PLACE IN YOUTH MOVEMENT

Chicago, Oct. 21 - A number of Chicago dentists have taken a leading part in an anti-youth movement here, according to an article in the Chicago Daily Tribune. The dentists, who have been active in the movement for some time, are reported to have formed a group to prevent the spread of young people's dental decay. The group plans to distribute leaflets to schools and other places where young people congregate. (Teeth First)
